caronycteris is an extinct genus of microchiropteran (echolocating) bat that lived in the early Eocene, approximately 52.2 million years ago, making it the earliest known definitive bat. Four exceptionally preserved specimens, among the best preserved bat fossils, are known from the Green River Formation of North America. There is only one thoroughly described species of bat in the genus, I. index, although fragmentary material from France has also been tentatively placed within Icaronycteris as the second species I. menui. I. sigei is based on well-preserved fragments of dentaries and lower teeth found in Western India.

Lola: FIRESTORM STYLE NINJA ART: BAJADASAURUS!

Lola fired a wave of fire and it formed into the newly discovered dinosaurs from 140 million years ago: Bajadasaurus!

---

Bajadasaurus is a genus of sauropod dinosaur from the Early Cretaceous epoch (late Berriasian to Valanginian stages) of northern Patagonia, Argentina. It was first described in 2019 based on a single specimen found in 2010 that includes a largely complete skull and parts of the neck. The only species is Bajadasaurus pronuspinax. The genus is classified as a member of the Dicraeosauridae, a group of comparatively small and short-necked sauropods that lived from the Early or Middle Jurassic to the end of the Early Cretaceous.

Bajadasaurus sported bifurcated, extremely elongated neural spines extending from the neck vertebrae. Similar elongated spines are known from the closely related and more completely known Amargasaurus. Various possible functions have been proposed for these spines in Amargasaurus, with the 2019 description of Bajadasaurus suggesting that they could have served as passive defense against predators in both genera. The skull was gracile and equipped with around 44 teeth that were pencil-shaped and restricted to the front of the jaws. The eye openings of Bajadasaurus were exposed in top view of the skull, possibly allowing the animal to look forwards while feeding. Bajadasaurus was discovered in sedimentary rocks of the Bajada Colorada Formation, and its environment resembled a braided river system. It shared its environment with other dinosaurs including the sauropod Leinkupal and different theropods.

Lily: OCEAN STYLE NINJA ART: MOSASAURUS!

Lily fired a wave of water and it formed into the marine reptile from 87 million years ago: Mosasaurus!

Mosasaurus (/ˌmoʊzəˈsɔːrəs/; "lizard of the Meuse River") is the type genus of the mosasaurs, an extinct group of aquatic squamate reptiles. The genus lived from about 82 to 66 million years ago during the Campanian and Maastrichtian stages of the Late Cretaceous. The earliest fossils known to science were found as skulls in a chalk quarry near the Dutch city of Maastricht in the late 1700s, which were initially thought to have been the bones of crocodiles or whales. One particular skull discovered at around 1780, and which was seized during the French Revolutionary Wars for its scientific value and transported to Paris, was famously nicknamed the "great animal of Maastricht". In 1808, naturalist Georges Cuvier concluded that it belonged to a giant marine lizard with similarities to monitor lizards but otherwise unlike any animal known today. This concept was revolutionary at the time and helped support the then-developing ideas of extinction. However, Cuvier did not designate a scientific name for the new animal; this task was completed by William Daniel Conybeare in 1822 when he named it Mosasaurus in reference to its origin in fossil deposits near the Meuse River. The relationships between Mosasaurus and modern reptiles are controversial and scientists continue to debate whether its closest living relatives are monitor lizards or snakes.

Traditional interpretations have estimated the maximum length of Mosasaurus to be up to 17.6 meters (58 ft), making it one of the largest mosasaur genera. Its skull, which was either broad or slender depending on the species, was equipped with robust jaws capable of swinging back and forth and strong muscles capable of powerful bites using dozens of large teeth designed for cutting prey. Its tail was long and ended in a paddle-like fluke that bent downwards. Mosasaurus was a predator that had excellent vision to compensate for its poor sense of smell, and a high metabolic rate that suggests it was warm-blooded, an adaptation found in other mosasaurs but no other squamates. The classification of Mosasaurus was historically problematic due to an unclear diagnosis of the type specimen. As a result, over fifty different species have been attributed to the genus in the past. A rediagnosis of the type specimen in 2017 helped resolve the taxonomy issue and confirmed at least five species to be within the genus and another five species still nominally classified within Mosasaurus are planned to be reassessed in a future study. Each species was variable with unique anatomical features differentiating them from the robustly-built M. hoffmannii to the slender and serpentine M. lemonnieri.

Fossil evidence suggests that Mosasaurus inhabited much of the Atlantic Ocean and the seaways adjacent to it. Continents that have recovered Mosasaurus fossils include North America, South America, Europe, Africa, Western Asia, and Antarctica. This distribution encompassed a wide range of oceanic climates including tropical, subtropical, temperate, and subpolar climates. Mosasaurus was a common large predator in these oceans and a dominant genus positioned at the top of the food chain. Scientists believe that its diet would have included virtually anything; it likely preyed on bony fish, sharks, cephalopods, birds, and other marine reptiles including sea turtles and other mosasaurs. It likely preferred to hunt in open water near the surface. From an ecological standpoint, Mosasaurus probably had a profound impact in the structuring of marine ecosystems; its arrival in some locations such as the Western Interior Seaway in North America has been marked with a complete turnover of faunal assemblages and diversity. Mosasaurus faced competition with other large predatory mosasaurs such as Prognathodon and Tylosaurus-which are known to feed on similar prey-though they were able to coexist in the same ecosystems through niche partitioning. There were conflicts among them, as an attack on Mosasaurus by Tylosaurus has been documented. Several discovered fossils illustrated deliberate attacks on Mosasaurus individuals by another of the same species. Infighting likely took place in the form of snout grappling, similarly seen in modern crocodiles today.

Mamenchisaurus (/mɑːˈmɛntʃiˈsɔːrəs/ mah-MUN-chi-SAWR-əs, or spelling pronunciation /məˌmɛntʃiˈsɔːrəs/) is a genus of sauropod dinosaur including several species, known for their remarkably long necks[3] which made up half the total body length. It is known from numerous species which ranged in time from 160 to 145 million years ago, from the Oxfordian age of late Jurassic Period in China. The largest species, which according to Gregory S. Paul was M. sinocanadorum, may have reached 35 m (115 ft) in length and possibly weighed 50-80 tonnes (55-88 short tons).

Rainbow Dash: WIND STYLE NINJA ART: HAAST'S EAGLE!

Rainbow Dash fired a wave of wind and it formed into the one of the ancestral eagles from 1.8 million to 700,000 years ago: The Haast's Eagle!

---

The Haast's eagle (Hieraaetus moorei, synonym Harpagornis moorei) is an extinct species of eagle that once lived in the South Island of New Zealand, commonly accepted to be the pouakai of Maori legend. The species was the largest eagle known to have existed, with an estimated weight of 15 kilograms (33 lb) nearly double that of the Harpy eagle at 9 kilograms (20 lb). Its massive size is explained as an evolutionary response to the size of its prey, the flightless moa, the largest of which could weigh 230 kg (510 lb). Haast's eagle became extinct around 1400, after the moa were hunted to extinction by the first Māori.

Shrek: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: DEINOSUCHUS!

Shrek fired a wave of water and it formed into one of the first crocodiles from 82 million years ago: Deinosuchus!

---

Deinosuchus (/ˌdaɪnəˈsjuːkəs/) is an extinct genus of crocodilian related to the modern alligator that lived 82 to 73 million years ago (Ma), during the late Cretaceous period. The name translates as "terrible crocodile" and is derived from the Greek deinos (δεινός), "terrible", and soukhos (σοῦχος), "crocodile". The first remains were discovered in North Carolina (United States) in the 1850s; the genus was named and described in 1909. Additional fragments were discovered in the 1940s and were later incorporated into an influential, though inaccurate, skull reconstruction at the American Museum of Natural History. Knowledge of Deinosuchus remains incomplete, but better cranial material found in recent years has expanded scientific understanding of this massive predator.

Although Deinosuchus was far larger than any modern crocodile or alligator, with the largest adults measuring 12 meters (39 ft) in total length, its overall appearance was fairly similar to its smaller relatives. It had large, robust teeth built for crushing, and its back was covered with thick hemispherical osteoderms. One study indicated Deinosuchus may have lived for up to 50 years, growing at a rate similar to that of modern crocodilians, but maintaining this growth over a much longer time.

Deinosuchus fossils have been described from 10 U.S. states, including Texas, Montana, and many along the East Coast. Fossils have also been found in northern Mexico. It lived on both sides of the Western Interior Seaway, and was an opportunistic apex predator in the coastal regions of eastern North America. Deinosuchus reached its largest size in its western habitat, but the eastern populations were far more abundant. Opinion remains divided as to whether these two populations represent separate species. Deinosuchus was probably capable of killing and eating large dinosaurs. It may have also fed upon sea turtles, fish, and other aquatic and terrestrial prey.

Lincoln: ICE STYLE NINJA ART: GORGOSAURUS!

Lincoln fired a wave of ice and it formed into the Theropod from 76.6 million years ago: Gorgosaurus!

---

Gorgosaurus (/ˌɡɔːrɡəˈsɔːrəs/ GOR-gə-SOR-əs; meaning "dreadful lizard") is a genus of tyrannosaurid theropod dinosaur that lived in western North America during the Late Cretaceous Period (Campanian), between about 76.6 and 75.1 million years ago. Fossil remains have been found in the Canadian province of Alberta and possibly the U.S. state of Montana. Paleontologists recognize only the type species, G. libratus, although other species have been erroneously referred to the genus.

Like most known tyrannosaurids, Gorgosaurus was a bipedal predator weighing more than two metric tons as an adult; dozens of large, sharp teeth lined its jaws, while its two-fingered forelimbs were comparatively small. Gorgosaurus was most closely related to Albertosaurus, and more distantly related to the larger Tyrannosaurus. Gorgosaurus and Albertosaurus are extremely similar, distinguished mainly by subtle differences in the teeth and skull bones. Some experts consider G. libratus to be a species of Albertosaurus; this would make Gorgosaurus a junior synonym of that genus.

Gorgosaurus lived in a lush floodplain environment along the edge of an inland sea. It was an apex predator, preying upon abundant ceratopsids and hadrosaurs. In some areas, Gorgosaurus coexisted with another tyrannosaurid, Daspletosaurus. Although these animals were roughly the same size, there is some evidence of niche differentiation between the two. Gorgosaurus is the best-represented tyrannosaurid in the fossil record, known from dozens of specimens. These plentiful remains have allowed scientists to investigate its ontogeny, life history and other aspects of its biology.

Scutosaurus ("Shield lizard") was a genus of parareptiles. It was an armor-covered pareiasaur that lived around 265-254 million years ago in Russia, in the later Permian period. Its genus name refers to large plates of armor scattered across its body. It was a large anapsid reptile that, unlike most reptiles, held its legs underneath its body to support its great weight. Fossils have been found in the Sokolki Assemblage Zone of the Malokinelskaya Formation in European Russia, close to the Ural Mountains.

Bart: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: DINOGORGON!

Bart fired a wave of earth and it formed into the Gorgonopsid from 259 million years ago: Dinogorgon!

---

Dinogorgon is a genus of gorgonopsid from the Late Permian of South Africa and Tanzania. The generic name Dinogorgon is derived from Greek, meaning "terrible gorgon", while its species name rubidgei is taken from the surname of renowned Karoo paleontologist, Professor Bruce Rubidge, who has contributed to much of the research conducted on therapsids of the Karoo Basin. The type species of the genus is D. rubidgei.

Dinogorgon is part of the gorgonopsian subfamily Rubidgeinae, a derived group of large-bodied gorgonopsians restricted to the Late Permian (Lopingian). The Rubidgeinae subfamily first appeared in the Tropidostoma Assemblage Zone, and reached their highest diversity in the Cistecephalus and Daptocephalus assemblage zones of the Beaufort Group in South Africa.

Homer: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: EDAPHOSAURUS!

Homer fired a wave of earth and it formed into Dimetrodon-like synapsid from 303.4 million years ago: Edaphosaurus!

Edaphosaurus (/ˌɛdəfoʊˈsɔːrəs/, meaning "pavement lizard" for dense clusters of teeth) is a genus of extinct edaphosaurid synapsids that lived in what is now North America and Europe around 303.4 to 272.5 million years ago, during the late Carboniferous to early Permian periods. American paleontologist Edward Drinker Cope first described Edaphosaurus in 1882, naming it for the "dental pavement" on both the upper and lower jaws, from the Greek edaphos ἐδαφος ("ground"; also "pavement") and σαῦρος (sauros) ("lizard").

Edaphosaurus is important as one of the earliest-known, large, plant-eating (herbivorous), amniote tetrapods (four-legged land-living vertebrates). In addition to the large tooth plates in its jaws, the most characteristic feature of Edaphosaurus is a sail on its back. A number of other synapsids from the same time period also have tall dorsal sails, most famously the large apex predator Dimetrodon. However, the sail on Edaphosaurus is different in shape and morphology. The first fossils of Edaphosaurus came from the Texas Red Beds in North America, with later finds in New Mexico, Oklahoma, West Virginia, and Ohio. Fragmentary fossils attributed to Edaphosaurus have also been found in eastern Germany in Central Europe.

Tabby: FOREST STYLE NINJA ART: DILOPHOSAURUS!

Tabby fired a wave of leaves and water and it formed into the theropod from 193 million years ago: Dilophosaurus!

Dilophosaurus (/daɪˌloʊfəˈsɔːrəs, -foʊ-/ dy-LOHF-o-SOR-əs) is a genus of theropod dinosaurs that lived in what is now North America during the Early Jurassic, about 193 million years ago. Three skeletons were discovered in northern Arizona in 1940, and the two best preserved were collected in 1942. The most complete specimen became the holotype of a new species in the genus Megalosaurus, named M. wetherilli by Samuel P. Welles in 1954. Welles found a larger skeleton belonging to the same species in 1964. Realizing it bore crests on its skull, he assigned the species to the new genus Dilophosaurus in 1970, as Dilophosaurus wetherilli. The genus name means "two-crested lizard", and the species name honors John Wetherill, a Navajo councilor. Further specimens have since been found, including an infant.

Footprints have also been attributed to the animal, including resting traces. Another species, Dilophosaurus sinensis from China, was named in 1993, but was later found to belong to the genus Sinosaurus. It was designated as the state dinosaur of Connecticut based on tracks found there.

At about 7 m (23 ft) in length, with a weight of about 400 kg (880 lb), Dilophosaurus was one of the earliest large predatory dinosaurs and the largest known land-animal in North America at the time. It was slender and lightly built, and the skull was proportionally large, but delicate. The snout was narrow, and the upper jaw had a gap or kink below the nostril. It had a pair of longitudinal, plate-shaped crests on its skull, similar to a cassowary with two crests. The mandible was slender and delicate at the front, but deep at the back. The teeth were long, curved, thin, and compressed sideways. Those in the lower jaw were much smaller than those of the upper jaw. Most of the teeth had serrations at their front and back edges. The neck was long, and its vertebrae were hollow, and very light. The arms were powerful, with a long and slender upper arm bone. The hands had four fingers; the first was short but strong and bore a large claw, the two following fingers were longer and slenderer with smaller claws; the fourth was vestigial. The thigh bone was massive, the feet were stout, and the toes bore large claws.

Dilophosaurus is a member of the family Dilophosauridae along with Dracovenator, a group placed between the Coelophysidae and later theropods. Dilophosaurus would have been active and bipedal, and may have hunted large animals; it could also have fed on smaller animals and fish. Due to the limited range of movement and shortness of the fore limbs, the mouth may instead have made first contact with prey. The function of the crests is unknown; they were too weak for battle, but may have been used in visual display, such as species recognition and sexual selection. It may have grown rapidly, attaining a growth rate of 30 to 35 kg (66 to 77 lb) per year early in life. The holotype specimen had multiple paleopathologies, including healed injuries and signs of a developmental anomaly. Dilophosaurus is known from the Kayenta Formation, and lived alongside dinosaurs such as Megapnosaurus and Sarahsaurus.

Dilophosaurus was featured in the novel Jurassic Park and its movie adaptation, wherein it was given the fictional abilities to spit venom and expand a neck frill, as well as being smaller than the real animal.

The American lion (Panthera atrox), also known as the "North American lion", or "American cave lion", is an extinct pantherine cat that lived in North America during the Pleistocene epoch and the early Holocene epoch, about 340,000 to 11,000 years ago. Its fossils have been excavated from Alaska to Mexico. Genetic analysis has shown that the American lion and the Late Pleistocene Eurasian cave lion (Panthera spelaea) are sister lineages. It was about 25% larger than the modern lion, making it one of the largest known felids.

Nelson: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: CAMARASAURUS!

Nelson fired a wave of earth and it formed into the sauropod from 155 million years ago: Camerasaurus!

---

Camarasaurus (/ˌkæmərəˈsɔːrəs/ KAM-ər-ə-SAWR-əs) was a genus of quadrupedal, herbivorous dinosaurs. It was the most common of the giant sauropods to be found in North America. Its fossil remains have been found in the Morrison Formation of Colorado and Utah, dating to the Late Jurassic epoch (Kimmeridgian to Tithonian stages), between 155 and 145 million years ago.

Camarasaurus presented a distinctive cranial profile of a blunt snout and an arched skull that was remarkably square. It likely travelled in herds, or at least in family groups.

The name means "chambered lizard", referring to the hollow chambers in its vertebrae (Greek καμαρα (kamara) meaning "vaulted chamber", or anything with an arched cover, and σαυρος (sauros) meaning "lizard").

Hinata: ICE STYLE NINJA ART: PACHYRHINOSAURUS!

Hinata fired a wave of ice and it formed into the ceratopsian from 73.5 million years ago: Pachyrhinosaurus!

Pachyrhinosaurus (meaning in Greek "thick-nosed lizard", from Παχυ (pachy), thick; ρινὀ (rinó), nose; and σαυρος (sauros), lizard) is an extinct genus of centrosaurine ceratopsid dinosaur from the Late Cretaceous period of North America. The first examples were discovered by Charles M. Sternberg in Alberta, Canada, in 1946, and named in 1950. Over a dozen partial skulls and a large assortment of other fossils from various species have been found in Alberta and Alaska. A great number were not available for study until the 1980s, resulting in a relatively recent increase of interest in Pachyrhinosaurus.

Three species have been identified. P. lakustai, from the Wapiti Formation, the bonebed horizon of which is roughly equivalent age to the upper Bearpaw and lower Horseshoe Canyon Formations, is known to have existed from about 73.5-72.5 million years ago. P. canadensis is younger, known from the lower Horseshoe Canyon Formation, about 71.5-71 Ma ago and the St. Mary River Formation. Fossils of the youngest species, P. perotorum, have been recovered from the Prince Creek Formation of Alaska, and date to 70-69 Ma ago. The presence of three known species makes this genus the most speciose among the centrosaurines.

Kiba: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: POSTOSUCHUS!

Kiba fired a wave of earth and it formed into the rauisuchid from 221 million years ago: Postosuchus!

---

Postosuchus, meaning "Crocodile from Post", is an extinct genus of rauisuchid reptiles comprising two species, P. kirkpatricki and P. alisonae, that lived in what is now North America during the Late Triassic. Postosuchus is a member of the clade Pseudosuchia, the lineage of archosaurs that includes modern crocodilians (the other main group of archosaurs is Avemetatarsalia, the lineage that includes non-avian dinosaurs and their descendants, birds). Its name refers to Post Quarry, a place in Texas where many fossils of the type species, P. kirkpatricki, were found. It was one of the apex predators of its area during the Triassic, larger than the small dinosaur predators of its time (such as Coelophysis). It was a hunter which probably preyed on large large bulky herbivores like dicynodonts and many other creatures smaller than itself (such as early dinosaurs).

The skeleton of Postosuchus is large and robust with a deep skull and a long tail. The total body length is about 4 to 5 metres (13 to 16 ft). The extreme shortness of the forelimbs relative to the hind limbs, the very small hands, and measurements of the vertebrae suggest that Postosuchus may have been committed to bipedal locomotion.

Rock Lee: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: MOSCHOPS!

Rock Lee fired a wave of earth and it formed into the therapsid from 265 million years ago: Moschops!

---

Moschops (Greek for "calf face") is an extinct genus of therapsids that lived in the Guadalupian epoch, around 265-260 million years ago. They were heavily built plant eaters, and they may have lived partly in water, as hippopotamuses do. They had short, thick heads and might have competed by head-butting each other. Their elbow joints allowed them to walk with a more mammal-like gait rather than crawling. Their remains were found in the Karoo region of South Africa, belonging to the Tapinocephalus Assemblage Zone. Therapsids, such as Moschops, are synapsids, the dominant land animals in the Permian period, which ended 252 million years ago.

Tenten: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: ANKYLOSAURUS!

Tenten fired a wave of earth and it formed into the armored dinosaur from 68 million years ago: Ankylosaurus!

Ankylosaurus is a genus of armored dinosaur. Its fossils have been found in geological formations dating to the very end of the Cretaceous Period, about 68-66 million years ago, in western North America, making it among the last of the non-avian dinosaurs. It was named by Barnum Brown in 1908; the only species in the genus is A. magniventris. The genus name means "fused lizard", and the specific name means "great belly". A handful of specimens have been excavated to date, but a complete skeleton has not been discovered. Though other members of Ankylosauria are represented by more extensive fossil material, Ankylosaurus is often considered the archetypal member of its group, despite having some unusual features.

Possibly the largest-known ankylosaurid, Ankylosaurus is estimated to have been between 6 and 8 meters (20 and 26 ft) long and to have weighed between 4.8 and 8 metric tons (5.3 and 8.8 short tons). It was quadrupedal, with a broad, robust body. It had a wide, low skull, with two horns pointing backward from the back of the head, and two horns below these that pointed backward and down. Unlike other ankylosaurs, its nostrils faced sideways rather than towards the front. The front part of the jaws was covered in a beak, with rows of small, leaf-shaped teeth farther behind it. It was covered in armor plates, or osteoderms, with bony half-rings covering the neck, and had a large club on the end of its tail. Bones in the skull and other parts of the body were fused, increasing their strength, and this feature is the source of the genus name.

Ankylosaurus is a member of the family Ankylosauridae, and its closest relatives appear to be Anodontosaurus and Euoplocephalus. Ankylosaurus is thought to have been a slow-moving animal, able to make quick movements when necessary. Its broad muzzle indicates it was a non-selective browser. Sinuses and nasal chambers in the snout may have been for heat and water balance or may have played a role in vocalization. The tail club is thought to have been used in defense against predators or in intraspecific combat. Ankylosaurus has been found in the Hell Creek, Lance, Scollard, Frenchman, and Ferris formations, but appears to have been rare in its environment. Although it lived alongside a nodosaurid ankylosaur, their ranges and ecological niches do not appear to have overlapped, and Ankylosaurus may have inhabited upland areas. Ankylosaurus also lived alongside dinosaurs such as Tyrannosaurus, Triceratops, and Edmontosaurus.

Ino: FIRE STYLE NINJA ART: MASSOSPONDYLUS!

Ino fired a wave of fire and it formed into the sauropodomorph dinosaur from 200 million years ago: Massospondylus!

---

Massospondylus (/ˌmæsoʊ'spɒndɪləs/ mas-oh-SPON-di-ləs; from Greek, μάσσων (massōn, "longer") and σπόνδυλος (spondylos, "vertebra")) is a genus of sauropodomorph dinosaur from the Early Jurassic Period (Hettangian to Pliensbachian ages, ca. 200-183 million years ago). It was described by Sir Richard Owen in 1854 from remains discovered in South Africa, and is thus one of the first dinosaurs to have been named. Fossils have since been found at other locations in South Africa, Lesotho, and Zimbabwe. Material from Arizona's Kayenta Formation, India, and Argentina has been assigned to this genus at various times, but the Arizonan and Argentinian material are now assigned to other genera.

The type species is M. carinatus; seven other species have been named during the past 150 years, but only M. kaalae among these is still considered valid. Early sauropodomorphs systematics have undergone numerous revisions during the last several years, and many scientists disagree where exactly Massospondylus lies on the dinosaur evolutionary tree. The family name Massospondylidae was once coined for the genus, but because knowledge of early sauropodomorph relationships is in a state of flux, it is unclear which other dinosaurs-if any-belong in a natural grouping of massospondylids; several 2007 papers support the family's validity.

Although Massospondylus was long depicted as quadrupedal, a 2007 study found it to be bipedal. It was probably a plant eater (herbivore), although it is speculated that the early sauropodomorphs may have been omnivorous. This animal, which was 4-6 metres (13-20 ft) long, had a long neck and tail, with a small head and slender body. On each of its forefeet, it bore a sharp thumb claw that was used in defense or feeding. Recent studies indicate that Massospondylus grew steadily throughout its lifespan, possessed air sacs similar to those of birds, and may have cared for its young.

Haku: ICE STYLE NINJA ART: AMERICAN MASTODON!

Haku fired a wave of ice and it formed into the ancestral elephant of the Great Ice Age from 5.3 million to 10,000 years ago: The American Mastodon!

---

A mastodon (Greek: μαστός "breast" and ὀδοὐς, "tooth") is any proboscidean belonging to the extinct genus Mammut (family Mammutidae) that inhabited North and Central America during the late Miocene or late Pliocene up to their extinction at the end of the Pleistocene 10,000 to 11,000 years ago. Mastodons lived in herds and were predominantly forest-dwelling animals that lived on a mixed diet obtained by browsing and grazing, somewhat similar to their distant relatives, modern elephants, but probably with greater emphasis on browsing.

M. americanum, the American mastodon, and M. pacificus, the Pacific mastodon, are the youngest and best-known species of the genus. Mastodons disappeared from North America as part of a mass extinction of most of the Pleistocene megafauna, widely believed to have been caused by overexploitation by Clovis hunters.

Sasuke: LIGHTNING STYLE NINJA ART: COMPSOGNATHUS!

Sasuke fired a wave of lightning and it formed into the fast carnivore from 150.8 million years ago: Compsognathus!

---

Compsognathus (/kɒmp'sɒgnəθəs/; Greek kompsos/κομψός; "elegant", "refined" or "dainty", and gnathos/γνάθος; "jaw") is a genus of small, bipedal, carnivorous theropod dinosaur. Members of its single species Compsognathus longipes could grow to around the size of a turkey. They lived about 150 million years ago, during the Tithonian age of the late Jurassic period, in what is now Europe. Paleontologists have found two well-preserved fossils, one in Germany in the 1850s and the second in France more than a century later. Today, C. longipes is the only recognized species, although the larger specimen discovered in France in the 1970s was once thought to belong to a separate species and named C. corallestris.

Many presentations still describe Compsognathus as "chicken-sized" dinosaurs because of the size of the German specimen, which is now believed to be a juvenile. Compsognathus longipes is one of the few dinosaur species whose diet is known with certainty: the remains of small, agile lizards are preserved in the bellies of both specimens. Teeth discovered in Portugal may be further fossil remains of the genus.

Although not recognized as such at the time of its discovery, Compsognathus is the first theropod dinosaur known from a reasonably complete fossil skeleton. Until the 1990s, it was the smallest-known non-avialan dinosaur, with the preceding centuries incorrectly labelling them as the closest relative of Archaeopteryx.

Fu: ARTHROPOD STYLE NINJA ART: BRONTOSCORPIO!

Fu fired a wave of energy and it formed into the Silurian early scorpions from over 423 million years ago: Brontoscorpio!

---

Brontoscorpio anglicus is a species of fossil scorpion. Its remains were discovered in Upper Silurian-aged sandstone from Trimpley, Worcestershire, and the species was described on the basis of an incomplete single free finger of a pedipalp, almost 10 centimetres (3.9 in) long. The complete animal is estimated to have been at least 90 centimetres (35 in) long.

The remains were found in terrestrial sediments, but it is believed, that due to its size, Brontoscorpio had to enter the water to molt. Possibly it lived a semi or fully aquatic life.

Arthropleura (Greek for jointed ribs) is a genus of extinct millipede arthropods that lived in what is now northeastern North America and Scotland around 345 to 295 million years ago, from the Viséan stage of the lower Carboniferous Period to the Asselian stage of the lower Permian Period. The larger species of the genus are the largest known land invertebrates of all time, and would have had few, if any, predators.

Zabuza: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: SARCOSUCHUS!

Zabuza fired a wave of water and it formed into the largest crocodilian dinosaur ever known from 133 million years ago: Sarcosuchus!

---

Sarcosuchus (/ˌsɑːrkoʊˈsuːkəs/; meaning "flesh crocodile") is an extinct genus of crocodyliform and distant relative of living crocodylians that lived during the Early Cretaceous, from the late Hauterivian to the early Albian, 133 to 112 million years ago of what is now Africa and South America. It was one of the largest crocodile-line reptiles, reaching an average estimate of 9 m (30 ft) and 3.5 metric tons (3.9 short tons), but estimated to grow up to 9.5 m (31 ft) in body length and weigh up to 4.3 metric tons (4.7 short tons). It is known from two species, S. imperator from the early Albian Elrhaz Formation of Niger and S. hartti from the Late Hauterivian of northeastern Brazil, other material is known from Morocco and Tunisia and possibly Libya and Mali.

The first remains were discovered during several expeditions led by the French paleontologist Albert-Félix de Lapparent, spanning from 1946 to 1959, in the Sahara. These remains were fragments of the skull, vertebrae, teeth, and scutes. In 1964, an almost complete skull was found in Niger by the French CEA, but it was not until 1997 and 2000 that most of its anatomy became known to science, when an expedition led by the American paleontologist Paul Sereno discovered six new specimens, including one with about half the skeleton intact and most of the spine.

Kabuto: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: PARASAUROLOPHUS!

Parasaurolophus (/ˌpærəsɔːˈrɒləfəs, -ˌsɔːrəˈloʊfəs/; meaning "near crested lizard" in reference to Saurolophus) is a genus of herbivorous ornithopod dinosaur that lived in what is now North America and possibly Asia during the Late Cretaceous Period, about 76.5-73 million years ago. It was an herbivore that walked both as a biped and as a quadruped. Three species are universally recognized: P. walkeri (the type species), P. tubicen, and the short-crested P. cyrtocristatus. Additionally, a fourth species, P. jiayensis, has been proposed, although it is more commonly placed in the separate genus Charonosaurus. Remains are known from Alberta (Canada), New Mexico and Utah (United States), and possibly Heilongjiang, (China). The genus was first described in 1922 by William Parks from a skull and partial skeleton found in Alberta.

Parasaurolophus was a hadrosaurid, part of a diverse family of Cretaceous dinosaurs known for their range of bizarre head adornments. This genus is known for its large, elaborate cranial crest, which at its largest forms a long curved tube projecting upwards and back from the skull. Charonosaurus from China, which may have been its closest relative, had a similar skull and potentially a similar crest. Visual recognition of both species and sex, acoustic resonance, and thermoregulation have been proposed as functional explanations for the crest. It is one of the rarer hadrosaurids, known from only a handful of good specimens.

Finn: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: LAMBEOSAURUS!

Finn fired a wave of water and it formed into a heard of hadrosaurs from 76 million years ago: Lambeosaurus!

Lambeosaurus (/ˌlæmbioʊˈsɔːrəs/ LAM-bee-o-SAWR-əs; meaning "Lambe's lizard") is a genus of hadrosaurid dinosaur that lived about 75 million years ago, in the Late Cretaceous period (Campanian stage) of North America. This bipedal/quadrupedal, herbivorous dinosaur is known for its distinctive hollow cranial crest, which in the best-known species resembled a hatchet. Several possible species have been named, from Canada, the United States, and Mexico, but only the two Canadian species are currently recognized as valid.

Material relevant to the genus was first named by Lawrence Lambe in 1902. Over twenty years later, the modern name was coined in 1923 by William Parks, in honour of Lambe, based on better preserved specimens. The genus has a complicated taxonomic history, in part because small-bodied crested hadrosaurids now recognized as juveniles were once thought to belong to their own genera and species. Currently, the various skulls assigned to the type species L. lambei are interpreted as showing age differences and sexual dimorphism. Lambeosaurus was closely related to the better known Corythosaurus, which is found in slightly older rocks, as well as the less well-known genera Hypacrosaurus and Olorotitan. All had unusual crests, which are now generally assumed to have served social functions like noisemaking and recognition.

Jake fired a wave of water and it formed into a herd of hadrosaurs from 70 million years ago: Tsintaosaurus!

Tsintaosaurus (/tʃɪŋdaʊˈsɔːrəs/; meaning "Qingdao lizard", after the old transliteration "Tsingtao") is a genus of hadrosaurid dinosaur from China. It was about 8.3 metres (27 ft) long and weighed 2.5 tonnes. The type species is Tsintaosaurus spinorhinus, first described by Chinese paleontologist C. C. Young in 1958.

A hadrosaur, Tsintaosaurus had a characteristic 'duck bill' snout and a battery of powerful teeth which it used to chew vegetation. It usually walked on all fours, but could rear up on its hind legs to scout for predators and flee when it spotted one. Like other hadrosaurs, Tsintaosaurus probably lived in herds.

Flame Princess: FIRE STYLE NINJA ART: CARCHARODONTOSAURUS!

Flame Princess fired a wave of fire and it formed into theropod from 100 million years ago: Carcharodontosaurus!

---

Carcharodontosaurus /ˌkɑːrkəroʊˌdɒntoʊˈsɔːrəs/ is a genus of carnivorous carcharodontosaurid dinosaurs that existed during the Cenomanian stage of the mid-Cretaceous Period in Northern Africa. It is currently known to include two species: C. saharicus and C. iguidensis, which are among the larger theropods, nearly as large as or even larger than Tyrannosaurus, Giganotosaurus, and Spinosaurus.

The genus Carcharodontosaurus is named after the shark genus Carcharodon, itself composed of the Greek karchar[os] (κάρχαρος, meaning "jagged" or "sharp") and odōn (ὀδών, "teeth"), and the suffix -saurus ("lizard").

Mario fired a wave of water and it formed into the hadrosaur from 77 million years ago: Corythosaurus!

Corythosaurus /ˌkɒrɪθoʊˈsɔːrəs/ is a genus of hadrosaurid "duck-billed" dinosaur from the Upper Cretaceous Period, about 77-75.7 million years ago. It lived in what is now North America. Its name means "helmet lizard", derived from Greek κόρυς. It was named and described in 1914 by Barnum Brown. Corythosaurus is now thought to be a lambeosaurine, related to Nipponosaurus, Velafrons, Hypacrosaurus, and Olorotitan. Corythosaurus has an estimated length of 9 metres (30 ft), and has a skull, including the crest, that is 70.8 centimetres (27.9 in; 2.32 ft) tall.

Corythosaurus is known from many complete specimens, including the nearly complete holotype found by Brown in 1911. The holotype skeleton is only missing the last section of the tail, and part of the forelimbs, but was preserved with impressions of polygonal scales. Corythosaurus is known from many skulls with tall crests. The crests resemble the crests of the cassowary and a Corinthian helmet. The most likely function of the crest is thought to be vocalization. As in a trombone, sound waves would travel through many chambers in the crest, and then get amplified when Corythosaurus exhaled. A Corythosaurus specimen has been preserved with its last meal in its chest cavity. Inside the cavity were remains of conifer needles, seeds, twigs, and fruits: Corythosaurus probably fed on all of these.

The two species of Corythosaurus are both present in slightly different levels of the Dinosaur Park Formation. Both still co-existed with theropods and other ornithischians, like Daspletosaurus, Brachylophosaurus, Parasaurolophus, Scolosaurus, and Chasmosaurus.

Meganeura is a genus of extinct insects from the Carboniferous period (approximately 300 million years ago), which resembled and are related to the present-day dragonflies. With wingspans ranging from 65 cm (25.6 in) to over 70 cm (28 in), M. monyi is one of the largest-known flying insect species. Meganeura were predatory, with their diet mainly consisting of other insects.

Wing venation of Meganeura monyi, redrawn after Brongniart (1893, Pl. XLI)

Fossils were discovered in the French Stephanian Coal Measures of Commentry in 1880. In 1885, French paleontologist Charles Brongniart described and named the fossil "Meganeura" (large-nerved), which refers to the network of veins on the insect's wings. Another fine fossil specimen was found in 1979 at Bolsover in Derbyshire. The holotype is housed in the National Museum of Natural History, in Paris.

Mei Terumi: OCEAN STYLE NINJA ART: MEGALODON!

Mei fired a wave of water and it formed into the largest and most meanest shark ever to swim the ocean and the ancestor of the Great White Shark from 23 million years ago.

---

Megalodon (Carcharocles megalodon), meaning "big tooth", is an extinct species of shark that lived approximately 23 to 3.6 million years ago (mya), during the Early Miocene to the Pliocene. It was formerly thought to be a member of the family Lamnidae and a close relative of the great white shark (Carcharodon carcharias). However, it is now classified into the extinct family Otodontidae, which diverged from the great white shark during the Early Cretaceous. Its genus placement is still debated, authors placing it in either Carcharocles, Megaselachus, Otodus, or Procarcharodon. This is because transitional fossils have been found showing that Megalodon is the final chronospecies of a lineage of giant sharks originally of the genus Otodus which evolved during the Paleocene.

While regarded as one of the largest and most powerful predators to have ever lived, megalodon is known from fragmentary remains, and its appearance and maximum size are uncertain. Scientists differ on whether it would have more closely resembled a stockier version of the great white shark, the basking shark (Cetorhinus maximus) or the sand tiger shark (Carcharias taurus). Most estimates of megalodon's size extrapolate from teeth; with maximum length estimates up to 18 meters (59 ft) and average length estimates of 10.5 meters (34 ft). Estimates suggest their large jaws could exert a bite force of up to 110,000 to 180,000 newtons (25,000 to 40,000 lbf). Their teeth were thick and robust, built for grabbing prey and breaking bone.

Megalodon probably had a major impact on the structure of marine communities. The fossil record indicates that it had a cosmopolitan distribution. It probably targeted large prey, such as whales, seals and sea turtles. Juveniles inhabited warm coastal waters and fed on fish and small whales. Unlike the great white, which attacks prey from the soft underside, megalodon probably used its strong jaws to break through the chest cavity and puncture the heart and lungs of its prey.

The animal faced competition from whale-eating cetaceans, such as Livyatan and other macroraptorial sperm whales and possibly smaller ancestral killer whales. As the shark preferred warmer waters, it is thought that oceanic cooling associated with the onset of the ice ages, coupled with the lowering of sea levels and resulting loss of suitable nursery areas, may have also contributed to its decline. A reduction in the diversity of baleen whales and a shift in their distribution toward polar regions may have reduced megalodon's primary food source. A 2019 study reviewed newer evidence suggesting that competition from the modern great white shark may have also contributed to the extinction of megalodon, coupled with range fragmentation resulting in a gradual, asynchronous extinction as a result of cooling oceans around 3.6-4 million years ago, far earlier than previously assumed. The extinction of the shark appeared to affect other animals; for example, the size of baleen whales increased significantly after the shark had disappeared.

Carol: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: STEGOSAURUS!

Carol fired a wave of Earth and it formed into the awesome dinosaur from 155 million years ago: Stegosaurus!

Stegosaurus (/ˌstɛɡə'sɔːrəs/), from Greek stegos (στέγος), which means roof, and sauros (σαῦρος), which means lizard, is a genus of herbivorous thyreophoran dinosaur. Fossils of this genus date to the Late Jurassic period, where they are found in Kimmeridgian to early Tithonian aged strata, between 155 and 150 million years ago, in the western United States and Portugal. Of the species that have been classified in the upper Morrison Formation of the western US, only three are universally recognized; S. stenops, S. ungulatus and S. sulcatus. The remains of over 80 individual animals of this genus have been found. Stegosaurus would have lived alongside dinosaurs such as Apatosaurus, Diplodocus, Brachiosaurus, Allosaurus, and Ceratosaurus; the latter two may have preyed on it.

These were large, heavily built, herbivorous quadrupeds with rounded backs, short fore limbs, long hind limbs, and tails held high in the air. Due to their distinctive combination of broad, upright plates and tail tipped with spikes, Stegosaurus is one of the most recognizable kinds of dinosaurs. The function of this array of plates and spikes has been the subject of much speculation among scientists. Today, it is generally agreed that their spiked tails were most likely used for defense against predators, while their plates may have been used primarily for display, and secondarily for thermoregulatory functions. Stegosaurus had a relatively low brain-to-body mass ratio. It had a short neck and a small head, meaning it most likely ate low-lying bushes and shrubs. One species, Stegosaurus ungulatus, is the largest known of all the stegosaurians (bigger than related dinosaurs such as Kentrosaurus and Huayangosaurus).

Stegosaurus remains were first identified during the "Bone Wars" by Othniel Charles Marsh at Dinosaur Ridge National Landmark. The first known skeletons were fragmentary and the bones were scattered, and it would be many years before the true appearance of these animals, including their posture and plate arrangement, became well understood. Despite its popularity in books and film, mounted skeletons of Stegosaurus did not become a staple of major natural history museums until the mid-20th century, and many museums have had to assemble composite displays from several different specimens due to a lack of complete skeletons. Stegosaurus is one of the better-known dinosaurs, and has been featured in film, postal stamps, and many other types of media.

Beast Boy: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: TRICERATOPS!

Beast Boy fired a wave of earth and it formed into the fierce dinosaur from 68 million years ago: Triceratops!

Triceratops is a genus of herbivorous ceratopsid dinosaur that first appeared during the late Maastrichtian stage of the late Cretaceous period, about 68 million years ago (mya) in what is now North America. It is one of the last known non-avian dinosaur genera, and became extinct in the Cretaceous-Paleogene extinction event 66 million years ago. The name Triceratops, which literally means "three-horned face", is derived from the Ancient Greek words τρί- (tri-) meaning "three", κέρας (kéras) meaning "horn", and ὤψ (ōps) meaning "face".

Triceratops has been documented by numerous remains collected since the genus was first described in 1889 by Othniel Charles Marsh. Specimens representing life stages from hatchling to adult have been found. As the archetypal ceratopsid, Triceratops is one of the most popular dinosaurs, and has been featured in film, postal stamps, and many other types of media.

Bearing a large bony frill and three horns on the skull, and its large four-legged body possessing similarities with the modern rhinoceros, Triceratops is one of the most recognizable of all dinosaurs and the best-known ceratopsid. It was also one of the largest, up to 9 meters (29.5 ft) long and 12 metric tons (13 short tons) in weight. It shared the landscape with and was probably preyed upon by Tyrannosaurus, though it is less certain that the two did battle in the fanciful manner often depicted in museum displays and popular images. The functions of the frills and three distinctive facial horns on its head have long inspired debate. Traditionally, these have been viewed as defensive weapons against predators. More recent interpretations find it probable that these features were primarily used in species identification, courtship and dominance display, much like the antlers and horns of modern ungulates.

Triceratops was traditionally placed within the "short-frilled" ceratopsids but modern cladistic studies show it to be a member of the Chasmosaurinae which usually have long frills. Two species, T. horridus and T. prorsus, are considered valid today, from the seventeen species that have ever been named. Research published in 2010 concluded that the contemporaneous Torosaurus, a ceratopsid long regarded as a separate genus, represents Triceratops in its mature form. This view was immediately disputed with examination of more fossil evidence needed to settle the debate.

Linka: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: TOROSAURUS!

Linka fired a wave of earth and it formed into the ceratopsian from 68 million years ago: Torosaurus!

Torosaurus ("perforated lizard", in reference to the large openings in its frill) is a genus of herbivorous ceratopsid dinosaur that lived during the late Maastrichtian stage of the Cretaceous period, between 68 and 66 million years ago, though it is possible that the species range might extend to as far as 69 million years ago. Fossils have been discovered across the Western Interior of North America, from Saskatchewan to southern Texas.

Torosaurus possessed one of the largest skulls of any known land animal. The frilled skull reached up to 2.77 metres (9.1 ft) in length. From head to tail, Torosaurus is thought to have measured about 8 to 9 m (26 to 30 ft) long and weighed four to six tonnes. Torosaurus is distinguished from the contemporary Triceratops by an elongate frill with large openings (fenestrae), long squamosal bones of the frill with a trough on their upper surface, and the presence of five or more pairs of hornlets (epoccipitals) on the back of the frill. Torosaurus also lacked the long nose horn seen in Triceratops prorsus, and instead resembled the earlier and more basal Triceratops horridus in having a short nose horn. Three species have been named, Torosaurus latus, T. gladius and T. utahensis. T. gladius is no longer considered a valid species, however.

In 2010, the validity of Torosaurus was disputed. A study of fossil bone histology combined with an investigation of frill shape concluded that Torosaurus probably represented the mature form of Triceratops, with the bones of typical Triceratops specimens still immature and showing signs of a first development of distinct Torosaurus frill holes. During maturation, the skull frill would have been greatly lengthened and holes would have appeared in it. In 2011, 2012 and 2013 however, studies of external features of known specimens have claimed that morphological differences between the two genera preclude their synonymy. The main problems are a lack of good transitional forms, the apparent existence of authentic Torosaurus subadults, different skull proportions independent of maturation and the assertion that hole formation at an adult stage is not part of a normal ceratopsian maturation sequence.

Paula: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: NASUTOCERATOPS!

Paula fired a wave of earth and it formed into the ceratopsian from 75.9 million years ago: Nasutoceratops!

Nasutoceratops is an extinct genus of ceratopsian dinosaur. It is a basal centrosaurine which lived during the Late Cretaceous Period (late Campanian, about 76.0-75.5 Ma). Fossils have been found in southern Utah, United States. Nasutoceratops was a large, ground-dwelling, quadrupedal herbivore with a short snout and unique rounded horns above its eyes that have been likened to those of modern cattle. Extending almost to the tip of its snout, these horns are the longest of all the members of the centrosaurine subfamily. The presence of pneumatic elements in the nasal bones of Nasutoceratops are a unique trait and are unknown in any other ceratopsid. Nasutoceratops, Diabloceratops, and Machairoceratops are the only three centrosaurine dinosaurs from the American southwest.

Styracosaurus (/stɪˌrækə'sɔːrəs/ sti-RAK-ə-SOR-əs; meaning "spiked lizard" from the Ancient Greek styrax/στύραξ "spike at the butt-end of a spear-shaft" and sauros/σαῦρος "lizard") is a genus of herbivorous ceratopsian dinosaur from the Cretaceous Period (Campanian stage), about 75.5 to 75 million years ago. It had four to six long parietal spikes extending from its neck frill, a smaller jugal horn on each of its cheeks, and a single horn protruding from its nose, which may have been up to 60 centimetres (2 feet) long and 15 centimetres (6 inches) wide. The function or functions of the horns and frills have been debated for many years.

Styracosaurus was a relatively large dinosaur, reaching lengths of 5.5 metres (18 feet) and weighing nearly 3 tonnes. It stood about 1.8 meters (5.9 feet) tall. Styracosaurus possessed four short legs and a bulky body. Its tail was rather short. The skull had a beak and shearing cheek teeth arranged in continuous dental batteries, suggesting that the animal sliced up plants. Like other ceratopsians, this dinosaur may have been a herd animal, travelling in large groups, as suggested by bonebeds.

Named by Lawrence Lambe in 1913, Styracosaurus is a member of the Centrosaurinae. One species, S. albertensis, is currently assigned to Styracosaurus. Another species, S. ovatus, named in 1930 by Charles Gilmore was reassigned to a new genus, Rubeosaurus, by Andrew McDonald and Jack Horner in 2010.

Pachycephalosaurus (/ˌpækɪˌsɛfələˈsɔːrəs/; meaning "thick-headed lizard," from Greek pachys-/παχύς- "thick", kephale/κεφαλή "head" and sauros/σαῦρος "lizard") is a genus of pachycephalosaurid dinosaurs. The type species, P. wyomingensis, is the only known species. It lived during the Late Cretaceous Period (Maastrichtian stage) of what is now North America. Remains have been excavated in Montana, South Dakota, Wyoming and Alberta. It was a herbivorous creature which is primarily known from a single skull and a few extremely thick skull roofs, though more complete fossils have been found in recent years. Pachycephalosaurus was one of the last non-avian dinosaurs before the Cretaceous-Paleogene extinction event. Another dinosaur, Tylosteus of western North America, has been synonymized with Pachycephalosaurus, as have the genera Stygimoloch and Dracorex in recent studies.

Like other pachycephalosaurids, Pachycephalosaurus was a bipedal herbivore with an extremely thick skull roof. It possessed long hindlimbs and small forelimbs. Pachycephalosaurus is the largest-known pachycephalosaur. The thick skull domes of Pachycephalosaurus and related genera gave rise to the hypothesis that pachycephalosaurs used their skulls in intra-species combat. This hypothesis has been disputed in recent years.

Rarity: CRYSTAL STYLE NINJA ART: PLATEOSAURUS!

Rarity fired a wave of crystal and it formed into the protosauropod from 214 million years ago: Plateosaurus!

---

Plateosaurus (probably meaning "broad lizard", often mistranslated as "flat lizard") is a genus of plateosaurid dinosaur that lived during the Late Triassic period, around 214 to 204 million years ago, in what is now Central and Northern Europe and Greenland, North America. Plateosaurus is a basal (early) sauropodomorph dinosaur, a so-called "prosauropod". As of 2011, two species are recognised: the type species P. engelhardti from the late Norian and Rhaetian, and the slightly earlier P. gracilis from the lower Norian. However, others have been assigned in the past, and there is no broad consensus on the species taxonomy of plateosaurid dinosaurs. Similarly, there are a plethora of synonyms (invalid duplicate names) at the genus level.

Discovered in 1834 by Johann Friedrich Engelhardt and described three years later by Hermann von Meyer, Plateosaurus was the fifth named dinosaur genus that is still considered valid. Although it had been described before Richard Owen formally named Dinosauria in 1842, it was not one of the three genera used by Owen to define the group, because at the time, it was poorly known and difficult to identify as a dinosaur. It is now among the dinosaurs best known to science: over 100 skeletons have been found, some of them nearly complete. The abundance of its fossils in Swabia, Germany, has led to the nickname Schwäbischer Lindwurm (Swabian lindworm).

Plateosaurus was a bipedal herbivore with a small skull on a long, flexible neck, sharp but plump plant-crushing teeth, powerful hind limbs, short but muscular arms and grasping hands with large claws on three fingers, possibly used for defence and feeding. Unusually for a dinosaur, Plateosaurus showed strong developmental plasticity: instead of having a fairly uniform adult size, fully grown individuals were between 4.8 and 10 metres (16 and 33 ft) long and weighed between 600 and 4,000 kilograms (1,300 and 8,800 lb). Commonly, the animals lived for at least 12 to 20 years, but the maximum life span is not known.

Despite the great quantity and excellent quality of the fossil material, Plateosaurus was for a long time one of the most misunderstood dinosaurs. Some researchers proposed theories that were later shown to conflict with geological and palaeontological evidence, but have become the paradigm of public opinion. Since 1980 the taxonomy (relationships), taphonomy (how the animals became embedded and fossilised), biomechanics (how their skeletons worked), and palaeobiology (life circumstances) of Plateosaurus have been re-studied in detail, altering the interpretation of the animal's biology, posture and behaviour.

Kentrosaurus (/ˌkɛntroʊˈsɔːrəs/ KEN-tro-SAWR-əs) is a genus of stegosaurian dinosaur from the Late Jurassic of Tanzania. The type species is K. aethiopicus, named and described by German palaeontologist Edwin Hennig in 1915. Often thought to be a "primitive" member of the Stegosauria, several recent cladistic analyses find it as more derived than many other stegosaurs, and a close relative of Stegosaurus from the North American Morrison Formation within the Stegosauridae.

Fossils of K. aethiopicus have been found only in the Tendaguru Formation, dated to the late Kimmeridgian and early Tithonian ages, about 152 million years ago. Hundreds of bones were unearthed by German expeditions to German East Africa between 1909 and 1912. Although no complete skeletons are known, the remains provided a nearly complete picture of the build of the animal.

Kentrosaurus generally measured around 4.5 metres (15 ft) in length as an adult, and weighed about one tonne (1.1 tons). It walked on all fours with straight hindlimbs. It had a small, elongated head with a beak used to bite off plant material that would be digested in a large gut. It had a, probably double, row of small plates running down its neck and back. These plates gradually merged into spikes on the hip and tail. The longest spikes were on the tail end and were used to actively defend the animal. There also was a long spike on each shoulder. The thigh bones come in two different types, suggesting that one sex was larger and more stout than the other.

Volcana: LAVA STYLE NINJA ART: MIRAGAIA!

Volcana fired a wave of lava and it formed into the Stegosaur from 150 million years ago: Miragaia!

Miragaia (named after Miragaia, the parish in Portugal and geologic unit where its remains were found) is a long-necked stegosaurid dinosaur. Its fossils have been found in Upper Jurassic rocks in Portugal. Miragaia has the longest neck known for any stegosaurian, which included at least seventeen vertebrae.

Meowth: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: BRONTOTHERIUM!

Meowth fired a wave of earth and it formed into the early ancestors of the Rhinoceros from 38 million years ago: Brontotherium!

Megacerops ("large-horned face", from méga- "large" + kéras "horn" + ōps "face") is an extinct genus of the prehistoric odd-toed ungulate (hoofed mammal) family Brontotheriidae, an extinct group of rhinoceros-like browsers related to horses. It was endemic to North America during the Late Eocene epoch (38-33.9 mya), existing for approximately 4.1 million years.

Andrewsarchus (/ˌændruːˈsɑːrkəs/) is an extinct genus of mammal that lived during the middle Eocene epoch in what is now Inner Mongolia, China. Only one species is usually recognized, A. mongoliensis, known from a single skull of great size discovered in 1923 during the expeditions to central Asia by the American Museum of Natural History (AMNH). Generally classified as a mesonychid since its original description, most recent studies classify it as an artiodactyl, in one study specifically, as a member of the clade Cetancodontamorpha, closely related to entelodonts, hippos and whales.

James (Pokemon): EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: LYSTROSAURUS!

James fired a wave of earth and it formed into the Dicynodont from 255 million years ago: Lystrosaurus!

---

Lystrosaurus (/ˌlɪstroʊˈsɔːrəs/; 'shovel lizard'; proper Greek is λίστρον lístron 'tool for leveling or smoothing, shovel, spade, hoe') was a herbivorous genus of dicynodont therapsids from the late Permian and Early Triassic epochs (around 250 million years ago). It lived in what is now Antarctica, India, China, Mongolia, European Russia and South Africa. Four to six species are currently recognized, although from the 1930s to 1970s the number of species was thought to be much higher. They ranged in size from that of a small dog to 2.5 meters long.

Being a dicynodont, Lystrosaurus had only two teeth (a pair of tusk-like canines), and is thought to have had a horny beak that was used for biting off pieces of vegetation. Lystrosaurus was a heavily built, herbivorous animal, approximately the size of a pig. The structure of its shoulders and hip joints suggests that Lystrosaurus moved with a semi-sprawling gait. The forelimbs were even more robust than the hindlimbs, and the animal is thought to have been a powerful digger that nested in burrows.

Lystrosaurus survived the Permian-Triassic extinction, 252 million years ago. In the Early Triassic, they were by far the most common terrestrial vertebrates, accounting for as many as 95% of the total individuals in some fossil beds. Researchers have offered various hypotheses for why Lystrosaurus survived the extinction event and prospered in the early Triassic.

Star Butterfly: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: DEINOTHERIUM!

Star fired a wave of earth and it formed into one of the first ever ancestors of the elephant from 24 million years ago: Deinotherium!

Deinotherium ("terrible beast" derived from the Ancient Greek δεινός, deinos meaning "terrible" and θηρίον, therion meaning "beast") was a large prehistoric relative of modern-day elephants that appeared in the Middle Miocene and survived until the Early Pleistocene. During that time, it changed very little. In life, it probably resembled modern elephants, except it had downward-curving tusks attached to the lower jaw.

Kitten: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: MACRAUCHENIA!

Kitten fired a wave of earth and it formed into the ancestor of the llama from 7 million years ago: Macrauchenia!

---

Macrauchenia ("long llama", based on the now superseded Latin term for llamas, Auchenia, from Greek "big neck") was a large, long-necked and long-limbed, three-toed native South American mammal in the order Litopterna. The genus gives its name to its family, the Macraucheniidae or "robust litopterns". Like other litopterns, it is not closely related to any living mammal, being most closely related to the group containing horses, rhinos and tapirs (the Perissodactyla), from which litopterns diverged approximately 66 million years ago. The oldest fossils in the genus date to the late Miocene, around seven million years ago, and M. patachonica disappears from the fossil record during the late Pleistocene, around 20,000-10,000 years ago. M. patachonica is one of the last and best known member of the family and is known primarily from the Luján Formation in Argentina, but is known from localities across southern South America. Another genus of macraucheniid Xenorhinotherium was present in northeast Brazil and Venezuela during the Late Pleistocene. The type specimen was discovered by Charles Darwin during the voyage of the Beagle. In life, Macrauchenia may have resembled a humpless camel, though the two taxa are not closely related. It fed on plants in a variety of environments across what is now South America. Among the species described, M. patachonica and M. ullomensis are considered valid; M. boliviensis is considered a nomen dubium; and M. antiqua (or M. antiquus) has been moved to the genus Promacrauchenia.

Tuddrussel: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: ALBERTOSAURUS!

Tuddrussel fired a wave of earth and it formed into the theropod from 71 million years ago: Albertosaurus!

Albertosaurus (/ælˌbɜːrtəˈsɔːrəs/; meaning "Alberta lizard") is a genus of tyrannosaurid theropod dinosaurs that lived in western North America during the Late Cretaceous Period, about 70 million years ago. The type species, A. sarcophagus, was apparently restricted in range to the modern-day Canadian province of Alberta, after which the genus is named, although an indeterminate species ("cf. Albertosaurus sp.") has been discovered in the Corral de Enmedio and Packard Formations in Mexico. Scientists disagree on the content of the genus, with some recognizing Gorgosaurus libratus as a second species.

As a tyrannosaurid, Albertosaurus was a bipedal predator with tiny, two-fingered hands and a massive head that had dozens of large, sharp teeth. It may have been at the top of the food chain in its local ecosystem. While Albertosaurus was large for a theropod, it was much smaller than its larger and more famous relative Tyrannosaurus rex, growing 9 to 10 m (30 to 33 ft) and possibly weighing 2.5 tonnes (2.8 short tons) or less.

Since the first discovery in 1884, fossils of more than 30 individuals have been recovered, providing scientists with a more detailed knowledge of Albertosaurus anatomy than is available for most other tyrannosaurids. The discovery of 26 individuals at one site provides evidence of pack behaviour and allows studies of ontogeny and population biology, which are impossible with lesser-known dinosaurs.

Larry 3000: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: EDMONTOSAURUS!

Larry fired a wave of earth and it formed into the Iguanodont from 73 million years ago: Edmontosaurus!

Edmontosaurus (/ɛdˌmɒntəˈsɔːrəs/ ed-MON-tə-SAWR-əs) (meaning "lizard from Edmonton") is a genus of hadrosaurid (duck-billed) dinosaur. It contains two known species: Edmontosaurus regalis and Edmontosaurus annectens. Fossils of E. regalis have been found in rocks of western North America that date from the late Campanian stage of the Cretaceous Period 73 million years ago, while those of E. annectens were found in the same geographic region but in rocks dated to the end of the Maastrichtian stage of the Cretaceous, 66 million years ago. Edmontosaurus was one of the last non-avian dinosaurs, and lived alongside dinosaurs like Triceratops, Tyrannosaurus, Albertosaurus and Pachycephalosaurus shortly before the Cretaceous-Paleogene extinction event.

Edmontosaurus included some of the largest hadrosaurid species, measuring up to 12 metres (39 ft) long and weighing around 4.0 metric tons (4.4 short tons). Evidence does exist in the form of two fossilized specimens housed at the Museum of the Rockies for an even greater maximum size of 15 m (49 ft) and weighing 9.07 metric tons (10.00 short tons) for Edmontosaurus annectens. Several well-preserved specimens are known that include not only bones, but in some cases extensive skin impressions and possible gut contents. It is classified as a genus of saurolophine (or hadrosaurine) hadrosaurid, a member of the group of hadrosaurids which lacked large, hollow crests, instead having smaller solid crests or fleshy combs.

The first fossils named Edmontosaurus were discovered in southern Alberta (named after Edmonton, the capital city), in the Horseshoe Canyon Formation (formerly called the lower Edmonton Formation). The type species, E. regalis, was named by Lawrence Lambe in 1917, although several other species that are now classified in Edmontosaurus were named earlier. The best known of these is E. annectens, named by Othniel Charles Marsh in 1892; originally as a species of Claosaurus, known for many years as a species of Trachodon, and later as Anatosaurus annectens. Anatosaurus and Anatotitan are now generally regarded as synonyms of Edmontosaurus.

Edmontosaurus was widely distributed across western North America. The distribution of Edmontosaurus fossils suggests that it preferred coasts and coastal plains. It was a herbivore that could move on both two legs and four. Because it is known from several bone beds, Edmontosaurus is thought to have lived in groups, and may have been migratory as well. The wealth of fossils has allowed researchers to study its paleobiology in detail, including its brain, how it may have fed, and its injuries and pathologies, such as evidence for tyrannosaur attacks on a few edmontosaur specimens.

Skipper: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: DICYNODON!

Skipper fired a wave of earth and it formed into the dicynodont therapsid from 253.8 to 251 million years ago: Dicynodon!

---

Dicynodon ("two dog-teeth") is a genus of dicynodont therapsid that flourished during the Upper Permian period. Like all dicynodonts, it was herbivorous. This animal was toothless, except for prominent tusks, hence the name. It probably cropped vegetation with a horny beak, much like a tortoise, while the tusks may have been used for digging up roots and tubers.

Many species of Dicynodon have been named, and the genus is considered a wastebasket taxon. A 2011 study of the genus found most of the species to represent a paraphyletic grouping, with the only valid members of Dicynodon being D. lacerticeps and D. huenei. A 2019 study named a new species D. angielczyki, but simultaneously transferred D. huenei to the genus Daptocephalus.

Diictodon was a genus of pylaecephalid dicynodont. These mammal-like synapsids lived during the Late Permian period, approximately 255 million years ago. Fossils have been found in the Cistecephalus Assemblage Zone of the Madumabisa Mudstone of the Luangwa Basin in Zambia and the Tropidostoma Assemblage

Roughly half of all Permian vertebrate specimens found in South Africa are those of Diictodon. This small herbivorous animal was one of the most successful synapsids in the Permian period.

Numbuh 1 fired a wave of earth and it formed into one of the first ever known dinosaurs from 231 million years ago: Eoraptor!

Eoraptor (/ˈiːoʊˌræptər/) was one of the earliest-known dinosaurs, living approximately 231 to 228 million years ago, during the Late Triassic in Western Gondwana, in the region that is now northwestern Argentina. It was a small, lightly-built, basal saurischian dinosaur. It is known from several well-preserved skeletons. When first described in 1993, it was considered to be the earliest or one of the earliest known dinosaurs. Eoraptor has heterodont dentition, which suggests that it was omnivorous and that the feeding strategy had evolved early on in dinosaurs.

Liberty: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: TORVOSAURUS!

Liberty fired a wave of earth and it formed into the theropod dinosaur from 158 million years ago: Torvosaurus!

Torvosaurus (/ˌtɔːrvoʊˈsɔːrəs/) is a genus of carnivorous megalosauroid theropod dinosaur that lived approximately 153 to 148 million years ago during the Late Jurassic Period (Kimmeridgian to Tithonian) in what is now Colorado and Portugal. It contains two currently recognized species, Torvosaurus tanneri and Torvosaurus gurneyi.

In 1979 the type species Torvosaurus tanneri was named: it was a large, heavily built, bipedal carnivore, that could grow to a length of about 10 m (33 ft). T. tanneri was among the largest carnivores of its time, together with Epanterias and Saurophaganax (which could be both synonyms of Allosaurus). Specimens referred to Torvosaurus gurneyi were initially claimed to be up to twelve metres long, but later shown to be smaller. Based on bone morphology Torvosaurus is thought to have had short but very powerful arms.

Lyra: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: THRINAXODON!

Lyra fired a wave of earth and it formed into the cynodont from 251 million years ago: Thrinaxodon!

Thrinaxodon is an extinct genus of cynodonts, most commonly regarded by its species T. liorhinus which lived in what are now South Africa and Antarctica during the Early Triassic. Thrinaxodon lived just after the Permian-Triassic mass extinction event, its survival during the extinction may have been due to its burrowing habits.

Similar to other synapsids, Thrinaxodon adopted a semi-sprawling posture, an intermediary form between the sprawling position of pelycosaurs (not unlike current Crocodylia) and the more upright posture present in current mammals. Thrinaxodon is prevalent in the fossil record in part because it was one of the few carnivores of its time, and was of a larger size than similar cynodont carnivores.

Lee: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: CHASMOSAURUS!

Lee fired a wave of earth and it formed into the ceratopsian from 76.5 million years ago: Chasmosaurus!

Chasmosaurus (/ˌkæzmoʊ'sɔːrəs/ KAZ-mo-SAWR-əs) is a genus of ceratopsid dinosaur from the Upper Cretaceous Period of North America. Its name means 'opening lizard', referring to the large openings (fenestrae) in its frill (Greek chasma meaning 'opening' or 'hollow' or 'gulf' and sauros meaning 'lizard'). With a length of 4.3-4.8 metres (14.1-15.7 ft) and a weight of 1.5-2 tonnes (1.7-2.2 short tons), Chasmosaurus was a ceratopsian of average size. Like all ceratopsians, it was purely herbivorous. It was initially to be called Protorosaurus, but this name had been previously published for another animal. All specimens of Chasmosaurus were collected from the Dinosaur Park Formation of the Dinosaur Provincial Park of Alberta, Canada. C. russelli comes from the lower beds of the formation while C. belli comes from middle and upper beds.

Po: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: PROTEROSUCHUS!

Po fired a wave of water and it formed into the Permian reptile from 252 million years ago: Proterosuchus!

Proterosuchus is an extinct genus of archosauriform reptiles that lived during the Early Triassic. It contains three valid species: the type species P. fergusi and the referred species P. alexanderi and P. goweri. All three species lived in what is now South Africa. The genus was named in 1903 by the South African paleontologist Robert Broom. The well-known genus Chasmatosaurus is a junior synonym of Proterosuchus.

Proterosuchus was a mid-sized quadrupedal reptile with a sprawling stance that could reach a length of up to 3.5 meters (11 ft). It had a large head and distinctively hooked snout. It was a predator, which may have hunted prey such as Lystrosaurus. The lifestyle of Proterosuchus remains debated; it may have been terrestrial or it may have been a semiaquatic ambush predator similar to modern crocodiles.

Proterosuchus is one of the earliest members of the clade Archosauriformes, which also includes crocodilians, pterosaurs, and dinosaurs, including birds. It lived in the aftermath of the Permian-Triassic extinction event, the largest known mass extinction in Earth's history.

Fluttershy: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: EUCHAMBERSIA!

Fluttershy fired a wave of earth and it formed into the therapsid from 256 million years ago: Euchambersia!

Euchambersia is a genus of therocephalian therapsid that lived during the Late Permian, approximately 255 million years ago, in what is now South Africa. The genus contains a single species, Euchambersia mirabilis, named by paleontologist Robert Broom in 1931 from a skull missing the lower jaws; a second skull, belonging to an immature individual, was later described. It is a member of the family Akidnognathidae, which historically has also been referred by as the synonymous Euchambersiidae (named after Euchambersia).

Euchambersia was a small and short-snouted therocephalian, possessing large canines as is typical of the group. However, it is notable among therocephalians for possessing ridges on its canines and a large indentation in the side of the skull. Under the erroneous assumption that the canines are grooved instead of ridged, it has been proposed that these structures supported a venom delivery mechanism. More recently, the internal structure of the skull of Euchambersia has been used as stronger evidence in favour of the hypothesis that it was venomous; other possibilities, such as the indentation supporting some sort of sensory organ, still remain plausible.

Jimmy Neutron: WIND STYLE NINJA ART: RHAMPHORHYNCHUS!

Jimmy fired a wave of wind and it formed into the flying reptiles from 150.8 million years ago: Rhamphorhynchus!

---

Rhamphorhynchus (/ˌræmfəˈrɪŋkəs/, "beak snout") is a genus of long-tailed pterosaurs in the Jurassic period. Less specialized than contemporary, short-tailed pterodactyloid pterosaurs such as Pterodactylus, it had a long tail, stiffened with ligaments, which ended in a characteristic soft-tissue tail vane. The jaws of Rhamphorhynchus housed needle-like teeth, which were angled forward, with a curved, sharp, beak-like tip lacking teeth, indicating a diet mainly of fish; indeed, fish and cephalopod remains are frequently found in Rhamphorhynchus abdominal contents, as well as in their coprolites.

Although fragmentary fossil remains possibly belonging to Rhamphorhynchus have been found in England, Tanzania, and Spain, the best preserved specimens come from the Solnhofen limestone of Bavaria, Germany. Many of these fossils preserve not only the bones but impressions of soft tissues, such as wing membranes. Scattered teeth believed to belong to Rhamphorhynchus have been found in Portugal as well.

Kick Buttowski: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: SEYMOURIA!

Kick fired a wave of earth and it formed into the Permian seymouriamorph from 275 million years ago: Seymouria!

Seymouria is an extinct genus of seymouriamorph from the Early Permian of North America and Europe. Although they were amphibians (in a biological sense), Seymouria were well-adapted to life on land, with many reptilian features-so many, in fact, that Seymouria was first thought to be a primitive reptile. It is primarily known from two species, Seymouria baylorensis and Seymouria sanjuanensis. The type species, S. baylorensis, is more robust and specialized, though its fossils have only been found in Texas. On the other hand, Seymouria sanjuanensis is more abundant and widespread. This smaller species is known from multiple well-preserved fossils, including a block of six skeletons found in the Cutler Formation of New Mexico, and a pair of fully grown skeletons from the Tambach Formation of Germany, which were fossilized lying next to each other.

For the first half of the 20th century, Seymouria was considered one of the oldest and most "primitive" known reptiles. Paleontologists noted how the general body shape resembled that of early reptiles such as captorhinids, and that certain adaptations of the limbs, hip, and skull were also similar to that of early reptiles, rather than any species of modern or extinct amphibians known at the time. The strongly-built limbs and backbone also supported the idea that Seymouria was primarily terrestrial, spending very little time in the water.[9] However, in the 1950s, fossilized tadpoles were discovered in Discosauriscus, which was a close relative of Seymouria in the group Seymouriamorpha. This shows that seymouriamorphs (including Seymouria) had a larval stage which lived in the water, therefore making Seymouria not a true reptile, but rather an amphibian which was closely related to reptiles. Though no longer considered the most primitive reptile, Seymouria is still an important transitional fossil documenting the acquisition of reptile-like skeletal features prior to the evolution of the amniotic egg, which characterizes amniotes (reptiles, mammals, and birds).

Kendall Perkins: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: HYNERPETON!

Kendall fired a wave of water and it formed into the Devonian creature from 365 million years ago: Hynerpeton!

---

Hynerpeton (/haɪˈnɜːrpətɒn/; from Hyner, Pennsylvania and Ancient Greek ἑρπετόν herpetón, "creeping animal," meaning "creeping animal from Hyner") is an extinct genus of early four-limbed vertebrate that lived in the rivers and ponds of Pennsylvania during the Late Devonian period, around 365 to 363 million years ago. The only known species of Hynerpeton is H. bassetti, named after the describer's grandfather, city planner Edward Bassett. Hynerpeton is known for being the first Devonian four-limbed vertebrate discovered in the United States, as well as possibly being one of the first to have lost internal (fish-like) gills.

This genus is known from few remains discovered at the Red Hill fossil site in Hyner, Pennsylvania. The most notable fossil is a large endochondral shoulder girdle consisting of the cleithrum, scapula, and coracoid (but not the interclavicle and clavicles), all connected into one shoulder bone. The inner surface of this shoulder bone possesses an array of depressions believed to have been attachment points for a unique set of powerful muscles around the chest. This may have given Hynerpeton improved mobility and weight-bearing abilities compared to other Devonian limbed vertebrates such as Ichthyostega and Acanthostega. The cleithrum (upper blade of the shoulder) is fused to the scapulocoracoid (lower plate of the shoulder, in front of the shoulder socket), unlike in most tetrapods, but the shoulder girdle is independent of the skull, unlike in most fish.

Early four-limbed vertebrates are sometimes referred to as tetrapods (using a trait-based definition of the term), although animals like Hynerpeton, Ichthyostega, and Acanthostega are placed outside the crown group Tetrapoda by the vast majority of paleontologists. From a cladistic (relations-based) point of view, a more accurate term would be "stem-tetrapod" or "stegocephalian", indicating that they were part of the lineage of animals that would lead to true tetrapods such as modern amphibians (Lissamphibia), reptiles, mammals, and birds.

Hynerpeton hails from the Red Hill fossil site, which, during the Late Devonian, was a warm floodplain inhabited by a diverse ecosystem of aquatic fish and terrestrial invertebrates. Hynerpeton was one of several genera of four-limbed vertebrates known from the site, although it was the first to be discovered. It has been theorized that animals like Hynerpeton were able to use their amphibious lifestyle to find shallow pools where they could spawn, isolated from predatory fish which inhabited the deeper rivers.

Juandissimo: (Spanish Accent) WATER STYLE NINJA ART: TIKTAALIK!

Juandissimo fired a wave of water and it formed into the Devonian Sarcopterygian from 375 million years ago: Tiktaalik!

---

Tiktaalik (/tɪkˈtɑːlɪk/; Inuktitut ᑎᒃᑖᓕᒃ [tiktaːlik]) is a monospecific genus of extinct sarcopterygian (lobe-finned fish) from the Late Devonian Period, about 375 Mya (million years ago), having many features akin to those of tetrapods (four-legged animals).

Unearthed in Arctic Canada, Tiktaalik is technically a fish, complete with scales and gills - but it has the flattened head of a crocodile and unusual fins. Its fins have thin ray bones for paddling like most fish, but they also have sturdy interior bones that would have allowed Tiktaalik to prop itself up in shallow water and use its limbs for support as most four-legged animals do. Those fins and a suite of other characteristics set Tiktaalik apart as something special; it has a combination of features that show the evolutionary transition between swimming fish and their descendants, the four-legged vertebrates - a clade which includes amphibians, reptiles, birds and mammals.

It and similar animals may possibly be the common ancestors of the broad swath of all vertebrate terrestrial fauna: amphibians, reptiles, birds, and mammals.

The first well-preserved Tiktaalik fossils were found in 2004 on Ellesmere Island in Nunavut, Canada.

For reasons that are not fully understood, the hybodonts became extinct near the end of the Late Cretaceous period.

Patrick: OCEAN STYLE NINJA ART: LIVYATAN!

Patrick fired a wave of water and it formed into the first ancestral sperm whale from 9 million years ago: Livyatan!

---

Livyatan is an extinct genus of sperm whale containing one species: L. melvillei. The genus name was inspired by the biblical sea monster Leviathan, and the species name by Herman Melville, the author of the famous book Moby-Dick about a white bull sperm whale. It is mainly known from the Pisco Formation of Peru during the Tortonian stage of the Miocene epoch, about 9.9-8.9 million years ago (mya); however, isolated teeth from other locations such as Chile, Argentina, South Africa, and Australia implies that either it or a close relative survived into the Pliocene, around 5 mya, and was present throughout the Southern Hemisphere. It was a member of a group of hyper-predatory macroraptorial sperm whales (or "raptorial sperm whales") and was likely an apex predator, preying on whales, seals, and so forth. Characteristic of raptorial sperm whales, Livyatan had functional, enamel-coated teeth on the upper and lower jaws, as well as several adaptations for hunting large prey.

Livyatan's total length has been estimated to be about 13.5-17.5 m (44-57 ft), similar to the modern sperm whale (Physeter macrocephalus), making it one of the largest predators to have ever existed. The teeth of Livyatan measured 36.2 cm (1.2 ft), and are the largest biting teeth of any known animal, excluding tusks. It is distinguished from the other raptorial sperm whales by the basin on the skull, and how it spans the entire length of the snout. The spermaceti organ, contained in that basin, is thought to have been used in echolocation and communication, or for ramming prey and other sperm whales. The whale may have interacted with the large extinct shark megalodon (Carcharocles megalodon), competing with it for a similar food source. Its extinction was likely caused by a cooling event at the end of the Miocene which resulted in a drop in food populations. The formation where the whale has been found has also preserved a large assemblage of marine life, such as sharks and marine mammals.

Dawn fired a wave of leaves and wood and it formed into the hadrosaur from 155 million years ago: Dryosaurus!

Dryosaurus (/ˌdraɪoʊˈsɔːrəs/ DRY-o-SAWR-əs; meaning 'tree lizard', Greek δρῦς (drys) meaning 'tree, oak' and σαυρος (sauros) meaning 'lizard'; the name reflects the forested habitat, not a vague oak-leaf shape of its cheek teeth as is sometimes assumed) is a genus of an ornithopod dinosaur that lived in the Late Jurassic period. It was an iguanodont (formerly classified as a hypsilophodont). Fossils have been found in the western United States and were first discovered in the late 19th century. Valdosaurus canaliculatus and Dysalotosaurus lettowvorbecki were both formerly considered to represent species of Dryosaurus.

Mike (Total Drama): FOREST STYLE NINJA ART: ORNITHOLESTES!

Mike fired a wave of wood and leaves and it formed into the theropod dinosaur from 154 million years ago: Ornitholestes.

---

Ornitholestes (meaning "bird robber") is a small theropod dinosaur of the late Jurassic (Brushy Basin Member of the Morrison Formation, middle Kimmeridgian age, about 154 million years ago) of Western Laurasia (the area that was to become North America).

To date, Ornitholestes is known only from a single partial skeleton with a badly crushed skull found at the Bone Cabin Quarry near Medicine Bow, Wyoming, in 1900. It was described by Henry Fairfield Osborn in 1903. An incomplete hand was later attributed to Ornitholestes, although it now appears to belong to Tanycolagreus. The type (and only known) species is O. hermanni. The specific name honors the American Museum of Natural History preparator Adam Hermann.

Fuzzy fired a wave of wood and leaves and it formed into the neornithischian dinosaur from 155 million years ago: Nanosaurus A.K.A. Othnielia!

Nanosaurus ("small or dwarf lizard") is the name given to a genus of neornithischian dinosaur that lived about 155 to 148 million years ago, during the Late Jurassic-age. Its fossils are known from the Morrison Formation of the south-western United States. The type and only species, Nanosaurus agilis, was described and named by Othniel Charles Marsh in 1877. The taxon has a complicated taxonomic history, largely the work of Marsh and Peter M. Galton, involving the genera Laosaurus, Hallopus, Drinker, Othnielia, and Othnielosaurus, the latter three now being considered to be synonyms of Nanosaurus. It had historically been classified as a hypsilophodont or fabrosaur, types of generalized small bipedal herbivore, but more recent research has abandoned these groupings as paraphyletic and Nanosaurus is today considered a basal member of Neornithischia.

Magnolia: FOREST STYLE NINJA ART: DAKOTARAPTOR!

Magnolia fired a wave of wood and leaves and it formed into the theropod dinosaur from 66 million years ago: Dakotaraptor.

---

Dakotaraptor is a potentially chimaeric genus of large dromaeosaurid theropod dinosaur that lived in North America during the Late Cretaceous period. The remains have been found in the Maastrichtian stage of the Hell Creek Formation, dated to the very end of the Mesozoic era, making Dakotaraptor one of the last surviving dromaeosaurids. The remains of D. steini were discovered in a multi-species bonebed. Elements of the holotype and referred specimens were later found to belong to trionychid turtles, and further analysis of potential non-dromaeosaurid affinities of the holotype and referred material have not yet been conducted. Phylogenetic analyses of D. steini place it in a variety of positions in the Dromaeosauridae.

The type species is Dromaeosaurus albertensis, which was described by William Diller Matthew and Barnum Brown in 1922.

Goku: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: DEINONYCHUS!

Goku fired a wave of earth and it formed into the deadly pack-hunting theropods from 115 million years ago: Deinonychus!

Deinonychus (/daɪˈnɒnɪkəs/ dy-NON-i-kəs; from Greek: δεινός deinós, 'terrible' and ὄνυξ ónux, genitive ὄνυχος ónuchos 'claw') is a genus of dromaeosaurid theropod dinosaur with one described species, Deinonychus antirrhopus. This species, which could grow up to 3.4 meters (11 ft) long, lived during the early Cretaceous Period, about 115-108 million years ago (from the mid-Aptian to early Albian stages). Fossils have been recovered from the U.S. states of Montana, Utah, Wyoming, and Oklahoma, in rocks of the Cloverly Formation, Cedar Mountain Formation and Antlers Formation, though teeth that may belong to Deinonychus have been found much farther east in Maryland.

Paleontologist John Ostrom's study of Deinonychus in the late 1960s revolutionized the way scientists thought about dinosaurs, leading to the "dinosaur renaissance" and igniting the debate on whether dinosaurs were warm-blooded or cold-blooded. Before this, the popular conception of dinosaurs had been one of plodding, reptilian giants. Ostrom noted the small body, sleek, horizontal posture, ratite-like spine, and especially the enlarged raptorial claws on the feet, which suggested an active, agile predator.

"Terrible claw" refers to the unusually large, sickle-shaped talon on the second toe of each hind foot. The fossil YPM 5205 preserves a large, strongly curved ungual. In life, archosaurs have a horny sheath over this bone, which extends the length. Ostrom looked at crocodile and bird claws and reconstructed the claw for YPM 5205 as over 120 millimetres (4.7 in) long. The species name antirrhopus means "counter balance", which refers to Ostrom's idea about the function of the tail. As in other dromaeosaurids, the tail vertebrae have a series of ossified tendons and super-elongated bone processes. These features seemed to make the tail into a stiff counterbalance, but a fossil of the very closely related Velociraptor mongoliensis (IGM 100/986) has an articulated tail skeleton that is curved laterally in a long S-shape. This suggests that, in life, the tail could bend to the sides with a high degree of flexibility. In both the Cloverly and Antlers formations, Deinonychus remains have been found closely associated with those of the ornithopod Tenontosaurus. Teeth discovered associated with Tenontosaurus specimens imply they were hunted, or at least scavenged upon, by Deinonychus.

Daspletosaurus (/dæsˌpliːtəˈsɔːrəs/ das-PLEET-o-SAWR-əs; meaning "frightful lizard") is a genus of tyrannosaurid dinosaur that lived in western North America between about 77 and 74 million years ago, during the Late Cretaceous Period. The genus Daspletosaurus contains two species. Fossils of the earlier type species, D. torosus, have been found in Alberta, while fossils of the later second species, D. horneri, have been found only in Montana. A possible third species, also from Alberta, awaits formal identification. Daspletosaurus is closely related to the much larger and more recent tyrannosaurid Tyrannosaurus rex. Like most tyrannosaurids, Daspletosaurus was a multi-tonne bipedal predator equipped with dozens of large, sharp teeth. Daspletosaurus had the small forelimbs typical of tyrannosaurids, although they were proportionately longer than in other genera.

As an apex predator, Daspletosaurus was at the top of the food chain, probably preying on large dinosaurs like the ceratopsid Centrosaurus and the hadrosaur Hypacrosaurus. In some areas, Daspletosaurus coexisted with another tyrannosaurid, Gorgosaurus, though there is some evidence of niche differentiation between the two. While Daspletosaurus fossils are rarer than other tyrannosaurids', the available specimens allow some analysis of the biology of these animals, including social behavior, diet and life history.

Sinoceratops /ˌsaɪnoʊˈsɛrətɒps/ is an extinct genus of ceratopsian dinosaur that lived approximately 73 million years ago during the latter part of the Cretaceous Period in what is now Shandong province in China. It was named in 2010 by Xu Xing et al. for three skulls from Zhucheng, China. The name of its type species Sinoceratops zhuchengensis means "Chinese horned face from Zhucheng", after the location of its discovery.

Sinoceratops was a medium-sized, averagely-built, ground-dwelling, quadrupedal herbivore. It could grow up to an estimated 6 m (19.7 ft) length and 2 metres (6.6 ft) height, and weigh up to 2 tonnes (2.0 long tons; 2.2 short tons). It was the first ceratopsid dinosaur discovered in China, and the only ceratopsid known from Asia. All other centrosaurines, and all chasmosaurines, are known from fossils discovered in North America, except for possibly Turanoceratops. Sinoceratops is also significant because it is one of the largest known centrosaurines, and is much larger than any other known basal members of this group.

Sinoceratops was discovered in the Xingezhuang Formation, which was deposited during the late Cretaceous. It lived alongside leptoceratopsids, saurolophines, and tyrannosaurines. The most common creature in the formation was Shantungosaurus, to which most of the material has been assigned. The animals living alongside Sinoceratops and Shantungosaurus were Zhuchengceratops, Zhuchengtitan, and Zhuchengtyrannus.

Me: WOLF FIRE STYLE NINJA ART: AMPHICOELIAS!

I fired a blast of blue fire and it formed into one of the largest sauropod dinosaurs ever discovered from 150 million years ago: Amphicoelias!

---

Amphicoelias (/ˌæmfɪˈsiːliəs/, meaning "biconcave", from the Greek ἀμφί, amphi: "on both sides", and κοῖλος, koilos: "hollow, concave") is a genus of herbivorous sauropod dinosaur that lived approximately 150 million years ago during the Tithonian (Late Jurassic Period) of what is now Colorado, United States. An herbivore, Amphicoelias was moderately sized at about 25 m (82 ft) long-roughly the same length as Diplodocus, to which it was related. Its hindlimbs were very long and thin, and its forelimbs were proportionally longer than in relatives.

The namesake fossil of the type species Amphicoelias altus, American Museum of Natural History 5764, is uncertain in included material. When described by Edward Drinker Cope shortly after its discovery in 1877, Amphicoelias was noted to include many back vertebrae, a single pubis, and a femur. However, after purchase and cataloging of the material by the AMNH, Henry Fairfield Osborn and Charles Mook described that the specimen had only two vertebrae, a pubis, femur, tooth, scapula, coracoid, ulna and a second femur. The additional material, not mentioned by Cope, was found close in proximity to the holotype and was similar to Diplodocus, a relative of Amphicoelias. Their assignment was questioned by subsequent authors Emanuel Tschopp et al. in an analysis of Diplodocidae.

During the description of Amphicoelias altus in 1877, Cope additionally named A. latus, for a femur and tail vertebrae. Following its description, Osborn and Mook in 1921 reidentified the material as a specimen of Camarasaurus, an assignment followed by other authors who reviewed the material. A year later 1878, Cope named the third species of Amphicoelias, A. fragillimus for a gigantic dorsal vertebra that was subsequently lost. Measuring approximately 2.7 m (8.9 ft) if reconstructed based on Diplodocus, early estimates for the length of the animal in life were between 40 and 60 m (130 and 200 ft) long. Due to the incomplete nature, such lengths-the longest of any known dinosaur and sauropod-were largely ignored. In 2018, Kenneth Carpenter renamed Amphicoelias fragillimus as the new genus Maraapunisaurus, and reclassified it from Diplodocidae to Rebbachisauridae.

Sonic: WIND STYLE NINJA ART: EUDIMORPHODON!

Sonic fired a wave of wind and it formed into the flying reptile from Italy that lived 210 million years ago: Eudimorphodon!

---

Eudimorphodon was a pterosaur that was discovered in 1973 by Mario Pandolfi in the town of Cene, Italy and described the same year by Rocco Zambelli. The nearly complete skeleton was retrieved from shale deposited during the Late Triassic (mid to late Norian stage), making Eudimorphodon one of the oldest pterosaurs known. It had a wingspan of about 100 centimetres (3.3 ft) and at the end of its long bony tail may have been a diamond-shaped flap like in the later Rhamphorhynchus. If so, the flap may have helped it steer while maneuvering in the air. Eudimorphodon is known from several skeletons, including juvenile specimens.

---

Heilongjiangosaurus" (meaning "Heilongjiang lizard") is the informal name given to an as-yet undescribed genus of duckbilled dinosaur from the Late Cretaceous. It possibly was a lambeosaurine, and may in fact be the same animal as Charonosaurus. The fossils were found in Maastrichtian-age rocks in Heilongjiang, China. As a nomen nudum, it is unclear what material it was intended to be based on, but might be connected to the nomen nudum "Mandschurosaurus" jiainensis, informally named in a 1983 publication.

The "type species" is "H. jiayinensis", and it was coined in 2001 in a faunal list by Li and Jin.

Cera: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: OJOCERATOPS!

Cera fired a wave of earth and it formed into the ceratopsian from 68 million years ago: Ojoceratops!

---

Ojoceratops ( meaning "Ojo Alamo horned face") is a genus of ceratopsian dinosaur which lived in what is now New Mexico, United States. Ojoceratops fossils have been recovered from strata of the Ojo Alamo Formation (Naashoibito Member), dating to the late Cretaceous period (probably Maastrichtian age, 68 million years ago). The type species is Ojoceratops fowleri. It is very similar to its close relative Triceratops, though it is from an earlier time period and has a more squared-off frill. Nick Longrich, in 2011, noted that the squared-off frill is also found in some true Triceratops specimens and that Ojoceratops is probably a junior synonym of Triceratops, while Holtz (2010) noted that it is probably ancestral to Triceratops and possibly synonymous with the contemporary Eotriceratops.

Ducky: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: GRYPOSAURUS!

Ducky fired a wave of earth and it formed into the hadrosaur from 80 million years ago: Gryposaurus!

Gryposaurus (meaning "hooked-nosed (Greek grypos) lizard"; sometimes incorrectly translated as "griffin (Latin gryphus) lizard") was a genus of duckbilled dinosaur that lived about 80 to 75 million years ago, in the Late Cretaceous (late Santonian to late Campanian stages) of North America. Named species of Gryposaurus are known from the Dinosaur Park Formation in Alberta, Canada, and two formations in the United States: the Lower Two Medicine Formation in Montana and the Kaiparowits Formation of Utah. A possible additional species may extend the temporal range of the genus to 66 million years ago.

Gryposaurus is similar to Kritosaurus, and for many years the two were thought to be synonyms. It is known from numerous skulls, some skeletons, and even some skin impressions that show it to have had pyramidal scales projecting along the midline of the back. It is most easily distinguished from other duckbills by its narrow arching nasal hump, sometimes described as similar to a "Roman nose," and which may have been used for species or sexual identification, and/or combat with individuals of the same species. A large bipedal/quadrupedal herbivore around 9 meters (30 feet) long, it may have preferred river settings.

Tropeognathus (meaning "keel jaw") is a genus of large pterosaurs from the late Early Cretaceous of South America. This genus is considered to be a member of the Ornithocheiridae, a diverse group of pterosaurs known for their keel-tipped snouts and large size. Tropeognathus is regarded as the largest pterosaur found in the Southern Hemisphere, only rivaled by the huge azhdarchids. The type and only species is Tropeognathus mesembrinus. Fossil remains of Tropeognathus have been recovered from the Romualdo Formation, which is a Lagerstätte located in the Santana Group of the Araripe Basin in northeastern Brazil.

Spike: (Through translator) EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: DRAVIDOSAURUS!

Spike fired a wave of earth and it formed into the Dravidanidu dinosaur from 90 million years ago: Dravidosaurus!

Dravidosaurus (meaning "Dravidanadu lizard", Dravidanadu being a region in the southern part of India where the remains were discovered) is a controversial genus of prehistoric reptile. It was first described as the last surviving stegosaurian, the group of "plated" dinosaurs. With an estimated length of three metres (10 ft), it would have also been the smallest member of the group. More recent studies, however, have shown that the bones actually belonged to a plesiosaurian marine reptile, and that none of the remains are demonstrably dinosaurian in origin.

Dravidosaurus lived in the Late Cretaceous period (Coniacian stage) of what is now India. It is only known from disassociated remains that were originally described as comprising a partial skull, a tooth, a sacrum, an ilium, an ischium, a dermal plate, and a spike. The badly weathered remains were discovered in marine deposits near Ariyalur in the state of Tamil Nadu in South India. They were in 1979 named by P.M. Yadagiri and Krishnan Ayyasami as the type species Dravidosaurus blanfordi, the specific name honouring William Thomas Blanford. The holotype partial skull is catalogued as GSI SR Pal 1, while other specimens are catalogued GSI SR Pal 2-7.

In 1991, Sankar Chatterjee visited the site and claimed, without presenting concrete morphological evidence, that Dravidosaurus was based on plesiosaurian pelvic and hindlimb elements, the species being a nomen dubium. However, this claim was rejected by Galton and Upchurch (2004), who noted that the skull, tooth and plate of Dravidosaurus are certainly not plesiosaurian as illustrated. Galton and Ayyasami (2017) reaffirmed the stegosaurian classification of Dravidosaurus, claiming the remains do not look like plesiosaurian pelvic and hindlimb elements. They announced that stegosaurian remains from the Dravidosaurus type locality are under study by one of the original describers of Dravidosaurus.

(Goku's Spirit Bomb Theme Plays)

Doomsday 23: WE WILL DESTROY YOU ALL AS ONE!

Me: NOT IF I HAVE ANYTHING TO SAY ABOUT IT!

We formed a massive Spirit Bomb.

Me and my kids formed a massive rainbow Spirit Bomb and it had many more Spirit Bombs of different colors orbiting around it in an atomic formation.

Nico: WHOA!

Goku: Wow! That Spirit Bomb is incredible!

Vegeta: What power!

Lincoln: Lets take this monster down for good!

Lincoln and his Harem: ULTIMATE FINAL SMASH! MEGA ELEMENTAL KAMEHAMEHA!

They fired Kamehameha blasts which then merged into one gigantic kamehameha blast and the Doomsday 23 fired a massive blast of energy. The blasts collided and Lincoln's blast was pushing it back.

Me: Take this you monster! FRIENDSHIP SPIRIT BOMB STRIKE!

We fired the massive Spirit Bomb!

Me: YOU ARE NOT WELCOME HERE! DIE!

Just as Lincoln's blast hit the dragon the Spirit Bomb hit the dragon too and the blasts all exploded with incredible power!

KRABOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion was so powerful, so massive, so devastating and destructive that it blew half of the entire planet to smithereens and it then blew the entire planet of Dathomir to space dust. It was totally gone. We were back on Earth safe and we powered down.

We saw the explosion from far away.

Twilight: It's over. We won!

WE CHEERED WILDLY!

Me: YEAH!

The Doomsday 23's spirits then came.

Me: Girls, Lincoln, lets give them their final goodbye.

Twilight Sparkle: With pleasure.

Lincoln: Count me in!

We went up to them!

Princess Celestia: All the punishments are not worthy of all that you have done!

Me: But this one is!

Discord: May I help?

Me: Sure Discord.

Me, Lincoln, Mane 9, Discord, Princess Celestia, Princess Luna, Princess Cadance, Princess Amore, Apple Bloom and Nico: HAKAI!

The Doomsday 23 glowed purple and screamed as they were obliterated and erased from existence forever!

Me: Now it's over!

We all cheered wildly and erupted in a massive roar of applause.

Later at Canterlot we were kneeling before the Princesses and we were given Equestria's highest honor: the Medal of Harmonious Valor and Friendship and it was a great honor. We were made the greatest heroes in the world and all of Equestria.

Me: We are honored Princess. We are honored.

Princess Celestia: We are all forever in your debt J.D. You and all your friends have saved us all.

Me: It wasn't just Team Loud Phoenix Storm, Princess. It was everyone from all over the universe. We all banded together and helped save the universe from Total Destruction.

Nico: We sure did.

Rainbow Dash: You deserve a reward, Lincoln.

Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Rarity, Rainbow Dash, Applejack and Starlight Glimmer kissed him and left lipstick marks on his face and steam shot out of his eyes as his face was glowing atomic red.

Lincoln: (Laughs goofily)

Me: This calls for a celebration everyone!

Pinkie Pie: LETS PARTY!

We all cheered!

We had an awesome party!

King Stefan made it clear that after everything that happened, he will never go after Maleficent 2014 again.

Guard 1: (to King Stefan) Well, sire. The only thing to do now is to go back to your castle and prepare for our own upcoming battle.

Stefan: No. There will be no more fighting from me here. There will be no more fighting from me ever again.

Maria: Say what?

Stefan: We've all experienced the horror of oppression and war. And I specifically have lost my taste for inflicting it.

Guard 2: Sire, you've clearly been traumatized. I'm sure a long nap and a nice training run against dummies of Maleficent will help you get back on track.

Stefan: ENOUGH! (to his guards) My war against Maleficent is over. And that is final!

All of us were shocked to hear this. But then, we looked at Stefan's guards.

Guard 3: (nervously) Well, we all have a lot to think about, don't we?

With that, the guards run back to Stefan's castle.

Me: Wow. King Stefan we really owe you one for helping us out. Thank you your majesty.

King Stefan: Anytime J.D. Anytime.

We shook hands.

Nico: It was really awesome though.

King Vegeta: Indeed it was Bokrua. You have made your people very proud.

Vegeta: He sure has father. He is a great Saiyan.

Fasha: Just like so many of us.

Me: I'm so sorry about what Frieza did to you all. I think I can fix that for you all.

I snapped my fingers and King Vegeta and all the Saiyans were brought back to life!

Nico: Awesome!

Vegeta: Father you're home now!

Psycho Blue: (to Vypra) Look, Vypra. We're not going to join you right away. Right now, the 5 of us need go on a journey of self reflection.

Vypra: I understand.

Psycho Black: (chuckles) But you don't mind if we… tie up loose ends for you guys, do you?

Me: Not at all.

Nico: But we greatly appreciate your help. All of you.

Psycho Yellow: No problem. It was so fun.

Me: It sure was.

Back in Stefan's kingdom the Guards were contemplating.

Guard 4: What shall we do now?

Guard 5: We pick up where King Stefan left off and find a way to end Maleficent once and for all. Without provoking Team Loud Phoenix Storm, of course.

Suddenly, they saw the Psycho Rangers teleport into the castle.

Guard 6: (nervously) Of course, our throne where King Stefan sat on would be suitable for much more powerful people like you 5.

Psycho Yellow: Oh, we're not here to seize thrones.

Psycho Pink: We're here to help Team Loud Phoenix Storm settle old scores!

The guards had horrified looks on their faces as the Psycho

Rangers approached them while laughing maniacally.

They were in hot water.

And then their screams were heard as the Psycho Rangers killed them!

Back at the World Tree Estate, we were having an awesome party.

Nico: J.D. I don't understand. How come you brought back my people?

Me: Because after everything that Frieza put them through when he made them his pawns in his quest for Universal Domination, I figured they deserve a second chance and a shot at redemption. They didn't deserve to be wiped out like that. If Frieza does come back he will regret it.

Nico: Thank you J.D. Thank you.

Me: Anytime Nico.

Laney: Great Party.

Me: It's for all of us. We ALL earned it.

Ryo: We sure did.

Me: And we owe you big time for helping us Ryo. We can't thank you enough.

Ryo: Anytime J.D.

Me: If Emperor Talpa comes back we will gladly help you destroy him forever.

Ryo: Thanks man.

We shook hands.

Sean: (to Razorfist) Are you alright, babe?

Rice reverted back.

Rice: Yeah I'm fine. It'll take more than Midnight Sparkle to kill me.

Sean: Good. Thank goodness.

Me: You all did a great job today. I'm so proud of all of you.

Nico: Thanks man.

Vegeta: It was great.

Goku: And it was awesome taking down the Doomsday 23.

Gine: It sure was. But I don't see Bardock anyway.

Me: If he is not here then that must mean that he's not dead and he is still out there in the universe somewhere. We will find him when the time comes.

Nico: Wow.

Laney: Don't worry Master Goku, we will find Bardock.

Me: Yep.

Maria: (to King Stefan) So, what will you do now?

King Stefan: We'll still fight later this month. But I will not go after Maleficent anymore as I said. I'm a man of my word.

Me: Thank goodness. But you did great today your majesty.

King Stefan: Thank you lad. And I'm so sorry for everything I did to Maleficent. It was a terrible darkness and hatred in me.

Me: I understand your majesty.

Twilight Sparkle: (To the viewers) All of our major enemies have been destroyed forever. Now we still have the minor enemies to take down.

Me: And we will Twilight. This was an epic battle.

Lola: Yeah it was!

We partied hard into the night.

We then saw Lincoln in his room sleeping and he had Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Applejack, Rainbow Dask, Rarity, Fluttershy, Pinkie Pie, Starlight Glimmer and Trixie with him sleeping in his bed.

Mane 9 were asleep with Lincoln while snuggling up to them.

Kairi: Let's not disturb them.

Me: (Whispers) They are so cute like this.

Lori: (Whispers) They sure are.

Me: Shh.

We closed the door and left.

It was a big victory for all of us and for everyone on the team. Equestria and the universe were saved and the Doomsday 23 had been silenced forever. April 12th was a big day for us all. We destroyed the Doomsday 23, resurrected the Saiyans, Terrence and Tyrone redeemed themselves and got their sentences cut down to community service, Pikkon was resurrected, had new villains join the Masters of Evil and more.

THE END

Another awesome fanfiction complete.

WOOHOO! This was epic! I hope you all loved this action packed chapter. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Drako1234658, and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this one. Thanks guys. Next up is a chapter that's based on a game from my childhood. It's called Astal and it takes place on a planet made of crystal and it's being terrorized by the forces and monsters of the evil god Jerado and make him pay for his crimes. We're going to see if we can defy the impossible and kill a god.

See you all tomorrow.

A World of Crystal

(Treasure Trove Cove - Banjo-Kazooie Plays)

After our awesome victory in the Great War of Equestria we were celebrating our victory at the beach and having an awesome beach party. I was in my tropical shirt and trunks and the girls were all in bikinis and swimsuits.

Me: Ahh. This is the life.

Nico: Boy you said it buddy. Nothing like relaxing at the beach after a powerful and massive battle.

Me: Amen to that brother.

We fistbump.

Laney and Lana were building sandcastles, Lola was sunbathing and Carol, Lori and Varie were getting tan.

Carol: This is great. Vince can you rub some sunscreen on my back?

Vince: Sure thing babe.

He did so.

Lori: Boo Boo Bear can you do so too?

Bobby: You got it babe.

He did so.

Misty and Carly were splashing each other in the water.

Rainbow Dash, Applejack and Rarity were using Metal Detectors and looking for buried treasure.

Luna was providing the tropical beach music.

Lynn, Lightning Dust, Margo and Paula were all playing Volleyball.

Apple Bloom, Sweetie Belle, Scootaloo, Diamond Tiara and Silver Spoon were having fun too and were surfing and having fun in the water.

Twilight Sparkle was surfing too. Same with Lincoln and his some of his harem.

Lynn spiked a volleyball and slammed it into the ground.

Lynn: Yeah! Huh?

Lynn saw a turtle on the sand.

Lynn: Hey, little guy. You look pretty lonely.

The turtle looked at her.

Lynn: You're kinda cute. Do you have a name?

The turtle wrote the words "Sheldon" in the sand. Rainbow Dash came over with Tank.

Lynn: Sheldon. Awesome name.

Rainbow Dash: Looks like Tank is gonna have a new playmate.

Lynn: Yeah he sure will. Meet Sheldon.

Rainbow Dash: Nice to meet you Sheldon.

Tank nodded yes.

Lynn picked up Sheldon.

We got back to our beach activities and we were having a blast. We then had a picnic and went back home 4 hours later. In Lynn's room she was watching Sheldon.

Lucy: So that's your turtle, huh?

Lynn: It sure is.

Rainbow Dash: We just met him. But I can already tell that Sheldon is gonna be good friends with Tank.

Lynn: I just hope Sheldon likes soccer.

Lynn then saw that her soccer ball was deflated.

Lynn: My soccer ball! It's deflated! (to Lucy) Lucy, did you deflate my soccer ball?

Lucy: No, I didn't. Maybe it was your turtle.

Rainbow Dash: Don't be silly, Lucy. Sheldon's harmless. He wouldn't hurt a fly.

But little did they know that it actually WAS Sheldon that did it and that this was a turtle that is very well known to Stewie, Brian and Mario. They weren't with us because they were out looking for more Pokemon.

Rainbow Dash: I think Sheldon is really cute though.

Tank agrees too.

Rainbow Dash pet Sheldon and he liked it.

Lynn: You like turtles don't you R.D.

Rainbow Dash: You bet I do. Turtles are my favorite animals. They are awesome.

Lynn: I can see that.

Me: But no worries Lynn, I can patch up your ball and make it just like new.

Lynn: Thanks J.D.

Me: Watch this.

I used powers like Kevin Levin's and touched the Soccer Ball and turned my hand into rubber and patched up the hole in the ball.

Lynn: WHOA! You have Kevin's powers?

Me: I somehow discovered that I can do that. Watch this. WIND STYLE: BICYCLE PUMP JUTSU!

I formed my finger into a bicycle pump nozzle with chakra and pumped the ball up and made it good as new.

Lynn: Wow! That was awesome!

Rainbow Dash: So cool! Think you can teach me that technique?

Me: I sure can.

Later Lynn was showing Sheldon her scrapbook.

Lynn: And here's when I got my first football trophy. (turns the page but then cuts herself) Ah! Paper cut!

Lynn then saw a razor blade in the scrapbook.

Lynn: A razor blade?! Who the hell uses a razor blade as a bookmark?!

Sheldon, who put the razor blade there, just shrugged. That's when Lola and Oceanus Shenron came in. Lola was holding one of her dolls who drawings on it.

Oceanus Shenron: All right, very funny, Lynn.

Lynn: What?

Lola: What do you mean, what? You drew on my dolls with black marker just 5 minutes ago!

Lynn: No, I didn't. (laughs) But your doll does look funny like that.

Oceanus Shenron: Just stay away from Lola's stuff, okay?

Lynn: Look, as much as I want to take credit for that, it wasn't me.

Lola: Well, if it wasn't you, who was it? I mean, there's a lot of weird stuff going on around here lately. Just yesterday, somebody putt boogers on Leni's dresses.

Oceanus Shenron: And then somebody put itching powder in Lana's cereal.

Lynn: Well, I'm sure there's a perfectly logical explanation for those things. Sometimes you just…

All of a sudden, a bookshelf in the room fell over at Lynn but she avoided it just in time.

CRASH!

Oceanus Shenron: Whoa, that was close!

Lola: Yeah, how'd that thing fall over?

Sheldon smiled to himself, having been the one to push the bookshelf over.

I came in.

Me: You guys all right in here?

Lynn: Yeah we're fine.

Me: Whoa. Thank goodness you're all okay.

Lynn: Luan! This has to be Luan's handiwork!

Me: I don't think so Lynn. Luan may have done some terrible pranks but these are not her strongsuit.

Lynn: Hmm. Yeah you're right. But something weird is going on here.

Me: Yeah. And we got to find out what.

Eli: Look out J.D.!

I ducked and an arrow hit the wall where my head would've been!

Me: Whoa! That was a close one.

Oceanus Shenron: Yeah.

Me: Whew. Thanks Eli.

Eli: You're welcome.

Lori: LYNN! GET IN HERE!

Lynn and Rollbar went into Lori's room. And we followed.

Lori: You think this is funny?!

Lynn: What are you talking about?

Lori: Oh, don't give me that bullshit! Explain to me why you drew this on my wall!

They both saw on the wall an ugly drawing of Lori titled "Big Fat Meanie" in Lynn's handwriting.

Rollbar: Seriously, Lynn. Lori doesn't even look like that!

Lynn: That is not me!

Patrick: That's more like something I would do.

Lily: Didn't you draw a picture like that of Mrs. Puff, Patrick?

Patrick: Yeah and looking back on that I got SpongeBob in trouble for it.

Mrs. Puff: That was you that drew that Patrick? Oh SpongeBob I'm sorry I falsely accused you for that.

SpongeBob: It's all right Mrs. Puff.

Me: But this is not Lynn's work. She would not draw on the walls like that. Besides Lori do you have any proof that she did this?

Lori: Well no.

Nico: Don't jump to conclusions like that Lori.

Me: Something is going on here and we need to find out what it is.

Eli: Yeah.

We left and Sheldon was watching us and smiling maliciously.

Maria: (to Lynn) Look, Lynn. Is this payback for all the times we made you, Lori, and Lola keep your anger bottled up on missions?

Snapdragon: Maria, if that were the case, Lola and Lori wouldn't have been pranked.

Maria: Yeah you're right.

Eli: Something is going on here and it's getting Lynn in trouble.

Twilight Sparkle: We need to do some detective work and get to the bottom of this.

Laney: Yeah. This looks like a job for (Spins around and was in her detective outfit) Detective Laney!

Twilight Sparkle got her detective outfit on.

Twilight Sparkle: And I will gladly help too.

Vambre: (British Accent) And I will help out too. (She spun and was in her detective outfit) Veronica Victorious is gonna help too.

Announcer: MAGNIFYING GLASS MAGISWORD!

She had said Magisword ready!

Me: Lets investigate!

We got to looking around and I also had the Footprint Magisword on and it found Turtle Footprints and they were on some of Lynn's Stuff and all over the wall. We had a strong feeling that it was Sheldon that was doing it and we had to keep quiet about it to not let him know we were on to him.

Sixshot: We're going to have to find out who's framing Lynn later. Right now, it's time for the next mission.

Me: Good idea. And you will like this.

Nico: What is it?

Me: We're going to an incredibly interesting world. The name of this world is called Quartilla.

Garnet: We know Quartilla.

Pearl: The Crystal Gems have been there many times before.

Amethyst: It's really awesome. But it also has a lot of problems too.

Me: I know. Steven told me all about it.

I went over what Steven told me.

---

Somewhere in the universe, the Goddess Antowas created a world from a single jewel. On this world, Quartilia, she created the sky, earth, and air. To inhabit this world, she created two humans: from a green jewel, a girl, Leda, who has the power to make things live on Quartilia; and from a red Jewel, a boy, Astal, whose purpose was to protect Leda. Content with her creation, Antowas slept.

While she slept, the evil Jerado tried to take over Quartilia. To ensure victory, Jerado created a warrior: Geist. Geist kidnapped Leda, and held her at the bottom of the ocean. In an effort to get her back, Astal tore Quartilia apart, awakening Antowas. As punishment, Antowas banished Astal to Quartilia's moon. Leda took pity on Astal, and gave him her jewel. Once Astal and Jerado were dealt with, Antowas went back to sleep.

However, Geist was still free, and Quartilia was not restored from the changes Jerado wrought. From his prison on the moon, Astal witnessed Geist kidnap Leda again. Consumed with the need to protect her, he freed himself and returned to Quartilia. Now Astal journeys in search of Leda through a Quartilia transformed by Jerado's dark design, along with a strange bird who for some reason just won't leave him alone…

When I was done they all gasped.

Nico: Whoa! So we're going there to kill Jerado and help Astal find Leda.

Me: Yep. And this is perfect too. Rarity you would love this world because of your use of jewels for your clothes.

Rarity: I most certainly would!

Cuprosklodowskite: I think this will be so cool.

Dioptase: Me too.

Peridot: This is gonna be interesting.

Vegeta: Looks like this Geist and I both have something in common. I was always trying to best Kakarot in strength and power.

Me: That is very coincidental Master Vegeta.

Top, Golden Glider, Batroc the Leaper, Multiplex, Kite Man, Melter, Jack O Lantern, and Touch & Go then appeared.

Top: Can me, Golden Glider, Batroc the Leaper, Multiplex, Kite Man, Melter, Jack O Lantern, and Touch & Go go with you guys?

Me: You all sure can. We're going to the world of Quartilla.

Golden Glider: Wow! I remember that planet. From the game Astal.

Me: Yep.

Dioptase: We're going to face the evil god Jerado.

Kite Man: We're going to face a god? But we can't kill a god!

Me: Actually we CAN kill a god. We have that kind of power.

Batroc: How so?

I pointed to my arm and showed my blood through my hand by shining a flashlight through it.

Batroc: Right! Your poisonous blood!

Me: Yep.

Nico: We saw the poisonous blood in action when we killed that evil queen on Animatron.

Optimus Prime: I remember that. That was intense.

Laney: Yeah it was.

The Top: Wow! Lynn I heard you're having problems with someone framing you.

Lynn: Yeah I don't know what or who is doing it.

Me: Yeah but we'll worry about that later. Lets go to Quartilla. Lisa deploy the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix.

Lisa Loud: Affirmative.

We got into the ship and we were off to Quartilla.

---

The U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix was flying through space.

Me: Captain's Log, Stardate 2924.1: We are on our way over to the planet Quartilla in the galaxy cluster Abell 1656 or as it is known as the Coma Cluster. It's located 321 million light-years away from Earth. Our mission is to destroy the evil god Jerado and make him pay for his crimes. This is gonna be an epic battle.

Nico: I can't wait to see what this world is like.

Laney: It's gonna be awesome. Rarity and Leni are about to burst with excitement over it.

Me: (Laughs) That's true.

Shirahoshi: I hope it's friendly.

I made Shirahoshi human size and gave her the ability to change size at will.

Me: We'll be fine Shirahoshi. As long as we stay alert and all that.

Nico: I have a feeling Rarity is gonna get a lot of fashion ideas out of all this.

Lisa Loud: We have arrived at our destination.

Me: On screen.

The screen came on and we saw a beautiful planet that looked so much like Earth and it was beautiful.

Me: Wow. It's beautiful. Lets land.

We landed and got out and we saw that it was beautiful and it was a land of crystal.

Me: Wow!

Nico: So this is the planet Quartilla.

Search Man: Here we are in Quartilla. Now to find Astal.

Me: Wow. It's amazing.

We saw the land and it was a world entirely made of crystal and all that.

Rarity: This world is BREATHTAKING DARLINGS!

Lola: It's beautiful!

Nico: Look at all the jewels and even the creatures are all jewels.

Naruto: They sure are.

Then a boy with Red Hair and red jewels came and smashed the creatures.

Me: Whoa! He is strong!

Search Man: That must be Astal.

We walked up to him.

Me: Are you Astal?

Astal: I sure am. (Sees us) Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's an honor.

Me: Same here. We heard about everything that was going on here. We came all the way from Earth to help you out.

Astal: I greatly appreciate it. I'm also trying to find Leda. Geist took her away.

Me: We'll gladly help you find her. I have a feeling this journey is gonna be fun and hard.

Nicole: I agree dad. I played the game Astal before and there are gonna be seven bosses for us to face.

Me: Oh man.

We walked around and smashed a bunch of minions and got a lot of jewels from them.

Me: Wow. These jewels that the creatures were made from are beautiful.

Rarity: They sure are! So beautiful!

Nico: Absolutely flawless in its creation.

Vince: Yeah they are.

We then came to a hidden cave and inside it was a purple bird with green and purple wings. It was being guarded by yellow jewel creatures.

Astal: Get out of the way!

Jewel Creature: If you're here to steal the bird you'll have to get by me first!

Fluttershy: That poor bird!

Me: That is no problem!

I clapped my hands and blew the jewel creatures away and they were put in Rarity and Leni's Jewel Bags.

Me: Beautiful.

Laney got the bird out.

Brittney: That bird.

She looked into its eyes and she saw that the bird is really Leda, Astal's friend that he was sworn to protect.

Brittney: Oh man! Astal you are gonna be shocked to see this.

Brittney fired a blast of magic and it hit the bird and turned Leda back and Astal was shocked to see that!

Leda: Astal!

Astal: Leda! Thank goodness!

They hugged and were back together.

Me: Aww.

Nico: So cute.

Lola: Aww.

Rainbow Dash: So cool.

Me: Yep.

Leda: Team Loud Phoenix Storm it's such an honor to meet you.

Me: You too Leda. Thank goodness you're all right. We came here to help you kill Jerado and Geist.

Astal: Great.

Leda: We're glad you are going to.

Me: Awesome. You're more than welcome to join us.

Astal: Thanks. Lets go.

Me: Time for our journey to begin.

We went through a cave.

Me: Wow! What a cave.

Laney: Amazing.

We saw eye creatures fly.

Me: Whoa those eyes are freaky.

Nico: Those are flying eyes? Weird.

Astal: Yeah they are weird huh.

Leda: Scary though.

Vanitas, Spymaster, Girder, Evil Star, Key, El Diablo, Mirror Master, and Major Disaster then appeared.

Me: Vanitas, Spymaster, Girder, Evil Star, Key, El Diablo, Mirror Master, and Major Disaster.

Spymaster: Yep. Wow. This place is beautiful.

Me: I know. Rarity and Leni are loving it and getting a lot of fashion ideas.

El Diablo: I can see that. Wow.

Nicole explained the situation to them and they agreed.

May: So, same deal as before with Zero Two, right?

Vanitas: Got that right.

Girder: Just continue with what you guys are doing.

Me: Right. Time to start this mission wtih a bang!

But while we were preparing to do our Phoenix Cry entrance, Nico suddenly tripped.

El Diablo: Nico, are you okay?!

Major Disaster: (sees banana peel) Who put this banana peel here?

Me: Man that gag is really old.

I helped Nico up.

Nico: Thanks.

Stewie, Brian and Mario arrived.

Stewie: Looks like we haven't missed the adventure.

Stewie, Brian and Mario then saw Sheldon!

---

Sheldon is the main antagonist in the Family Guy episode "Lois Comes Out of Her Shell". He is a turtle that Stewie Griffin brought home as a pet, but was a homicidal maniac that tried to kill him.

Stewie finds him in a pond in the park and decides to bring him home as a pet. What Stewie did not realize that Sheldon was a sociopath that wanted to kill him as revealed that he ate Rupert's left eye. It is unknown why Sheldon wanted to kill Stewie, but one reason is that he did not want to be taken from his home. He would pull sick sadistic jokes on the Griffin Family. Sheldon gave Peter a hot butt, replaced Meg's pills with alka-seltzer, put a razor blade in Stewie's book, and replaced Brain's Jack Daniels with flat diet coke making him mad at Stewie until they realized that it was Sheldon the whole time.

Sheldon then tried to kill Stewie in his sleep but Stewie flushed Sheldon down the toilet and thought he got rid of him forever but

Sheldon survived and slowly made his way back to Stewie, but not before strangling a seagull that tried to eat him. Sheldon got back to the house and tried to kill him again but Stewie tricked him with a trap.

The two have a fight in Stewie's room until Sheldon ran to the living room and Stewie garbs a bat and cracks open his shell. The shell was a decoy with a bomb and it destroys the living room and knocks Stewie unconscious. Sheldon then prepares to stab Stewie but out of nowhere, Super Mario appeared and stomped on him; parodying the Super Mario games. It is unknown if Mario killed him or just knocked him out. But since this is the only episode that Sheldon appeared in and he didn't have his shell on, it is clear Mario did kill him.

They gasped!

Stewie: Sheldon!

Brian: What the hell is he doing here!?

Mario: (Italian accent) Oh no!

Lynn: How do you guys know Sheldon?

Stewie: He's incredibly dangerous Lynn. He tried to kill me!

He told us all about what Sheldon did to Stewie, Brian and the Griffin's and all that!

We gasped in shock and horror!

Me: Sheldon did all that?!

Rainbow Dash: How is that possible!? He's a turtle.

Stewie: He's not just a turtle Rainbow Dash, he's a monster!

Brian: Where did you even find him?

Me: Lynn found him on the beach as we were celebrating our victory in the war.

Astal: I take it you all have a bad history with him?

Me: Well that's putting it mildly. But it's mostly Stewie, Brian and Mario that have the bad history.

Leda: How is that possible?

Me: I honestly have no clue.

Mr. Go: (to Mario) So you saved Stewie from Sheldon the first time?

Mario: If I hadn't-a saved Stewie at the last moment, he would've-a died!

Lynn: Sheldon? Is this true?

Mr. Touch: Answer Lynn, you vile turtle!

Me: Yeah tell them!

Sheldon spoke.

Fluttershy: He said "Yes it's true! You found me out! I will never forgive that football headed monster for hurting me and Lynn is a good friend and I wanted her all for myself."

We gasped.

Me: But why? Lynn would've shared you with everyone.

Fluttershy: YEAH! (Uses her stare on Sheldon) Who do you think you are!? You should be ashamed of yourself. I have a mind to find your mother and tell her what you've been up to, young man. Now you go over there, and apologize to Lynn, Lola and Lori and all my friends for all the pranks you did on them, and don't ever let me catch you doing this again. Do you understand me?

Sheldon then nodded in fright and cried hard!

Tree Hugger: Why did you even do those things anyway? Besides what you told us.

Sheldon talked.

Sheldon: (In Turtle) Because Stewie took me away from my home and I hate him for that. But I didn't want to cause any harm. I just wanted to be friends with him all the time and didn't want anyone to come between us.

Fluttershy: Oh you poor thing. If you wanted Stewie and Lynn for yourself then you should've told us you were having problems instead of lashing out.

Sheldon: (In Turtle) I know and I'm sorry but I can't control myself. I have an evil inside me.

Leonardo: You have an evil inside you? Oh man!

Nico: Uh oh.

Lana: How do you know what he's saying Leo?

Leonardo: Me and my brothers are turtles.

Lana: Oh yeah.

Me: Then we can fight it and get rid of it.

I fired a wave of light and it hit Sheldon and it separated his evil from him and it formed into DARK SHELDON!

Me: Now to get rid of this monster!

Stewie: We have a score to settle with this fucking bastard!

Brian: Save seconds for me!

Meg Griffin: And me too!

---

Fluttershy, Tree Hugger, Mario, Meg, Stewie, Brian and Touch & Go VS Dark Sheldon

Dark Sheldon was first.

Fluttershy: Time for this bad turtle to be put down!

Tree Hugger: Big time dudes!

They fired energy blasts and blew Dark Sheldon apart and banished him to the Warp.

---

Me: That did it. Good job guys.

Mario: Mario time!

Me: That's it for him.

Sheldon: (In turtle) Thank you guys.

Fluttershy: Oh you're welcome Sheldon.

Lynn was in shock and Rainbow Dash was with her. Same with Scootaloo.

Scootaloo: Lynn you're gonna be okay.

We later were walking through a forest and it was a scary and horrifying forest.

Toad Man: (scared) This forest is very scary.

Me: No kidding.

Leda: Yeah it sure is scary. But thank you all so much for freeing me from Jerado's spell.

Me: You're welcome Leda. But it was your love for Astal and Astal himself that helped me free you. We're going to find Jerado and make him pay for his crimes.

But then we heard bats and saw a bunch of them fly into the sky and we saw the moon turn into THE EVIL EYE!

Lucy Loud: Wicked.

Brittney: Wow! That is a wicked eye.

Carly Atlas: It sure is.

Misty Tredwell: The bat wings are cool on it.

Vanitas then appeared.

Vanitas: So I'm first.

Spiderman: You sure are. Lets go guys.

Spiderman's Group was first.

Spiderman, Bounce Man and Toad Man VS Vanitas

Vanitas was first.

Vanitas: (to Spiderman) Believe it or not, I actually like this forest.

Spiderman: I do too. It's scary but it's really cool.

Bounce Man: Yeah but Luigi doesn't like it. He's scared really bad.

Toad Man: No kidding. Poor guy.

Vanitas: I can see that. Lets get it on!

Vanitas fired blasts of dark fire and they dodged the blasts and Spiderman, Bounce Man and Toad Man fired waves of web, bounce balls and acid rain and smashed him down.

Spiderman: Another victory for your friendly neighborhood Spiderman.

Bounce Man: Yeah!

Toad Man: Awesome!

---

Goths of Darkness, Jack O Lantern, The Dark Signers and Twilight Sparkle VS Evil Eye

---

The Evil Eye was next. It was flying around.

Jack O Lantern: (to Evil Eye) Hold still. I'm gonna pop your eye out.

He fired pumpkins at the Evil Eye and they hit the eye and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The Goths and all the masters of Darkness flew at the Evil Eye from below.

Brittney: You may see everything from above but can you see everything from below?

They fired blasts of darkness and obliterated the Evil Eye.

Raven: Take that!

Devack: Yeah!

Me: That eye was poked out.

Astal: Cool! You guys are awesome.

Leda: They sure are.

Me: Thanks. Lets get moving.

We continued on and we were in a beautiful crystal forest.

Me: Wow. This forest is beautiful.

We got blue jewels and purple gems and more and they were gorgeous.

We then were crossing the River of Dreams and it was beautiful.

Me: Wow. This river is amazing.

Nico: It sure is. Wow. It looks like it goes on forever.

Vince: It sure does.

Carol: Yeah.

Rarity: But these gems that we're collecting from each bad creature are simply par excellence.

Spike: They sure are. I think they are great.

Me: Just don't eat them all Spike.

We laughed.

We got to the other side of the river and we arrived in a scary forest.

Beastbox: Another forest? Seriously?

Me: But this one looks dead and creepy.

Lola: No kidding and it's scary too.

Nico: Yeah.

?: I think it's rather fun don't you.

A figure came out of the mist and it was none other than BEN RAVENCROFT!

---

Benjamin "Ben" Ravencroft is the main antagonist of the Scooby-Doo franchise's 7th feature film Scooby-Doo and the Witch's Ghost. He is a famous horror writer whose ancestress was an evil witch named Sarah Ravencroft, who had been imprisoned in a spellbook centuries ago. He is also the former idol and now archenemy of Velma Dinkley.

He was voiced by Tim Curry, who also played Goblin King in Scooby-Doo and the Goblin King, The Mastermind in Scooby-Doo! Night Of 100 Frights, Hexxus in FernGully: The Last Rainforest, Rooster Hannigan in Annie, Emperor Palpatine in Star Wars: The Clone Wars, Long John Silver in Muppet Treasure Island, Maestro Forte in Beauty and the Beast: The Enchanted Christmas, Drake in The Pebble and the Penguin, Dr. Slicer in Recess, Big Bayou in the Courage the Cowardly Dog series, Belial in The Legend of Atlantis by Golden Films, Big Brother in Johnny Bravo, IT/Pennywise in the TV adaptation of Stephen King's IT, and Slagar the Cruel in the TV adaptation of Mattimeo.

Ben first appeared in a museum, helped the gang to solve the Babylonian Mummy mystery, claimed that he had been doing research for a novel when he saw the archaeologists acting suspiciously, and decided to investigate. He then revealed he knew them by reputation, much to Velma's honor, as she was a huge fan of his, and he invited them to his hometown by the name of Oakhaven.

However, upon arrival, Ben was surprised to find his hometown was flooded with tourists because of the Autumn Fest and a concert featuring the Hex Girls, and was angered to find out that his ancestress had gained publicity as an evil witch.

He spent time with the gang, while also talking about his ancestress, Sarah Ravencroft, and desired to find her journal to prove she had been a compassionate healer and a Wiccan, not an evil witch. That night, he, Fred, Velma, and Daphne, ran into Scooby-Doo and Shaggy who claimed that they had been chased by the Witch's Ghost. They followed a source of light and witnessed the Hex Girls rehearsing for the concert. They introduced themselves as Thorn, Dusk, and Luna, and were also fans of Ben.

After they talked to the Hex Girls, Fred and Daphne stayed to keep an eye on them, while Velma, Ben, Scooby, and Shaggy continued the investigation. Velma sent Scooby and Shaggy to follow the Mayor while she and Ben investigated an old barn. There, they found a cherry-picker truck, with the engine still warm.

Eventually, the gang uncovered the mystery: The Mayor started the Autumn Festival and used Sarah Ravencroft's reputation as a witch for a gimmick to increase Oakhaven's popularity, and all of the townspeople had pitched in to help: Thorn's father, Mr McKnight, had posed as the Witch's Ghost and used one of his daughter's props to throw fireballs. The local restaurant owner named Jack had hoisted McKnight on the cherry-picker while it was driven by the hardware store owner, and the fan used to create the eerie wind was operated by someone else. Ben scolded everyone involved in the scheme for lining their pockets by dragging Sarah Ravencroft's name through the mud.

Later that night at Ben's house, the gang was visited by the Mayor and Mr McKnight, who came to apologize and explained why they had used Sarah's image: they had accidentally dug up her grave. The town had found Sarah's gravestone in a large bulldozed pile of dirt and rocks while building the puritan village for their Autumn Festival but they had found nothing else.

However, a stray remark by McKnight led Velma to figure out where the book was buried. She and Scooby led them all to the big tree stump, where Scooby had found an old shoe buckle earlier that day. As Scooby dug deeper, he eventually found a box, which contained the book Ben had been searching for all those years. But upon seeing its sinister appearance, Velma became concerned and remarked that it did not seem to be a journal in any way.

It was there that Ben revealed his true colours: he confirmed it was not a journal but a spellbook. He then told everyone that Sarah had indeed been an evil witch who had been imprisoned in her own spellbook by Wiccans. Velma called him out for lying to her, but Ben showed no remorse for manipulating her and told her that he figured Mystery, Inc. could help him after reading about their exploits. Ben also explained that their meeting was no coincidence: he was the one who engineered the whole mummy scheme, paying the archaeologists and the security guards, just so they could meet. He didn't tell them the truth about the book because if they had known they would never have helped him.

Ben declared that he would free Sarah and unlock her power. Reading a spell, Ben called upon the dark powers that he inherited from Sarah and then successfully freed his ancestor from her imprisonment. However he was horrified to learn that she did not have interest in ruling the world alongside him and instead intended destroy it as revenge for her imprisonment. Realizing his awful mistake, Ben attempted to reimprison Sarah by casting a different spell, but it turned out to have no effect. Sarah revealed that only a Wiccan could imprison her with the spell, and encased him within a shell of mystic energy, much to his anger.

After a mad skirmish over the book, the gang delivered it to Thorn (who was of Wiccan blood on her mother's side) and she successfully cast the spell to imprison Sarah just as the witch laid her hands upon it in a futile attempt to stop her. Ben was then freed from his bondage, but Sarah quickly grabbed him by his ankle as she was sucked back into the pages, declaring that she would not go back alone. Ben struggled to free himself but was ultimately dragged into the book with Sarah, screaming in terror. A flaming tree branch then fell upon the book and burnt it, sealing the malevolent Ravencrofts inside for all eternity or killing them and ending their threats to the world.

Me: Ben Ravencroft!

Shaggy: Like what is he doing here?!

Vypra then appeared.

Vypra: Ben is now part of the Masters of Evil now.

Me: But Vypra he is the descendant of the very witch that my ancestors in Salem, Massachusetts sealed away into her own spell book.

Twilight Sparkle: Really?

Me: Yeah it's a really strange history. Are you familiar with the Salem Witch Trials?

Twilight Sparkle: No I'm not.

Me: That was one of the darkness events in the history of Colonial America back in the late 17th Century.

Nico: Yeah it was a dark time back then.

Me: Believe it or not, Ben Ravencroft's ancestor Sarah Ravencroft is actually a full-fledge witch.

Shannon: Just like me. Except I am half Wiccan. A Twilight Hybrid if you will.

Me: But Vypra, Ben is dangerous.

Eli: Yeah he is.

Vypra: It's all right guys. I got Ben to change his ways.

Me: Wow.

Ben Ravencroft: I'm sorry I did all that to you. I was doing what was in my family ties.

Me: Well I forgive you.

Twilight Sparkle: Being descended from witches must be scary.

Me: It sure is. It is a really dark history.

Nico: Who are you gonna be the archenemy of Ben?

Ben Ravencroft: Shannon.

Shannon: Wow! This is an honor.

Girder then appeared.

Girder: My turn next.

Then we saw a mist and then a creature flower appeared and it was THE FOREST FIEND!

Me: Whoa!

Laney: Whoa! That flower is wicked.

Astal: Yeah.

Roach: Lets get it on.

---

Roach (Supernoobs), Squawktalk and Beastbox VS Tony Woodward A.K.A. Girder

---

Girder was next.

Girder: (to Roach) I hope the next area you guys go to isn't a forest.

Roach: I have a feeling to won't be a forest.

Girder: Good. But I'm amazed that Ben Ravencroft is here.

Squawktalk: Me too. And Shannon will love having him as her archenemy. I've read a lot about the Salem Witch Trials and they were awful.

Beastbox: Yeah. Dark Times all those years ago.

Girder: No kidding. But what really amazes me is that J.D., Shannon and the Loud's all have ancestral ties to Salem, Massachusetts.

Roach: Yeah and that town has a really dark history that stretches back to almost 330 years ago.

Girder: No kidding. Lets get it on!

He formed in armor and went at them and Roach, Squawktalk and Beastbox smashed him all over the place.

Roach: YEAH!

---

Shannon VS Ben Ravencroft

Ben Ravencroft was next.

Shannon: It's gonna be an honor to face you Ben.

Ben Ravencroft: I won't disappoint the descendant of the Sanderson Sisters.

Shannon: My ancestors were the most feared witches in all of Salem over 300 years ago.

Ben Ravencroft: Indeed they were. Shall we begin?

Shannon: Lets shall.

Shannon and Ben fired huge blasts of magic and the blasts collided and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Shannon kicked Ben in the face and knocked him down and fired a wave of fire and sent him flying.

Shannon: Wow. Both our magic is strong.

Ben Ravencroft: It sure is.

Shannon: Our ancestors were powerful witches.

Ben Ravencroft: Indeed they were. You passed the test Shannon.

Shannon: Thank you Ben.

Applejack, Apple Bloom, Frozen Fright, Big Mac, Batroc and Golem (Monster Rancher) VS Forest Fiend

The Forest Fiend was next.

Applejack punched the ground and numerous apple trees grew and punched the Forest Fiend and Apple Bloom and Frozen Fright blasted the creature all over and they all blasted it and killed it.

Applejack: YEEHAW! That was awesome!

Apple Bloom: Yeah it was!

Shannon: Awesome!

Ben Ravencroft: It sure was. Shannon you will make a great archenemy for me.

Shannon: Thanks Ben. I love all your books and they are awesome. My ancestors would be very proud of not just me but you as well. Even if we were rivals.

Ben Ravencroft: Indeed.

Me: Lets get moving.

We walked on and we were in a volcanic area.

Solar Man: Is it hot in here or is it just me?

Me: It's a volcanic region. What did you expect?

Lola: I like it. It's nice.

Sunset Shimmer: It sure is.

We saw fire serpents appear and they were hot and intense.

Me: Whoa!

Astal blew them away.

Nico: Whoa! Those lungs of yours are powerful.

Astal: Thanks. You guys have amazing power and all that.

Leda: You sure do.

Laney: We don't like to brag but with great power comes great responsibility.

Me: Yep.

We saw Lynn crying.

Me: (Concerned) Lynn?

Rainbow Dash: (Concerned) Lynn are you okay?

Lynn: (Crying) No I'm not! (Crying hard) Sheldon hurt my heart!

Rainbow Dash and Scootaloo were hugging her.

Scootaloo: It'll be all right Lynn.

El Diablo and Major Disaster.

Me: El Diablo and Major Disaster.

El Diablo: Now this is more my kind of field.

Major Disaster: Mine too.

Me: It's hot but it's perfect for me because of all the fire here.

Nico: It sure is nice.

Leo: Me and Tyler are next.

---

Leo Corbett, Sixshot and Barrage VS Chato Santana A.K.A. El Diablo

---

El Diablo was next.

El Diablo: (to Leo Corbett) Now this is my kind of battlefield.

Leo: It sure is. Fire goes perfect for you.

El Diablo: Yep. Is Lynn gonna be alright?

Leo: She feels betrayed. Sheldon broke her heart.

Sixshot: Yeah. Poor girl is hurt.

Barrage: Lynn feels like she was used.

El Diablo: Poor kid. I hope she gets better. Lets do it!

El Diablo fired blasts of fire and Leo, Sixshot and Barrage fired fire and energy blasts and smashed him down.

Leo: Yeah!

---

Tyler Navarro, Solar Man and Sheep Man VS Paul Booker A.K.A. Major Disaster

---

Major Disaster was next.

Major Disaster: (to Tyler Navarro) Hard to believe one small turtle was able to do so many deadly pranks.

Tyler Navarro: I know and I thought Luan's deadly pranks on April Fools day were bad enough.

Solar Man: Yeah. Lynn thought she made a friend but she well…

Barrage: She was betrayed.

Major Disaster: Poor girl. Lets get it on!

He fired a tornado blast and they dodged it and Tyler, Solar Man and Sheep Man fired blasts of energy, fire and lightning and they smashed Major Disaster down.

Tyler: All right!

We pressed on and we got to another part of the volcanic area and then we saw a fiery figure coming at us.

Me: What's that?

Nico: Looks like a dragon.

It was a dragon. It was a VOLCANIC DRAGON!

Sunset Shimmer: Whoa! It's a dragon of pure fire!

Me: It's a Volcanic Dragon!

Sunset Shimmer: We got this!

Sunset Shimmer, Lola, Sam S.L., Suzi, Paige, Jared, Melter, Pepperdance, Cayenne, Firecracker Burst, Zuko, Azula and Eion VS Volcanic Dragon

The Volcanic Dragon was next.

Melter: Time to fight fire with fire!

He fired beams of energy and the Volcanic Dragon dodged it and Sunset Shimmer fired waves of fire and the dragon dodged it too.

But then Nico jumped onto the dragon and rode it and hooted and hollered.

Nico: YEEHAW!

Then the dragon glowed and Nico saw an orange light come out and it landed into his hand and he got a new animal crystal. it was the Orange Crystal of the Dragon Wild

Zord, the 4th of the 12 Myth Wild Zords.

Nico: Whoa! The Dragon Wild Zord!

The Volcanic Dragon turned into the Dragon Wild Zord and it chose Nico as its bearer.

Nico: Wow!

Nico and the Dragon Wild Zord landed and we were amazed.

Me: Wow! The 4th of the 12 Myth Wild Zords.

Nico: This is amazing!

Me: It sure is.

Leda: That is awesome!

Astal: It sure is. Great job Nico.

Nico: Thanks.

We were flying through the Sea of Clouds and it was amazing. It looked like a cloud sea that went on forever.

Lola: Wow!

Lori: These clouds are literally amazing.

Lily: They sure are. Wow.

We got more jewels from different creatures too that were defeated. We then got to a huge mountain.

Desoto: Look how high this mountain is!

Me: It's huge! Looks like we're flying up.

We flew up the mountain.

Leda was flapping her wings and Astal was flying too.

Laney: Awesome!

Nico: Wow!

Lana: Your wings are beautiful Leda.

Leda: Thanks Lana.

Desoto: Yeah too bad for your brother.

Roscoe: That's okay though.

Mirror Master: Indeed. Lets do it!

He fired energy blasts and they dodged them and Zoe and group fired blasts of wind and energy and smashed him down.

Rarity: Indeed darling it's so beautiful!

Spike: I wouldn't mind eating these jewels!

Me: It sure is pretty though.

Muscle Man: Hey, Astal. You know who else likes jewels? My mom!

We laughed at Muscle Man's joke.

Me: That's funny.

Astal: Yeah!

Manterror saw Lynn crying.

Manterror: (to Lynn) Lynn, you can't seriously be planning to stay mad at Sheldon forever, right?

Lynn: I'm not mad at Sheldon. I'm mad at myself.

Me: Why? It wasn't your fault Lynn. You had no idea that Sheldon would be that dangerous.

Lynn: But I thought he would be a great friend! But instead I… (Crying)

Rainbow Dash comforted Lynn. Same with Scootaloo, Paula and Margo.

Rainbow Dash: It's not your fault Lynn.

Rarity: Try being in a crystal of your own!

She fired crystals and smashed Frostbite all over.

Danny Phantom: I actually know a friend named Frostbite and you are sulleying his good name!

Danny Phantom blasted Frostbite all over.

Leda: Let Astal go!

Leda blasted Frostbite and killed it.

We continued on and we were crossing through a huge desert.

Me: Wow. What a desert.

Nico: It's amazing.

Lola: Yeah and hot too.

Sora (O.P.): It's beautiful though.

Nico: It sure is.

Me: We're on a platform in the sky after crossing a huge desert.

Nico: And that's not all that's here!

We saw a figure appear and it was GEIST!

Astal: Geist!

Geist: Hello Astal good to see you.

Me: So you are Geist.

Geist: That's right and Team Loud Phoenix Storm this is quite a treat and a good surprise.

Me: You and Jerado are gonna pay for everything you've done to this planet!

Geist: We'll see about that.

A figure came out and it was THUNDERCLAW from episode 17 of Lightspeed Rescue!

---

Thunderclaw is a humanoid stag beetle/Crab-like demon and is one of the many monsters to be created by Jinxer. He was created by Jinxer to help Prince Olympius, son of Queen Bansheera, take over Lightspeed Aquabase.

Thunderclaw was created by Jinxer to serve as extra muscle in the invasion of the Lightspeed Aquabase. He led the army of Batlings into the Aquabase, they arrived to the Aquabase, but to no avail. They then arrived on the beach, because Olympius was heavily weakened by the water while battling Carter. Vypra then sent Thunderclaw to destroy the Lightspeed Rangers. He encountered them on the beach. Thunderclaw was shown to be a lot stronger than the previous monsters but Carter used his Battle Booster's energized punch on him, and the villain was weakened enough for the Rangers to use the V-Lancer's Spectra Blast to destroy him. Jinxer revived and enlarged him. Thunderclaw battled the Lightspeed Megazord and Max Solarzord. The monster tried to take them out with his eye lasers but it had no effect and he was taken down by the Solarzord's swing kicks. They then changed into the Lightspeed Solarzord and destroyed Thunderclaw for good with its devastating final attack.

---

Carter Grayson: Thunderclaw!

Thunderclaw: Been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you and I know you all too well! you were made by Jinxer to serve as extra muscle to invade the Lightspeed Aquabase.

Thunderclaw: That's right J.D. Mistress Vypra was right about you. You have just as sharp a memory as we were told.

Me: Never missed an episode. But Bansheera and Olympius are all dead.

Thunderclaw: Thank goodness.

Nico: Yep.

Thunderclaw: (to Lynn) Look, I know I just got here. And I know that I only learned about this from Mistress Vypra an hour ago. But you can either let this ordeal define you from now on. Or you can learn from it.

Rafiki: Like this.

SMACK!

Rafiki bashed Lynn on her head with his stick..

Lynn: OW! Geez what the heck was that for!?

Rafiki: It doesn't matter! It's in the past! (Laughs)

Lynn: Yeah but that really hurt.

Rafiki: Oh yes the past can hurt. But the way I see it you can either run from it or learn from it.

He swung at her and she ducked.

Rafiki: Ha! You see? So what are you gonna do?

Lynn: First I'm gonna take your stick.

She grabbed his stick and threw it.

Rafiki: No no no! Not the stick!

He got it back.

Lynn: Then I'm gonna let the past go! Sheldon I forgive you.

Me: That's one way to knock some sense into someone.

Nico: Yep. Ouch.

---

Another awesome adventure done.

Astal is my childhood video game. In 1995 it was the first ever video game I played on Sega Saturn and it was awesome and epic! But I didn't finish it because I scratched the hell out of the disk! What a jip! But it was fun. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Drako1234658 and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is a chapter for the 5th Pokemon Movie: Heroes: Latias and Latios and we're gonna meet the legendary Eon Pokemon, Latias & Latios and we're going to help stop the evil actress Oakley and send her to prison for her crimes. It's gonna be an epic battle as we stop her from giving all actors a really bad name.

See you all tomorrow.

The Legendary Eon Pokemon

At the mall Me, Nico and some of us were going grocery shopping. There was a new grocery store there that I want to see and try.

Ra's Al Ghul: I am still adjusting to wandering inside malls.

Me: It has been a while hasn't it Ra's.

Nico: So what are we at the mall for?

Me: We're going grocery shopping at the new store here at the mall. I heard it has an awesome grocery store here.

Nico: Cool.

Laney: Hey look over there.

We saw Sunset Shimmer and the Mane 8 all in line and we saw that the line was huge!

Me: Oh man! That's right! The new video game Battle for Equestria came out today. It's supposed to be really good and it's based on the War of Equestria.

Nico: Cool!

Laney: That sounds cool.

Sunset Shimmer: Hey guys!

Me: Hey Sunset. You all waiting for the new War of Equestria Game?

Sunset Shimmer: You bet we are.

Rainbow Dash: It's gonna be awesome.

Me: Well you're all gonna be here a while. We're going shopping for food.

Nico: Yep.

Rarity: Oh my.

Me: But have fun girls.

We went to the store.

---

French Narrator: (French Accent) 6 Hours Later.

---

Sunset and group were up next.

Sunset Shimmer : Wow! It's my turn already?

The cashier put a sign on the Battle for Equestria Game that said sold out.

Cashier : Thorry. Just thold the latht one.

Sunset Shimmer : Aw, it's all right. I got to hang out with you guys. Who cares about a video game?

Pinkie Pie : Oh! That's what we were waiting for? I just thought we were having a super-duper fun line party! I pre-ordered it for you weeks ago.

Pinkie Pie got the game in advance.

Sunset Shimmer : You know what the best part of this game is?

Applejack : Uh, the battles?

Rainbow Dash : The powerups?

Fluttershy : The revenge and war?

Sunset Shimmer : It's multiplayer!

The Equestria Girls : [cheer]

Me and everyone came back and we had many carts full of groceries including huge boxes of cereal.

Me: Wow. Perfect timing girls.

Rarity: Indeed darling.

Applejack: Oh my! That is a lot of groceries.

Me: Got to keep all of us fed somehow.

Nico: It's a big job getting groceries but it's worth it.

Rainbow Dash: I'll say.

Me: Awesome.

We later got the food back to the World Tree Estate.

Me: Whew! That was a lot of groceries.

Lynn Sr.: (Offscreen) Thanks for the groceries J.D.!

Me: Anytime Mr. Lynn. I'm interesting in trying this ginormous box of Frosted Golden Apple Scraps.

Nico: Sounds tasty.

Lana: Oh J.D. before you go I found this on Sheldon.

She handed me a Number Card and it was NUMBER 717: WORLD NATION TURTLE! The picture looked like a ginormous turtle and it had a huge island on its shell.

Me: Whoa! Never saw this one before. Number 717: World Nation Turtle.

Nico: That's a cool one.

Me: It sure is. Thanks Lana.

Lana: You're welcome.

Me: I'll go get my bowl and milk. Can you open it for me Nico?

Nico: Sure thing.

I went to the kitchen and Nico flew up to the box top and ripped it open and then a loud bird screech was heard and then a glowing firebird flew out and it was beautiful! It was a Phoenix!

Nico: Oh wow!

The bird landed and perched on the sofa arm and it pecked its wing and did did a Tarzan Yell.

Nico: So cool!

Tara: (to Sheldon) Okay, Sheldon. What did you put in our cereal this time?

Sheldon shook his head for it wasn't his doing this time.

Me: What's going on here?

I saw the phoenix on the sofa and it was amazing.

Me: Oh wow! That's a phoenix.

Tara: A Phoenix? How did the legendary firebird get in our cereal?

Nico: That's what I would like to know.

Mandy: This is giving me a strong sense of déjà-vu.

Grim: (Jamaican Accent) Me too mon. Eris put a phoenix inside the very same cereal that was brought in.

Me: Wow.

I went up to the phoenix.

Me: Beautiful.

I spread my phoenix Angel Wings and they lit on fire and the Phoenix was in awe and it landed on my right shoulder.

Me: I will call you Houno.

Nico: Wow! That is amazing that you tamed that bird so fast J.D.

Me: It sure is. Where did this Phoenix come from?

Nico: It was inside your huge cereal box.

Lola: That is amazing!

Cybertron Ransack: (to Mandy) What happened the last time this occurred?

Mandy: Eris put a phoenix in Billy's cereal and it ate it all and it had Billy's head covered in its mouth and it was driving us crazy. We went to Eris-Zona and talked to Eris about it and turned the tables on her.

Me: Wow. That's amazing.

Nico: Very interesting.

Lola: Yeah. But J.D. that's amazing that you can tame a phoenix like that.

Me: I'm not the only one Lola. Princess Celestia was able to tame one. Remember Philomena and Spike's Phoenix friend Peewee?

Lola: Oh yeah! I remember them. Peewee is awesome.

Spike: He sure is.

Me: And so is Philomena. Looks like our Phoenixes has a new friend with Houno.

Nico: They sure do. That is awesome.

Searchlight: Wait. What if Eris put Phoenixes in all our cereal boxes as gifts for us?

Me: I don't think so. She only put them in Frosted Golden Apple Scrap Cereal.

Nico: Well you did buy 17 boxes. 16 small boxes and that big giant box.

Me: True. Well here we go.

The Loud Kids opened their cereal boxes and then loud screeching was heard and then out of the cereal boxes flew glowing phoenixes!

Me: WHOA!

Nico: Wow! She DID give them to us.

Lola: So awesome!

The Phoenixes went to each of the Loud Kids and they perched on their shoulders.

Nico: This is so cool!

Varie: More like hot you mean.

Nico: Yeah.

Me: And this brings back memories of when Fluttershy was taking care of Philomena.

---

At Fluttershy's Cottage, shortly after the Grand Galloping Gala Catastrophe was over, Fluttershy and Laney were taking care of the animals. Fluttershy was tending to some of the animals and Laney was helping out. Fluttershy had a mouse with a broken leg in a little wheelchair.

Fluttershy : There you go, Mr. Mousey. (She pushed the mouse up to a mouse hole) Now you stay off that leg and do everything I told you. And it will be just like new in no time at all.

Mouse family : [squeaks]

The mouse family agreed.

Fluttershy : Oh, you're welcome. Happy to be able to help.

Laney: Thanks for having me over to help you take care of some of your animal friends Fluttershy.

Fluttershy: Oh it's no problem Laney.

Angel came in running and he had a pocket watch.

Angel : [pants] [squeak]

He ran into Fluttershy and she saw him.

Laney: Angel seems excited about something.

Fluttershy : You… found a watch?

Laney: I think he's trying to tell you something.

Angel shook his head for no. He made the motion for 4:00 PM.

Fluttershy: You… wanna be a watch? (He shook his head for no) You're running! Running out of time? No. You're… late?

He nodded his head for yes and he pointed to the clock tower.

[clock strikes four]

Fluttershy : [gasp] I'm late for a very important date! The big brunch for Princess Celestia at Sugarcube Corner.

Laney: Oh man! We got to get over there and quick!

Fluttershy: Oh, the princess is here in Ponyville for a party, and we all promised we'd be there. But I'm not there! Oh, do I look all right? Do I need to bring anything? Maybe I shouldn't go.

Laney: Fluttershy calm down. We can still get there. We have plenty of time.

[trumpet fanfare]

Fluttershy : Aah! It's starting! I'm missing it!

Laney: Lets get over there quick!

They ran fast out the door.

Angel : [sigh]

Fluttershy : Oh, thanks, Angel. (Runs out and then comes back) I mean, if you hadn't reminded me, I might have not remembered, and then I wouldn't be there, and everypony would be wondering where I was (Angel thumps her hoof) and… Oh, right. I'm late.

Laney: Come on Fluttershy!

Fluttershy flew.

Angel locked the door.

[door rattles]

Fluttershy : Oh, okay then. See you later.

At Sugarcube Corner, the party was underway and there were two guards from the Royal Guard there. They were guarding the door good.

Rainbow Dash came out and saw them guarding. She flew out and tried to talk to them.

Rainbow Dash : So… what do I have to do to get to be one of the Princess's royal guards, anyway? (They didn't answer) Is the pay good? (They didn't answer) Hellooo? Anybody home? (No answer)

They were as focused as the British Royal Guards for the Queen of England. Not moving and not making a sound. Or even blinking. Just all focus. Rainbow Dash then started making funny faces.

Rainbow Dash: (Mouth Pull) [babbles] (Eye Pull) Wah-wah! (Fart) [babbles] Ooh, you're good.

Not even funny faces would intimidate them. Wow.

Rainbow Dash: [pause] Too good. I'm bored. (Rushes back in)

Fluttershy and Laney arrived.

Fluttershy : Phew. Made it.

Laney: I think with a few minutes to spare.

They went up to the door and the guards blocked them with their wings in an X formation.

Fluttershy: [gasp]

Guard 1 : Halt!

Guard 2 : Who goes there?

Fluttershy : [gulp] No one. Never mind. I'll go home.

Me and Twilight Sparkle saw this.

Twilight Sparkle : It's all right, sirs. She's on the list.

Me: And Laney is with Fluttershy good sirs.

Laney and Fluttershy came in.

Fluttershy : Thanks, Twilight.

Laney: Thank you J.D.

Me: Anytime.

Twilight Sparkle : I'm so glad you could make it, Fluttershy. It wouldn't be the same without you.

Me: And it wouldn't be the same without you Laney.

Laney: Thanks J.D.

In the kitchen Mary K., Spike and May were cooking treats.

Spike blew fire on some creme brulee and toasted them.

Mary K.: Perfect.

May: Those look awesome.

Spike: [ding!]

Mr. Cake : How's everypony doing?

Lincoln: Great Mr. Cake.

Mr. Cake: Good. Good.

We were having an awesome brunch with Princess Celestia and Princess Luna. We were wearing our special occasion clothes and all dressed up for the occasion.

Lana: This is awesome.

Me: It sure is and it's an honor to be here with you all.

Princess Celestia: Glad you all could be here.

Mrs. Cake : Anything else we can get for you, dearies…? Ooh, I-I mean, esteemed guests.

Princess Celestia : Everything is fine, Mr. and Mrs. Cake.

Me: The food is so delicious.

Lola: It sure is. And it's awesome and delicious.

Lily: It sure is.

Fluttershy : Sorry I'm late. Me and Laney had to finish taking care of a patient first.

Varie: That's all right Fluttershy.

Twilight Sparkle : Oh, you and your tender loving care of little animals.

Laney: I am learning so much about taking care of animals with Fluttershy.

Twilight Sparkle: That's amazing. Are you guys nervous?

Laney: No why?

Twilight Sparkle: I'm just nervous about all this.

Fluttershy : Wow, Twilight. I thought I was the only one who got nervous at social gatherings.

Laney: I used to get nervous too.

Twilight Sparkle : Oh, it's not that. I just want the princesses to approve of my friends and new friends.

Fluttershy : But she's met us all before.

Varie: I think she means all of us. Old and new.

Twilight Sparkle : Yes that's right. And she has read about you all in our letters and helped us all before. But this is one of the first times she's spent any real time with you and all of us. I want everypony to make a good impression.

Laney: That's understandable.

Fluttershy : Well, I'm sure you have nothing to worry about. Besides, it's just a casual get-together, right?

Laney: I think so.

Rarity : Don't touch me! Watch the dress!

We saw Rarity in her Grand Galloping Gala dress that was fixed and mended by Leni and Varie And she was paranoid about getting it dirty.

Rarity: Careful, you're gonna spill that on me! Oh, oh, that looks delicious.

Me: Rarity it's gonna be all right. Your dress is looking better than ever by the way.

Rarity: Thank you J.D. What is it?

Me: Green Apple Cupcakes.

Rarity: Oh, does it stain?! Keep it away from me!

I had a cupcake.

Me: Sorry Mrs. Cake. She is paranoid about her dress that was fixed up after the Gala getting dirty again.

Mrs. Cake: That's okay.

Fluttershy : Or… perhaps not that casual.

Applejack : Uh… which is the salad and which is the appetizer again?

Vince: (Points to the Salad) This is the salad and (Points to the soup) this soup is one of the appetizers.

Applejack: Thanks Vince. And which am I supposed to eat first? Oh, never mind. I'm not hungry.

Nico: You'll pick something Applejack. I know everything looks great doesn't it.

Applejack: It sure does.

Fluttershy : It's okay, Twilight. So our friends' manners aren't perfect. I doubt the princess will even notice.

Pinkie Pie was having fun.

Pinkie Pie : [giggles] Whoo-hoo! Cupcakes, candies and pies, oh my!

She splat a pie in her face.

Me: (Laughs) Oh Pinkie you are so silly.

Pinkie saw a Chocolate Fountain.

Pinkie Pie: Oooh! Chocolate fountainy goodness! (Dips her head into the chocolate and gets it all over and it hardens) (It cracks and she eats it) [munching] You gonna eat that?! [munching]

She eats the cupcakes

Mrs. Cake : [gasp]

She ran fast and pulled Pinkie's Tail.

Me: Whoa.

Pinkie Pie : Hey!

Mr. Cake gave her a new cupcake and a cup of tea.

Mr. Cake : A thousand pardons, Your Majesty.

Princess Celestia : That's quite all right, thank you. [sips]

Mrs. Cake : Empty teacup at 4 o'clock!

Naruto: Ma'am yes ma'am!

Naruto had a teapot ready.

Mr. Cake : Uh, I see it, honey bun!

Princess Celestia : Oh, um… thank you.

They poured her.

Mr. Cake : Not at all, Your Highness.

Me: They want to make sure you are well taken care of here Princess.

Princess Celestia: Thank you J.D.

Me: You're welcome.

They poured her more tea.

Princess Celestia : [sips] Thank you again.

Mrs. Cake : Oh, but of course, Your Majesty.

They filled up her tea cup again and we saw that she was pretending to sip it until it overflowed.

Princess Celestia : [sips] [sips] [sips] Gotcha!

Nico and me laughed.

Me: That is funny.

Nico: I didn't know there was a mischievous side to her J.D.

Me: Me neither.

Twilight Sparkle : Oh…

Princess Celestia : And what about you, Fluttershy.

Fluttershy : Me? Oh yes, Your Highness.

Princess Celestia : I understand from Twilight Sparkle's letters that you enjoy tending to the needs of woodland creatures.

Fluttershy : Yes, I love to take care of animals.

Laney: Fluttershy is a great animal lover and she loves our animals as much as she does with her animals at her cottage.

Princess Celestia : As do I. As Princess, I care deeply about all creatures, great and small. [cough]

Me: Oh are you okay Princess?

Princess Celestia: Oh I'm fine. That was actually my royal pet.

Me: Oh.

Princess Celestia : Nothing means more to me than the well-being of all my subjects.

Me: I feel the same way princess. As leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm, I have to make sure that everyone on Earth is all taken care of with love and safety.

Nico: It's a great responsibility.

Twilight Sparkle: Well I can't argue with that.

Philomena : [coughs and hacks]

Princess Celestia : Ah, Philomena, my pet. You're awake. Do say hello to our gracious hosts.

Me: Hello there Philomena.

Nico: Pleasure to meet you.

Philomena : [coughs and hacks]

Me: Is she all right princess? She doesn't look well.

Fluttershy : Oh… my.

Princess Celestia: She'll be all right.

Nico: Oh.

Princess Celestia : She is quite a sight, isn't she?

Fluttershy : I… I… I've never seen anything like it.

Philomena : [cough]

A guard came up to Princess Celestia.

Guard : [clears throat] [whisper]

Princess Celestia : Really? Well, if I must… I'm sorry, everypony. I'm afraid I have to cut the party short. The mayor has requested an audience with me. Royal duty calls. Thank you for a wonderful time. It's been a joy getting to know you all better.

Me: It was our pleasure princess.

Nico: We always enjoy having you with us and all that.

Princess Celestia and the guards left.

Fluttershy saw Philomena in her cage.

Applejack : Phew! Now I can eat someth'n! I'm starved!

Me: Wait Mr. Cake, Let Applejack eat something. She is hungry.

Mr. Cake: All right.

Applejack was eating all over and she was stuffed.

Applejack: Thanks J.D.

Me: You're welcome.

Pinkie Pie : [whooping and giggling]

Pinkie did somersaults and crashed into the guests.

Me: (Laughs) Oh Pinkie.

Nico: She is so funny.

Rarity : Stay right where you are. All I want is a clear path to the exit. Nobody move and my dress won't get hurt!

Varie: Rarity you have nothing to worry about. I used my magic to make all your dresses and clothes impervious to stains and all that. Watch.

She threw a glass of grape juice onto Rarity's dress and it slid off it without leaving a stain.

Varie: See? Like laminated paper.

Rarity: Oh that is wonderful! Well done Varie.

Applejack had a bunch of treats on her nose and she licked her lips.

Twilight Sparkle : [sigh] Well, Spike, I don't know for sure how things went with the princess, but at least no big disasters happened.

Me: Thank goodness. But this was fun Twilight.

Twilight Sparkle: It sure was.

But little did we know that Princess Celestia's bird Philomena was gone and the cage door was open!

UH OH!

At Fluttershy's cottage, Fluttershy brought Philomena back with her and she was gonna take care of her.

Fluttershy : Oh, you poor little thing. How did you ever get in such bad condition? Don't you worry, Philomena. I'll nurse you back to health. As a favor to the princess, who's obviously just far too busy to care for you properly.

Philomena : [cough]

Fluttershy : I'm sure the princess will appreciate the help. (Philomena wobbled her neck) Oh my. We'd better get you to bed right away. (She put her in bed) There.

She put a thermometer in Philomena's mouth and the bird turned red hot and the thermometer was off the charts.

WHEW! THAT IS TOASTY!

[steam whistle]

Fluttershy : [gasp]

Fluttershy put an ice bag on Philomena's head and the thermometer dropped to freezing and she turned blue and was freezing.

BONECHILLING COLD!

Philomena : [shivering]

Fluttershy : [gasp] [steam whistles and shivering]

She was then blistering hot and bonechilling cold as Fluttershy put the blanket back on and removed it and put the ice bag on over and over.

MAKE UP YOUR MIND!

[thermometer glass shatters]

Fluttershy : This is far worse than I thought. What you need is some medicine. Stat!

Philomena : [cough]

She gave her a big capsule.

Fluttershy : Here you go, Philomena. This will fix you right up.

Philomena : [sniff]

Philomena did not want to take it.

Fluttershy : Doctor Fluttershy expected that.

She put bird seed on it. Philomena ate the bird seed like a jackhammer.

[jackhammer sounds]

Fluttershy : Always works.

But Philomena ate all the bird seed but NOT the capsule.

Fluttershy: [gasp] Uh… almost always.

Philomena : [cough]

Fluttershy made some soup.

Fluttershy : There's nothing like homemade soup to cure what ails you. (Philomena did NOT want to eat that either)

LIKE A STUBBORN KID THAT WON'T EAT HER VEGETABLES.

Fluttershy: Come on now. You're not gonna get better if you don't cooperate. (Pretends to eat it) Mmm… see? It's delicious. Good and good for you. (Philomena refused to eat it) Here comes the choo-choo train. Chugga-chugga, chugga-chugga, whoo-whoo! (Philomena still wouldn't eat it) (Philomena twisted around and got dizzy and fell into the bowl) [splash] Oh dear. Don't worry, Philomena. I know what'll make you feel better. Wait right here. I have just the thing.

Philomena : [cough]

Fluttershy : Look, Philomena. I brought a fellow feathered friend by to cheer you up. (Fluttershy had her hummingbird friend with her) Hummingway here was sick once too, but he let me help him and got better in no time. Didn't you, boy?

Hummingway : [humming "Mm-hmm!"]

Fluttershy : Say hello to your new friend Philomena.

Hummingway : [humming happily]

Fluttershy : Aw, look. I think he likes you. [vocalizes My Little Pony theme]

Hummingway : [hums My Little Pony theme]

Fluttershy : Your turn now, Philomena. (Philomena didn't talk) Go ahead. You can do it. [vocalizes My Little Pony theme]

Philomena : [heaves and vomits all over Fluttershy]

YUCK!

Fluttershy : Oh! Um… good try?

Next Fluttershy tried to give Philomena a bath.

Fluttershy : I know what'll clear up that tickle in your throat. A humidifier. (She went to the heat radiator and turned it on) [deep breath] Refreshing. How's that feeling now for you, Philomena? Better?

Philomena : [deep breath] [cough]

Fluttershy : Oh… (More feathers pop out) that's okay. I know lots of other ways to take care of you. Don't worry. You're gonna get better. How about…

She had aromatherapy stuff out.

Fluttershy : Aromatherapy?

Philomena : [sneeze]

Too strong for her.

Fluttershy had a bath ready.

Fluttershy : Warm bath?

Philomena absorbed all the water like a sponge and more feathers popped out.

Fluttershy : Ointment?

She put some on Philomena but the bird had ugly bumps break out. More feathers pop out.

Fluttershy : Scalpel. (Got said tool) Surgical tape. (Got the tape) Feathers. (Angel handed the feathers) (Angel wiped Fluttershy's sweat)

Fluttershy tried putting the feathers on.

Philomena : [cough]

Fluttershy : Oh, Philomena. I thought it would be easy to nurse you back to health. I've tried everything I know. And look at you. You're worse than ever. [knocking]

She went to the door and answered it and it was me, Nico and Twilight Sparkle.

Me: Hiya Fluttershy.

Twilight Sparkle : Hi, Fluttershy! I just wanted to drop by and say thank you so very much for making such a good impression on the princess today… [gasp]

Me: What the!? Is that Princess Celestia's bird!?

Nico: What is she doing here!?

Twilight Sparkle: What is Celestia's pet doing here?!

Fluttershy : I couldn't leave the poor thing there. She needed my help.

Me: Oh that's very thoughtful of you Fluttershy.

Nico: Yeah she didn't look too good when we first saw her.

Twilight Sparkle : Oh no. Nonononono no ! This is bad.

Me: Why do you say that?

Fluttershy : Yeah. How could I just walk away and not do anything?

Twilight Sparkle : But… but… she doesn't belong to you!

Fluttershy : I had to do something.

Twilight Sparkle : Without telling anypony?! Without asking permission?!

Fluttershy : But…

Philomena : [cough]

Me: Look at her Twilight. Philomena doesn't look very good.

Twilight Sparkle : I know you had good intentions, but you have got to return the princess's pet!

Fluttershy : But…

Philomena : [deep breath]

Fluttershy : [sigh] You're right. Okay, let's…

Philomena : [cough]

Fluttershy :… go.

Nico: That is one sick bird.

They put Philomena in a basket.

Twilight Sparkle : If we hurry, we can put her back before anypony even realizes she's missing.

She opened the door and there standing at the door were the Royal Guards.

Twilight Sparkle: [gasp]

UH OH!

Me: Oh hello good sirs. What can we do for you?

Guard 1 : We were told we could find Twilight Sparkle here.

They saw Twilight.

Guard 2 : We regret to inform you, miss, that the royal pet has gone missing.

Twilight Sparkle : Really? You don't say! [nervous laughter]

Philomena : [cough]

Twilight Sparkle : [cough]

Philomena : [cough]

Twilight Sparkle : [cough]

Twilight Sparkle and Fluttershy : [excessive coughing]

Me: (In my head) That is good acting.

Twilight Sparkle : It's that dry night air?

Fluttershy : But it's daytime.

Twilight Sparkle : Well… day air's even drier. You guards better be on your way if you're gonna find the princess's missing pet. Philomena, was it? Thank you ever so much for keeping me in the loop. Bye! [pants]

Twilight pushed the guards out and continued searching.

Twilight Sparkle: Phew…

Nico: That was a close one.

Me: Yeah. Smart thinking girls.

Twilight Sparkle: What are you doing?!

Fluttershy was heading to the door.

Fluttershy : Going to return Philomena, remember?

Twilight Sparkle : We can't now !

Fluttershy : Why not?

Twilight Sparkle : You have no idea what the princess is gonna do if she finds you're the one who took her pet, do you?!

Me: Huh?

Nico: What are you talking about Twilight?

Fluttershy : Do you ?

Twilight Sparkle : Well… no. But it can't be anything good. She might banish you from Equestria. Or throw you in a dungeon. Or banish you and then throw you in a dungeon in the place that she banishes you to!

She imagined that Princess Celestia would banish her to the Everfree Forest or lock her in a dungeon or lock her in a cage in the Everfree Forest.

Me: Twilight you're just being paranoid.

Fluttershy : You really think the princess would do that?

Twilight Sparkle : Okay. Granted that probably won't happen, but do you wanna take any chances?

Nico: Twilight, Princess Celestia wouldn't do that.

Me: Yeah she is far too kind-hearted to do that.

Fluttershy : All that really matters to me is that poor little Philomena here gets well.

Philomena : [cough]

Me: Yeah she's just looking out for her. Is that so wrong?

Twilight Sparkle : That's very noble of you. I'll write to you when you're banished. Unless I'm banished to somewhere there's no post office. Then you'll have to write to me. Deal?

Me: For Pete's sakes Twilight, get ahold of yourself.

Nico: Yeah fear and panic are the enemy. Get ahold of yourself.

Fluttershy : Yes. Please, Twilight. You just have to help me get Philomena healthy and then we can return her to the princess. And everything will be fine.

Me: Yeah.

Twilight Sparkle : Did you give her any kind of medicine?

Fluttershy : I tried to, but she wouldn't take it.

Twilight Sparkle : [groan] Then you have to make her take it. You can't be such a pushover, Fluttershy! You need to show this patient who's the boss. Make her straighten up and fly right!

Me: Well uh Yeah!

Fluttershy : She can't fly.

Twilight Sparkle : No excuses! (She pressed Philomena's feet and her mouth opened like a trash can lid and she put the pill in her mouth and Philomena swallowed it) Done. Okay, what else?

Fluttershy : Uh… well, she keeps pulling her feathers off. The ones that haven't fallen out yet from all her coughing, I mean.

Twilight Sparkle put a cone around Philomena's neck.

Me: We call that kind of cone The Cone of Shame.

Nico: (Laughs) That is funny.

Twilight Sparkle : There you go.

Philomena : [groaning]

Philomena was getting it off.

Fluttershy : I don't think she likes it.

Twilight Sparkle : Tough love, baby. You want her to get well, don't you?

Fluttershy : Of course, but…

Twilight Sparkle : Next!

Fluttershy : Well, she desperately needs some bed rest, but I can't get her to stay put.

Twilight stopped Philomena.

Twilight Sparkle : One step ahead of you.

We put Philomena in her cage.

Philomena : [growling]

Fluttershy : It's for your own good, Philomena, I promise. Please, just relax and try to get some sleep.

Twilight Sparkle : What's this soup over here? Smells delicious.

Me: (Sniffs it) Hmm. It does smell good.

Fluttershy : I made it for Philomena. But she wouldn't eat it.

Twilight Sparkle : Oh, she'll eat it, all right.

Me: Even if we have to put a funnel in her mouth.

We brought the soup over to her

Philomena : [screams]

Twilight Sparkle : Hey! Where are you going?

Philomena ran and got out of the cottage!

Me: RUNAWAY BIRD!

Fluttershy : No! Philomena! Come back! [Benny Hill-esque music]

We were chasing Philomena all over Benny Hill Style. We went around a tree in circles and got really dizzy and Philomena was up in the tree and flew away as we stopped and went back after her. The Guards were looking too as they had posters and showing them to the ponies and the citizens didn't see her. Philomena was sitting on a park bench reading a newspaper and we got up to her and she pulled down the paper and had a fake mustache on and we asked if we saw her and she pointed in the other way and left. But then I stopped and knew that I was duped. That gag is old and we went after Philomena again and tip-toed passed the guards. We did the old door chase gag by chasing her through different doors and then going in all directions and then Fluttershy and Twilight crashed into each other. We chased after Philomena again and she was behind a flagpole. The guards put up a poster and Philomena drew a mustache and eyebrows on the poster. That gag is really corny.

Rainbow Dash came.

Rainbow Dash : What are you guys doing? Are you having a race? Oh, can I play? One, two, three, go!

Me: R.D. it's not a race!

Pinkie Pie : [munching]

Pinkie was eating something as I lifted her up.

Fluttershy : Excuse me!

Me: Sorry Pinkie.

Pinkie Pie : Hi!

Twilight Sparkle : Beg your pardon!

She lifted up Rarity.

Rarity : Put me down!

Me: Sorry Rarity. Emergency.

Applejack : What in tarnation?!

Fluttershy : Sorry, but we've gotta find…

Guard : The princess's pet bird!

Me: She's up there on that statue!

We saw her.

Philomena : [cough]

Me: And she is down to her last feathers.

Fluttershy : Philomena, come down from there! You'll hurt yourself!

Me: And we don't want that to happen otherwise the princess will mount our heads on pikes!

Twilight Sparkle gulped.

The last feather came out.

Philomena : [cough, exaggerated death rattle] [repeats]

She fell off the statue!

Fluttershy : I'll catch you!

Pinkie Pie : [gasp] [Philomena bursts into flames]

We gasped in shock!

Fluttershy : [gasp]

Me: Oh dear God!

Nico: NO!

Laney: Oh no!

Main cast sans Fluttershy : [gasp]

Philomena was a pile of ashes!

Fluttershy : [whimpers]

Princess Celestia : What is going on here? Twilight?

We bowed to her.

Twilight Sparkle : Yes, your Majesty, there's been a terrible accident.

Me: Yeah.

Fluttershy : It's all my fault.

Twilight Sparkle : No, Princess. Fluttershy didn't know any better. It was my fault.

Me: No Twilight. Let Fluttershy talk.

Fluttershy : I'm the one who did it.

Twilight Sparkle : But you were only trying to help.

Fluttershy : Some help I was.

Twilight Sparkle : Will ya let me do this? She'll go easier on me.

Fluttershy : But it's my fault!

Twilight Sparkle : No, it's my fault!

Pinkie Pie : No, it's my fault! Wait, what are we talking about?

Fluttershy : Thanks for trying to protect me, Twilight, but… Princess Celestia, I'm the one who took your pet bird. I really was only trying to help the poor little thing. Then I was gonna bring it right back to you, honest. So, if you wanna banish me and then throw me in a dungeon in the place that you banish me to, then that's what I deserve.

Princess Celestia went up to the ashes.

Princess Celestia : Oh, stop fooling around, Philomena. You're scaring everypony.

The ashes came alive and went into the air and swirled around.

[ponies gasp and awe]

Then in a ball of fire and light and lightning Philomena was renewed and totally revitalized and we saw that she was really A PHOENIX!

Me: Oh wow! A phoenix!

Nico: Incredible!

Philomena landed on Princess Celestia's arm.

Fluttershy : I don't understand! What is that thing? What happened to Philomena?

Princess Celestia : This is Philomena. She's quite a sight, as I said. But nothing unusual for a phoenix. Isn't that right, Philomena?

Philomena : [squawks]

Fluttershy : A… A phoenix?

Me: That is amazing that you tamed a legendary bird Princess.

Princess Celestia : It sure is. A phoenix is a majestic and magical bird. While it appears healthy and happy most of the time, every so often it must renew itself by shedding all of its feathers and bursting into flame.

Me: That's part of the legendary renewal cycle.

Nico: Wow!

Princess Celestia: It sure is neat. [whispering] Rather melodramatic, if you ask me. [normal voice] It then rises from the ashes, fresh as a daisy. All just a normal part of the life cycle of a phoenix.

Me: That is awesome! And the Phoenix has a lot of spiritual meaning. It represents fire, immortality, reincarnation, renewal and rebirth.

Nico: That is amazing!

Me: Yeah. And it's the symbol that I picked for Team Loud Phoenix Storm. (Shows the symbol of the team) I chose the Phoenix as our symbol because of its mystic symbolism and power for the fires of purification.

Nico: That's an interesting reason.

Princess Celestia: That is a good reason. But I'm afraid mischievous little Philomena here took the occasion to have a little fun with you, Fluttershy and all of you too. Say you're sorry, young lady.

Philomena : ["I'm sorry" sound]

Me: Aww it's all right.

Fluttershy : So… aren't you gonna banish me? Or throw me in a dungeon? Or banish me and then throw me in a dungeon in the place that you banish me to?

Princess Celestia : Of course not, my little pony. Where on Earth would you get such an idea?

Fluttershy : I guess I have some imagination.

Twilight Sparkle : Fluttershy really did do everything she could to try to take care of Philomena for you.

Princess Celestia : And I do appreciate that your heart was in the right place, child. But all you had to do was ask me and I could have told you Philomena was a phoenix and saved you all this trouble.

Me: We had no idea that Philomena was a phoenix. That is so cool!

Nico: It sure is.

Varie: I think so too.

Laney: Yeah that is amazing.

Fluttershy : I know. I shouldn't have jumped to conclusions. Next time I'll ask before taking matters into my own hooves.

Me: That happens to all of us mostly Fluttershy. We tend to be reckless most of the time when getting the job done.

Fluttershy: Oh.

Twilight Sparkle : Should I write you a letter about that lesson, Princess?

Princess Celestia : No, that's quite all right. I think I can remember.

Philomena put a feather in Fluttershy's hair.

Fluttershy : It's beautiful. Thank you, Philomena. No hard feelings.

Rainbow Dash : Hmm… [indistinct whispers] Hey, you know what you should do? You should go over there and tickle them! (Philomena tickled the Royal Guards noses) [royal guards laugh]

Rainbow Dash : Yeah! [laughs] [laughter]

We laughed.

FLASHBACK ENDS

We laughed.

Me: That was a hilarious adventure.

Laney: It sure was.

Houno laughed too. Our phoenixes laughed too.

Me: That was a crazy adventure.

Princess Celestia: It sure was.

Me: Yeah. Oh right! We got to get ready.

Skalor: Where are we going this time?

Me: We're going to the city of Alto Mare and it's located on the Baja California Peninsula.

Nico: Cool! I heard that Ash and friends met a Latias there.

Melody (OC): Wow! This is gonna be awesome seeing the Pokemon that we can turn into.

Ryan (OC): I can't wait to see that.

Me: Me too.

Evil Star, Vanitas, Spymaster, Girder, Key, El Diablo, Mirror Master and Major Disaster then appeared.

Evil Star: Can me, Vanitas, Spymaster, Girder, Key, El Diablo, Mirror Master, and Major Disaster go with you guys?

Me: You all sure can.

El Diablo: (Sees our Phoenixes) Wow! You guys all have Phoenixes?

Me: We sure do. Eris put them in our cereal boxes that I bought.

Sunset Shimmer: I think it's so cool.

Girder: Wow! That is amazing!

Mirror Master: It sure is. And they are perfect for you because they are your team symbol.

Me: That's right.

Princess Celestia: It's so amazing though. And Philomena has a bunch of friends now.

Spike: Same with Peewee.

Me: Yep.

El Diablo: That was really cool of Eris to give you guys phoenixes.

Me: Well this happened with Billy, Grim and Mandy before and it didn't work well with them. But you know how she is as the Goddess of Chaos.

Nico: Yeah.

Key: Well that's okay.

Me: Lets head out guys.

We were off to Alto Mare.

ALTO MARE, BAJA CALIFORNIA PENINSULA, MEXICO

We arrived in Alto Mare, Mexico and it was not far from Cozumel.

Me: Wow.

Molly Hale: So, this is Alto Mare? I've always wanted to go here before the mess with the Unown!

Me: Me too Molly. This place has an amazing Mexican flair to it.

Ronnie Anne: Boy it sure does.

Laney: I think this town is amazing.

Me: I think this is amazing. Also I heard that it's also where Ash and friends put two girls named Annie and Oakley in prison.

Jessie (Pokemon): I remember them?

Me: Weren't they spies that worked for Team Rocket?

James (Pokemon): As a matter of fact yes they were.

Jessie and James told us about them.

Oakley

Oakley is the main antagonist of the fifth Pokémon film, Pokémon Heroes. She is a teenage girl with lilac short hair and wears a lavender jumpsuit. Despite being Annie's younger sister, Oakley is the one who drives the plot of movie and is more willing to commit dangerous crimes.

She was voiced by Lisa Ortiz in English version and Yumiko Shaku in Japanese version.

Oakley and her sister, Annie are first seen in a library, reading a book on the history of Latios, Latias, and Alto Mare. When a security guard comes to their area, Oakley and Annie escape with the book before they can be spotted. As they make their getaway, Oakley discusses the last chapter of the book to Annie where it talks about the Defense Mechanism of Alto Mare and how to power and use it, through the Soul Dew, a gem containing the soul of a Latios. As Annie reminds Oakley that they need to capture Latios and Latias for Giovanni (Pokémon), they reach Alto Mare and compliment its peacefulness, noting it won't last long as they smirk evilly (indicating they plan to do more harm to the town than just capturing its Mythical Pokémon for their boss).

The next day, Oakley looks at her computer through a flying camera, looking for Latios and Latias. Oakley explains to Annie that the book said that both Latios and Latias can disguise with their surroundings or take on the shape of a human, leaving Annie impressed. Oakley says that the Pokémon have lower body temperatures so it would be easy to find them, just as her camera picks up a human with low body temperature. At this find, Oakley and Annie decide go pay their "new friend" a visit.

Annie

Annie is the secondary antagonist of the fifth Pokémon film, "Pokemon Heroes". She is a teenage girl with blonde hair styled in large curly buns. While vain and a bit ditzy, she is, like her partner, very devious, athletic, and competent at whatever she does.

She was voiced by Megan Hollingshead in English version, who also voiced Moriah in the 2003 version of Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles and Uno Kanda in Japanese version.

Not much is known about Annie or her sister Oakley before Pokémon Heroes, but they are still instantly recognized by James.

In the dub, they were assigned a mission by Giovanni, implying Team Rocket membership, but this is not present in the original.

---

When James was finished we gasped.

Me: Whoa man.

Nico: So they were terrorist spies.

Me: Not good. I have a feeling they are here and they didn't get the memo that Team Rocket is gone and we destroyed them.

Eli: And banished Giovanni to the Warp forever.

Nico: Yep. But this is an interesting town.

Me: Lets take a look around.

Eli: Ash I heard you know a girl named Bianca here.

Ash: I sure do.

Me: Lets find her.

We walked around and we looked around for her and then we saw a girl with brown hair and a green shirt and white shorts.

Maria: Are you Bianca?

"Bianca" giggled and ran off. Mirror Master saw a nearby mirror and entered it. He then reappeared from a mirror in front of "Bianca".

Mirror Master: Oh no! You're not leading us on a cat and mouse chase this time!

Me: Looks like she wants to have fun.

We then saw "Bianca" turn into a Latias!

We gasped.

Me: WHOA!

Melody: Oh wow! It's a Latias!

Nico: I didn't know that Latias can shapeshift.

Me: That is amazing!

?: Latias is a fun one.

We saw the REAL Bianca.

Bianca: Team Loud Phoenix Storm it's an honor.

Me: You too Bianca.

Ash: Hey Bianca!

Bianca: Ash!

They hugged.

Bianca: It's great to see you again!

Pikachu hugged her too.

Scowl: Hi. You must be Bianca.

Bianca: I sure am. It's an honor to meet the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: Pleasure is ours Bianca.

Latias nuzzled Ash.

Ash: It's great to see you again Latias.

Me: I didn't know that you know this Latias, Ash.

Ash: It's a long story.

Me: But that is so cool.

Laney: It sure is.

Melody (OC): You are a lucky guy Ash to know the awesome Legendary Pokemon.

Me: He sure is.

Bianca: Yeah.

May: I also heard that Latias or Bianca kissed Ash on the cheek.

Serena gasped and got a jealous look on her face.

Girder: (gets in front of Serena) Serena, don't do anything that might start a catfight.

Me: It was just her way of saying thank you for stopping Annie and Oakley the first time.

Serena: Oh.

Me: Besides, I heard that Annie and Oakley wanted to use a powerful artifact called the Soul Dew to destroy the town.

Bianca: You heard right J.D.

Me: Whoa! But what is the Soul Dew?

Bianca: It's the soul stones of the legendary Pokemon, Latias & Latios.

She went over what they were.

---

The Soul Dew appeared in Pokémon Heroes: Latios & Latias, where it is used to guard Johto's Alto Mare. It was given to an old couple in Alto Mare long ago after a Latios and a Latias saved the city from an evil force attacking it, and was subsequently hidden in the Secret Garden.

In the movie, Annie and Oakley searched for Soul Dew as well as the two current Legendary guardians of the city, Latios and Latias. If the Soul Dew is attached to the Defense Mechanism of Alto Mare, anyone using the device can drown the city in water, block all exits in the city, and awaken the Fossil Pokémon Kabutops and Aerodactyl in the city museum. However, doing this will also result in the Soul Dew using up all of its power and disappear. It is implied that this Soul Dew contains the soul of a deceased Latios.

During the climax of the movie, the original Soul Dew was destroyed, but a new one was created when Latios sacrificed his life to save Alto Mare from a massive tidal wave, using his own spirit to create a replacement for the destroyed gemstone

---

When she was done we were in awe.

Me: Wow!

Nico: That's amazing.

Me: Latios is a hero. It saved the entire town from a massive tidal wave.

Naruto: At the cost of its life.

Eli: Incredible.

Me: That is a tremendous act of valor.

Varie: It sure is.

Skullgrin: How about you show us the rest of the town?

Bianca: Sure thing.

We walked around the town with Bianca. She showed us much of the town and it was amazing.

Bianca noticed that Rarity was wearing a beautiful new dress she made with magenta jewels that she got from our adventure on Quartilla.

Bianca: Wow! Rarity I love your dress.

Rarity: What this old thing? It is beautiful isn't it?

Me: Rarity makes awesome clothes. Everyone all over our school loves them. Carol, Lori and their friends love them and they are the envy of the school.

Bianca: That is amazing.

Me: It sure is.

Bianca: Where did you get the awesome jewels for it?

Me: It's a really interesting story.

Nico: Yeah.

We saw everything all over the town. And we even saw the Secret Garden.

---

Alto Mare is an isolated island south of Azalea Town. It is accessible via ferries near Cherrygrove City. It is a city of canals; a major mode of transport is by gondola.

The city is guarded by the Legendary Pokémon Latias and Latios, which are both commemorated in the city's Guardian Columns. In the distant past, the pair saved Alto Mare from the evils of a Trainer and their rampaging Pokémon Aerodactyl and Kabutops who sought to flood the city. The city gained its name of Alto Mare, which means "high sea", from this very event.

Many other species of Pokémon can be found in Alto Mare, including Pidgey, Yanma, Murkrow, Quagsire, Chinchou and Remoraid.

The Tour de Alto Mare, a water chariot race, is held annually. Trainers race on floating platforms pulled by their Pokémon. One year, the competition was won by Misty and her Corsola. Winners are awarded a glass medallion, depicting Latias and Latios.

Alto Mare briefly reappeared in the opening sequence of Jirachi Wish Maker, where Latios and Latias were shown flying under one of its bridge.

Alto Mare Museum

The Alto Mare Museum exhibits the Defense Mechanism of Alto Mare (DMA). The Fossils of Pokémon that attacked Alto Mare in the past, Aerodactyl and Kabutops, can also be seen in the museum's floor. Lorenzo and his granddaughter, Bianca, are the caretakers of the museum.

Secret Garden

The Secret Garden is where Latias and Latios reside and it is located near the museum. Located in a small pond is the Soul Dew. If removed, it can be used to control the DMA, but this will cause all the water to drain from the city. Therefore, it is the responsibility of the two Eon Pokémon to protect the Soul Dew.

---

Me: Wow. This town is amazing.

Nico: And so is the Secret Garden.

Me: Yeah. So amazing.

Poromon and Poliwag were glaring at a couple of Murkrow.

Poliwag: What're you looking at, bird brains?

Major Disaster: (sees this) This isn't going to end well.

Me: No it's not.

Fluttershy used her stare on the Murkrow and they flew away.

Me: Good one Fluttershy.

Bianca: Those Murkrow are a problem around here. We get used to it.

Me: That's all right.

Lola: Besides. Vypra has a bunch of Murkrow and they are neat.

Me: Yep.

Eli: Hey bro I forgot to ask this.

Me: What's up Eli?

Eli: I heard you came up with great themes for each element when you went after the Villain Teams.

Me: We sure did. And they are based on the Legendary Pokemon.

Lynn: Yep. Moltres is The Flames of Valor.

Lana: Articuno is The Mystic Ice.

Lincoln: Zapdos is The Lightning of Instinct.

Lori: Groudon is the Omega Volcano.

Luna: Kyogre is The Alpha Ocean.

Lily: And Rayquaza is The Delta Sky.

Eli: Wow! That is so cool!

Me: We also made flags for each of the themes.

Bianca: Wow! I heard you all went after each of the major teams.

Me: We sure did.

Nico: Those were some of our most explosive adventures.

Bianca: What was each team gonna do?

Me: Well that is an easy one. Team Rocket was gonna gather a massive army of Pokemon to take over the planet.

Nico: Team Flare was gonna create a utopia by destroying everyone that didn't meet their standards.

Varie: Team Galactic was gonna use the power of the legendary Pokemon Dialga and Palkia to destroy the entire universe and remake it in their own image to how they like it.

Luna: Team Aqua was gonna use the power of Kyogre to flood the entire planet by expanding the oceans.

Lynn: Team Magma was going to use the power of Groudon to expand the lands.

Laney: And Team Plasma was gonna take away all Pokemon from all humans and divide the world.

N: And I should know because I am the former leader of Team Plasma.

Me: Yep. Jessie, James and Meowth are no longer part of Team Rocket and N here no longer is part of Team Plasma. We killed all 6 major Pokemon Villain Teams.

Bianca: Whoa! That's incredible!

Nico: It sure was.

Me: And we have 2 more Pokemon Villain Teams that we are watching very closely. They are both in the Alola Region in the Maldives in the Indian Ocean. They are Team Skull and the Aether Foundation.

Bianca: What are they planning to do?

Me: Well Team Skull is not that much of a threat. They are mostly gangsters and thugs. But it's the Organization they are working for, The Aether Foundation that is caught in our crosshairs. They plan to get all Pokemon away from all of us and protect them from all threats. Despite their intentions that are good we can't let them get away with their crimes.

Lillie: And their leader is my own mother Lusamine.

Bianca and some of the members who haven't heard all that gasped in shock!

Runo: Whoa man! That's horrible!

Me: Yeah no kidding.

Bianca: That must be awful to know that your own mother is causing trouble.

Lillie: Yeah.

Me: That's why if the Aether Foundation makes a move, we're going to save Lusamine from herself and throw the entire Aether Foundation in prison.

Bianca: Good.

Lola: Yeah!

Me: But we've been busy with the 6 major Pokemon Villlain Teams.

Pounce: A while after J.D. and the others ended the war between Autobots and Decepticons, they managed to destroy Team Rocket. However, they actually managed to pull off one thing that we're currently cleaning up.

Me: We're cleaning up their remnants and helping out people that were gene-slammed into Pokemon.

Nico: Yeah. Many people all over the world were injected with Pokemon DNA and turned into Pokemon.

Ryan: Yeah it happened to many of us.

Julie Tancheno: Some of us are legendary Pokemon. I'm an Articuno.

Kayla Schmidt: I'm a Moltres.

Jessica Namiko: I'm a Zapdos.

Alexandra Kemphur: I've been turned into a Nidoking.

Me: Lots of people we met have been turned into Pokemon.

Carolyn Hope: I'm a Dialga.

Olivia Pensagammon: I'm a Palkia

Lanalda Ramirez: And I'm a Giratina.

Me: Yep.

El Diablo: Melody and Ryan over here are a Latias and a Latios respectively.

Bianca: Really!?

Ryan: We sure are.

Me: Show her.

Ryan and Melody concentrated and turned into Latias & Latios!

Bianca: Oh wow! That is amazing!

Me: It sure is.

Ryan: What do you think?

Latias trilled.

Nico: Looks like Latias agrees.

Melody: So awesome.

Me: Yep.

Bianca: SO COOL!

Me: Yeah it is.

Muscle Man: You know who else likes to turn Pokemon back into humans? My Mom!

We laughed at Muscle Man's joke.

Nico: That was funny!

Bianca: He sure is funny!

Me: Yeah. He cracks us up every time.

Bomb Burst: Bianca, is it okay if we try to bring Latios back to life? We haven't exactly used this ability on a dead Pokemon yet.

Me: I don't think we've tested that before. I managed to bring many people back to life but I've never tried my powers on a Pokemon before.

Bianca: You are more than welcome to try.

Me: Okay here we go.

I concentrated and chanted a powerful incantation and the Blue Soul Dew glowed and the singing of angels was heard and I was groaning hard and then a massive beam of blue light shot out of the Soul Dew and out of the light came LATIOS! BACK FROM THE DEAD!

Nico: HE DID IT!

Bianca: OH WOW!

Latias squealed in joy and Latios and Latias nuzzled in reunion and then I fell to the ground exhausted.

Me: (Groans)

Nico: J.D.!

They got me up.

Nico: You okay?

Me: (Groans) That took an unbelievable amount of power. I don't think I can do that again.

Eli: No kidding. That was your first time doing it.

Me: No kidding.

Goku gave me a Senzu Bean.

Me: Oh thanks Master Goku.

I took the bean and ate it and my energy was fully restored.

Me: Whew! That's better.

Nico: How much power of yours did that take?

Me: 85%.

Nico: 85% Power!? Whoa!

Laney: That took an enormous amount of energy.

Key: Let's enjoy the peace and quiet while we still can. Sooner or later, Annie and Oakley are probably going to make a move.

Me: Yeah.

Bianca: There are lots of great restaurants here.

Me: Cool.

We went to one and we were eating awesome food.

Me: (Eating a burger) Delicious.

Nico: (Eating Chicken) It sure is.

Twilight Sparkle was shaking in fear at what Laney was eating. Laney was eating Quesadillas.

Laney: What's wrong Twilight?

Twilight Sparkle: I'm scared of what you're eating.

Laney: You're afraid of Quesadillas?

Me: That's unusual.

Nico: Oh right! We found out during the battle with Lumpus when he returned that you were afraid of Quesadillas. Twilight there's nothing to be afraid of with them. They are full of cheese, vegetables and meats.

Twilight Sparkle: But they are full of a lot of cheese.

Laney: You have what's called Turophobia.

Me: The Fear of Cheese.

Lincoln: There's nothing to be afraid of Twilight.

Me: Cheese won't hurt you. It's made from milk.

Laney: Yeah. Have you ever eaten Quesadillas before?

Twilight Sparkle: Well no.

Nico: Try one Twilight. Quesadillas will not hurt you.

Me: Yeah Twilight. We helped you conquer your fear of ladybugs. So you can conquer this fear too.

Twilight Sparkle: Okay.

She took a Quesadilla and shook in fear and then she took a bite and it was delicious!

Twilight then ate the whole thing.

Twilight Sparkle: Delicious!

Me: See? Nothing to be afraid of.

An Ariados and Espeon approached us.

Slog: Is that an Ariados and an Espeon?

Unknown to us, the Ariados and Espeon belonged to Oakley and Annie respectively. Seeing Fluttershy as a threat due to her stare, it shot webbing at her eyes.

She ducked and Pikachu shot electricity at them and electrocuted them and knocked them out.

Poromon: Take this! (Echoing) LIGHTNING JAVELIN!

Poromon fired a wave of lightning and electrocuted them even more.

Me: Looks like someone is after us!

Eli: And I sense them.

Eli fired an energy blast and it hit a bush and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Out of the explosion came Oakley and Annie!

Ash: Oakley and Annie! I knew those were your Pokemon!

Me: So that Espeon and Ariados are yours?

Oakley: That's right. Nice job flushing us out.

Annie: You are nowhere near as powerful as us though. We are elite.

Me: Oh god and I thought I was never gonna hear that word again after dealing with those evil fucklipped duckbutt freaks named Sasuke Uchiha. (To Sasuke) No offense.

Sasuke: None taken.

Annie: If you want us, come and get us!

She and Oakley ran off.

Spymaster: Let's see if they have any machinery with them. If they do, I can sabotage it.

Me: Awesome. Lets get them guys!

Bianca: Me and Latias will search for them from the air.

Me: Okay. Lets go!

We went after them.

Eli was using the Force to find Annie and Oakley.

We were searching all over.

Scrap Shooter: They couldn't have gone far, see!

Me: And they won't.

Spitfire: (On the radio) Spitfire to J.D. do you copy?

Me: J.D. here Spitfire.

Spitfire: We found them heading to the park.

Me: Copy that. We're on our way.

We flew over to the park.

Bianca: Wow! You guys are awesome at flying.

Me: We get that a lot.

Houno screeched in agreement.

We flew and smashed down and blew Oakley and Annie into the fountain and drenched them all over.

Me: Going somewhere?

Oakley: Thanks for bringing Latios back to us. Now we can capture it and Latias!

Maria: So you can bring it to your boss, right?

Nico: Well, we've got news for you two. That organization you two work for? It's all gone!

May: That's right! We destroyed it. Jessie, James, and Meowth are all that's left!

Vanitas: There's no more Giovanni. And there's no more Team Rocket. That means there's nothing stopping us from sending you two to jail for a very long time.

Me: That's right! Team Rocket is all dead and you're looking at its killers: Us.

Oakley: WHAT!? They can't be dead!

Annie: Yeah you're lying!

Applejack: They are 100% honest about it!

Me: That's right! Team Rocket is gone! Giovanni is dead and banished to the Warp.

Eli: And he will never terrorize the world again.

Nico: In fact all the Major Pokemon Villain teams are dead and gone!

Me: That's right!

Skalamander, Madame Masque, Boomerang, Titanium Man, Black Spider, Multiple Man, Silver Samurai, Billy Numerous and Eris then appeared.

Me: Skalamander, Madame Masque, Boomerang, Titanium Man, Black Spider, Multiple Man, Silver Samurai, Billy Numerous and Eris.

Eris: Ahoy there!

Black Spider: Glad to see you all here.

Skalamander: We actually explored the sights of this town.

William: How did you like it?

Masque: It was actually very nice.

Boomerang: And we're glad you brought back Latios.

Titanium Man: (to Latias and Bianca) It's nice to meet two of Ash's old crushes.

Bianca: Same here but we're just friends.

Serena: Yeah that's all.

Eris: I see you all like the Phoenixes that I put in your cereal.

Me: We sure do Eris and they are awesome. They are our team symbol after all.

Eris: Indeed.

Masque: That's cool.

Timmy Turner: It sure is.

?: I thought so too.

A figure came out and it was MANTAMOBILE from episode 5 of Time Force!

Mantamobile is a water flea/Manta ray themed mutant car thief. He is the secondary antagonist of the episode "A Blue Streak".

Mantamobile, like all other mutants, was created as the result of a chemical accident. Prior to the series, he was captured by the Time Force and put into the Cryo-Prison. Later, this mutant was released by Ransik to help Nadira with her robberies. Mantamobile was tasked to help Nadira to steal as many cars as possible to terrorize Silver Hills, which he accomplished by using his tentacles to manipulate the cars. He then escaped, only for the Time Force Rangers to outrun him with their new Vector Cycles. Mantamobile battled the Rangers with a army of Cyclobots, but was eventually defeated by the Vortex Blaster, prompting him to enlarge himself. In the giant battle, Mantamobile activated his armor and nearly defeated the Time Force Megazord, but was eventually defeated and frozen.

---

Wes: Mantamobile!

Mantamobile: Been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were sent by Nadira to help steal as many cars as possible to terrorize Silver Hills.

Mantamobile: That's right. You REALLY have a good memory J.D.

Me: Get told that all the time.

Wes: You know there aren't any cars around, right?

Mantamobile: Actually, Mistress Vypra gave me two cars for me control from the junkyard. Can't let them go to waste.

Me: Cool! That's awesome!

?: It sure is.

A figure came out and Ruby Rose gasped in utter shock!

Ruby Rose: It can't be!

It was SUMMER ROSE!

Me: Summer Rose!?

Ruby Rose: Mom?! Is that you!?

But we saw that she had strange insect-like patches on her arms.

Me: Oh man! Is that…

Fox: She has been infected by the Aparoids!

Summer Rose: I'm here to help you all destroy (Points to Oakley and Annie) THEM!

Oakley: You think you can beat us?

Summer Rose: You all don't know who you're messing with!

Falco: Of course we do. Just another Aparoid dirtbag who's about to bite the dust!

Summer Rose: (laughs) Is that what you think? The Aparoid Queen tried to control me. But I was too strong for her and the Number Card she gave me.

Maria: So, if you're not going to help the Aparoid Queen, then what's your plan?

Summer Rose: To get rid of all remaining evil in the world! And since I know you like to kill most of your enemies, you can help me. Together, we'll make the universe a safe place! What do you say?

Lola: Do you even have a plan?

Summer Rose: (not expecting that question) W-Well-

Lynn: (smirks) I'm all for getting rid of all the remaning villains. But we need to know how you'll do it.

Lori: Just tell us how you plan to get rid of all the remaning evil in the universe and then, we'll literally consider joining you.

Summer Rose: Just walk up and kill them.

Me: Not very smart if you ask me. But how come she is not being controlled by the Aparoid Queen?

Peppy Hare: Her mind must be too strong willed for her to be controlled so easily by the Aparoids.

Me: Wow.

Nico: That's incredible.

Me: But we still have to fight her to free her.

Lola: Yeah.

Wolf, Leon and Panther then appeared.

Me: Wolf, Leon and Panther.

Panther: Good to see you all again. (Hits on Krystal) Especially the fair maiden Krystal.

Krystal: (British Accent) I'm happy already though.

Me: We owe you and Leon big time for helping us during the war, Panther.

Panther: Think nothing of it.

Leon: It's great to be out of prison though.

Me: It sure is. Looks like Star Fox and Star Wolf are no longer enemies.

Wolf: No we aren't.

Me: Now we can all go after them. But first…

I snapped my fingers and we were on the ice planet Lhotwe.

Me: Lhotwe is a perfect planet for the battle.

Nico: As long as we don't have to fight (Points to something) them.

We turned and we saw Doug and Michelle and they were REALLY cold and almost at the brink of death.

Me: Maybe banishing them to Lhotwe was a REALLY bad idea.

Luna Loud: I agree.

Twilight Sparkle: Who are they?

Me: Doug and Michelle. They are the former stars and hosts of the show America's Next Hit Maker and they turned Luna into someone she's not.

I went over their history.

---

Background

Doug & Michelle are the producers and judges of their singing show called ¨America's Next Hit Maker¨. They even have a recording studio in the show.

Involvement

They first appeared in "Really Loud Music" where they serve as the two true main antagonists of the episode where they both convince Luna into changing her from a Rock n' Roll singer into a Bubble Gum Pop star. They've changed her clothes, her name, and tells her to lip sync her song instead of performing the song herself. But at the end of the episode, Luna choose to stand up to them and perform as herself.

---

Coloratura: Oh man! That is exactly like what happened with me and Svengallop.

Applejack: I remember that.

Nico: That was crazy. But lets warm them up and get them back to the estate when we're done here.

Me: Good idea. We'll put them in our presidential suite of our dungeon.

Lola: Nice.

Kitten: They can have my old cell.

Me: Cool. I'm amazed they were able to survive this long here on Lhotwe. Lets go. (To Annie and Oakley) Be right back.

We went over and got Doug and Michelle and Varie warmed them up.

Doug: (Shivering) What the? You guys? What are you doing here?

Nico: To rectify a mistake.

Varie: And that's leaving you here to freeze.

Me: Now we can have our usual battles.

We powered up and went at them.

---

Battle 1: Chris Taylor, Rarity, Sweetie Belle, Thunder Terror, Sassy Saddles, Sapphire Shores, Saffron Masala, Mistmane, Sable Spirit, Joe Shimamura, Sena, Runo, Skalor and Tentakil VS Skalamander

---

Skalamander was first.

Skalamander: (to Chris) So, how was the mall?

Chris Taylor: It was fun and J.D. just needed to get a lot of food.

Rarity: Sunset and us were waiting in line for the new Battle for Equestria video game that came out today and the line was over 6 hours long.

Sweetie Belle: Yeah it went all the way back from the video game store to the food court.

Skalamander: Damn! That must've been worth the wait.

Thunder Terror: It sure was. Turns out Pinkie Pie preordered it yesterday.

Sassy Saddles: (British Accent) Thank goodness. But J.D. got all the food he needed.

Skalamander: Indeed. I heard you guys got phoenixes in your cereal.

Sapphire Shores: They sure did. That was amazing.

Saffron Masala: (Indian Accent) And it was unexpected. But it was really cool to get the symbol of the team.

Mistmane: Yeah it was. I thought it was something too.

Sable Spirit: It sure was.

Joe Shimamura: Indeed it was.

Sena: I thought so too.

Runo: Yeah.

Skalamander: Yeah. Lets do it.

Skalamander fired crystals and they went at him and dodged the crystals and smashed and blasted him all over and knocked him down.

Chris Taylor: All right!

Rarity: Rapture darling that was grand!

Sweetie Belle: Yeah it was!

Battle 2: Timmy Turner, Twilight Sparkle, Luster Dawn, Princess Celestia, Princess Luna, Princess Cadance, Princess Amore, Flurry Heart, Lilly Crystal, Cloud Star, Snowdrop, Children of The Night, Minuette, Twinkleshine, Lemon Hearts, Moondancer, Lyra Heartstrings, Bon Bon, Star Swirl, Rai, Jet Link, Dan, Sabrina (Pokemon) and Molly Hale VS Giulietta Nefaria A.K.A. Madame Masque

Madame Masque was next.

Madame Masque :(to Timmy) Was there really a video game based on the recent war?

Timmy Turner: There sure was and it's supposed to be a really good one from what we were told.

Twilight Sparkle: Yep and the wait was worth it.

Luster Dawn: It sure was. We waited all that time in line for it and it was worth it.

Princess Celestia: And just in time too. After we got the game J.D. got finished with his shopping too.

Princess Cadance: He sure did. Talk about perfect timing.

Princess Amore: Yep.

Madame Masque: Awesome. I bet you all are happier now that your most dangerous enemies are gone forever.

Star Swirl: Yeah we can.

Jet Link: Absolutely.

Rai: Yeah.

Dan: Definitely.

Madame Masque: Yep. Lets do it!

Madame Masque went at them and punched and kicked at them and they dodged her attacks. They smashed and punched and blasted her all over and knocked her down.

Timmy: COOL!

Twilight Sparkle: Awesome!

Luster Dawn: Yeah!

Boomerang: That's right! That's amazing.

Sunset Shimmer: It sure is. And the phoenix is my favorite bird as well.

Pepperdance: A beautiful and fiery bird.

Cayenne: And an amazing symbol.

Firecracker Burst: Eris did a great job.

Boomerang: Glad she did. I heard that Mandy, Grim and Billy had a problem with a phoenix before.

Wallflower: That's what they told us. They had a phoenix in Billy's box of cereal and it caused lots of mischief.

Gusty: Yeah no kidding.

Françoise: Thank goodness they stopped that.

Marucho: Yeah.

Mack Hartford: It sure is. And the view of the ocean is amazing.

Applejack: It sure is. But we had no idea that Ash and friends were here before.

Apple Bloom: Yeah it's amazing. And J.D. used his power to bring back Latios.

Titanium Man: I saw that! That is amazing!

Frozen Fright: Trouble is it used up 85% of his power and made him almost totally exhausted.

Apple Fritter: Yeah. That took a huge toll on him.

Big Mac: Eeyup.

Sugar Belle: But thank goodness Goku gave him a Senzu Bean to get him better.

Granny Smith: But it was the first time that J.D. brought back a deceased Pokemon.

Apple Rose: You said it cousin. But it might be the only time.

Goldie Delicious: Yeah it takes too much power.

Titanium Man: But it was really selfless that he did.

Bright Mac: It sure was.

Jenny Wakeman: It sure is and it was awesome! But it may be the only time he will do it because it takes up too much power.

Black Spider: Really?

Fluttershy: Yeah it almost totally drained him of his power.

Tree Hugger: No kidding dudes.

Mage Meadowbrook: J.D. said that it took 85% of his power to resurrect Latios.

Black Spider: Geez! That must've been a huge amount of power. I think it might be because of the level of power that Latios has.

Discord: Hmm. That could very well be the cause.

Geronimo Jr.: Yeah and Legendary Pokemon contain incredible power.

Alice: They sure do. We saw how much power they have.

Alpha Hydranoid: They have a lot of power.

Black Spider: They sure do. Lets do it!

Marble Pie: They sure do. It's so adorable.

Limestone Pie: Yeah I think it's adorable too.

Night Glider: They sure are and it's awesome that they have a lot of spiritual and symbolic meaning.

Wind Socks: You got that right.

Flash Magnus: I think it shows a lot of awesome meaning.

Silver Samurai: Indeed. Ruby losing her mom must've been really rough on her.

Cloudkicker: Yeah no kidding. Poor girl.

Blossomforth: But the Aparoids and Number Card bringing her back saved us a lot of trouble.

Derpy Hooves: They sure did. But it's amazing that her mind is so strong to resist the control of the Aparoids.

Silver Samurai: No kidding.

Bulk Biceps: YEAH! But thank goodness she is gonna be back with us.

Indigo Zap: Yeah that is gonna be good.

Lemon Zest: It sure is. Ruby went through a lot and she needs her mom back.

Ultimate Big Chill: Indeed. It'll be many of you and us and fire so cold that it burns.

Thorax: Yeah it will!

Sunburst: This is gonna be so cool.

Juniper Montage: It sure will be cool.

Clover: I think so too.

Billy Numerous: Indeed.

Battle 11: Star Fox Team, Star Wolf Team, Ruby Rose, Nicole and Laney VS Summer Rose & Number 80

---

Summer Rose was next.

Summer Rose: Why are you all stopping me? We both want the same thing!

Nicole: Because there are certain villains we don't kill and they only deserve prison and also some villains are rarely children and killing kids goes against our code!

Laney: Yeah look at me! I'm a kid and I'm a hero.

Fox: You have to realize what you are doing Summer.

Peppy: Yeah Summer! Killing all evil without a plan is dangerous!

Slippy: That's right Summer! You may have good intentions but you are going to charge in without a plan and that is in every way like us and what we are doing.

Falco: I may be a hot shot pilot and all that but I've always got my friends backs.

Krystal: And what we do is good but its too much for you.

Wolf: Absolutely!

Leon: You have to stop this Summer!

Panther: I agree!

Ruby: Mom you have to stop this senseless crusade.

Summer Rose: I'm sorry sweetie but I can't. Because it was evil that took me away from you and left you to be subjected to so much pain.

Ruby: But it was Team Loud Phoenix Storm that helped destroy some of our most dangerous enemies.

Nicole: In order to make you see reason we'll beat you to submission.

Summer Rose then kicked Leon in his face and smashed him into the ground.

Leon Powalski: (dazed) Hey, if you find any teeth laying around, they're mine. (falls down)

Nicole and the team fired waves of energy and they hit Summer and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A huge explosion blasted Summer down and destroyed the Aparoid influence and defeated the Number.

Nicole went up to her and picked up the Number and saw that it was NUMBER 80: RHAPSODY IN BERSERK!

Nicole: Number 80: Rhapsody in Berserk. No wonder she became a berserker.

Ruby Rose: Mom!

Summer Rose was down and weak.

Summer Rose: (Weakly) (Groans) What hit me?

Ruby Rose: You're gonna be okay mom.

She picked her up and helped her.

---

2 minutes earlier we were about to face Oakley and Annie.

Maria: (to Annie and Oakley) If you two don't stand down, Ruby's mom is going to kill you both!

We then saw Leon get knocked to the ground.

May: You okay, Leon?

Leon Powalski: (dazed) Hey, if you find any teeth laying around, they're mine. (falls down)

Eddy: Hey! That's one of my lines!

Me: See what we mean?

Oakley: I don't care!

Annie: Me neither!

Me: Don't say we didn't warn you. But have it your way.

Nico: Bring it on!

Then…

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

A huge explosion blasted Summer down and destroyed the Aparoid influence and defeated the Number.

Me: Never mind. Lets do it!

Melody: (growls) Let me show you what a Latias can do!

Melody's hair started to fall out and her clothes got tight.

They ripped and her neck grew longer and Melody turned into a Latias!

Me: Time for these two to see the true power of the Legendary Eon Pokemon and us!

Salem then appeared.

Salem: And to show how much I changed.

Summer Rose: (Weakly) What? Salem? But how?

Ruby Rose: It's a really long story mom.

Yang: We'll tell you all about it later.

Me: Lets get them!

We went at Oakley and Annie and smashed and pulverized them all over the place with incredible fury and more.

Nivenna and Maxxor smashed and blasted them all over.

Lincoln: LIGHTNING STYLE: JOHN WAYNE!

Ruby Rose: ARSENAL STYLE: R. LEE ERMEY!

We fired waves of energy and the blasts all hit Oakley and Annie and knocked them down and we tied them up.

We were back on Earth and Melody was behind a tree because she was naked.

Black Spider: These two are going to jail for a very long time.

Ash: They sure are.

Multiple Man: And Alto Mare's safe once again.

Summer Rose: I really am sorry. I just wanted to get rid of all the remaining evil in the universe. (to the Masters of Evil)

Silver Samurai: None taken. But getting rid of all the remaining villains in the world is actually impossible.

Billy Numerous: (gives Melody a towel) Here's a towel to keep you covered until we get back.

Melody: Thanks Billy.

She put it on.

Me: Silver Samurai is right Summer. Evil is ALL OVER the entire universe and it would take an eternity to destroy it. The battle with good and evil is an eternal battle. Its been that way ever since the Beginning of Time.

Nico: That's right.

Salem: Yeah.

Summer Rose: I see. But why are you back Salem?

Salem: It's my punishment. I am now Nico's prisoner as part of my punishment for all the crimes I did on Remnant.

Nico: Yeah it's a strange story with that.

Nico told her everything and it was a shocking story and more.

Summer Rose: Whoa.

Me: Yeah. I think our work here is done for now. Lets go home.

Bianca: And it will be an honor to help you all.

Me: Awesome.

Ash: (To the viewers) This was an awesome adventure. These two are going to prison forever.

Me: You said it Ash.

Doug & Michelle were taken back to the World Tree Estate and put in Kitten's old cell and they were given the presidential treatment. Oakley & Annie were put in the Neptune Prison.

THE END

Another awesome fanfic complete.

This chapter is for the 5th Pokemon Movie and it was awesome! I hope you all liked this one as me. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Drako1234658 and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is an awesome adventure into the world of Kung Fu as we take on Dr. Wasabi and help the Chop Socky Chooks take him down forever.

See you all tomorrow.

Pickles, Piranhas and Kung Fu Chickens

At the World Tree Estate we were watching TV and playing card games and reading books.

Me: So far things have been very quiet.

Nico: Yep. Lets hope it stays that way.

Laney: Yeah.

Shockwave: Lois, do you remember when you said we'd get your brother Patrick out of prison?

Lois: I sure do. I can't believe that Patrick is crazy and I think I know who is responsible for it. It's Carter.

Nico: Your father was a monster.

Laney: Yeah he deserves to be thrown in prison in Solitary Confinement.

Lola: Yeah! He ruined so many lives.

Me: And all that was before Quahog was destroyed.

Lana: Yeah.

Brian: I don't know what I ever saw in him.

Meg: Me neither. Uncle Patrick may need help but he needs to be cured too.

Me: Well according to the scanners the Brookhaven Insane Asylum was not destroyed when we destroyed Quahog.

Stewie: Thank goodness.

Me: That was because it's 10 miles away from Quahog.

Lola: Wow.

Lena: Maybe it's not too late for Patrick. Lily cured me of my mental illness.

Me: Lets get over there then.

We went off to Brookhaven Insane Asylum.

---

We arrived.

Max (Pokemon): Is this the place?

Me: Yep this is it. Brookhaven Mental Hospital.

Nico: Sure looks like an interesting place.

Me: It sure is. And we moved some patients from here to the Saturn Insane Asylum.

Nico: Wow.

We went in.

Meg: Man last time we were here we only discovered about Uncle Patrick.

Me: Yeah.

Stewie: Feels like yesterday.

We went up to Patrick's room and knocked on his door and went in. We saw Lois's brother Patrick Pewterschmidt.

Me: Are you Patrick Pewterschmidt?

Patrick P.: Yes I am. Wow! J.D. Knudson and all of Team Loud Phoenix Storm it's an honor to meet you.

Me: Same to you Patrick.

Lois: Patrick!

Patrick P.: Lois thank goodness you're okay.

Lois: I know. Its been a long time.

Patrick: Lois, what's been going on in Quahog? You haven't contacted me in a long time.

Cybertron Crumplezone: Lemme bring you up to speed. Thanks to Quahog pushing Meg to her breaking point, it went boom.

Me: Yeah we blew up Quahog. It deserved to be destroyed. Long story short it was because of corruption and all that.

I went over everything that happened and all that and he was shocked.

Patrick P.: Oh my god. Meg I'm so sorry that you went through all that.

He hugged her.

Meg: It's all right Uncle Patrick.

Me: But if anyone is to blame for all this it's Peter Griffin and his fucking idiocy and Carter Pewterschmidt and his greed and corruption.

Nico: Yeah.

Eli: They deserve to go away and all that.

Laney: Yeah.

Patrick P.: I agree with you all on that.

Me: Yeah. I'm sorry that you have to be here Patrick. I guess being called the Fat Guy Strangler must be hard.

Patrick P.: Yeah it is. But I can't help it. Ever since my traumatic experience with mom and Jackie Gleason, I've been in here since.

Lola: That is awful.

Me: But Jackie Gleason died 34 years ago.

Patrick P.: I know. But that day still haunts me to this day. Ever since then I've had a really bad hatred towards fat guys and I'm known as the Fat Guy Strangler.

Me: I'm sorry.

Wideload: I think we should change your title of Fat Guy Strangler. Because Fat Guy is a little racist.

Patrick P.: What do you suggest then?

Wideload: How about Bad Guy Strangler?

Patrick P.: I like that.

Nico: That works Wideload.

Me: Yeah. Also we came to cure you of your mental illness.

Lily: Yep. Watch this.

Lily spread her wings of water and enveloped Patrick and she cured him of his trauma and all that. He was on the floor and he got up.

Me: Do you feel anything?

Patrick P.: Not sure.

Me: Lets find out if it worked. POW RIGHT IN THE KISSER! POW RIGHT IN THE KISSER! POW RIGHT IN THE KISSER!

Nothing happened.

Patrick P.: It worked! I'm cured!

Me: All right!

Lois and Patrick hugged.

Me: Awesome!

Laney: Wow!

Patrick P.: Now I can come home without any problems.

Me: Well you can now move in with us. Quahog was destroyed. We blew it up with an M.O.A.B. Bomb.

Patrick P.: Wow! That explains that huge explosion I heard.

Me: Yep.

We got Patrick's stuff packed.

We went down the hall and then we saw PRINCIPAL GOODVIBES in hip clothes and he had a bad attitude!

Mandy: Principal Goodvibes?

Goodvibes: Now it's Goodbling!

Me: Whoa. He looks badass.

Goodvibes: You are in heaping trouble man!

Me: Oh I don't think so man! You are the one who is in trouble.

Goodvibes: You are gonna get it now! I'm about to put the boom on yo mama! Yo Mama so ugly she made an onion cry!

Me: Yo Mama so fucking ugly she went to an ugly contest and they turned her down and said "Sorry no Fucking Professionals!"

Goodvibes: Yo mama so stupid she sold her car for gas money!

Me: Yo mama so fucking stupid she brought a fucking measuring stick with her to see how long she slept!

Goodvibes: Yo mama so ugly they dress up as her for Halloween!

Me: Yo mama so fucking fat that not even Thanos could snap her out of existence!

Goodvibes: Yo mama so ugly she looked out the window and got arrested for mooning!

Me: Yo mama so fucking stupid, she spent all day saying, "am not!" to R2D2!

Goodvibes: Yo mama is so fat that Ben Kenobi said, "that's no moon, that's yo' mama!"

Me: Yo' mama so fucking dumb, she thought Jar-Jar Binks, comes with "Pickles-Pickles"

Goodvibes was sweating.

Goodvibes: Oh yeah well…

Me: Yo Mama so fucking stupid she got fired from the M&M Factory for throwing out the W's!

Then Goodvibes backed away and exploded and he was down and defeated.

Nico: Whoa!

We went up to him and saw a Dark Orb come out of him.

Nico: A Dark Orb made him into a mean hip-hop gangster.

Me: Yep.

I picked it up and crushed the dark orb and we got a massive power increase.

Nico: Yeah!

Goodvibes: What happened?

Me: You were controlled by a Dark Orb and it turned you into a nasty Hip Hop Gangster. I beat you in a Yo Mama Joke standoff.

Nico: Yeah and those jokes you said were cruel and cool.

Me: They sure were.

Goodvibes: Wow. Thanks J.D.

Me: You're welcome. Are you okay?

Goodvibes: I'll be all right.

Me: Are Sperg and Mindy still causing problems?

Goodvibes: You don't know the half of it. Sperg is worse than ever and Mindy is getting the entire school drenched.

Me: Well nice to know that curse is holding out.

Lola: Yeah that girl is a true Loser.

Lynn: Worse than anyone I know.

Lucy Loud: Yep.

Me: And she brought it all on herself.

Rarity: Indeed darling.

We gave Goodvibes a lift back home.

---

Later back at the estate we were getting ready for another awesome mission.

Proto Man: Where are we headed next?

Me: Some place in Japan called Wasabi City. I heard that it's a really cool place.

Nico: Wasabi City? Oh wow! We're going to meet the Kung Fu Chickens called the Chop Socky Chooks.

Me: COOL!

Nico: You guys will love these guys. They are kung fu chickens and they pack an awesome punch.

Me: Awesome!

Titanium Man, Madame Masque, Boomerang, Black Spider, Silver Samurai, Skalamander, Billy Numerous, and Multiple Man then appeared.

Titanium Man: Can me, Madame Masque, Boomerang, Black Spider, Silver Samurai, Skalamander, Billy Numerous, and Multiple Man go with you guys?

Me: You all sure can. We're going to Wasabi City.

Skalamander: Oh wow! That's an awesome place.

Madame Masque: I have a strong feeling that we are going there to go after…

Nico: Dr. Wasabi.

Me: Who is Dr. Wasabi?

Nico: You would hate this guy J.D.

Nico told us about him.

---

Dr. Wasabi is the ruler of Wasabi World and the main antagonist of the show. He is a piranha and is voiced by Paul Kaye.

Wasabi was once a young boy's pet named "Fishy Poo" until he flushed him in the toilet. After many years later, Wasabi became rich and powerful and built his gigantic mall called "Wasabi World", which was the main reason Chickadee Pao/Chick P wanted exact revenge. So, she, along with Sensei/Chuckie Chan and JJ/K.O. Joe, ruined his opening speech.

He has control of every place in Wasabi World, yet he has no idea of who the Chop Socky Chooks are. And despite the fact that he hates them, he teams up with the chooks on a few occasions; however, once he is back in control, he attempts to kill them again. His final fate is never clearly explained. As he was last seen being trapped in his HQ that has been flooded because of Bubba. He is armed with his top henchman Bubba, Ninja Chimps, Sentry bots, Wing sentinels and Spy pods. He also has a life-like computer Maximum efficiency. His brain was once sucked out of his head which caused the creation of Lardzilla.

When he was done we were shocked!

May: Oh man! So he's a Piranha with a bad attitude.

Me: Jeez he's a little far from home isn't he?

Eli: What happened did he get deported from the Amazon River?

We laughed.

Luan: (Laughs) That was a good one Eli!

Eddy: (Laughs) That was funny!

Me: Yeah! Lets head out everyone.

We were off to Japan once again to go to Wasabi City!

---

WASABI CITY, JAPAN

---

We arrived in Wasabi City, Japan and it was so beautiful and amazing.

Me: Wow. So this is Wasabi City.

Horsea: Wasabi World is so cool!

Maria: Don't be fooled, Horsea. The owner is really an aquatic crime boss.

Nico: Yep.

May: But we must remain vigilant.

Nico: Yep.

Me: This is an amazing city though.

Billy (B&M): Would you all like a Chocolate Dipped Pickle with your meals here?

Grim: (Jamaican Accent) I would not like one you bubble-nosed baboon!

POW!

Mandy punched Billy in his face.

Me: Sheesh. Also Nico how do you know about Dr. Wasabi?

Nico: I have been after him for a long time.

He pulled out a Wanted Poster and showed it to me.

Nico: He is wanted for dangerous crimes and all that like murder, mayhem and underworld dealings and all that.

Me: Geez! But the bounty on his head is impressive. Looks like we're gonna eat him for dinner when we get back.

Nico: Yep.

Then we heard a yell and out came K.O. JOE, CHUCKIE CHAN and CHICK P. the Chop Socky Chooks!

Me: Wow! The Chop Socky Chooks!

K.O. Joe: J.D. Knudson and Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's a true honor to meet you all.

Me: (Kung Fu Bow) It's an honor to meet you all.

Varie: We heard so much about you and it's a true honor to meet you.

Chick P.: We are honored to meet you all.

Chuckie Chan: We love all your adventures.

They saw Nico.

Nico: It's nice to finally meet you guys!

Chick P.: (Scowling) Yeah, you might as well drop the act, Digimon Emperor.

Nico: (shocked) Say what?

K.O. Joe: Don't play dumb with us. I know that thanks to Xemnas, you were able to take control of Nico's body and that you've been forcing him to do all kinds of bad things. Well, now, you're gonna get your just desserts!

Nico: Okay, let's all just calm down.

Chuckie Chan: Leave Nico Chan's body or suffer the consequences!

Black Spider: Now, hold on a minute.

The Chooks didn't listen and Chick P punched Nico in the face.

Nico: Guys, a little help?

Lola: Why should we?

Lori: You literally didn't help us during the time Mondo attacked us when he thought Luthor's mind was in our bodies. Besides, you have to get yourself out of this mess yourself.

Lynn: C'mon, guys. Let's leave the 4 of them to sort this out themselves. We should see if there's anything to eat around here.

Me: Girls that's enough!

POW BIFF SMASH!

Mandy punched the 3 of them in their faces.

Mandy: Like it or not Nico is getting helped!

Me: That's right!

Salem: Leave him alone you dorks!

Salem blew them back.

Eli used the Force and held them up.

Me: That's enough guys! Nico doesn't have the Digimon Emperor inside him anymore. We sent him to oblivion. The 20 Days of Darkness are all behind us and the Digimon Emperor and Organization XIII are no longer a threat to us.

Laney: That's right! The Digimon Emperor is the main reason why Nico had such a dark past. But thanks to us we got rid of him forever.

Salem: And now I'm inside him to make sure he never gets tormented by any evils ever again.

K.O. Joe: Oh man!

They were let down.

Chuckie Chan: We had no idea.

K.O. Joe: (to Nico) Hey, man. Sorry that we attacked you.

Nico: (smiles) It's fine, Joe. I mean, you guys didn't know that the Digimon Emperor already got sent to oblivion. So, there's no reason for me to hold a grudge against you three.

Gluko: But you three are actually half right. Someone is inside Nico's head.

Me: That is the redeemed prisoner of Nico, Salem.

KO Joe: But why did Mandy punch Lori, Lynn and Lola like that?

Me: Oh right I forgot to tell you all. I made Mandy another enforcer. But this time for the Trinity of Violence. Whenever they get angry or do something stupid Mandy will punch their brains out.

Nico: Nice.

Laney: Good and they will be reminded of who is boss whenever they step out of line.

Me: Yep.

Chuckie Chan: Wow. You guys have done a lot.

Lincoln: Yep we sure have.

Me: All that and more.

Skalamander: I just hope you 3 can forgive us for what happens next.

Chick P: What do you mean?

Ed: CHICKEN!

Ed hugged the Chooks.

Ed: HUG A CHICKEN! HUG A CHICKEN! HUG A CHICKEN! HUG A CHICKEN!

Me: Ed Loves chickens and because you three are anthropomorphic chickens he loves you guys.

Chick P: Oh it's all right.

Me: Cool.

Nico: Also good thinking making Mandy a 2nd enforcer J.D.

Me: Thanks. Also it will help keep them in line.

Lana: I should not have opened my big mouth.

Laney: Oh Lana.

Lily: It's all right.

We went to the Chop Socky Chook HQ and it was awesome.

Needle Man: This is a really nice HQ you guys got here.

Me: It sure is.

KO Joe: Thanks guys. It's not nearly as nice as your HQ though.

Me: Also you guys remind me so much of the heroes and villains of the Bruce Lee movies. They were awesome.

KO Joe: (Laughs) That is coincidental. Funny though too.

Me: We should also explain as to why we are here. We came to help kill your most dangerous enemy: Dr. Wasabi.

Pinkie Pie: I hope I get to put a bunch of Wasabi on him and eat him.

Eli: Also why does he hate you all so much? Did he get deported from the Amazon River and blame you all for it?

We all laughed at Eli's joke.

KO Joe: (Laughs) That was funny!

Luan: (Laughs) Good one Eli!

Eddy: (Laughs) That was funny!

Joe Swanson: That is funny.

Lori: Nico, about what literally happened earlier…

Nico: (to Lori, Lynn, and Lola) It's fine. I now know how you guys felt when Mondo attacked you guys thinking Luthor's mind was inside all your bodies. (smiles) If anything, I should be the one apologizing for not defending you that day.

Boomerang: Talk about role reversal.

Me: Tell me about it.

Nico: So I'm sorry about that.

Lori: Well…

Mandy pounded her fist.

Lori: Apology accepted Nico.

Lola: Yeah we weren't thinking straight ourselves.

Lynn: Just the stress of the missions.

Me: Yeah and good job Mandy.

Nico: You made her a good 2nd enforcer J.D.

Me: She is a perfect choice. If she can keep Billy the idiot in line then she can do the same for the Trinity of Violence.

Mandy: Thanks.

Billy burped in stupidity.

Me: You are so stupid Billy.

Broccoli Guy: (to the Chooks) Alright. Why don't you guys tell us everything about Wasabi's crimes? Because I know he affected at least one of you personally.

KO Joe: They sure did.

They went over everything that Dr. Wasabi did and all that and it was horrible.

When they were finished we were horrified!

Me: That piranha is a freak!

Nico: And a monster!

Eli: Now we're REALLY going to turn him into fish stew when we're done here.

Mary K.: I know a good recipe for Ecuadorian Fish Soup when we get home.

Me: Yummy.

FFFFFFFFFAAAAAAAAaAAAAAAAAAAAAARRRRRRRRTTTTTT!

Me: GEEZ! Who ripped one!?

Grim: Who else? (Pointed to Billy)

Mandy punched him in the face and smashed his nose out.

Me: Billy is being more of an idiot than usual.

Laney: No kidding.

KO Joe: Did I mention he has an army of Ninja Chimps?

Billy Numerous: (smirks) Well, I can make an army as well!

Billy made 12 copies of himself.

Me: And so does Naruto.

Naruto: Yep. SHADOW CLONE!

He made 20 clones.

Multiple Man: And me.

Multiple Man made 30 clones.

Skunk: We're ready for anything. We've battled Ninja Monkeys before so we can take the Ninja Chimps on.

Dragon: That's right! We're ready for them.

Lola: Yeah!

Nico: Cool!

Lynn's stomach growled.

Lynn: (blushed) I actually wasn't kidding back there, guys. Can we get something to eat befeore going after Wasabi?

Gravity Man: I don't see why not.

Me: Well can't fight on an empty stomach.

KO Joe: Leave that to me.

KO Joe made a lot of good food. Mostly ramen. Naruto ate a lot of it too.

We were hungry.

Chick P: J.D. how come Billy is so stupid?

Me: He was born without a brain. Reminds me so much about a stupid brainless pink bunny I know.

Nico: You mean Richard Watterson in Elmore?

Me: Oh yeah. And he is as dumb as people can get. Cosmo, Billy and Richard have non-existent brains.

Billy belched stupidly.

Laney: Billy you are stupid.

Ed: At least he's not like me.

Eddy: Shut up Ed.

We were having ramen.

Multiple Man: This is really good food.

Multiple Man clone 1: Hey, share some for me!

Multiple Man clone 2: What about me? I'm his clone too, you know!

Me: More than enough for everyone.

Nico: Yeah.

Lola: It sure is good.

Lana: Yeah!

Muscle Man: (To the Chooks) Hey, guys. You know who else likes kicking monkey ninja ass?

Chick P: Um… who?

Koichi: (grins) I know the answer to this question!

Muscle Man: My mom!

We laughed at Muscle Man's joke.

Me: That is funny!

Laney: Muscle Man is funny.

Luan: We sure have been on fire with jokes huh?

Me: Yeah.

We were finished eating and all that and we were ready to take the fight to Dr. Wasabi.

Me: Ahh. Now that we're full we're ready to take the fight to Wasabi.

Pinkie Pie: Yay!

Silver Samurai: Boomerang, you do the entrance this time on the door with one of your boomerangs.

Boomerang: Roger that.

Me: This is gonna be good.

Nico: By the way J.D. how do you know Richard Watterson?

Me: Well that is a very interesting story. Elmore is a very interesting town too.

Astal: What is it like?

Me: A strange place loaded with all kinds of weird stuff. But I'll tell you all about it later. Right now lets take down Wasabi.

We went to his officer building.

---

In the office of Dr. Wasabi he was contemplating his next plan. And with him were his henchmen BUBBA, KOBURA and DEADEYE!

---

Years after Kobi was banished from Chuckie's old monastery, Kobi now under a new name of Kobura arrives at Wasabi World after a long journey, intent on settling a score with his old rival; Chuckie Chan, who is now one of the Chop Socky Chooks. When Kobura discovers he decides to poison and kidnap the other two Chooks, K.O Joe and Chick P, and uses them in challenges that he has set up for Chuckie.

He then visited Chuckie's dojo in the form of a snake and poisons Chuckie. While he is woozy from the poison, Chuckie learns of 3 challenges that he must overcome. These are: Carrying a rock of hope (K.O Joe) over valley a of fear, pluck a flower of virtue (Chick P) from the icy peaks of terror, and grasp the cobra from the pit of despair (Kobura).

All three of the challenges that Kobura sets up for Chuckie are reminiscent of their past and are based off lessons that were taught to them by their master. Eventually once Chuckie has managed complete the first 2 challenges, therefore saving his friends, he encounters Kobura upon a television tower, where he fights him. Growing even more woozy from the venom inside him Chuckie begins to hallucinate and starts to see his master, while Kobura is delivering strikes.

In the end, however Kobura is beat, once both K.O Joe and Chick P manage to get a dose of the formula and K.O rangles Kobura with his grappling hook fro comb. Angry from being beat by K.O Joe and the other chooks, Kobura charges at both Joe and Chick P,and ends up falling into the deeper areas of Wasabi World. He is last seen in an alley way being approached by some common criminals, who he precedes to strike.

He precedes to hypnotize the junior chooks into believing that he is an old friend of theirs. He then kidnaps them and throws them into a pit infested with snakes and steals one of their communicators to reveal himself to the chooks and reveal himself as the anonymous tip Wasabi Had received. Eventually, he takes over Wasabi's main office, hypnotizing both Wasabi and Bubba. He has them build a big snake head on top of the office and hypnotizes the entire population of Wasabi world. He orders each of them to destroy the Chop Socky Chooks. In the end, however, he is defeated when his giant cobra head falls on him and by Chuckie using the cobra head to hypnotize everyone into forgetting about the chooks secret identities, presumably erasing Kobura's memory of their identities as well. He is seen for the final time being publicly humiliated by Wasabi's lame attraction.

Oni is a white viper who once was Chick P's best friend, but apparently had a left eye condition. She was extremely envious. She said "You win again, Chickadee. You always win!" with vain as they played "Blind Man's Bluff". Dr. Wasabi used this to his advantage and taught her to use her evil eye (which is why she donned the name Deadeye).

Once she came into town, she greeted her friend, but then left to settle business with Wasabi. As Deadeye, Oni is the one who actually made Chick P's father allow Wasabi to break it down, as she specializes in hypnosis and altering reality. Chick P uses a mirror to reflect the power to her evil eye, thus destroying its reign of terror. As Chick P is about to finish her, she says "Wait! Dee, please! I can't control it, and neither can you!" and then crawls up a pipe, leaving a sad Chick P and a dazed K.O. Joe and Chuckie to regret. Her eye might be a reference to the curse Evil Eye.

Dr. Wasabi's fat, huge, and dimwitted gorilla servant and the secondary antagonist in chop Socky Chooks. In "Big Bad Bubba", it is revealed that he is also illiterate. However by the time of Swarm welcome, he already started to learn to read comic books.

His childish nature may be some sort of weakness, But it also allows him to notice things wasabi himself wouldn't his intimidation and temper seem to be the only reason the Ninja Monkeys also follows his orders. He is quite strong, but he still can't defeat bigger threats such as the Moon is possible that he's rough side was caused by his parents, as heard in Night of the karaoke zombies that his mother used to sing to him by yelling. In Big Bad Bubba it is revealed that Bubba's brain "existed" since 1973., and given that the show takes place in 2008, this means that Bubba is 33 years old, making him the only character whose age was specific.

He also seems to have a crush on Chick P.

---

Dr. Wasabi: Those Chooks will not stop my plans this time! I will make sure it succeeds this time.

Then a Boomerang smashed through the window and floated in the middle of the floor and then…

KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The Boomerang exploded in a massive fiery explosion and a phoenix cry was heard and out of the flaming explosion came us and the Chop Socky Chooks.

Me: Dr. Wasabi, I presume?

Dr. Wasabi: The famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm. How nice of you to grace my fallacious headquarters.

Me: Are you sure you're a fish? You look more like a pickle.

Dr. Wasabi: I am NOT A PICKLE!

Ransik: (to Wasabi) Are you really a pickle in a jar?

Wasabi: I am not a pickle. I am a piranha!

May: Really? Because you look like a pickle to me.

Chuckie Chan: I too have wondered about the pickle appearance.

Chick P: Are we really having this discussion right now?

Kobura, Deadeye, and Bubba were trying to sneak away while we were talking.

K.O. Joe: And just where do you guys think you're going?!

Kobura: Don't involve us in this silly debate.

Deadeye: I personally know he's an aquatic creature.

Me: He looks more like a brainless pickle to me.

We laughed.

Nico: Now we're going to make sure he dies.

Lola: Yeah!

?: Then come and try it as I burn you fools.

A figure came out and it was none other than the progenitor of the Hundred Years War and the very monster that caused so much pain, death, suffering, destruction, carnage and mayhem that lasted for 100 years and forever scarred and divided the world and brought the Air Nomads to the Razors Edge of Extinction: FIRE LORD SOZIN!

Sozin

Fire Lord Sozin, simply known as Sozin, is the posthumous overarching antagonist of Avatar: The Last Airbender . Despite having died years before, his actions caused almost all of the events of the series and many of its sequel The Legend of Korra . He is the instigator of the Hundred-Year War and the Fire Lord before his son Azulon. He is the grandfather to Iroh and Ozai and great-grandfather to Zuko, Azula, and Lu Ten and the great-great-grandfather to Zuko's daughter, Izumi.

As a young prince, Sozin was best friends with Avatar Roku. After Sozin took up the throne and Roku became a fully realized Avatar, their friendship became strained to the breaking point as Sozin desired the Fire Nation to encompass the world, a plan to which Roku was strongly opposed. Following a hostile confrontation over this which ended in Sozin's defeat, neither spoke to the other until they were both very old. Sozin betrayed his old friend to his death and began waging war. Fire Lord Sozin was the instigator of the War and the Fire Lord before his son, Azulon. He was grandfather to Iroh and Ozai and great-grandfather to Zuko, Azula, and Lu Ten.

Using the fire-enhancing power of a comet, Sozin eradicated the Air Nomads to try to eliminate the next Avatar, but failed. He spent the last years of his life hunting the new Avatar in vain.

He was voiced by Ron Perlman, who also played Xibalba in The Book of Life, the High Mage in the 2003 Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles cartoon series, and Warhok in Kim Possible .

Youth

Roku and Sozin at their birthday celebration. In his youth, Prince Sozin and Avatar Roku were best friends and even shared the same birthday, which they celebrated together. It could be said that both of them were also firebending masters at an early age, given that Roku was the Avatar, which was then unknown, and Sozin's family had a natural affinity for their element. At their sixteenth birthday celebration, Roku was told by the Fire Sages that he was the Avatar, and the two friends were forced to separate as Roku goes to learn mastery of the three other elements. Before leaving, Sozin came by to talk and was told by Roku that the sages told him to bring nothing, as the Avatar needed no material goods. By this statement, Sozin gave him a gift: the headpiece worn by the Crown Prince of the Fire Nation, hoping that he was at least allowed to have that.

Treason

12 years later, Roku returned to the Fire Nation and Sozin had become Fire Lord. At Roku's wedding, Sozin took the position of his best man. At the wedding, Sozin commented that the Fire Nation was going through a period of great prosperity and told Roku that together, the two of them could spread it to the world by expanding the empire. Roku is greatly disturbed by this, telling Sozin that the four nations are meant to be kept separate and that he should not think of this again. Several years later, however, Roku discovered that Sozin had set up colonies in the Earth Kingdom and came to rebuke him, leading Sozin to attack him. The two engage in a battle, with Roku finally destroying most of the palace and defeating Sozin. Roku spared his life because of their past friendship but warned him never to move forward with his plans again, or it would result in his " permanent end ."

25 years later, Roku's home island was consumed in a volcanic eruption so massive that Sozin could see and feel it from 100 miles away. The Fire Lord flew in on his dragon to assist his old friend. The two used their bending to try to contain the lava flow but were hindered by poisonous gases, which eventually overwhelmed Roku, leaving him lying on the ground and begging for his old friend's help. However, Sozin suddenly realized that Roku's death would allow him to fulfill his plans, and left his old friend to die along with his dragon Fang.

Invasion

12 years after Roku had died, Sozin used the power of a comet to enhance the power of his firebender army and launched a genocidal attack on the Air Nomads in an attempt to kill Aang, the new Avatar, and halt the Avatar cycle. However, Sozin failed, as Aang had ran away from the Air Nomads some time before. Sozin spent the rest of his life searching, so that he could find and destroy the last airbender.

After the comet, he lived 20 more years and had a son, Prince Azulon. It is unknown what kind of relationship Sozin had with his son, but Azulon would come to share his thirst for world domination, and became a terrifying dictator. It is unknown who Sozin's wife was.

One of his lesser-known military accomplishments during this period was the Battle of Han Tui, which was applauded as a magnificent display of skill and military cunning.

At some point during his reign, probably after Roku's death, Sozin started the tradition of hunting dragons for glory. For a firebender to be able to kill a dragon, the original firebenders, he would be showered with glory and praise, and earn the honorary title "Dragon". This lead to the dragons' near-extinction.

However, it appeared that at the end of his life he regrets what he started by stating "As I feel my own life dimming, I can't help but think of a time when everything was so much brighter…".

He eventually died at age of 102. Rumors from citizens suspect he lived to be older due to the influence of the power of the comet. According to what was learned in Fire Nation schools, Sozin died peacefully in his sleep, a very old and successful man, though he failed with his quest to find the last airbender and stop the potential threat of the Fire nation: The return of the Avatar.

Legacy

The War that Sozin began finally ended in 100 ASC when Avatar Aang reemerged after 100 years of suspended animation and defeated Sozin's grandson, Fire Lord Ozai.

Over 70 years later after the defeat of Fire Lord Ozai, during Harmonic Convergence, the nigh-genocide against the Air Nation was undone when new airbenders started to show up and eventually the Air Nation was reborn. Ultimately, Fire Lord Sozin's harm against the balance of the world was repaired.

When Zaheer met with Korra in the spirit world, mentioned Sozin as an example of abusive tyrants who damaged the world for their selfish ambitions when defending his desire to eliminate all world leaders, as Sozin's desire for expansion caused the near extinction of an entire culture.

100 Year War

The Hundred Year War, also known as the War or the Great War, was a major global military conflict that began with the Air Nomad Genocide and lasted for a century, from 0 AG to 100 AG. The conflict raged between the Fire Nation and the other three nations: the Earth Kingdom, the Water Tribes, and the Air Nomads.

However, over the course of the escalating conflict, several smaller factions became involved in the fighting as well. The war was initiated by Fire Lord Sozin, who wished to expand the Fire Nation into a worldwide empire and spread what he saw as his nation's prosperity to the rest of the world.

Taking advantage of the absence of the Avatar and using their economical, technological, and military superiority for most of the war, the Fire Nation was able to wreak worldwide destruction and widespread loss of life in the other nations. The war began in 0 AG with the infamous genocide of the Air Nomads, whose air temples were falsely presumed to be unassailable to the Fire Nation due to the Air Nomads possessing the sole means of getting to them. Following the destruction of the Air Nomads, the Fire Nation launched a massive coordinated invasion on the western Earth Kingdom. For the next one hundred years, the Fire Nation slowly advanced into the Earth Kingdom and established several colonies on the mainland. The Fire Nation also initiated raids on the Northern and Southern Water Tribes, which devastated the South, while the North managed to remain relatively untouched for almost a century. By 99 AG, the Fire Nation had effectively eradicated the Air Nomads, virtually annihilated the Southern Water Tribe, and controlled most of the Earth Kingdom, to the point of near victory. The last strongholds able to defend themselves were the Northern Water Tribe and the Earth Kingdom cities of Omashu and Ba Sing Se.

Upon the Avatar's return in 99 AG, the Fire Nation undertook a far more aggressive plan of attack, taking bigger risks to deliver devastating blows to their opposition and render any possible intervention from Avatar Aang too late. This strategy resulted in colossal setbacks for the Fire Nation when the Avatar became involved. Notably, the Fire Nation launched a massive invasion of the North Pole, after they realized that Aang was taking refuge there, and suffered a crushing defeat at the last second when the Ocean Spirit and Avatar merged to intervene. Similarly, an effort to breach the walls of Ba Sing Se utilizing a giant drill was also thwarted. Despite these setbacks, several victories were also won including the surrender of Omashu and the infiltration and Fall of Ba Sing Se, leaving the Northern Water Tribe as the last remaining stronghold to Fire Nation hegemony. In an effort to turn the tide of the War, an army assembled from the remnants of the Southern Water Tribe and members of the Foggy Swamp Tribe and Earth Kingdom attempted an invasion of the Fire Nation Capital on the Day of Black Sun in mid 100 AG, when firebenders were powerless and as such incapable of defending against a siege. The invasion ultimately failed, with nearly all members of the invasion force captured by the Fire Nation.

Nevertheless, the Hundred Year War ended roughly a year following the reappearance of the Avatar due to a combination of efforts of the remaining two nations, the Avatar's group's destruction of the air fleet meant to use Sozin's Comet to deliver the killing blow to the Earth Kingdom, Aang's victory over Phoenix King Ozai, and the newly crowned Fire Lord Zuko's intention to restore peace and harmony among the four nations.

However, the Hundred Year War had changed the world forever; one whole nation and its unique bending art had been virtually wiped out, and it would only slightly recover in the following decades. The Fire Nation had become an ethnocentric and autocratic dictatorship, and much effort had to be applied to restore a tolerant attitude among its people as well as its image among the other nations, which had come to hate the country after a century of conflict that it initiated. On the contrary, great technological and industrial advancements had been conducted by both the Fire Nation and Earth Kingdom during the war. The different nations had also blended to create new and diverse cultures in the older Fire Nation colonies, which eventually led to the foundation of the United Republic of Nations, a new sovereign state comprised of a multitude of citizens from all nations.

Rise of the Fire Nation

Following its unification, the Fire Nation gradually became powerful and militaristic, placing great importance on cohesion, strength, and effectiveness. It developed an extremely capable military, including the most powerful navy in the world, and fought many wars against the other nations. Though the Fire Nation had halted its expansionist warfare by the 4th century BG, the country continued to develop contingency plans for all kinds of conflicts, including invasions of the Earth Kingdom and the Water Tribe. At the same time, the Fire Nation's ability to truly threaten the other nations was hampered by violent conflicts within the Fire Nation Royal Family and among the country's powerful noble clans. From 295 BG, however, Fire Lord Zoryu and his successors gradually disempowered the clans and turned the Fire Nation into a highly effective autocracy.

By the 1st century BG, an industrial revolution in the Fire Nation saw its economic, military, and living standards greatly outpace those of the other nations. In contrast, the Earth Kingdom had been greatly weakened by unrest and corruption, and though the Northern Water Tribe remained strong, the Southern Water Tribe had slipped into relative poverty and political irrelevance.

Sozin's plan

Thirty-seven years prior to the beginning of the Hundred Year War, Fire Lord Sozin began to feel that because his nation was so fortunate in so many ways, that he should "share" this prosperity with the rest of the world. He spoke about his plan to his best friend, Avatar Roku, and tried to convince him to join him on his quest to expand "the most successful empire in history". Roku vehemently refused to help him and reminded his long-time friend that the four nations were meant to be just what they were: four.

Despite Roku's warnings, Sozin prepared for the unification of the nations through war. He greatly expanded the Fire Nation's already powerful army and navy, and occupied some Earth Kingdom territories including the village of Yu Dao. He sent Fire Nation families to settle in these areas, forming the Fire Nation's first colonies.

Roku's intervention

Years later, however, Roku discovered Sozin's colonies and went to rebuke him, leading Sozin to attack him. The Avatar subdued the Fire Lord, utterly destroyed his palace and warned him that if he ever acted out of place and attacked the other nations again, he would put an end to him permanently. Regardless, the first Fire Nation colonists were allowed to remain in the Earth Kingdom.

Twenty-five years later, Roku's home island was consumed in a volcanic eruption so massive that Sozin could see and feel it from a hundred miles away, and he flew in on his dragon to assist his old friend. The two used their bending to try to contain the lava flow, but they were hindered by poisonous gases that eventually overwhelmed Roku, leaving him lying on the ground and begging for his old friend's help. Sozin suddenly realized, however, that Roku's death would allow him to fulfill his plans, and he left the Avatar to die. The new Avatar was born into the Air Nomads as Aang. In the next years, Sozin continued to covertly expand his armies and navy, preparing for global war.

Twelve years after Roku had died, Sozin used the return of a comet, a celestial event that grants firebenders near-unlimited power, to deliver a devastating first blow to the other nations and start the war, setting the stage for the Air Nomad Genocide.

Air Nomad Genocide

Fire Lord Sozin decided to launch his attack upon the arrival of Sozin's Comet. With the power of the Comet, Sozin's firebender armies launched a genocide on the pacifistic Air Nomads in an attempt to capture the new Avatar, Aang, and to break the Avatar Cycle. This would overcome one of the Fire Nation's biggest obstacles to victory. However, Aang had run away before the attack, thus escaping the carnage. Almost all other Air Nomads were believed to have been killed in the attack, and the remainder ruthlessly hunted and killed as the Hundred Year War progressed, by the end leaving Aang the only known airbender left alive. Sozin would continue searching for Aang up until his death. The Air Nomad Genocide involved massive firebending attacks on the four temples. Thousands of Air Nomads were slain along with their flying bison and lemurs.

Spread

While striking against the Air Nomads, Fire Lord Sozin used the comet's power to also attack the Earth Kingdom and the Water Tribes. While the Fire Nation initially maintained no premanent presence at the North or South Pole, the Fire Army's first ground assaults into the western Earth Kingdom aimed at conquest. Sozin's main objective was to overcome the next Avatar and secure a beachhead on the western coast of the continent and use it as staging grounds to advance further throughout the Earth Kingdom and to supply his forces. Other objectives were to cripple and destroy key Earth Kingdom trading centers to weaken the large Earth Kingdom economy. After several battles, including decisive Fire Nation victories in the Battle of Han Tui, the invasion of Taku, and the Battle of Garsai the Fire Nation was able to gain a strong foothold in the Earth Kingdom.

The Fire Nation's war effort was focused at the Western theater through the use of a large portion of the Fire Navy, but Sozin expanded northward and eventually was able to send forces to conduct an attempted invasion of the Northern Water Tribe fifteen years after the Hundred Year War began, which ended in failure due to the North Pole's treacherous landscape. The battle saw ground forces from both the Water Tribe and the Fire Nation confront each other directly.

Middle stages (20 - 95 AG)

Fire Lord Azulon ascended the throne after his father's death and began to advance south to the Southern Water Tribe and eastward toward the walls of Ba Sing Se. Before 40 AG, the Fire Navy began to repeatedly raid the Southern Water Tribe to destroy its military capabilities and wipe out its waterbending population. While the first attacks were extensive operations, later raids were smaller, as the South's ability to defend itself dwindled.

Waterbenders across the South Pole fought the firebenders, and the Fire Nation adopted a policy of eradicating waterbending from the South Pole entirely, taking all waterbenders prisoner, leaving the nonbenders to fend for themselves. Among these prisoners was Hama, who notably developed a deep hatred for her captors but eventually escaped from captivity while waging her own personal war on them in secrecy. The Southern Water Tribe remained weak and the victim of constant raids, teetering on the edge of extinction. Eventually, the Fire Nation created the Southern Raiders, a brutal raiding force that pillaged and ravaged the coastlines of the South Sea, further weakening the Southern Water Tribe and devastating at that time spared southern Earth Kingdom.

Soon, the Earth Kingdom came under many large-scale attacks, with the fall of the Hu Xin Provinces furthering the Fire Nation's advances into the Kingdom and putting them in control of the entire northwestern third of the continent. Thousands perished in massive violent battles during these campaigns.

During the war's ninety-fourth year, the Southern Water Tribe was attacked in yet another minor raid aimed at eliminating any remaining waterbenders. The attackers, the infamous Southern Raiders, were informed that one last waterbender, who happened to be Katara, was left in the Southern Water Tribe, and were given orders to kill her. However, Katara remained undiscovered because, during this raid, her mother Kya turned herself in as the last waterbender in an attempt to protect Katara. Kya was in turn killed, but her heroic act meant that the Fire Nation would never discover the true identity of the last waterbender in the South Pole. Katara would later rediscover the Avatar and become a major contributor to the eventual capitulation of the Fire Nation as an indirect result of her mother's actions.

In the Earth Kingdom theater, the Fire Nation enjoyed even more success, conquering every major Earth Kingdom city and stronghold until only Omashu (who hindered any major overland progress in the east) and Ba Sing Se were left. The Fire Army also pushed down further south, conquering most of the southwestern coastlines. General Shu and his troops even advanced into the vicinity of the Si Wong Desert, fighting Earth Kingdom forces there. Finally, the Fire Army reached the walls of Ba Sing Se itself, under the command of General Iroh, famed as "The Dragon of the West", and the six hundred-day-Siege of Ba Sing Se began. In its final stages, the Fire Nation managed to break through the Outer Wall, but their advance ended when the general's son, Lu Ten, was killed, resulting in him ordering a full retreat. However, the order was also motivated by the fact his army was fatigued and had been embroiled in continuous fighting for so long.

Hope fades

In the last years of the war, the ferocity of the Hundred Year War eased slightly with the Fire Nation nearing victory. Ozai was crowned Fire Lord upon Azulon's death[39] and Iroh's forces had retreated from the area of Ba Sing Se, although they remained in control of the Western Lake, where they began construction of a drill to help them penetrate Ba Sing Se's Outer Wall. The Northern Mountains were left alone, allowing refugees to move in. Some units of the Earth Kingdom Army outright defected, and began working with the Fire Nation military to secure some areas.

However, the conquered western shore of the Earth Kingdom was put under tighter control, where General Fong's fortress was the only Earth Kingdom military base left, hidden in a coastal mountain range. Several fortified bases were set up there. Prince Zuko began his search for the Avatar upon his banishment three years before, hoping to reclaim his throne. Zhao, an eager and ambitious naval officer, began plotting the conquest of the Northern Water Tribe. Any attempt at rebellion was dealt with harshly, and the Fire Nation began arresting any earthbenders in their territory, forcing them into slave labor on offshore factories and shipyards. The Fire Nation also expanded in the southern Earth Kingdom, taking control of several rivers which brought them into conflict with local pirate groups like that of Jiang.

To add to the Earth Kingdom's troubles, a large number of their villages and cities were now under Fire Nation control, with their native citizens forced to obey the demands of the Fire Lord if they were to avoid persecution. Only non-essential territories were left alone. Even though major cities like Ba Sing Se and Omashu remained free at the time, the Fire Nation clearly controlled the majority of the continent, free to prowl almost anywhere in the north and west unopposed.

Last Fire Nation offensives

The fortunes of the Earth Kingdom and the Water Tribes made a turn for the better with the sudden return of the Avatar and last airbender, Aang, who was rediscovered by Sokka and Katara. This immediately attracted the attention of both Zuko and Zhao, who chased him across the world. Rumours of the Avatar's return quickly spread across the world, increasing the hope of those who still resisted the Fire Nation. As the Avatar traveled north to the North Pole in an attempt to learn waterbending, Zhao was promoted to Admiral. During this time, Aang and his friends encountered Jeong

Jeong, a Fire Nation Navy deserter and member of the Order of the White Lotus, who temporarily taught him firebending before Zhao and his forces found and attacked them. Jeong Jeong subsequently disappeared and later took part in the Liberation of Ba Sing Se. A small Fire Nation force attacked the Northern Mountains, only to be beaten back in what culminated as the battle for the Northern Air Temple. However, the defeated force did acquire an important new invention for the Fire Nation - the hot air balloon.

Upon discovering that the Avatar had succeeded in reaching the North Pole, the newly promoted Admiral Zhao ordered his massive fleet to advance on the North Pole. However, the Siege of the North was unsuccessful due to the Avatar's intervention, and the fleet was nearly entirely destroyed. Zhao was subsequently imprisoned in the Spirit World by La, the Ocean Spirit, after an unsuccessful attempt to kill the Moon Spirit in a bid to neutralize the waterbenders' power. With the Fire Nation's main ambition in the north out of the picture and their control of the seas weakened, the Fire Nation refrained from further attacks on the Northern Water Tribe. However, as the Northern Water Tribe did not participate in any major engagements against the Fire Nation for the rest of the war, and the Earth Kingdom Navy was already all but obliterated, the loss of Zhao's fleet meant a bearable defeat. Ozai had his armies continue the slow and steady advances on all the Earth Kingdom fronts, subsequently sending his daughter, Princess Azula, to search for and capture the traitorous Iroh and Zuko.

Soon after the defeat at the North Pole, the Fire Nation won a great victory by conquering the city of Omashu, capturing King Bumi in the process, leaving Ba Sing Se the last major Earth Kingdom city in the north unconquered. Though most of the city's population managed to flee under the ruse of a plague, the city itself remained under the control of a Fire Nation governor and was renamed New Ozai by Princess Azula.

The Fire Nation's next major battle would be at the walls of Ba Sing Se once more. The drill, a powerful and gigantic mechanized siege weapon, attacked the Outer Wall. However, the Avatar had just arrived. Though the machine succeeded in drilling through the Wall, it was destroyed by the Avatar, making the attack a failure and filling the newly drilled hole with wreckage.

The Fall of the Earth Kingdom

Princess Azula, Mai, and Ty Lee, a trio of the Fire Nation Academy's best, infiltrated the capital of Ba Sing Se. Clad in Kyoshi Warriors uniforms, stolen from the warriors after having defeated them in an earlier engagement, Azula infiltrated the court of the Earth King and undermined the Dai Li. She eventually convinced Long Feng to launch a coup d'état against the Earth King. In the end, she double-crossed him and assumed control over the capital. She also succeeded in capturing her uncle and convincing Zuko to rejoin the Fire Nation, clouding his judgment by promising him his father's love. With Ba Sing Se under their control, the Fire Nation was even closer to victory, with only the tattered Water Tribes and parts of the Earth Kingdom left opposing them. Azula also learned that Ba Sing Se had been planning a major invasion of the Fire Nation home islands on the day of a solar eclipse in late summer, which would briefly leave all firebenders powerless. With the Western Navy still recovering from the Siege of the North, the invasion might have been successful had the Dai Li not arrested the Council of Five. Still, with the knowledge that their homeland would still be vulnerable, the Fire Nation made plans to use this to their advantage.

Additionally, Avatar Aang was gravely injured in a failed attempt to defeat Azula, who struck him down with a powerful lightning blast. Although Katara was able to revive him, Aang remained in a coma in the following weeks, and he was immediately presumed dead by the entire world. When word of Aang's defeat spread across the globe, the Earth Kingdom and Water Tribes lost hope and the Fire Nation came close to declaring victory in its imperialist war. Aang and his friends traveled into the Fire Nation incognito until the time to strike came again.

Last counteroffensive, resistance, and escalation

Several weeks later, Ozai called a war meeting with his generals. One of them, Shinu, said that while Ba Sing Se had been conquered, a number of Earth Kingdom rebellions arose and that the Earth Kingdom military was still controlling vast swaths of territory, including the southern Earth Kingdom and scattered areas in the north, which kept the Fire Nation from claiming ultimate victory in the Hundred Year War. When Zuko said that the Earth Kingdom could endure anything as long as they had hope, Azula said they should "take their precious hope, and the rest of their land, and burn it all to the ground." Ozai, using this idea, planned to use the power of the returning Sozin's Comet to completely destroy the Earth Kingdom.

Though the Fire Nation controlled great swathes of territory they were not unopposed. A small multinational invasion force led by Chief Hakoda of the Southern Water Tribe and the Avatar assaulted the Fire Nation Capital on the Day of Black Sun and they were nearly successful, but their supposed success was actually a carefully planned trap by the Fire Nation. Though they were repelled by the new Fire Nation air force of airships and most of the resistance leaders were captured, they proved that the Fire Nation could continue to be resisted as long as hope was maintained.

However, the Day of Black Sun was not a total failure for those resisting the Fire Nation. During the Eclipse, the captured King Bumi saw the opportunity he had been waiting for. He broke out of his prison and, with the firebenders unable to firebend, retook the city of Omashu single-handedly. Iroh also broke out of his cell and, according to a guard, fought as a "one-man army."

Prince Zuko realized the full extent of the Fire Nation's crimes and joined the Avatar, agreeing to teach Aang firebending before the anticipated battle with the Fire Lord. This development only increased the threat the Avatar posed toward the Fire Nation. Coinciding with this, Princess Azula was betrayed by her allies, Mai and Ty Lee, after a failed sabotaging of an escape from the Boiling Rock, badly hurting both her psyche and her leadership ability.

Fire Lord Ozai proclaimed himself Phoenix King prior to the arrival of Sozin's Comet and appointed Azula to be his successor as Fire Lord. Ozai intended to finish the Hundred Year War by using the comet's immense power to vanquish his enemies, so the Avatar's group, one of the Fire Nation's greatest threats, acted quickly to prevent this catastrophe.

Fall of leaders

When Sozin's Comet made its return to the world, Ozai launched his massive attack on the Earth Kingdom with his armada of airships. When he arrived at the Wulong Forest, which he quickly proceeded to incinerate, Avatar Aang confronted him. Despite Aang's pleas to end the Hundred Year War peacefully, Ozai attacked him. At first, Ozai and Aang were evenly matched, but Aang refused to go on the offensive due to his belief that all life was sacred. Ozai gained the upper hand, but accidentally smashed Aang into a rock that hit the scar on his back where Azula had struck him with lightning at Ba Sing Se. This released the pent up energy there and opened his seventh chakra, allowing Aang to enter the Avatar State. Using the Avatar State's power, Aang went on the offensive. Despite his enhanced firebending, Ozai was quickly overwhelmed and forced to retreat. Aang pursued him and eventually pinned him down. But just as he was about to deliver the finishing blow, Aang left the Avatar State. Instead of killing Ozai, Aang used energybending to strip him of his firebending.

Endgame

While Aang and Ozai fought, three members of the Avatar's group, Sokka, Toph and Suki, hijacked one of the airships in Ozai's armada. Rammed the airship into the ones next to them, they successfully destroyed the fleet. The Order of the White Lotus, under Iroh's leadership, successfully retook Ba Sing Se, a colossal defeat for the Fire Nation.

Azula, after losing the alliance of Mai and Ty Lee, was weakened by a state of mental instability. This caused her to lose all trust in everyone, developing severe paranoia and coming to the belief that everyone was against her. She banished all those loyal to her, and in effect, had no allies or external protection. This rendered her unable to effectively fight Zuko and Katara, resulting in Zuko's victory in their Agni-Kai and taking her place as Fire Lord. She suffered a mental breakdown shortly after the conclusion of their fight, making her incapable of continuing to fight in the Hundred Year War.

With the loss of Omashu and Ba Sing Se, an entire fleet of airships destroyed, and the fall of their leaders, the Fire Nation Armies found themselves unable to continue the war effort, leaving the Water

Tribe and the Earth Kingdom victorious.

Aftermath

Following the Fire Nation's defeat, all war prisoners were released and Zuko was crowned Fire Lord, officially declaring the war to be over. At his coronation, he promised before a large audience of the world's citizens that he would dedicate his rule to rebuilding the war-torn world with the help of Avatar Aang.

After being defeated by Aang, Ozai was arrested and put in prison, while Azula was institutionalized in a mental health facility on an isolated island near the Fire Nation capital.

However, after a century of fighting, all four nations were left exhausted from the conflict. Over the course of the war, the Fire Nation had caused unprecedented worldwide devastation and loss of life, annihilating an entire nation save for one person, and oppressing people on a large scale. While the overall infrastructure of the Earth Kingdom and Southern Water Tribe suffered gravely, the Northern Water Tribe came out relatively unscathed, albeit more isolated than before, and the Fire Nation mostly suffered a cultural loss: dancing was kept downtrodden, resulting in the loss of several ancient dance moves, sections of their history prior to the war were sealed off and eventually forgotten, and firebending became distorted into being fueled by hatred and rage rather than as a veneration of life and energy, a process that was only sped up when the dragons, the original firebenders, were pushed to the brink of extinction due to Sozin starting the tradition of hunting them for glory. The nation's focus also turned more to warfare, which placed its spirituality in the background, causing the Fire Sages to fall from prominence.

With the war's conclusion, however, all nations could begin the long process of rebuilding, both physically as well as spiritually. The Harmony Restoration Movement was created as a step toward peace in removing the Fire Nation colonies from the Earth Kingdom. However, after seeing all the hard work his people had done in the colonies, Fire Lord Zuko removed his support from the movement. This decision started a confrontation that threatened to throw the world back into war, causing Avatar Aang to intervene. After a brief skirmish, an agreement was reached, which eventually led to the Fire Nation colonies being transformed into the United Republic of Nations.

Zuko: Fire Lord Sozin!

Me: Fire Lord Sozin!

Nico: Oh no!

Qin: So He's Fire Lord Sozin?

Me: Yeah. He's the monster that started the entirety of the 100 Year War and resulted in the Genocide of the Air Nomads and tore the entire planet apart in a terrible war that lasted for 138 years. All because he wanted the Fire Nation to be ALL of the world.

Nico: He is worse than a certain monster we know from Germany.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja.

Me: Now I have a chance to bring down this monster for good and make sure his reign of terror gets forgotten forever.

I walked up to Sozin.

Me: You will pay for your crimes Sozin.

Sozin: (to Kobura, Deadeye, and Bubba) Take care of these fools, will you?

Bubba: (to us) Sorry. Bubba have to get rid of you all now.

Deadeye: Any last words?

Nico: (calmly) No. We're fine for now.

Kobura: We're about to kill you all. There isn't going to be a later for any of you.

Deadeye: If there's anything you all want to say, now is the time!

Nico: No. I think we're good.

Kobura: Well, you'll probably have lots to say as we use our powers to bend you to our will!

Kobura and Deadeye tried using their powers on Nico's mind.

Masque: (chuckles) Shouldn't have done that.

Salem: Leave him alone you clods!

Salem controlled Nico and smashed their brains out!

Me: You are gonna pay for your crimes Sozin. Just like when I destroyed your precious comet.

Sozin: WHAT!? You destroyed my comet!?

Me: And now I'm going to do the same to you. You annihilated the 99% Air Nomads in an attempt to destroy the Avatar Cycle and I will never forgive you for that. I will make you suffer for your crimes you fucking son of a fucking bitch!

Sozin: (GROWLS)

He fired a blast of fire at me and I absorbed his fire.

But then Trap Jaw, P'andor, Shendu, Zexion, Hydro Man, Skulker, Dr. Light, and Beautiful Gorgeous then appeared.

Nico: Trap Jaw, P'andor, Shendu, Zexion, Hydro Man, Skulker, Dr. Light, and Beautiful Gorgeous

Beautiful Gorgeous: Sorry, we're late. I just couldn't resist shopping in Wasabi World.

Hydro Man: (sees Wasabi) So, that's Dr. Wasabi, huh? I honestly think he's a piranha.

Skulker: Why am I not surprised to see him and Sozin teaming up?

P'andor: (to Kobura, Deadeye, and Bubba) (Russian Accent) After some of us defeat you guys, you have plenty of time to decide if you want to ditch the pickle/piranha.

Me: I prefer pickle and I am gonna get justice for all of Sozin's crimes. I'm going to make sure his reign of terror will be completely forgotten.

Zuko: After everything he did he is never gonna be welcome in my family history.

Me: That's right.

Azula: He is a monster!

Lola: Big time!

Me: And he also caused The Great 100 Years War. He wanted all of the world to be an entire Fire Nation World and the other nations wouldn't let that happen. Because of him, countless people died, lands were torn apart, thousands of homes were destroyed and prisoners were taken and all that, and the worst thing he did most of all was Annihilated the entirety of the Air Nomads except for Avatar Aang.

Sozin: What!? I missed one!?

Me: That's right and he is the Avatar. He brought down Ozai and ended the war and we are restoring the Air Nomads and all that! You will pay for your crimes ∞-Fold!

?: He is a monster!

3 Figures came out and it was THE MUT-ORGS: ROFANG, TAKACH and KIRED from episodes 24 and 25 of Wild Force!

---

The Mutant-Orgs (classified Mut-Orgs ) Rofang, Takach, and Kired were hybrids of Mutants and Orgs. These characters were Power Rangers -exclusive monsters, created to be the primarily antagonists for the two-part special Team Up episode "Reinforcements from the Future".

During the 31st century, before Ransik organized his crime syndicate, the shunned mutant was on the run from Time Force authorities, when he stumbled upon the ruins of an Org temple where the Org Rofang (possibly the leader) and his fellow Orgs, Takach and Kired had been imprisoned for over 4000 years. The Orgs promised him great power if he would release them. Ransik, fueled by his hatred for humanity, gladly accepted their offer and freed them from their imprisonment. When their spirits were freed, the Orgs created new bodies for themselves by adopting Ransik's mutant DNA and gained invulnerability along with their own Org powers. Although their speech ended up backwards as a side effect, they became far stronger than ever before. As thanks for freeing them, these new Mut-Orgs transformed Ransik's entire body into "a living weapon"; his bones could become swords and he could project energy, both of which he would use in future battles against the Time Force organization. The Mut-Orgs first appear when they teleport into an underground carpark and smashed up some cars. Jindrax and Toxica found them using Toxica's horn and tried to recruit them but were overpowered and the Orgs left. They showed up the next day, attacking citizens in Turtle Cove so the Silver Guardians arrived but the monsters proved to be immune to their laser blasters and wiped the floor with them before departing. The Mut-Orgs prove themselves to be nearly unbeatable in the first few battles against Wesley Collins, Eric Myers, and the Wild Force Rangers.

After Ransik had been freed from prison in the year 3000, he came back with the Time Force Rangers to assist in destroying these monsters as a way to make amends for his evil deeds. The Mut-Orgs eventually found the Master Org of the present-day and pledged their allegiance to him. The Time Force and Wild Force Rangers had discovered that Master Org and the Mut-Orgs planned to rewrite history by overtaking a nearby power plant and unleashing a wave of nuclear pollution on Earth. The teams eventually formed an alliance with Ransik, who planned to negate and destroy the Mut-Orgs' Mutant halves, eventually doing so by interfering with the trio's energy after they had threatened his daughter, Nadira, causing one of their blasts to backfire and destroy their mutant halves. Unknown to everyone, this also rendered Ransik completely human.

With their mutant halves destroyed, the Mut-Orgs try to escape, but they were caught by the Rangers and after a long and heated battle, were ultimately defeated by a combo attack from the Time Force Rangers' Chrono Blasters, the Wild Force Rangers' Crystal Sabers, Merrick's Lunar Cue and the Battlizers summoned by Wes, Eric, and Cole, thus ending their reign of terror for good.

Ransik: The Mut-Orgs!

Me: I remember these guys! They were from the 31st Century and they were resurrected by you Ransik to help you destroy Humanity and the Time Force Rangers. They planned to rewrite history with Master Org by overtaking a Nuclear Power Plant and destory the world with Nuclear Pollution.

Nico: But that team up with the Time Force and Wild Force Rangers was epic!

Taylor Earhart: And it's how me and Eric started a relationship.

Me: Yep.

Rofang: Um… can you Rangers understand us?

Trip: Yes, we can understand you guys fine this time. Thank you.

Me: That is so cool. I remember in the episode that you spoke in a language that was not understandable.

Kired: That's right.

Nico: This is gonna be cool just like on TV.

Me: Yep.

Varie: And it's gonna be epic.

Aylene C.: Yeah!

Me: (To Bubba, Deadeye and Kobura) But you guys think this will work? You are sadly mistaken.

Deadeye: Okay. If you guys think you can make everything work perfectly, how about doing this? Convince us!

Po: (smugly) Okay. Shouldn't be too hard.

There was a moment of silence.

Deadeye: Okay. We're convinced.

Kobura: We will abandon Dr. Wasabi.

Bubba: Yeah.

Brittney: And here's what he's gonna do.

She showed the future and showed how Dr. Wasabi will kill them and is using them as pawns. And how they will burn in the fires of Hell.

They gasped in shock.

Bubba: Okay okay okay! We'll leave Dr. Wasabi. After a good fight.

Me: Fair enough. Lets do it!

We powered up and went at them and I snapped my fingers and we were on the volcano planet NYIRAGONGO!

* * *

Planet Nyiragongo is a volcano planet located in the Unknown Zone. It is named after Nyiragongo Volcano in the Democratic Republic of the Congo, formerly Zaire. Eli: Yeah! That is telling them!

Troy: Rangers that's a Super Mega Win.

Battle 10: Valley Defenders (Skunk Fu), Dragon, Eion, Zuko and Azula VS Ninja Chimps

Skunk: Lets get them!

Dragon fired a wave of fire and Eion, Zuko and Azula blasted the Chimps all over with powerful fire blasts and lightning blasts.

The Valley Defenders fired energy and elemental blasts and destroyed the Ninja Chimps all over and more.

The Chimps then shocked them by doing Firebending moves.

Zuko: They can firebend!?

They dodged the blasts and fired more energy blasts and blew the Ninja Chimps all apart.

Azula: Take that!

Dragon: That's right!

---

Battle 11: Po, Furious 5 and Shifu VS Bubba, Deadeye and Kobura

---

Bubba, Deadeye and Kobura were next.

Po: This is gonna be awesome!

Tigress: Always up for a challenge.

Shifu: Me too.

They punched and pulverized Bubba, Deadeye and Kobura all over the place with incredible fury and more and smashed them down with all kinds of Kung Fu techniques and more.

---

Battle 12: Me VS Sozin & Number 194: Meteor-End-Phoenix

---

Now it was time for me taking on Sozin.

Me: You will pay for everything you've done in full times infinity Sozin.

Sozin: We will see about that.

Me: Words cannot begin to describe the level of pain and suffering you caused that tore the entire planet apart and lead to the destruction of so many lives. I will avenge all of the lives you killed and senselessly slaughtered. You will never harm another soul again. I will make sure you don't!

Sozin: We'll see.

I then went Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix-Harmony 500,000,000.

Me: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice) Fire Lord Sozin, you and your family have destroyed so many lives, annihilated the entirety of the Air Nomads, tortured and abused so many people and ruined the lands of all the nations of the 4 elements and for everything you have done you will pay THE ULTIMATE PRICE!

Sozin has incurred the ultimate fury of my wrath and I went at him and kicked him in the face and sent him flying and he went and jumped onto a rock and fired a massive wave of fire at me and I fired a massive blast of fire and the blasts collided and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

I teleported and kicked him in the back of the head and fired waves of water at him and smashed him down and drenched him and he fired a massive blast of enhanced fire at me and I blocked it with a wall of rock and fired waves of wind and blew him around in a tornado and fired waves of lightning at him and electrocuted him all over with incredible voltage. Sozin flew at me and I fired blasts of darkness and he fired waves of fire at me and the blasts collided and exploded with incredible power and I bursted out of the explosion and kicked him in the face and he swung a blast of fire and I blocked the punch away and sent a wave of fire into the sky and kicked him the stomach and formed crystal shards and kicked him away and fired the crystal shards and slashed him all over and then I fired globs of lava and burned him all over in fiery explosions and then I threw solar fire blasts and molten steel blasts and burned him more.

Me: How does it feel you fucker!? This is the exact same pain

you caused to so many people! Countless lives were destroyed all because of your own selfish desires and tyrannical oppression!

I fired waves of poison gas and he was choking.

Me: This is the poison gas you killed Roku with! You poisoned him with it and left him there for dead!

Sozin: NO!

He fired a massive wave of fire and then I teleported and took my sword and ignited the blade with intense fire and stabbed him in the front with it and he screamed in excruciating pain as he was being burned alive from the inside!

Me: Look into my eyes and FEEL THE PAIN OF ALL THE SOULS YOU'VE SNUFFED OUT ∞-FOLD!

I had him look into my eyes and he screamed as the sins he did were all used against him and he saw all the crimes he committed. He did it all! Mass murder, War crimes, Crimes against humanity, War incitement, Genocide, Terrorism, Slavery, Hate crimes, Abuse, Propaganda and Arson and so much more! He had the evil deeds of everything he did mercilessly destroy him all over! When it was done, he bursted into an intense flame and was incinerated in a massive pile of ashes. Not only was he dead but he was given the ultimate fate worse than death: because of all the pain and suffering he caused over the years as Fire Lord and all the crimes he committed, he was cursed to remain in Limbo for all eternity and never move on to the Afterlife or be with any of his family or ancestors ever again. I gave him the ultimate fate worse than death: What would've happened to Voldemort had he not been banished to the Warp. Fire Lord Sozin will never be able to go to Hell or Heaven or even Purgatory as his mutilated soul will be trapped in Limbo for eternity, as the soul is meant to stay whole and intact. Because of all the crimes he has committed and the destruction done to his soul caused to me, he will be unable to move on or return to the land of the living as a ghost.

I looked at his ashes and saw a Number Card.

I picked it up and it was NUMBER 194: METEOR-END-PHOENIX!

Me: Number 194: Meteor-End-Phoenix. Interesting. This would be my kind of Number. Now to take down Dr. Wasabi.

---

We regrouped and we were facing Dr. Wasabi.

Me: Lets take him down!

Lola: Gladly!

Me: In the name of Team Loud Phoenix Storm you are hereby sentenced to death!

We went at Dr. Wasabi.

Edzilla: (throws a punch at Wasabi) ED SMASH PICKLE!

Wasabi: (avoids the punch) I am a piranha!

Edzilla punched him again and this time it hit.

Nico: Dr. Wasabi you have failed this world!

Nico punched him all over the place with incredible fury.

Mandy then went Chickenball Z Mode and her hair turned into fire and smashed Dr. Wasabi all over with incredible fury.

Eli: Go back to the Amazon Rainforest you freak!

Cyrenox and Drakness blasted Dr. Wasabi wall over the place.

Lincoln: LIGHTNING STYLE: THUNDER HADOUKEN BARRAGE!

Jessica: STING STYLE: STINGING KIKOKEN BARRAGE!

R. Mika: STRENGTH STYLE: WINDY SPINNING PILE DRIVER!

Menat: SPIRIT STYLE: SPIRIT SOUL SPARK BARRAGE!

Sunset Shimmer: FIRE STYLE: BLAZING SHORYUKEN!

Mai: FIRE STYLE: BURNER FIREBALL!

Gluko: WIND STYLE: JETSTREAM HURRICANE KICK!

Batch: SPEED STYLE: CANNON SPIKE!

Hilda: (British Accent) FIRE STYLE: BURNER LARIAT!

Frosta: ICE STYLE: CHILLY LARIAT!

Perfuma: WIND STYLE: SONIC BOOM!

Entrapta: TECH STYLE: 1000 HAND SLAPS!

Toph: EARTH STYLE: QUAKING TACKLE!

They fired waves of elements and energy and they were the signature techniques of the Street Fighter characters and smashed Dr. Wasabi all over.

Earthworm Jim: EAT DIRT PICKLE OF MAYHEM! (BLASTS DR. WASABI ALL OVER) HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!

Ed Cowart: EAT DIRT PIRANHA FREAK! (BLASTS DR. WASABI ALL OVER!) HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!

Crumplezone, Shockwave, Wideload and Max used the Earth and Velocitron Cyber Planet Keys and they turned Crumplezone's boosters into shoulder cannons, enhanced Shockwave's Ray Gun, Wideload's strength and Max's powers 100-fold.

Cybertron Crumplezone and Shockwave: CRUMPLE GAMMA BLAST!

Wideload and Max (Pokemon): SLAMMING EARTH SMASH!

Crumplezone and Shockwave fired a massive wave of energy and Wideload and Max threw a huge boulder.

Chop Socky Chooks, Po, Furious 5, Shifu, Lynn, Lincoln, Mandy (Chickenball Z Mode), Samurai Jack, Ashi, Samurai Power Rangers, Anna K., Nico and Lola: MARTIAL ARTS ULTIMATE HADOUKEN BLAST!

They fired a massive blast of Hadouken Energy.

Lincoln, Jessica, R. Mika, Menat, Sunset Shimmer, Mai, Glugo, Batch, Hilda, Frosta, Perfuma, Entrapta and Toph: FINAL SMASH: MEGA HADOUKEN BARRAGE!

They fired massive barrage of elemental hadoukens and the blasts all hit Dr. Wasabi and obliterated him in an instant! He was dead and banished to the Warp.

We powered down.

Trap Jaw: Looks like that's end of Dr. Wasabi.

Dr. Light: And so, Wasabi World is crime free.

Shendu: You said it.

Zexion: (to Kobura) When we get back to our estate, we'll have Lisa and Stewie do something about your… condition.

Kobura: Good idea.

Me: And we've also seen the last of Sozin the Malevolent.

Zuko: And we will never see him again.

Azula: Yep.

Me: Good riddance.

KO Joe: (To the viewers) Now THIS Was an awesome adventure. We've seen the last of Wasabi and we still have more enemies out there.

Me: We sure do.

We went back home.

THE END

---

Another awesome chapter done.

Chop Socky Chooks was a great show and it was awesome and funny. It aired from March 16th, - September 4th, 2008 and it was awesome. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Drako1234658 and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is a chapter where we go and face the evil No-Face of Generator Rex and we're going to face him in the Bug Dome in Ukraine. It's gonna be interesting to see the Bug Dome. But we're going to see all kinds of E.V.O.'s there as we rescue people that are trapped in there.

See you all tomorrow.

EVO's In A Bug Jar

At Dr. Lopez's office we were there for another session of therapy and some of us were not doing too well.

Me: Lately these days, we've felt different. As in depressed. And we've never felt like this. We're always full of energy, but these days… we feel discouraged, as if we're not ourselves. Like during the battle against Wasabi and Sozin.

Dr. Lopez: When have you all noticed this?

Lincoln: Sometime after the recent war.

Wood Man: Here's a better question. When was the last time all 13 of you took a rest?

Me: Hmm. Lets see.

I looked over the entirety of everything that happened to us ever since we slept last and it was at that moment that I realized that we haven't gotten any sleep since before the war, during the war and after the war.

Me: Whoa! It has been a while since we slept. But also we haven't gotten any sleep because the crimes and events have been coming in so fast. Check this out. We made this tape of everything that has been happening.

I showed a tape of the events and all that.

(In the forest, a large grizzly bear rears up over a man and roars; the girls arrive and us, and Buttercup roars right back, even more loudly. The bear turns and runs, yelping, and the man and her sisters and us applaud her performance.)

(Back in the city, an armed robber with a sack of cash runs along the sidewalk as an alarm rings after he robbed a bank. He passes Bubbles, who trips him and sends the loot flying, and lands at the feet of me, Blossom and Buttercup. The former catches the money, and I smash his face and Buttercup thumps him under the chin before he hits the ground and I slap the cuffs on him.)

(A hot-air balloon floats through the sky. It bursts; we heard it, alarmed. The balloon's basket falls, its occupant holding a teapot and cup and not seeming particularly distressed. Blossom and Lincoln dive in and catches the rig, and the remains of the balloon settle over the man as Bubbles and Buttercup and watch.)

(Inside a bank, Buttercup throws herself on a bomb, which promptly explodes. In the street, the Talking Dog sits in the path of a speeding car; Bubbles pulls him to safety. We do practically it all over the last few days none stop. We stop aliens invading our planet, monsters attacking, alien abductions, aliens stealing cows, bank robberies, crimes, murders, asteroids, planes malfunctioning and more and Blossom saves a baby from a burning building and passes it to a fireman. The screen is briefly engulfed in flames.)

The video turned off.

Dr. Lopez was amazed.

Dr. Lopez: Wow! You all have been very busy.

Me: That is a total understatement. Monster attacks, alien invasions, meteors, crimes, everything and everyone evil has to throw at us. We've been going at all these non-stop at a very high rate these last few days before, during and after the war.

Lincoln: Yeah we sure have.

Lola: But it's all worth it to save all those people.

Lana: And save all those cows from being kidnapped by Aliens.

Me: Which I thought was very stereotypical, Aliens stealing cows. Aliens abducting cows have been a very popular story since the 1970's.

Laney: Yeah. That is weird.

Me: It was one event after another.

Nico: How long has this been going on?

Me: About 21 days now.

Nico: GEEZ!

Dr. Lopez: So amazing. You all have been REALLY busy and all that. You all are doing a great job saving us.

Me: Yeah. And we haven't been getting a break ever since before the war and after it. I think we're really tired.

Dr. Lopez: No kidding. I would recommend getting some sleep.

Ash: Dr. Lopez is right. You guys have been active for too long that you haven't rested for even a minute.

Me: I know and I guess we've been so busy helping people and fighting in the war before, during and after that we completely lost track of time to get some sleep. I guess we didn't show it.

Lori: Yeah we literally went for so long without sleep.

Lola: I REALLY need to catch up on some beauty sleep.

Lynn: No kidding.

Luan: Yeah. And I'm too tired to even make a joke.

Lincoln: [points to the bags under his eyes] Look at these bags under my eyes; even my bags have bags! [The camera shows a closely detailed picture of Lincoln's drowsy eyes, and a lady screams.]

Squidward: Geez! And I thought I was the only one that went through something like this.

Lily: That's right Squidward. I remember that Mr. Krabs made you and SpongeBob work non-stop for 43 days without a break and we are probably just as tired as you are.

Applejack: I went for 10 days without sleep harvesting all the apples.

Lincoln: Flip's brother made us work for 43 Days because of Ophelia's plans.

Me: Yeah. That was nuts.

Nico: I remember that. That was shocking and crazy! No pun intended.

Lincoln: Yeah.

Me: Right because of Electro. Anyway thank you doc. (Yawns) We'll get some sleep.

Laney: (Yawns) Yeah and man do we need it.

Lola: (Yawns) Yeah.

Dr. Lopez: Get some well deserved sleep guys.

Me: We will.

We went back to the World Tree Estate and got ready.

Slugslinger: Don't worry, guys. We'll handle the mission. You just get some rest.

Me: Thanks guys and I am not worried. I have total faith in all of you.

Nico: Thanks man.

I went up to my room and the Loud Kids went to their rooms and we went to sleep and Spike and the 5 Mascots went put Do Not Disturb signs on our doors.

Nico: Now guys we need you to make sure things stay quiet for J.D. and everyone while they sleep. They REALLY wore themselves out over these last few days and they are exhausted. Think you all can handle it?

Poliwag: You can count on us Nico. (Salutes with his tail)

Poromon: We'll make sure everything is quiet for them.

Manaphy: You got it dad.

Spike: I promise. We won't let you down.

Nico: I knew we can count on you all.

Twilight Sparkle: Great job Spike.

They left the hall of bedrooms.

In the living room they were all getting ready.

Sureshot: (to Nico) Now, all you need is a second in command.

Nico: And I know just the person.

Jaime: Me. Jaime Diana Knudson reporting for duty.

Loki: Loud Brothers and sister too.

Nico: Awesome. Just who I was looking for.

Eli: This is gonna be awesome. But man J.D. and everyone wore themselves out.

Naruto: Yeah they sure did.

Loki: I hope they get better soon.

Nico: They will. They just need some sleep after everything that happened.

Varie: I know.

Maria: With J.D. and the Loud Kids resting, we're missing an important part of our team.

Linka: At least you've got me and my family.

Loki Loud: Including me, Lexx, and Lynn.

Drag Strip: You're right. And you three actually are able to control your anger.

Loki: Yep.

Mandy: But I'm still 2nd enforcer.

Jaime: I know. But everyone will be back in action by tomorrow.

Nico: Yeah.

Leif: I'm sorry J.D. and everyone are out of commission.

Nico: When you need to sleep you need to sleep.

Squidward: Yeah. By the way Nico did that really happen to Lincoln and Lori that they went 43 days without sleep because of Flip's evil brother?

Nico: It sure did Squidward. Just like Mr. Krabs he made them work non-stop for 43 days.

Mr. Krabs: And I completely regret doing all that. Mr. Squidward I am so sorry I put you through all that.

Squidward: Apology accepted Mr. Krabs.

Nico: Awesome.

Beautiful Gorgeous, Trap Jaw, P'andor, Shendu, Zexion, Hydro Man, Skulker, and Dr. Light then appeared.

Beautiful Gorgeous: I know J.D. and the others aren't here. But can me, Trap Jaw, P'andor, Shendu, Zexion, Hydro Man, Skulker, and Dr. Light go with you guys anyway?

Nico: You all sure can. We're heading to the Bug Jar.

P'andor: (Russian Accent) That giant dome that contains all those insectoid E.V.O.'s?

Nico: That's it.

Twilight Sparkle: What is the Bug Jar?

Rex Salazar: It's a containment area that houses dangerous insect

E.V.O.'s.

Rex told them everything about it.

---

The Bug Jar is what Providence refers to as former Kiev, Ukraine, which has long since been overrun by EVOs. During the Nanite Event, the Earth's magnetic field funneled a massive concentration of nanites into the city, causing nearly every living organism to turn into EVOs. The survivors in the city were evacuated. As damage control, a classified one-way spherical containment field was set up around the city to keep the EVOs in.

Up until Rex, Agent Six, and Bobo were sent on a mission to the Bug Jar, the whole site and what was inside it had been a complete mystery for five years. Even Providence was not allowed on the site.

A Providence transport under the command of Captain Calan was being chased by unidentified ships for its cargo: an important data rod containing vital information about EVOs. The ship was forced over the Bug Jar and shot down by an EVO inside. A Providence team was later sent in with three missions: retrieve the data rod, rescue the stranded Providence team, and collect samples of the EVOs living there.

Alliance

Rex was sent into the Bug Jar a second time to repair the shield regulator when it began to falter. Rex quickly discovered that Van Kleiss was planning to form an alliance with NoFace in order to gain access to his army. Rex was able to stop the alliance by driving a wedge between NoFace and Van Kleiss, and with Circe's help was able to repair the generator and contain all the EVOs inside.

Heroes United

The Bug Jar with its dying shield.

Following Alpha's release from the Null Void, the nanite proceeded to the Bug Jar where, in addition to dealing massive damage to the force field, it drained every last nanite inside, transforming itself into a massive mechanical monster and killing nearly every EVO within.

It then further destroyed the city to acquire the raw materials to make even more nanites after acquiring the Omega-1 Nanite. After the battle between Alpha, Rex and Ben, Rex used his powers to compress Alpha into a ball and Caesar sent it back into the void.

In the aftermath of the battle, the Bug Jar was nothing more than a deserted wasteland.

Endgame, Part 2

As Rex sent out his EVO curing wave, NoFace was briefly seen back in the Bug Jar as a human. The force field was still in the same state of disrepair as it was during the battle with Alpha.

---

Twilight and the others gasped when Rex was finished.

Sunset Shimmer: Whoa! That is crazy!

Nico: Yeah I was shocked too. It's hard to imagine that the entire city of Kiev, Ukraine can be infected by the nanites like that.

Ben: Yeah that is shocking.

Riley: No kidding.

Ben: I hope they got the containment shield repaired after I was there when we fought Alpha.

Rex: They have Ben. And J.D. brought all the E.V.O.'s back after all that.

Nico: Awesome. Then we can go there and cure them all.

Naruto: Wow. This is gonna be one amazing mission.

Lane: Yeah it is.

Nico: Anyway lets get over to the Bug Jar.

They were off to Kiev, Ukraine.

BUG JAR, KIEV, UKRAINE

They arrived at the Bug Jar in Kiev, Ukraine.

May: Here we are.

Blaster Tron: (scans the area) Multiple E.V.O. energy signatures detected.

They were inside the Bug Jar and it was a terrifying place.

Nico: Wow. Just as terrifying in here as it was when Rex saw it.

Twilight Sparkle: What the?

Twilight Sparkle saw that she had stars flickering all around her.

Twilight Sparkle: Why are there stars flickering around me?

Sunset Shimmer: It's not just you Twilight. I have flames around me.

Rainbow Dash: Rainbows for me.

Fluttershy: Butterflies around me.

Rarity: Jewels for me and it's beautiful darling.

Nico: Those are part of your protection auras. J.D. told me that when they went to Rex's world the first time they were protected by an aura of elemental energy that prevented them from becoming E.V.O. This whole place is overflowing with Nanites and our auras are protecting us from them.

Eli: That is so cool!

Nunnally: Yeah it sure is.

They all saw that they were having auras protect them.

Nami: That is amazing.

Nico Robin: Yeah it sure is.

Vivi Nefertari: Amazing that we all have this kind of power.

May: It sure is.

Applejack: I like it.

Pinkie Pie: By the way what does E.V.O. stand for again?

Nico: It's an Acronym. It's short for E xponentially V ariegated O rganism.

Pinkie Pie: Oh I get it.

Starlight Glimmer: That is very complicated. But it's interesting.

Trixie: I think so too.

They then saw White Knight, Agent Six, Dr. Rebecca Holiday and Bobo Hana the Chimp.

Rex Salazar: Well everyone is here.

White Knight: Fancy seeing you guys here.

Six: Where are J.D. and the others?

Zexion: They're taking the day off after days of no rest.

Six: I see.

White Knight: That's understandable. Even in my unpleasant moments, I still allow Rex to rest if he gets really tired.

Nico: That's agreeable. They have been so busy before during and after the war helping others that they completely lost track of time and went for days without sleep.

Six: Wow.

Rex Salazar: Yeah it's rough.

Dr. Holiday: (To Beverly Holiday) How have you been Beverly?

Beverly Holiday: Been really good. Training in awesome powers and more. I discovered that I have fire powers and fire wing powers too along with my E.V.O. Abilities.

Fu: It is so cool seeing her train hard and protecting those that she knows too. In our school she defended a bunch of kids from a bunch of thugs that were gonna take over the school. Took them all down like no big deal.

Suigetsu: It was awesome.

Dr. Holiday: Wow. That is amazing!

White Knight: It sure is. I hope J.D. and the Loud Kids get much needed sleep after everything that happened these last few days.

Nico: They will.

Alizarin Bubblegum: Things have been really crazy these last few days. But after everything that went down J.D. and everyone deserved a good break.

Loni: Yeah they do.

They saw a bunch of insectoid E.V.O.'s.

Twilight Sparkle: Wow. Are those E.V.O.'s?

Rex: Yep they sure are.

Sunset Shimmer: They look like creatures from another planet.

Nico: They sure do look like creatures from another world don't they. Except they are people and animals turned into total biomechanical creatures by nanites.

White Knight: That's a good way to put it Nico.

Some E.V.O.'s saw us and roared.

Krankenstein: Monster smash E.V.O.'S! (charges at them)

He smashed them all over.

Nico: The Bug E.V.O.'s may be incurable but J.D. told me that you and he cured Beverly together. Lets see if we can do the same thing!

Rex: Right!

Nico and Rex got onto a Bug E.V.O. and Rex put his hand onto it and Nico channelled his energy into Rex and the E.V.O. glowed in a flash of light and reverted back to a full fledge human woman with blond hair.

Varie caught her as she was unconscious.

White Knight was amazed!

White Knight: I don't believe it! They defied the impossible!

Varie: This is how we cured Beverly, White Knight. But J.D.'s power drained too quickly whenever this happened. But thanks to our powers evolving we can now do this without any limits and all that.

Six: I'm really impressed.

Varie: But I wonder if I can spread it beyond their parameters.

Varie flared up her aura.

Varie: CURING HEALING STYLE NINJA ART: SUPER HEALING ANTIDOTE FIELD!

Varie released a field of energy and it hit many E.V.O.'s all over and cured them and made them human again! Same with many animals!

Nico: WHOA!

Rex Salazar: AWESOME!

Varie: Thanks. Medivac units are on their way.

Nico: Great.

Nico, Six, and Skulker were back to back as several E.V.O.s surrounded us.

Six: (kicks an E.V.O. away) So, what's with that big nose kid lately?

Nico: (punches an E.V.O. to the ground) If you're talking about Billy, lately, he's been more stupid then usual. And he's become less funny and more infuriating to some of us.

Six: (dodges an E.V.O.'s strike) My advice? Be on your guard. Sooner or later, he's bound to do something very bad.

Skulker: (fires missiles at an E.V.O.) C'mon! You two don't really think Billy's going to do something that threatens the team's authority, do you?

Nico: I would say yes!

POW BIFF SMASH!

Varie and Rex and Nico were smashing E.V.O.'s all over the place with incredible fury and they also glowed and were cured.

Nico: These E.V.O.'s in here are like cockroaches!

Rex Salazar: Yeah they are!.

Ben: Time for an Upgrade!

Ben turned into UPGRADE!

Upgrade then merged with Rex and gave him an awesome suit!

Nico: WHOA!

Twilight Sparkle: That is awesome!

Circe: Wow! How did Ben merge with Rex like that?

Nico: I guess it's because E.V.O.'s are biomechanical and they are now essentially organic machines.

Rex: That's right.

Rex formed his arm into a sword and slashed a bunch of E.V.O.'s all over.

Beverly flew into the air with her wings of fire and Sunset followed with her wings of fire and they blasted a bunch of flying E.V.O.'s down.

Varie fired more energy and cured them all over.

Sunset Shimmer: Wow! Beverly your fire wings are awesome!

Beverly: Thanks Sunset. So are yours.

Sunset Shimmer: Thanks. It's a spell I made a while back.

The Blonde Woman was waking up.

Slash Man: You okay, miss?

Woman: I think so. What happened?

Varie: Very ugly story. You were turned into an E.V.O. We'll explain later. Right now we have a medivac ship ready outside.

The Providence men took her and the people and creatures they cured out of the Bug Jar.

Nico: Doing good guys!

Cricket: That is so awesome that Ben and Rex can do that.

Biowulf and Skalamander then appeared.

Biowulf: Need some help?

Nico: We sure do.

Varie: It's all right White Knight. Biowulf and Skalamander are no longer part of the Pack and are our frenemies.

Aylene C.: But if Van Kleiss comes back he will be banished to the Warp.

Nico: You said it.

An E.V.O. tried to punch P'andor (CLANG) (ROAR) but ended up hurting its hand.

P'andor: Ha! Nice Try! My suit is indestructible!

Nico: That suit is amazing. But you are also made of pure gamma radiation.

P'andor: I know.

Muscle Man: (to an E.V.O.) You know who else likes fighting EVOs? My mom! (punches the E.V.O.)

Nico: YEAH!

Nico and Rex cured the E.V.O. that punched P'andor and it was a man and they got him out.

Rainbow Dash and Loki blasted a bunch of E.V.O.'s with wind and rainbows and cured them all over and they were a bunch of birds.

Fluttershy got them to safety and looked them over.

Levi: This is a most amazing and very scientifical mission. We're curing E.V.O.'s and helping them get back to normal and all that.

Fluttershy: It sure is. Thank goodness I called in a veterinary medivac unit too.

Ceasar: Good thinking too Fluttershy. You are really gifted with animals.

Luke Loud: She sure is.

Linka and Rarity fired lightning and jewel blasts and pinned a huge big E.V.O. down and Rex and Nico cured it.

Nico and Rex just cured an E.V.O. that turned into a brown haired girl.

Nico: You ok?

Brown Haired Girl: I think so.

Ashi: What's your name, miss?

Galyna: Galyna Zaharchak.

Ashi: Awesome name.

Nico: Nice to meet you Galyna. We are Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Galyna: Never heard of you all. I can't remember anything since I saw a massive explosion.

Nico: Lot of things have happened. It's a really ugly story.

Varie: We have a medivac ready to get you out of here.

Galyna: Thank you all.

Varie took her out to the Medivac.

Hydro Man: Did you get the name of that blonde haired woman that we saved?

Twilight Sparkle: Her name was Oksana Romanchuk.

Nico: Awesome name.

Eli: How many people lived in Kiev when the whole Nanite Event happened? (Blasts a bunch of E.V.O.'s)

Nico: I think about 2.5 million people.

Varie: Whoa! And that was back 11 years ago. I think.

Levi: Actually it was 2.795 million people back then.

Nico: Ah. That makes more sense.

Linka: Geez! We have a lot of people and creatures to cure. I hope we have plenty of medivac units.

Nico: Don't worry I called in many of them.

Eli: Is that them coming now?

They saw numerous flashing lights coming and they landed outside the Bug Jar.

Nico: Yep that's them.

They landed outside of the Bug Jar and they loaded many people and animals into them.

Cybertron Sideways: It's only a matter of time before whoever's behind this notices J.D. and the others are gone.

Nico: But we'll be ready for them. (Blasts and cures many E.V.O.'s)

Aylene C.: But we're doing really well.

Levi: Scans show that we have cured 75% of the city.

Nico: Great!

Leif: Guys! Me and Lexx found a bunch of people that were trapped in the office buildings that were abandoned that were unaffected by the nanites.

Nico: Take us to them guys.

Leif: Right!

They went to the buildings.

Along the way, Nico and Rex cured two more E.V.O.s that turned into a black haired girl and a red haired girl.

Trap Jaw: You two okay?

Ruslana: Yes thank you. My name is Ruslana Ponomarenko and this is my sister Olga.

Olga Ponomarenko: Hello there.

Ruslana is the Red Hair Girl and Olga is the black hair girl.

Nico: Glad you two are safe. We have medivac units outside.

Ruslana: Thank you.

They ran fast.

The team got to the building.

Demolishor: Is this the building?

Leif: Yep.

?: Well we have guests.

They saw a familiar figure and it was NOFACE!

NoFace was a powerful EVO and later identified as of Rex. He was isolated from humanity and kept within the Bug Jar among other EVOs he learned to have control over. He became a menace to Providence after he sought to escape and formed an alliance with Van Kleiss. At some point, NoFace was imprisoned by Providence, but escaped. Seeking vengeance on Rex, he formed another alliance with Hunter Cain, Valve, and Gatlocke. After failing, he avoided being recaptured and returned to the Bug Jar. Ultimately, he was cured during the Worldwide Cure.

During the Nanite Event, NoFace was in Kiev, Ukraine when a large concentration of active nanites was funneled into the city. NoFace was one of the first inhabitants to turn into an EVO and he apparently went insane. He soon discovered he had the ability to telepathically communicate with other EVOs and control the less intelligent ones.

After a shield was placed around the city, now renamed the Bug Jar, NoFace felt an overwhelming feeling of abandonment. He made getting out of the city his number one priority, and getting revenge on those who abandoned him second.

The Forgotten

NoFace ordered one of his underlings to shoot down Captain Calan's ship in order to capture the team. He forced Calan and the others to rebuild the ship. When Rex, Bobo and Six were sent on the mission to retrieve an important data rod that Calan's team was meant to deliver, NoFace shot their ship down as well for parts to repair the first ship. NoFace met them again below the city where Calan and his men were being imprisoned.

He was able to take the device from Rex, but only because it was important to Providence and thus would lure more ships to the Bug Jar. He then led another attack on Rex and the others at an abandoned hotel. Rex was able to retrieve the device from him as he stung him with a molecular scanner, before he and the others escaped on another ship. At the last attempt to escape the Bug Jar, NoFace tried to reach the hole in the shield on a Gelatinor but failed. NoFace fell back into the city just to learn that Captain Calan remotely destroyed the Providence ship.

Alliance

Later on Van Kleiss used Breach to break into the Bug Jar to forge an alliance with NoFace and use his army for world domination. NoFace agreed to the alliance on the condition that he could kill Rex in exchange. Van Kleiss' plan was working well until Rex drove a wedge into Van Kleiss' and NoFace's relationship. Van Kleiss needed Rex alive, though not intact, to discover how he got his powers back while NoFace wanted to kill Rex. In the process NoFace lost two chances of escaping from the Bug Jar: Van Kleiss's alliance and the malfunctioning shield regulator as well as getting revenge on Rex.

Lockup and Escape

During the Alpha Nanite crisis, nearly every EVO in the Bug Jar was killed by Alpha. However, NoFace escaped and was imprisoned in a high security Providence facility.

NoFace was released from his highly secured cell by Hunter Cain after a prison break at a Providence base occurred. Out of rage, he jumped out and attacked Hunter Cain, Gatlocke, and Valve. He was held down by Hunter Cain until he mentioned that the group's objective was to kill Rex. By the sound of this, NoFace agreed to form an alliance.

Planning to tire Rex down, he encountered Rex in the sewers and fought him. However, he escaped shortly afterward. Later, they located Rex's location which was at a base used to offload Rex's surplus nanites. After finding Rex, the party began to do battle, but lost due to Rex manipulating his surplus nanites to cause the nanite chamber to trap them in a yellow dome-shaped barrier.

Free from Providence's clutches and returning to the ruined Bug Jar, the Worldwide Cure returned NoFace to his human form. Shocked by this, he absorbed in the moment of being cured.

Rex Salazar: NoFace!

NoFace: Been a while Rex Salazar.

Nico: Is he another one of your enemies?

Rex: Yes he is.

NoFace: The Famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm. I didn't expect Rex to be with all of you.

Nico: What is your real name NoFace?

NoFace: My real name before I went E.V.O. is Volodymyr Perevernykruchenko.

Rex Salazar: Awesome name.

Shendu: Your E.V.O.s were very weak compared to us. But keep sending them out. I could use more exercise!

Nico: Shendu wait! (To NoFace) (Speaking Ukrainian) Володимире, вибачте, що ви так багато пережили після того, як все це місто було заражене нанітами, і ви стали таким. Але ми можемо вилікувати вас і знову зробити вас людьми і повернути вам життя, яке ви колись мали. Вам просто потрібно довіряти нам. (Volodymyr, I'm sorry that you went through so much after this whole city became infested with Nanites and you became like this. But we can cure you and make you human again and give you back the life you once had. You just have to trust us.)

Applejack: What the hay is that language?

Eli: That's Ukrainian. It's the language that is in Ukraine.

Applejack: Wow.

NoFace: You would do that for me Chan?

Nico: Yes.

Mystique: I'm glad you and NoFace are getting to know each other, Nico. But we've only got a thousand more E.V.O.s to cure!

Nico: I know that. Volodymyr we'll face you later we have to cure everyone else here in the Bug Jar and then we'll face you when we're done here.

NoFace: You will face me now.

Nico: Then we'll face you while the rest of the team cures everyone else.

NoFace: Fair enough.

He jumped down.

Nico: Ben I hope your Omnitrix will hold out for this.

Upgrade: Don't worry it will.

Nico: Good.

Then a bunch of E.V.O.s came.

Dr. Light: (to the E.V.O.s) You want us? Come get us!

They roared and went at them and Dr. Light and Kairi blasted them with healing light blasts and cured them.

Linka and Biowulf slashed and electrocuted a bunch of E.V.O.'s all over the place and cured them.

Nico and Rex kicked and punched NoFace all over.

Rex then placed his hand on him.

NoFace: I'm incurable remember?

Nico: That's what we're counting on.

Rex channeled energy and Nico chanted an incantation and put magic into him that had a delayed spell.

Nico: You'll be thanking me later. It's a delay spell.

Loki and Loni blasted a bunch of E.V.O.'s all over and cured them and they got them to the medivac units.

Bronze Kneecap, The Vreedle Brothers, Tri-Klops, See-More, Lady Shiva, Kangor, Cad Bane and Taskmaster then appeared.

Nico: Bronze Kneecap, The Vreedle Brothers, Tri-Klops, See-More, Lady Shiva, Kangor, Cad Bane and Taskmaster.

Octagon: Well, this here is a fine mess.

Bronze Kneecap: Glad we found you guys in the middle of all this.

Nico: Did you guys run into any E.V.O.s?

Tri-Klops: Yep. But don't worry. They're knocked out, not dead.

See-More: Where are J.D. and the others?

Nico: J.D. and the Loud Kids are back at the estate. They are sleeping.

Rhomboid: How come?

Nico: We were so busy over the last few days before, during and after the war that J.D. and the Loud Kids completely lost track of time and they hadn't slept for all that time.

Bronze Kneecap: Oh man!

Kangor: (Jamaican Accent) They must've really wore themselves out mon.

Nico: That is putting it mildly. During all that time they were so busy that they haven't had ANY time to rest up.

Bronze Kneecap: Geez! I hope they will be better by tomorrow.

Leon: They will be.

?: Thank goodness.

A figure emerged and it was COPYBOT from episode 3 of Ninja Storm!

Copybot is a chameleon-theme monster who gets fought by the Wind Rangers in the episode "Beauty and the Beach".

Copybot was sent to Earth to lend his copying abilities to Marah and Kapri. Tori Hanson is cloned, while Tori fights her clone, he takes on the Red and Yellow Rangers. After the Tori defeats her clone, she joins in and morphs into the Blue Ranger. He summons an army of Kelzaks to fight them, but they were all easily defeated in the Ninja Shadow Battle. Copybot fights the Rangers himself, and had the upper hand, until Tori use the Flood Attack, on him, to make him stay long enough get clean hits with her Ninja Sword. Tori also used the Ninja Water Blast on him. He was destroyed by the Storm Striker's sonic attack. When the Scroll of Empowerment makes him giant, he multiples four copies of himself, multi-attacking the Megazord. Due to the clones speed, they were too fast for Storm Megazord to fight. However, the Storm Megazord equips the Lightning Mode, thanks to Cam and defeats the four clones. With only the real Cobybot left, they used the Serpent Sword's Triple Strike to finally destroy him.

Tori Hanson: Copybot!

Copybot: Been a long time Blue Ranger.

Nico: I remember you and I know you all too well! You were cloned as Tori lend your copying abilities to Marah and Kapri.

Copybot: That's right. Good memory. Just as sharp as J.D.

Nico: I watched all the episodes like he did.

Copybot: I hope you won't mind that I bring another old face, Blue Ranger!

Copybot then creates the copy of Tori.

Nico: Wow! Just like on TV.

Tori Hanson: Yeah I remember this!

Tori Copy: Brings back memories.

Eli: It sure does. Wow!

Loki: This is gonna be fun!

Nico: The Chameleon Strikes in the Dark.

Tori Copy: Good analogy.

?: (British Medieval Accent) Too bad thou will experience your last day alive.

A figure came out and it was Ben's old archenemy of the Forever Knights, ENOCH!

Enoch was a recurring antagonist in the Ben 10 series and the supposed leader of the Forever Knights.

When Ben was trapped in his Grey Matter form, he was captured by a scientist and taken to his home. Enoch sent three of his henchmen to retrieve the alien. Enoch obtains Ben and decides to use him for his men to test and to keep its discovery a secret. Having no further use of the scientist, he tells his men to get rid of him. Max and Gwen helped Ben escape Enoch's hideout. In his car, Enoch finds profiles of the Tennysons and ordered his men to find any information about them.

Enoch appears again using robotic baseball player duplicates to replace the president but was foiled by the Tennysons.

In an effort to use the Omnitrix for himself, Enoch kidnapped Ben and trapped him in a dream world to remove the Omnitrix. Gwen and Max used similar technology to convince Ben was in a dream. Ben managed to break out of his trance and trapped Enoch into a dream world of his own.

The Forever King was tired of Enoch's failures and decides to deal with the Tennysons himself, leaving Enoch trapped.

Ultimate Alien

In The Purge, Enoch returns, now a leader from another faction of the Forever Knights, where he was among the other Forever Knight leaders present at Old George's meeting and bowed before him. Also present was his former Forever King, Driscoll, with whom he seems to have severed ties.

As with virtually all the Forever Knights, he later perished during the final battle with Dagon's Esoterica.

---

Ben: Enoch!

Nico: Oh man! I thought he was dead!

Ben: So did I.

Enoch: Ah, Ben Tennyson. Verily have I hoped our paths would cross again someday. Forsoothe! My power has been growing for lo these 6 years hence!

Ben: (disgusted) Yeah, along with your B.O.! Don't get out much do ya?

Enoch: Thou cannot stoppeth me this time! I have been enhanced by yon Number Card and…

Gwen Tennyson: And what's with the accent? You didn't have that when we faced you as kids.

Nico: Yeah the accent is new!

Princess Luna: And I thought I was the only one that spoke that way.

Stygian: (British Medieval Accent) Same with me.

Enoch: It's something that goeth with me.

Nico: So we have seen and the sword you have is new. Also you haven't been told about this but Sir George is dead.

Enoch: What!?

Nico: Yeah your true founder the immortal Sir George lost his life in battle after losing to the malevolent monster Dagon.

Riley: Yeah Ben told us everything that happened and I was given this.

Riley showed Ascalon.

Enoch: Ascalon! How did thou get that?

Riley: Lets just say that Sir George gave it to me.

Nico: Lets dance!

They powered up and went at them.

---

Bronze Kneecap was first.

Bronze Kneecap: (to Stella) J.D. and the others must've really been tired.

Stella: They sure were. They wore themselves out. They were so busy before, during and after the War in Equestria that they completely lost track of time.

Rainbow Dash: Yeah and doing all that stuff over the last few days was awesome.

Scootaloo: Yeah it was! I loved going on all those adventures.

Breakdown: We all did but sleep is more important. Obviously crime doesn't care.

Drag Strip: No it doesn't.

Bronze Kneecap: You got that right. Lets do it!

Bronze Kneecap fired ram heads from his Kneecap and they dodged them and went at him and smashed him down.

Stella: All right!

Rainbow Dash: That was AWESOME!

---

---

The Vreedle Brothers were next.

Rhomboid: (to Applejack) Me and Octagon were wondering what happened to that Enoch guy all those years ago.

Octagon: Yeah we haven't heard from him since he was trapped in the dream world.

Applejack: That's what we were wondering ourselves. We heard that after the Forever Knights went into hiding after the battle with Dagon that he was never seen since.

Apple Bloom: Yeah that is weird. I think after everything that happened since then, the Forever Knights are starting to resurface.

Blaster Tron: (Techno Voice) Target Enoch been inactive for 7 stellar cycles. Method of resurfacing inconclusive.

Sasha: That is a mystery.

Octagon: It sure is a mystery. Lets do it!

They pulled out blasters and they dodged the blasts and fired energy blasts and smashed the Vreedle Brothers down.

Applejack: YEEHAW! That was awesome!

Apple Bloom: YEAH!

---

Battle 3: Zick, Fluttershy, Petunia Paleo, Buzzerbeak and Krankenstein VS Tri-Klops

---

Tri-Klops was next.

Tri Klops: (to Zick) I don't blame J.D. and the Loud kids for taking a day off. After all, despite their powers, they're only human.

Zick: I don't blame them either. We are all human.

Fluttershy: I agree.

Petunia: I think so too. But J.D. and everyone need sleep after everything that happened.

Buzzerbeak squawked.

Krankenstein: Monster agree.

Tri-Klops: Indeed. Lets do it!

Tri-Klops fired a wave of energy from his visor and they dodged it and fired waves of energy and smashed him down.

Ash: I know. We got word that he has been acting more stupid than ever.

Pikachu: Pika!

Rarity: The guy is more idiotic than Ed is.

Sweetie Belle: Yeah and he has been breaking everything too. Just this morning he trashed the school bus, destroyed neighbors gardens and flooded the entire school he goes too!

See-More: Geez! That kid has problems!

Spring Man: No kidding! And after that, most of the entire town tar and feathered him.

Slash Man: And beat him up REALLY bad!

See-More: YIKES! That must've hurt.

Ash: It was an old form of humiliation that we used long ago.

See-More: Ouch. Lets do it.

See-More fired a laser blast from his eye and they dodged his blast and fired waves of energy, lightning and jewels and smashed him down.

Ash: YEAH!

Pikachu: Pika!

Rarity: Rapture darling that was grand!

---

Battle 5: Kim Possible, Pinkie Pie, Pip-Squeak, Ashi, and Spoiled Rich VS Lady Shiva

---

Lady Shiva was next.

Shiva: (to Kim) You all must have been busy curing E.V.O.s.

Kim: We sure were. When the Nanite Event happened the Earth's magnetic field funneled the nanites to Kiev, Ukraine and turned this entire town's population into E.V.O.s. Everyone human and animal were ALL turned into E.V.O.'s.

Shiva: Whoa! That has to be over 3 million people!

Pinkie Pie: Actually it was 2.75 million people.

Pip-Squeak: (British Accent) Levi told us the exact number back then.

Ashi: I can't imagine all the pain and horror the people of Kiev went through here.

Spoiled Rich: Me neither. That is most horrible.

Lady Shiva: No kidding. But thank goodness you all are gonna save everyone and everything here.

Kim: Yeah.

Lady Shiva: Yeah. Lets do it!

They went at her and Lady Shiva and the group did a bunch of martial arts moves on each other and blacked their moves all over. Kim Possible and everyone then smashed her down.

Kangor: I can see that mon. That's amazing.

Menasor: (Irish accent) It sure is lad.

Sideways: I think so too.

---

Jack Landors: It's some kind of delay spell. Nico said that it's a spell that will take affect after NoFace is weakened by our attacks.

Sunset Shimmer: That's clever.

Pepperdance: It sure is.

Demolishor: I think so too.

Reflector: Indeed.

Cad Bane: Very clever strategy. Lets do it.

Cad fired laser blasts from his blasters and Sunset Shimmer ignited her lightsaber and deflected the blasts away and they went at him and smashed and blasted him all over.

Jack Landors: All right!

Sunset Shimmer: That was great!

Pepperdance: Cajun Good!

---

Battle 8: Brody Romero, Starlight Glimmer, Triple Berry, Lady Deathstrike and Mystique VS Taskmaster

---

Taskmaster was next.

Taskmaster: (to Brody) I think this might be one of the few missions with no deaths.

Brody: I think so too. The Bug Jar went through Hell ever since the Nanite Event and all that.

Starlight Glimmer: Yeah and I hope we cure ALL the E.V.O.'s around the world.

Triple Berry: Yeah. They did not deserve to have this happen to them.

Lady Deathstrike: (Japanese Accent) I agree. What happened during the Nanite Event was awful.

Mystique: No kidding. That's terrible.

Taskmaster: Indeed. Lets do it!

Taskmaster fired waves of energy and they dodged it and Starlight and Triple Berry fired energy and fruit and smashed him down and Brody and the group smashed him down.

Rhinox fired his machine guns at Copybot and hit him all over the place.

Loki and his brothers blasted him all over and Trixie blasted him with magic.

Troy Burrows: Rangers that's a Super Mega Win.

---

Battle 10: Riley Anderson VS Enoch & Number 666: Unholy Commander

---

Riley was facing Enoch.

Riley: Sir George put up a really valiant effort in his fight against Dagon but in the end it was all for nothing. After 1500 years he bit the dust and Ascalon was the only thing that was left of him. Ben was the only one that defeated Dagon. Azmuth gave Ascalon to me because I can use its power for the Right reasons.

Enoch: What does thou know about what happened to the Forever Knights after Dagon's defeat?

Riley: Many of them were all killed and the rest of them went into hiding. Dagon killed many of them.

Enoch: Let us see if thou is skilled with Sir George's sword.

Riley: Gladly.

Enoch unsheathed his sword and the swords glowed and they went at each other and clashed violently and Riley kicked Enoch down and smashed the sword out of his hands and knocked him out. Riley sheathed Ascalon and took Enoch's sword.

Riley: I know just the person that can use this for the right reasons too.

She then saw a Number Card.

Riley: A Number Card.

She picked it up and it was the most Evil Number Card of them all: NUMBER 666: UNHOLY COMMANDER!

Riley: Number 666: Unholy Commander. The Card of the Antichrist. What a Dangerous and Satanic Number. Fitting.

Riley tied up Enoch and beamed him to prison.

* * *

NoFace was next.

Nico: This is gonna be awesome.

Eli: Lets get him guys!

They went at him and smashed and pulverized and blasted him all over the place.

Spyder and Psimion blasted and smashed him all over.

Earthworm Jim: EAT DIRT FOUR ARMED BIOMECHANICAL MONSTROSITY! (BLASTS NOFACE ALL OVER) HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!

Ed Cowart: EAT DIRT FOUR ARMED FREAK OF NATURE! (BLASTS NOFACE ALL OVER) HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!

Linka: LIGHTNING STYLE: INCANDESCENT LIGHT BULB BOMBS!

Rex: Okay. You should be cured right about… now!

NoFace glowed in a flash of light and he was reverted back to human. He had black hair and a black shirt and blue pants. He was unconscious.

Nico: Awesome! Lets do one final sweep of the Bug Jar and check if we missed anyone.

They agreed.

Fluttershy: I'll get him to the medivac.

Nico: Okay.

Fluttershy did so and in everyone did one final sweep of the Bug Jar and the city was E.V.O. free and clear after doing a thorough check.

Shiva: Looks like the Bug Jar is E.V.O. free.

Kangor: Now we just got to worry about the rest of this world, mon.

Cad Bane: Let's save that for another time.

Taskmaster: So… who wants to tell J.D. the good news?

Eli: I will tell him tomorrow. He needs all the sleep he can get after everything that happened over these last few days.

Nico: Good idea.

Lexx: Hard to imagine he went through so much over these last few days.

Leif: No kidding.

Loki: But they will be all right after some sleep.

The Containment field was deactivated.

Nico: Lets go home. Great job today everyone.

Rex: Thanks Nico.

Biowulf: This was really fun.

Skalamander: It sure was.

Nico: Yeah it was. But with a planet to cover cleaning up all the nanites is gonna be a tough job.

Leif: Yeah.

Rex Salazar: (To the viewers) This was an awesome adventure! Don't worry everyone, J.D. and the Loud Kids will be back tomorrow.

Nico: Yep.

They went back hom and everyone in the Bug Jar was being taken care of in their recovery.

In my room I was sleeping.

THE END

---

Another awesome fanfiction done.

The Bug Jar of Generator Rex was a freaky place. But at least we all cured the E.V.O.'s there. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegashinobi12, XP4Universe, Drako1234658 and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is where we take on Max Steel's enemy Extroyer and that is gonna be awesome! I am back in action after some much needed sleep.

See you all tomorrow.

Crystal World Destroying Nightmare

In my room at the World Tree Estate, I was just waking up after spending the whole day in bed.

Spike and Eli were on my bed.

Me: (Yawn)

Eli: Morning bro.

Me: Morning Eli. Hey Spike.

Spike: Hey J.D. Welcome back. You slept the whole day.

Me: Geez. I must've been really tired.

Eli: You sure were bro. After being awake for that long without even realizing it you REALLY needed all that sleep.

Me: Boy no kidding and I feel as fresh as a daisy.

Eli: Awesome.

Me: Yeah.

Eli: I have a lot to tell you when we get ready for breakfast.

Me: I can't wait to hear it.

Houno screeched.

Me: Morning Houno. I was really tired.

I gave him his breakfast.

The Loud Kids got up too and they were well rested too.

I came out of my room and went to the dining room and the Loud Kids came out with me and Eli.

Me: Morning guys.

Lori: Morning J.D.

Lincoln: Did you sleep well?

Me: I sure did. Are you guys all better now that we're fully rested?

Laney: We sure are and man did we need it.

Lisa Loud: Indeed and I feel fully rested and rejuvenated.

Lucy Loud: I sure do too.

Me: So what happened on the mission Eli?

Eli: A lot of things. We were sent to the Bug Jar in Kiev, Ukraine and we cured all the E.V.O.'s there. It was a no death mission.

Eli told us about it and it was amazing.

Me: Oh wow! I'm really proud of all of you guys.

Eli: Thanks bro.

We went to the Dining Room and we were having Pancakes and Waffles.

Nico: Well good morning sleeping beauties.

Me: Morning Nico. Morning everyone. I'm really proud of all of you for a job well done in Kiev.

Nico: Thanks man. It was an awesome adventure.

Lana: Boy I'll say.

Rex Salazar: But we cured all of the E.V.O.'s in the Bug Jar.

Me: I heard. Awesome job guys.

Torch Man: Now that you guys are well rested, we can discuss some important business.

Lynn: And that would be?

Nico: Deciding what to do with Billy.

Me: Right Billy has been acting more idiotic than usual. And he is completely out of control.

Grim: (Jamaican Accent) You got that right mon! That kid is bent on destruction!

Me: No kidding.

I was eating pancakes.

Minuette: That kid has a lot of problems.

Twinkleshine: Yeah he trashed the school and demolished the whole building.

Me: He what!? What an idiot!

Lemon Hearts: Yeah he got expelled for it.

Lyra Heartstrings: He is a brainless menace.

Me: Now Lyra that's harsh. We don't want to kick him out of the team forever. Lets just place him on administrative suspension for the week.

Nico: That's an accurate term for it.

Me: I heard that most of the town is out to tar and feather him.

Mandy: They sure are. Practically everyone is after him and they want to mount his head on a pike.

Grim: Now that I would love to see mon.

POW!

Mandy punched Grim in his head.

Me: Mandy was that necessary.

Mandy: Sorry force of habit.

Me: But I agree. Something has to be done with Billy before we lose another teammate to the people's stupidity.

Nico: I agree and I know just what to do.

Laney: What is it?

Nico: Chloe, I have a job for you. Consider it my last order for the moment.

Chloe Bourgeois: What is it?

Nico: I'd like you to go with Billy on a… special mission.

Chloe Bourgeois: After what he's caused recently?! Ridiculous! Utterly ridiculous!

Nico: Oh, trust me. Billy will be missed for a while.

Mallow: And you should bring backup just in case. He might be stupid but he can be a handful. Especially when cornered.

It was at this moment that Chloe and Pollen understand what my order really was.

Me: I have a feeling that this is gonna be good. And Nico, I'm very proud of you and everyone for how you handled the mission to the Bug Jar in the Ukraine.

Nico: Thanks man that means a lot to me.

Chloe: What is the mission?

Nico beckoned her and whispered the mission in her ear and it was a genius one.

Laney: (Whispers to me) That's a genius one.

Me: (Whispers) It sure is.

Chloe, as Queen Bee, Pollen, Cyclonus, Demolishor, Akira, Disk Wars Iron Man, Ripster, Joan Bolton, Megan, Cornelia, Lewa, and Matau were with Billy on the mountain planet Virunga.

Billy: Am I the only one who thinks this is overkill on Nico's part? Sending 12 of our powerful members to track down one Number Card?

Demolishor: Nico and J.D. knows that together, all 12 of will get the job done.

Billy: Actually, I was referring to 11 of you guys and me.

That started to get Demolishor mad, but Akira stopped him.

Akira: Demolishor, calm down. We need to work together on this.

Billy: That's right! This should be an easy retrieval job. Nothing can go wrong like all those times you failed to get Mini Cons back in the old days.

Demolishor: (flying off the handle) THAT'S IT!

Ripster: Demolishor, no!

But it was too late. Demlishor fired at Billy with his blaster hands.

And burned him to a crisp. But he laughed like he enjoyed it.

Joan pulled out a pitchfork and a lit torch.

Joan: Lets get him guys!

They pulled out Pitchforks and Torches and roared in anger. Demolishor and Cyclonus had a huge tree as a torch.

Billy: Oh boy! (Laughs)

They chased after Billy and he was laughing like it was some kind of game. He was laughing and having fun.

Me and Dark Spicer were watching from afar.

Me: Wow. Billy is having fun.

Dark Spicer: He sure is a stupid idiot.

Me: Yeah I don't know how Grim, Mandy and everyone put up with him after so long. He is a brainless moron.

Dark Spicer: Yeah. But it's great to have you and the Loud's back in action J.D.

Me: Thanks Dark.

Later we were back on Earth without Billy.

Megan: We're back!

Pointblank: How was it?

Matau: There were some… complications but we carried out the your orders like you instructed.

Chloe Bourgeois: I just hope we did the right thing.

Nico: You all did. Great job.

Me: Me and Dark watched and you did a great job.

Nico: You sure did. We'll see Billy again.

Me: I hope you all weren't too hard on him.

Chloe Bourgeois: Nah. I used my Venom on him.

Anne-Marie: Awesome job sis.

Chloe: Thanks sis.

Me: He's on the planet Virunga. But don't worry he will have enough food for 100 people. That should last him for the whole week.

Nico: Good I heard he likes to eat a lot.

Me: Yeah.

Mandy: Yeah and I probably won't miss him.

Me: But we'll have him back again.

Illia: Let's check up on Billy after a week. I mean, what can possibly happen to him during that amount of time?

Me: Who knows Illia. Who knows. But this is for Billy's own good.

Nico: I know. We didn't want to do this but he left us no choice.

Mandy: Me and Grim did the exact same thing with Lord Pain and it didn't work well.

Me: That's all right Mandy.

Lori: But if it helps Billy then he literally needs it.

Leni: Yeah.

Me: Anyway we got to get ready for our next mission.

Nico: Right!

Bronze Kneecap, See-More, Taskmaster, Kangor, Shiva, The Vreedle Brothers, Tri-Klops and Cad Bane then appeared.

Bronze Kneecap: Can me, See-More, Taskmaster, Kangor, Shiva, Vreedle Brothers, Tri-Klops, and Cad Bane go with you all this time?

Me: You all sure can. We're gonna go check out Max Steel's home base of Operations: N Tek.

See-More: Awesome!

Kangor: (Jamaican Accent) And J.D. it's great to see you back in action mon.

Me: It's great to be back in action.

Lori: We literally were so tired.

Lynn: Yeah we slept the whole day.

Lola: And man did we need it.

Lisa Loud: Indeed we did and it was most needed and most required.

Lily: Yeah.

Tri-Klops: Sorry you guys had to kick out Billy like that.

Me: We didn't kick him out forever. He's more on Administrative Suspension.

Octagon: That's a good way to put it.

Shiva: It sure is.

Me: Think of it as a little vacation for him.

Laney: Yeah.

Lola: He needs it too.

Me: Lets head to Copper Canyon.

We were off to Copper Canyon.

COPPER CANYON

We arrived in Copper Canyon and we arrived at a manhole cover hidden behind a building.

Sunny Flare: Is this the place?

Nico: Yep and we just need to get in with a key.

Nico went up to a manhole and pressed a button on it and a laser scanner popped up and scanned Nico's eye.

Computer: Access Granted. Welcome back Nicolas Chan.

Nico: Thank you.

It opened and it lead to N Tek HQ.

Me: Cool!

Varie: That is so cool!

Diamond Tiara: I think so too.

We followed Nico and we were walking down a hall in N Tek HQ.

Me: Wow! So this is N Tek.

Nico: Yep. Welcome to N Tek everyone.

Me: Wow! This is amazing!

Nico: It sure is.

Laney: Incredible! This is so advanced.

Lola: Yeah it is.

Octagon: Is there anyone who works here?

Rhomboid: Besides Max and Steel?

Nico: Lots of awesome people. But Max's uncle Commander Forge Fergus is the main director here.

?: That's right Nico.

We saw Commander Forge Fergus.

Nico: Commander Forge it's great to see you again.

Commander Forge: Same to you Nico. You're looking great.

Nico: Thanks Commander.

Me: Commander Forge it's a pleasure to meet you.

Commander Forge: Same to you J.D. and it's a true honor to have Team Loud Phoenix Storm grace N Tek.

Me: Pleasure is ours Commander.

Nico: How have things been?

Commander Forge: Great Nico. We missed not having you around.

Nico: I know but I'm now the second in command of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Commander Forge: That's what we heard.

Turbo Man: By the way, Commander, Toxzon's dead.

Commander Forge: I know and you all did a great favor for us.

Me: Yeah I never liked that guy. He was really fucked up in the head.

Nico: He sure was. And the Planeteers dealt with more of their enemies on a daily basis than they did with him.

Me: No kidding. How has Max and Steel been?

Commander Forge: They have been doing really well. They took down some of their enemies while you all were dealing with the Sullen 6: Murukami, Colonel Jasper F. Castle and Rygnok.

Me: Hmm.

I pulled up their information.

---

Murukami: He was a ninja in Ancient Japan who seeks his mission, to conquer the world. Murukami was imprisoned in a magic sword by a sorcerer who warned that if anyone ever gripped the sword, he would be released and would wreak havoc on the earth. Murukami's spirit possessed Kirby when he held the sword that a shop vendor and descendant of the sorcerer hid his backpack. Max and Steel were able to use the Turbo Sword to break the magic sword and freed Kirby from Murukami.

Murakami is the main antagonist of the Max Steel Reboot episode "Live by the Sword". He is a skilled swordsman. In the past, he desired to rule the world and wanted a strong sword to help accomplish that goal. He got a sword made by a forger but the forger put a curse on it which sealed Murakami in the sword. He later returned in the present episode when he took possession of one Max McGrath's friends, Kirby Kowalski to resume his mission.

The Sword first appeared when a person put a sword into Kirby's bag. He touched the sword and he immediately took possession of Kirby. Murakami appeared in alley where Bartholomew and his friends were about to attack him for being in their spot. Murakami instantly defeated them and proceed to go on a rampage throughout Copper Canyon. A cop tried to stop him but Murakami sliced up his gun and scared him off. Max Steel later found out that his friend was possessed by the sword by a story by the vendor. Max Steel found Murakami in the city and fought him. He defeated him but Jason Naught came and kidnapped him.

Naught wanted Murakami for the sword he held with him. But Murakami had no interest in what Naught wanted. He ended up attacking Naught and his men. Max Steel then came to stop Naught as well and save Murakami. Murakami ended up fighting Max Steel and putting up a challenge for him as well. Naught was held back in a fight with Berto's C.Y.T.R.O robot. Naught was defeated by C.Y.T.R.O. Max Steel eventually defeat Murakami when he realized that a sword with T.U.R.B.O energy would be able to break the sword. With Murakami's defeat, Kirby was released from his control.

Colonel Jasper F. Castle (voiced by Lee Tockar): A king of the Greek city-state of Sparta, he and his men's loyalties were bought by Miles Dredd. Using them, Dredd lured Max into a trap. Luckily, a traitorous member who was new to them called N-Tek and together they defeated and apprehended Castle and his men and chased Dredd and Naught off.

Colonel Jasper F. Castle is an antagonist from the 2013 Max Steel reboot TV series, being the central antagonist in the episode "Uncle Sam Wants You!". He pretended he wanted for Max Steel to join and help the United States Army fight off the forces of Miles Dread. However, it turned out that Castle was working for Dread all along and had a plan to trap Max Steel so that he can receive money.

He was voiced by Lee Tockar.

Castle was very charismatic and friendly to Max Steel when he first met him. He saw some potential in him to join the army. He knew about the secret Commander Forge Ferrus held from Max McGrath and wanted to use it to persuade Max to join his side. He also appeared to be very noble, honorable and proud to be apart of the United States Army. However, it turned out that Castle only cared for the money he can receive if he can hand over Max Steel to Miles Dread. Some of his own men were shocked about this and were angry that he was working with Dread for his own personal gain. When he was confronted by one of his men for his treachery, he had no care for what they thought of him. He was only concerned about his own safety in the fight and Max Steel's defeat so that he can get money from Dread. However when the plan failed, Castle was caught by his own men and N-Tek and he had his badge removed.

Ragnok (voiced by Brian Drummond): The Ultralink Hunter working for the Black Star Council who once a mentor and old friend to Ven-Ghan. Ragnok is a bounty hunter who will hunt anything for the right price. After Makino tore a destructive path through the galaxy, Ragnok began working for the Black Star Council.

Ragnok is an Ultralink Hunter, member of Black Star Council, and also the mentor of Ven-Ghan. He is one of the most feared and dangerous bounty hunters in the galaxy according to Ven-Ghan. Ragnok debuted in Fugitive and is voiced by Brian Drummond.

An alien of unknown origins, Ragnok is a bounty hunter who will hunt anything for the right price. After Makino tore a destructive path through the galaxy, Ragnok began working for the Black Star Council as an Ultralink Hunter. All of his work eventually led him to being one of the most (if not, the most) dangerous bounty hunter in the galaxy. When Ven-Ghan lied about Steel's death, Ragnok was hired by one of the members to capture and bring him to the council to pay for its crimes.

Ragnok first attacks a small bar on a road, and then goes to the center of Copper Canyon, where he got Max Steel and Ven-Ghan's attention. During the fight, Ven-Ghan and Steel are captured, though that both escape after Steel damaged the circuits of Ragnok's ship. After escaping, Ragnok goes after them with his mechanic lizard until an abandoned mine, where he almost kills Ven-Ghan and Steel by throwing them in a hole. However, already out of the mine, he finds Max and C.Y.T.R.O. that were tring to stop him, but in the end, Ragnok destroys C.Y.T.R.O. and Steel is reunified with Max.

Ven-Ghan later appears and fights against his own mentor in western style, but he (Ragnok) is eventually defeated by Ven-Ghan in one of his capture cubes. However, Ragnok escapes activating the explosive mode of his mechanic lizard. He later appears speaking with the same counselor who asked him to capture Steel and Ven-Ghan, and Ragnok promises that, not matter what, he would capture Ven Ghan if is the last thing that he do.

Me: Whoa! These guys look dangerous!

Nico: I remember them. They were vicious and brutal. But Colonel Castle is a traitor. He deserves to be locked up.

Commander Forge: Yeah they were dangerous and Nico I heard you and everyone went through a horrible ordeal called the 20 Days of Darkness.

Nico: Yeah we sure did.

Me: Not only were we busy taking down Organization XIII and the Sullen 6 but we were also helping Nico take down demons from his past. You know how dark his past is right?

Commander Forge: I sure do. That was awful.

Taskmaster: I hope the three you mentioned come back at some point so we can fight them personally.

Commander Forge: For you guys I have a feeling they will.

Me: Someday. Hopefully we won't face Colonel Castle after everything he did all for money.

Nico: Yeah.

We then saw Max and Steel.

Max: Hey guys!

Me: Max!

Nico: Hey man!

Max: Great to see you all here!

Steel: How have you all been?

Me: Busier than ever.

Max: We heard what happened during a huge battle and all that.

Me: Yeah things have been really hectic these last couple of months. But we got through them all.

Nico: We sure did.

Max: No kidding. Nico I heard that you finally conquered your past and all that.

Nico: I sure did. That was an awful ordeal.

Stickybeard: We made lots of new friends since last we met.

Max: I can see that.

Runo: It's great to meet you Max.

Rai: Same here. It's awesome to meet you.

Me: We've had a lot of awesome adventures and we met a lot of great people. But also we're fighting their enemies too.

Shobu: Yeah it's a rough adventure.

Me: But also he have our work cut out for us.

Max: I can tell. You guys went through so much over the last 5 years and all that.

Me: I know. But how have you been Max? Sorry we haven't seen you these last couple of months since we took down Toxzon.

Max: That's all right. I'm just as busy as you guys are.

Nico: No kidding. Good times though.

Laney: They sure are.

Max: Yeah.

See More: You glad that you and Steel don't have to wash off toxic goo anymore?

Max: We sure are.

Nico: And the world is a much better place without Toxzon and his ugly fish polluting the place.

Me: Oh that reminds me. (To See-More) Earth Day is next week. I was thinking we can have you guys all hang out with us for that day and we can have usual battles that are themed after the elemental forces of nature and all that. You know like Earth, Fire, Wind, Water, Lightning, Darkness, Light and Twilight.

See-More: That's not a bad idea.

Kangor: We'll be sure to tell Vypra all about it mon.

Shiva: Yeah.

Max: Earth Day must've been really special for you guys.

Me: It sure was. 2 years ago from April 15th to April 22nd, 2019 that was one of our most charitable weeks ever. We cleaned up the planet of all of the stuff that was polluting everything and hurting the world and helped kill the Planeteers worst enemies. And we also got to face Bai Tza's brothers and sister that were brought back as Heartless.

Tso Lan: I remember that. That was an amazing and intense adventure.

Bai Tza: It sure was brother.

Me: Those were great adventures.

Twilight Sparkle: What happened during that time?

Me: It was an epic series of adventures for us and it was very charitable.

I went over everything that happened during the events of chapters 683 to 690 and they were epic and awesome.

When I was finished everyone was amazed.

Twilight Sparkle: Oh wow!

Sunset Shimmer: That is so cool!

Fluttershy: And all those big fat meanies paid for it.

Me: Big time. But I have a feeling they will be back for Earth Day when we do our adventure for that time.

Discord: Well whatever it will be we'll be ready for it.

Laney: We sure will.

Max: Wow. You guys have done it all during that time.

Nico: We sure did and that was so much fun.

Lola: It sure was. Even though it was dirty I thought it was really good for the planet and all that.

Earth: I thought so too. It was amazing.

Laney: Yeah it was.

Cheetah: Are any of your other enemies active right now?

Max: As a matter of fact there is. Extroyer is active.

Nico: Oh man! Looks like we're going to have to kill him.

Me: Who is Extroyer?

Nico: You would not like this guy J.D.

Nico told us everything about him.

---

Extroyer (formerly known as Troy Winter) is one of the main antagonists from the Max Steel franchise. ---

When he was done we were shocked.

Me: Whoa man!

Nico: Yeah he is a dangerous and extremely psychopathic nutcase.

Me: Whoa man! He's fucked up to the core!

Eli: No kidding! We need to make sure he never hurts anyone again.

Vince: Looks like we're going to have to kill him.

Max: Yep. And he will die a painful death like Toxzon did.

Varie: Yep.

Tri-Klops: Why don't we have the usual battles before going after Extroyer?

Me: Good idea.

Max: And I know just the place to have them.

Max took us to an awesome Training Simulator Room in the headquarters.

Me: Wow! Your training simulator room is as big as ours back home.

Max: It sure is. Figured it would be perfect for the usual battles.

Nico: Cool!

Me: It's perfect.

Maria called in the members that are up for the Usual Battles.

Dr. Viktor, Speed Demon, Knightbrace, Toyman, Wolf O'Donnell, Trapster, Cheshire and Riddler then appeared.

Me: Dr. Viktor, Speed Demon, Knightbrace, Toyman, Wolf O'Donnell, Trapster, Cheshire and Riddler.

Knightbrace: Great seeing you all here.

Lola: Yeah.

Wolf: Well glad you all are back in action J.D.

Me: Yeah and we needed a lot of sleep after everything that happened.

Trapster: I can see that.

Dr. Viktor: I'm surprised N Tek even has a training room.

Nico: Well, Max needed to train somewhere.

Speed Demon: Good point.

Knightbrace: We heard about what happened to Billy.

Toyman: I hope you guys aren't too upset about it.

Me: Well we were at first but he left us no choice. He's on administrative suspension for smashing parts of the town all over. The town has been after him for 3 days now wanting to tar and feather him.

Knightbrace: GEEZ!

Dr. Viktor: That is crazy!

Speed Demon: No kidding.

Wolf: Yeah. But you made the right choice.

Me: Yeah.

Riddler: Riddle me this J.D. Are you better now that you and the Loud Kids have gotten sleep?

Me: I sure am. We all feel much better after everything that has been going on these last few days.

Riddler: Good.

?: That's a relief.

A figure came out and it was ANGOR from episodes 12 and 13 of Dino Thunder!

---

Angor is an anchor themed monster, who served Mesogog. He was created by Elsa. Angor serves as the major antagonist of the second and third parts of the episode "White Thunder" of Power Rangers Dino Thunder.

Angor

Angor was created by Elsa. Mesogog sent him to attack Reefside, while Trent fought Conner and Kira. Hayley noticed him and told the rangers about him. Rangers formed their Thundersaurus Megazord and battled Angor. Angor fought rangers for a long time and used his ability of firing lasers in flight. Angor nearly overpowered Megazord, but rangers summoned new Parasaurzord and formed new formation - Thundersaurus Megazord Parasaur Final Cut. Angor was eventually destroyed by this new formation.

Angor 1.5

In the thirteenth episode Mesogog revived and modified Angor. Mesogog sent Angor to attack Reefside and distract rangers, while he and Zeltrax will find Trent. Angor attacked Reefside and Tommy, Ethan and Kira battled Angor. Rangers summoned their Zords and battled Angor. Cephalozord, Dimetrozord and Parasaurzord fought Angor for a long time with aids of Tommy's Brachio Staff and Kira's Maximum Blaster. However Mesogog recalled Angor, considering the further battle meaningless. Later Mesogog sent Angor to capture Trent, who already formed DinoStegazord. However this try was also useless, DinoStegazord destroyed Angor with Tail Attack and Stega Lasers.

---

Trent Fernandez: Angor!

Angor: Been a while White Ranger.

Me: I remember you! You were sent by Mesogog to attack Reefside while Trent fought Connor and Kira.

Angor: That's right. You really have a good memory on you J.D.

Me: Thanks. Never missed an episode.

Angor: (to Trent) I remember that you were the last one to destroy me, White Ranger.

Trent Fernandez: Feels like yesterday.

Me: I remember seeing that. That was awesome and crazy.

Angor: It sure was.

Nico: Yeah.

?: I think it's funny.

A bunch of figures came out and it was THE EMPTY HEAD SOCIETY!

---

The Empty Head Society, or E.H.S. for short, is a club that appears in the episode "The Nitwitting."

The Empty Head Society is a club where people can, as Patrick states, "give their powerful intellects a rest" by removing their brains, reducing them to complete idiots. The club is located in a cardboard box and is centered around the idiotic and zany hijinks that result from the stupidity of the various members. The president of the society is the Ice Cream King.

While the species and appearance of the members vary, each member of the Empty Head Society wears a red propeller hat to signify that they are part of the club, with the Ice Cream King wearing a red propeller hat with a crown to signify his job as president.

Due to the club's stupidity and their habit of making messes when unleashed upon Bikini Bottom, there is another club called F.E.M.A., meaning "Fix the Emptyheads Mess Again!," that is dedicated to the cleanup of Bikini Bottom after the Empty Head Society wrecks it.

Notable members

Ice Cream King (president)

Ice Cream King's secretary

Patrick Star

Howard Blandy

Sheldon (fish)

Dennis (citizen)

Electric eel

Check-in lobster

Unnamed blobfish

Unnamed swordfish

Rituals

As a club, the Empty Head Society has various rituals that they perform, though they are very odd due to the members' stupidity.

The club has a special handshake that is performed between two people, and consists of grabbing the other person's tongue and shaking it like a hand.

The club holds monthly meetings that start with a club member dropping a cinder block on their feet, causing them to scream and warn the other club members of the meeting. The club members then rush to the front of a stage, which usually ends up as a big dog pile that doubles as the meeting's seating plan.

The Ice Cream King will then address the club and get his secretary to read the minutes from the back of a Kelpo cereal box, before kicking the secretary away and asking if there are any new members. New members need to demonstrate their stupidity, which the Ice Cream King rewards with a medal of trash.

The other club members then put their saliva in a jar for the new member to date and store, before encouraging the new member to drink some lemonade, though drinking the saliva will earn the member another medal.

The Ice Cream King would then talk about helping the citizens of Bikini Bottom via some civic duty, an event the club names "the Nitwitting." The club members would then perform their club oath, before taking to Bikini Bottom's streets and "helping" the town using their insane methods, which often lead to more harm than help.

Role in episode

After SpongeBob and Patrick cycle through the Barg'N-Mart blindfolded, they end up behind the supermarket where the Empty Head Society's clubhouse is located. Patrick says he has to go in for a meeting, interesting SpongeBob and causing him to join Patrick. Inside, the pair see several members of the Empty Head Society do stupid things before reaching a check-in where they swap their brains for hats. A club member then injures himself, signifying the start of a meeting led by the Ice Cream King.

Patrick encourages SpongeBob to join by launching him towards the Ice Cream King, who becomes impressed by SpongeBob when he injures himself. The club members then fill a jar with spit and pass it to SpongeBob, who accidentally drinks it instead of storing, dating it, and drinking some lemonade, though the Ice Cream King rewards him for his mistake. The King goes on to tell the club about their duty to help Bikini Bottom, before he and the other members sing the club's oath and set out to help on their miniature boatmobiles.

The Empty Head Society head into Bikini Bottom and scare the citizens, before splitting up and causing havoc at Bowl, Larry's gym, and a traffic intersection. SpongeBob questions the group's helping, and is later yelled at by the Ice Cream King for not being stupid enough, causing SpongeBob to quit the club.

Later, SpongeBob regains his brain and goes to clean up after the Empty Head Society, only to find that everything has been fixed. He then runs into Sandy, who reveals that she is part of a club dedicated to cleaning the messes made by the Empty Head Society. The two are then ambushed by the club, who sing their club oath as Patrick drives into them and then into the camera, ending the episode.

---

SpongeBob: The Empty Head Society!

Nico: You guys are all now part of the Masters of Evil?

Ice Cream King: We sure are.

Uncle Grandpa: (Laughs) He really does sound just like me!

Maria: He sure does huh. I thought it was really funny.

Lola: It sure is.

Ice Cream King: But we took your advice to heart and decided to be part of the Master of Evil.

Me: As long as you don't drive them crazy like Squidward did when they tried to recruit him.

Squidward: Yeah and I can't believe I was like that.

Me: Also I didn't notice but I didn't know that Howard Blandy is part of the club too.

Nico: Yeah and he reminds me of a certain redneck fuckup that America hates.

Howard Blandy: (Stupidly) What is a redneck?

Me: Don't ask. Who will be your archenemy?

Ice Cream King: We chose the Three Stooges.

Moe: Us as your archenemies! That's great!

Curly: Oh boy! We get our own archenemies!

Larry Fine: This is gonna be awesome!

Luan: My heroes with their own archenemies. That's awesome!

Moe: But to make it even lets have Patrick, Mr. Krabs, Uncle Grandpa, Pinkie Pie and Leni be part of the team for us.

Mr. Krabs: Not a bad idea.

Pinkie Pie: I like it.

Patrick Star: Oh boy!

Uncle Grandpa: This is gonna be so fun!

Leni: But me and Pinkie Pie already have archenemies.

Nico: Think of it as part of a theme for the group.

Me: Not a bad idea.

Another figure came out and it was JUDGE DOOM A.K.A. BARON VON ROTTEN!

Maria: So you must be Baron Von Rotten. Or do you prefer Judge

Doom?

Baron Von Rotten: That's right! And I'm here to kill you J.D. and Vince! For killing me!

Me: I thought we had seen the last of you after we killed you the last time!

Vince: Yeah!

Twilight Sparkle: Who is he?

Me: His name is Baron Von Rotten. You guys would hate this guy. He beat the living shit out of me after Vince moved to Michigan and he started dating Carol.

Carol: I remember that!

Evelyn: That is nuts!

Me: He has a horrible history.

I went over everything.

Baron von Rotten (non-canon graphic novel only), or better known as Judge Doom, is the main antagonist of the 1988 Disney/ Touchstone live-action/animated film Who Framed Roger Rabbit. He is the (former, by the end of the movie) judge of Toontown, Eddie Valiant's arch-nemesis, the owner and CEO of Cloverleaf Industries and the boss of the Toon Patrol.

He was portrayed by Christopher Lloyd, who also played Grigori Rasputin in Don Bluth's Anastasia, The Hacker in Cyberchase, Merlock in DuckTales the Movie: Treasure of the Lost Lamp, Lord Imaru in Golden Films' The Secret Treasure of Machu Picchu, Bill Crowley in I Am Not A Serial Killer, Dr. Heep in Baby Geniuses, Kruge in the Star Trek universe, and Master Xehanort in Kingdom Hearts III Re:Mind. His high-pitched voice was provided by Corey Burton, who also played Captain Hook in Return to Never Land.

For the majority of the film, Doom poses as a high-ranking judge. However, he employs tactics that are at odds with traditional views of justice, such as the employment of a treacherous mob of five toon weasel gangsters known as the Toon Patrol (whom he has hired as his new henchmen) and the execution of Toons through a ghastly green chemical paint thinner solution called the Dip, which is said to be the only way to truly kill a Toon forever.

During the start of the film, Toontown owner Marvin Acme was found dead as a large safe fell into his head at the Acme Factory. Suspicions points out to a Toon rabbit named Roger (due to pictures of Marvin playing "patty-cake" with Roger's human wife Jessica) and Eddie Valiant gets into hot water for provoking Roger with the pictures in the first place. Judge Doom arrives to the scene, as he swears to catch, convict, and execute Roger for the murder. Eddie was also told that Doom became a judge due to spending millions of dollars to buy the judicial election.

In desperation to prove his innocence, Roger seeks help and advice from Eddie, despite the latter's reluctance to get involved in another case involving a Toon, due to a bad case when a Toon robber murdered his brother Teddy while getting away with a zillion simoleons, which made Eddie extremely cynical of Toons.

However, Eddie soon learns of a hidden will that Acme has bestowed which will allow the Toons to have ownership of Toontown, and that a company called Cloverleaf Industries (which has already bought the local trolley company known as the Red Car) will buy Toontown unless Acme's will shows up by midnight. Eddie also learns that he was used as a patsy by studio head R.K. Maroon in an attempt to blackmail Acme into selling Toontown to Cloverleaf, so that Maroon could sell his studio to Cloverleaf for $3,000,000. Arriving at Maroon's office, Eddie confronts Maroon, who confessed that he only wanted to blackmail Acme with the pictures as Cloverleaf refused to buy the studio unless Acme sold Toontown to them first. However, before Maroon could explain further, he is murdered by an unknown gunman.

At first, Eddie believed the gunman to be Jessica as she was in the studio during the murder, but he soon learned that Doom was the real murderer after following Jessica into Toontown. However, anticipating that he would be followed, Doom traps Eddie, Roger and Jessica, and has the Toon Patrol to hold them captive at the Acme factory.

At the Acme factory, Doom confessed to be the true owner of Cloverleaf Industries as he explained his true plan: to destroy Toontown in order to build a freeway over the entire area. To that end, he has built a huge vehicle that can literally erase Toontown from existence via the use of high-pressured cannons filled with Dip. Doom also explained that he killed both Acme and Maroon and framed Roger to cover his tracks, and that he bought the Red Car to dismantle it so that he can retire as a jurist and take control of the profits of the new road system.

Doom orders the Toon Patrol to tie up both Roger and Jessica to have them sprayed with Dip, but Eddie foils this by making the weasels literally laugh themselves to death with crazy antics, much to Doom's strong annoyance. Deciding to take matters in his own hands, Doom fights Eddie, but ends up squashed flat by a steamroller.

However, Doom survives being squashed, revealing himself to be a Toon using fake props to hide his unknown true appearance. After inflating himself again with an oxygen tank, he reveals himself, much to Eddie's horror, as the same Toon who murdered Eddie's brother, Teddy Valiant, thus triggering his hatred towards Toons and explaining how Doom managed to buy the judicial election and the trolley car company in the first place.

His voice grew higher until it reaches a horrifyingly high pitch and his eyes turn to daggers, showing Doom's intent that he is now out to kill him as well.

With an evil grin, Doom sprouts a cartoon anvil and buzz-saw to kill Eddie, but the latter uses a Toon glove-loaded hammer to open the vehicle's Dip vat, leaving Doom doused in his own concoction. As he begins to melt, Doom shows more of his "Toony" nature as he cannot resist doing a direct spoof of the Wicked Witch of the West's death throes (screaming in pain that he is melting) in The Wizard of Oz.

He finally melts in a flood of Dip and fatally dissolves, leaving behind only his clothes, fake teeth, and rubber mask. Following the arrival of the police, Eddie exposed Doom's plan to clear Roger's name, and Roger found out that the will was in his love letter all along, as Acme used disappearing ink to hide the contents, thus leaving the Toons in ownership of Toontown for good. When the other Toons come to investigate, they all wonder what Doom really was and what he actually looked like under the mask; however, they soon realize that it does not matter what Doom was as they are now safe from his wrath forever and celebrate their victory. Thus, Doom died a sadist who used racism and greed as excuses to hide his true nature. Celebrating their victory and with the Tooniverse at peace, the Toons return home and live happily ever after.

When I was done everyone was shocked!

Nico: Oh man! I remember hearing about that from Vince! That was nuts!

Eli: No kidding and he this guy is the worst toon ever!

Me: One of the most fucked up we have ever seen!

Baron Von Rotten: You remember me J.D.!? When I beat the shit out of you, (SQUEAKING VOICE) I talked.. JUST.. LIKE… THIIISS!

Me: And I will kill you like we did before! But we're not the same as we were when we faced you before Rotten!

Vince: That's right! we're more powerful than ever before!

Me: Lets get them guys!

We went at them.

Star Swirl: No kidding. I'm sorry they had to through all that.

Emerald Sustrai: Yeah. But thank goodness that Dr. Lopez was able to help them out.

Illia: I agree on that.

Dr. Viktor: I agree on that too. Lets do it!

Dr. Viktor fired blasts of purple lightning at them and they dodged the blasts and fired blasts of lightning and magic and energy and smashed him down.

Will Vandom: Yeah!

Twilight Sparkle: That was awesome!

---

Speed Demon was next.

Speed Demon: (to Jaden) It must've been hard to kick Billy out.

Jaden: Yeah it was. But he's not gonna be gone forever.

Sunset Shimmer: This is more of an administrative suspension for him.

Gusty: Billy's stupidity has been driving the town completely bonkers over the last few days and they reached the breaking point when he destroyed the school.

Sour Sweet: Yeah and now the whole town wants to rip him apart.

Sunny Flare: And tar and feather him or mount his head on a pike.

Speed Demon: That's brutal!

Jaden: No kidding. We're thinking of this as a vacation for him until the people cool down.

Speed Demon: I see. Good way to put it. Lets do it!

Carter: He never suspected a thing actually. He is that stupid.

Fluttershy: But this is for his own good. I was against it at first but I think he needs this.

Mage Meadowbrook: I think so too. The poor dear. If only there was a way we can make him smart.

Pharaoh Man: Indeed. Then he could easily be more manageable and helpful instead of being a totally brainless idiot that eats his own boogers every time.

Turbo Man: Yeah.

Toyman: Gross but I agree. Lets do it.

Toyman fired laser blasts and they dodged them and went at him and fired energy and lightning and fire blasts and smashed him down.

Wolf: Think nothing of it guys. But just be ready if you guys face Pigma infected with the Aparoids.

Scootaloo: But Pigma was banished to the Warp wasn't he?

Wolf: Yes he was. But the Aparoids have a powerful memory and they remember everything that happened to them and there is a strong possibility that they will bring Pigma back.

Flash Magnus: Oh man! That's not good. After everything that he did to Fox and his father and all that.

Cheetah: No kidding. Nicole showed us what Pigma became when he was infected by the Aparoids and that is horrible!

Fuzzy: It sure was.

Wolf: Yeah we were grossed out too.

Sparkstalker: If Nico can take him on like he did before he joined us then we can handle him as well.

Fangry: Absolutely!

Cheshire: I have a strong faith in you guys. Lets do it!

Battle 11: Me and Vince VS Baron Von Rotten & Number 110: Ocean Dwelling Eel Dragon

Me and Vince were facing Baron Von Rotten.

Me: You need to be erased from existance like the bad toon you are!

Vince: Big time!

We powered up and I went Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix-Harmony 500,000,000 and Vince went Super Angel 30,000!

Me: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice) Lets take him down!

Vince: Lets do it!

We went at him and mercilessly pounded and pulverized and slashed him all over with our swords and more and made sure he suffered for his crimes. Baron Von Rotten turned his fist into an anvil and I caught his punch and kicked him in the face and then he formed his hand into a sawblade and grew it to as big as a window and he tried to slash us and I stopped the blade with my bare hands and fire and sparks came out of the blade as it was being stopped and I was absorbing the fire and I then ripped his hand off and kicked him down.

Vince: Try this one on! TURPENTINE STYLE NINJA ART: LIQUIFYING DIP WAVE!

He fired waves of DIP and it knocked down Baron Von Rotten and he screamed as he was being dissolved and he was melting and then a Number Card came out and I grabbed it.

Baron Von Rotten: I'M MELTING! (SCREAMING IN PAIN) I'M MELTING! MELTING!

Me: That line is so overused. And it's 82 years old. And you are banished to the Warp. (Holds hand out) HAKAI!

He was banished to the Warp forever.

I got the Number and looked at it.

Me: Number 110: Ocean Dwelling Eel Dragon? This one is new.

Vince: It sure is. But that's the last of Baron Von Rotten the Insane.

Me: Yep. You said it partner. And we made sure he would never beat us up again or destroy any toon ever.

Vince: Yep.

---

The usual battles were done.

Me: That's it for the usual battles. Lets go after Extroyer.

Steel: Before we find where Extroyer is, Maria, I have a question.

Maria: Which is?

Steel: What's your relationship with Nico? Because I know Nico's married to May and that William's your boyfriend.

Bludgeon: That's actually a good question.

Maria: We're more like brother and sister. Ever since Nico moved in we've developed a brotherly and sisterly bond.

Nico: It's true.

Qin: Same with me. Nico and I have known each other since we were in 2nd grade. When I was reunited with him and joined the team I was so happy to see him again. And I was even happier to hear that he and May were dating.

Candy: It's true and I'm Nico's ex and I view him as a brother too.

Steel: Wow! Those are powerful bonds.

Me: Yep.

Cad Bane: Alright. Now, to find where Extroyer is.

Me: That's gonna be like looking for a needle in a haystack.

Commander Forge: We found him last in the mountains of Colorado in South Park.

Me: I remember South Park. Boy I haven't been there in like forever since my family last went to visit Breckenridge.

Eli: Cool!

Me: Then we better get over there and fast.

We went to South Park.

South Park, Colorado.

---

We arrived.

Me: Here we are guys. Welcome to South Park, Colorado. Usually when my family and I head over to Breckenridge we cut through South Park to get there.

Eli: That's cool!

Lola: This place is a vast grassland area.

Nico: But it's amazing. Hard to imagine that South Park the TV Show is named after this area here in Colorado.

Me: I know. And I hate that show South Park. Even though a lot of people like it.

Sparkstalker: Okay. Let's split up and search for Extroyer.

William: Right! Let's call each other when we find him.

Me: We have 640,000 acres of land to cover.

Eli: I can just use the Force to find him.

Me: That helps.

Eli concentrated and used the Force to detect the presence of Extroyer.

Eli: (Gasp) (Points to the south) He's behind that hill right there!

I fired an energy blast and it hit the hill and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion sent a figure toward us and it was EXTROYER! In the Flesh and Crystal!

Me: Extroyer!

Extroyer: Impressive how you were able to flush me out! To bad it will be your last time!

Nico: Been a long time Extroyer.

Extroyer: Nico Chan. It has been a while you fool.

Kangor: (to Max) You didn't tell us he had crystal on his body, mon!

Max: It's a weird story Kangor but you never asked.

Kangor: Oh right.

Me: Extroyer your time has come!

I snapped my fingers and we were on the volcanic planet Alhmacan!

Nico: Whoa! This planet looks scary!

Vince: Planet Alhmacan. Great choice J.D.

Me: Thanks Partner.

Nico: Wow.

We were in a force field to protect us from the searing heat.

Me: This planet is perfect for your final resting place.

Extroyer: (laughs) You really think you can beat me? When you all fired one of your friends this morning?

Nico: Do you think we wanted to suspend Billy? Well, we didn't!

Cynder: It's one of our hard choices in life! Something you wouldn't understand!

Me: That's right you crystal freak! Besides we DID NOT fire him. He was put on administrative suspension till the heat is off. Now we are going to kill you.

Nico: You tried to kill Max several times and hurt many innocent people. With NoFace, I had a choice. With you, I don't.

Max: (puts hand on my shoulder) What do you say we send him to the Warp? At the same time?

Max and Nico held their hands out to him.

Another awesome adventure done.

Extroyer of Max Steel was ruthless and evil. Also I think this one was awesome. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Drako1234658 and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is an awesome show that Nico got me into and it's called Dinosaur King. We're gonna be in for an awesome prehistoric adventure as we help D-Team kill some of their worst enemies and learn all about the worlds of dinosaurs. First we're going to kill Gabbro of the Spectral Space Pirates and make sure he never terrorizes anyone again.

See you all tomorrow.

King of Dinosaurs VS Space Pirates

Carmen was at the Mall and she was hanging out with some friends.

Solar Man: Has anyone seen Carmen the last few days?

Me: She told us that she has something to do.

We were doing some Spring Cleaning. I was cleaning the windows and using my tail to dust the chandelier. Fluttershy and Rainbow Dash were cleaning the ceiling fans.

Lincoln: Nothing like doing Spring Cleaning.

Heffer: (Singing) Spring Cleaning, Spring Cleaning!

Lola: Good song Heffer.

Family: He have 3 elder sisters and parents who are almost 50. They (my parents are born from 2 different grandparents.)

Appearance wise:

He have black hair and hazel brown eyes, he wears glasses, He is of tall and skinny build, and he is taller than Luna but shorter than Leni and Lori, He wears a yellow T-shirt and blue pants that goes up to the length of my thighs, and he wear crew-length socks and yellow, black and blue shoes.

Personality wise: He'd say he would be kinda smart though gullible and foolish at times, he also is kinda somewhere between being extroverted and introverted. He happens to have autism but he happens to be sociable, though he don't show it that often. He tends to be temperamental but he takes medication for it every evening.

Interests:

He happen to be interested in tech-related stuff and the like, he also am good at editing videos, and he likes playing Minecraft and Fortnite.

He also like doing papercrafts and drawing very much.

Powers and Abilities: He happen to have Techno powers, which is very similar to that of Cyborg in the DC Extended Universe.

Origins of his powers: He got them when he was a pre-teen. He was cleaning up his room when he heard a noise. He went out of my room and discovered a strange-looking box that came from outer space. It was of unknown origins. He came closer, trying to see what's inside, then the box mysteriously opened and out came a beam of light, which shot and struck him. That's when he got techno powers! The box then disintegrated into dust, and vanished into nothing.

Me: It's awesome having you with us Ets.

Ets: Same here J.D. and it's a great honor to be part of the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm. I love all your adventures and love everything you do.

Eli: We are all honored you can join us.

Ets: I will not let you all down.

Me: We know you won't.

Ets showed his Technokinetic powers and he fixed an antique radio that we had stored away and it was good as new. His powers were like a mixture of both Cyborg's and Cooper Daniels.

Cooper Daniels: I think it's so amazing that you have technokinetic powers like me.

Ets: Thanks Cooper. It sure is.

Carmen the came back.

Carmen: I'm home.

Me: Hey Carmen.

Firecracker Burst: Hey, Carmen. Where've you been?

Carmen: Out shopping at the mall.

Me: Boy we can see that. You got a lot of bags there.

Maria: Yeah what did you get?

Carmen: Clothes, jewelry, perfume, everything.

Leni: I bet it's all gonna be totes amazing.

Carmen: It sure is. Wow! What are you guys doing?

Me: Spring Cleaning. I told you we were gonna be cleaning this whole place.

Carmen: Oh right! I forgot about that. Sorry I was busy.

Me: It's all right.

Nico: Yeah we still got plenty of things to do.

ZOOM!

Rainbow Dash came running in with a bunch of boxes.

Rainbow Dash: Look what I found.

We saw that she had a bunch of boxes full of toys.

Me: Hey wow! My old Transformer Toys.

Cheetor: Cool!

Ets: Awesome!

Me: Cool!

Carmen: Yeah.

Hotlink: Carmen, who exactly are these new friends of yours?

Carmen: They are Ursula, Zander and Ed.

Nicole: Ursula, Zander and Ed? Those names are very familiar to me.

Me: How did you meet these guys?

I was cleaning the books.

Carmen: I met them at the grocery store.

Laney: Sounds very coincidental.

Nicole: I know I've heard those names before but where have I heard them?

Maria: I'm starting to think that Carmen's so called "New Friends" aren't so friendly as Carmen think they are.

Katie Rockell: I agree with you, sweetie.

Horsea: I'm sure you guys are just saying that because of all the stress from the last few missions. I actually think it's good that Carmen's making new friends that we haven't met yet.

Crosshairs: (glares at Horsea) Horsea, you're grounded from eating berries for two days.

Horsea: Aww.

Me: Crosshairs, girls I understand your concern and I think something is up. Also I have a strong feeling that Carmen is falling in with the wrong crowd.

Nicole: I know I have heard those names before.

Me: We better go see what is going on.

Nico: Good idea.

Nicole: (Gasp) I remember them! Ursula, Zander and Ed are members of the Alpha Team.

Me: Who are the Alpha Team?

Nicole: It's a weird story but believe it or not, Ursula, Zander and Ed are in every way like Jessie, James and Meowth before they left Team Rocket. You would love them Jessie and you three would be great friends with them.

Jessie (Pokemon): Really?

Nicole: You sure would and you and Ursula both have something in common. Ursula absolutely HATES being called Old as much as you do.

Jessie (Pokemon): Wow! That's amazing.

Nico: Can you tell us all about them Nicole?

Nicole: I sure can Nico.

Nicole told us all about them.

The Alpha Gang (アクト団 Akuto-dan, "Mission/Team ACT") is a group from 2126 AD. Dr. Z, their leader, wants all the dinosaurs so he can build his own Dinosaur Kingdom and rule over it as the Dinosaur King (the same as the title of the series). They also want the six Stone Tablets to summon and control the dinosaurs. They are based at Zeta Point for all but the last few episodes of Season 1 of the anime. Unless otherwise noted, most of this page concerns the anime exclusively, as it is their most expansive portrayal.

Name Meaning

The English "Alpha Gang" is in reference to the large "A" emblem used by the group's Japanese appearance, "alpha" being "A"'s Greek equivalent at the beginning of the alphabet, also contrasting Dr. "Z" and "Zeta" Point for the end of the alphabet, a joke that did not exist in the original Japanese.

The Japanese "Team ACT" is of less obvious origins, possibly involving its pronunciation "a-ku-to" including "aku", Japanese for "evil".

Arcade

The Alpha Gang are the main antagonists of early version story campaigns, each member facing the player with dinosaurs of a certain Element with Dr. Z as the final boss. They are in the past trying to capture all of the dinosaurs, and the D-Team is brought back in time by a mysterious stone to stop them. Mid-campaign, Rex is captured, so Max is joined by Zoe at the Alpha Fortress to free him, destroying the base with Lightning Strikes from several Lightning Dinosaurs as the Alpha Gang retreats without any dinosaur cards.

Anime

The Alpha Gang are the main antagonists of the first season, based at the artificial island Zeta Point, trying to capture the newest dinosaur-of-the-episode or going after some other object of value. Their main agents, the Alpha Trio of Ursula, Zander, and Ed, are bumbling idiots and bad at their job, often failing in comedic ways, though children Rod and Laura are later secretly dispatched by Seth to much greater effect, having otherwise been confined by the maid, Helga, to keep up on their homework. The Alpha Gang members were initially part of Dr. Ancient's team who used the Backlander timeship powered by the Stones to travel to the Mesozoic and preserve dinosaur species from the extinction, but Dr. Z and Seth had mutinied mid-mission, resulting in the ship crashing in the present and becoming Zeta Point, scattering the gathered dinosaur cards across the world. During the finale arc, however, Seth betrays them for his own purposes and the Alpha Gang joins with the D-Team to defeat their common enemy. They subsequently "rebuke their evil ways" and become good(-ish), staying on-and-off allies of varying usefulness throughout the second season, and though late-season Dr. Z tries acquiring the Cosmos Stones to become Dinosaur King, his efforts don't get very far.

The Alpha Gang often uses Alpha Droids to assist in their missions, overly-obedient robots who are rather clumsy and only as smart as the person controlling them (who, typically, isn't that smart). The Alpha Trio usually arrives at the new dinosaur's location in a one-off vehicle built by Dr. Z. Dr. Z was also the original inventor of Move Cards and "recreates" several at the beginning of the season for the Alpha Gang's usage. Additionally, all 4 (6, counting the Deinonychus trio as 3) of the Secret Dinosaurs of season 1 were created, raised, and trained by Dr. Z, and all end up outright hating his guts for the trouble (though Therizinosaurus and maybe Pachycephalosaurus come around by the ends of their episodes).

The Alpha Gang summon and control dinosaurs with Alpha Scanners powered by a Stone. They own Terry ( Tirano ) the Tyrannosaurus, Spiny ( Spino ) the Spinosaurus, and Tank ( Saika ) the Saichania. Terry was already with them at the first episode, implying his card remained after the Backlander crashed, along with the Fire and Center Stones; Spiny, Tank, and the Water and Earth Stones were retrieved in rapid succession. Despite defeating numerous others throughout the season, the Alpha Trio was only able to claim five more dinosaurs and several Move Card dinosaurs, but lost them all, typically within 1-3 episodes. Rod, Laura, and Seth later stepped in and successfully caught 3 more dinosaurs (as well as finding the enigmatic Velociraptor card) and were able to keep them until the finale arc, when Seth's betrayal (taking Saurophaganax) forced them to side with the D-Team. In the battle against Seth's revived, genetically altered Black T-Rex, Rod, Laura, and Dr. Z summoned several other dinosaurs like Euoplocephalus and Daspletosaurus alongside the D-Team as a small dinosaur army; Rod and Laura then used Megalosaurus and Deinonychus after Jonathan delivered them to Rex. Dr. Z and the Trio are put under "house arrest" in the Backlander's bathroom as it tries returning to the future under Dr. Ancient…

… but the Spectral Space Pirates' attack forces it back, the D-Team giving Dr. Z a chance to "fix" the time machine, accidentally leaving Rod and Laura in the present as it flies them into the past after the Pirates. During the second season, the Alpha Gang no longer act in a villainous role, instead teaming up with the D-Team in concept by sharing the unsteerable time machine, though usually acting independently. This is partly to reclaim the Space Pirates' dinosaurs, but also mostly to get the Cosmos Stones or other random things in each time period's arc, though their missions typically flounder in the background of the episode. Just like in Season 1, they acquire very few new dinosaurs (into a group collection with the D-Team instead of for themselves), only claiming Edmontonia despite also defeating several others, but they use Anhanguera (Anhanguera Dive) obtained by the D-Team and reuse Futabasaurus. They also get several new Move Cards from Dr. Z plus two Move Cards of the Space Pirates' dinosaurs (also obtained by the D-Team), but only their Ultimate Moves manage to defeat some dinosaurs of the Space Pirates. In the series finale, they aid the D-Team in breaking into the Dark Pterosaur, but their dinosaurs are all defeated in battle by the Space Pirates' altered dinosaurs (though Terry managed to at least defeat Gigas at the same time). They again leave for the future, this time not locked up.

DS Game

The Alpha Gang arrives near the beginning of the story and steals a DinoShot and Tyrannosaurus card, becoming the main antagonists of the game. Their Alpha Droids controlling dinosaurs are random encounter opponents, with their members being mini-bosses for each area. Dr. Z is the final boss.

When she was finished we gasped.

Me: Whoa man!

Ets: These guys sound like they are trouble.

Nico: Yeah!

Eli: But it's good that Dr. Z changed his ways.

Me: It sure is and I bet the dinosaurs that this D-Team meets are awesome.

Rainbow Dash: I was just about to say the same thing and we met many kinds of dinosaurs.

Aylene C.: We sure have. Some of them are great friends and more.

Littlefoot: They sure are.

Burst Man: Carmen, we're telling you that your new friends are criminals!

Maria: Burst Man's right! Think about it. They're meeting in secret, they're creating cover stories!

Carmen: I'm sure that's not the case!

Katie Rockell: Really? Well, young lady, the D-Team are familiar with those names. So, how about we go meet them to find out the whole story?

Carmen: That's a good idea.

Nicole: Katie is right Carmen. I know the Alpha Gang too. They are more like incompetent minions. But we'd better go check just to be sure.

Nico: Also I've head about the D-Team. The Dinosaurs that they meet are amazing.

Aylene C.: I have a feeling I'm going to like these guys.

Littlefoot: Same with me and my friends.

Cera: Yeah they sound cool too.

Laney: Yeah.

Knightbrace, Speed Demon, Cheshire, Riddler, Trapster, Wolf, Toyman, and Dr. Viktor then appeared.

Knightbrace: Can me, Speed Demon, Cheshire, Riddler, Trapster, Wolf, Toyman, and Dr. Viktor go with you guys?

Me: You all sure can. You guys will love meeting the D-Team. We heard so much about what they do and it's amazing.

Cheshire: They go after all kinds of dinosaurs right?

Aylene C.: They sure do. And it's awesome that do that.

Lola: Where are they at?

Me: Scans say that they are in Buenos Aires, Argentina. A dinosaur was terrorizing the place. Lets get over there.

We were off to Buenos Aires, Argentina. A R

BUENOS AIRES, ARGENTINA

We arrived in Buenos Aires, Argentina.

Me: Here we are guys. Buenos Aires, Argentina.

Winter Soldier: I don't see any dinosaur.

Me: Well here in the 21st Century they would not be hard to spot.

We heard a roar and then out from behind a building we saw a BAJADASAURUS!

Bajadasaurus is a genus of sauropod dinosaur from the Early Cretaceous epoch (late Berriasian to Valanginian stages, between 145 and 132.9 million years ago) of northern Patagonia, Argentina. It was first described in 2019 based on a single specimen found in 2010 that includes a largely complete skull and parts of the neck. The only species is Bajadasaurus pronuspinax . The genus is classified as a member of the Dicraeosauridae, a group of relatively small and short-necked sauropods.

Bajadasaurus sported bifurcated, extremely elongated neural spines extending from the neck. Similarly elongated spines are known from the closely related and more completely known Amargasaurus . Various possible functions have been proposed for these spines in Amargasaurus, with the 2019 description of Bajadasaurus suggesting that they could have served as passive defense against predators in both genera. The skull was slender and equipped with around 48 teeth that were pencil-shaped and restricted to the front of the jaws. The eye openings of Bajadasaurus were exposed in top view, possibly allowing the animal to look forwards while feeding. Bajadasaurus was discovered in sedimentary rocks of the Bajada Colorada Formation, which were deposited by braided rivers. It shared its environment with other dinosaurs including the sauropod Leinkupal and different theropods.

Me: Whoa! That's a Bajadasaurus!

Eli: Wow! I've never seen one before!

Me: They are a fairly new discovered species of dinosaur and they lived here in South America from 145 to 132.9 million years ago!

Ets: That is so cool!

Nico: Wow! It looks like a dinosaur with dreadlocks.

Lori: It sure does doesn't it?

Aylene C.: Wow! That is amazing.

Edzilla: ED SMASH DINOSAUR!

Leni: No Ed!

Me: It's okay Ed. This kind of dinosaur is a plant eating dinosaur. He only eats plants.

Laney: Let me handle this.

Laney grew a vine full of leaves and walked up to the dinosaur and held it out and it smelled the leaves and ate them.

Laney: It's all right. I mean you no harm.

Edzilla: (pouts) Aww. Ed wanted to smash!

Cheshire: (pats him on the pack) Maybe next time, Ed.

Me: Besides this is so cool seeing a dinosaur like this here.

?: Boy it sure is.

A group came out and it was D-TEAM!

Maximus "Max" Taylor / Ryuta Kodai (古代 リュウタ, Kodai Ryūta)

Voiced by: Megumi Matsumoto (Japanese); Veronica Taylor (English)

Max Taylor is the son of a paleontologist Dr. Spike Taylor. He is the unofficial leader of D-Team. Max is mostly seen wearing a visor that has Triceratops horns which double as flashlights. He is very brash, impulsive and does not generally think his actions through. Max deeply cares for dinosaurs and hates how the Alpha Gang abuses them. His partner is a Triceratops called Chomp, which he named because he chomps away on anything he can get his mouth on. Besides having Chomp, Max owns some most of the lightning and water wild dinosaurs that they claim.

Rex Owen (レックス・オーエン, Rekkusu Ōen)

True name: Rex Ancient (used in the 4Kids English dub only)

Voiced by: Matsuri Mizuguchi (Japanese); Sebastian Arcelus (English)

Max's best friend. Rex was found as an infant by paleontologist Dr. Owen in an egg-like container within a dinosaur exhibit in New York. Rex is now 12 and has been left with Max and his family while his father goes searching for fossils with Dr. Owen being a family friend of the Taylor family. It is revealed in one episode that Rex was left at Max's house because his father wanted him to be near a real family. Rex's partner is a Carnotaurus he named Ace. Rex also owns most of the fire and wind dinosaurs. Rex is a good-hearted boy and is relatively quiet, but also quite short-tempered from the beginning. At the end of the first series, it is revealed that Rex's real parents are Dr. Ancient and Dr. Cretacia and he reunites with them. In the finale, Rex, the Alpha Gang, Seth, Chomp, Ace, Paris and the Ancients return to the year 2126.

Zoe Drake / Malm Tatsuno (竜野 マルム, Tatsuno Marumu)

Voiced by: Tomoko Kobashi (Japanese); Kether Donohue (English)

The younger sister of Dr. Reese Drake whose sunglasses double as a camera. Zoe knows when to keep focused and cares deeply for her friends. Zoe sometimes shows to be excessively fond of some stars. She owns a Parasaurolophus called Paris and also most of the grass dinosaurs. Zoe's parents are both veterinarians and own an animal hospital. In the dub of episode "Vaccination Vacation," the Drake's home as well as the family was transported onto Zeta Point.

Dr. Spike Taylor / Dr. Kenryu Kodai (古代剣竜博士, Kodai Kenryū-hakase (lit. Ancient Stegosaur Doctor))

Voiced by: Naoya Uchida (Japanese); David Wills (English)

Dr. Spike Taylor is Max's father and a paleontologist. Like Max, Spike is obsessed with dinosaurs and runs the D-Lab. He wields a whip that often gets caught on things which are generally things he is not aiming for. Dr. Taylor can also be over-reactive when a dinosaur appears. He also saves the D-Team when they are cornered by the Alpha Gang, catches the new cards, and reclaims the lost Dino Holders from Seth. His name is a pun on "Spike Tail" (a nickname for Stegosaurus). In the "Mesozoic Meltdown" episodes, the Taylors, the Ancients, and the Drakes get captured by Spectral Space Pirates.

Dr. Reese Drake / Riasu Tatsuno (竜野 リアス, Tatsuno Riasu)

Voiced by: Eri Komiyama (Japanese); Rachael Lillis (English)

A scientist who is Zoe's older sister, Dr. Spike Taylor's assistant, a certified pilot, and the creator of the D-Team's Dino Holders. She maintains a calm personality at all times when around others and has a rather monotonic voice even when angry or embarrassed. Zander has feelings for Reese which she may or may not return given that she couldn't recognize Zander without her glasses. Reese stays at the D-Lab in the Mesozoic Meltdown with Rod and Laura and is later taken hostage by Seth and his Cryolophosaurus.

Max Taylor: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Zoe Drake: It's such an honor to meet you all.

Me: You must be D-Team.

Max: That's right. My name is Max Taylor.

Zoe Drake: I'm Zoe Drake.

Rex Owen: I'm Rex Owen.

Dr. Spike: Dr. Spike Taylor.

Dr. Reese: And I'm Dr. Reese Taylor.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you all.

Nicole: Spike and Reese it's great to see you again.

Dr. Spike: You too Nicole.

Dr. Reese: Awesome that you are part of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Nico: How do you know Dr. Taylor and Dr. Reese, Nicole?

Nicole: Dr. Spike Taylor and Dr. Reese Drake are colleagues of mine in the field of paleontology.

Ets: I thought you were mostly a geologist.

Nicole: I'm more than just a Geologist. I'm also a Volcanologist, Astronomer, Earth Scientist, Chemist, Paleobotanist and Paleontologist.

Nico: Wow! Those are awesome fields of science.

Lisa Loud: They most certainly are.

Twilight Sparkle: Wow! Nicole is really gifted.

Ets: She sure is.

We saw that they had little dinosaurs. They had a little triceratops, a parasaurolophus and a carnotaurus.

Aylene C.: Wow! You have a little triceratops, a parasaurolophus and a carnotaurus.

Max Taylor: Yep. This is Chomp.

Zoe Drake: This is Paris.

Rex Owen: and this is Ace.

Me: Wow.

Chomper: Looks like we have some new friends.

Littlefoot: We sure do.

Cera: They are awesome.

Ducky: Yes yes yes.

Petrie: Me agree.

Cut Man: I have to admit that these dinosaurs are cute like this.

Muscle Man: You know who else loves cute dinosaurs? My mom!

Rex Owen: Aren't you insulting your own mom with that joke?

Rigby: Dude, you shouldn't have asked that question.

Mordecai: Me and Rigby learned that the hard way.

Me: Yeah!

Muscle Man: You insult my mom!? YOU INSULT MY MOM!? NO ONE MAKES FUN OF MY MOM! NO ONE MAKES FUN OF MY MOM!

Eli did the Vulcan Nerve Pinch and knocked out Muscle Man.

Me: Rex don't ever do that. Mordecai and Rigby are not lying. The same thing happened to them and they regretted it. Big time.

Benson: Yeah it was not pretty.

Rex: Sorry.

Me: Yeah. But these dinosaurs are so cute.

Littlefoot: Just like me and my friends.

Chomper: I think so too.

Ducky: Yes yes yes.

Eli: They sure are.

Me: But please don't insult his mom Rex. Muscle Man is very sensitive about that. When Mordecai and Rigby did that the first time, he and his brother made them kiss and eat a photo of his butt that was altered to look like his mother.

Rex Owen: Geez.

Me: It was a form of torture. But you got to admit that was very clever.

Laney: It sure is.

Ets: I'll say.

Me: By the way Max, are you and Zoe uhh… Dating?

Max and Zoe blushed.

Max Taylor: Uh actually…

They looked at each other and blushed.

Everyone: Aww.

Max Taylor: We are actually. We just started.

Zoe Drake: How did you know that?

Me: It's a habit. I pick up on these things.

Nico: Yeah lots of us are dating and all that.

Varie: Yep and some of us are married.

Lori: Yep and it's literally true.

Bobby: And it's so awesome babe.

Princess Cadance: And we like it too.

Me: Yep.

Riddler: Riddle me this: Are the names Ursula, Zander and Ed familiar to any of you?

Maria: Because Carmen doesn't want to believe they're criminals.

Carmen: I'm pretty sure they aren't. I'm sure they're just innocent civilians and that we can all laugh at this whole misunderstanding.

Zoe: Actually they are our archenemies but they are not that dangerous. After everything that went on with us we we forgave them and now they help us from time to time.

Me: Wow. That's a big sense of redemption.

Nico: Yeah it is.

Carmen: Told you.

Me: But we better find them and check just to be sure. Also we came to help you kill some of your enemies.

Max Taylor: Awesome!

Me: Who is the leader of the Alpha Team?

Max Taylor: His name is Dr. Z.

Max went over his history.

---

Dr. Z ( Dr. ソーノイダ Dr. Sonoida ) is the main antagonist in the first series of Dinosaur King as the leader of the notorious Alpha Gang. However, after being betrayed by his long-time comrade, Seth, Dr. Z "changes" his ways and "joins" the D-Team's "cause" during season 2. He is voiced by Tetsuo Goto (Japanese) and Eric Stuart (English).

History

Living in the future, Dr. Z's early life included his adoption of the Alpha Trio and Rod and Laura's father. Some time later, he became involved in Dr. Ancient's time travel mission to rescue dinosaurs, departing to the Mesozoic on Christmas Day 2127. He subsequent began causing trouble, making the collected dinosaurs fight, secretly creating Move Cards, and raising his own super-powerful Secret Dinosaurs. He interrupts an attempt to return to the future, leading to the timeship crashing in the present and scattering the cards across the world.

Dinosaur King

Stationed at the artificial island of Zeta Point, Dr. Z typically starts off each episode by sending the Alpha Trio to obtain the latest dinosaur card that has activated. He usually stays in his lab, working on inventions (some relevant, some not), locating the next card early with dinosaur bone chants, or complaining about the Trio's failures. In early episodes, he spent his time recreating Move Cards for the Trio to use, and also seems to be behind most of their vehicles and other technology (which are infamously often single-use). Despite his tech genius, and though building the robotic Helga from an online kit in the future, he knows nothing about how her programming works and has no way to fix her when she goes haywire starting in Planes, Trains and Dinosaurs.

Being so absent from the field, the first time the D-Team meet him is when they (accidentally) sneak onto Zeta Point on their own in Alpha's Zeta Point. On rare occasions, however, he will join his team, typically when one of the Secret Dinosaurs he raised appears (eps. 14, 28, & 34), who he gleefully tries to reunite with, but who usually run away or fight back. He also leads the team on important (or easy) missions, such as retrieving the Dinomond Amber from New York in The Big Apple Grapple and dealing with the Doppelganger Alpha Gang in Double or Nothing. Though usually telling the Alpha Trio to summon their dinosaurs, when he does take up an Alpha Scanner, he typically summons Terry, and occasionally Spiny.

In Metal Imbalance, however, when Tank cracks open a boulder of retrieved Alpha Metal ore, he catches a falling chunk of it and throws his back out, leaving him bedridden until A Kyoto Caper, when he jumps up to accompany the mission to Kyoto and see the geisha-I mean, to find the last dinosaur card, yeah that's right… (It's implied he may have fully healed earlier but was milking it.)

As revealed in the first season's finale arc, Dr. Z and the Alpha Gang are from the future, using the Backlander, the timeship hidden under Zeta Point, to reach the time of the dinosaurs. They worked for Dr. Ancient and Dr. Cretacia, Rex's real parents, who wanted to save the dinosaurs with the Element Stones they'd discovered, but during the mission, Dr. Z creates Move Cards and begins using the dinosaurs to fight each other, trying to form a dinosaur kingdom for himself. When Ancient and Cretacia try returning to the future following Rex's birth, Dr. Z suspects they'll use the opportunity to kick him off the mission and, mutinying with Seth, ejects them mid-flight, Jonathan interfering to protect Rex but dislodging the Stones, forcing the Backlander to crash in the present and scattering the dinosaur cards across the world, baby Rex and Jonathan landing 12 years earlier in the timeline.

During the arc, Seth betrays Dr. Z before Dr. Z can betray him and take credit for his work like he did Dr. Ancient, kicking Dr. Z and the Alpha Gang out of Zeta Point. Dr. Z begrudgingly allies with the D-Team when Seth uses the Backlander to fly his newly created Black T-Rex to Sanjo City, where, after Rex saves him from being eaten by the behemoth, he apologizes for what he did to Rex's parents. He helps summon dinosaurs into the small army to face the Black T-Rex (Terry, Saurophaganax, and Daspletosaurus). After the Secret Dinosaurs are summoned as well, he tries riding Pachycephalosaurus, but gets thrown off the ship by the rambunctious dinosaur (his Alpha Scanner grabbed by Dr. Taylor) and gets caught by the Alpha Trio in Reese's plane, taking no further part in the battle.

After the day is saved, it is revealed that Drs. Ancient and Cretacia have seemingly been secretly kept in stasis on the Backlander the whole time, possibly rescued by Dr. Z before the crash, perhaps out of hidden guilt (though no answer is actually spelled out, and they may have instead returned from the future on their own somehow, as implied by a later recap intro). However, he and the Alpha Trio are "confined to quarters" for their past bad behavior for the timeship's return trip to the future…

Mesozoic Meltdown

… but are immediately forced back by the attacking Spectral Space Pirates. After the Pirates kidnap the D-Team's parents, Dr. Z "generously" agrees to help repair the damaged Backlander to follow them, instead accidentally sending them flying through the timestream without destination control (and leaving Rod and Laura in the present). Crash-landing in the Cretaceous, he immediately tries being evil again and sends Terry after wild dinosaurs, but Terry is beaten by Chomp and other wild dinosaurs, and the Alpha Gang are cornered by Ace and Paris before everyone retreats from the approaching meteor.

In the season that follows, Dr. Z and the Alpha Gang take a backseat for plot relevance, mostly being trapped in side antics, though he spends far more time out of the Backlander than last season, typically while accompanying the Alpha Trio on their side quests.

Upon seeing Torvosaurus' Spectral Armor in Ancient Roman Holiday, he sets to work on counters during the Ancient Rome arc, giving the D-Team new and stronger Moves in Desperately Seeking Spartacus and debuting the Element Boosters to provide DinoTector Armor in There's No Place Like Rome.

In the Caribbean Sea Arc, he first jumps into the action in Dinosaurs of the Caribbean to help Ace against Gabbro's dinosaurs where he managed to use Terry to defeat Gabbro's Edmontonia with Ultimate Fire. Following Helga forcing them to return for sunscreen, he takes on the persona of the high seas pirate "Whitebeard" at the helm of the Alpha Pirate Ship for the rest of the arc, getting into arguments with the British Navy, pulling the steering wheel off during a storm, refusing to cooperate unless he's called "Whitebeard", etc.

In Ancient China, he (with a time travel variant of seasickness) drags the Alpha Trio after a dinosaur, ramming into Foolscap's ship and crashing. They, in order: are mistaken as wizards by the locals and hear about the Fruit of Eternal Life, but let slip they're not wizards and get chased out of town (Four Part Harmony); eat unripe peaches thinking they're the Fruit of Eternal Life and get mistaken for Sanzo Hoshi and company (Dr. Z as an older student), but bring underground lava instead of underground water to the village crops and get chased out of town (Elements of Surprise); and pretend to be Sanzo and company on purpose (Dr. Z as Sanzo this time), but Dr. Z gets grabbed by Gabbro to chant a boulder away from a cave entrance and is discovered as a fake, his cape being stuck between two big rocks (Monk in the Middle). In The Third Cosmos Stone, the real Sanzo is dragged in and argues to let Dr. Z go before his cape slips free, dropping him into what appears to be Lotus Land, home of the Fruit of Eternal Life, but he falls off a branch reaching for the biggest peach, landing amidst the Alpha Trio.

He is kept aboard the ship in Ancient Japan by Helga because he refuses to finish eating the bowl of mush she made for him to eat, so he sends the Alpha Trio to get him a new dinosaur card to ease his suffering. They find and are chased by bears instead.

In Ancient Persia, he accompanies the Alpha Trio into the 40 Thieves' treasure cave, but they get caught stealing by the Thieves, and in the next episode are forced by Zayid to attack the D-Team to capture Princess Zahrah, but fail. Dr. Z is then locked up in the palace dungeon with the Sultan, being used as leverage to make the Trio fight the D-Team again, but he is eventually rescued by Aladdin, thinking him the Sultan, trying to flee before the dinosaur fight breaks the water tower and floods the dungeon. He and the Trio almost catch the Red Cosmos Stone but are retrieved after the battle by Helga, who drags them back to do laundry on their dusty clothes.

In the Renaissance Paris Arc, he sends the Alpha Trio to get the Green Cosmos Stone under the guise of getting French bread, now seeking the Cosmos Stones' power to become Dinosaur King. He has no further role in the arc beyond it being revealed in All For One that he'd adopted the Alpha Trio as toddlers along with Rod and Laura's father.

In the finale arc, he goes off on Seth after his return, but is distracted by the gel chibi dinosaur he brought with him. He races headlong into the plant-and-insect-filled alternate present in The Forestfire Effect to rescue Rod and Laura, but no one brought an Alpha Scanner, Helga saving them from a giant mantis. He is unable to grab the Black Cosmos Stone in The Search for the Last Cosmos Stone before the volcano erupts, but retrieves it from the mammoth skeleton later and "heroically" agrees to become Dinosaur King with it so he can rescue the D-Team's parents (Max takes the Stone to trade a copy for them instead). With Seth back onboard the Backlander in Clash for the Cosmos Stones, Dr. Z makes a new Move for Max to defeat Cryolophosaurus with, and protests the D-Team trying to trade the retrieved Cosmos Stones again. Back in the present, he chases Seth with the stolen Cosmos Stones into the D-Lab before Armatus wrecks it with Spectral Stinger, Helga pulling him from the rubble next episode in the finale, Fate of the Cosmos. He suggests combining the Stone Plates to combat the combined Cosmos Stones, letting the others break inside the Dark Pterosaur, defeat the Space Pirates' altered dinosaurs, and find the Space Pirate Ship, whose abundant dinosaur life he is immediately distracted by. After the universe is saved, he declares himself the Dinosaur King ruling over all of the dinosaurs he saved from the ship, but, after being given Dr. Drake's giant needle to help care for the dinosaurs, is dragged with the dinos, the Alpha Gang, Seth, and Rex and the Ancients back to the future.

* * *

When he was done we were shocked and amazed.

Me: Whoa! It's good that Dr. Z redeemed himself and is on the road of redemption.

Laney: Yeah thank goodness.

Me: And he's from the year 2127? That's incredible. That's 106 years into the future.

Nico: No kidding and Rex you are from the year 2126? That's 105 years from now.

Rex Owen: I know. I was really shocked when I discovered that I was actually born in the future.

Me: Wow. I'm sorry that you had to find out the hard way.

Naruto: Yeah man I know how you feel. It's hard hearing about things that are hard to take in.

Applejack: Yeah we know how you feel.

Me: Many of us come from backgrounds that were hidden from us. Some are good and some are REALLY dark.

Zoe Drake: You guys have been through a lot from what we heard. With the Royal Defenders, Organization XIII and the Sullen 6, the War of Equestria and all that.

Me: Yeah. Our journey over the course of 5 years and ongoing has been one brutal adventure after another. But we do it to protect everyone we care about. Lot of things have happened to us over that timeframe physically, emotionally and psychologically.

Zoe Drake: No kidding.

Me: But lets focus on the matter at hand for the moment.

Ets: Right. We have to figure out how to deal with the Alpha Gang.

Diamond Tiara: I knew Carmen's new friends were bad news. Those guys are all bad news!

William: Now, hang on, Diamond Tiara. Just because the boss of the Alpha Team is evil doesn't mean the rest of them are.

Me: I agree. But Max told us that after the Spectral Space Pirates appeared the first time Dr. Z and the Alpha Team changed.

Max: He's right.

Zoe: Yeah. But we found out that the Spectral Space Pirates are all back.

Nicole: And I am after them too.

Me: What do you mean?

Nicole: I am also a member of the Interstellar Police Force and the Spectral Space Pirates have been on our wanted lists for a long time. They are monsters that are out to destroy the entire universe.

Nicole went over who they were.

---

The Spectral Space Pirates (in Japanese, the Space Pirate Zanjark; 宇宙海賊ザンジャーク Uchū Kaizoku Zanjāku) are the main antagonists in the second season. The members are Spectre (Jark), Gabbro (Gunenco), Foolscap (Zapper), Shear (Mihasa), and Seth (Nopis), also being served by the Gel Jarks. In the arcade game, there is an additional member, Goma, who neither appears nor is mentioned in the anime.

They can travel throughout space and time using their ship. In the anime, they kidnap the parents of the D-Team to make Dr. and Mrs. Ancient build them a detection device, unintentionally causing the D-Team to follow them and interfere with their plans. Throughout the season, they control various dinosaurs equipped with Spectral Armor, though these are rarely retrieved after being defeated (except Achelousaurus), instead being abandoned and replaced. The Space Pirates' five main dinosaurs that are used (all only near the finale) are Gigas (Gabbro), Armatus (Foolscap), Maximus (Shear), Brontikens (Spectre), and Cryolophosaurus (Seth). Other than Seth's, these are their signature dinosaurs in the arcade game, plus Eocarcharia (Goma).

They use dinosaur cards provided by Seth to aid them in their search for the 7 Cosmos Stones: Yellow, Blue, Purple, White, Red, Green, and Black. These Stones will allow them, once combined, to control space and time, pretty much making them the controllers of everything.

---

When she was done we gasped in shock!

Me: Oh man!

Nicole: Yeah. They are just as bad as Thanos.

Laney: No kidding! That's horrible!

Max Taylor: Yeah. Also we're glad you destroyed Thanos.

Me: Thanks guys.

Eddy: Are you saying that the Alpha Trio are working for one of the Spectral Space Pirates?!

Toyman: (to Carmen) Well, Carmen. I don't think any of us are laughing about this now.

Carmen: I don't believe it. But I have to be sure.

Me: And I have a plan.

Zoe: What is it?

Me: We use a wire. But it's in disguise (Shows a microphone) as a button.

Max: Very sneaky.

Nico: It sure is.

Carmen: You know what? I'll just settle this mess by telling Ursula we can't be friends anymore!

Crankcase: Wait a minute, Carmen. This could actually be an opportunity. You're already in their group. They trust you. If you can find out what they and Gabbro are planning next, we might actually be able to stop an act of terror.

Carmen: Hmm. That works.

Me: Cool. You know who else likes to investigate stuff like this? Muscle Man's mom!

Mordecai and Rigby: OOOHHHHHH!

We laughed.

Muscle Man: Good one dude!

Muscle Man was up and back.

Rex Owen: Sorry about that man.

Muscle Man: It's cool.

Joe: You know, this is also another similar situation where me, Peter, and Quagmire helped thwart an attack on the Quahog Bridge.

Cleveland: Except this time, I'm joining in.

Speed Demon: Carmen, if anything goes wrong, just call me and I'll get you out of there.

Carmen: Right.

Me: Okay scans show that Ursula, Zander and Ed are in South Africa.

Nico: They must be going after a dinosaur there.

Dr. Spike: And they are. Lets do it.

Me: Lets go.

We teleported to Johannesburg, South Africa. Z A

JOHANNESBURG, SOUTH AFRICA

We were hiding in the trees in the park of Johannesburg, South Africa.

Barbossa: (sees Carmen talking with the Alpha Trio and Gabbro) There Carmen goes right now.

Double D: And now, we wait.

Zoe Drake: (sees Maria eating Goldfish) Can I have some?

Maria: Sure. You have tried Goldfish before, right?

Zoe Drake: You bet I have.

Zoe Drake had some.

Nico: Let me have some sis.

Maria: Sure bro.

He had some too.

We also had fruit by the foot and fruit rollups.

Then something poked its nose from under my arm and it was a Leaellynasaura.

---

Leaellynasaura (meaning "Leaellyn's lizard") is a genus of small herbivorous ornithischian dinosaurs from the Albian stage of the Early Cretaceous (dated to between 118 and 110 million years ago), first discovered in Dinosaur Cove, Australia. The only known species is Leaellynasaura amicagraphica . It was described in 1989, and named after Leaellyn Rich, the daughter of the Australian paleontologist couple Tom Rich and Patricia Vickers-Rich who discovered it. The specific name, amicagraphica, translates to "friend writing" and honors both the Friends of the Museum of Victoria and the National Geographic Society for their support of Australian paleontology.

---

Me: Whoa a Leaellynasaura.

Eli: Wow.

Aylene C.: I've never seen one of them before.

Laney made some leaves for it.

Me: They lived 113 million years ago.

Cera: Interesting fella.

Nico: He sure is.

Me: They were found in Australia. Never saw one here.

Laney: Cool.

Wolf: (in his Wolfen) Guys, I'm in my Wolfen monitoring the whole conversation below. So far, nothing's gone wrong.

Me: Copy that.

Meowth: I just realized that the Alpha Trio are similar to me, Jessie, and James.

Me: Yeah I noticed that too. But yeah I told you that too.

Jessie (Pokemon): We sure do have some similar qualities.

Me: But the one thing they DON'T have is the number of times they got blasted off.

James: Touché.

Me: Wait is that them?

We saw three figures coming and they were URSULA, ZANDER and ED!

---

Ursula / Usarapa (ウサラパ, Usarapa)

Voiced by: Misa Watanabe (Japanese); Rachael Lillis (English)

Member of the Alpha Gang. Ursula works with Zander and Ed to obtain dinosaur cards for Dr. Z. She is often very conceited, acting like a queen in front of her two cohorts and possessing an elevated, almost delusional, opinion of her beauty. Whenever failure occurs with the three, Ursula thinks that it is not her own fault (even when it is), but blames the other two who keep bringing her down. A running gag is that she is often called an "old lady" (usually by Zoe, "Obasan" in Japanese, meaning grandma or grandmother) which drives her crazy, and she always knows when somebody calls her that no matter how far away they are. Dr. Owen later develops a crush on her which she doesn't return. In the second series, Ursula was being asked to marry Dr. Owen in the final episode, but she rejected him in return.

Zander / Noratty (ノラッティ～, Norattī)

Voiced by: Kenyuu Horiuchi (Japanese); Sean Schemmel (English)

The tall sunglasses-wearing member of the Alpha Gang. Zander works with Ursula and Ed to obtain dinosaur cards for Dr. Z and is the tallest of the trio. He is usually the one who comes up with a plan that always goes horribly wrong. Zander is also the person who buys the Alpha Gang's vehicles and has to deal with the consequences when they are destroyed or lost. He tries to act smart and sophisticated, but is nervous, awkward, and cowardly most of the time. In episode 30, he develops a crush on Reese.

Ed / Edo (エド)

Voiced by: Junichi Endo (Japanese); Darren Dunstan (English)

The short fat member of the Alpha Gang. Ed works with Ursula and Zander to obtain dinosaur cards for Dr. Z. Despite his cowardly behavior, he follows the other two anywhere even if they end up in a dangerous predicament. Ed likes cute girls and enjoys eating bananas though he is something of a glutton and is very fond of eating in general. Ed is the funny one on the team and is rather stupid. His only sign of intelligence is in "The Forest Fire Effect" when he shows them what kind of damage would be done by the fire the fight against the Spectral Space Pirates caused in the Jurassic Period (which resulted in sentient plants and giant insects). However in the video game, he is the complete opposite of how he is in the show. Ed also had a running gag in the first series on jinxing his team during missions. He doesn't have an official partner, but Ed prefers to use "Tank" a lot.

---

Nicole: That's them all right.

Nico: Wow.

May: Ursula is very pretty.

Me: She sure is.

Zoe: But she is still an old lady.

Ursula then had a tic mark appear.

Ursula: WHO KEEPS CALLING ME AN OLD LADY!?

We snickered at that.

Jessie (Pokemon): Looks like she and I DO have so much in common. We both HATE being called old.

Me: Shh they're speaking.

I turned on my Predator Vision and audio analyzer bar and just like in the movie Predator, I was analyzing their conversation.

Carmen: (Distorted) Ursula, Zander and Ed, I really did have a lot of fun shopping with you guys. They are some of the best I've ever had.

Ursula: (Distorted) Glad you liked them Carmen and it's great seeing you here.

Zander: (Distorted) Is there something you want to tell us?

Carmen: Just want to ask you all a couple of questions.

Buddy Pine: (to Leaellynasaura) (Whispers) Please be quiet, little guy. We're in the middle of a stakeout.

Aylene C.: (Whispers) Leave this to me Buddy. (To the Leaellynasaura) Keep quiet little one. We don't want them to know we're here.

It agreed.

Me: (Whispers) Shh.

Trapster: (Whispers) Are they saying anything about their next move?

Me: Shh.

Ursula: We're helping the Spectral Space Pirates but they forced us to do it because they were going to kill us if we don't.

We gasped silently.

Zander: Yeah they are monsters.

My vision zoomed in to Ed.

Ed (Dinosaur King): (Distorted) And we don't like them.

James: Their voices sound so much like mine, Jessie and Meowth.

Nico: Very coincidental.

Then we heard something and then a ship floated above the park and it was GABBRO'S SHIP!

My vision turned off.

Gabbro: So you are the little Carmen that I was told about.

Carmen: And you must be Gabbro.

Gabbro: Indeed I am young one.

Zander then saw the camera button on Carmen's shirt shine.

Zander: Wait. Carmen, what's that on your shirt?

Carmen: (nervously) N-Nothing!

Ed (Dinosaur King): She's wearing a wire!

Gabbro: (grabs Carmen) Change of plans. We begin the plan now! (to Ursula) Tie her up.

Me: Attack!

I fired an energy blast and it hit Gabbro and smashed him down in fiery explosions!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

We jump out!

Nicole: Gabbro you are under arrest!

Gabbro: Nicole Knudson. I'm impressed you found me.

Nicole: Now you are going to prison. So come quietly or die.

Gabbro: You will never take me alive!

He was about to jump for his ship when suddenly lasers and bombs hit it and it exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The whole ship was destroyed in a massive fiery explosion by Wolf's Wolfen.

Wolf: He is not going anywhere!

Zoe Drake: Well if it isn't our friends.

Ursula put a gun to Carmen's head.

Ursula: One wrong move and Carmen gets it!

Retrax: Oh, please. We all know you three aren't killers.

Ursula: First time for everything!

Nico: (smirks) I can see your hands shaking. I can tell that you don't really want to kill Carmen. But, you're more then welcome to rove me wrong. So, go ahead, old hag. Pull the fucking trigger.

Ursula: WHAT DID YOU JUST CALL ME!? (GROWLS IN EXTREME RAGE AND FIRE BURSTS OUT OF HER MOUTH!)

Meowth: WHOA! Ursula just evolved into a Flareon!

Carmen: Then this will burn her too!

Carmen flared up a fire aura and burned Ursula's arm and she let her go and Carmen went back to us.

Me: Nice job Carmen.

Nico: Yeah good job sis.

Jessie (Pokemon): You and I both have something in common Ursula.

Ursula: What's that?

Jessie: We both hate being called Old.

Dr. Viktor: (to the Alpha Trio) If you join us, you'll never have to worry about anyone insulting Ursula's age again.

Me: You definitely have qualities that would be perfect for either the Masters of Evil or the Redemption Squad.

Ursula: You are definitely right about that.

Zander: Yeah.

Ed (Dinosaur King): Yeah! Gabbro we quit!

Gabbro: Why you!?

KRABBOOOOMM! KRABBBBOOOOOMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Nicole fired energy blasts and knocked him down.

Nicole: Your fight is with us.

Ursula: We decided to join the Masters of Evil.

Me: Well that's all right. We'll have to find archenemies for you in the future.

Aylene C.: Yeah! Ursula you can be MY archenemy.

Ursula: Wow! I would like that Aylene. Wait! I heard that you took down Sharptooth.

Aylene C.: You heard right.

Xiao Fung the Demon Sorcerer of Wind, Rojo, Moonstone, Tala, Roxy Rocket, Private H.I.V.E., Red Ghost and Griffin then appeared.

Me: Xiao Fun, Rojo, Moonstone, Tala, Roxy Rocket, Private H.I.V.E., Red Ghost and Griffin.

Private H.I.V.E.: (Salutes) Masters of Evil reporting for usual battles sir!

Me: (Salutes) At ease!

Bai Tza: Hello brother.

Tso Lan: Things have been going good for you?

Xiao Fung: Indeed they have.

Lola: Awesome.

Xiao fung: Glad we found you guys.

Rojo: (sees the Chomp and the other small dinosaurs) I didn't think dinosaurs could even be small.

Moonstone: Well, now we know.

Tala: (sees the Leaellynasaura eating leaves) Does he just eat leaves the whole day?

Aylene C.: Well Leaellynasaura are plant eaters.

Me: They don't eat NEARLY as much leaves as sauropods do.

Littlefoot: Yeah like him.

The Bajadasaurus was eating tons of leaves and plants made by Laney.

Tala: I see what you mean.

Me: Yeah.

Xiao Fung: How did you find a dinosaur like that?

Me: Yep. The Bajadasaurus was roaming in Buenos Aires, Argentina.

Nico: And we found the Leaellynasaura here in Johannesburg.

Vince: It's true.

But then we heard a very familiar rhyme that we haven't heard in 3 years from a familiar voice.

?: Solomon Grundy, Born on a Monday, Christened on Tuesday, Married on Wednesday, Took ill on Thursday, Grew worse on Friday, Died on Saturday, Buried on Sunday, That was the end, Of Solomon Grundy.

It was Cyrus Gold A.K.A. SOLOMON GRUNDY BACK FROM THE DEAD!

Me: SOLOMON GRUNDY!

Nico: He's back from the dead! But I thought he was dead!

Me: Wait!

I saw that he had purple spots on him! He was infected by the Aparoids!

Me: Oh man! Look at those ugly purple spots on him. He has the Aparoids in him.

Fox: Good eye!

But then without warning.

KRASPLAT!

We all were innundated in garbage and then out came Ed Bighead and he was laughing at us!

Ed Bighead: Take that you planet loving losers!

Me: YUCK!

Bulma Brief was the only one that was untouched by the garbage!

Bulma: That was not funny Ed!

Ed Bighead: So what! I want them to suffer for looking after the planet so much!

Dr. Viktor: Ed what the hell is your problem!?

Me: He has a permanent wedgie and it makes him act like a permanent dickhead!

Nico: Geez!

Eli: What a jerk!

I flared up my fire aura and destroyed the garbage and used the power of the Bubbles Card and made us all squeaky clean!

Me: Ahh! Much better.

Eli: Squeaky clean.

Ets: That was awesome.

Xiao Fung: It sure was.

Tala: Who's the new recruit?

Me: Oh this is Ethan Uson. But he likes being called Ets.

?: Good name.

A figure came out and it was GREEN EYES from episode 20 of S.P.D.!

---

Green Eyes tries to rob the world's gold depository, but is stopped by the Power Rangers. He kidnaps the guard and sends Krybots to attack the Rangers, but they stop him. In a last effort, he calls upon a giant robot, but is brought down by the Delta Squad Megazord.

---

Sky Tate: Green Eyes!

Green Eyes: Been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were gonna try to rob the worlds gold repository.

Green Eyes: That's right J.D. Good memory on you.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Green Eyes: (to the SPD Rangers) It's funny how you Rangers each told your own versions of our first fight.

Jack Landors: Yeah that was funny.

Me: I remember that. That was cool.

But then a bunch of bombs came and Eli used the Force and threw them into the sky and they exploded!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMMM!

A black figure came out and laughed hysterically and it was a figure we recognized that helped us in some of the humiliations with Peter Griffin: THE MAD BOMBER!

Me: Hey it's the Mad Bomber!

Eli: Oh man!

Me: Don't worry bro. We know this one. He is the Mad Bomber that helped us during some of the humiliations of Peter Griffin.

Nico: I remember that! That was so funny!

?: And he's now part of the Masters of Evil as our archenemy.

2 figures came out with us and they were the Bomb Squad of Big City, an anthropomorphic shark and cat named Pfish and Chip.

Chip: (Scottish Accent) It's an honor to meet you J.D.

Pfish: We love all your adventures J.D.

Me: We get that all the time and it's a pleasure to meet you Pfish and Chip.

Chip: Aye. Same to you man.

Pfish: It's so awesome to be part of the team with the Mad Bomber as our archenemy.

Me: It sure is. And he is the funniest version of the Mad Bomber that we know. Also sorry your show didn't make the cut.

Lincoln: Yeah it was funny! We watched it all the time on the internet and it was great!

Lana: Made me and Lola laugh all the time.

Nico: Especially with all those bombs that blow up in Chip's face all the time.

We laughed.

Me: That's funny! This is gonna be explosive! Lets get it on!

We powered up.

Me: Max, Zoe, Rex, you all are in for an awesome show.

Salem then appeared.

Salem: And I'll help Solomon Grundy.

We went at them.

Sailor Saturn: Oh man! Sorry that happens to you Venus.

Sailor Earth: Yeah but thank goodness no one gets hurt.

Sailor Uranus: That is a good thing.

Sailor Neptune: Yeah thank goodness.

Sailor Pluto: Yep.

Xiao Fung: Good. And I feel sorry for you Venus. Lets do it.

Xiao Fung blasted them with wind blasts and they flew at him around the wind and blasted him all over and knocked him down.

Rainbow Dash: That was AWESOME!

Scootaloo: YEAH!

---

Battle 2: Tracer, Twilight Sparkle, Petunia Paleo, Star Swirl, Optimus Primal, Cheetor, Rattrap, Rhinox, Tigatron, Dinobot, Airazor, Red Hood and Winter Soldier VS Rojo

---

Rojo was next.

Rojo: (to Tracer) Were you surprised that Carman was hanging out with the Alpha Trio the whole time?

Tracer: (British Accent) We sure were. But we discovered during our stakeout that Jessie and Ursula both have something in common.

Rojo: What's that?

Twilight Sparkle: That they absolutely despise being called Old.

They laughed.

Petunia: That is really funny!

Star Swirl: It sure is. I'm over 1,000 years old and I'm not complaining about that.

Optimus Primal: I thought it was funny how Ursula hates that.

Cheetor: It was funny though.

Dinobot: It is very humorous if I do say so myself.

Rattrap: Yeah I think so too.

Rhinox: I think it is funny how some people hate being called that.

Tigatron: But Ursula does have amazing beauty like someone I know.

Airazor: She is pretty.

Red Hood: She is as beautiful as Barbara.

Rojo: Indeed. Lets get it on!

Optimus Primal: Maximals, MAXIMIZE!

They transformed and Rojo fired laser blasts and they dodged them and smashed her all over the place with their weapons and powers and smashed her down.

Tracer: Most amazing!

Twilight Sparkle: Yeah!

---

Battle 3: Kopaka, Rarity, Sweetie Belle, Thunder Terror, Princess Bubblegum, Flame Princess, Slime Princess, Wildberry Princess, Mistmane, Cut Man and Junk Man VS Moonstone

---

Moonstone was next.

Moonstone: (to Kopaka) I can understand Maria being overprotective of Carmen about this.

Kopaka: I understand how she feels too. I look over my fellow Toa all the time and it can be stressful but I know how she feels.

Rarity: I do too. Sweetie Belle is my sister and I look out for her too. Sometimes even though I am mostly busy with my boutiques.

Sweetie Belle: Sometimes?

Rarity: Okay I am busy ALL the time. But I still love you Sweetie Belle.

Thunder Terror: Yeah I love all my brothers and I worry about them too just like they worry about me.

Princess Bubblegum: I'm sure that Princess Celestia worries the same about her sister too.

---

Roxy Rocket was next.

Tala: (to Harry) Did Ed really try to smash the Bajadasaurus?

Harry Potter: (British Accent) He sure did but Leni stopped him.

Ron Weasley: (British Accent) But it was absolutely amazing that Laney tamed it.

Hermione: (British Accent) It sure was amazing. I'm just glad it wasn't a meat eating dinosaur.

Ginny: (British Accent) Yeah thank goodness. But it's cool that we saw so many kinds of dinosaurs.

Luna Lovegood: (British Accent) It sure is.

Tala: I think so too. I feel bad that Carmen was thought that she was hanging with the wrong crowd. Are you that overprotective of your sister Applejack?

Applejack: I sure am. Ever since mom and dad died a while back I was scared that I was gonna lose her. I didn't want that to happen to her too so I was so overprotective of her since then.

Apple Bloom: But I'm not a baby anymore. I'm now the princess of Cutie Marks.

Rockhoof: (Scottish Accent) It's all right lass. Me and my fellow friends of the Mighty Helm treat me the same way but I love them like me brothers and sisters.

Diamond Tiara: Wow! That's awesome!

Discord: Indeed it is.

Tala: Very powerful bonds with you all. Lets do it!

She fired blasts of magic and they dodged the blasts and they fired waves of magic and apples and ice and smashed her all over and knocked her down.

---

Roxy Rocket was next.

Roxy Rocket: (to Danny) I certainly didn't expect Grundy to show up!

Danny Phantom: I know. And the Legion of Doom tried to kill us before because we thought that we killed them.

Superman: But in actuality it was because he passed on.

Batman: Yeah and J.D. helped him pass on.

John Stewart: But I can tell that he will make a great addition to the Masters of Evil.

Roxy Rocket: Absolutely! After we help get him back to normal.

Flash: Yeah. But he went through so much over the years.

Hawkgirl: He sure did. That was awful.

Martian Manhunter: And you helped him once too Shayera.

Wonder Woman: You sure did and that shows how strong your heart is too.

Pinkie Pie: And I think it's amazing!

Maud Pie: (Monotonously) Definitely amazing as smokey quartz.

Somnambula: (Egyptian Accent) I think so too.

Roxy: I agree. Lets go!

Roxy flew into the air on a rocket and they chased her all over and blasted her down and knocked her out.

Private H.I.V.E.: (to Emerald) Smart move destroying the enemy's transportation.

Emerald: Indeed it was.

Sunset Shimmer: Now we got Gabbro right where we want him.

Cayenne: He fell for it hook, line and sinker into our trap.

Pepperdance: Yes he did.

Gusty: It was a genius trap if I do say so myself.

Private H.I.V.E.: It sure was. I'm sorry that Carmen had to have this happen to her.

Ruby: At least she didn't get hurt.

Yang: Yeah if something happened to Ruby I don't know what I would do.

Blake: Yeah.

Weiss: I agree.

Dew: But thank goodness she didn't get hurt.

Pyrrha: Yeah thank goodness.

Nora: Yeah.

Jaune: Thank goodness.

Lie Ren: Yeah.

Salem: I may not have any brothers or sisters but I know how they feel.

Private H.I.V.E.: I know how that feels. I treat all my fellow villains in the H.I.V.E. like my own brothers and sisters as well and I feel the same way.

Emerald: Powerful bonds with villains like us. Strong hearts.

Private H.I.V.E.: Permission to start the battle ma'am!

Emerald: Granted soldier!

Private H.I.V.E. went at them and had his shield ready and they went at him and smashed his shield down and smashed and blasted him all over.

Emerald: That was awesome!

Sunset Shimmer: Yeah it was!

Cayenne: Awesome!

---

Red Ghost: Definitely.

Fox: That is a very wise lesson. (Laughs)

Red Ghost: What is it?

Fox: Sorry it's just that your monkey friends remind us of everything that happened to us with Andross and the Lylat Wars.

We went back home and got the rest of our spring cleaning done and we later went to bed.

THE END

Another awesome fanfic done.

Dinosaur King was a great show and I thought it was so awesome seeing all kinds of dinosaurs all over the world and it was so funny how Ursula and the Alpha Gang were very similar to Team Rocket from Pokemon. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Drako1234658 and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this one and also welcome aboard Etstheclarencefan and happy birthday to you tomorrow. This chapter is his birthday present for tomorrow. Next up is an awesome adventure to the world of RaDos in the adventures of the Di-Gata Defenders and we're gonna be in for killing many villains there one at a time. First up is the Cultists of the Celestial Light and we're going to make sure they don't use the power of the key to RaDos Prime for evil and all that. It's gonna be interesting as we see this mysterious world and destroy the enemies of Adam, Erik, Melosa, Rion and Seth.

See you all tomorrow.

Interstellar Sigil Masters and Defenders

In the park we were having a picnic and we were having fun. We were eating an awesome burger called the Ulti-Meatum and it was a REALLY meaty burger. It's an awesome burger that Mordecai and Rigby told us about that is served at a food truck called the Grill Em' Up Truck. What it was is a cheeseburger stuffed inside a cheeseburger and it has 2 deep fried cheeseburgers for buns and it has a really good ketchup that is made in the Himalayas and it was really good stuff.

Crystal Man: So, what are you guys eating again?

Me: It's a sandwich called the Ulti-Meatum. (Eating) Mmm! And it's delicious!

Nico: It's a cheeseburger stuffed inside a cheeseburger that has two deep fried cheeseburgers for buns and it has this really good Himalayan Ketchup.

Mordecai: It's a burger that is only offered once every 100 years.

Rigby: Yeah you would love it!

Aylene C.: (Eating) Mmm! I love it.

Rainbow Dash: This is an awesome burger! (Eating) Mmm!

Applejack: (Eating) Boy howdy! It's delicious!

Me: But once every 100 years? That's crazy if you ask me.

Mordecai: I know. I wish they would sell it all the time.

Me: Thank goodness I made that happen.

Vince: (Eating) Mmm! How did you do that?

Me: I gave Ajay the Meat Master Magisword.

Vambre: (British Accent) Good choice J.D.

Me: Thanks Vambre.

Prohyas: That is great. And this burger is just as good as the ones at Slugburger.

Me: It sure is. Now he doesn't have to offer it once every 100 years.

Dawn (Pokemon): (to Mordecai and Rigby) Is your first time eating this?

Mordecai: It sure is! (Eating) Mmm! It is the best thing ever!

Rigby: (Eating) MMM! Yeah it is!

Me: It sure is delicious huh?

Eli: (Eating) I'll say! And it's awesome how they use burgers as buns like that.

Ets: It sure is. (Eating) Delicious!

Taylor: I think it's clever. (Eating) But it's so good!

Me: Yeah it is.

Nico: I like it.

Me: I'm gonna see if Ajay can have his burgers sold at Lynn's Table and Slugburger. Including the Ulti-Meatum.

Eli: Good idea.

Laney: That is an awesome idea.

Lynn Sr.: Nice thinking J.D.

Me: Thanks guys. It shouldn't be just at a food truck. It should be at ALL the restaurants.

Nico: I agree and great food should be available everywhere.

Varie: You said it.

Muscle Man: You know who else makes great food that should be everywhere? MY MOM!

We laughed at Muscle Man's joke.

Nico: Good one!

Sunset Shimmer: Yeah! Taylor how are you liking that burger?

Taylor: (Eating) One of the best ever!

Lincoln: It sure is good and the Himalayan Ketchup is great.

Laney: Yeah it is!

Lana: I like it.

Lisa Loud: It is a magnificent feat for such a cleverly crafted and deliciously scrumptious culinary feat.

Starlight Glimmer: I think so too. I've never had a burger this great.

Apple Bloom: Me neither. It's good.

Me: Mordecai and Rigby you and everyone here at the Park make awesome food.

Mordecai: Thanks man.

Benson: And sorry I couldn't let you guys have one before.

Rigby: It's all right Benson.

We later were finished eating and we were stuffed.

Me: Ahh. (BURPS) Pardon me.

Applejack: That was delicious.

Pinkie Pie: BEST BURGER EVER!

Trixie: A burger most delicious for the Great and Powerful Trixie!

Scootaloo: You said it.

Me: Man I'm stuffed.

Nico: Me too. That was great.

Me: Uh oh guys. Don't look now but we have uninvited company.

We saw Pablo and Anderson coming.

Nico: Oh great.

Bitstream: (to Pablo and Anderson) How did you two get past the prison guards?!

Pablo: We told him we were going to get a drink.

Me: Well we just finished eating the Ulti-Meatum.

Taylor: And it was a good meal. Something you will never enjoy!

Anderson: Taylor come on don't we make you happy anymore? We're your friends.

Taylor: Friends?! After everything I went through with my so-called father, my mother dying at his own hands, raping me and hurting me on a daily basis and ruining my life and forcing me to lash out at people because of all the pain and suffering that he caused to me and you two never giving me any credit!? Those are not friends! Friends are people that care for you and help you out and show you compassion, love, care and kindness. Those are true friends. That is something you two never will understand! You used me as a pawn for most of my life!

Pablo: About time you figured it out!

Taylor: Yeah and now I'm going to return the favor!

POW!

She punched Pablo in the face and knocked out some of his teeth and sent him crashing into the ground!

Me: Nice one Taylor!

Applejack: YEEHAW! Way to sock it to that snake in the grass!

Lana: Snake!? Where?

Me: Lana it's just a figure of speech. It means rotten troublemaking punk.

Lana: Oh.

Taylor: That felt good.

Hardhead: (To Benson) These two you can yell at.

Benson: Thanks man.

Me: Everyone plug your ears. This is gonna get ugly.

We covered our ears.

Benson then yelled in the loudest scream he could ever muster!

Benson: (SCREAMING AT THE VERY TOP OF HIS LUNGS IN EXPLOSIVE RAGE!) AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA YOU STUPID NO-GOOD FUCKING BULLY DELINQUENTS DRIVE ME NUTS! YOU DON'T GIVE A FLYING FUCKING ABOUT ANYONE BUT YOUR MISERABLE GODDAMN WORTHLESS SELVES! 'CAUSE IF YOU DID, YOU'D SEE THAT YOU ONLY HURT OTHERS BECAUSE YOU FEEL GOOD ABOUT IT, SOME PRIDE IN CAUSING PAIN AND SUFFERING TO OTHERS! (Voice breaks a little) BUT YOU WOULDN'T KNOW HOW PEOPLE WOULD FEEL ABOUT THAT EVEN IF YOU GOT THE THERAPY YOU NEED AND HAVE SOMEONE GIVE IT TO YOU, (Tears are STREAMING and blowing off his face) AND EVEN THEN YOU'D SCREW IT ALL UP ON THE ACCOUNT THAT YOU CAN'T EVEN FOLLOW THE SIMPLEST OF INSTRUCTIONS, WORRYING MORE ABOUT LOOKING COOL IN CAUSING PAIN THAN DOING YOUR JOB LIKE NORMAL PEOPLE WOULD DO!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

He exploded and sent Pablo and Anderson crashing into the Prison Transport van!

Me: WHOA! Benson that was incredible!

Nico: Are you okay?

Benson: Yeah I'm fine. I don't think I've ever yelled like that before.

Me: Well Mordecai and Rigby told us that you did yell like that before when you were about to reach the breaking point.

Eli: But great job teaching those punks a lesson.

Ets: I'll say. Great job Benson.

Benson: Thanks guys.

Me: I have a feeling that Pablo and Anderson are gonna be feeling that for a while. That yell was as powerful as the one Elec Man did at the Jupiter Prison.

Benson: I heard. Wow!

Skips: Nice work though man.

Pops: Great job.

Benson: Thanks guys. Sorry you had to hear me say all that.

Me: No worries man. We're used to it.

Ets: Yeah but that was awesome.

Me: Let me fix this place up before we head home.

I snapped my fingers and the Park was all fixed up and good as new. We then went back to the World Tree Estate.

Later we were getting ready for our next mission.

Shocker: Where are we heading this time?

Me: Well we are gonna head to a planet located in the Hydra Cluster.

Nico: Wow! That's really far from us.

Nicole: 157 million light-years away from us.

Me: Yep. The scans are showing a huge energy on one planet.

Eli: I sense it too. The Force is telling me that a huge number of evil people are on that planet and they are causing problems there even as we speak.

Nunnally: Does it show which planet it is?

Me: It's a planet called RaDos.

Nico: That's interesting.

Lola: It sure is.

Lana: What does it say about it?

Me: It says that it's a planet that orbits 3 suns, has 3 moons, and has been split up into 8 divisions but that's all it says.

Nico: Wow. That's interesting.

Shanan: That world name is very familiar.

Eli: Really?

Ets: Wow.

Shanan: Yeah but I'm having a hard time figuring out the history and all that.

Me: We'll have to see it when we get there to jog your memory.

Private H.I.V.E., Xiao Fung the Demon Sorcerer of Wind, Rojo, Griffin, Moonstone, Tala, Roxy Rocket and Red Ghost then appeared.

Private HIVE: (to me) Permissions for me, Xiao Fung, Rojo, Griffin, Moonstone, Tala, Roxy Rocket, and Red Ghost to come with you on this mission, sir?

Me: Granted soldier. Granted. We're going to the planet RaDos. It's located in the Hydra Galaxy Cluster 157 million light-years away.

Xiao Fung: Wow! That's really far.

Rojo: This is gonna be interesting.

Tala: We are sure to encounter something there while we are finding out what is going on there.

Nico: I have a feeling it's gonna spell big time trouble.

Roxy Rocket: Can't wait to see what is there.

Me: Me too. Lisa deploy the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix.

Lisa Loud: Affirmative!

We got the ship ready and we were on our way to the planet RaDos.

* * *

The U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix was flying through the endless web of galaxies.

Me: Captain's Log, Stardate 2927.3: We are on our way to the Planet RaDos to see if its inhabitants need any help and know all about what it contains. Something tells me we are in for an amazing adventure when we get there.

Ets: This is so cool! I think it's amazing that we go through space like this.

Me: It sure is cool huh? We've been all over the universe in our ship and all that and it's amazing.

Lola: It sure is! I love flying in our ship.

Me: We all do.

Nico: Yep.

Zarya: Wow! I think that it's amazing seeing all these galaxies out here.

Lana: How many galaxies are there?

Me: It is said that there are over 2 Trillion Galaxies. But the observable universe has over 125 Billion+ Galaxies.

Nico: And that is just a small fraction of how many galaxies there are all over the universe.

Zoe Drake: That is so cool!

Max Taylor: Yeah it is!

Varie: Hard to imagine that there are that many galaxies.

Lisa Loud: We have arrived at our destination.

Me: On Screen.

The view screen turned on and we had arrived at the planet RaDos.

Me: Wow!

Razorclaw: Is this it?

Me: Yep this is it.

We landed and we were on the planet RaDos.

Me: Wow. So this is RaDos.

Eli: It's amazing.

Nico: Never saw a planet like this one before.

Lola: And so far from home.

Ets: It's my first time ever on an alien world.

Runo: We've been to so many planets all over the universe and they are awesome.

Blade Tigrerra: They sure are.

Me: I sense a strong energy signal coming from (Points to the north) there. Lets head that way.

Nico: Okay.

We went north.

Shanan: Wow! Now I remember what is going on here. This world has a powerful history.

Me: Can you tell us about it?

Shanan: I sure can. But we have to find a temple here first.

Me: Okay. The energy source is just up ahead.

We went through a forest and then we got through a cloaking barrier and we were at a temple.

Me: WHOA!

Nico: Wow. We went through a cloaking barrier.

Aylene C.: That's awesome.

We went up to the temple and we saw a boy with blue hair and it was Seth and his friends Erik, his little sister Kara and Melosa.

Rojo: Hey there. This is a nice place you guys got.

Seth: Oh why thank you. (Sees us) Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: That's right. And it's a pleasure to meet you.

Seth: Same here. My name is Seth and I am the leader of the Di-Gata Defenders and it's an honor to have you all here.

Me: Pleasure to meet you Seth.

Seth: You must speak with Professor Alnar.

We followed Seth to Professor Alnar's temple and we also saw his friends Melosa, Erik, Rion, Kara and Adam.

Melosa: Hey Seth.

Seth: I brought some visitors.

They saw us.

Rion: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Erik: Wow! It's an awesome honor to meet you all.

Me: Pleasure to meet you all too.

Rion: Same here. My name is Rion.

Erik: I'm Erik.

Melosa: My name is Melosa.

Kara: I'm Kara.

Adam: And I'm Adam. It's a great honor to meet the greatest heroes of all.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you all.

Professor Alnar then came out.

Professor Alnar: Team Loud Phoenix Storm we are most honored to have you all here.

Me: Pleasure is ours Professor. We come from the Planet Earth and we came to see if you all need any help.

Professor Alnar: We thank you J.D. and we graciously accept.

Me: You're welcome. But we are completely new to this whole planet. Can you tell us what happened here and all that?

Shanan: I can do that.

Me: Okay.

Shanan went over everything that happened on RaDos.

---

The humans, or RaDosians, of this world came from another planet. The planet's inhabitants were mostly dark-skinned, white haired individuals with glowing blue eyes. However, these people were struck with a life-destroying Toten'Ka virus, which had spread across their planet and killed millions. A small team of RaDos Primes (the name of these original aliens) escaped from their planet on a starship. These original humans eventually crash landed in RaDos. The sun and atmosphere of RaDos began to take effect on their physical forms, turning them into the people of the current timeline. But in doing so, they eventually exiled the original inhabitants, the Mortigarians, a race of amphibious snake-like humanoids to live under the sea. The people that live in RaDos as of the current timeline are the descendants of these first RaDosians.

Before the humans arrived in this world, mystical beings called the Primordials roamed the realm. Their bodies used mystical energies as their life force. As they died, their life force leeched into the rocks of Di-Gata Mountains. Humans soon crash landed on the planet, caused by a stowaway creature named the Wrath-norak and a virus from their dying planet. Under Rados' sun, man's skin colour soon changed. Man was then able to mine the enchanted rocks found in the mountains, but were only able to recover energy from eight of the eleven sigils. Many rocks were mined by man, then carved into dice-like Di-Gata stones, and these were then carved with the sigil their power contained. From this point onward, anyone who used these stones were called stone casters or stone-slingers. It was believed that the first people who used these stones of power were called the Chi'Brek Tribe. This tribe was also the first tribe to document the arrival of the human race onto the planet.

There are currently ten known power forms in RaDos called Sigils. These sigils take up energy forms inside of Di-Gata Stones. But because the power of one sigil isn't as strong as the other, multiple sigils must be used, creating Henges. This creates a far greater concentration of power. However, some sigils do not need to be formed into henges, due to the extreme power that is contained within them (Vitus and Nostrum Vitae). The thirteen Power Sigils are:

Ogama - (Order)

Dako - (Chaos)

Yin - (Youth)

Yan - (Wisdom)

Altas - (Balance)

Nega - (Force)

Sum - (Peace)

Infinis - (Eternity)

Vitus - (Renewal)

Nostrum Vitae - (Life - Unconfirmed)

Ethos - (Stagnation)

Orn-Ra - (The First Sigil)

Mal-Ra - (The Last Sigil)

"The beginning and the end, both portions of the whole, both parts of a cycle without end. See that they are the one and the same and achieve balance"

Casters choose how many Sigils to use and their combination. A single Sigil was not very powerful on its own, but combining multiple Sigils often led to unpredictable and uncontrollable powers. Most casters choose to specialize in only one or two sigils, to make sure they retain complete control of their power at all times. Otherwise, miscasting (where the forming of the Henge doesn't perform correctly) would become common and hazardous to both the caster or their allies.

In short, these stones contain great power. However, some were not using it for the purposes for good. The Wizards of Yan, a powerful order of RaDos' most powerful wizards and stone-casters formed a group, the Di-Gata Defenders. These Defenders were trained to use these stones to police the realm against those who would use such power for evil purposes.

But amongst their own ranks, a wizard named Nazmul wanted to keep all the power of the realm for himself. So he recruited powerful stone casters of his own and formed the Order of Infinis. Nazmul's goal was to achieve eternal life by any means necessary and establish his own rule in RaDos.

As the Order continued to flourish, Nazmul managed to find a way to re-create a guardian called the Megalith using a large portion of the Realm's energy. This beast had unparalleled power and virtually made Nazmul invincible. The creation of the Megalith forced the Di-Gata Defenders of the previous generation to engage it. The Wizards of Yan came up with a ritual, the Spell of Binding to counter this unbeatable foe. They hired Brim, a stone-carver to create the four Pure Stones, which were the casting mediums for this spell.

In the final battle, they used the Four Pure stones against the Megalith and sealed him within the Pure Stones using the Machine of Binding. However, the generation of Di-Gata Defenders made the ultimate sacrifice and also destroyed a portion of the land around the Machine. Nazmul's first body ends up being destroyed as well.

Four of the five children of the original Defenders were then taken to a secret Dojo (Adam was the fifth child but was taken by Brackus after his parents died as revealed in the episode, "The Adam and Eve of Destruction"), to go for training to prepare for the day when the Megalith should break free from his seal. After sensing the Megalith was about to come forth, they left their Dojo behind and ventured forth into the realm, to continue where their parents left behind - to seal the Megalith once more and stop anyone who dares to relive their horrifying incident.

However, they do succeed in stopping the Megalith, and crush the Order. Instead of sealing the Megalith as they first planned, they destroyed it with their combined efforts. For if they had proceeded with the seal, it would have brought forth the apocalypse of RaDos. The sealing was meant to be a cycle, to not only keep the Megalith imprisoned but also to keep the Di-Gata vampires known as the Ethos in check. The Ethos want one thing: to merge their world with RaDos, so they can have an unlimited supply of Di-gata energy, which when depleted, could very well bring the end of life to the entire realm. Now with the assistance of Rion, the six Defenders must now stop this ancient evil, as recompense for breaking the cycle and to save RaDos.

Eventually they discover a machine called the Celestial Abyss created by Filch to keep the Ethos out of Rados. They set out to find it only to discover that the wizards have scattered different pieces of it all over RaDos. They find all of the pieces except for one, which is with Filch and Malco. Malco steals the rest of the pieces and Filch builds the machine. This unleashes the Ethos who reveal that Malco is possessed by one of them and they destroy him. The Defenders also receive a terrible blow as Rion gives in to his Ethonosian half. Adam turns him human just before the life force is sucked out of him and the others. Rion unleashes his anger and remorse by transforming the Celestial Abyss into his armour and defeating the Ethos after which Rados and her people go back to normal.

Provinces of Rados

Ogama-Gor:

Constantly at war with the tribes of Dakor, Ogama-Gor is the most unified, organized and urbanized of all the eight provinces. Made up of dozens of feudal-style city states, Ogama-Gor is ruled by a confederacy called the Omegar. Heavily militarized and xenophobic, Ogamans are naturally distrustful of all the other Sigils and provinces except for Infinor, with whom they have a shaky alliance. Ogaman military decisions are made on behalf of the civilian government by a council of generals called the Ogamarat. Even though the vast majority of the rank and file Ogaman military are levies and conscripts, the core of Ogaman military structure is the "Knights of Ogama-gor", a hereditary class of men and women who serve as a reservoir of military knowledge.

Dakor:

Mountainous and cold, Dakor is the home of the hearty Dakorian tribes. These tribes are in an almost constant state of war with each other and with their neighbours. Dakorians are very fraternal and bond together in closely knit familial tribes. Even within the tribe, conflict and challenge of authority is looked upon highly, and tribes form Di-Gorums to make decisions. Di-Gorums are essentially assemblies of a representative from each household getting together around an Obelisk and shouting at one another. As people agree with each other, they try to push one of their number to the top of the Obelisk while knocking opponents off. The first person to the top of the Obelisk makes the decision for the tribe. Needless to say, Dakorian development is erratic and their forays into Ogaman territory to raid and pillage are constantly breaking down into petty squabbling and chaos.

Nega-La:

The least populated of the provinces, Nega-La is mainly arid desert and wetlands with the exception of the Binn Yati mountains. Communities in Nega-La are nomadic by nature, and many ply the trade routes that run to the oasis of Maudata in the south, trading in Dakorian Stone, Yantos mystical-technology, and Sumos wood. Actual urban centers are scarce, the largest being the trade capital of Maudata which surrounds the Oasis of NegLa. Maudatan stone carving is highly respected and sought after. Some of the most rare and legendary stones in RaDos are carved in Maudata. The Binn-Yati Mountains are unusual in that they house the Monks of NegLa, who legend says traveled from Maudata in the time before the Wizards and settled on Mount Yati to "watch over the Realm." Unlike the Gata-shin monks, the monks of Negla keep to themselves and do not tamper in the affairs of the world. Many pilgrims make the treacherous trek to the Monastery of Mount Yati to study with the Monks and learn the way of the sigils.

Yantos:

The most mystical of all the provinces, Yantos is the seat of the Gata-shin monks. Closely allied to the Wizards of Yan and the Di-Gata Defenders, the Gata-shin monks are all that remains of the structure of that old regime. Yantos is punctuated by towns built around various Monasteries who provide spiritual and physical protection. As a result, Yantos has become the reservoir of knowledge and wizard power in the Realm. The North Veltlands are where the great herds of Yan-on graze, shepherded over by the Yantan herdsmen. Raids by Dakorian tribesmen are regular, but the natural barrier of Lake Di-Gata, Yi-maki and the Bridge of Yan prevent many of them from doing any lasting damage.

Sumos:

Sumos is a wild overgrown wilderness of ancient ruins and temples to long lost Sigils. Home to bandits and brigands, there are no known settlements in this area. This is exactly the reason that the monks decided to place the infant defenders in this province, hiding them away from prying eyes until they were ready to reshape the realm. Of the many dangers that lurk in the woods of Sumos, the Rock Serpents are by far the most lethal. Very territorial, a rock serpent that feels threatened can level many Yantars of woods in an attempt to destroy its perceived challenger. The Serpents originate from the Ban-Gafi Rift and few travel near here.

Altamor:

Also known as the ghost province, Altamar used to be almost completely covered by the wizard city of Altamar. Completely destroyed by the Spell of Binding, all that remains of a once beautiful and mystical city is a series of blackened, burnt earth and smoking, charred craters. Some burnt ruins remain to testify to the grandeur and beauty of Altamar, but in essence all that remains is a wasteland. Only the truly desperate or insane spend any time in Altamor as it is widely seen as haunted. When the Spell of Binding was cast, four great rifts in the earth spread out from the center of Altamor and now serve as great breaks that divide families and tribes.

Infinor:

Seat of the ancient Bakkorian kingdom, Infinor's geography is defined by the Rift of Yiman, which divides the province into Bakkor in the north and Nord-Binn in the south. Bakkor is the home of the dreaded thieves' guild, which controls much of the Black Vine forest and blighted swamp. In Northern Bakkor, many towns on the bay of Tantar thrive trading with Ogaman towns, despite the constant threat of large scale thieving and protection rackets. Nord-Binn is mainly made up of farming and herding of the plentiful Yin-on, a close relative of the Yan-on. Direction and guidance is provided by the Elders of Arboth, a mining town in the Binn-ar woods that digs out the most precious and rare stone in the realm. It is said that the stone for the pure stones came directly from Arboth. Attack stones carved from Arbothian stone help defend the Binn-yama bridge from thief incursions.

Yin-tos:

Yin-Tos is a very militarized and technologically advanced state like Ogama-Gor, but it lacks the maturity and tradition that the Ogaman military states have. Yin-tos armies are led by a warlord (Brackus currently) who has absolute and dictatorial power. Yin-tos military structure is based on who is the most brutal, ambitious, and cut-throat person amongst them all. The geography of this province closely reflects the nature of its people, made up of mainly barren rock and rotten forests; the land is hard, unyielding and cruel. A large ridge called The Barrier defines the boundaries of Yin-tos; it is said that the ridge is the remains of a once palatial string of fortresses that Yin-tos used to dominate the Realm beyond. Yintos is despised by the rest of the provinces because of its history of brutality and authoritarian use of power. Before the Wizards of Yan and the Di-Gata defenders reordered the Realm, Yintos held sway through draconian laws and brutal use of military power. When it was defeated by the defenders, Yintos went into a period of almost self-imposed exile from the Realm. When Nazmul betrayed the wizards, he found a very compliant conspirator in Yin-tos and their warlord Brackus. The armies of Yintos marched on Altamar and were all but destroyed in the conflagration of the Spell of Binding. Now rebuilt at great expense to the civilian population, the Yin-tos Armies and war machines are ready to once again claim their former glory. They were known to use carborad tanks.

Extending to the east of the province of Yin-Tos is a large expanse known as the 'Blasted Flats.' Essentially, it is a plain that seems to be made of glass and is uninhabitable. No one has ever traveled to the end of the Blasted Flats, but there is a legend that it was made by the ancient Bakkorians, presumably to keep something out of RaDos.

Organizations

Order of Infinis - The Order of Infinis was formed by a corrupt Wizard of Yan, Nazmul, who sought power and eternal life. They were the main antagonists of Season 1. In the end, Nazmul was sealed away (eventually killed), Brackus was banished to the Dark Realm for high treason, and the Yin-Tos army was destroyed in a civil war at the Spell Zone. Flinch was believed to be the only surviving member of the Order, until Brackus was found out to still be alive and Flinch somehow managed to find Malco again. The duo made an alliance with the Ethos to free Nazmul. The high members of the Order were once allies of the Defenders and helped to defeat the Ethos.

Ethos - Like the Order of Infinis, they are an organization with evil intentions. Long before the formation of the Order of Infinis, the Wizards of Yan imprisoned the Ethos in the Dark Realm, after the battle of Sum-Yan, using the Celestial Abyss. As part of their imprisonment, the Megalith was created as a result. When the Megalith was destroyed, it caused a force of energy powerful enough to release four Ethos back into Rados. Their plan is to merge both the Dark Realm and RaDos together, giving the Ethos what they desire: The Di-Gata energy they feed on, which will eliminate all life on the planet. They have made an alliance with the weakened Order of Infinis and have taken control over Malco.

Wizards of Yan - The most powerful beings of RaDos who hold enormous power. The Wizards were responsible for the creation of the Di-Gata Defenders to protect the Realm from evil. They were responsible for building the Machine of Binding, and the Celestial Abyss, as well as sealing away the Ethos and Megalith. Nowadays, they no longer exist except for a select few. Nazmul, Professor Alnar and Melosa including her grandmother are the only known Wizards.

Rougon - The most hated hunters in all of the Realm. Rougon are human hunters and do anything for profit. Their base is located underwater, a perfect place for buying illegal items and other treasures. Their hideout was destroyed by the Defenders after the Yinicor was released from its prison.

Di-Gata Defenders - The protectors of RaDos formed by the Wizards of Yan to protect the realm and its people from those who would use its sigil energy for evil. However, many Defenders over the years were killed in the line of duty and some defected over to the Order of Infinis. The current Defenders are Seth, Melosa, Erik, Rion, Adam and Kara and other notable Defenders were Rayald (killed by Malco), Formally Malco and the current Defenders' parents.

Yin-tos Army - They were once allies of to the Wizards of Yan against the Ethos in the Battle of Yan-Suma, then a subgroup of the Order of Infinis forces. These are mercenaries who are motivated by money and will go to any means to acquire it, but in the past were courageous warriors who fought to protect RaDos from evil. They swore allegiance to Brackus (both in the Wizard alliance and the Order of Infinis) and were under the sub-command of General Rube. After the collapse of the Order, some Yin-tos soldiers went to work for the Ethos.

Gatashin Monks - The group of monks who carried out quite a few tasks involving the Pure Stones. Four monks each carried a Pure Stone and hid it away, and some took the young Defenders to the Dojo, with the exception of Adam. The Key was hidden in the Amos-Yan Monastery, and guarded by the monks. A sub-sect of these monks also operate the Gatashin Prison, used to contain criminals that use RaDos' power for evil.

The Zad - A race of humanoid ant-eaters. They serve and carry out the will of Ethos. (See characters)

Yan-Nega class Wizards - They are wizards from the time of the Ethos. Kor Yin-an, a Yan-Nega class wizard who was with the Wizards at the Battle of Yan-Suma, wanted to betray them so he could plead for his life, but found himself locked up in a tomb for his betrayal.

Ogaman Federation - A group that Aaron the Hunter served with. They were formerly in possession of the Tome of Al-mortigar.

When they were done we were shocked and amazed.

Me: Whoa! Sounds like you all have your work cut out for you especially with all these evil factions running around and causing trouble.

Laney: Yeah that's horrible.

Melosa: Yeah it sure is. It's a big job but we were chosen for it.

Me: That's incredible.

Lily: You all have been through so much.

Lola: No kidding.

Tomahawk Man: Those Sigils of yours are really powerful.

Muscle Man: You know who else likes powerful Sigils? My mom!

We laughed at his joke.

Mordecai and Rigby: OOOOOHHHHHHH!

Me: Funny!

Seth: He sure is funny!

Me: Yeah. But these Sigils sure are powerful. It's amazing that they have this kind of power.

Twilight Sparkle: It's like magic.

Brittney: And some of us are users of magic too.

Tala: Just like me.

Harry Potter: (British Accent) And me and my friends.

Rion: But we had to go through a lot of training to use them.

Melosa: It's a big job but we have to do it to make sure that the world is safe from the evil forces that serve the Megalith.

Me: What is the Megalith?

Seth: A terrible monster that wants to destroy us all and destroy RaDos.

Seth went over what the Megalith is.

---

Description

The Megalith is an ancient creature that feeds on energy from the realm. It takes the form of a giant crustacean, with each of the eight power sigils engraved in the rocks on its back.

It attacks by firing a powerful energy beam from its mouth, and by reaching out with its tentacles to feed on energy. Its power is so great that it can manipulate and influence objects near it, and possess RaDosians.

Spell of Binding

Binding the Megalith was done in cycles, documented as far back as the Bakkorian period in "The Cycle". Nazmul was able to take control of the Megalith by carving it a guardian stone with Sari, and cast a spell that drained a lot of the realm's sigil energy to feed it to the Megalith.

The Pure Stones and the Machine of Binding were a new development by the Wizards of Yan, and concealed the Megalith's power into the four stones. However, it caused a large amount of damage to RaDos each time the Spell of Binding was cast. During the last Spell of Binding, it shattered the entirety of the Spell Zone and killed the Wizards of Yan and Defenders' parents. As the years went by, it slowly began to break through the seal again.

Inside the Pure Stones, the Megalith has created its own plane of existence which appears as a smog-filled wasteland. In "One Down", it overpowers Mel after she touches the Dako Pure Stone, and her mind enters the Megalith's realm. Inside she encounters both Nazmul and Alnar, who urge her to join the Order of Infinis in their quest for immortality. In "Dark Descent", after being fired at by an energy beam Seth is pulled into the Yan Pure Stone. He finds the Megalith, which has taken on Mel's form. It remarks that the Defenders will fall and begins to attack him, but is defeated by Kragus allowing Seth to escape.

Freedom

The Defenders manage to get their hands on all four Pure Stones, but were warned previous times by Sari and Brim about just how devastating the spell was. They do not realize this until the Spell Zone is being torn apart by the Spell of Binding, and by Nazmul explaining it to Seth during their battle. Although it would seal the Megalith forever, it would have completely destroyed RaDos.

They stop the Spell of Binding by destroying the machine before it is complete. The Megalith breaks free of its prison, and is immediately attracted to Nazmul's energy in the Nova Stone. It shoots energy beams at Seth until he hides in a nearby forest, and extends its tentacles to reach him. Seth puts the Nova Stone in the Yan-Altas Container causing it to lose interest and leave.

At a nearby farm, the Megalith fires a lightning bolt onto the home to possess the old woman living there. While engaging in combat with Seth, she fires a powerful energy blast that separates Kragus from him. She tells him that one she regenerates her power by feasting on the stones of Arboth, all of RaDos will burn. Before she destroys Seth, she is knocked unconscious by Omniaxor allowing Mel to release her from the Megalith's power. The Defenders then realize that this was just a distraction, as the Megalith is weak and needs to feed.

They use Flinch's teleporter to reach Arboth just as the Megalith prepares to feed. Seth opens the Yan-Altas Container to attract its attention and they attempt to incapacitate the Megalith. The Defenders cast their guardians as a distraction for them to use the Warrior Henge, and channel it through Kara for a powerful blast of energy. However, it is not enough power and the Megalith uses the energy to pull her to it. In a last ditch effort Seth casts the Nova Stone into Kara, which creates a blast so strong that it destroys the Megalith once and for all. It dissipates into the air as its energy returns to the realm.

When he was done we were all shocked.

Me: Whoa man!

Arkayna: That monster is just as terrible as the Spectral Hand on Gemina.

Me: But a thousand times worse. It's power must be terrifying.

Shanan: I've read about the Megalith and the huge amount of danger that it poses to RaDos. But to have you all protect the world from it and the number of enemies you all have, that is a huge responsibility.

Eli: It sure is.

Ets: A most honorable feat.

Seth: It sure is.

Me: And you guys lost your parents to the forces of evil that plagued this planet when they defeated the Megalith and Nazmul. That's a huge price. I'm so sorry guys.

Melosa: It's all right J.D.

Kara: But we are ready for anything.

Me: And you all would train for the day when Evil would rise again to plague RaDos. Wow.

Luke Skywalker: Just like what happened with me and Leia.

Leia: Yeah.

Naruto: And me.

Me: Yeah. That's huge. But your families would be very proud of how far you've all come.

Moonstone: Don't expect us to go after the Megalith right away. We prefer to save the more powerful villains for last.

Me: That's right. We've been all over the universe and in many universes all over the very fabric of time and space and took on the most dangerous and most powerful foes anyone can even fathom. Some of our enemies possessed enough power to obliterate the entire universe from existence and let me tell you, they all did have that kind of power. We've also been to many planets and faced so many enemies.

Nico: It's all true.

Seth: Wow!

Melosa: That's incredible.

Me: But after everything that happened to us over the last 5 years and when the Battle of Thanos surfaced we decided to go after the weakest enemies first. From the Weakest to the Strongest to help us be prepared for when the time comes to take down the leaders of factions and all that.

Nico: Yep.

Seth: Wow. You guys have your work cut out for you when you fight our enemies here. We have many enemies all over RaDos.

Me: You'll have to go over them as we take them all on one at a time.

Kara: We will.

Melosa: By the way J.D., what is Earth like?

Me: It's a beautiful planet. Just as beautiful as this one.

I showed them a holographic picture of Earth with my powers and it was gorgeous and they saw the huge tree that is our base.

Melosa: Wow! Earth is amazing.

Seth: It sure looks amazing.

Me: It is. Earth is loaded with all kinds of things and more. See that big tree?

I pointed to our World Tree Estate.

Me: That is our home.

Kara: Oh wow!

Erik: That big tree is your home?

Me: Yep. And the view of Earth from it is amazing.

Varie: Same with the stars.

Zarya: It's amazing.

Erik: Wow!

Seth: We'll have to see it when we check Earth out.

Me: You are in for an amazing treat.

Overbite: There's even this holiday called Earth Day coming up.

Me: Yep. And that is where we appreciate our planet and love it by caring for it.

Seth: Awesome.

Me: Yeah. But we'll tell you all about it later.

Nico: Are you guys having problems with any of your enemies right now?

Seth: As a matter of fact we are. We're about to face an evil cult called the Cultists of the Celestial Light.

Me: Can you tell us all about them?

Seth: Sure.

Seth went over who they were.

---

The Cultists of the Celestial Light are a group of RaDosians who believe in a prophecy that the blessed one would bring them the key to RaDos Prime.

Biography

They reside in the Spell Zone, hiding underground in a Wizard Tower, attacking any intruders who venture too close. The Head Cultist can cast a spell with an Ethos Stone, transforming the other members' sigil energy into an Ethos Spider. If the Spider is wounded, the Head Cultist is able to heal it and power it with black flames.

RaDos Prime

When the Defenders head to the Spell Zone looking for the fifth Icon, they are attacked by the Cultists. However, they stop when they discover that Seth holds the portal key and bow before him. The Head Cultist invites the Defenders to follow them into the realm of the great Creator.

Upon activating the Wizard Tower with the portal key, it takes off into a portal leading to RaDos Prime. The Cultists take them into the Temple of the Great Creator where the fifth Icon lies, which they believe is a holy relic. Instead of giving it to the Defenders, the Head Cultist wishes to sacrifice them in honour of the Creator. Erik manages to steal the Icon and they make a break for the Tower, chased by the Cultists. Before they make it, the Tower begins to take off and fires a blast at the Cultists, killing them all.

---

When he was done we were shocked.

Me: Oh man! That is not good.

Ben: That sounds like a cult that we faced a long time ago.

Kevin Levin: The Flame Keepers Circle.

Me: That evil cult that once thought that Dagon was a benevolent deity?

Ben: Yeah.

Julie Yamamoto: Yeah I don't know what I was thinking in joining them.

Seth: Who are they?

Me: The Flame Keepers Circle is an evil cult that is very similar to the one you told us about here. Except they worship a malevolent monster named Dagon.

I went over what they and Dagon were.

---

Flame Keepers Circle

The Flame Keepers' Circle, also known as the Esoterica, is an influential cult that worships an extradimensional being known as Dagon, who apparently visited Earth at the dawn of mankind to bring knowledge of fire and promised to return to bring Earth to a Utopian state of prosperity. They appeared as an antagonistic group in the Ben 10 series, and both the Flame Keepers' Circle and the Esoterica are also the sworn enemies of the Forever Knights.

At a circus, a preacher found the arch-nemesis of Ben Tennyson, Vilgax, who remarkably survived from their last battle, mistaking him as Diagon. They are a philanthropic organization who take donations and use them to provide humanitarian aid. Recruiting celebrities to spread their message is also common.

After Dagon's heart was cut out and pierced by Sir George's sword, the Flame Keepers' Circle built a cloaked shrine around it. The shrine travels between Diagon's dimension and ours, never appearing in the same location twice.

After Ben's last epic battle with Diagon and Vilgax, the Flame Keepers Circle and the Esoterica were disbanded.

Dagon

Dagon is a major antagonist in Ben 10: Ultimate Alien, serving as the overarching antagonist of Season 3. He is an extra-dimensional demonic entity who took a form of a dragon during medieval times.

Dagon is the worshipped deity of two modern day religious cults known as the Flame Keepers' Circle and the Esoterica who believed that he is an extra-terrestrial bring who had visited Earth many years ago and gave humans advanced technology. He is believed to have sworn to come back to Earth and bring the "Golden Age". He said he will bring alien tech so Earth would have no war, no disease, just peace. Vilgax was mistaken for and later pretended to be Dagon in "The Flame Keepers' Circle".

In fact, Dagon is an extra-dimensional demonic entity who is at least 1,700 years old and have tried to invade this dimension with help from many Lucubras during Earth's medieval era. He was banished back to his dimension when Sir George defeated him by cutting out his heart with Ascalon, a powerful weapon given to him by Azmuth centuries ago.

He was voiced by John DiMaggio, who also played Bender in the Futurama franchise, Dr. Drakken in Kim Possible, the Joker in Batman: Under the Hood, and Don Vito in the show Celebrity DeathMatch.

In "The Flame Keeper's Circle", Dagon was first introduced and his appearance was revealed in a craving at the headquarters.

In "A Knight to Remember", Dagon took control both of Gwen and Winston.

In "Solitary Alignment", his shadow was seen in a flashback.

Dagon's voice was heard in "The Enemy of My Frenemy", being called by the name Old One, a being who can bring dead people back to life. Charmcaster gave him six hundred thousand souls (from every living thing in Ledgerdomain except herself) and in return, asked to bring her father back to life. Spellbinder disapproves her attitude saying that his daughter became a worse tyrant than Adwaita ever was. Spellbinder says that he can't stay in Ledgerdomain knowing that his life was bought by the cost of so many others and decides to leave again. Charmcaster says no, but Spellbinder returns to the dead and the Dagon makes all souls return to their bodies, saying that "such is the way of magic".

In "The Beginning of the End", his voice was heard again when Sir George demand to face him instead he summoned Vilgax his Herald.

In "The Ultimate Enemy: Part 1", the Seal was finally broken, allowing Dagon to return to Earth's dimension from his own home dimension.

In "The Ultimate Enemy: Part 2", Dagon fights against Ultimate Way Big and defeats him with acid rain, later Dagon is absorbed by Vilgax. At the end of the episode, Ben used Ascalon to defeat Vilgax and in consequence absorbed Dagon, his power transformed into the form of a star because of Azmuth.

* * *

When I was finished everyone was shocked.

Seth: Whoa!

Melosa: That's horrible!

Erik: They are just like the Cultists of the Celestial Light!

Me: Except they were misguided in their beliefs. The Flame Keepers Circle believed that Dagon was a benevolent spirit that will bring the world into the new age. But in actuality he is a malevolent evil monster that will destroy the entire universe.

Ben: Yeah.

Seth: That's crazy!

Erik: I can't believe you all went through something like that.

Ben: I did but not everyone on Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: Yeah. And if Dagon comes back we're gonna be in for one devastating battle.

Nico: Yeah.

Me: Not only that but we've face many cults like this before and they are dangerous.

Griffin: What are the odds of us facing these cults at the same time?

Me: Hmm. With everything that is happening to us with the Dark Orbs, the Numbers and the Aparoids, I would say very high.

Lisa Loud: At around 99.7%.

Me: Yeah.

Nico: Oh boy. Two cults for the price of one. That is gonna be epic and scary.

Me: We've faced many kinds of cults before.

Starlight Glimmer: And I should know because I am a former cult leader myself.

Me: Right! I remember you told us that Starlight.

Brittney: Besides if the Flame Keeper's Circle does appear, I will face them. I have some special techniques for them that I made.

Eli: Wow.

Ets: We'll have to see them to believe it.

Carly Atlas: I have a feeling they are gonna be good.

Brittney: Yep.

Snaptrap: Where are the Cultists of the Celestial Light located?

Seth: In the Spell Zone underground in a Wizard Tower.

Me: Oh man. We're totally new to this whole planet and finding a place like that is gonna be like looking for a needle in a haystack.

Nico: Yeah no kidding.

Seth: Well instead of having us go to them how about they come to us?

Me: I was just about to suggest that Seth.

Nico: And I have a perfect plan for how we can lure them here.

Me: Lets hear it Nico.

Nico went over his plan.

Nico: First of all, they might try something to get to this temple.

Tala: (smirks) They're more than welcome to try.

Me: But we're ready for anything they try.

Nico: Okay my plan is this. Bruce you will play a key part in all this.

Hulk: Hulk ready for anything.

Nico: (Smirks) Perfect. First you need to revert back.

Bruce reverted back to Bruce Banner.

Nico: It's part of a trap I have set up. The Cultists are going to fake a surrender to get into the temple and then when they come in and see Bruce, he will smash them out of it as the Hulk.

Me: Ooh that is brilliant!

Seth: I like it.

May: Nice plan Nico.

Me: Great plan. They won't suspect a thing and we'll be on to them the entire time.

Bugly: Wait. Nico, what makes you think the Cult Members are going to try to get to this temple?

Nico: Just a feeling in my mind.

Eli: Nico is right. (Concentrates and senses something) I sense them. They are coming even as we speak.

Nico: Right on cue.

Me: Lets set up our trap everyone.

Seth: This is gonna be good.

Me: Yep.

Aylene C.: Yeah.

Tala: Well, after we kill the Cult members, their hideout is ours for the taking.

Me: Yep and after we search for their Sigils and books and all that we'll blow it to kingdom come.

Seth: Awesome.

Nico: Yep.

Lola: As long as we have anything to say about it, evil cults will never be welcome in the universe.

Lana: You said it sis.

Varie: And we will make sure that never will be welcome.

RD Me: Yep.

Kara: Who was the worst Cult you all have ever faced?

Me: Oh gosh that's a tough one. We faced so many of them all over the universe. But most of them were on Earth. It's hard to decide who was the worst out of all of them. Not only that but cults have been a huge problem for many of us over the centuries.

Nico: Lets see.

We got to thinking and it was hard to say.

Me: Man it's hard to say. It's hard to decide who is the worst out of all the cults that we faced.

Seth: You'll think about it.

Me: Yeah.

Nico: Here they come guys.

Me: Stand ready. And play along until the time is right.

We went up to them.

Me: Any last words before we kill you all?

Cult Leader: We surrender!

We were shocked at what the Cult leader just said.

Maria: Um… come again?

Cult Leader: (smirks) I said, we surrender. Obviously, we're no match for how powerful you all are.

Plug Man: I'm not buying it.

Nico: Me neither. Keep a close eye on them as we bring them to the temple before sending them to our prisons. If they try anything, blast them!

Me: Yes sir. (Winks at Nico)

Seth: Right.

We lead them to the temple.

Seth: Tell me something. You all usually never let us defeat you this easily. What are you all after?

Cult Leader: Nothing much. Just trying to kill you and your friends. And trying to fullfill the prophecy. Is that the answer you wanted?

Xiao Fung: Not even close.

Me: Yeah there has to be a more logical explanation. But just to be sure we're clear… (I form an energy ball) do anything and this energy ball goes through your heart and kills you.

Cult Leader: (GULPS)

Nico: (Winks at me)

We took them into a temple and then he went up to Bruce.

Cult Leader: I'm afraid you won't get the chance to use that energy ball.

Me: Why?

The Cult members then broke out of their handcuffs. The Cult leader then grabbed Bruce and put a knife to his throat.

Cult Leader: Hurry! We're losing him, doc! (laughs evilly)

Dirge: (smirks) Shouldn't have done that!

Bruce then turned into the Hulk!

Hulk: Hulk smash!

I smiled maliciously.

KRASMASH!

He smashed the Cult Leader in his face and sent him crashing into the wall of the temple outside.

Me: Now you all die.

I fired energy blasts and obliterated the Cult Members all over.

Me: You are washed up and the Cult of the Celestial Light is gonna be no more!

Seth: That's right! You will pay for your crimes.

Nico: And that prophecy you spoke about is nothing but a pack of lies like you are!

Laney: Yeah and you will pay for your crimes!

Red Ghost: Did you all really think that we didn't see this stunt of yours coming?

Nico: I knew what you were up to even before we confronted you all. So, I planted a trap to counter your trap.

May: And your smirks gave it away.

Me: That's right! (Eyes glow red) Now you all will pay for all of your crimes.

Eli: In blood.

Ets: And in death.

Nico: Now you will feel the full wrath of the Saiyans.

Cult Leader: What the hell is a Saiyan!?

Nico: Brace yourself freak! (Goes Super Saiyan 2)

Nico then pulverized the Cult Leader all over like how Bardock did to Lord Chill with incredible merciless fury and sent him flying into the air and smashed him into the ground.

Then the Cult Leader got up and he had blood dripping from his mouth and nose and skin.

Me: Nice work Nico.

Nico: Thanks. (Looks at watch) Our usual battles should be here right about now.

Out came Motor Ed, Ssserpent, Scorcher, Vortex, Firebrand, Biowulf, Electrocutioner, Electro and Magma!

Me: Motor Ed, Ssserpent, Scorcher, Vortex, Firebrand, Biowulf, Electrocutioner, Electro and Magma.

Motor Ed: Nico sure went to town with that guy. Seriously.

Me: No kidding.

Seth: Who are all of they?

Me: Meet our frenemies the Masters of Evil. They are here for our usual battles as we call them. Xiao Fung, Rojo, Griffin, Moonstone, Tala, Roxy Rocket, Private HIVE, and Red Ghost are part of them and they usually come with us to have some fun in the action.

Electro: (to Seth) It's nice to meet you and your friends.

Seth: Same here.

Ssserpent: (to Nico) That plan you made was brilliant!

Nico: Thank you.

Motor Ed: I thought you would be fighting them in their hideout. Seriously.

Biowulf: Considering how most cults are, I don't think that would've been a wise decision.

Me: I agree with you completely on that. But Nico's plan he came up with was sheer genius.

Lisa Loud: Indeed it was. A most impressive plan if I do say so myself.

Nico: Thanks guys.

Laney: You're welcome.

Me: We've taken down many cults before and usually they are out in the open. But not in this cults case.

Magma: Indeed. But smart thinking to lure them into a trap like that.

Me: Thanks Magma.

Madison: It was a clever trap.

May: Lets not give Nico a swollen head guys.

Magma: (to Koji) I really am glad to be fighting you again, Koji.

Koji: Same here Magma.

Madison: I think this is gonna be cool.

?: Maybe for you.

A bunch of figures came out and it was THE FLAME KEEPER'S CIRCLE and their cult leader was CONDUIT EDWARDS!

Ben: The Flame Keeper's Circle!

Julie Yamamoto: And Conduit Edwards!

Me: So you guys are the Flame Keeper's Circle that Ben told us all about.

Conduit Edwards: That's right. Conduit Edwards at your service. You will make excellent followers for us in our service to Dagon.

Me: Sorry to disappoint you all but I'm afraid that Dagon is not who you think he is.

Conduit Edwards: What do you mean?

Me: Dagon was a malevolent monster that was going to destroy everything in the entire universe. He was ULTIMATE EVIL!

Conduit Edwards: Blasphemor!

Me: You're the Blasphemor you filthy heratic!

Ben: (to Conduit Edwards) You're just mad because Sir George killed you last time!

Me: And not only that but Dagon is dead too!

Conduit Edwards: What!? That's impossible! Dagon can't be dead!

Me: Well he is and you are looking at his killer.

Ben: Me!

Conduit Edwards: You murderer!

He fired an energy wave at Ben and I stepped in front of the blast and deflected it back and killed a couple of Esoterica.

Brittney: He is my fight dad. He is about to see what the true horrors of the Cthulhu Mythos Gods can do. It's what he gets for messing with forces that are beyond Mortal Comprehension.

Me: Seth, you and your friends are in for an amazing show. Lets power up!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

The Mad Bomber then appeared and laughed hysterically.

Pfish & Chip then appeared with us.

Me: YEAH! Lets get them guys!

Chip: (Scottish Accent) This is gonna be good!

Pfish: Always ready for action!

Me: One of these days we'll have to have a talk with the police chief about how he treats you.

Pfish: Thanks guys.

Me: Lets get them.

We powered up and went at them.

Rainbow Dash: Yeah and this is gonna be awesome!

Elena: Yep.

Shocker: Cool!

Electro: You said it. Lets do it!

Ssserpent: (to Kimiko) I never was interested in what the Flame Keeper's Circle's goals were.

Kimiko: Me neither. They are totally misguided and blind to the truth.

Razorclaw: And I hope that Brittney sends them all back to hell.

Hun Gurr: Fuckin Heratics.

Twilight Sparkle: One of the most amazing ever.

Knight Man: Yeah it was.

Tomahawk Man: It sure was.

Yang: Funny thing is they only offered it once every 100 years.

Motor Ed: That is crazy! Seriously!

Motor Ed: That is great! Seriously. Lets do it!

Yang: You got it!

Motor Ed went at them on his Motorcycle and they flew into the air and fired energy blasts and smashed him down.

Yang: All right!

Twilight Sparkle: That was great!

Biowulf: (to Jake) We really should hire better guards to watch over Anderson and Pablo.

Jake: You got that right. But those two are nothing but absolute trouble.

Pinkie Pie: Big time party-poopers!

Overbite: But Benson really laid down the law with them like he did with Icky Vicky and Mordecai & Rigby.

Seawing: Yeah he sure did!

Biowulf: No kidding! I heard him yelling all the way over at HQ. What a yell.

Jake: It was awesome.

Biowulf: It sure was. Lets do it!

Biowulf went at them and slashed at them with his claws and they blasted him with fire and confetti and energy and smashed him down.

Bugly: Yeah and it's amazing that they can do so much with them.

Iguanus: I'll say.

Firebrand: I agree. Lets do it!

Firebrand fired waves of fire and the group fired waves of stars and energy and the blasts overtook the blast and smashed him down.

Kevin: YEAH!

Starlight Glimmer: That was fun!

---

Battle 7: Aerrow, Rarity, Tornado Man and Plug Man VS Vortex

---

Vortex was next.

Vortex: (to Aerrow) Can't believe you guys have to deal with two cults today.

Aerrow: I know but we have dealt with cults like these before.

Rarity: And they have the most abhorrent of styles.

Tornado Man: They sure do and their goals are horrible.

Plug Man: You got that right.

Vortex: I agree with you all. Lets do it!

---

Electrocutioner was next.

Electrocutioner: (to Emerald) Nico's plan is very similar to what Batman would've come up with. (shudders) It almost scares me.

Emerald Goldenbraid: But it was absolutely genius. They didn't even know what hit them and we were on to the cultists the whole time.

Applejack: But Brittney has something special planned for the Flame Keepers Circle.

Apple Bloom: Yeah and whatever it is will be so amazing!

Sweetie Belle: Yeah and we can't wait to see what it is.

Scootaloo: Oh yeah!

Electrocutioner: I hope Brittney gives the Flame Keepers Circle a taste of their own medicine.

Diamond Tiara: I have a feeling she will.

Silver Spoon: She is not called the Empress of Darkness for show.

Frozen Fright: I have a feeling that she will use techniques on them that are based on the great monsters of H.P. Lovecraft's Cthulhu Mythos.

Thunder Terror: Wow! Those monsters are ultimate scary.

Magma Gloom: Yeah and they are worse than the things you see in your worst nightmares.

Toxic Horror: That is gonna be epic to see!

Louie PoisonSea: I agree with you.

Dirge: Nice!

Ramjet: That is gonna be cool!

Electrocutioner: Indeed. Lets do it!

Electrocutioner fired waves of lightning and the group all fired waves of elements and the blasts all collided and hit Electrocutioner and smashed him down.

---

Battle 10: Brittney VS The Flame Keepers Circle & Number C4, Scarred Demon of the Chaotic End

---

The Flame Keepers Circle was next and Brittney was gonna make sure she unleashes the full extent of the powers of the most terrifying monsters ever known and made by the famous H.P. Lovecraft!

Brittney: You guys have unleashed the fury of your worst nightmares.

Conduit Edwards: We'll see about that.

Brittney: Darkness is coming on to you 100-fold.

Conduit Edwards: Get her!

The Esoterica phased through the world and Brittney used her powers to sense for them and then she sensed behind her and kicked a bunch of them all in their faces and smashed them down.

Brittney: Try this one for starters! NIGHTMARE STYLE NINJA ART: CRAWLING CARNAGE OF NYARLATHOTEP

Brittney fired a wave of darkness and it formed into the terrifying Crawling Chaos monster Nyarlathotep!

---

Nyarlathotep, also known as the Crawling Chaos, is a malign deity in the Cthulhu Mythos fictional universe created by H.P. Lovecraft. First appearing in Lovecraft's 1920 prose poem of the same name, he was later mentioned in other works by Lovecraft and by other writers and in the tabletop roleplaying games making use of the Cthulhu Mythos. Later writers describe him as one of the Outer Gods.

Nyarlathotep differs from the other beings in a number of ways. Most of them are exiled to stars, like Yog-Sothoth and Hastur, or sleeping and dreaming like Cthulhu; Nyarlathotep, however, is active and frequently walks the Earth in the guise of a human being, usually a tall, slim, joyous man. Most of them have their own cults serving them, while Nyarlathotep seems to serve them and take care of their affairs in their absence. Most of them use strange alien languages, while Nyarlathotep uses human languages and can be mistaken for a human being. Finally, most of them are all powerful yet purposeless, yet Nyarlathotep seems to be deliberately deceptive and manipulative, and even uses propaganda to achieve his goals. In this regard, he is probably the most human-like among them.

---

Nyarlathotep grabbed and ate a bunch of Esoterica and smashed them down and ripped them appart.

More Esoterica came at her.

Brittney: This will make you see black. NIGHTMARE STYLE NINJA ART: DARKNESS OF CROM CRUACH!

Brittney fired waves of darkness and they formed into the terrifying monster Crom Cruach!

---

Crom Cruach, also known as the Bloody Crooked One, is a Great Old One from the H.P. Lovecraft-inspired Cthulhu Mythos .

Description

Whilst information is scarce on Crom Cruach, it is suspected to manifest as some kind of cyclopean serpent or annelid, although as with all of its kind, it is sure to bear no more than a passing resemblance to such animals.

An ancient deity mentioned in an English translation of the Necronomicon who was worshiped in pre-Christian Europe, particularly in Celtic Ireland, those who sacrificed to the Bloody Crooked One were given the title Master of the Runes . It is said to lie dormant beneath the prehistoric megaliths known today as Stonehenge.

---

Crom Cruach smashed and butchered the Esoterica all over.

Brittney: These flames burn with nightmarish fury! NIGHTMARE STYLE NINJA ART: FIRESTORM OF CTHUGHA!

Brittney fired a wave of darkness into the sky and it formed into the Living Flame Cthugha!

---

Cthugha, also The Living Flame or The Burning One, is a Great Old One who features in the H.P. Lovecraft-inspired Cthulhu Mythos .

Very little is known about this entity, but what information does exist is truly terrifying: an elemental spirit of fire, Cthugha's physical form is that of a ball of dull orange plasma the size of a small planet, covered in ugly dark blotches and spouting great arcs of spinning flame. It originally hails from the star system Fomalhaut, but is now held in invisible chains by the Elder Gods somewhere in an undisclosed location. Unlike many of the other Great Old Ones, Cthugha is also known to be a deadly enemy of the Outer Gods.

In one story of Cthugha, a group of cultists in Wisconsin attempted to summon the Living Flame in an effort to drive off an avatar of Nyarlathotep.

The Flame Creatures of Cthugha

Although it is possible to encounter these entities on their own (especially through use of the correct summoning spells), the Flame Creatures of Cthugha, or Fire Vampires as they are also known, invariably accompany their master on those occasions that he is summoned to Earth. They appear as a swarm of bright specks surrounding Cthugha, and will go about the business of igniting everything that they can when in his presence.

---

It rained down fire and smashed a bunch of Esoterica all over the place.

Brittney: These eyes are all over you. NIGHTMARE STYLE NINJA ART: LASER SHOWER OF CYÄEGHA!

Brittney fired a wave of darkness and it formed into the eye creature Cyäegha!

---

Cyäegha, also known as The Destroying Eye or The Waiting Dark, is a Great Old One who appears in the H.P. Lovecraft-inspired Cthulhu Mythos .

History

Known to have existed since the beginning of time, Cyäegha has been both nurtured and imprisoned beneath Dunkelhügel for untold millennia, surrounded by five spirits known as the Vaeyen. These spirits, who inhabit small statues which encircle Cyäegha, are there to ensure that The Waiting Dark remains in captivity undisturbed. The descendants of his former cult in a nearby town perform a ritual once a month which fills the dual functions of supplication to their god and reinforcing of the magical chains of its binding.

Although Cyäegha is worshipped by these humans, they are also deathly afraid of waking him, as they fear what he might do to them. For this reason, the townsfolk generally avoid the area of the mountain when not on the business of performing their ritual.

---

It fired lasers and blew many Esoterica apart.

Brittney: Here's your so-called gods true form and his water is not friendly. NIGHTMARE STYLE NINJA ART: MAELSTROM OF DAGON!

Brittney fired a wave of dark water and it formed into a huge maelstrom and out of it came Dagon!

---

Dagon, also known as Father Dagon, is a creature which appears in the H.P. Lovecraft-inspired Cthulhu Mythos .

Description

A grotesque humanoid over fifty feet tall, Dagon resembles an enormously oversized Deep One with a fish like face, flapping gills and a scaled, slimy hide. There is in fact much debate over whether Dagon is a true Great Old One, or simply a Deep One grown to colossal proportions, as some Deep Ones continue to grow in size over the course of their life.

Dagon, along with his consort Mother Hydra and Great Cthulhu himself, is a member of the Deep Ones "holy trinity," the trio of beings worshiped as gods by that oceanic species. In addition, Cthulhu has entrusted the guardianship of his "daughter" Cthylla to Dagon and Mother Hydra, and the pair are thought to hold watch over her in one of their great underwater cities somewhere in the North Atlantic, although one eye witness account apparently places Dagon on an island in the Pacific Ocean, somewhere east of Java.

In addition to their following of Deep Ones, Father Dagon and Mother Hydra are worshiped by a cult of humans and human-Deep One hybrids known as the Esoteric Order of Dagon, although since the United States government enacted its purge on Innsmouth, this cult is much smaller than it was in days gone bye, and much more secretive regarding its practices.

Dagon was one of the targets of the Wilmarth Foundations' Project X in early 1980. The objective of the operation was to annihilate Father Dagon, Mother Hydra and Cthylla, but was ultimately unsuccessful, and the three were able to escape to safety.

---

Dagon roared and smashed a bunch of Esoterica all over and fired waves of energy and blew them apart.

Brittney: These fires are hungry for you! NIGHTMARE STYLE NINJA ART: BLOODFEAST OF FTHAGGUA THE FIRE VAMPIRE KING!

Brittney fired waves of dark fire and it formed into the Fire Vampire King, Fthaggua!

---

Fthaggua is an entity which appears in the H.P. Lovecraft-inspired Cthulhu Mythos .

Description

The King Regent of the Fire Vampires, Fthaggua appears as a great flickering ball of cold blue flame. He lives with his servants within an enormous edifice upon the surface of the blue comet Ktynga, a celestial body which Fthaggua can steer across the cosmos and which is possessed of many strange properties, not least the incredible heat that it radiates or the fact that it can exceed the speed of light.

He is also the High Priest of the Great Old One Cthugha, and may in fact even be its offspring, although this has yet to be confirmed.

The Fire Vampires of Fthaggua

These entities are Fthaggua's subjects and dwell with him upon Ktynga. They appear as electrical discharges of bright crimson and, like their lord, feast upon the life-energy of sentient creatures. During this process, the victim will burst into flames as the Fire Vampires consume not only their essence, but their very memories as well. These stolen memories are added to the species' gestalt consciousness, which in turn allows them to better plan their raids against the races of the universe, as the Fire Vampires' sole purpose in life is to feed.

Fthaggua and his terrible race are due to reach planet Earth around four hundred years from now.

The fire vampires burned and ate a bunch of Esoterica.

Brittney: You won't like the waters of this terror! NIGHTMARE STYLE NINJA ART: SEA OF GHISGUTH THE SOUND OF THE DEEP WATERS!

Brittney fired a wave of water and it formed into the terrifying monster Ghisguth!

---

Ghisguth, also known as Ghizguth or The Sound of Deep Waters, is a Great Old One who appears in the H.P. Lovecraft-inspired Cthulhu Mythos .

Description

Appearing as a gargantuan mass of protoplasm, Ghisguth is known to be able to take on the form of a titanic cetacean when the mood takes it. It inhabits the deepest, darkest depths of the ocean, where no light can reach, although whether it actually has an aversion to light or just prefers to live in the shadows is a mystery.

Ghisguth is believed to have been sired in a distant star-system untold thousands of years ago, but the story of how it came to Earth has not been told.

---

He blasted the Esoterica all over with sound blasts and smashed them all over the place.

Brittney: This monster will turn your dreams into your worst nightmares! NIGHTMARE STYLE NINJA ART: DREAM STORM OF AZATHOTH!

Brittney fired a wave of dark energy and it formed into the terrifying Azathoth!

---

Azathoth is a deity in the Cthulhu Mythos and Dream Cycle stories of H. P. Lovecraft and other authors. Its epithets include The Nuclear Chaos, The Daemon Sultan and The Blind Idiot God, who unintentionally created the universe & sits at the center of it. He is said to be a swirling mass of tentacles reaching an impossible size.

---

It turned their dreams into nightmares and he ate a bunch of the Esoterica.

Brittney: You will not like these primal terrors! NIGHTMARE STYLE NINJA ART: PRIMAL MAYHEM OF SHOGGOTH!

Brittney fired waves of darkness and leaves and they formed into the primal savages and protoplasmic terror Shoggoth!

---

Shoggoths (sometimes known as Shaggoths ) are creatures which appear in H.P. Lovecraft's Cthulhu Mythos .

Enormous beings who would measure some fifteen feet across if they formed their bodies into a sphere, Shoggoths are amorphous creatures composed of a malleable protoplasm, something akin to a colossal amoeba. They are capable of forming whatever organs or appendages they require for the task at hand, although their usual state is a writhing mass of eyes, mouths and wriggling tentacles.

Shoggoths have a tendency to scream a cry of "Tekeli-li! Tekeli-li!" over and over again. This sound is theorised to have been an instruction uttered by their former Elder Thing masters, or possibly an exhortation to greater effort.

It should be noted that while the "fifteen foot sphere" measurement is true of most Shoggoths, there are smaller and much, much larger variants of these beasts.

History

Aeons ago, when the race of alien beings known as the Elder Things came to Earth, they realized that they required a source of exploitable labour. Using their vast scientific knowledge, they genetically engineered the Shoggoths to construct cities, tend farms and perform a myriad of other tasks for them, their natural shapeshifting abilities making them perfect for working on both the land and at sea.

Originally created to be nothing more than a mindless workforce controlled through hypnotic suggestion, over the next few millions of years the Shoggoths slowly evolved a certain sentience, became dissatisfied with their place in society, and rose up against their masters. Whilst this rebellion was quickly put down by the Elder Things and their advanced technology, the destruction of the Shoggoths was by this point not an option; the Elder Things had come to rely too heavily on their creations for their civilization to function without them.

Fast forward another few million years and the Shoggoths revolted again; this time, however, they were more coordinated and caught the Elder Things completely off guard. Unable to stop the advance of the Shoggoths, even with atomics and directed energy weapons, the Elder Things finally retreated to their last and greatest city, located deep in the Antarctic interior; this city, being constructed both on land and underwater, was the site of the last battle against the Shoggoths. Finally losing control of the landward portion of the city, the remaining Elder Things atempted to retreat to the undersea section, not realising that it was already infested with Shoggoths, and the last of Earth's Elder Things were destroyed, torn apart by their former slaves.

From then until the present day, the number of Shoggoths active on Earth has slowly dwindled to next to nothing, and in the modern age can only be found in the Elder Things' abandoned city in Antarctica, in the deepest oceans, and hidden away in the darkest, most inaccessible corners of the world.

The underwater race known as the Deep Ones have been known to make use of the services of Shoggoths (specifically a breed known as Sea Shoggoths), although what the terms of these contracts are and how payment is made is unknown.

The alien Mi-go have also conducted experiments with Shoggoths, performing mind-grafts on captured examples to produce a more placid and easy-to-control breed. These Shoggoths go by the name of ghols or ghol-things.

---

The cannibals and Shoggoth butchered and mutilated a bunch of Esoterica.

Brittney: Feel the horror of decay! NIGHTMARE STYLE NINJA ART: DARK FIRESTORM OF MH'ITHRHA!

Brittney fired a wave of decay energy and darkness and it formed into the terrifying Mh'ithrha!

---

Mh'ithrha, also known as The Arch-Lord of Tindalos, is an entity which features in the H.P. Lovecraft-inspired Cthulhu Mythos .

Description

The master of the Hounds of Tindalos, Mh'ithrha is the mightiest member of that strange species. Although invisible to the human eye, it's physical form is said to be that of a gargantuan wolf, somewhat resembling the beast Fenrir from Norse mythology.

Mh'ithrha has been engaged in a war with Yog-Sothoth for all of eternity; stories of this conflict are the stuff of legend in the Cthulhu universe, and the fact that it has not been annihilated by such a being gives a hint to the true extent of Mh'ithrha's power.

---

The Decay Entity smashed and disintegrated the Esoterica all over and smashed them into nothing.

Brittney: Hope you all know a good psychotherapist because you will need over 100 of them! NIGHTMARE STYLE NINJA ART: INSANITY OF CTHULHU!

Brittney spoke in a horrifying language and runes appeared and they formed into the face of Cthulhu!

---

Cthulhu (normally pronounced ke-TOO-loo or ka-THOO-loo ) is a fictional god-like monstrosity invented by 20th-century horror writer H.P. Lovecraft. First appearing in Lovecraft's short story "The Call of Cthulhu", this creature is a cosmic being of terrifying power, described as being a manifestation of chaos and destruction.

The Call of Cthulhu

The most detailed descriptions of Cthulhu in "The Tale of Cthulhu" are based on statues of the creature. One, constructed by an artist after a series of baleful dreams, is said to have "yielded simultaneous pictures of an octopus, a dragon, and a human caricature. A pulpy, tentacled head surmounted a grotesque and scaly body with rudimentary wings." Another, recovered by police from a raid on a murderous cult, "represented a monster of vaguely anthropoid outline, but with an octopus-like head whose face was a mass of feelers, a scaly, rubbery-looking body, prodigious claws on hind and fore feet, and long, narrow wings behind."

When the creature finally appears, the story says that the "thing cannot be described," but it is called "the green, sticky spawn of the stars", with "flabby claws" and an "awful squid-head with writhing feelers." Johansen's phrase "a mountain walked or stumbled" gives a sense of the creature's scale (this is corroborated by Wilcox's dreams, which "touched wildly on a gigantic thing 'miles high' which walked or lumbered about"). Cthulhu is depicted as having a worldwide cult centered in Arabia, with followers in regions as far-flung as Greenland and Louisiana. There are leaders of the cult "in the mountains of China" who are said to be immortal. Cthulhu is described by some of these cultists as the "great priest" of "the Great Old Ones who lived ages before there were any men, and who came to the young world out of the sky."

The cult is noted for chanting its horrid phrase or ritual: " Ph'nglui mglw'nafh C'thulhu R'lyeh wgah'nagl fhtagn," which translates as "In his house at R'lyeh dead C'thulhu waits dreaming." This is often shortened to "C'thulhu fhtagn," which might possibly mean "C'thulhu waits," "C'thulhu dreams," or "C'thulhu waits dreaming."

One cultist, known as Tim Sonnek, provides the most elaborate information given in Lovecraft's fiction about Cthulhu. The Great Old Ones, according to Castro, had come from the stars to rule the world in ages past.

They were not composed altogether of flesh and blood. They had shape but that shape was not made of matter. When the stars were right, They could plunge from world to world through the sky; but when the stars were wrong, They could not live. But although They no longer lived, They would never really die. They all lay in stone houses in Their great city of R'lyeh, preserved by the spells of mighty Cthulhu for a glorious resurrection when the stars and the earth might once more be ready for Them.

Castro points to the "much-discussed couplet" from Abdul Alhazred's Necronomicon :

That is not dead which can eternal lie. And with strange aeons even death may die.

Castro explains the role of the Cthulhu Cult: When the stars have come right for the Great Old Ones, "some force from outside must serve to liberate their bodies. The spells that preserved Them intact likewise prevented them from making an initial move." At the proper time, the secret priests would take great Cthulhu from his tomb to revive His subjects and resume his rule of earth. Then mankind would have become as the Great Old Ones; free and wild and beyond good and evil, with laws and morals thrown aside and all men shouting and killing and revelling in joy. Then the liberated Old Ones would teach them new ways to shout and kill and revel and enjoy themselves, and all the earth would flame with a holocaust of ecstasy and freedom.

Castro reports that the Great Old Ones are telepathic and "knew all that was occurring in the universe." They were able to communicate with the first humans by "moulding their dreams," thus establishing the Cthulhu Cult, but after R'lyeh had sunk beneath the waves, "the deep waters, full of the one primal mystery through which not even thought can pass, had cut off the spectral intercourse."

August Derleth

August Derleth, a literary protégé and founder of the publishing house that first printed Lovecraft's works, wrote several stories in the Cthulhu Mythos (a term he coined) that dealt with Cthulhu, both before and after Lovecraft's death. In "The Return of Hastur", written in 1937, Derleth proposes two groups of opposed cosmic entities, > the Old or Ancient Ones, the Elder Gods, of cosmic good, and those of cosmic evil, bearing many names, and themselves of different groups, as if associated with the elements and yet transcending them: for there are the Water Beings, hidden in the depths; those of Air that are the primal lurkers beyond time; those of Earth, horrible animate survivors of distant eons.

According to Derleth's scheme, "Great Cthulhu is one of the Water Beings." Derleth indicated that "the Water Beings oppose those of Air"-a departure from traditional elemental theory, in which water and fire were opposed-and depicted Cthulhu as engaged in an age-old arch-rivalry with a designated Air elemental, Hastur, whom he describes as Cthulhu's "half-brother."

Based on this framework, Derleth wrote a series of stories, collected as The Trail of Cthulhu, about the struggle of Dr. Laban Shrewsbury and his associates against Cthulhu and his minions, culminating, in "The Black Island" (1952), with the atomic bombing of R'lyeh, which Derleth has moved to the vicinity of Ponape. Derleth describes Cthulhu in that story as > a thing which was little more than a protoplasmic mass, from the body of which a thousand tentacles of every length and thickness flailed forth, from the head of which, constantly altering shape from an amorphous bulge to a simulacrum of a man's head, a single malevolent eye appeared.

Derleth's interpretations are not universally accepted by enthusiasts of Lovecraft's work, and indeed are criticized by many for projecting a stereotypical conflict between equal forces of objective good and evil into Lovecraft's strictly amoral continuity.

Cthulhu spoke in a horrible language and then the Esoterica went crazy! They killed each other and yelled with incredible insanity!

Brittney: Feel the wrath of the terror of sleep. NIGHTMARE STYLE NINJA ART: SLEEPING TERROR OF TSATHOGGUA!

Brittney fired a wave of darkness and it formed into the terrifying Tsathoggua!

---

Tsathoggua, also known as The Sleeper of N'Kai or Zhothaqquah, is a Great Old One who features in the H.P. Lovecraft-inspired Cthulhu Mythos .

Bearing a vague resemblance to a vast black toad covered in short fur, Tsathoggua's true form is incomprehensible to the mortal eye, but contains elements of both the bat and sloth. He is capable of changing his form, however, as he was once seen to transform into an elongated centipede-like creature with hundreds of long legs.

Tsathoggua is said to be a lazy creature, and would rather wait for a sacrifice than seek out a victim, even when half-crazed with hunger.

History

Spawned in the binary star system of Xoth uncounted millennia ago, Tsathoggua and several other Great Old Ones fled this place in order to escape the depredations of the hungry Outer God Cxaxukluth, and settled for a while on Yaksh (modern-day Neptune). There he met and mated with another Great Old One, Shathak, and their union produced a single offspring, the creature known as Zvilpogghua.

However, Tsathoggua grew tired of this world, and moved on, briefly staying on Cykranosh (Saturn) with Atlach-Nacha before finally settling in the great cavern of Yoth on Earth, where he resides to this day, worshiped by the deadly Serpent Men, as well as the Formless

Spawn and the Voormis.

---

Tsathoggua smashed and obliterated a bunch of Esoterica all over.

Brittney: This one will bury you six feet under. NIGHTMARE STYLE NINJA ART: DECAY OF XHAMEN-DOR!

Brittney fired a wave of darkness and it formed into the decaying parasite Xhamen-Dor!

---

Xhamen - Dor, also known as The Inmost Blot or The Star Seed, is a Great Old One of decay, parasites, and transformation who appears in the H.P. Lovecraft-inspired Cthulhu Mythos .

Description

It is a Great Old One whose form is a monstrous hybrid of fibrous, twisted hair-like fungal tendrils and toadstool-like growths which emerges from a mass of bones or a great corpse. Xhamen-Dor has various incarnations and forms it has taken, one of which is that of a serpentine dragon.

History

It originated in Carcosa, from the residue left behind by Hastur which fused with the remnants of the minds and souls of those consumed by Carcosa. Xhamen-Dor borrows into the minds of those who have learned either its name or the true nature of Xhamen-Dor, spreading within their bodies and turning them into undead servants. It has visited countless worlds, turning their inhabitants into the undead, and feeding them to Carcosa.

---

He fired waves of gas and disintegrated a bunch of Esoterica into skeletons.

Brittney: These snakes are hungry. NIGHTMARE STYLE NINJA

ART: CAVE TERROR OF YOTH!

Brittney punched the ground and a cave arch formed and eyes on it opened and it was the snakes of the arch of Yoth!

---

Yoth is a location which appears in the H.P. Lovecraft-inspired Cthulhu Mythos .

Description

An unimaginably vast crimson cavern located beneath the subterranean land of Kn-yan, which is itself sited somewhere deep beneath the deserts of Oklahoma, Yoth was once home to the reptilian Serpent Men. The Serpent Men fled to Yoth after a long war with the surface-dwelling humans culminated in their defeat. Over the next few millennia they colonised the land and built many great cities across the face of their new lair, all under the watchful eyes of their gods Yig and Coatlicue.

Eventually, however, the Serpent Men sealed their own fate when they uncovered idols of the Great Old One Tsathoggua in the cavern of N'kai and turned their back on their creator, the Serpent God Yig. Showing his displeasure, Yig placed a great curse upon his children, forcing them to once again flee, the few survivors scattering to the winds.

In the modern day, little remains in the great cavern of Yoth, save for the infrequent ruins which were once the mighty cities of the Serpent Men.

---

The snakes ate the Esoterica and destroyed them.

Brittney: How about these stars? NIGHTMARE STYLE NINJA ART: STELLAR FEAST OF ZVILPOGGHUA!

Brittney fired waves of stars and they formed into the star eater Zvilpogghua!

---

Zvilpogghua, also Ossadagiwah, Zvilpoggua, The Star Beast or The Feaster from the Stars, is a Great Old One who features in H.P. Lovecraft's Cthulhu Mythos .

Zvilpogghua most often assumes the form of a colossal bipedal toad, lacking in arms but possessed of a pair of leathery wings. It is also said to have a long neck and a face covered in thick, grasping tentacles. The occult volume " Of Evill Sorceries Done in New-England of Daemons in no Humane Shape " makes mention of this dire entity.

Avatar

Known by the name of Ossadagiwah to prehistoric Native Americans, Zvilpogghua is capable of manifesting an avatar known as The Star Beast, which was occasionally summoned by these peoples. However, this was only done in times of direst need as, once summoned, the beast would only return to the heavens when it so chose. What form this avatar assumed is unknown.

History

Believed to have been spawned on the planet Yaksh to the Great Old Ones Tsathoggua and Shathak, Zvilpogghua now resides on the planet Yrautram, a world which orbits the star Algol in the constellation of Perseus.

---

The creatures blasted the Esoterica all over the place and smashed them to pieces.

Brittney: These gates are opened for your death. NIGHTMARE STYLE NINJA ART: TERRORS OF THE GATES OF YOG-SOTHOTH!

Brittney fired waves of energy and it formed into a gate and out of it came the tentacles of Yog-Sothoth!

---

Yog-Sothoth, also The Lurker at the Threshold, Opener of the Way, Beyond-One, All-in-One and One-in-All, is an Outer God from H.P. Lovecraft's Cthulhu Mythos .

Manifesting most commonly as a celestial collection of glowing spheres, Yog-Sothoth lives in co-existence with the entirety of time and space of all continua; as such, it knows all and sees all, yet is still locked out of the universe by unknown means. Despite this, it is an entity of vast knowledge and power, and those who treat with it may learn much; any who do so must be wary, however: as with many of the creatures of the beyond, the mere sight of Yog-Sothoth's full form is sufficient to drive the mortal mind over the edge of insanity.

Avatars

As Yog-Sothoth is unable to manifest in the multiverse, it must rely on a series of avatars to do its bidding. Some of these are included below.

Aforgomon

One of the more obscure of Azathoth's avatars, Aforgomon is worshiped by many cultures as the God of Time; it possesses the ability to manipulate not only time but also space. Almost nothing is known of the appearance of this being, as it only shows itself to those that have angered it; such individuals do not tend to live long.

'Umr at-Tawil

Another being with a connection to time, 'Umr is said to preside over the eternal halls beyond the Gate of the Silver Key and the incredibly powerful Ancient Ones that live there. This aspect is said to appear as the outline of a human veiled behind a shimmering curtain. This is one of Yog-Sothoth's more benevolent avatars.

The Eater of Souls

An avatar of Yog-Sothoth worshiped by the Lloigor, this facet is believed to devour some kind of life-force from living beings, a substance that the Lloigor needed for an unstated purpose.

---

The tentacles pulled in a bunch of Esoterica and ate them.

Brittney: These snakes are hungry for you. NIGHTMARE STYLE NINJA ART: SNAKES OF YIG!

Brittney fired a wave of darkness and it formed into the Father of Serpents, Yig!

---

Yig, also known as The Father of Serpents or The Snake-God, is a Great Old One which appears in H.P. Lovecraft's Cthulhu Mythos.

Manifesting as a gigantic snake with the arms of a man, or sometimes a reptilian humanoid creature, Yig is considered to be the god of snakes and serpents everywhere. He feels a fierce devotion to his "children," emerging from his sleep every autumn to punish those who harm them. He does this either by turning them into serpents or serpent-like wretches themselves, or simply sending other snakes to kill them when they sleep.

History

In times long passed, Yig and his then-mate Coatlicue ruled the crimson cavern of Yoth beneath the subterranean land of K'n-yan, where the two were worshiped as gods by the denizens of Yoth, the Serpent Men. This arrangement came to an end when the Serpent Men transferred their veneration to Tsathoggua, and mighty Yig placed his curse upon them.

One story of Yig tells of a couple from Arkansas in the 1800's who were moving to Oklahoma in search of a better life. On their journey, the woman came across a nest of newborn rattlesnakes; knowing the fear her husband had for these animals, she killed them with the butt of her rifle, to spare him from the sight. Later that year in the fall, having built themselves a cabin and carved out an existence for themselves, the Father of Serpents came for the woman and her family in the night. Sending a swarm of his children to kill their dog, Yig then tricked the woman into killing her husband with an axe, having her believe that he was actually Yig come to take his vengeance. Finally the Snake-God transformed her into a part-human, part-reptile monstrosity, cursing her to wriggle on her belly like a snake for all eternity.

Yig is also thought to be the deity responsible for the legends of the Kukulcan and Quetzalcoatl worshipped by native tribes in Central and South America.

---

The snakes and Yig fired venom blasts and dissolved a bunch of Esoterica all over.

Brittney: These plants have eyes all over. NIGHTMARE STYLE NINJA ART: GROWTH OF VULTHOOM!

---

Brittney punched the ground and a terrifying plant grew and it was Vulthoom!

---

Vulthoom, also known as Gsarthotegga or The Sleeper of Ravormos, is a being which features in the H.P. Lovecraft-inspired Cthulhu Mythos .

Description

Whilst under the influence of a powerful plant-based hallucinogenic, one man had a vision of Vulthoom as looking like an enormous alien plant, although this may not be its actual form, and until the being awakens from its long slumber and ventures forth, no one may know it's true appearance.

History

Although believed by the Martian Aihai to be their own version of Satan, Vulthoom is in reality a highly intelligent and technologically advanced alien. Exiled from its own reality by others of its kind for reasons unknown, Vulthoom assumed control of Mars in ages long past, but has since slipped into a millennia-long torpor and now rests in the subterranean city of Ravormos. There it sleeps, dreaming of the day when it will awaken and bring to heel its next conquest, the planet Earth.

---

They smashed and pulverized a bunch of Esoterica all over the place.

Brittney: These hunts have just begun. NIGHTMARE STYLE NINJA ART: THE THOUSAND HUNTS OF SHUB-NIGGURATH!

Brittney fired a wave of darkness and it formed into Shub-Niggurath!

---

Shub-Niggurath, often associated with the phrase "The Black Goat of the Woods with a Thousand Young", is a deity in the Cthulhu Mythos of H. P. Lovecraft. The creature is sometimes referred to as "The Black Ram of The Forest with a Thousand Ewes," lending a male gender to the entity that is often thought of as female.

Shub-Niggurath is first mentioned in Lovecraft's revision story "The Last Test" (1928); she is never actually described in Lovecraft's fiction, but is frequently mentioned or called upon in incantations. Most of her development as a literary figure was carried out by other Mythos authors, including August Derleth, Robert Bloch and Ramsey Campbell.

August Derleth classified Shub-Niggurath as a Great Old One, but the Call of Cthulhu role-playing game classifies her as an Outer God. The CthulhuTech role-playing game, in turn, has returned to Derleth's classification of Shub-Niggurath as a Great Old One.

She is a perverse fertility deity said to appear as an enormous cloudy mass which extrudes black tentacles, slime-dripping mouths, and short, writhing goat legs. Small creatures are spat forth, which are either reconsumed into the miasmatic form or escape to some monstrous life elsewhere.

---

The creature grabbed a bunch of Esoterica and ate the last of them and killed them.

Brittney: And now Conduit Edwards, I saved the best for last for you. NIGHTMARE STYLE NINJA ART: SHAPESHIFTING TERROR OF SHATHAK!

Brittney fired a wave of darkness and it formed into the evil shapeshifting horror Shathak!

---

Shathak, also known as Chushax or Zishaik, is a Great Old One who appears in the H.P. Lovecraft-inspired Cthulhu Mythos .

Description

Very little is known about Shathak, although according to the ancients manuscripts known as the Parchments of Pnom, she mated with Tsathoggua on the planet Yaksh, known in modern times as Neptune, and spawned the Great Old One Zvilpogghua. Her current whereabouts and activities are unknown.

---

It grabbed Edwards and ate him and killed him and out came a Number Card and it was NUMBER C4: NOIRR, SCARRED DEMON OF THE CHAOTIC END!

Brittney: Number C4: Noirr, Scarred Demon of The Chaotic End. Interesting choice for bringing Conduit Edwards and the Flame Keepers Circle back. But now we've seen the last of them.

---

Battle 11: Pfish & Chip VS The Mad Bomber.

---

The Mad Bomber was next.

Pfish: This is gonna be so fun!

Chip: I'll drive this guy!

The Mad Bomber laughed hysterically and threw a bunch of bombs and Pfish and Chip dodged them as they exploded!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

Robots in San Francisco

On the Dwarf Asteroid, Ceres, we were there to visit a certain jerk that is very well hated by SpongeBob and friends: BUBBLE BASS!

---

Bubble Bass is a recurring antagonist in the famous Nickelodeon original animated hit series, SpongeBob SquarePants . He is an overweight sea bass who regularly goes to the Krusty Krab to boss the staff around and place unreasonably tall orders with SpongeBob and Squidward, while serving as Spongebob's arch-rival and occasional arch-nemesis.

Bubble Bass is an unemployed basement dweller, who still lives in his mother's basement. He spends most of his time eating junk food, reading comic books, and playing with action figures. Bubble Bass is a cerebral narcissist, who feels as though he is intellectually superior to everyone around him and he is rudely condescending to everyone he meets because of this. Bubble Bass occasionally antagonizes mainly the Krusty Krab employees, SpongeBob, Squidward, and Mr. Krabs. Although, he has been known to torment other Bikini Bottomites, relentlessly, usually for no reason at all.

He is voiced by Dee Bradley Baker.

Series

Bubble Bass first appeared in the episode " Pickles " as the main antagonist. Being an old rival of SpongeBob, Bubble Bass hears that SpongeBob is making a living by cooking Krabby Patties at the Krusty Krab. He decides to test SpongeBob's fry cook skills by trying one of his Krabby Patties and making the order very complicated. Although SpongeBob got the order, Bubble Bass complains that there were no pickles in the order and mocks SpongeBob for it. He then forces Mr. Krabs to pay him back 2 dollars (per guarantee policy as stated). This event caused SpongeBob to lose faith in making Krabby Patties in the right order, so Mr. Krabs helps him out of regaining his faith in order to keep the Krusty Krab in business.

After a couple of days, SpongeBob returns to the Krusty Krab where he cooks another Krabby Patty for an arriving Bubble Bass, proclaiming that he didn't forget the pickles. However, while eating the patty, Bubble Bass points out that there are still no pickles and mocks SpongeBob for his failure again. However, an angry SpongeBob soon found out that Bubble Bass was actually hiding the pickles under his tongue the whole time (including the ones from the last patty that he ate) and proved this to everyone, making them realize two things: that SpongeBob had gone through his self-doubt over absolutely nothing, and that Bubble Bass was trying to avoid paying for the patties the whole time (and had also apparently stolen the car keys of Shubie, which he also had hidden under his tongue). As a result, with his lies exposed, the angry customers surround Bubble Bass, who cowardly runs away to avoid punishment.

Bubble Bass made a cameo appearance in " F.U.N. ", being in the same theater as SpongeBob. At first, he unknowingly sits on Plankton, then squashes him deliberately after SpongeBob asks him to get up, forcing SpongeBob to lure him away by throwing some popcorn. At the very end of the episode, Plankton lands on Bubble Bass' hand and is subsequently chased by his other hand, being mistaken for a jelly bean.

After years of absence, Bubble Bass reappears in the episode " Plankton's Good Eye ", where he jumps out of a burning house for Plankton to save him, but instead ends up crushing him by accident. By this point, he appears to be kinder and friendlier, at least to certain people.

In " Bulletin Board ", Bubble Bass praised "P-Star 7" for giving The Krusty Krab negative reviews on the community bulletin board, detailing him as a "true hero of our troubled times". He, himself also got in on the action of panning the restaurant, under the pseudonym, "Handsome Lad 42". If that wasn't enough rudeness to make him a detestable character in the episode, Bubble Bass also laughed in the face of SpongeBob, while the latter was down in the dumps, due to receiving an insulting message from "P-Star 7", which seemingly destroyed his career.

In " Larry the Floor Manager ", Bubble Bass holds up the line at the Krusty Krab, placing a ridiculously specific order, driving the line and to a larger extent, Squidward, to absolute madness. When enough of a squabble was raised to alert Mr. Krabs, he came out to the floor and shut Bubble Bass up, by jamming his mouth shut with a regular Krabby Patty, considering that his meal, and charging him full price for it.

Later on, in a newly transformed gymnasium version of the Krusty Krab, Bubble Bass complained about the protein shakes and then sat down on Squidward.

In a cruel twist of irony, the episode " Krabby Patty Creature Feature ", saw Bubble Bass getting mutated into a Double Triple Bossy Deluxe, after eating the pickles on a zombified Krabby Patty version of Mr. Krabs. This, of course, led to Bubble Bass getting zombified as well and he joined right in with the evil zombie armada.

Bubble Bass's next antagonistic role is in the episode " Moving Bubble Bass ", where he is forced to move out of his mother's basement and tricks SpongeBob and Patrick into moving all his junk out for him by promising them a free lunch. However, once the two friends reach Bubble Bass's new house, he reveals that he already ate the lunch that he'd promised to SpongeBob and Patrick, very much enjoying their dejection. However, Bubble Bass receives proper comeuppance for his misdeeds this time around; while unpacking his junk, he discovers that SpongeBob and Patrick had accidentally packed his mother into one of the boxes. As the boxes had been jostled around quite a bit under SpongeBob and Patrick's care, Bubble Bass's mother thinks he was the one who stuffed her into the box on purpose, so she stuffs him into a box and runs all over town, deliberately ramming the box into as many objects as possible.

Film

Bubble Bass made a cameo appearance in the 2015 film sequel The SpongeBob Movie: Sponge Out of Water .

Villainous Acts

In "Pickles", Bubble Bass challenges SpongeBob to make him a perfect Krabby Patty in what is already an unreasonably tall order.

When SpongeBob gets the job done, Bubble Bass hides the pickles under his tongue and lies, saying that Spongebob forgot them, sullying SpongeBob's good title and making him leave his job. Bubble Bass later returns to place the same order with SpongeBob and attempts to pull off the same trick. SpongeBob spots the pickles hidden under his tongue, as Bubble Bass laughs at his failure and exposes this to the world. Upon this revelation, it's additionally found that Bubble Bass stole Shubie's car keys as well.

In "F.U.N.", Bubble Bass sits on and crushes Plankton. When asked politely by SpongeBob to move, Bubble Bass intentionally squashes Plankton under his butt even more. Later in the episode, Bubble Bass attempts to eat Plankton like a jellybean.

In "Krabby Patty Creature Feature", Bubble Bass, while zombified by the armada of patty zombies, attacks and attempts to devour SpongeBob.

In "Squid Noir", Bubble Bass fought with SpongeBob, using action figures. And sat on Squidward and threatened to crush his clarinet.

In "Moving Bubble Bass", Bubble Bass hires SpongeBob and Patrick to help him move with the promise of giving them food as a reward. Bubble Bass fakes an injury to get out of doing any of the work, forcing SpongeBob and Patrick to do everything. When his unwitting lackeys finally make it to his new home, Bubble Bass tells them that due to them taking so long to get there, he ate their food and will refuse to give them their previously promised reward.

In "High Sea Diving", Bubble Bass goes to Mr. Krabs' store for SpongeBob merchandise and mistakes Patrick for a product. Mr. Krabs takes advantage of the situation and charges him $20 for him. In an ill-willed attempt at paying less for Patrick, Bubble Bass violently tears Patrick's arm out of its socket and claims that the product is damaged, decreasing his worth to ten dollars. This means that not only did Bubble Bass con an old man out of his money but he also bodily mutilated Patrick and on top of that, unethically claimed ownership over another living being, which can legally be classified as slavery.

In "The String", Bubble Bass torments a bunch of sea monkeys at the zoo, by taunting them with a Krabby Patty, which he refuses to feed them. SpongeBob later comes by and pulls the strings off of the exhibit down, allowing the angered sea monkeys to attack Bubble Bass.

---

Bubble Bass was a huge jerk to everyone and he hates everyone more than all of life itself.

Gyro Man: Remind me what we're doing in this prison again?

Me: It sounds unorthodox but we're here to visit Bubble Bass.

Nico: Why are we visiting that Jerk?

Me: To see who is the biggest jerk of them all: Comic Book Guy or Bubble Bass.

Comic Book Guy: A most interesting comparison. But I can't thank you all enough for helping me reunite with Kumiko.

Kumiko: (Japanese Accent) I am so happy to be back with you Jeff.

Me: It was no problem Jeff.

We went up to Bubble Bass's Cell and he saw us.

Kate Lloyd: Sup, Bubble Ass?

Bubble Bass: If it isn't the worthless loser force. What brings such big pompous losers to my cell.

Me: Just here for a little chat.

Comic Book Guy: Mostly with me. My name is Jeff Albertson but you know me as Comic Book Guy.

Bubble Bass: So I have heard.

Me: How has the worst jerk in all of Bikini Bottom doing?

Bubble Bass: A lot better than you have loser boy.

Eli: Shut up jerk.

Weirdwolf: You know what the difference between you and Comic Book Guy? Comic Book Guy actually does have friends. And a wife!

Comic Book Guy: That is right. And you are the Worst. Jerk. Ever!

Me: And not only that but you destroyed SpongeBob's confidence when you "Claimed" he got an order wrong.

Bubble Bass: Because he is the worst fry cook of all.

POW!

Lily punched Bubble Bass in the face.

Lily: You take that back you jerk! SpongeBob is a great fry cook and an awesome mentor!

Me: Yes he is. Also you have a lot of money to pay for Mr. Krabs.

Mr. Krabs showed a bill and it was a total of $192,937,082.92.

Lincoln: Whoa! $192 million!?

Nico: HOLY CRAP! What the hell did he get that would cause him to owe so much?

Lily: Everything from the Krusty Krab. He eats EVERYTHING in the restaurant and doesn't even pay a single penny for it all. He ran an account up the ally.

Me: Holy Crap! No offense Mr. Krabs but I think he's a bigger cheapskate than you.

Mr. Krabs: None taken and you may be right.

Bubble Bass: This is the part where you kill me, right?

Chromedome: Nah. If we do that, your cell will be covered in fat.

We laughed.

Nico: That is funny.

Muscle Man: You know who would love to eat you though? My mom!

We laughed at his joke.

Me: He is funny!

Turbo the Snail was on my shoulder.

Turbo: (Laughs) That is hysterical.

Nico: Yeah it is! And it's awesome having you with us Turbo.

Turbo: Thanks Nico. The Fastest Snail in the world is honored to be part of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: It's cool too.

We went back home to the World Tree Estate.

---

Back on Earth in the World Tree Estate, Blaster Tron was looking for missions.

Me: So how do you like Earth so far Seth?

Seth: It's amazing!

Kara: Earth is amazing and everything about it is as beautiful and awesome as you said J.D.

Me: It sure is pretty.

Melosa: And the view from up here is amazing.

Lola: It sure is huh.

Melosa: Yeah.

Blaster Tron: (Techno Voice) Identifying any available missions for today.

He found one.

Blaster Tron: Found one available. Location: San Francisco, California.

Me: Awesome! I have a feeling I know what it is. We're going to meet my penpal Tommy Turnbull.

Nico: Cool! This is gonna be so cool meeting your penpal.

Cornelia: It will be just like me and Megan.

Me: Yep. And he lives in those really awesome houses lined up on Lombard Street.

Lori: The ones that are lined up like that and are literally worth a fortune?

Me: That's them. They are beautiful and amazing. My mom loves those houses and they are awesome.

Nico: Cool!

Maria: That is gonna be neat to see those.

Laney: It sure is. I've always wanted to go to San Francisco because of the buildings and the historical sites.

Me: I've always liked the Golden Gate Bridge, Alcatraz, Ghirardelli Square and the Coit Tower.

Lisa Loud: I've always been very fascinated with those places too. Especially the chocolate of Ghirardelli Square. (Slurps)

Me: I think all the chocolate there is awesome. Lets get ready everyone.

Scorcher, Electrocutioner, Electro, Motor Ed, Ssserpent, Firebrand, Biowulf and Vortex then appeared.

Scorcher: Can me, Electrocutioner, Electro, Motor Ed, Ssserpent, Firebrand, Biowulf, and Vortex go with you guys this time?

Me: You all sure can. We're going to San Francisco to meet my penpal Tommy Turnbull.

Electro: Cool!

Firebrand: I've heard about him. He is the protector of Robotboy.

Me: You heard right Gary. Robotboy is supposed to be awesome and an amazing advanced Robot that is human like us.

Nico: Wow!

Motor Ed: I can't wait to see Ghirardelli Square. Seriously.

Me: The chocolate there is amazing and so is the Golden Gate Bridge and Alcatraz. But we're going to Lombard Street to meet Tommy. He lives in one of those amazing houses that are lined up.

Electro: Wow! Those houses are beautiful.

Electrocutioner: They sure are but they are worth a fortune.

Me: Yep. Everything is California is expensive. It's also home to Napa Valley.

Stella Zhau: It'll be awesome to go back home. I can't wait to show you all where I lived before I moved here.

Me: That's right you moved here from California, Stella.

Stella Zhau: Yep.

Me: Lets head out.

We were off to San Francisco, California.

---

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA

---

We arrived in San Francisco, California and it was really awesome.

Me: Here we are guys. Welcome to San Francisco.

Nico: Wow! It's amazing.

Lola: It sure is.

Me: We still have time before we go meet Tommy. Lets head over to the popular spots.

We cheered.

We went to the Golden Gate Bridge.

---

The Golden Gate Bridge is a suspension bridge spanning the Golden Gate, the one-mile-wide (1.6 km) strait connecting San Francisco Bay and the Pacific Ocean. The structure links the U.S. city of San Francisco, California-the northern tip of the San Francisco Peninsula-to Marin County, carrying both U.S. Route 101 and California State Route 1 across the strait. The bridge is one of the most internationally recognized symbols of San Francisco and California. It was initially designed by engineer Joseph Strauss in 1917. It has been declared one of the Wonders of the Modern World by the American Society of Civil Engineers.

The Frommer's travel guide describes the Golden Gate Bridge as "possibly the most beautiful, certainly the most photographed, bridge in the world." At the time of its opening in 1937, it was both the longest and the tallest suspension bridge in the world, with a main span of 4,200 feet (1,280 m) and a total height of 746 feet (227 m).

---

Then we went to Alcatraz, the most famous prison in the country and home to some of the most evil gangsters and crime figures of all time until it was shut down in 1963.

---

Alcatraz Island is located in San Francisco Bay, 1.25 miles (2.01 km) offshore from San Francisco, California, United States. The small island was developed with facilities for a lighthouse, a military fortification, a military prison, and a federal prison from 1934 until 21 March 1963. The strong currents around the island and cold water temperatures made escape all but impossible. It later became a major tourist attraction.

Beginning in November 1969, the island was occupied for more than 19 months by a group of Native Americans from San Francisco, who were part of a wave of Native American activists organizing public protests across the US through the 1970s. In 1972, Alcatraz became part of Golden Gate National Recreation Area and received designation as a National Historic Landmark in 1986.

Today, the island's facilities are managed by the National Park Service as part of Golden Gate National Recreation Area. Visitors can reach the island in a little under 15 minutes by ferry ride from Pier 33, located between the San Francisco Ferry Building and Fisherman's Wharf, San Francisco. Hornblower Cruises and Events, operating under the name Alcatraz Cruises, is the official ferry provider to and from the island.

Alcatraz Island is home to the abandoned prison, the site of the oldest operating lighthouse on the West Coast of the United States, early military fortifications, and natural features such as rock pools and a seabird colony (mostly western gulls, cormorants, and egrets). According to a 1971 documentary on the history of Alcatraz, the island measures 1,675 feet (511 m) by 590 feet (180 m) and is 135 feet (41 m) at highest point during mean tide. The total area of the island is reported to be 22 acres (8.9 ha).

Landmarks on the island include the Main Cellhouse, Dining Hall, Lighthouse, the ruins of the Warden's House and Social Hall, Parade Grounds, Building 64, Water Tower, New Industries Building, Model Industries Building, and the Recreation Yard.

The Alcatraz Federal Penitentiary or United States Penitentiary, Alcatraz Island or The Rock ) was a maximum security federal prison on Alcatraz Island, 1.25 miles (2.01 km) off the coast of San Francisco, California, United States, the site of a fort since the 1850s; the main prison building was built in 1910-1912 as a United States Army military prison. The United States Department of Justice acquired the United States Disciplinary Barracks, Pacific Branch, on Alcatraz on 12 October 1933, and the island became a prison of the Federal Bureau of Prisons in August 1934 after the buildings were modernized and security increased. Given this high security and the island's location in the cold waters and strong currents of San Francisco Bay, prison operators believed Alcatraz to be escape-proof and America's strongest prison.

The three-story cellhouse included the four main cell blocks, A-block through D-block, the warden's office, visitation room, the library, and the barber shop. The prison cells typically measured 9 feet (2.7 m) by 5 feet (1.5 m) and 7 feet (2.1 m) high. The cells were primitive and lacked privacy, with a bed, desk, and washbasin, and a toilet on the back wall, and with few furnishings except a blanket. African-Americans were segregated from other inmates in cell designation due to racial abuse. D-Block housed the worst inmates, and six cells at its end were designated "The Hole", where badly behaving prisoners would be sent for periods of often brutal punishment. The dining hall and kitchen extended from the main building. Prisoners and staff ate three meals a day together. The Alcatraz Hospital was above the dining hall.

Prison corridors were named after major U.S. streets such as Broadway and Michigan Avenue. Working at the prison was considered a privilege for inmates and many of the better inmates were employed in the Model Industries Building and New Industries Building during the day, actively involved in providing for the military in jobs such as sewing and woodwork, and performing various maintenance and laundry chores.

Today, Alcatraz is a public museum and one of San Francisco's major tourist attractions, attracting some 1.5 million visitors annually. Now operated by the National Park Service's Golden Gate National Recreation Area, the former prison is being restored and maintained.

---

Lori: Wow! Its literally been that long since Alcatraz was shut down?

Me: Yep. Shut down on March 21st, 1963. Reason: Budget cuts.

Nico: Wow.

Laney: I've read so much about Alcatraz. It's had over 14 Escape Attempts.

Me: Yes it has and the most infamous of them all were the Battle of Alcatraz in 1946 and the escape of 1962.

Laney: Yep. I've read about the 1962 escape and that was really well planned and set up.

Nico: It sure was and a lot of villains we know pulled it off perfectly.

Naruto: They sure did.

Me: Yep.

Lincoln: Did they ever find those guys?

Me: No. It's believed that they drowned. But its been 58 years since then and if they did succeed which is highly unlikely then they would be in their 90s or 100s by now.

Lisa Loud: That is a definite possibility.

Me: Yep. This island has had a nasty reputation as being completely inescapable. From August 11th, 1934 to March 21st, 1963 this island prison was totally cut off from the mainland. Shark Infested waters, Dangerous Currents that pull you out to the Pacific Ocean, Cold Water where you would freeze to death in minutes, escape was impossible. But this prison is widely known for having the most escape attempts out of them all and they ALL have failed.

Nico: Wow. That's incredible.

Me: And that's just over the course of 28 years.

Lana: Wow.

Me: Yep.

We then went to the Coit Tower.

---

Coit Tower is a 210-foot (64 m) tower in the Telegraph Hill neighborhood of San Francisco, California, offering panoramic views over the city and the bay. The tower, in the city's Pioneer Park, was built between 1932 and 1933 using Lillie Hitchcock Coit's bequest to beautify the city of San Francisco. It was added to the National Register of Historic Places on January 29, 2008.

The art deco tower, built of unpainted reinforced concrete, was designed by architects Arthur Brown, Jr. and Henry Howard. The interior features fresco murals in the American Social Realism style, painted by 25 different onsite artists and their numerous assistants, plus two additional paintings installed after creation offsite.

Also known as the Coit Memorial Tower, it was dedicated to the volunteer firemen who had died in San Francisco's five major fires. Although an apocryphal story claims that the tower was designed to resemble a fire hose nozzle due to Coit's affinity with the San Francisco firefighters of the day, the resemblance is coincidental.

Next was Ghirardelli Square and we got a lot of great chocolate.

And then we went to Napa Valley and saw the great wine capitals of California and they were awesome. Luckily none of us got drunk.

Next was Chinatown and it was awesome!

Now we were in Lombard Street and it was beautiful.

---

Lombard Street is an east-west street in San Francisco, California that is famous for a steep, one-block section with eight hairpin turns. Stretching from The Presidio east to The Embarcadero (with a gap on Telegraph Hill), most of the street's western segment is a major thoroughfare designated as part of U.S. Route 101. The famous one-block section, claimed to be "the crookedest street in the world", is located along the eastern segment in the Russian Hill neighborhood. It is a major tourist attraction, receiving around two million visitors per year and up to 17,000 per day on busy summer weekends, as of 2015.

San Francisco surveyor Jasper O'Farrell named the road after Lombard Street in Philadelphia.

G1 Vortex: You guys were right. These really are nice houses.

Me: Yep and they're are worth a flipping ton.

?: They sure are.

We saw Tommy Turnbull and his friends Lola Mbola and Gus Turner and with them was Robotboy.

Tommy Turnbull: J.D. it's awesome to meet you in person!

Me: Tommy it's awesome to meet you too!

We hugged.

Nico: Tommy it's a great pleasure to meet you.

Tommy Turnbull: It's awesome to meet you too Nico and it's an honor to meet the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lola Mbola: We love all your adventures.

Gus Turner: And they are so awesome!

Me: We get that all the time.

Robotboy: It's a pleasure to meet you J.D.

Me: You too Robotboy. We've heard so much about you.

Vince: Wow. Robotboy is awesome.

Varie: He sure is. Wow. Professor Moshimo did a great job making you.

Robotboy: Thank you Varie.

Me: And you two must be Lola Mbola and Gus Turner.

Gus: That's right man.

Lola Mbola: It's an honor to meet you. Tommy told us so much about you and all your adventures.

Me: I'm glad you all like our adventures.

Electrocutioner: If your brother is here, can I zap him?

Me: That's not needed Lester but we'll handle it if he is.

Tommy Turnbull: Thanks guys. Donnie is upstairs playing his games.

Me: I can't believe your brother is that much of a bully to you Tommy.

Tommy Turnbull: Yeah.

Terrance: And I thought I was the only one that was a nightmare to my brother.

Lincoln: But he needs to learn a lesson big time.

Me: We'll worry about that later.

Tommy Turnbull: We were just about to head to school.

Lola Mbola: You all can come with us if you want?

Me: We would be honored.

Robotboy: Indeed.

Long Haul: It's nice to meet a fellow robot.

Muscle Man: You know who else likes meeting a fellow robot?

Gus: The muffin man?

Muscle Man: No. My mom!

We laughed at Muscle Man's joke.

Tommy Turnbull: That is funny!

Robotboy: Very funny.

Nico: Muscle Man always cracks us all up.

Turbo the Snail: Yeah he sure does!

Sonic: We all get a kick out of him.

Eli: He is awesome and funny.

Ets: Yeah he is!

Gus: I love it.

We then went to Tommy's school and it was really nice.

Me: Wow. Your school is cool.

Tommy Turnbull: It sure is. I think so too. Did you guys check out all of San Francisco?

Me: We sure did. We went to the Golden Gate Bridge, Alcatraz, Napa Valley, Ghirardelli Square, Chinatown and the Coit Tower,

Tommy Turnbull: Awesome! You guys know that San Francisco has been called the Disaster Movie Capital of the World right?

Me: I sure do. A lot of famous disaster movies have been filmed here ever since the 1970's.

Lola: My favorite is The Towering Inferno. J.D. and everyone got us into that one.

Nico: I remember that one. That was wicked how that 1800 foot high skyscraper burned.

Me: No kidding. A lot of famous people in that one. Made in 1974.

Ets: So cool. But it was awful that a building like that would burn.

Gus: No kidding.

Me: 200 people died in that movie.

Laney: Yeah that was awful.

Me: Yeah it was.

?: Well look who we have here.

We turned and we saw Tommy's bully and archnemesis KURT and his cronies.

Tommy Turnbull: Kurt! What do you want?

Kurt: To kill you all!

Me: Who is that jerk?

Tommy Turnbull: That's Kurt. He's the worst bully ever known and he likes to torment all of us and make us look like a bunch of idiots. Mostly me.

Kurt: That's right loser and we're here to kill (Points to Nico) him!

Nico: What the Hell are you three doing? It's me, Nico Chan!

Kurt: Oh, we know who you are. We also know that it's because of you that the Digimon Emperor did so many bad stuff. Including freeing Burns and his group.

Lori: That literally isn't his fault!

Twilight Sparkle: It was the Digimon Emperor who caused all of that! And Nico and all of us helped save you and everyone else on Earth so many times!

Kurt: Oh, you two shouldn't be talking! (to Lori) If you and your siblings weren't focused on destroying Organization XIII, the Digimon Emperor wouldn't have taken over Chan over here. (to Twilight) And if J.D . and his loser friends weren't focused on following your so called Friendship Lessons, maybe they would've stopped the Digimon Emperor before he had a chance to free Burns and his group. (laughs) Some heroes you guys are!

Nico: Enough! What do you want from me and my friends?!

Kurt: (smirks menacingly) Just your heads.

Kurt and his goons fired their guns at us but we avoided the gunfire.

Electro: Try talking bad about us when you're zapped, asshole! (fires a bolt of lightning at Kurt and his group)

And it hits them and electrocutes them all over the place.

Electrocutioner: Are you kids out of your fucking minds!? Bringing guns to school is dangerous!

Kurt: I don't care! As long as it kills ALL OF YOU AND SENDS YOUR FUCKING ASSES OFF TO HELL!

BLAM BLAM BIFF CRACK SMASH!

They were knocked out by Jimbo, Dolph and Kearney.

Jimbo: No one tries to hurt our friends and gets away with it!

Dolph: YEAH!

Twilight and Sunset took their guns.

Me: Thanks guys.

Jimbo: Anytime.

The cops came and arrested the bullies.

Kurt: I WILL KILL YOU ALL FOR THIS! I WILL KILL YOU!

Me: Fuck you!

Nico: YEAH! And for the Record, the Digimon Emperor is dead and in Oblivion.

Kurt: NO HE ISN'T! YOU WILL PAY FOR THIS CHAN!

Nico flipped the bird at them and they were REALLY seeing red!

Me: I think a nice long stay in the Moon Prison will do them good.

The cars drove off with Kurt and his friends screaming in it.

Jimbo: (to everyone else in the school) Let this be a lesson to all of you. As of now, this school is under me, Kearney, and Dolph's protection!

Kearney: (sees Dolph put a gun in his pocket) What're you doing?

Dolph: Keeping one of the guns for myself.

Quake Woman: Do I even want to know why?

Dolph: Can't let good weapons go to waste.

Me: True.

Seth: What did he mean by Digimon Emperor and all that?

Me: Right you guys just joined us. Lets head to the cafeteria and tell you all about it.

We went to the cafeteria and sat down.

Me: Now before you all joined us we were in a battle with 3 of our most dangerous enemies. One of them was an enemy from Nicos past. His name was Ken Ichijouji and he was a brainwashed tyrant called The Digimon Emperor. He was tyrannical fiend that turned countless Digimon into his slaves and vowed to rule over the Digital World with an iron fist. The 2nd was a group called Organization XIII. They were a group of Sora's enemies, the Nobodies that wanted to destroy the entire universe. And the 3rd was a group of 6 of our most dangerous enemies. We called them the Sullen 6. They were Charles Montgomery Burns, Jock Jockerson, King Goobot V of the Yolkians, Vlad Plasmius, Denzel Crocker and Sheldon J. Plankton.

Tommy Turnbull: Oh man! I've heard about them! That is horrible that you went through all that.

Me: It was. We call that entire adventure The 20 Days of Darkness.

Courage: And they weren't called that just for show.

Francesca: Yeah it was a nightmare unlike any other.

Eli: Yeah it was horrible.

Me: Let me explain in full detail who these guys are for those of you who don't know about them.

I went over who they were.

---

Organization XIII

Organization XIII (XIII機関, Jūsan Kikan?, lit. "XIII Order") is a group of 13 powerful Nobodies who seek or were tricked into to becoming clones of Master Xehanort and the the main antagonistic faction of the Dark Seeker Saga in the Kingdom Hearts franchise. Their most notable appearances were in Kingdom Hearts: Chain of Memories, Kingdom Hearts II, Kingdom Hearts 3D: Dream Drop Distance, and Kingdom Hearts III .

Because almost all of the members are Nobodies, they lack hearts, meaning that they also have no emotions. The Organization yearns to discover the secrets of the heart and fill the empty void inside themselves by gathering hearts to form Kingdom Hearts so they can become full beings again.

While each member is aware of their lack of emotions - a fact that makes them feel inadequate - many of them pretend to have emotions (i.e. Saïx's enraged battle style and Larxene's giggling and winking). The Kingdom Hearts Chain of Memories manga and several other media forms provide an alternative view, saying that they do have emotions, but are plagued by a feeling of uncertainty and emptiness due to not having hearts. The manga further displays this "plagued" feeling by showing the members engaging in tasks like jigsaw puzzles, cooking, and reading to try to fill their emptiness.

After Organization XIII's defeat, all of the members were revived as their original Somebodies.

In Kingdom Hearts 3D: Dream Drop Distance, Xehanort and some of Organization XIII's former members, along with other affiliates return as the real Organization XIII . They act as the main antagonists of the entire Kingdom Hearts series and were led by a revived Master Xehanort. They aided Xehanort in his original plan to obtain the χ-Blade and start the Second Keyblade War.

Origin

Organization XIII was formed by a group of scientists working under a man called Ansem the Wise, the ruler of the beautiful realm known as Radiant Garden, and worked from Ansem's castle, Hollow Bastion. The head of this group was Ansem's apprentice, Terra-Xehanort, with the others being Braig, Dilan, Even, Aeleus, and Ienzo. Ansem the Wise began initiating tests about the human heart, focusing mainly on Xehanort, with the hopes of recovering his lost memories.

At the urging of Ienzo, he constructed a massive laboratory under the castle. However, Ansem the Wise soon ceased his experiments, for he feared that going too deep would have grave repercussions, also noting Xehanort's apparently superhuman abilities.

Organization XIII

However, his six apprentices, still seduced by the desire for knowledge, conducted their own dangerous experiments on countless subjects. Eventually, they discovered the beings called the Heartless, those that are born from the darkness in a heart and seek other hearts as well. Xehanort, having taken on Ansem's name and writing his findings under it, opened a door he discovered, breaking down the barriers between worlds and allowing travel between them.

When a king named Mickey arrived, the six men's desire for knowledge eventually caused Xehanort to abandon his body, becoming a Heartless (though he was unusual in that he had a human form and retained his memories and personality), with the other five soon following. Thus, the first six members of Organization XIII were born, and they banished Ansem to the Realm of Darkness.

Kingdom Hearts Chain of Memories

The Organization make their first appearance in the series (apart from Xemnas's appearance in Kingdom Hearts Final Mix ). The neophytes - Marluxia, Larxene and Axel - tried to take control of the Organization by using Sora as their puppet, while the senior members, but was later revealed that Axel was a double agent to prevent Marluxia and Larxene from achieving their goals - Zexion, Lexaeus, and Vexen tried to oppose them by using the darkness in Riku. However, all of them, save for Axel, were eliminated.

Kingdom Hearts 358/2 Days

The story largely focuses on Roxas's time as a member of the Organization XIII, and his friendship with Axel and Xion, and thus, all the members are present here. This is the first installment of the series where the fourteenth member, Xion, is mentioned.

Kingdom Hearts II

The Castle That Never Was

Only seven members of the Organization remained at the beginning of Kingdom Hearts II . Sora and his friends took every single remaining member down, save for Roxas, who became one with Sora, and Axel, who sacrificed himself so that Sora and his friends could save Kairi. After the defeat of Demyx and Xaldin, and Axel's sacrifice, only 4 members remain. While Sora and his friends were storming The Castle That Never Was, they were able to take out Xigbar, Luxord, and Saïx, after which both Sora and Riku decided to stay and to fight off Xemnas. With their combined powers, the two managed to destroy Xemnas.

Kingdom Hearts 3D: Dream Drop Distance

After the destruction of all the Nobodies, a past version of Xehanort uses time travel to assemble several other versions of himself throughout time to form the "real" Organization XIII. Several members of the first Organization such as Xigbar are made apart of the original Organization XIII because Xemnas had been slowly turning them into new Xehanorts.

The whole purpose of the Organization was to turn thirteen Nobodies into new Xehanorts. Several members were unable to be transformed, so past Xehanorts had to be used to fill the membership.

Real Organization XIII

This Organization XIII consists of 13 different incarnations of Master Xehanort. Master Xehanort, Young Xehanort, Ansem, Seeker of Darkness, Xemnas, Xigbar, Saïx, Luxord, Larxene, Marluxia, Terra-Xehanort, Dark Riku, Vanitas, Xion, Vexen, and Demyx, although the latter two end up defecting. They attempt to turn Sora into the thirteenth member by consuming him with darkness, but his allies, including Riku, King Mickey, Donald, Goofy, and Lea (Axel's Somebody), halted the process until the Organization has to return to their original times.

Members Master Xehanort - Founder, leader, original incarnation. Ansem - Terra-Xehanort's Heartless. Xemnas - Terra-Xehanort's Nobody, and former leader of the original Organization XIII. Xigbar/ Braig - Loyal servant of Xehanort, and former member of the first Organization XIII. Luxord - Former member of the first Organization XIII. Larxene - Former member of the original Organization XIII who previously worked alongside Marluxia to overthrow Xemnas. Marluxia - Former member of the first Organization XIII who previously tried to overthrow Xemnas. Saïx/Isa - Loyal servant of Xehanort, and former member of the first Organization XIII. Later secretly works with Vexen to give Roxas and Xion replica bodies. Terra-Xehanort- Xehanort in Terra's body. Dark Riku - A time-travelling Riku Replica, pretending to be Ansem-Riku. Vanitas - Loyal servant of Master Xehanort who is the dark half of Ventus. Young Xehanort - Young incarnation of Xehanort. Xion - Former member of the first Organization XIII and a Replica of Sora created from his memories, resurrected by Roxas's memories and given a new body. Defects when Sora helps her remember her friends. Vexen - Former member of the first Organization XIII. Brought back as a reserve member to continue his research on the Replica program, later revealed to be an undercover spy. Demyx - Former member of the first Organization XIII. Brought back as a reserve member only, later defected. Original Candidates

It was also revealed that there were others that were originally going to be a Xehanort, but for one reason or another, they didn't become one of the 13 Xehanorts.

Riku - Gained full control of the darkness inside him. Sora - Rescued by Riku, Donald, Goofy, King Mickey, and Lea. Ultimately Xion was chosen to become the final member of the real Organization in his place. Roxas - Left Organization XIII, and merged with Sora. Every member of the original Organization XIII: Xaldin - Revived as his Somebody, Dilan. Vexen - Revived as his Somebody, Even. Lexaeus - Revived as his Somebody, Aeleus. Zexion - Revived as his Somebody, Ienzo. Axel - Betrayed the original Organization XIII to bring back Roxas. Later revived as his Somebody, Lea. Demyx (Presumably) - Despite his loyalty, showed too much laziness and lack of devotion to goals. Outfit

Each member in the Organization dons the same uniform, regardless of whether they are male or female. The uniform consists of a single black leather hooded coat. It is plainly adorned with a silver zipper and seemingly pointless silver beaded pull strings for the hood that form a semicircle in the middle. Each member wears their zippers at differing points. Not much is known about the undergarments of the Organization. It is known, however, that they all wear hakama-esque black pants and knee high silver trimmed boots, with the exceptions of Roxas, who wears sneakers of the same color, and Larxene and Xion, who wear a more feminized version of the boots with heels. In addition to this, they all wear black leather gloves of some unknown length, as they disappear under bell shaped sleeves. Some members have different looking coats, for example Axel, whose sleeves are tight around his wrists.

Upon closer inspection, it can be seen that the hems of each cloak are each slightly different, as well as the shoulder pads (such as those of Demyx and Xigbar, which seem to be slightly pointed).

Other known characters to wear the cloak are King Mickey, Riku, Xehanort's Heartless, and Moogles. Riku obtains his cloak from DiZ and it is presumed Mickey also obtains it from him.

It is unknown how DiZ or the Moogles obtained them. An unknown character is shown wearing the cloak in Kingdom Hearts Coded . It is unknown if this is an Organization member or someone merely wearing the cloak.

Ranking

Ranks within the Organization have little to nothing to do with power. While Xehanort's Nobody, known as Xemnas, is the strongest as well as the leader, the rest fall in the order they joined. As the group's name describes, one would assume that there are a total of thirteen members. Until the announcement of 358/2 Days, this was true. Besides having a numerical rank, each member also has an assigned title. The only exception to this is Xion, who is not actually a true member of the Organization.

The actual power order of the Organization was stated by Nomura: Xemnas is the strongest by far, followed by Roxas (and presumably Xion when she debuted), followed by Lexaeus and Xaldin. The rest were not stated, though it is likely that Marluxia and Saïx are higher up, and Vexen and Demyx are lower down.

The ranks and titles are as follows:

I. Xemnas, "The Superior of the In-Between": Controlled Sorcerers, used the attribute of Nothingness and weapons called Ethereal Blades|Ethereal Blades.

II. Xigbar, "The Freeshooter": controlled Snipers, used the attribute of Space and Arrowguns.

III. Xaldin, "The Whirlwind Lancer": controlled Dragoons, used the attribute of Wind and six Lances.

IV. Vexen, "The Chilly Academic": used the attribute of Ice and a Shield.

V. Lexaeus, "The Taciturn Stalwart" ("The Silent Hero" in the Japanese version): used the attribute of Earth and an Axe Sword.

VI. Zexion, "The Cloaked Schemer": used the attribute of Illusion and a Lexicon.

VII. Saïx, "The Luna Diviner": controlled Berserkers, used the attribute of the Moon, and a Claymore.

VIII. Axel, "The Flurry of Dancing Flames": controlled Assassins, used the attribute of Fire and Twin Chakrams.

IX. Demyx, "The Melodious Nocturne": controlled Dancers, used the attribute of Water and a Sitar.

X. Luxord, "The Gambler of Fate": controlled Gamblers, used the attribute of Time as well as Cards.

XI. Marluxia, "The Graceful Assassin": controlled Reapers, used the attribute of Flowers and a Scythe.

XII. Larxene, "The Savage Nymph": controlled Ninjas, used the attribute of Lightning and Knives.

XIII. Roxas, "The Key of Destiny": Controlled Samurai, used the attribute of Light and wielded up to three different Keyblades (due to being Sora's Nobody). He initially wielded the Kingdom Key but soon acquired the Oathkeeper and Oblivion, which represent Kairi and Riku, respectively.

XIV. Xion: used the attribute of Light and the Kingdom Key. Although she is considered part of the Organization, she is not a Nobody, but an imperfect replica of Sora created from his leaked memories. Each of the titles correspond to whichever element the paticular member controls, a particular trait, or the type of weapon they have. Some members of Organization XIII, including Saïx, do not consider Xion to be a member of the Organization.

While in Kingdom Hearts III the ranking for the members of the real Organization XIII was unknown, in the Re:Mind DLC expansion the numbers are officially shown for all thirteen of the main members on the portals used to access their Data Battles:

I. Master Xehanort II. Ansem, Seeker of Darkness III. Xemnas IV. Xigbar V. Luxord VI. Larxene VII. Marluxia VIII. Saïx IX. Terra-Xehanort X. Dark Riku XI. Vanitas XII. Young Xehanort XIII. Xion Differences

There are a few major differences between the Nobodies within the Organization and the ones that Sora frequently encounters throughout the game. The average type that Sora fights often have strange features, enhanced speed, metallic skin in shades of white, silver, and blue, and the trademark Nobody symbol (which doubles as the logo for the Organization).

The Nobodies that make up the Organization have human forms with limited special powers, revolving around thirteen different elements. One ability shared by all the members is the power to summon an oval, obsidian portal of darkness that leads to the unseen paths of darkness. These portals are known as Corridors of Darkness. The Organization makes use of the paths to move to and from worlds unseen without fear for their well-being compared to those who are attuned with darkness and still have hearts.

Lesser Nobodies

A few select members of the Organization have control over the other, weaker Nobodies, though this is only shown in Kingdom Hearts II . The members from Kingdom Hearts Chain of Memories may also have had that ability, which is supported by the introduction of the Reaper and Ninja Nobodies in Kingdom Hearts III, being controlled by Marluxia and Larxene, respectively. Like their titles, each member's lesser Nobody has some similarity to them. These lesser Nobodies are called Sorcerers, Snipers, Dragoons, Berserkers, Assassins, Dancers, Gamblers, Ninjas, Reapers, and Samurai.

Sorcerer Nobodies are under the command of Xemnas. They float over the ground constantly, possessing a grace much like that of Xemnas, and utilize large cubes of nothingness in several ways. They are the most powerful and rarest of the lesser Nobodies.

Sniper Nobodies are controlled by Xigbar and, like him, carry spiky guns that shoot small red crystallized lasers.

Dragoon Nobodies are controlled by Xaldin because of his affinity with wind, and possess a singular lance that mirrors the six that he fights with.

Berserker Nobodies are under Saïx's power and, as with the previously mentioned lesser Nobodies, hold a weapon identical to that of their master. An observant player will also notice that Berserker Nobodies go through random surges of anger, much like Saïx when he draws upon the power of the moon.

Next are the Assassin Nobodies. This group is under Axel's control, capable of becoming a circular form similar to Axel's weapon, hiding away for short periods of time before attacking, and causing powerful explosions.

Dancer Nobodies are the most colorful of all the lesser Nobodies, featuring bright colors such as orange and pink. They are Demyx's servants and relate to him due to his musical nature.

The Gambler Nobodies are under Luxord's rule. Luxord, being a gambler of many things, fights with cards, which they use as well, along with several dice.

Ninjas are under Larxene's command. Like her, they are fast, have the ability to teleport, can create fake copies of themselves, use electricity-based attacks, and attack with knives.

Reapers are controlled by Marluxia, and like him, use plant-based attacks and wield scythes.

The final of these lesser Nobodies are Samurai, which Roxas controls. Samurai wield two katana just as Roxas wields two Keyblades, Oblivion and Oathkeeper.

The lesser Nobodies are named after recurring Final Fantasy job classes and share similar traits with them, such as the Dragoons' ability to jump.

Naming

Roxas is the only member seen undergoing the naming ceremony. A common thread between all of the members is the "X" that appears within each of their names. As revealed by Tetsuya Nomura, the director of the game, by removing the "X", the remaining letters form an anagram of the members' original names from when they were humans.

For instance, "Roxas" is an anagram of "Sora", and "Xemnas" is an anagram of "Ansem". Xemnas' true name is Xehanort; his name is an anagram of 'no heart' or 'another' with an X added. Xion, being an artificial Replica, had no original name. The name "Xion" came from her label as Replica No.I of the Replica Project. The name of the Nobodies' "other" appears before them in translucent, rainbow-colored font (similar to the one shown at the intro to The World That Never Was). Then, an "x" drops down and the letters rearrange themselves until they form a new name.

It is also suggested that Xemnas is the one who performs this ceremony. Many have suggested that this is not true, as Xigbar was the one to find Marluxia and name him, but if one listens to the dialogue between Zexion and Xigbar in Kingdom Hearts II Final Mix, it is apparent from the way Xigbar does not know how to pronounce Marluxia's name that he was not the one to name him, and rather just found him.

Where Nothing Gathers, somewhere in the Castle That Never Was, inaccessible to the player, is the meeting room of the Organization. This area can be accessed with a cheat code, though - the platform with the Organization symbol can be walked on, but none of the thrones can. The area is called "Where Nothing Gathers" - suggesting it may have been planned to be in the final game as a full area, but was dropped later. It is a white cylindrical room with thirteen extremely tall white thrones. The height of these thrones is determined by the amount of missions the respective members complete and the height tends to change depending on the success or failure of those missions.

However, Xemnas's throne is always the highest as he is the leader and therefore has completed the highest amount of missions. To his left are the odd-number ranked members while to his right are the even-numbered. Starting from Xemnas, clockwise: Xaldin, Lexaeus, Saïx, Demyx, Marluxia, Roxas, Larxene, Luxord, Axel, Zexion, Vexen and Xigbar. Ironically Vexen, Lexaeus, and Zexion have the lowest chair heights out of the whole Organization.

In the new cutscenes of Kingdom Hearts II Final Mix, every time a missing member is referred to during a meeting, the camera's focus will shift briefly to that said member's throne (such as when Xaldin reminded Axel that, indirectly, he eliminated the traitors Marluxia and Larxene, the camera briefly shifts to view their thrones. The conversation concerns Axel's orders to destroy Roxas and fittingly enough, Roxas's throne is between theirs).

Proof of Existence

In the central tower of The Castle That Never Was, the room is something of a graveyard or a place where beings who cannot use the portals to darkness use the doorway-like portals to reach other members of the Organization. This chamber has thirteen portals which lead to a certain area throughout the castle; the portals are placed simultaneously along the walls and glow blue if that specific member is alive but red when that one is dead.

Starting from Xemnas', which is actually a path to the Altar of Naught, going downwards are two more, then below them are four and after them are eight with a path cutting halfway between the portals. The portals lead to large chambers which are areas that the Organization dwell when they are resting. So far only three are known which are the Altar of Naught, where Xemnas resides and the highest point in the castle, Havoc's Divide which is a large slanted balcony were Luxord resides, and Addled Impasse where Saïx lives, which is a large circular room with a balcony made of glass that looks up towards the moon. Note that for gameplay purposes, the gates to Havoc's Divide and Addled Impasse remain active even after Luxord and Saïx are felled. Also, for the same reasons, Roxas' still active-gate (since he still exists within Sora) is broken and rendered unusable, although it still maintains its blue glow. It may be broken, though, due to the fact that while Roxas still exists in Sora, he does not exist physically. Note that Zexion's tombstone was especially broken to hide his weapon's image (which was not revealed until the release of Kingdom Hearts II Final Mix ), although its lettering can still be read. It is unknown if Xion has or ever had a tombstone and portal.

Digimon Emperor

The Digimon Emperor ( Digimon Kaiser in Japan, real name: Ken Ichijoji ) is the main antagonist for the first 21 episodes of Digimon Adventure season 2. He is the first arch-nemesis of Davis and the other new Digidestined. It is later revealed that he was the victim of brainwashing by the real antagonist, his possessed victim and his two pawns.

He returns in Digimon Adventure Tri as one of the antagonists along with Alphamon. However this is later revealed to be Dark Gennai impersonating him.

He was voiced by Romi Park in Japanese and Derek Stephen Prince in English Version. In Digimon Adventure tri., he is voiced by Todd Haberkorn.

Past

When Ken was a young boy, he always felt overshadowed by his older brother, Sam because he was considered to be a kid genius, which made Ken jealous. One day, a Digivice came out of Sam's computer, (as MaloMyotismon (Myotismon's reincarnation) would be introduced later on) and he thought it belonged to Sam. When Sam told him not to touch it, Ken disobeys his brother and touches the Digivice anyway, sending Ken to the Digital World. He was a DigiDestined, and was partnered with Wormmon. After he and Wormmon defeated a Digimon, a dark spore flew into his neck. When Ken returned from the Digital World, Sam scolded him for touching the Digivice and breaking his trust, then dismisses him from his room, stating that he would never trust him again. Feeling betrayed and fumed by those words, Ken wishes that Sam would just disappear. But unfortunately, Ken's wish eventually came true when Sam was tragically killed in a car accident. After Sam's death, Ken felt grief-stricken for the loss of his brother, so he decided that he had to be just like his older brother to help his parents cope with the pain.

One day when he was playing with Sam's computer, a mysterious voice on an E-mail came and told him to go to the Digital World (while Yukio Oikawa would be introduced later on). He did, but instead of entering the Digital World, Ken entered the Dark Ocean. He put the Digivice in the water and it morphed into a Dark D3. When that happened, Ken became corrupted by the Dark Spore, thinking that the Digital World was a game for him to rule and the Digimon were nothing but programs and should be enslaved, and the Digimon Emperor was born.

As the Digimon Emperor

When he became the Digimon Emperor, Ken became an oppressive tyrant towards the Digimon. He also created devices, called Dark Rings, to control the Digimon. They are similar to Devimon's Black Gears in function and method of control. He later upgraded them into Dark Spirals when the DigiDestined were able to break the original model. To control the Dark Rings and Dark Spirals, he created the Control Spires. The Control Spires activate the Dark Rings and prevent others from Digivolving. The Emperor eventually created a Digimon monster called Kimeramon, created using other Digimon.

After Kimeramon was destroyed by Magnamon, Ken was begrudgingly upset over his defeat by the Digidestined. After the Digidestined talked some sense over Ken about his mistreatings with innocent Digimon, Ken finally comes to his senses, and cries over for what he has done and sheds off his emperor clothes, returning back to his normal self. He soon sees a dying Wormmon, and feels remorse for the way he treated him and reminds him of his kindness. After Wormmon forgives him, he dies in Ken's arms. Ken then sadly returns to the Real World to reunite with his parents. He then realizes that Wormmon should be reborn in the Primary Village. The other Baby Digimon were angry at Ken for his tyranny and rudely didn't welcome him. Then suddenly, Wormmon's Digi-egg hatched, reborn as Leafmon, and Ken was happy to reunite with his Digimon partner. Ken and Wormmon then redeem themselves and join the Digidestined.

Vlad Masters/Vlad Plasmius

Vlad Masters, better known as Vlad Plasmius, is the main antagonist of Nickelodeon's animated series Danny Phantom . He is Danny's main arch-nemesis, Jack Fenton's former best friend, and Maddie's former love interest, the former two's rival. He later becomes one of the most hated men on Earth after he finally reveals his true nature as a ghost.

He was voiced by Martin Mull.

Vlad Masters was the childhood friend of Jack Fenton, the father of the series' protagonist, Danny Fenton. They were working together on a science project, trying to create a portal to the ghost world, when the project exploded and infected Vlad with "ecto acne". Believing himself to be hideous, he assumed he was unworthy of his true love, although Maddie never truly loved Vlad as revealed in Masters of All Time. He held a grudge against Jack Fenton since, believing his infection to be Jack's fault. In the final episode, a TV special titled "Phantom Planet", he gets hit by an asteroid. It is unknown if he survived, though since it was rather comical it was implied that he did.

Goals

Aside from trying to gain a family by winning back his college love and even get Danny to be his adopted son, he tries to gain power, in all ways he can. Throughout the series he makes life hard for Danny, hoping to break his will. Vlad had even made attempts to clone Danny as well in order to sate his desires for a family. At the beginning of the third season, Vlad seems to lose interest in having Danny as a son and simply sought to torment Danny. He even goes so far as to become mayor of Amity Park and start a campaign against ghosts despite being half-ghost himself. In "The Ultimate Enemy" special, he accidentally creates Dark Danny in an attempt to help ease the emotional pain Danny had been going through.

Early life

Much of Vlad Masters early life is never revealed but at some point he meets Jack Fenton and together they attend the University of Wisconsin and become best friends who are popular as well as doing everything together, they also become lab partners. Soon, he meets Maddie Fenton whom he starts to fall in love with.

At some point, Vlad, Jack and Maddie become acquainted and soon built a prototype ghost portal (what Vlad believes will not work) where one day Jack activates the ghost portal just at the very moment Vlad checks out the portal, causing the portal to go haywire and blasting Vlad in the face with ectoplasmic energy causing him to have a severe case of Ecto-Acne thus ruining his social life and any chances to win Maddie over. Following this he becomes hospitalized for several years becoming bitter, selfish and arrogant as well as holding a strong grudge against Jack for ruining his life.

Later, he discovers that the accident gave him ghost powers and as such he takes advantage of his powers by committing many invisible burglaries to acquire his wealth he has now. He names his ghost-half under the Alias, Vlad Plasmius.

First Appearance

Twenty years later, Vlad makes his debut in Bitter Reunions where he sends three vulture ghosts in an attempt to kill Jack however the ghosts were quickly defeated by Danny, when he figures it out their motives. Upon failing, Vlad throws a college reunion party at his estate and invites Jack and Maddie (who subsequently bring Danny and Jazz with them) where Vlad plans to humiliate Jack and have Maddie leave him. When the Fentons arrive the next day he warmly greets them except Jack who shuts the door on him, inside his mansion, he shows the Fentons his Packers memorabilia, where Danny notices Vlad hitting on Maddie, who subsequently lets Jack in where Vlad attempts to convince Jack to stay for the reunion but Jack initially refuses to stay with him but manages to convince him when he tells him the Dairy King ghost haunts his mansion, Jack upon hearing he gets to hunt ghosts eagerly agrees to stay.

That night, he again sends his vulture ghosts to kill Jack (who was searching for a bathroom), Danny's ghost sense goes off again and rescues him only to be confronted by Vlad, Danny then fights him where Vlad taunts him for using his powers for good, he attempts to finish him off but Vlad quickly overpowers and defeats him and knocks him unconscious causing Danny to change back to his human form in front of him, where Vlad is shocked to find that Danny Phantom is Jack's son. Danny later wakes up screaming, alerting Vlad who comes into his room to check on him, Danny apologies to Vlad for scaring him to which Vlad says not to worry and he will see him tomorrow, Vlad leaves beginning to put his plan into action

The next day at the reunion, Vlad approaches Danny and asks him for a "favor", he tells him to head to his laboratory to retrieve a "gift" he intends to give to Jack, Danny obliges and head to his lab where notices a picture of him and Maddie he puts the picture of him and Jack together and discovers that Vlad had sent the vulture ghosts to kill Jack, but before he can do anything about that though, Skulker appears and captures Danny in a cube which naturalizes his ghost power and thus is unable to escape, before he can kill Danny, Vlad appears angrily dismissing Skulker stating he did not free him to kill Danny where the latter promptly leaves. Vlad then reveals to Danny that he is also a half-ghost just like him, he offers to Danny to join him and offers to train him in using his powers if he renounces his father, Danny angrily refuses calling him a fruit loop leaving Vlad to leave him to put his next phase of his plan into action.

Vlad heads to Jack and possess him and begins to wreck havoc intending to ruin his reputation, but Danny manages to escape with help from the Dairy King ghost and finds Vlad possessing his father who quickly removes him from his body. Heading into the library to continue their fight, Vlad once again tries to convince Danny to join his side by saying all the things he can teach him but Danny again refuses to do so. Seeing Maddie, Vlad phases in and kidnaps her where she angrily tells him to let her go but he refuses to do so, Jack see this and chases after her, Danny then drives the Fenton RV and shoots ectoplasmic goo at Vlad causing him to drop Maddie, Danny quickly repossesses his father and catches her much to her delight, Danny as Jack then sends Maddie away and confronts Vlad where he threatens to expose his and Vlad's secrets as half ghosts unless he and Vlad comes to a truce he also states that his parents will accept him no matter what but then asks Vlad what would Maddie think seeing that Danny is blackmailing him and that is slowly learning him without him realizing it, Vlad agrees to do so but not before saying that him and Maddie will join him eventually.

Later upon hearing that Valerie Gray's life had gone down hill after a ghost accident at Axion Labs that caused her father Damon Gray to lose his job in Shades of Gray, Vlad sends her ghost hunting equipment with a note in it, she immediately accepts the gift and begins to hunt down Danny with it unaware of his true intentions with it, Vlad then makes a quick cameo appearance outside grinning at her before he disappears.

Rivalry with Danny

Vlad makes a return in Maternal Instinct staging a plan that involves taking Maddie and Danny to a mother and son science convention in Florida, Maddie wanting to spend time with her son takes a reluctant Danny with her.

On their way there, the pilot of their plane is revealed to be a ghost, forcing the duo to escape via parachutes they land in the rocky mountains, braving the forest they happen to come across a mansion that is owned none other than Vlad who pulls up just at the moment, while Maddie is relieved to see him, Danny rather is suspicious of him, it is also revealed he is sending ghosts to Fenton Works to kill Jack (as well as Jazz who is also at home with her father) they then subsequently stay with him for the time being.

Later, Maddie begins to explain her and Danny's situation to Vlad (while Danny continues to remain rather suspicious of Vlad), Vlad, then confesses his love to Maddie and also tries to convince her she leaves Jack and have her and Danny stay with him. Angering her, Maddie (and Danny) quickly leaves his mansion with Danny mockingly suggesting that he either try internet dating or getting a cat to which Vlad angrily refuses.

Later, Maddie and Danny camp out in the woods as Vlad sends his ghost animals to kidnap Danny and bring him back to his mansion, upon his arrival back Vlad reveals to Danny that the mother/son convention was nothing more but a part of his plan to have Maddie to himself and that DALV was nothing more but his name backwards he then shortens out his powers by using Plasmius Maximus for three hours then shoos him into the woods with his ghost animals in pursuit, Danny is however is rescued by Maddie, who reluctantly suggests heading back to Vlad's so she can call for help on the way she puts the Specter Deflector on Danny (who powers are already shortened out from Vlad earlier) who then realizes the belt will zap him when he gets his powers back but is later able to steal the key from Maddie by hugging her.

Knocking on Vlad's door, Vlad opens and is happy to see that Maddie and Danny has returned to him, Maddie then takes advantage of Vlad by manipulating him through "flirting" with him and toying with his feelings for her in order to get on his good side, Meanwhile as a Maddie searches his house for a phone to call for help, Danny changes the clock and tricks Vlad into thinking he renounces Jack as his father and calling him as his new father takes the bait and goes to hug him, Danny then puts the Sector Deflector on Vlad shocking him and realizing that Danny has tricked him as Danny regains his powers just at the exact moment. The duo then engages in battle despite Vlad being weakened by the specter deflector Vlad has it even with Danny until he attempt to duplicate himself but only grows a second head and Danny manages to defeat him. Vlad accepts defeat, but he states that he forgot about his ghost animals, but the ghost animals quickly turn on Vlad when Danny points out his animal memorabilia on his wall, Vlad states he is more powerful then them, but Danny does what Vlad did to him earlier by shocking him with his own weapon thus shortening out his powers. Danny says he will give him a five minute head start but also say seconds saying he is bad a math, he then orders the ghost chase after Vlad out of his house and into the woods, Maddie returns and asks where Vlad went to Danny replies that he went out or a hike, Danny and Maddie then take his helicopter to return home.

Soon, Vlad is seeking for a Skeleton Key in the Ghost Zone In The Million Dollar Ghost, which has the ability to unlock any door in the ghost zone as well entering any realm, he is able to find the key but a giant monster confronts him in doing so, they engage in battle and Vlad is able to quickly defeat him but the monster hits him with his tail and knocks him away and back into his portal, but before he can return to the Ghost Zone and alarm to his ghost portal rings and to his horror he forgot to refill the ecto filltrator causing the portal to explode as well as his destroying his mansion in the process, to his horror he discovers that his ghost portal is destroyed thus not being able to go back into the Ghost Zone to retrieve the key, he will need a working portal to get back into the Ghost Zone and he then pulls out a picture of the Fentons and realizes he will have to steal Jack's portal before laughing evilly

Vlad later sends his vulture ghosts to attack Jack, but they end up capturing Sam Manson and Tucker Foley (Danny's best friends) forcing Danny to risk himself by going ghost in front of the ghost hunters to save them but is confronted by Vlad who reveals to Danny he sent the ghost hunters as well as placing the million dollar bounty on Danny, the two engage in a fight where Danny mocks Vlad by saying that Jack married the love of his life Maddie, Danny is however quickly defeated and almost changes back into his human form before Vlad changes him back and throws him towards the ghost hunters ready to destroy him by their weapons though Danny was able to quickly escape from them.

In order to cheer his father up Danny goes ghost and allows him to be captured by him he refuses but is instead captured by Maddie, Jack then heads over to an alleyway where he is to claim his million dollar reward, however Danny attempts to warn Jack that the reward was a trap Jack wont listen to him until they are both trapped into an ecto cage, Vlad then appears where he reveals to Jack he is going to destroy his portal and make his own, though Danny and Jack say that he has a portal of his own, Vlad says he did but it got destroyed before proceeding to Fenton Works, Jack is later able to escape with the help of Danny Phantom.

Vlad has his vulture ghosts attempt to open the Fenton portal where he is surprised Jack caught him very easily and orders his ghosts to attack Jack but Jack's competence arises and is able to quickly defeat them, Vlad tell Jack his family is all in danger all the time he states he should be put out o their misery and attack him, Jack them arms himself with the Fenton Ghost Gloves/Ghost Gauntlets and easily defeats Vlad (impressing Danny) Danny then is able to change the ecto filltrator and Jack open the Ghost Portal to Vlad's disbelief who claims Jack is an idiot to which Jack retaliates by saying he is the idiot to beat him before punching him into the Ghost Zone the portal explodes seconds after but is then revealed to be a simulation on Jack's computer.

Elsewhere in the Ghost Zone, Vlad is completely surprised that Jack defeated him and is rather upset but quickly changes his mind once he retrieves the skeleton key he had been looking for causing him to gloat that even in victory, Jack still fails. The monster that Vlad that fought earlier eats him much to his annoyance.

With the Skeleton Key still in his possession in Reign Storm, Vlad uses it to escape the monster that had devoured him and over to a castle in the ghost zone to steal the ring of the ghost king Pariah Dark as well as the sword of the spirit of Halloween the Fright Knight he uses the key to dissolve the orb holding the ring, Vlad then gloats that he now has the power of the ghost king in his hand he then attempts to use it to no avail. Vlad then realizes in order to use the rings power the user must also wear the crown of fire, he then uses the key to open the coffin causing a nearby vulture to beak and the coffin eyes to brighten up, at the exact moment while discussing the crowns power the ghost king angrily reawakens much to Vlad's horror. When the ghost king asks who dares reawaken him Vlad approaches him where he nervously attempts to tell him that he is a huge fan of his work, Not buying his statement King Pariah causes an explosion knocking Vlad far from his castle, the ghost king subsequently removes the sword from the pumpkin summoning the Fright Knight to serve him, he notices that the ghost king has awakened and bows down to him, the ghost king tells him he as well as Vlad who rules the Ghost Zone. Outside Vlad states he has to get of sight before the ghost king finds him he quickly grabs him telling he has reawakened him but soon discover that Vlad is a duplicate, Vlad notices that the Fright Knight is awake and goes over to an attempt to make a deal with him, the Fright Knight questions this before the ghost king attacks them Vlad tell him to call him before attempting to escape the ghost king before the latter shoots at him knocking him unconscious and transforming back into his human form and into the Fenton portal just as Jack and Maddie are finishing up constructing a robotic suit, Vlad then pops out of the ghost portal much to the shock and surprise of Jack and Maddie, Vlad weakly asks Jack to help him before falling unconscious.

Recovering, at Fenton Works, Danny (With Sam and Valerie) comes home from school and is shocked to find his archenemy hanging around with his family where Vlad greets Danny in an enthusiastic manner. Danny angrily confronts Vlad and asks what is he doing at his house to which Maddie responds by pouring tea on Vlad, burning him and telling Danny that is a a valid question, he then attempts to flirt with her again but she angrily brushes him of and threatens him. Vlad then tells Danny and reveals his plan to steal the Ecto-Skeleton aloud in front of Jack under his nose, but starts laughing with Jack about it by just claiming he was joking with him he then asks Maddie for more tea but she pours it on his head much to his annoyance.

Jack and Maddie then leave as Danny confronts him but then figures it out since he just said it aloud to which he threatens to expose his secret before shifting his attention to Valerie Gray who is surprised (as well as Danny) that he knows her, just then the an alarm goes off in Fenton Works alerting Jack and Maddie who explain to Danny Jazz and Sam that it goes off when they are about to face a massive ghost invasion alerting Danny who orders Sam and Jazz to stall Jack and Maddie as he goes ghost to confront the invasion initially he is relieve to only find out Box Ghost to pop out but then Skulker leads Ember McLain, Walker, Nicolai Technus as well a numerous other ghost Danny fought previously out of the ghost zone, he chases after them and ask what they are running from they tell him they are running away from Pariah Dark the ghost king as well as the Fright Knight before attacking Danny and running away who subsequently tells Sam that Vlad Plasmius has become the least of his worries.

Vlad rides with Valerie where he asks if the equipment is operating functionally Valerie responds that he designed it just for her but Valerie asks why he would give it to a fourteen year old but also said he said he is also the best ghost fighter he has ever seen before "joking" with her about using her, Vlad then gives her the ring of the ghost king lying to her that the right was passed down from ghost hunter generation she accepts it not know it its the ghost kings ring he then orders her to her job with Valerie vowing not to let Vlad down. Meanwhile, as Vlad puts his plan into motion the ghost king summons his army with the Fright Knight in command.

Later, Vlad is helping Jack work on his robotic suit as the Fright Knight breaks in to the Fenton lab and unleashes his army to retrieve the ghost kings ring, Maddie attempt to close the portal but the Fright Knight catches her and attempts to kidnap her as Vlad and Jack order him to let go of the woman they love sparking an awkward moment between Vlad and Jack, Vlad asks Jack if the suit is operation but Jack warns Vlad that the suit could kill him, then Vlad states he should use it (for his sadistic pleasure of Jack getting hurt). Jack then battles the Fright Knight defeats him and rescues Maddie but the suit drains him of physical energy, Maddie orders Vlad to help her get the pants of Jack but Vlad tell her that's her problem angering Maddie.

Meanwhile as the ghost kings army causes havoc, Vlad confronts Danny at his school complementing him for using his ghost powers against his enemies having watched Danny get revenge on Dash Baxter (after the former is fed up with the latter's bullying), Danny goes ghost and engages him into battle but Vlad catches him and tell him to calm down as the Fright Knight and his army attack Danny and Vlad, Vlad assist Danny in fighting off the Ghost King's army, Danny sarcastically asks Vlad if he wants his mother cell phone number to which Vlad denies, the Fright Knight grabs him and demands to return the ghost king's to him to which Vlad denies having possession of, Valerie then appears to which Danny and Vlad realizes the Valerie will attack them because they appear as ghosts, but Danny convinces her to join forces with him to fight off the army, the trio the confronts the Fright Knight which give him no choice to but claim Amity Park under Pariahs Rule. The Fright Knight warns Danny and Vlad that the reign of terror will end if the ring is given back to the king but if the sword is removed by anyone they will surrender to the ghost king before disappearing but before Vlad and Danny can do anything further Maddie and Damon arrive forcing Vlad to flee and Danny to change back into human form

Later, Danny confronts Vlad outside of his house calling him out for putting innocent people at risk and tell him to give the ring to him he refuses to do so, causing Danny to get angry but Vlad taunts him stating what if Valerie notices his secret, Danny breaks a nearby streetlight, goes ghost and engages Vlad into battle. Danny hits Vlad with a sneak attack Vlad tells him as he goes ghost that he's becoming like him with every battle though Danny states that he is nothing like Vlad and continues the fight to where the sword is located, Vlad continues to manipulate Danny by saying that he's using his powers to get back at people he doesn't like and throwing the first punch he state that he is becoming more like him before hitting and knocking him near the sword, Danny noticing the sword states that if he can't make Vlad get the ring back he will make him by pulling out the sword but Vlad tells him not to pull the sword telling him its a signal, Danny questions this and pulls out the sword anyway causing to put Amity Park into to Ghost Zone and under the Ghost King's rule as well as causing the ghost kings army to resume their march, The Fright Knight and King Pariah appear where the latter attacks the duo causing the two to change back into their human forms and become unconscious. The Ghost King prepares to murder the duo but then Valerie armed with her battle suit attacks him dropping the duo, the Fright Knight then realizes Valerie is in the possession of the ring and demands her to give it to him but Valerie shoots a missile with the ring on it to distract the ghost king as she rescues Danny and Vlad as she heads back to Fenton Works with the Fright Knight in pursuit until she manages to get inside the ghost shield. In the meantime Pariah manages to catch his ring and with the crown of fire gives him unimaginable power.

Valerie takes Danny and Vlad into Danny's bedroom where she rests, Vlad then wakes up and notices that the ring he gave to Valerie is gone (unaware that the ghost king now has possession of it while he was unconscious). hearing Jack and Maddie come in Vlad turns invisible and leaves, Danny subsequently defeats Valerie by exposing her secret as a ghost fighter in front of her father, Later Vlad apparently makes a deal with Fright Knight as Danny with the help of his ghostly enemies fights off the ghost king's army as Danny confronts the Ghost King in his castle for the final battle where Danny is victorious, however the battle causes Danny to pass out from exhaustion as Danny locks the ghost king in his coffin, Vlad takes advantage of this opportunity to steal the ecto-skeleton. Afterwards Vlad then takes Danny back to his house claiming to having found Danny outside the ghost shield in an effort to get back on Jack and Maddie's good side.

In an alternate timeline set a decade later in the future in The Ultimate Enemy, Danny gets caught in a time traveling journey involving a sequence of events courteously of Clockwork. In a sequence of events Danny eventually meets his evil future self Dan Phantom and engages him into battle but his older self proves to be too powerful for Danny and easily defeats him subsequently he fuses one of Clockworks medallion into Danny thus trapping him in the future and throws him into the ghost zone while Dan goes back in time to make sure his future is sealed but Jazz having figured out who Dan is as well as figuring out that Vlad Masters is Danny's archenemy uses a boomerang with a note with to find Danny. Danny eventually receives the note and suspects that Vlad is behind all of these events.

Danny finds out that Vlad's manor is long gone and Vlad noticing that Danny came in asks if he came to kick a defenseless old man while he is down, Danny questions this and Vlad reveals himself as a depressed old hermit, Danny asks what has happened to him while Vlad says he can ask him the very same question. Vlad the explains how Dark Danny came to be.

Following the Nasty Burger explosion that killed Danny's family, Sam, Tucker, as well as his teacher Mr. Lancer, Danny reluctantly moves in with his archenemy whom he feels he is the last person to to understand his situation. Vlad (having wanted to take Danny in as his own for a long time) takes him in with open arms and gives him a great deal of sympathy of what he is going through. Danny having felt guilty of what he is going through and feeling that his ghost powers are the reason for the death of his loved ones asks Vlad to remove his ghost half from his human half. Something that Vlad honored, he agreed to help him and using the Fenton Ghost Gloves (renamed Ghost Gauntlets which he somehow obtained) separates Danny Phantom from Danny Fenton, the procedure goes well but the ghost wakes up angry that Vlad had separated him from his human half goes berserk and frees himself and throws Vlad into a wall, the ghost then grabs the gauntlets and separates Vlad Masters from Vlad Plasmius thus stripping Vlad of his ghost powers, Danny's ghost half attempts to overshadow Vlad Plasmius, but the evil nature in Vlad consumes and overwhelms any good that is left in Danny Phantom and as such Dark Danny is born, Vlad then watches in terror as Dan comes into existence, horrified of what he had done (even though he tried to help Danny). Danny then asks Vlad what had become of his human half, cringing and not even wanting to even think of it, Vlad tells the younger Danny that some things are better off left unsaid. The scene then cuts to Dan giving the human Danny a deadly glare before proceeding to kill his human self and blowing up Vlad's mansion before going on a decade's long rampage of death and destruction with the human Vlad barely surviving the explosion to live to tell the tale.

Vlad, states in light of all the horrible things that happened is that ten years without ghost powers gave him the chance to see the errors of his ways by even restoring a picture of Jack with him and Maddie in a rare moment for Vlad shows deep regret and guilt, in a rare moment for his archenemy he realizes that everyone deserves a second chance even Vlad and in a way forgives him he then asks if Vlad has his ghost gantlets, to which he still has and Danny asks for help in getting the time medallion out of him but Vlad states he can just destroy Danny then and there to prevent his horrible future. Vlad however does remove his time medallion before Danny departs back to his own time to stop Dan and save his family and friends, Danny is successful in defeating his evil older self and with the help of Clockwork goes back in time to where Danny begins taking the C.A.T. and subsequently giving the answers back to Mr. Lancer thus creating a timeline where Danny's family and friends are saved from the Nasty Burger explosion and as such Danny does not move in with Vlad thus preventing Dark Danny from coming into existence (though the existing Dan now exists outside of time).

Now having possession of the Ecto-Skeleton in Secret Weapons Vlad again hires Skulker to hunt down nano bots from Axion Labs as well as the Ecto-converter and stealing an electric rod from Nicolai Technus in order to improve the suits power. Meanwhile, Danny angrily drive Jazz away from home as she ruins his ghost battles. Klemper barges in to Vlad's portal asking him to be his friend to which Vlad comically denies, he hears the doorbell ring and is surprised to see Jazz who calls him "Uncle Vlad" states that she ran away from home, her father is an idiot and her brother hates her and that she wants to move in with her, Vlad upon hearing that she says Jack is an idiot immediately takes her in, Unbeknownst to him however Jazz is secretly investigating him for the thefts he and Skulker committed. The next morning Jack and Maddie wake up Danny to inform him that Jazz is gone (feeling guilty for driving her away Danny heads into the ghost zone in an effort to find her), Vlad then calls Jack and Maddie where Jazz informs them that she needs to stay with "Uncle Vlad" for a while in order to stay away from Danny, Maddie (due to her hatred for Vlad) immediately objects to this but Vlad takes it as her saying yes and tell them he will watch her as if she was his own. In the meantime Danny confronts Skulker about kidnapping Jazz but the ghost hunter denies of doing he subsequently captures him and takes him to Vlad.

Later, Jazz discovers Vlad heading down to his secret laboratory, using Vlad's laptop Jazz tries to figure out why Vlad wants nanobots and and a ecto converter but multiple pictures of Maddie show up instead much to her disgust, Just then Vlad returns and Jazz pretends she is reading one of Vlad's college yearbooks which Vlad questions what she is doing in his library, playing with Vlad's crush for Maddie she asks why would his library be private from someone he considers a daughter, telling him he looked good in college as well as asking why him and Maddie were never together, Believing she is not up to something Vlad asks her to hug him. Much later as Vlad is occupied with other things Jazz breaks into his secret laboratory, where she discovers that Vlad was in possession of Jack's ecto skeleton as well as the ecto converter and the nano bots that Skulker had stolen earlier, Vlad the catches her and asks what she is doing in his lab she lies to him saying how cool a dad he will be as well as saying that his lab is much better than Jack's to which Vlad states he has nothing to suspect her of, Just then Skulker appears with Technus's rod as well as Danny, Vlad is surprised that Danny Phantom and Jazz know each other. Upset, Vlad says he loves that Jazz has left Jack for him but also states that he is suspicious of her motives and as such he then plans to test her loyalty.

Taking them to a football field in his backyard, Jazz asks Vlad if this is necessary but Vlad states he wasn't going to take her in as his own without first "testing" her "loyalty", he also states that he improved Jack's suit so the suit would not kill Jazz but he will if she betrays him, Danny ask Vlad to let her go while also insulting her causing to get angry and Vlad to start the battle between the two, Danny and Jazz begin to argue till Danny tries to escape and leave with Jazz following him only to crash into a ghost shield where Vlad states the shield works on ghosts and humans, and as such Danny tell Jazz that they have to fight but make it look convincing in order to fool Vlad but Jazz punches him without remorse for him humiliating him earlier but continues on with the plan on false fighting Danny until it looks like she knocked him unconscious, taking the bait, Vlad states he forgives her and turns off the shield, but the Fenton siblings get the last laugh when Danny disappears and Jazz punches her "father", realizing that he has been tricked, Vlad states that he can end her resistance with a press of a button but Danny grabs the the remote from him and attacks Vlad, angered that he had been tricked by them, Vlad asks Jazz if he ever figured out his secret identity by turning into Vlad Plasmius but realizes that that Danny and Jazz are long gone, leaving a note stating that they are not surprised as well as Jack's suit to self destruct right next to him much to his dismay.

The Ecto acne soon comes back to bite Vlad in Masters of All Time and as such heads to Danny for help as the latter storms out of Nasty Burger due to Jack and Maddie embarrassing him where Vlad awaits him outside when Danny asks what Vlad wants this time, Vlad reveals to Danny that the ecto acne is back and asks for his help to cure it but Danny, Sam and Tucker refuses to help him, in order to force Danny to help him he infects Sam and Tucker with the same illness before falling unconscious, Danny ask Vlad to wake up and asks for an antidote but Jack and Maddie attack him and he hides and is able to change back with the help of Jazz, Jack and Maddie realize that they must treat Vlad as well as Sam and Tucker ecto acne back at Fenton works much to Danny's dismay.

Vlad later wakes up at Fenton works in a bed stating to Maddie that she wouldn't let him down then mocks Danny telling him he didn't have a choice angering him. upon finding there is no cure Vlad mocks Danny stating that Sam and Tucker are running out of time which give Danny an idea he heads to Clockworks lair asking him to send him to the past of Jack Maddie and Vlad's college day but Clockwork says it is not a great idea but Danny begs him to do so stating he can prevent his original outbreak of ecto-acne as well as him getting ghost powers in the first place. Clockwork reluctantly does but tells him not to screw up, Danny arrives 20 years in the past and discovers an advertisement for a ghost portal and heads over there, there the past Vlad tries to state his love for Maddie to her but she ignores him and rather looks jealous when Maddie and Jack look at each other as in the previous timeline Jack activates the portal while Vlad sticks his head to it but just as the portal is about to shook Vlad, Danny appears and pushes Vlad out of the way as the ecto energy blasts around the lab Vlad pushes Maddie out of the way something she is grateful for this creates a timeline where Vlad doesn't get ecto-acne as well as ghost powers and thus Vlad Plasmius never exists.

Danny at first is satisfied that he altered the timeline, but soon changes his mind when he finds out Fenton works does not exist and heading into his house and to add further to the mess he made he realizes that Jack is not married to Maddie and thus does not have a son even further shocking him Jack has become a bitter half ghost (just the Vlad the original timeline) having now realized he has screwed up the past Danny attempts to get back to Clockwork but realizes there is no ghost portal then he notices on a newspaper that Vlad is married to Maddie shocking him, Danny has Jack explain to him what had occurred that Jack got hit with the ecto acne and got superpowers while Vlad marries Maddie Danny attempts to convince Jack that he was the one that married Maddie as well as having two kids but Jack refuses to believe him and attacks him leaving Danny not choice to find Maddie and Vlad in Wisconsin.

Danny arrives at Vlad and Maddie's Manor where he call Maddie "mom" in order to take him in, after feeding him cheese Maddie asks him where his parents are to which Danny responds they are missing, Maddie asks him if he needs a place to stay Vlad in awe is about to kiss her but a disgusted Danny interrupts asking if they have a ghost portal causing Vlad to be suspicious, that night Danny heads down into Vlad's lab where he finds a ghost portal but then Maddie appears and confronts him and captures him and straps him on to a table and asks Danny who he is, Danny nervously tells her that he is her son shocking her and tells her he is also Jack Fenton's son angering her stating she has not seen Jack Fenton in years and that he blamed her for the accident but Danny states that Jack misses her Jack out of nowhere come outs out and confirms this and shows her a picture of them together as well as Danny and Jazz and thus frees him she opens the portal but then Vlad appears attack Jack and Danny knocking the latter back on the table where he is captured again Danny begs him to stop telling him that nothing like this should ever happen but an angry Vlad states he likes it this way but Jack pushes Vlad to the side and frees Danny but Vlad shoots a laser at Jack and Jack defends himself with his shield but is pushed back into ghost portal causing it to overload and Jack to apparently either die or fall unconscious an angry Maddie confronts Vlad but Vlad states he is still her husband to which Maddie retaliates by throwing him into the ghost zone where he is confronted by several ghosts.

Danny with the help of a reluctant Clockwork fixes everything and Danny realizes Diet Cola is the cure to the ecto acne and as such suggests to Maddie to use the Diet Cola and mixes up a batch and the three are successfully cured much to Vlad's relief and tells Danny that he knew he would come through he then tells him that he is still weak so he asks him let bygones be bygones which Danny gets an idea by blasting him into the sky.

A much more darker side of Vlad is seen in Kindred Spirits where a desperate Vlad attempts to create the perfect clone of Danny by studying various battles between Danny and Valerie he has the Maddie program analyze the data but the program states Vlad wont be able to complete his experiment without a mid-morph sample Vlad then plans to resort to kidnapping Danny by sending his three ghosts out to find him one of which is a bed sheet with a half skeleton under it a hulk like monster ghost and a tiny green glob that is revealed to be a deformation of Danny who also call him "father" much to his delight before rather letting out a disturbing evil laugh when he has his Maddie program tell him that Jack Fenton is an idiot.

The bed sheet ghost ends up finding Danny at a golf course and he is able to quickly defeat it angering Sam and Tucker when they are left behind to clean the mess the Danny made, Danny returns home to find out a girl sitting on his bed confusing him, the girl introduces herself as Danielle, Danny's cousin once removed lying that she ran away from home Danny soon realizes she has a lot in common with him then takes her to meet his parents she refuses and goes outside, Danny follows her but can't find her just then the Hulk-like monster ghost appears and attacks Danny, Dani appears and reveals herself to be a half ghost just like him shocking him even further and the two team up against the ghost and defeat it and Dani fakes a faint when Danny begins to question her some more.

The next day at school, Danny tell his friends about Danielle but they are still angry at him but Danielle appears and Danny tells her she cant be using her powers just like that, she she tries to persuade him further when she suggests using her powers against Dash, just then the tiny glob ghost appears and the duo chase after it again leaving Sam and Tucker behind to clean the mess the Danny left behind, the Phantoms race each other unbeknownst to Danny, she was leading him to Vlad who appears in front of Danny and Vlad more serious than ever begins to attack Danny without hesitation who fights back, Danny asks Vlad if he going to make "some stupid crack" about Jack or a "lame come on" about Maddie, Vlad states to Danny that funny joke around Vlad is not present today and attacks him more and Danny fights back just then Dani appears and he asks her to help him but she hits him from behind betraying him and Danny realizes he was set up by her and Vlad, Dani asks her "dad" if she did good to which Vlad responds he could not wished for a better daughter before laughing evilly as Danny falls unconscious before taking him away where Sam and Tucker witness Danny being taken captive by Vlad who also realizes that Dani was bad news, realizing Danny needs their help they leave school infuriating Mr. Lancer who calls Jack and Maddie to inform them what they have done as Sam and Tucker head over to Fenton works to grab the Specter Speeder as well as the boomerang and the specter deflector but are caught by an angry Jack and Maddie before managing to escape the Fenton household and use the boomerang to find Danny as it can find Danny's location.

Meanwhile, Danny is taken to Vlad's residence in Colorado where Vlad captures him in Skulkers cube and shows him various videos of him going ghost which makes Danny realize that Vlad was spying on him before calling him a crazed up fruit loop but an angry Vlad states that a fruit loop would not commit invisible burglaries or overshadow several millionaires to be come the rich man that he is today and also states he is not a villain but that all he ever wanted was love before showing Danny his clones and that they need more time before they can accept his DNA stating that the ghosts that Danny encountered earlier including Danielle were bad clones and mistakes before showing Danny a deformed version of himself shocking Danielle who was watching all of this from above Vlad also states that he would watch hundred's of ghosts dissolve into ecto-plasm because he is desperate in getting the perfect half ghost son to which Danny states there is nothing loopy about that Vlad then asks Danny if he is under the impression that he is escaping, he states to him he needs a DNA sample of him to get a mid morph before ordering the deformed Danny to overshadow Danny in order to get his DNA.

Later, Vlad puts Danny into a cloning chamber in order to get what he needs Danny attempts to resist the transformation and the power is too much for the chamber and it overloads and thus explodes and Danny flies through Vlad angering him but Danielle appears behind up upset with what she heard asking him if she was in imperfection and a mistake but Vlad states he wasn't talking about her but was talking about the other clones he was making and shows her the tiny blob ghost dissolve into ecto plasium scaring her he then points out he needs Danny's DNA to stabilize her his "greatest creation" Dani takes Vlad's word and sets out to find Danny as he attempts to escape from Vlad's home and is attacked by Danielle who states that he isn't going anywhere and tells him that he is too weak to beat her at all but Danny tells her he is not going to fight her stating that every time he fights a clone to turn to goo but also states she isn't mindless like the other clones and that he doesn't want to hurt her, to which Dani states that's Danny should give Vlad his DNA so he can save her, but Danny states he is not going to save her but is using her telling her that she is a mess the Vlad is not going to even bother trying to clean up. Dani does not believe him and knocks him unconscious before taking him back to Vlad.

Danny wakes up in a cloning chamber being locked in by Dani, Vlad states he isn't sure how he is going to get Danny to morph but then gives him the idea having Dani overshadow Danny to force the transformation but Dani is reluctant to do so as she is afraid the strain would melt her since it melted the last clone that tried that. Vlad assures her it wont happen but Dani is hesitant to do so this causes Vlad to furiously snap at her telling that she only exists to serve him, upset at Vlad and realizes that Danny is right in Vlad using her, this causes Dani to betray her "father" and free Danny the two Phantoms then subsequently team up and attack Vlad knocking him back into the chamber that contains the perfect clone to fall on him destroying it where the Maddie program tells him about the clone where Vlad watches in horror as his ghost son slowly dissolve into ecto-plasm devastating him he shouts a loud NOOOO!

before glaring at Danielle in pure rage and slowly walks over to murder his "daughter" but Dani despite her unstabilized body attempts to fight him but Danny states that she doesn't have to, Danny then uses his ghostly wail (having used it previously on Dark Danny) on Vlad knocking him back into the wall and destroying his laboratory in he process (he also comically watches his Maddie program go corrupt and tells him she never loved him and that she likes the Jack program better Jack appears and he watches them kiss much to his horror) before turning back to human form and falling to the ground as Danny loses his power but states it worth it to take the cloning lab down, Vlad gets up and comes in for another attack but Dani again still attempts to fight him, but Vlad states that she doesn't dare use her powers against him and points out that Danny is beaten and this is over, before he can kill her though in a moment of pure luck out of nowhere Jack and Maddie's boomerang appears and hits him and Vlad picks it up and asks where did this came from suddenly the specter speeder commandeered by Sam and Tucker breaks into his lab hitting him and knocking him out, Tucker then comes out and puts the specter deflector on Vlad thus turning him back to human form and then states he can't focus his powers where Dani knocks unconscious telling him to stay away from her "cousin", in gratitude for saving her, Dani helps Danny and his friends out when they are about to face a potential punishment from Jack Maddie and Mr. Lancer for skipping school and taking the specter speeder by overshadowing Maddie and Lancer and make them get off the hook by telling Jack he can just make another ship thus letting Danny and his friends off the hook as Dani flies away to do her own heroic acts in her newfound freedom. (By far this was Vlad's cruelest role to date as he almost would of crossed the MEH had he killed Danielle as well as being very dangerous considering Danny used his ghostly wail on him and Tucker putting the specter deflector on him but nowhere near as bad as Dark Danny).

Becoming Mayor of Amity Park

With all else having failed, Vlad moves into a new mansion near Amity Park at the beginning of Eye For an Eye, Danny finds out and sends the guys in White to destroy his new home after he was finished exploring it tricking them into thinking that Vlad is in possession of ghost equipment, Vlad attempts to argue with them but the Guys in White destroy the house anyway devastating him, after not finding anything one of them mentions that the "Fenton kid" was wrong Vlad noting Danny is the one behind this tells him its game on, Danny and Tucker laugh at Vlad's expense in amusement much to Sam's concern he subsequently sends the guys in White to Fenton Works for the same reason until Sam tells them they can't search without a warrant.

Now without a house Vlad, stays in a nearby hotel for the time being a news report, tells about Vlad's misfortune insisting that he had nothing to hide, Vlad comes out of the shower stating that Danny Phantom has ruined his reputation and made him a laughing stock of Wisconsin and states that no one should bow down to a laughing stock but also states his counter moves should be able to wear Danny down, Vlad gets a rude awakening by Danny when news helicopters surround his hotel room and Danny turns the walls invisible for them to see, Vlad then pulls the same prank on Danny when the whole cafeteria spots him taking a show courteousy of Vlad sending in his ghost vultures who make the walls invisible. Later Vlad buys the Nasty Burger from its owners and sends the Guys In White to destroy it claiming that the Nasty Burger has ghost energy inside, Vlad tells Danny this is a lesson to be learned but Danny angrily states he gets the idea and that he doesn't like it but this isn't over for him yet as Danny Sam and Tucker storm off where Vlad decides to run for Mayor after seeing a nearby billboard

Danny soon gets the news from Jack that Vlad is running for mayor of Amity Park where Maddie tells him that Vlad is a write in candidate, Vlad states on TV that if he is elected he hopes to bring new life into Amity Park prompting Danny to run to city hall and confront Vlad just as Vlad is finished talking to a news reporter as Vlad walks away Danny grabs his legs and takes him down to the basement of city hall, Vlad eagerly greats Danny asking him if he came to wish "uncle Vlad" good luck but Danny tells him that he should stop running for officer but Vlad refuses to stating that his campaign is just beginning and goes ghost and Danny easily kicks him out of the building noting that Vlad is getting a little rusty but soon realizes that the Vlad he is fighting is a clone used to hold Danny off where nearby multiple Vlad clones overshadow the voters (including Jack) to vote for him thus making him win in a landslide.

The next day Vlad is finishing up his victory speech as he calls Danny up to the stage where he tells the public that Danny inspired him to run to run for mayor and that he will repay him and his friends by protecting the town from ghosts where Sam has a bad feeling about but Tucker states that he is only having a couple of laws but is completely wrong when he bans technology which greatly upsets Tucker as well as installing school uniforms that is non dark and gothic specifically made to irritate Sam, 4:00PM curfews, roll calls before and after classes and heighten security to ensure the safety of all students and to makes things more difficult for Danny where he installs surveillance cameras at every corner to ensure Danny can never go ghost and as such Vlad lies saying that Danny Phantom brings in ghosts as opposed to scaring them away and in order to prove his worth Vlad has the Guys in White capture ghosts that lurk Amity Park to which Danny believes that they are staged, to make Danny's life even more miserable he renames the Nasty Burger, McMasters and bans teenagers from entering causing Danny to be greatly hated by his peers.

A frustrated Danny (with the help of Tucker who removes a surveillance camera so he can go ghost) confronts Vlad inside the restaurant where attempts to apologize to Vlad stating he is sorry for the pranks he pulled on him and that he hopes that he will accept his apology and stop making life miserable and even offers to shake his his hand, Vlad is surprised but refuses to comply to his pleas angering Danny who asks if he can even pretend to have a heart but Vlad states while the apology is a departure from his usual childish arrogance he states to Danny that he had this had this coming Danny tries to argue his way out but Vlad has the Guys in White step in to force him out when he states no teenagers as well as ghost teenagers are allowed in.

Determined to get back at Vlad, Danny Sam and Tucker recruit their classmates and form a protest outside McMaster's to protest it's anti-teenager policy, Vlad notices this and heads down to confront them where he addresses them as children to which Sam shifts him off stating they are not children and tell him to stop treating them that way with Vlad distracted Danny prepares to enact his plan as Jack and Maddie show up annoyed by Jack's presence Vlad tries to blend in with the teenager as Danny shows up and prepares to get at Vlad but Jack prepares to attack Danny, Vlad spares him and lets him have his word, Danny prepares to expose Vlad's secret as a ghost to the public but at that exact moment a Vlad Plasmius clone appears and prepares to terrorize the crowds as Danny confronts the clone as the human Vlad watches in amusement as the clone overwhelms Danny with an ecto-tornado where the human Vlad states that Danny Phantom attracts the worst of what the Ghost Zone has to offer and is too weak to stop them, Plasmius catches Phantom as the human Vlad grabs Jack's gun and prepares to attack his clone Danny then realizes that Vlad is zapping his clone to make himself look good but Danny then gets an idea of overshadowing the Plasmius clone as Vlad shoots the clone at his limo and causing an explosion, the now human Danny emerges to the wreckage where he Sam and Tucker conspire that Vlad injured Danny causing him to lose a majority of his supporters which greatly pleases Danny.

In an effort to save his status as the mayor, Vlad reluctantly reverses all his restrictions on the teenagers which gives back his support from the public as well as rebuilding the Nasty Burger to get back his support from the teens, Sam then tells Danny its a draw between the two but Danny knowing Vlad all to well states that "whenever there is a draw there is bound to be a rematch" as the episodes ends with the the two glaring at each other.

It appears that in order to get rid of his loneliness, Vlad has adopted a cat and named it "Maddie" showing more of his love for her in Infinite Realms where he plays chess with the cat and tells it that he rules at life and rules the city but that is not enough for him and that he is destined to rule much more greater things but apparently reading the cats mind where she suggests watch TV where it is revealed that he illegally spies on the Fenton's via a camera bot. In the meantime, Danny, Sam and Tucker having accidentally taken the infi-map from Frostbite prepares to head back to him to give the map back to him, Vlad notices Danny having possession of the map and pulls out a book to discover that the infi-map does exist and isn't happy that Danny had found it before he did in order to trace his steps Vlad has his camera bug hide in Sam's bag.

They eventually land in Salem in the 1600s where Vlad follows, there where witch craft trials are being held Vlad dresses as a villager and tell the villagers that Sam is a witch, Danny and Tucker then figure out that Vlad had followed him, Danny then tries to rescue Sam as he turns the crowds (as well as Jack Fentons ancestor) attention to him where Jack's ancestor put blossoms surrounding Sam that is a force field that injures Danny upon coming contact with, Vlad then picks up Danny and shoves him in the circle injuring him and torturing him, Tucker then runs to rescue Danny and Sam as Vlad steals the map from Tucker who notices this and grabs his camera bot and throws it at him and and lands on him something that Vlad does not apparently notice Tucker manages to rescue the two and the the three follow Vlad where Tucker states he can track Vlad through this PDA.

The trio then confront Vlad in ancient Rome where he is surprised them and they are surprised to see him rule where he states that he was meant to rule after all, Danny states he can stay for as long as he wants but asks him to give him the map stating that he doesn't know how powerful it is angered at him Vlad releases his lions to maul the trio but they quickly escape and Danny chases Vlad but in the process he shoots ecto-plasmic discs at Danny accidentally destroying the kingdom and angering the Romans, angered Vlad leaves to for another realm to rule, Vlad then lands in Asia where he attempts to rule the kingdom but is stopped by Danny and gets confronted by the townsfolk, Vlad eventually lands in 1903 where the Wright Brothers are testing out their first airplane flight and as such tries to sabotage their attempt their flight so he can rule from the air but Danny again intervenes angering Vlad.

With Danny, Sam and Tucker right behind him an annoyed Vlad traps them into an ecto-sphere where Danny and Sam tell him to give them the map as the map is not meant for him but Vlad refuses to listen and this time Vlad threatens the map to take him to greatest destiny and it betrays him and takes it back to the Realm of the Far Frozen where he is confronted by Frostbite and his cohorts where they freeze him into an ice cube as well as retrieving the map from Vlad, the trio returns and apologizes to Frostbite who state it is no harm done they then return home where Vlad still frozen is made into a statue.

A heatwave soon strikes Amity Park at the beginning of Torrent of Terror, Vlad uses the heatwave as an opportunity to further appeal his status as the mayor by seeking out the weather ghost Vortex who is currently being held on trial by the Observants for his crimes against humanity just before Vortex is sentenced, Vlad disguises himself as one of the Observants and breaks into the trial and causes havoc before introducing himself to Vortex and breaks him free, Vlad tells him that there is no need to thank him but Vortex tells Vlad he he should be rejoicing that he is even allowed in his presence then prepares to leave to cause chaos on the earth but Vlad having stolen the Barometer from the Observants forces Vortex to do his bidding and he agrees.

Vlad has Vortex fly in the sky while he addresses the citizens about the current heat wave and water shortages he disguises the barometer as a "rain machine" he uses it to strike Vortex who creates a rain storm which causes the city to cool down from the heat making the citizens happy and making Danny and his friends suspicious as well as causing his approval rating to go up tremendously.

Later, the plan succeeds and Vlad and Vortex chat in his office but the plan eventually backfires on Vlad when he asks Vortex to stop the rain storm to which he refuses stating the weather is his art, in retaliation Vlad uses the barometer on Vortex who rebels against Vlad and destroys the barometer thus freeing him from Vlad's control before Vortex leaves Vlad office intending to cause more chaos, an angry Vlad goes ghost and chases after Vortex where he shoots a ghost ray at him annoying Vortex who retaliates by striking Vlad with a lightning bolt, Vortex states to Vlad since he refused his freedom he intensifies the storm before blowing Vlad out of his sight and falls onto the ground causing him to de-transform.

After alerting the citizens to broaden up their windows and batten down their hatches a humiliated and defeated Vlad heads over to Fenton Works where a desperate Vlad begs Danny for his help. Despite the hatred he has for him Danny agrees, On the way there Danny criticizes Vlad for releasing Vortex in order to bring his approval rating up, Vlad then tells Danny that he doesn't expect him to understand his reasons and that if they are going to defeat Vortex they must do it together, But upon reaching Vortex who asks if he came to admire his weather, Vlad remembering his confrontation with Vortex earlier chickens out and leaves Danny to fight Vortex on his own, the ghost boy then attempts to fight Vortex but the weather ghost proves too much for Danny who easily defeats him as well as given Danny part of his weather powers which are triggered by Danny's emotions.

Danny emerges safely from the wreckage and Vlad appears assuring the citizens everything is fine but Danny's anger at his presence causes a tornado which chases after Vlad but stops when Danny sees his parents are in danger, Danny goes over to help his parents but are confronted by Sam and Tucker who tell him that the weather is cause by his emotions something that surprises Vlad, Danny's anger again causes a small storm cloud to appear and chase after Vlad, Danny then states he felt a tingle when the lightning blew up his shield, Vlad then realizes that the electricity passing through his ecto shield has caused him to absorb Vortex's weather controlling powers with Sam telling Danny to calm down before they have another storm.

Later, Vlad takes the teenage trio to his office where Sam and Tucker try to calm him down, Vlad angrily states that he was close to victory when Danny's powers triggered by his emotions threatens his plan, to which Danny again gets angry at Vlad stating that he brought Vortex in the first place causing heavy winds to blow into his office but Sam and Tucker calm him again, Vlad states his anger causes cyclone's and his sadness monsumes he states he will have to stay calm while Sam and Tucker find Vortex and bring him back to Amity Park, Tucker then asks what he is going to do but Vlad states the mayor's absence in the wake of disaster will look bad for his image to which Sam states which would also end his political career and subsequent evil plans, forcing Vlad to take care of Danny and keep him calm as Sam and Tucker head out to find Vortex but Danny again refuses but Tucker and Sam point out that Vlad must do all his bidding in order to keep him calm and happy which pleases him much to a worried Vlad who tortures the latter in an effort to have him calm down Vlad takes him to a gaming convention where he calls him "Uncie Vlad" but Danny's anger again causes the sprinklers to go off and ruin the video games causing an annoyed Vlad to buy all the ruined video games much to his frustration.

In the meantime, Sam and Tucker steal the Fenton blimp as Vortex causes havoc around the world with his weather powers they eventually track him down in Italy where the duo tricks him into returning to Amity Park by stating Danny Phantom scared them away, Vortex heads back to Amity Park where a grateful Vlad transforms and throws Danny outside where the former heads to Vortex ordering him to stop his insanity and remove Danny's ghost powers before throwing him to Sam and Tucker, Danny then uses Tucker's virtual reality helmet to cause his weather powers to turn against Vortex which severely weakens him and Danny captures him in the Fenton thermos, Danny states to Sam and Tucker that Vlad's ego almost caused Amity Park to be destroyed but Sam and Tucker point out that Danny's emotions are no longer tied to the weather. In the aftermath Danny returns Vortex to the Observants as Vlad makes a public announcement blaming Danny, Sam and Tucker for the mess that Vortex made angering them.

While Vlad makes no appearance (aside from a billboard) whatsoever in Urban Jungle his off-screen actions none the less play an important role in the episode in which his beautification campaign cuts down the forest to make way for new buildings this is enough for an angry Undergrowth to appear and for him to enslave the citizens (and possibly Vlad) and cause them to transform Amity Park into a jungle but Danny having barely learned to control his newfound ice powers manages to defeat Undergrowth freeing the citizens and presumably Vlad as well.

Vlad makes a cameo appearance in Livin Large where he is in complete shock and disbelief that the Fentons moved in to a mansion that is right next door to his mansion after the guys in white attempt to open the Renton portal back at Fenton works, Vlad angrily state he can not afford this house but states the huge check he got he is able to, Jack then suggests getting together for a BBQ at some point to which Vlad isn't too keen of just then Maddie comes out of the mansion and isn't too pleased to see that Vlad is her neighbor but Vlad obviously is happy to see Maddie and states he would drop by later.

Vlad makes another cameo appearance in Frightmare in which Danny suggests he is responsible of people falling asleep but is relived when he barges into Vlad's bedroom and discovers that is also has a sleeping helmet on suggesting that Nocturne caught Vlad off-guard and put a helmet on him before putting him into bed.

Final Showdown and Defeat

By the beginning of D-Stablized Danielle makes a return having been battered greatly from the last fight with Vlad seeks out for Danny whom she feels he can help her stable her deteriorating body thinking Vlad is in Colorado she believes she is safe from him but unbeknownst to her she is being spied by Vlad, wanting to capture her again and continue his clone experimentation, he sends Valerie Gray to hunt her down promising her a new apartment for her and her father if she is successful at her mission he tells her that Dani is an evil ghost out to destroy Vlad Masters as such she sets out to track Dani down.

She soon finds her near an Alleyway but Dani changes back to human form as she takes two apples to satisfy her hunger to which angers Valerie who thinks Dani is no a ghost due to being in human form just then Valerie's alarm goes of alerting Dani who runs away as Valerie chases after her she then seek refuge in an abandoned apartment Valerie come in and accidentally sets off a trap forcing Dani to go ghost and save her unfortunately by revealing her identity and secret to Valerie she quickly captures her she begs for her to let her go but Valerie states she has her all bundled up for her to be delivered to Vlad, but Dani tells her that he will destroy her but Valerie states to her that she came out of the Ghost Zone to destroy him but she then asks Valerie if she looks like she can destroy anything and also states that one person that can help her Danny Phantom, Valerie wanting to destroy Danny Phantom as well pretends that she wants the "honor" of meeting Danny Phantom.

Meanwhile as Danny, Sam and Tucker are patrolling Amity Park for ghost activity they come across Dani to which Danny states he gotten taken care of as Sam and Tucker abruptly leave, Danny state she doesn't look to good which Danielle responds that the last battle with Vlad left her weakened she then tells him that when she was trying to look for him, Dani states that Vlad came out to destroy her to which Danny states he will protect her just as they leave though Valerie captures them and Dani realizes Valerie was using her to get to Danny before she was knocking them unconscious.

Valerie hands Dani over to Vlad as Valerie interrogates Danny until Danny convinces her that Vlad is out to destroy her stating that she doesn't look like she can destroy anything and not only that she is a ghost but a human he then tells that if Vlad succeeds in dissecting her she would be guilty in destroying a human being guilting her into helping Danny. Meanwhile Vlad puts Dani on experimentation table as she tells him to stay away from her but then asks Vlad is he will stabilize her but he refuse to do so stating that he has far more important things to do he then states his plan to unstablize her thus killing her to study her ectoplasmic remains so he can create the perfect clone of Danny.

Freeing Danny, the duo heads over to Fenton works where Danny takes Jack's latest invention that helps stables Dani's body then fly to Vlad's manor where Dani is being held Vlad notices and is hocked that Danny and Valerie teamed up and they are incoming and as such he splits himself into two one of which is Masters who purposely locks himself inside a closet as the Plasmius clone greets Danny and Valerie upon their arrival, upon arriving Plasmius confronts Danny and Valerie, but Danny states that he doesn't want to fight Vlad but that he wants to save Danielle but Vlad refuses to do so, he hits Danny and traps him under a bookshelf he then fights Valerie who traps him but he turns invisible and heads down to his lab where he activates his machine that slowly dissects her, thinking that Vlad Masters is trapped by Plasmius, he "calls for help" Danny then awakens and heads down to Vlad's lab noticing Valerie is standing there, Vlad then calls for help stating that Plasmius is going to destroy Danielle and as such Valerie frees him thinking Masters is still a good man as Danny goes to free Danielle, Valerie attacks Plasmius, Danny then tries to free her from her restraints by his ghost ray, Vlad Plasmius then taunts him by saying that it's going to take more than his ghost rays to free her then Valerie presumably destroys the clone, Danny uses his dad's Ecto-dejecto but it is too late as Dani dissolves into a pool of ecto-plasm, saddening Danny.

Just as Danny has thought to lost his "cousin" she emerges from the goo finally having her body full stabilized thanks Danny the duo then help Valerie to fight Vlad as Dani attacks him and angrily tells him to not mess with a defenseless girl, Danny had Valerie and Danielle leave, Danny confronts Vlad stating that Vlad tricked Valerie into thinking that Vlad Plasmius was out to kill Danielle leaving Vlad Masters in the clear and states if only she knew that Masters and Plasmius were the same, Vlad retorts by stating that Danny can tell her about his secret all he wants but he would just do the same to Danny, Danny then angrily orders him to not come near her again with Vlad smirking at him as he leaves, After Danielle leaves and Valerie lets Danny go, Valerie still thinking Vlad is in danger heads back down to his lab she hides as Vlad rambles about his failed plans and over hears him stating about him using her to do his bidding, she also discovers that Vlad Masters and Vlad Plasmius are the same being, Angered that he had been using her all this time, Valerie stabs Vlad behind his back and betrays him stating he now one of the ghost she hunts.

At the beginning of the series finale Phantom Planet Vlad steals the Infi-Map again from Frostbite but Danny, Sam and Tucker are right behind him in the specter speeder the duo engage in a quick battle where Danny states needs therapy to get what he wants he then freezes him into an ice cube and takes the Infi-Map from Vlad and leaves, angered, Vlad chases after them before he accidentally shoots the fuel tanks realizing his satellite will be destroyed, an angry Vlad states that Danny mocking his mental health is the final straw for him and as such plans to destroy him once and for all and heads back to earth and unbeknownst to him with his satellite exploding it causes a giant asteroid had towards earth.

Back in Amity Park, Vlad hires a ghost fighting trio named Masters Blasters who show's up to defeat Nicolai Technus who was robbing a movie store, Vlad then appears on a holographic screen who tells the citizens of his new ghost fighting team and states that they are going to replace Danny Phantom whom he says has failed Amity Park and as such every time Danny fights a ghost they appear and easily defeats them which overwhelms Danny, the next day Vlad and his ghost fighting team hold a parade as Danny laminates his status as a ghost fighter he embarrasses himself when he blows up a ghost balloon angering the citizens of Amity Park where Vlad states that Amity Park is in a safer place thanks to his ghost fighting team angering Danny further, Later Vlad sends Masters Blaster's comes to Fenton Works to arrest Jack and Maddie for holding ghosts, this proves to be the final straw for Danny who activates the ghost portal to reverse the accident that gave him his ghost powers to remove his powers thus no longer being a half ghost, much to his friends and Jazz's disappointment.

Later, Vlad soon has the people pay for Master Blasters as ghost hunting become more expensive and that there a few crackpots out there showing Valerie being easily defeated hinting that she had already made moves against him from the previous episode meanwhile Danny is enjoying his ghost hunting free life but soon late regrets his decision to remove his ghost powers, Later scientists discover that asteroid is heading towards earth and that they have one week before impact and as such Vlad teams up with the Fenton's as such he sends his Master Blasters team with Jack to fire a drill missile intending to destroy it from the inside unbeknownst to everyone he put in the wrong coordinate to make Jack look like an idiot and as such the missiles fail to destroy the asteroid, after everyone leaves Vlad confronts Danny telling him that he put in the wrong coordinates and tells him that his father has failed once again angering Danny who chews him out by saying that at least he tried and that Vlad sends others to do his work for him, but Vlad points out to Danny that he stopped being a hero when the world needed a hero the most, just then a news report come out that the disateroid came from the rings of Saturn and as such Danny discovered that Vlad is responsible behind all the events a such Vlad turns into his ghost form and grabs him and tells him that defeating him and humiliating him into hiding was the first part of his plan and tells him to get ready for the second part before throwing him into the destroyed portal and leaving. The next day Vlad has a town meeting, stating that every attempt to destroy the disasteroid has failed he states he has news that will be very surprising as such he floats above the crowd going ghost and revealing his secret as a half ghost and half human shocking everyone including Danny and Jack, The Master's Blaster then attempt to attack him but he easily fends them off, he then reveals that he used his human half to walk among the citizens he states he is much more powerful creature, when asked by a news reporter, he states that the world had come to know Vlad as a billionaire and mayor of Amity Park he is also a half ghost named Vlad Plasmius, he then states he has proposition if the world leaders give him 500 billion dollars and absolute ruler of the world in return he will use his powers to turn the disasteroid intangible he then states he hopes to wait for the worlds decision before laughing and disappearing.

Later, after his demands are met, Vlad takes off in a rocket with Jack, on the way there Jack asks Vlad why he held the world hostage after all the wealth he had in his life, but Vlad states he infected him with ghost DNA, stole Maddie from him and asks if he calls that good fortune, Jack asks about infecting Vlad, he angrily reveals his hatred for Jack from him stating that he is the reason why Vlad became half-ghost was because Jack infected him with ghost DNA back in college, but as they approach the asteroid he says thanks to him because if not for him he wouldn't become ruler of the earth, Jack gets up and states he never meant to hurt him and states what happened was an accident and that he was always his friend, but Vlad cruelly state he will remember that when he steals Maddie from Jack and make her his queen before laughing evilly and leaving the ship angering Jack and making him realize that Vlad isn't who he thought he was. Vlad then heads over to the disasteroid and prepares to turn it intangible but it shocks him and to his horror he discovers that the disateroid is made up of ecto-ranium as such no ghosts nor any humans are able to touch it as such he realizes the world is doomed he then states if it was not he could not go back to earth as he had foolishly revealed his secret as a ghost and threatened the planet knowing that he would be hunted for the rest of his life, he turns to Jack who is giving him a cold glare, Vlad asks Jack to help him more stating he would not turn back on an old friend. But Jack now knowing that the Vlad Masters he knew was gone states he would not turn back on an old friend but said he would now because he knows Vlad is an evil person all along and as such he activates the rocket and abandons Vlad, shunning his former college pal, leaving him stranded in space and cementing Vlad's permanent exile from the earth.

It is here, that Vlad finally realizes the error of his actions and realizes he should not have taken Jack's friendship for granted and as such he begins to express remorse for his actions and it is shown that he indeed has an affectionate and caring side from him but it is too late for him as his actions forever earned him hatred around the world, not wanting to see the destruction of the earth from his own hand's . Vlad guiltily glanced at the earth one final time before flying off into space as a space nomad.

Hours later after Danny with the help from Sam, Tucker, Jazz, Jack, Maddie as well as Skulker and other ghosts from the ghost zone manage to turn the earth intangible so the disateroid passes through it harmlessly, he earned his status as world hero and he and Sam finally hook up while Tucker inexplicably replaces him as mayor of Amity Park, Vlad is sitting on an asteroid finally accepting his status as a free-roaming space nomad stating that it least the environment is quiet but before he can continue to speak, the disateroid hits him. His fate remains unknown if he had survived the impact or not. but it is heavily implied that he survived, as according to Butch Hartman, Vlad survived the impact and was captured by aliens.

Nicktoons Unite

Vlad appears in the Nickelodeon crossover video game Nicktoons Unite! as one of the four main antagonists where Professor Calamitous having stolen a portal project from Jimmy Neutron that gives him access to other worlds, recruits Vlad along with fellow Butch Hartman villain Denzel Quincy Crocker and Plankton all of whom tried to take over the world at one point or another all team up and form the Evil Syndicate Vlad soon is tasked with stealing ghost energy from the ghost zone, Jimmy finds out about this and recruits Vlad's archnnemisis Danny Phantom Spongebob Squarepants and Timmy Turner. together the foursome confront Vlad who has taken residence at Casper high and states he has been waiting for them to arrive he states he has Jack and Maddie captured to pressure Danny into joining him and the other villains but Danny refuses to do so, Vlad states he cannot resist telling him that the syndicate cannot be defeated as well as being provided with unlimited ghost energy but Danny again refuses his offer, as such Vlad knocks the heroes unconscious and hands them over to Walker where he imprisons them but they manage to escape. Danny and the other heroes learn from Sam and Tucker that the ghosts possessed the citizens of Amity Park as such Danny and the other heroes clear up the town before heading to Vlad's castle where the shut down the generators and confront Vlad at his throne room where he taunts Danny that he has his parents hostage angering him who possesses Jack and with the ghost gauntlets and the assistance from Jimmy, Timmy and Spongebob manages to defeat him though before leaving he tells Danny that their battle is far from over before retreating back to Retroville. In the meantime the heroes head to the Bikini Bottom to deal with Plankton before heading to Fairy World to deal with Crocker before heading back to Retroville where the heroes are contacted by Calamitous. Through a Flea-Bot in Goddard's system, Jimmy manages to track Calamitous and the other villains at their hideout. Vlad taunts Danny when he says even the villains will be destroyed if they go through with their plan. Vlad and the others are eventually defeated by the heroes where Vlad is trapped in the Fenton Thermos taken back to Amity Park by Danny.

While presumably non-canon to the show itself the events of the game would have taken place after The Ultimate Enemy! due to Danny having the Ghostly Wail as an ability.

Denzel Crocker

Mr. Denzel Quincy Crocker is the secondary antagonist of the Nickelodeon cartoon series The Fairly OddParents . He is one of Timmy Turner's arch-nemesis (along with Vicky and Francis).

He was voiced by Carlos Alazraqui in the cartoon series, who also voiced Boat Jacker in SpongeBob SquarePants, while in A Fairly Odd Movie: Grow Up, Timmy Turner!, he was portrayed by David Lewis.

Background

Denzel Crocker worked at a number of different schools and colleges before ending up in Dimmsdale Elementary School. He was once an aspiring professor for Dimmsdale University, but his proclamation of his belief in fairies led to him becoming a laughingstock in all the city of Dimmsdale. He was also kicked out of a New Baltimore Community College for spending money on fairy tracking inventions. Even after landing a job in Dimmsdale Elementary, he was still scorned and laughed at by his colleagues, including Principal Waxelplax.

Childhood

In Crocker's past life, he was an adorable and kind child who enjoyed helping others. His mother was never around very often and thus he got babysat by a mean babysitter named Vick. Because of this, he was very miserable. However, his sadness ended after having received his own Fairy Godparents, Cosmo and Wanda.

Unfortunately, after Timmy time travels to the year 1972, Timmy and Cosmo accidentally reveal Crocker's secret about his fairies in front of the whole town who had gathered to celebrate a day honoring Crocker. Because of this, Jorgen Von Strangle is forced to erase Crocker's memory of him ever having fairies, and because of an overdose from the memory wiper, Crocker becomes horribly disfigured, and the town's people, who had now completely forgotten all the nice things that Crocker did with his fairies, assumes that they must be an angry mob and chase him down. He remembers nothing but he finds a DNA tracker device that Timmy left behind in the past on which he wrote "Fairy Godparents exist" on the back before his mind was wiped. Crocker uses it to try and find real fairies. Timmy later wanted to return back to March 14, 1972, but he was stopped by two Jorgen Von Strangles (a 1970's version and the current version). After that, the event ends with Jorgen and his other self dancing on the dance floor 1970's style.

Life as a teacher

Crocker's life of a teacher is comical in the way that Timmy's principal, Geraldine Waxaplax, beats him up for actions such as going into the girl's bathroom. He had to switch jobs three times, changing into a ham salesman, a tour guide in the episode " Nega Timmy ", and a crossing guard in the episode " No Substitute for Crazy! ".

Family

His family includes his mother and his uncle. His uncle is obsessed with genies and owns a collection of lamps, one of which contains Norm, although he is kept safe so his craziness is stable. His mother is a polite person, once rich and groovy. But when Crocker was young, she was non-attentive, pretty much like Timmy's parents. Crocker's father is never seen in the series, not even in " The Secret Origin of Denzel Crocker ", where his childhood is revisited, suggesting Crocker lost him at an early age or that he never had one. This lack of a father figure is implied to be the reason Crocker quickly accepted his stepfather, Ricky, from " The Odd Couple " as his father and even wanted to play childish games with him and have an allowance.

Description

He has a hunched back, an ear on his neck, horrible teeth, and a generally nerdy appearance. Denzel is described as quite hideous by normal standards, although on occasion some other characters (such as Timmy's dad) find him "gorgeous". Most characters regard him as completely nuts, even his own co-workers. Mr. Crocker has been known to join forces with other villains such as Vicky and Dark Laser, although it is almost always because he is looking for Timmy's fairies, and he usually just gets in their way. It should be noted that his teeth were once normal, but when he was having his memories of his fairies wiped, the beam reflected off an object and caused Mr. Crocker's teeth to become horribly crooked.

Intelligence

Mr. Crocker's intelligence is debatable, as it seems to depend on if it's part of the plot. For example, if it has nothing to do with the plot, he seems to be a numskull (i.e. trying to make DNA scanners out of cooking tools) while if it is part of the plot he seems to be a genius. For example, he can make revolutionary technology like portals to other dimensions and long range DNA trackers, and he also knows how to link science and magic together, something Wanda claimed was impossible.

Also, Mr. Crocker is almost always correct when it comes to finding out Timmy's actions with the fairies. In the episode " Birthday Wish! ", Crocker almost immediately deduced that Timmy loaned his fairies to Tootie in an act of guilt. These knowledgeable deductions may not have to do with his intelligence at all, as Crocker never deduces these from obvious facts, but almost always random ones. His deduction of Timmy loaning his fairies, for example, was based solely on the fact Tootie's birthday cake's icing was hand-made (he believes nobody hand-makes icing nowadays) and he had previously ignored more obvious clues like Tootie's sudden popularity, the cake's size and the fact he was giving a gift to a child. Another example takes place in "Cosmo Con" when Timmy aces a pop quiz out of sheer luck and Crocker believes Timmy's fairies helped him.

In some stories he is referred to Doctor Crocker, meaning he has a doctor's degree. In " Remy Rides Again ", he claimed he and Stephen Hawking were university roommates, meaning he went to Oxford University (one of the best universities in the world.) Although never stated, it would appear he has a Master's Degree in Physics and Technology and Engineering.

Role in the movies Abracatastrophe

Mr. Crocker acted as the main antagonist in the first TV movie Abra-Catastrophe! . In the film, Mr. Crocker often tried to get his hands on the Fairy-versery muffin that could grant any wish. He chained Timmy to his desk so that he wouldn't recover it from the cafeteria during Muffin Monday, but during a food fight, Bimpy the monkey took a bite out of the muffin instead and wished for primates to rule the world. After he insulted the apes at the jungle version of the school, the gorilla overlords took Crocker to a human experiment lab. It was mentioned that his favorite food is shrimp puffs.

After the world turned back to normal, Mr. Crocker finally got his hands on the muffin and wished to capture Wanda with an indestructible butterfly net. He trapped Wanda in his scepter and used her magic to make himself a powerful dictator and took complete control of the world. During a long showdown, he managed to capture Cosmo too and later realizes that he'd been fighting Timmy Turner the whole time. Mr. Crocker goes to the Turners' house, captures Timmy's parents, and threatens Timmy that he'd turn them into ice sculptures and transport them to the sun if he didn't surrender. This causes Timmy to ultimately reveal his godparent's existance and have them sent to fairy world, cutting off Crocker's magic as well as making him be attacked by Timmy's parents.

After the world went back to normal (again), Mr. Crocker was seen at the school making outbursts about ruling the world and getting sent to a mental institute.

Channel Chasers

Mr. Crocker is also affected, he has finally stopped believing in fairies after staying at a mental hospital. He vows to use his mind to help the world, and he had already just invented cold fusion and said there was no limit to the good he could do for humanity. However, when the effects of the erase wish hit him, Crocker reverted to his normal ways, believing that him about to help people was the work of fairies. He laughs crazily before he runs right back into the mental hospital.

Jimmy Timmy Power Hour

Mr. Crocker was the main antagonist in Jimmy Timmy Power Hour . He was seen in the classroom talking about the upcoming travel-related science fair. When Jimmy was stuck in Timmy's universe, Jimmy eventually developed a transporting device with Timmy's poofer and game-buddy. Mr. Crocker however, busted in Timmy's room, took the device from Jimmy and used it to enter Fairy World. After breaking into the weapons room, Mr. Crocker knocks down the Big Wand, cuts off the fairies' magic and turns Jorgen Von Strangle into a dog. When Jimmy succeeded in fixing the Big Wand, the fairies recovered their magic, Crocker was blasted by Jimmy a few times and then gets mauled by Jorgen's dog fangs, traumatizing him and making him lose all memory of Fairy World.

School's Out!: The Musical

He makes some cameos in this film.

The Jimmy Timmy Power Hour 2: When Nerds Collide

One day, Timmy and Jimmy are throwing a Friday the 13th Party at their school in their own worlds. Meanwhile Crocker was telling Timmy that he could not plan a dance on Friday the 13th.

"Fairly Idol"

He could be seen building a machine to take him to Fairy World until he saw a gas trap that makes him fall asleep.

The Jimmy/Timmy Power Hour 3: The Jerkinators

He was one of the people that Shirley captured.

Wishology

In the three-part movie Wishology, Crocker, along with Vicky and Dark Laser, joins forces with Timmy in exchange for Timmy showing him his fairies. When Timmy "sacrifices" himself to The Darkness, he even shows a moment of remorse for Timmy. However, by the end of the movie, and definitely after Jorgen's memory wipe, he has reverted to his old self.

"Timmy's Secret Wish!"

Crocker was one of the people to help Timmy get his fairies back.

A Fairly Odd Movie: Grow Up, Timmy Turner!

Mr. Crocker is the secondary antagonist in A Fairly Odd Movie: Grow Up, Timmy Turner, which is set ten years after the original series. In this film, it's shown that Crocker never stopped his obsession with fairies and is still teaching the fifth grade. It's also shown that Crocker hasn't given up his hatred for Timmy Turner either, as Timmy discovered a loophole in Da Rules that would allow him to keep his fairies if he never technically grew up, meaning that he is still in his class. Later, after Hugh J. Magnate Jr.'s attempt to bulldoze Dimsdale's park is foiled by seemingly impossible odds, Crocker contacts him while using a voice modification device and tells him about Timmy Turner and his fairies. Later, after Crocker's identity is revealed to Magnate, Crocker and him plot to kidnap Tootie in order to lure Timmy and his fairies to their lair and construct a device designed to capture the fairies and harness their magic. Later, Crocker manages to capture the fairies and delivers them to Hugh; however, Hugh betrays Crocker and uses the fairies' magic to send him into an endless ball-pit, although during the credits, he falls onto the Turner family's lawn, revealing that the ball-pit wasn't actually endless (or was otherwise a result of Timmy maturing and removing his fairies).

A Fairly Odd Christmas

He's a supporting protagonist. At one point, it was revealed that Mr.

Crocker only wore glasses to look smart and that he was actually a redhead that often dyed his hair black. This time, he made peace with Timmy Turner and his fairies and helped them save Christmas.

A Fairly Odd Summer

He's the secondary antagonist. The truce with Timmy Turner and his fairies is over, and now he's coming back to take Turner's fairies and finish off Timmy Turner again.

King Goobot V

King Goobot V, better known simply as King Goobot or Goobot, is the main antagonist of Nickelodeon's 6th feature film Jimmy Neutron: Boy Genius, and a major antagonist in the TV show The Adventures of Jimmy Neutron: Boy Genius . He is Jimmy's archenemy, Ooblar's older brother, and the employer of the Yokian Fleet Commander and the tyrannical king of Yolkus.

In the movie, he was voiced by Sir Patrick Stewart, who also played Pharaoh Seti I in DreamWorks' The Prince of Egypt, Dr. Jonas in Conspiracy Theory, Avery Bullock in American Dad, Darcy Banker in Green Room and King Buffo in the Courage the Cowardly Dog series. In the TV show, he was voiced by S. Scott Bullock.

In the movie, King Goobot tries to kidnap the parents of Jimmy Neutron and his friends, so he can feed them to Poultra, the god of Yolkus. He was assisted by his younger brother, Ooblar, and although he tried to off Jimmy and his friends after they rescued their parents, Jimmy grew to a huge size and defeated him.

In the TV show, King Goobot arrives on Earth and pretends to be nice to the citizens and he even invite the citizens to a party (which it's actually a trap), but Jimmy suspects something about Goobot's scheme before Goobot bans him from the party as the citizens believe that Jimmy's a bully to the Yolkians. Later, he steals one of Jimmy's inventions to revive Poultra and trap the citizens as he tries to feed them to Poultra, but then Jimmy puts some Purple Flurp in Poultra's water bowl and then Poultra explodes after she belched. Then King Goobot goes back into space in a giant eggshell spaceship along with the other Yokians and Ooblar before the citizens apologize to Jimmy for not believing him earlier, and then they praise him as a hero.

King Goobot's also the leader of the League of Villains, whose goal was to get revenge on Jimmy Neutron. Later he was trapped in the Cretaceous period along with the other villains, and remained there.

Sheldon J. Plankton

Sheldon J. Plankton (simply known as Plankton ) is the main antagonist of Nickelodeon's animated TV franchise, SpongeBob SquarePants . He is the business rival and archenemy of Mr. Krabs and Spongebob.

He runs an unsuccessful restaurant called the Chum Bucket along with his wife/sidekick Karen, and constantly plots to both expand his business (usually by stealing the Krabby Patty secret recipe) and eventually take over the world. He serves as the main antagonist of the SpongeBob SquarePants TV show. In the SpongeBob movie series, he is the main antagonist of the show's first theatrical film The SpongeBob SquarePants Movie, the anti-heroic deuteragonist of its second theatrical film The SpongeBob Movie: Sponge Out of Water and the overarching antagonist turned supporting character in the show's third theatrical film The SpongeBob Movie: Sponge on The Run .

He is voiced by Doug Lawrence, who also voiced Edward Platypus in Camp Lazlo and Filburt Turtle in Rocko's Modern Life . In the musical adaptation, he was portrayed by Wesley Taylor.

Past

Before the events of the series, Sheldon J. Plankton was born on the same day as Mr. Krabs where both the two would later meet each as babies.

During his childhood with him, Both Plankton and Krabs were considered outcasts by the other kids, most notably a school group led by Billy because Krabs was poor and Plankton was already very intelligent, which earned him the image of a nerd. When they discovered that money could bring them out of their poverty, they decided to make money selling hamburger patties and set up a mini-restaurant in the local dump.

At first, their burgers were not successful; the first of their patties were tried by Old Man Jenkins, who was knocked out by the contaminated burger. Plankton started complaining about how Jenkins had been old and not able to handle the patty. Offended by this, Krabs tried to take the recipe from Plankton to improve upon. Plankton wanted to do this himself and both he and Krabs argued, but he only ended up with the corner of the recipe, which read: "And a pinch of chum." Plankton stormed out of the restaurant and went to create his recipe, using only his memory, the corner of the recipe, and science. At school, Plankton tried to sell his chumburgers in a chum bucket and failed, while Krabs succeeded with his Krabby Patties, which he had created by accident when Plankton had forcefully slammed the door. Ingredients fell in the patty batter, thus creating the patty. Plankton later named his restaurant the Chum Bucket, after the secret ingredient of the original unsuccessful patty recipe. Mr. Krabs named his restaurant the Krusty Krab, after himself.

To this very day, Plankton has been single-mindedly obsessed with obtaining the Krabby Patty formula and running the Krusty Krab out of business. He often goes to incredible and quite ridiculous lengths to do so. In "SpongeBob's Last Stand," for example, he builds a massive highway that goes straight through Jellyfish Fields and over the Krusty Krab, leading right to his restaurant.

Description

Plankton works with the help of his sidekick/wife by the name of Karen, a sentient computer who gives him most of his evil plans. He is a planktonic copepod and the business rival of Mr. Krabs, the owner of the Krusty Krab where SpongeBob SquarePants works. Despite being portrayed as an antagonist in most incarnations, he frequently appears as an anti-hero (an example being the second movie The SpongeBob Movie: Sponge Out Of Water ) and he has that role in almost all the newer episodes.

While the Krusty Krab is popular among the sea creatures of Bikini Bottom, Plankton's own restaurant, the Chum Bucket, gets little to no customers. Plankton's plans all revolve around stealing the elusive "Krabby Patty Secret Recipe", so that he can copy it and make the Chum Bucket popular. He lives inside his restaurant, where he has an elaborate laboratory that contains Karen's system.

Series

Plankton constantly attempts to steal the formula for the Krabby Patty, the delicious burgers that are sold in the Krusty Krab. Plankton believes that the Krabby Patty is the reason for the Krusty Krabs' success and that his Chum Bucket would be equally popular if it sold the Patties as well. However, ensuring the success of his business is only the first step in Plankton's plan, which will culminate in him ruling the ocean.

For the post-movie events, Plankton does find alternate means to achieve success, but only temporarily. His schemes also vary regarding their threat level. Sometimes they are harmless; other times they put others including Plankton himself in danger.

Season 1

Plankton first appears in "Plankton", when he was trying to steal the Krabby Patty Formula as the latter uses a plate to fling him back to the Chum. Mr. Krabs explains to SpongeBob Plankton uses mind control to obtain the Krabby Patty formula Bucket. that Plankton is his arch-competitor, and has been trying to steal the Krabby Patties secret formula for years.

Later at that night, after the Krusty Krab closes, Plankton tries to convince SpongeBob, that he and the fry cook are friends, and that SpongeBob should come to Plankton's birthday, as if it is supposedly the following day. Plankton says that friends give each other things. Plankton asks SpongeBob what he thinks he'd like for a birthday present, and SpongeBob then guesses a booster seat, as Plankton is very happy with that proposition, but then refuses. Plankton tells SpongeBob that, for his birthday, he wanted to give him a Krabby Patty. SpongeBob loudly and boldly refuses and runs back home, but Plankton promises that SpongeBob will "hand deliver it to (him) personally."

Later that night, Plankton enters SpongeBob's head through a pore and makes his way through SpongeBob's brain. He attaches a mind control device to the brain and bends SpongeBob down to his will, as he forces him into walking at the Krusty Krab by getting a Krabby Patty, and then bring it to the Chum Bucket's Laboratory. He brings it to an analyzer, which is designed to figure out the ingredients of whatever is dropped into it. As Plankton gloats over his victory and begins to force SpongeBob to drop the Krabby Patty, SpongeBob laments his failure as he lovingly describing the Krabby Patty's ingredients and succulence (which is ironically revealing the Secret Formula). A hungry Plankton then leaps out of SpongeBob's head and onto the Krabby Patty, but bounces out of it and falls into the analyzer, thus trapping him inside his computer screen. as SpongeBob walks home with the Krabby Patty in hand.

Plankton appears in "Culture Shock", where he pretends to be "The Amazing Plankton" by using magic as he turns his wand into flowers and throws the flowers aside as he asks a volunteer from the audience as a customer gives him a krabby patty which Plankton then escapes to the door, only to be stopped by Mr. Krabs. Much to Plankton's dismay.

In "F.U.N.", Plankton, controlling the patty, escapes outside with it by making a hole in the door with a laser.

SpongeBob heroically chases after it. After a long chase, SpongeBob finally recovers the Krabby Patty and is congratulated by the townsfolk, while Plankton walks away sadly. SpongeBob, feeling sorry for Plankton, decides to befriend him.

SpongeBob invited Plankton to go jelly-fishing with him, realizing he can take advantage of SpongeBob, as Plankton goes. At Jellyfish Fields, Plankton remains fixated on evil and destruction, whileSpongeBob tries to explain fun to him by singing "The F.U.N. song." Eventually, Plankton then started singing the song as well, first, he sings a corrupted version that displayed on horrible things but eventually, he sings SpongeBob's version and seems to finally be having fun. He seems to forget about stealing the formula and begins to develop a genuine sense of friendship.

Later at the cinema, SpongeBob reaches into Plankton's pocket and finds a Krabby Patty. SpongeBob realizes that Plankton used him to get a Krabby Patty, and Plankton attempts to explain that he realizes now that he only ever wanted friendship, before admitting to everything and running off with the patty through the movie screen, tearing it in half in the process.

SpongeBob believes Plankton won but Mr. Krabs tells him he did not. He shows SpongeBob behind the screen revealing Plankton to be badly squashed on a damaged concrete wall with the Patty. SpongeBob apologizes to Mr. Krabs and they decide to go back to the Krusty Krab and have a fresh Krabby Patty and Mr. Krabs flicks Plankton off the wall and onto Bubble Bass' hand where he mistakes Plankton for a jelly bean Aas Bubble Bass chases Plankton around his hand with him screaming.

In "Sleepy Time", Plankton's dram was revealed to be a giant causing destruction in Bikini Bottom, he then ppeared at the end off the episode along with everyone in his house complaining that he's messed up their dreams and tells him to stay out.

In "Valentine's Day", Spongebob gives Plankton a valetine candy on valentine's day.

In "Walking Small", Plankton (in his bulldozer) attemps turn the beach into the future site of the "Chum Bucket Mega Bucket," and demands everyone to leave. However, due to his tiny size and small voice nobody pays attention to him. He concludes that he needs someone big to assist him, and encounters SpongeBob. Plankton then decides to trick SpongeBob into being "assertive" in order to get what he wants. Plankton tricks SpongeBob into becoming assertive so he can build his Mega Bucket.

He tries to get SpongeBob to take his ice cream back from the person who stole it, but SpongeBob's kindly nature prevents him from being able to take it. Plankton, (unhappy with SpongeBob's performance), then climbs into SpongeBob's mouth and uses his words to forcefully take the ice cream. the guy who stole SpongeBob's ice cream runs off crying. When SpongeBob points about this, Plankton lies and says to him that those were the 'tears of joy', saying that the guy was happy that SpongeBob was assertive.

Plankton attempts to have SpongeBob forcefully take back his metal detector that he lent to another beach-goer, yet SpongeBob misinterprets Plankton's instructions and the person he lent the detector to is pointed out buried treasure by SpongeBob.

Plankton allows SpongeBob another chance. SpongeBob commits a series of both assertive and antagonistic acts to the beach-goers, such as stealing the hot dogs of people waiting in line to buy them and cutting the strings of people's kites, and even worse, popping a volleyball that the beach-goers wanted to play with, resulting in everyone leaving the beach.

Plankton then reveals his true intentions to SpongeBob, making him very upset. SpongeBob then becomes becoming "aggressively nice," and he undoes the actions that led everyone to leave Goo Lagoon. Plankton leaves the beach due to the overwhelmingly generous acts of kindness that SpongeBob executed.

Season 2

In "Imitation Krabs", Plankton, (in his newest bid for the Krabby Patty secret formula) enters the Krusty Krab as a robotic salesman as He presents SpongeBob with an offer for one million dollars if he tells him the formula. SpongeBob explains, but in no uncertain terms, that the formula is the property of Mr. Krabs and may not be divulged. Enraged, Plankton bursts out of the robot and threatens SpongeBob with violence, only to be caught by Mr. Krabs and shot out from a straw back to the Chum Bucket.

In "Life of Crime", it is revealed that Mr. Krabs stole Plankton's lawnmower from him.

In "Christmas Who", Plankton is seen singing "The Very First Christmas" with the rest of the others together, in which Mr. Krabs gives Plankton a fruitcake, though Plankton ultimately tosses it in the trash.

Season 5

In "Friend or Foe", Mr. Krabs tells spongebob his side of the story about why he and Plankton are enemies. It reveals that Mr. Krabs and Plankton were best friends from birth and did everything together. Both were outcasts, with Plankton being viewed as a nerd for his intelligence, and Mr. Krabs (ironically) being extremely poor, and victims of cold-hearted ridicule and social prejudice by a particular circle apparently led by Billy. One day, Mr. Krabs finds a penny at the carnival, his first exposure to money, which he spends on a balloon for Plankton. Later, they get enough money to buy a burger from Stinky's Burgers which, despite having horrible food and literally being located in a dump, is very popular among the local children including Billy and his gang, due to being the only place in town to get a burger. Stinky, apparently just as shallow and mean as Billy and his group, refuses to serve them, saying that freaks like them are bad for business, and tells them to "wait" at the back of the building, only for him to yell at them again. There, they witness Stinky retiring for the day, having made millions from the stand. Plankton and Mr. Krabs decide to go into the burger business themselves and create their own burger so people will finally respect them, but no one wants to try it. When Stinky is arrested and his establishment is closed by the local health department for numerous ethical and health code violations, the two open "Plabs Burgers" on his former site, which the children are now forced to eat at, despite it being even worse than Stinky's.

Plankton says that they are now ruling the stomachs of the children, and soon will be ruling their brains. Mr. Krabs argues that it should be about satisfying the customers, rather than power. Soon, they get into an argument, and Mr. Krabs is ejected into a dump pile and tells Plankton that he will one day regret this.

Plankton comes in and disagrees with Mr. Krabs' story and tells SpongeBob his own version. His story is the same as Mr. Krabs', except that their roles during the fight at the end are reversed, with Mr. Krabs wanting to rule the money of the children.

Plankton and Mr. Krabs begin on arguing about the story until Karen arrives and tells the real story: as she had been a security camera which was installed by Plankton at the time and recorded everything.

The restaurant initially had no customers, and Old Man Jenkins was the first to try one of their burgers. Upon taking a bite, he smiles, falls to the ground, and a newspaper appears saying he knocked out by the taste of the burger. Mr. Krabs and Plankton began started to get angry and accusing each other of tainting the patty. They begin fighting over the recipe, eventually tearing it in two, with Plankton getting the bottom half, which says "… and a pinch of chum." Their friendship is over and Plankton storms out to pursue his own career in food. However, during the struggle, a shelf was knocked down, dumping various ingredients into the patty batter, creating the Krabby Patty recipe, which Krabs is left with. The two the went their separate ways, with each trying to open their own establishment. People really like Mr. Krabs' "Krabby Patty," while Plankton's Chum Burger is horrible.

After hearing the whole story about there past, Plankton and Mr. Krabs then begin to make up and apologize, only until Plankton takes the formula from his pocket. causing SpongeBob and Mr. Krabs to start chasing Karen and Plankton in circles outside the Krusty Krab.

TBA

Film The SpongeBob SquarePants Movie

In The SpongeBob SquarePants Movie, Plankton serves as the main antagonist of the film, and it marks the first time when he becomes an alarmingly dangerous and depraved villain of the franchise. As Mr. Krabs is being interviewed by Perch Perkins, Plankton watches in rage, envious of him for succeeding in life when he's never had a single customer. Plankton continues to lament to Karen about how he's tried every scheme to steal the Krabby Patty recipe from A to Y, and Karen informs him that there is a final letter in the alphabet; Z. Plankton discovers his "Plan Z" in the back of his filing cabinet and revels in its sinister nature, before going outside to monologue about his upcoming victory, only to be stepped on by SpongeBob, who was heading to the grand opening ceremony of the Krusty Krab Two.

That night, Plankton initiates the first phase of his plan by stealing King Neptune's precious crown (which concealed his baldness) and subsequently abandoning it in the forbidden Shell City, framing Mr. Krabs for the crime. As a result, Neptune freezes Mr. Krabs in place and allows SpongeBob and Patrick six days to retrieve the crown. Plankton then takes advantage of Mr. Krabs' frozen state and steals the Krabby Patty recipe with ease, producing Krabby Patties under the guise of preserving the Krusty Krab's legacy, also giving out free bucket helmets with each purchase, allowing the Chum Bucket to become just as popular as the Krusty Krab had been previously. When Karen points out that SpongeBob and Patrick could retrieve the crown and unravel Plankton's plan, he reveals that he had thought ahead and hired a hitman named Dennis to destroy the two. Later, Squidward uncovers Plankton's scheme and threatens to report him to King Neptune, resulting in Plankton revealing that the bucket helmets were also minded control devices, enslaving the entire population of Bikini Bottom and turning them against Squidward. Plankton then begins turning Bikini Bottom into "Planktopolis", a city dedicated entirely to him, which Princess Mindy attempts to use as a motivation for SpongeBob and Patrick when they prepare to give up.

Even when SpongeBob and Patrick finally manage to return the crown to Neptune after defeating Dennis and the Cyclops, this still doesn't stop Plankton as he puts a mind-controlling helmet on Neptune, revealing that the theft of the crown was nothing more than a ruse to lure Neptune under his control and take over the seas for himself. Eventually, Plankton is eventually defeated by SpongeBob when he sings the "Goofy Goober Rock" to remove the bucket helmets from all of the fish. Plankton is then arrested for his crimes of turning everyone in Bikini Bottom into his slaves, stealing Neptune's crown, and scapegoating Mr. Krabs where he gets sent to jail.

The SpongeBob Movie: Sponge Out of Water

Plankton returns in the 2015 film The SpongeBob Movie: Sponge Out of Water as the secondary antagonist turned deuteragonist. He attempts to steal the Krabby Patty secret recipe, but in this conflict, it disappears when Burger-Beard writes in the magic book to steal it. Then he later becomes an anti-hero, when he begrudgingly teams up with SpongeBob who was rescuing him from Mr. Krabs and the people of Bikini Bottom falsely accuse Plankton of stealing the recipe and SpongeBob for "joining his side". Throughout the journey, SpongeBob tries to show Plankton the meaning of teamwork, much to his annoyance. Then they go time traveling to keep the secret recipe from disappearing but fails. Then Plankton, who was hiding inside SpongeBob's pocket, surprisingly appears to help out with SpongeBob, Patrick, and the others to get the Krabby Patty secret formula back from Burger-Beard (the true culprit) as superheroes.

Using the magical book that Burger-Beard stole earlier, Plankton becomes a giant muscle-bound hero (dubbing himself as Plank-Ton). After Burger-Beard defeats SpongeBob, Sandy, Patrick, Squidward, and Mr. Krabs, he attempts to escape, only for the muscle-bound Plankton to stop him by lifting up his ship. Embellished with the true meaning of teamwork, Plankton helps SpongeBob create a storm full of the bubble to capture Burger-Beard and force him to return the recipe.

After kicking Burger-Beard away into a marooned island, Plankton ponders on what to do with the formula, much to Krabs' distraught. However, Plankton decides to give the recipe back to Krabs, admitting that keeping things to himself is a selfish thing to do and gaining some fondness for the group. As everything in Bikini Bottom was turned back to normal, Plankton continues his role as the Krusty Krab's business rival going back to his recipe-stealing tricks just to keep things in the status quo. This shows that as much as he grew to care about SpongeBob, he could be beyond redemption. However, he became more like an antihero in the episodes after this movie showing that he did change.

The SpongeBob Movie: Sponge on the Run

Plankton returns in the 2020 film, The SpongeBob Movie: Sponge on the Run . He starts out as the overarching antagonist of the third film, but later becomes a supporting character. He prepares to once again try to steal the recipe, knowing Mr. Krabs won't be able to stop him this time. However, Karen points out that it's SpongeBob who always stops him. When he attempts to steal the formula later that night, SpongeBob stops him, proving that Karen is right.

Plankton then learns he has to get rid of SpongeBob to get the recipe. After learning that King Poseidon, the king of the lost city of Atlantic city, needs a new snail to get rid of his face wrinkles, Plankton sells SpongeBob's snail Gary to Poseidon and then gives SpongeBob and Patrick a car to go there and save Gary. Driving the car is a robot named Otto - who was built by Sandy who gave it to Mr. Krabs who then threw it out. SpongeBob and Patrick hop the car and Plankton orders Otto to take them to the lost city of Atlantic city and never come back. SpongeBob, Patrick and Otto leave and Plankton then celebrates SpongeBob being gone, knowing he won't be able to stop him from getting the recipe.

Sometime later, business at the Krusty Krab has gone down and Plankton comes over to gloat. Mr. Krabs, who is miserable with SpongeBob gone, gives Plankton the recipe but Plankton is surprised that Mr. Krabs is just giving up. Later in the film when Mr. Krabs, Sandy and Squidward learn that SpongeBob and Patrick have been captured by Poseidon and agree they have to go there to save them, Plankton, feeling guilty, offers to come along with them. The four of them quickly drive to Atlantic City, enter Poseidon's longue and rescue SpongeBob, Patrick and Gary and quickly retreat with Poseidon's guards chasing them. After SpongeBob stands up to Poseidon and convinces him to let SpongeBob and the gang go home free with Gary, Bikini Bottom becomes a sancuity for snails and Plankton is shown to have adopted a snail at the end.

Mr. Burns

Charles Montgomery Plantagenet Schicklgruber Burns, or better known as Charles Montgomery Burns, Mr. Burns, Monty, or simply known by his surname Burns, is one of the four main antagonists of the Simpsons franchise (the other three being Kang, Kodos, and Sideshow Bob). He serves as the main antagonist of the adult animated TV series The Simpsons, a supporting antagonist in the 2007 theatrical film The Simpsons Movie and as the main antagonist and final boss of the popular beat-em up video game The Simpsons Arcade Game .

He is an extremely greedy, cheap, tyrannical and egotistical businessman, and is the richest and most powerful citizen of Springfield. He is the oppressive founder and chairman of the Springfield Nuclear Power Plant, a member of the inner circle of the Springfield Republican Party, the boss of Homer Simpson, Lenny, Carl and Waylon Smithers and, finally, the archenemy and former friend of Abe Simpson and Homer Simpson.

He was voiced by the late Christopher Collins, who also played Starscream in the 1984 Transformers cartoon and Cobra Commander in the original Sunbow G.I. Joe cartoon. Since his second appearance, he has been voiced by Harry Shearer.

Background

He had a very difficult childhood and has a large desire of various goals. He is the boss of Homer Simpson, the main protagonist of The Simpsons.

At some points, Mr. Burns has done non-evil plans. He rewarded Homer for saving his life from a water fountain just to retrieve a penny, he paid for Homer's emergency liposuction in "King Sized Homer" as a reward for saving the city from a nuclear meltdown, and achieved his goal of winning a snowboard competition, which he always wanted to do as a child.

Mr. Burns is rarely shown to have a 'human' sense of feeling however he has been shown to miss things such as his teddy bear Bobo who he lost during his childhood. However, the way he must get Bobo back alternates back to his usual self when he tries to steal the teddy bear back from Maggie Simpson who has grown attached to him. In the end when all hope seems lost Maggie gives Bobo back to Mr. Burns and is later shown being tucked into bed with Bobo by Mr. Smithers. Here, Mr Burns. says he will never let Bobo out of his sight again and drifts off to sleep and a scene begins set sometime in the distant future when humans are replaced by robots and Mr. Burns and Mr. Smithers are both robots themselves. It shows the robot Mr. Burns telling Bobo once more that he will never let him out of his sight again.

Homer sometimes accidentally called Mr. Burns on the telephone and Burns didn't know it was Homer, such as Lisa's Date with Density and Bart Star. He is voiced by Harry Shearer (originally Christopher Collins AKA Chris Latta AKA G1 Starscream and Cobra Commander).

In many episodes of the Simpsons, Mr. Burns is shown to be a villain particularly in the Treehouse of Horror episodes. In one particular episode "Treehouse of Horror IV", Mr. Burns was a vampire and no one but Lisa knew the truth. However Lisa and Bart find Mr. Burns' secret lair however when Bart is enticed by the 'fun slide' he gets turned into a vampire and when the family find out they are worried he will get worse, and decide that they must killed the head vampire, Mr. Burns. Homer takes a stake and after many fails kills him (while getting fired by Burns), however it is revealed at the end when all seems again that the h4ead vampire is Marge Simpson.

Ironically, Mr. Burns became a superhero in one episode called "Dark Knight Court" and helps clear Bart's name by capturing the real culprit, Groundskeeper Willie.

To that end, Homer and Hutz get Bart to exaggerate his minor injuries on trial in order to win the jury's favor, much to Burns' dismay. In " Dog of Death ", Burns adopted the Simpsons family dog Santa's Little Helper (who ran away after being unappreciated by the Simpsons due to the losses over a hospital operation they had to pay to fix his twisted stomach). Burns puts Santa's Little Helper through torture to become a bloodthirsty killer dog to attack any intruders on Burns' property. However, Bart comes by to rescue Santa's Little Helper by reminding the latter of the good times they had, prompting Santa's Little Helper to snap out of his trance and return back to the Simpsons in peace.

However, unknown to Burns and the rest of the party, Bob secretly rigged the election by putting in deceased people as active voters. Eventually, Smithers found out about the electoral fraud and secretly informed Bart and Lisa, who then tricked Bob into confessing his crime at court, resulting Bob's arrest.

In " Two Dozen and One Greyhounds ", he takes the 25 greyhound puppies and plots to kill them for their fur except one who can stand on its hind legs, though he decides to change his mind after seeing how lovely they are, and instead decides to raise them as racing dogs.

He steals an oil well buried beneath Springfield Elementary, which caused so many budget layoffs, shuts down Moe's tavern, makes a sinkhole that destroys the local retirement home, and injures the Simpson family dog. He also creates a sun-blocking device to raise prices for the electricity he's supply for the town, much to everyone's horror. When Smithers protests against him, Burns angrily fires him. Eventually, in the end of the episode, Burns gets shot in the chest by an unknown assailant.

Season 7 In " Who Shot Mr. Burns Part Two ", Burns is in a coma as the authorities attempt to find out who shot him while the citizens manage to destroy his sun-blocking device for good. Much of the evidence points out to Homer (due to his anger towards Burns for his inability to remember his name, and Homer's fingerprints found on the gun that fired the shot), but Burns wakes up from his coma and reveals that Homer's youngest daughter Maggie was the one who shot him. As it turns out, Burns spotted Maggie inside the Simpsons' car holding a lollipop and attempts to steal it, but his gun accidentally fell into Maggie's hands after he snatched the lollipop, causing the gun to misfire. Both the gun and the lollipop fell into the bottom seat, where Homer would unknowingly leave his fingerprints. Burns demands that Maggie be arrested, but Chief Wiggum states that it's unlawful to arrest a baby for a crime. Marge also adds that it was an accident as Maggie doesn't know how to handle a gun at her age (though it may be told otherwise due to Maggie's shifting eyes and sucking noises sounding like gunshots).

In " Mother Simpson ", it was revealed that he was responsible for turning Homer's mother Mona into a wanted criminal, due to her involvement of shutting down his germ warfare factory by releasing antibiotics. To that rate, he gets the FBI to track down Mona while riding a tank, though she escapes (thanks to Homer and Chief Wiggum).

In " Raging Abe Simpson and His Grumbling Grandson in Curse of the Flying Hellfish ", he crosses the Moral Event Horizon as he attempts to murder Grampa Simpson to get a collection of stolen German paintings, even attempting to drown Bart. However, Grampa saves Bart and defeats Burns while the stolen paintings are returned to the German government, leaving Burns empty-handed.

Season 8 In " The Old Man and the Lisa ", Burns temporarily loses his fortune due to bad investments and turns to Lisa for help. She taught him how to recycle, which allowed Burns to open up a recycling plant to get his fortune back, but is revealed he's using his new plant to catch tons of sea creatures to make a new multi-purpose edible compound, much to Lisa's horror. When he sells the plant, he even offers to pay Lisa 10% of the profits as thanks, but Lisa declines it.

Season 9 In " The Trouble With Trillions ", Burns stole a trillion dollar bill from the U.S. Government during World War 2, and kept it under his possession until he was ratted out to the FBI. Burns, Smithers and Homer were forced to evacuate to Cuba, where they lost the bill to Fidel Castro, who then banishes them back to the States, much to their dismay.

Season 10 In " Monty Can't Buy Me Love ", Burns attempts to capture the Loch Ness Monster in order to win the heart of Springfield's population. Though he manages to capture the monster (who turns out to be friendly), the veiling of the monster turns out to be a disaster due to a fire caused by camera flashes, leaving Burns unloved. However, Homer cheers him up by saying that being loved means you have to be nice to people everyday but being hated means you do not have to do anything. Season 11

In " Grift of the Magi ", Springfield Elementary School was closed down after suffering a series of budget cuts. Much of the townspeople put out their pleas to Burns to provide a donation to reopen the school, but he flatly refuses and evicts them via trap door (and they suddenly fall from the ceiling). Eventually, a toy company called Kid First Industries bought the school, as they intend to use it take down the competition of other toy companies. However, Burns has a change of heart after having an epiphany and donated enough money to restore Springfield Elementary to normal before having Christmas dinner with the Simpsons and Gary Coleman.

Season 12 In Homer vs. Dignity, the Simpson family is facing money woes, so Homer asks Burns for a raise. Taking advantage of this, Burns hires Homer as his prank monkey to perform embarrassing tasks in exchange for money. One of which, ends with Homer being raped by a panda. However, Lisa learns of this and convinces Homer to stop, saying that dignity is more important than money. Mr Burns then takes Homer's place as Santa Claus in a Christmas parade and starts throwing fish guts at the crowds before they get attacked by seagulls.

In " The Computer Wore Menace Shoes ", Homer learns that Mr. Burns is providing uranium rods to terrorists for profit. Out of disgust, Homer (taking on the name Mr. X) uses his website to expose the uranium scandal to the public, and Mr. Burns ends up being taken by the FBI to answer for his crimes, much to his dismay.

Season 13 In " She of Little Faith ", Homer accidentally damaged the local church with his flying rocket, and Burns offers to pay for the damages by turning the church into commercial business, complete with advertising signs, a Lard Lad statue, and a Jumbotron. This motivated a disgusted Lisa to leave the church and find a new path in Buddhism.

Season 14 In " C.E. D'oh ", Homer formulates several solutions to improve safety in the nuclear plant, but Mr. Burns rejects them all without even reading them. This angers Homer in plotting to overthrow Burns, and finds an opportunity that Burns owns a canary that acts as the legal owner of the plant because this protects Mr. Burns from responsibility for any wrongdoing by the power plant. To that end, Homer releases the canary and tricks Burns into handing over the ownership under the ruse of an incoming inspection, resulting a victorious Homer to fire Burns on the spot. As such, Burns plans to kill Homer by burying him alive, but fails as he is too weak and old to finish the wall before Homer wakes up. He decides to forget about it when Homer gives the plant back, as he finds himself more miserable being the nuclear plant's owner.

Season 15 In " My Mother the Carjacker ", Burns learns that Mona has been arrested and plans to have her convicted on court for her crimes. However, due to Mona's record of community service acts and Homer's heartfelt testimony, Mona became rightfully acquitted, much to Burns' anger. Not wanting to give up, Burns transforms his germ lab into a museum, which is nothing more than a ruse to successfully trick Mona into confessing her crime of signing false names while visiting state and national parks. With this evidence, Burns gets the FBI to arrest Mona and have her locked up in prison, but she escapes again (thanks to Homer's help), much to Burns' dismay.

In " Simple Simpson ", Homer served as Springfield's local hero known as the "Pie Man" who is giving wrong-doers their 'just desserts' by throwing pies in their faces as punishment for their crimes. He eventually threw a pie at Mr. Burns for bullying him and his co-workers, but Burns soon learns about his identity and makes him his 'personal hitman', threatening to expose his identity to the public if otherwise. As Burns give Homer his next mission to throw a pie at the visiting Dalai Lama, Homer decides that he has had enough and reveals himself to the public, though none of the citizens believe that Homer could be the Pie Man. This left Burns upset, realizing that Homer is no longer under his control anymore.

In " Fraudcast News ", after surviving a rock slide, Burns learns that everyone in Springfield hates him, so he decides to buy every media outlet in Springfield to improve his image. As Lisa produces her own newspaper to combat against Burns' media ownership, Burns manages to learn about Milhouse's crush on Lisa and exposes this to the public, prompting a depressed Lisa to concede defeat. However, Lisa gets cheered up when Homer creates his own newspaper, inspiring other citizens to create their own newspapers to combat against Burns' media. Realizing now that he can't control the entire media for himself, Burns decides to put that behind by going on a shopping spree with Smithers for relief.

Season 16 In " Midnight Rx ", Burns cancels the plant's prescription drug program out of pure greed, prompting other drug companies to follow his lead. This caused an outraged Homer and Grampa to smuggle drugs from Canada, and Burns eventually realized his mistake after learning that Smithers is suffering from a goiter. To that end, Burns helps Homer and Grampa smuggle a large case of a drugs to Springfield in order to save Smithers. During which, he leaves Homer and his dad to die, but they survive. After saving Smithers, Burns reinstates the prescription program, much to everyone's delight. However, he makes it so only full time employees get prescription drugs and he makes Homer and other employees part-timers to save money.

In " The Seven-Beer Snitch ", Burns bought an abandoned concert hall built by Frank Gehry (due to the town's hatred of classical music) and turns it into a maximum-security prison to lock up more convicts based on old laws. After Homer was sent there after committing an 'illegal transportation of litter' by kicking a can five times down the street, Burns made him the local prison snitch after Homer unwittingly foiled Snake Jailbird's escape attempt. As reward for his snitching, Homer receives special treatment from the guards (led by Officer Krackney), but the other inmates soon catch on to Homer's intents and planned to kill him during a prison riot. Having realized his mistake in ruining the inmates' lives in the prison, Homer decides to take action by confessing to the Governor Bailey about the prison's deplorable conditions, resulting Governor Bailey to close down the prison and send the inmates into a garbage barge to fight, much to the inmates' delight.

Season 17 In " The Last of the Red Hat Mamas ", Burns promised to donate $1 million to the Cheery Red Tomatoes for a children's hospital, but it turns out to be a joke for his own pleasure before releasing the hounds on them. As such, the Red Tomatoes plan to steal Burns' Faberge Eggs as revenge, and Marge (who became a member herself) manages to do the job herself, much to their delight.

Season 19 In " Mona Leaves-a ", following Mona's death, Homer was told to bring her ashes to the highest point at Springfield Monument Park and scatter them at exactly 3:00. However, Homer gets caught over Burns' next plot to send a nuclear missile (filled with the city's nuclear waste) into the Amazon rain-forest, and Burns contains Mona's ashes in a vacuum bag to taunt Homer. As Burns and his men are about to initiate the launch, the rest of the Simpson family came to rescue Homer, who managed to stop the launch by inadvertently setting the launch base to self-destruct before escaping with his family and dispersing his mother's ashes for good, leaving a dismayed Burns in utter defeat.

The episode Papa Don't Leech names Mr. Burns as one of Springfield's various delinquent taxpayers, although Mayor Quimby refuses to investigate him.

Season 24 In " To Cur, With Love ", the Simpson family confronted Homer for neglecting Santa's Little Helper by locking him in the pantry. Grampa revealed that Homer once had a dog named Bongo, whom he wad very close to during his childhood. As Mr. Burns was hosting a kid's fundraiser in the flashback, he insulted Homer, resulting an angry Bongo to attack Burns in retaliation. Unfortunately, this incited an angry Burns to have Bongo euthanized by all means necessary. Knowing that this would break Homer's heart if he let this happen, Grampa gave Bongo away to an old neighbor named Ms. Viola for safety before doing extra work for Mr. Burns to make amends for the incident. Unfortunately, this only strains Grampa's relationship with Homer as a result, as he feels that Bongo will never remember him, which may explain his neglectful behavior towards Santa's Little Helper. Eventually, Grampa gave Homer an old photo of Bongo sleeping on an old sweatshirt that he once wore, realizing that Bongo still remembered him and that Grampa did a favor to protect him from Burns. After reconciling with each other, Homer and Grampa shared a nap together with Santa's Little Helper.

The Simpsons Movie

Burns serves as a minor antagonist in The Simpsons Movie . He is first seen getting his toothbrush filled with toothpaste from help by Smithers during the movie intro. The paste apparently added more weight that the already fragile Burns could not handle, as he falls down with his toothbrush.

Burns was later seen with the angry mob along with Smithers, as they want to kill Homer for polluting the Springfield Lake and forcing Russ Cargill and the Environmental Protection Agency to imprison the city in a strong unbreakable dome.

His most notable appearance in the movie was when Apu, Police Chief Wiggum, and Dr. Hibbert asked him for electricity and Burns asked for reasons why he should share it with them, warning that behind his desk, he has two buttons. One that will give the town electricity and the other that will release the hounds. Dr. Hibbert said he needed the electricity to perform an operation. Wiggum said he needed it to power up the electric chair so they could execute a convict; Burns seemed he was about to cooperate with that one. However, Apu ticked him off by trying to appeal to Burns' conscience and Burns pushed the button that released the hounds and they chased the visitors out the door, with Burns telling them to take the "first door on the right".

Mr. Burns was last seen relieved that the explosive bomb left the dome area of the city. During the credits following Cargill's defeat, it is shown that his mansion has been ransacked, and sits on the staircase with Smithers and says, "Smithers, I don't believe in suicide, but if you try it, it might cheer me up to watch."

Jock Jockerson

Jock Jockerson is a recurring character in Supernoobs .

---

When I was done, everyone was shocked! Same with everyone that heard it.

Erik: That is awful!

Tommy Turnbull: Yeah! No kidding! I'm glad you guys gave them all what they deserved.

Me: Yep. And it was a dangerous and harrowing adventure.

Laney: It sure was.

Luxord: But the important thing is that we're all alright.

Nico: We sure are.

Gus: But that's awful that Nico went through all that because of his past.

May: It sure was awful.

Me: But the good thing is that we sent the Sullen 6 and the Digimon Emperor into oblivion.

Tommy Turnbull: What did the Digimon Emperor do that caused the 20 Days of Darkness?

Me: Well it's not pretty. First he beat the living crap out of Seymour Skinner's mother Agnes while having Nico use Madame Rouge's powers to disguise himself as me.

Nico: Then he made me pulverize King Stefan of 2014's Maleficent while disguised as J.D. again.

Laney: Then he nearly threw Daniel Mockridge, The Riddler's boss out the window.

Lola: Nearly pulverize a bad Pokemon Trainer named Burgundy.

Lincoln: Free a genie named Norm and free the Sullen 6 from prison.

Lisa Loud: Put an explosive device on Rarity and try to blow her and the Flim Flam Brothers up.

Me: Beat the living crap out of Gary and Betty from Happy Pappy Bob's Learn-A-Torium.

Varie: Free Marge Simpson from her Portrait.

Lynn: Read SpongeBob's Diary to Professor Rotwood, Squidward, Master Frown and Brad Morton here.

Nico: Shoot a minotaur named Iron Will.

Me: And beat the living crap out of Seifer and his friends in Twilight Town.

They gasped in shock!

Tommy Turnbull: Oh man! That is awful!

Lola Mbola: I can't believe that you guys went through all that!

Squidward: I know. It was horrible.

Me: It was. But we destroyed the Digimon Emperor and ended his evil for good and we also killed Organization XIII and eradicated the Sullen 6.

Tommy Turnbull: Those 20 days were a nightmare!

Gus: But thank goodness you guys are rid of them forever.

Laney: Yeah thank goodness for that.

Later we were having lunch.

A few students noticed Ssserpent eating pizza and french fries.

Ssserpent: What? Never seen a snake eat lunch before?

They laughed and thought it was funny.

Me: Looks like Ssserpent is having fun.

Seth: But that is awful you all went through all that!

Me: I know. But it was to help Nico face his demons and his dark past.

Nico: Yep.

Me: And it was a harrowing journey.

Eli: Yeah it was.

Ets: Man that's awful!

Ruby Rose: It sure was.

Me: Yeah. But Tommy what is your story with Kurt?

Varie: Yeah why does he hate you so much?

Tommy Turnbull: He comes from a rich family and hates me with a vengeance.

Robotboy: Yeah he is no friend.

Me: Geez!

Lola: He is more like a fusion of an evil Sasuke and Princess Morbucks.

Diamond Tiara: No kidding and I come from a rich family myself.

Silver Spoon: Me too.

Toxic Horror: I can't believe that some rich people are like that.

Nico: His parents made him into a monster.

Pacifica: No kidding. I came from an evil rich family and thank goodness I'm not like that anymore.

Lola Mbola: Wait a second. You mean the Northwest's were your family?

Pacifica: Yep and they were awful to not just me but the entirety of the country.

Me: Mostly to Gravity Falls.

Jade Chan: I remember that. That was horrible.

Laney: No kidding.

Tommy Turnbull: Whoa.

Robotboy: You guys went through a lot.

Me: Not just here on Earth but all over the fabric of time and space.

Strike Man: If that's the worst we have to expect from your enemies…

Tommy Turnbull: Oh, I haven't even gotten to THAT part yet.

Nico: What do you mean?

Tommy Turnbull: Have you guys ever heard of Dr. Kamikazi?

Me: That mad scientist that is always after Robotboy?

Tommy Turnbull: Yep.

Nico: Who is he?

Tommy Turnbull: A mad scientist that wants to get Robotboy so he can make an army of him and take over the world.

Tommy went over his history and it was shocking.

---

Dr. Kamikazi is a self-proclaimed evil genius and the main antagonist of the T.V. show Robotboy, created by Jan Van Rijsselberge. He wishes to capture Robotboy to create a template for an army of super robots, with which he will be able to achieve his dastardly goal of world domination.

In "Dog Ra", Dr. Kamikazi sends a robotic dog to go after Robotboy. He tries to separate Robotboy and Tommy.

In "War and Pieces", Dr. Kamikazi spies on Tommy and his friends. He disguises himself as Professor Machimo. He sends his army to Professor Moshimo's laboratory to capture Robot boy and takeover the laboratory. He tries to kidnap Tommy but fails.

In "Bowling For Dummies", he forms a bowling team and tries to tries to win a game in order to get Robotboy. He sends two bacteria creature to capture Robotboy but gives up when Robotboy defeats them.

In "Teasebots", Dr. Kamikazi tries to taunt Robotboy to his advantage by sending Robots to tease him. He captures Robotboy but fails. Dr. Kamikazi tries to destroy his own teasebot (because it insulted him) with a giant white mutated rat.

In "Constantine Rising", he sends Constantine to capture Robotboy but captures Lola instead. Dr. Kamikazi took credit for capturing Robotboy. But when Constantine reveals how he captures him (by capturing Lola to lure them), he yells at him. He sends an army of bats to capture Robotboy but fails.

In "Metal Monster", he used the government to capture Robotboy and take him for himself.

In "Momma's Boy" Kamikazi creates two super soldiers from his mothers pet wiener dogs and uses them in another attempt to capture Robotboy.

---

When he was done we were shocked.

Me: Whoa man!

Laney: He's a monster!

Me: Yeah! Looks like we're going to have to kill this guy. But I can sense that Constantine does not like working for him at all.

Lola Mbola: Yeah he gets treated more like dirt.

Nico: Maybe we can have him join the Redemption Squad.

William: At least then he would be treated kindly and compassionately.

Nico: Yeah.

Tommy Turnbull: He also has Robotgirl and Protoboy with him too.

Me: Are they more of Professor Moshimo's creations?

Tommy Turnbull: They sure are.

Tommy told us about them.

---

Robotgirl

Robotgirl is a character in Robotboy. She's the female version of Robotboy, where she shares certain physical traits (ears, size, head shape, etc.), except she also wears a pink bow and a pink skirt and she has eyelashes to look more feminine.

Robotgirl first appeared in her titular episode, where Professor Moshimo invited Robotboy to stay with him while Tommy was camping with his family. He created Robotgirl so that he would have someone to play with. She and Robotboy began to become friends. Although they got into trouble a couple of times, like eating ice cream and creating a big hole in the roof of the house. But the real trouble didn't start until they were both captured by Kamikazi and he partially reprogrammed Robotgirl. After Kamikazi learned that Robotgirl didn't know how to fight, he locked them into a crusher trap. Tommy tries to covince Robotgirl to Super Activate, but she didn't know how. Then she heard Professor Moshimo explain how to use her Superactive mode and help Robotboy to get to get them all out of the trap. Later on, as they were returning home, she ends up superactivating and accidentally blasts Donnie's tent, revealing Donnie shirtless. She then laughs at him with the others.

She appears again in "The Return of Robotgirl" where she were sent from Moshimo to Tommy and gave him a message that told that Moshimo was in grave danger and needed their help. Unfortunately Robotgirl was unable to get them to Moshimo due to her emotion chip being a little destroyed which messes up her emotions and minds. The boys try to fix her as possible until Lola comforts her and finally makes her feel balanced and focused as possible and she helps then the gang to find Moshimo. They find him trapped in an abandoned titanium factory where Protoboy holds him hostage and if both Robotboy and Robotgirl enter the titanium molds, he will let him go. Robotgirl refuses to trust Protoboy and fights with him until he defeats her leaving her deactivated but luckily Robotboy saves her from almost being cooked from the liquid titanium and defeats Protoboy.

Protoboy

Protoboy is one of the first robots created by Professor Moshimo, and is the elder brother of Robotboy, Robotman, Robotgirl and Robotbird. He was stolen by Dr. Kamikazi so he could rule the world, but he accidentally made him too evil, so he had to be shut down.

Years later, after hearing about Protoboy, Robotboy, being sad that he had no family of his own, traveled to Kamikazi's lair and reactivated Protoboy and tried to turn him good again, but to no avail. Protoboy was seemingly destroyed in a explosion, but he would later make several comebacks later on determined to destroy Moshimo and the rest of his robots.

Professor Moshimo created Protoboy many years ago after getting out of the academy. But because of the Professor's young age, Protoboy lacked humanity and was quite vicious. He was later kidnapped by a young Dr. Kamikazi who turned him evil so he could rule the world, but he made him too evil, to which Protoboy was deactivated after being defeated by Constantine.

After Robotboy reactivates him, Protoboy becomes full of rage and decides to destroy everything near him. Robotboy tries to be nice to him, but Protoboy doesn't stand for this. He shows disdain for Robotboy`s friendship, and attempts to "destroy" him. When Robotboy superactivated, Protoboy did as well. Robotboy was nearly defeated until he used the new weapon Moshimo gave him, which is essentially a limpet mine. As a result, Protoboy seemingly was destroyed.

He came back in "The Revenge of Protoboy" where he secretly threw a meteor at Robotboy Tommy and Gus. Robotboy destroyed it. Before Protoboy revealed himself, Tommy expresses disbelief as Protoboy was seemingly blown up, Protoboy states that he isn't "so easy to destroy" and he will get revenge on his brother. He superactivates and brutally attacks Robotboy and nearly kills him, when he gets a phone call from someone her refers to as "dear", he states that he doesn't have time to finish Robotboy but he will be back.

---

When he was done we were shocked!

Me: Whoa man! So Robotgirl and Protoboy were stolen and programmed as a spy and destroyer.

Tommy Turnbull: Yeah.

Motor Ed: Hate to say it but Robotgirl and Protoboy might be beyond saving. Seriously.

Me: Not necessarily Ed. We have the greatest technogenius team with us. Lisa, Stewie, Bentley, Dexter and Levi.

Threatpack: Guys, there are some objects in the sky heading towards the city.

Me: I see them.

Eli: This can't be good.

Ets arm turned into powerful binoculars and he looked.

Ets: Oh no! Are those two Protoboy and Robotgirl?

I looked through his binoculars.

Me: That must be them!

Tommy looked and he saw them.

Tommy Turnbull: That's them all right!

Nico: I hope they aren't here for a fight.

Tommy Turnbull: Wait they have something strapped to their bodies.

I looked.

Me: Can't make it out. Can you zoom in Ets?

Ets zoomed in and I saw that they were bombs!

Me: Those are bombs!

Eli: Oh no! I sense that they have enough destructive power to blow up this entire city!

Vortex: We have to make they don't reach their target! Only one of them is enough to destroy the city!

Me: Lets go guys!

Eli: I have an idea! I'll fly out and use the Force to hold them in place and Lisa, Levi, you disarm those bombs and deactivate them so we can have them reprogrammed.

Lisa Loud: Affirmative!

Me: Lets do it!

We flew out over the bay and Eli held Robotgirl and Protoboy with the Force and Lisa and Levi got behind them and used their tools and got tbe bombs off and handed them to me.

Eli: Take the bombs into space! They have a heat sensor on them!

Me: Right!

I flew high into the sky and threw the bombs far and they exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Whoa! That was close!

Lisa and Levi deactivated the Robots and we went back to the school.

Me: Whew!

Tommy Turnbull: Great save guys!

Nico: Eli that was really well planned out.

Eli: Thanks.

Me: Nice thinking bro.

Tussle Sprout: Let's reprogram the both of them to our side.

Lisa Loud: We're working on that as we speak.

Levi: Almost there.

Bentley: And done!

They activated.

Robotgirl: What happened

Robotboy: Robotgirl, Protoboy, you okay?

Protoboy: Bro? Yeah we feel fine.

Me: We saved you from blowing up the city.

Robotgirl: Team Loud Phoenix Storm?

Protoboy: Wow! It's an honor to meet you.

Me: Same here.

Eli: We saved you from Dr. Kamikazi's programming and all that.

Gus: Yeah.

Lola Mbola: And it's great you are back Robotgirl.

Robotgirl: Same here Lola.

Gus: And I think you would be perfect for me Protoboy.

Protoboy: Thanks Gus.

Me: Well I think it's time for us to go after Dr. Kamikazi and take him down for good.

Nico: We don't even know where he is at.

Tommy Turnbull: He lives on a volcano island not far in the middle of the ocean.

Me: Hmm.

I looked out towards the Golden Gate Bridge and saw the island and it was 10 miles off shore.

Me: That must be it.

Nico: Yeah it sure is.

Tommy Turnbull: But getting into his fortress won't be easy. It's heavily guarded.

American Dad Roger: How about we use a cocaine brick for the entrance this time?

Biowulf: Do you want us to go to jail, Roger?

American Dad Roger: No. But it'll help us deal some good damage to Kamikazi.

Me: Roger cocaine is out of the question. Besides no doubt he'll be ready for us when we get there. We need to come up with a plan. But before we do that lets have our usual battles to get them out of the way before we launch our attack.

Tommy Turnbull: J.D. is right. Dr. Kamikazi's fortress is heavily guarded. We tried attacking him several times before and it is as tight as Fort Knox.

Nico: Oh great. But smart thinking there J.D. Good move.

Me: Thanks.

Maria: I'll call it in.

Maria called the Masters of Evil and then Vreedle Brothers, Tchang Zu, I.N.S.T.I.G.A.T.O.R., Carmen Dillo, El Oso, Kaos, Duff Killigan and Lord Drakkon then appeared.

Me: The Vreedle Brothers, Tchang Zu, I.N.S.T.I.G.A.T.O.R., Carmen Dillo, El Oso, Kaos, Duff Killigan and Lord Drakkon.

Lord Drakkon: Glad you are gonna face me J.D. and congratulations to you and Zarya on The Ridonculous Race.

Me: Thanks.

Octagon: But it's not just us.

A bunch of figures came out and it was DR. STARLINE, ZERU, RISHO, AIRDRAMON, THUNDERBALLMON, MEGASEADRAMON, LADYDEVIMON, FLYMON, CERBERUMON, OKUWAMON and PHANTOMON!

Me: Whoa! Zeru, Risho, Airdramon, Thunderballmon, MegaSeadramon, LadyDevimon, Flymon, Cerberumon, Okuwamon and Phantomon!

Nico: Wow! A bunch of Digimon Enemies that we faced before.

LadyDevimon: Good to see you again Nico.

Phantomon: We haven't seen you in years my friend.

Zeru: And J.D. you are looking good.

Me: Same to you Zeru and Rishi you are doing well too.

Risho: Indeed.

Octagon: (To Robotboy) You sure are a pretty nice robot.

Robotboy: Thank you.

Tchang Zu: (looks around) There are a lot of houses around here.

INSTIGATOR: There sure are.

Carmen Dillo: Aren't they worth a lot of money?

Me: Lots of it. Lombard Street is where the pretty houses are. My mom loves this part of San Francisco.

Rhomboid: Amazing.

Lola: Yeah it sure is pretty.

Lola Mbola: I think so too.

Lord Drakkon: So you called us early because…

Me: Dr. Kamikazi's fortress is heavily fortified and I wanted to get the usual battles out of the way while I come up with a plan.

Lord Drakkon: I see.

?: Boy that's smart thinking.

A figure came out and it was BOMBARDO back for round 2.

Me: Bombardo. Back for round 2.

Bombardo: Yep.

Mack Hartford: Awesome.

Bombardo: I never even worked for Moltor and Flurious. So, you won't hear me crying about their deaths.

Mack Hartford: Good.

Me: I won't cry either. Zeru who are you and the Digimon gonna be the Archenemies of?

Zeru: We chose the Ronin Warriors.

Me: Awesome! We're gonna be in for an awesome series of battles.

Ryo: Cool! I can't wait to show my full power.

Cye: Me too. This is gonna be fun!

Lady Kayura: This is gonna be fun.

Me: It sure is and Dr. Starline I have just the group for Starlight Glimmer to face you. It's an experiment but it might be perfect for you.

Dr. Starline: Cool!

Me: Lets get it on! Tommy, guys you all are in for a great show.

Me: I have a feeling I know what you are gonna do Ms. Rita.

Lori: (sees a nearby fighter jet) Are you literally crazy, Mom?!

Maria: Lori's right! We can kill Kamikazi another way!

Rita got into a Fighter Plane.

Rita: Don't worry guys! I know what I'm doing!

We tied up Kamikazi and loaded him into the plane and Rita powered it up and flew it out and then she flew towards the island.

Rita: (Speaking Japanese) 私はこれを日本全国と世代の名誉ある祖先の名誉のために行います！(I do this for the honor of all of Japan and the honorable ancestors of generations!)

THE END

---

Another awesome fanfic done.

Robotboy was a great show and it was so awesome how he is a robot that fights evil all the time. Also this chapter was made as a tribute to Dr. Kamikazi's voice actor the late Eiji Kusuhara. He did a great job in this show. It aired from November 1, 2005 - September 27, 2008 and it was so awesome!

R.I.P. Eiji Kusuhara - January 2nd, 1947 to April 23rd, 2010.

NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, vinjedi1995, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Drako1234658, ethan., darkhai and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is a long overdue chapter for Invader Zim and we're gonna go into battle against the evil Irkens. Get ready for an awesome interstellar battle as we make sure that the Irkens pay for their crimes against Earth, Zim and his friends!

See you all tomorrow.

Genocide of The Irken Empire

On the Time Squad Satellite, Tornado Man was cleaning the transporter.

Tornado Man: (Humming)

Lola: Hey, Tornado Man. What are you doing?

Tornado Man: Tuddrussel asked me to clean out the Time Squad's Time Machine before we can use it again. I'm actually just about done.

Lori (sighs): We're literally sorry, Tornado Man.

Tornado Man: For what?

Lynn: For this.

The last thing Tornado Man saw was Lynn punching his face.

POW!

He was knocked out.

Lynn: Sorry about this Tornado Man. But we are going to stop something from happening.

They got onto the transporter and set it for January 23rd, 2021 and activated it and went back in time.

BOOM!

Minutes later we came.

X-Men Angel: You alright, Tornado Man?

Tornado Man: Yeah! Lynn punched me!

Me: What happened?

Tornado Man: I think Lori, Lynn and Lola wanted to use the transporter for some reason!

Me: What!? Why would they do that!?

Professor Paradox then appeared.

Professor Paradox: I think I know the reason.

Me: Professor Paradox good to see you again.

Professor Paradox: You too J.D. I'm afraid that Lori, Lynn and Lola went back in time to stop the 20 Days of Darkness from happening.

Me: WHAT!? Are they crazy!?

Nico: Oh man!

Me: We got to go after them!

Professor Paradox: Follow me.

He took us all to Twilight Town.

---

TWILIGHT TOWN, JANUARY 23RD, 2021.

---

In Twilight Town during the battle during that time, Lori, Lynn and Lola arrived.

Lynn, Lori, and Lola were walking with us in Twilight Town when suddenly, they were pulled into an alleyway. They then saw that it was three figures in the shadows.

Lori: Alright. Tell us who you three literally are!

To their shock, the three shadows tepped out to reveal… themselves?

Present Lori: Well, that's literally a little hard to explain.

Past Lynn: Who the Hell are you three?!

Present Lynn: Who does it look like? We're you guys from the future. We've travelled back in time to give you three some important information.

Past Lola: Oh yeah? Prove it!

Present Lola (sighs): For God's sake, we don't have time for this!

Past Lola: Why not? If you three are time travelers, you guys should have all the time in the world, right?

Present Lola: Fine then.

Present Lola creates fire in her hands.

Past Lynn: Oh yeah. You're the real deal all right. No faking that.

Present Lynn: Listen, any minute, Xemnas is going to appear on a rooftop to attack Nico from behind. We need to prevent that from happening.

Past Lori: Are you literally sure? Nico's survived much worse.

Present Lori: You three will literally never forgive yourselves if you let this happen.

Present Lynn: It's a terrible series of events that is gonna happen now.

Present Lola: Yeah! Nico will be going through terrible events.

We arrived in a flash of light.

Me: Stop girls!

Our past selves gasped.

Cybertron Undermine: Out of all the things you three have done and caused, this might be the worst one yet!

Lana: (laughs) Have fun getting punished, guys!

Me: Undermine, Lana, there has to be a very good reason behind it. But I have a feeling I know what it is.

Past Lori: What is going on here?

Me: Well it's really hard to explain. We are from 3 months into the future.

I went over everything that happened during that timeframe and all that and told them everything that went down.

Past Lori: Whoa man! We are literally worse than ever!?

Me: Yeah. But that's not why Lori, Lynn and Lynn from our time came here. They came because they wanted to try and stop the 20 Days of Darkness from happening.

Present Lori: That's right me. We wanted to stop the 20 Days of Darkness from happening. Kurt's words hurt us deeply.

Me: Lori I understand how you feel. Kurt's words really hurt.

Professor Paradox: I know how you feel Lori and he will get a good talking too later on.

Me: (To the past Trinity) But right now we need you three to follow through with the events that are about to happen from here on out. I know it's crazy but it's all true and is going to happen like it or not. Do it for Bobby, Lightning and Winston.

Past Lori: Okay.

We later went back to our time and no alterations were done.

Professor Paradox: Thank goodness that was settled.

G1 Brainstorm: Thanks for coming, Paradox. And don't worry. We're going to send Cheese to annoy Kurt for causing this.

Maria: Aren't there any other punishments available?

Haru Glory: I get what Brainstorm's saying. You guys only started to realized how useful Cheese is the day you met me.

Me: We sure did. And I think Cheese punishing Kurt is good enough.

Mandy: And Lori, Lynn, Lola?

POW! BIFF! SMASH!

She punched them in their faces and gave them nasty black eyes.

Nico: Whoa! Ouch.

Mandy: That was for doing a stupid mistake.

Me: We know you three were trying to help but unfortunately the 20 Days of Darkness have already been done.

Professor Paradox: That's right girls. I know Nicolas went through a nightmare and I completely understand how you all feel about it and that it affected you all greatly but I'm afraid what is done is done and it needs to be left alone.

Me: That's right girls. We need to learn from the past so that an event like the 20 Days of Darkness doesn't happen again.

Laney: That's right.

Nico: (to Lori, Lynn, and Lola) This is very serious! Until we can be sure we can trust you three again, you girls are banned from missions!

William: That's a little harsh, don't you think?

Nico: (to everyone else) Would anyone else like to be banned from missions too?

Lucy: No. There's no need for that.

Leni: Yeah! We're good!

Lana: Absolutely! I can prove that I'm much better then Lori, Lynn, and Lola!

Nico: Glad to hear it.

Me: Nico calm down. They have been punished enough already and banning them from missions is like beating a dead horse. (To Twilight and the Mane 8) No offense.

Twilight Sparkle: None taken.

Me: Besides Mandy punished them already and that's more than enough.

Nico: Oh you're right.

Me: Besides we got to get ready for our next mission.

Carmen Dillo, El Oso, Kaos, Duff Killigan, Drakkon, INSTIGATOR, Tchang Zu the Demon Sorcerer of Thunder and the Vreedle Brothers then appeared.

Carmen Dillo: Can me, El Oso, Kaos, Duff Killigan, Drakkon, INSTIGATOR, Tchang Zu, and the Vreedle Brothers go with you guys?

Me: You sure can. And you guys are gonna think this is weird and crazy. But we're gonna go after a massive alien empire.

Nico: What kind of empire?

Me: Have you guys ever heard of the Irken Empire?

Shanan gasped when she heard that name!

Shanan: (Sneers) Did you say the Irken Empire?

Nico: Yeah he did?

Shanan: I was afraid this day would come.

Varie: What do you know about them Shanan?

Shanan: The Irken Empire is a dangerous empire that wants to become the most superior empire in the universe.

Shanan went over who they were.

---

The Irken Empire is the main antagonistic faction of Invader Zim and the 2019 Netflix film Invader Zim: Enter the Florpus. This consist of a race of insectoid hominid organisms called Irkens. Ever since their home planet, Irk, was accidentally almost destroyed by Zim, many parts of the race live on the gigantic ship called The Massive.

Irken society is based on height. The shortest are subjected to harsh labors while the taller Irkens are given easy jobs and are treated with respect. The tallest Irken of each generation becomes the leader no matter their social status or qualifications. This rank is called the Almighty Tallest. If the two Irkens of the same generation are the same height they rule together. Such is the case of Tallest Red and Tallest Purple.

The ultimate goal of the Irken Empire is to dominate the universe. They do this by sending a select Irken, who has been given the title Invader, to an enemy planet. Once on the planet they will blend into the inhabitant's society and learn their weaknesses with the help of a Standard Information Retrieval or S.I.R unit. Once the weaknesses are learned, the Invader informs the Almighty Tallest and they send the large Armada to wipe out the planet or enslave it.

In Invader Zim: Enter the Florpus, the Irken Empire travel in a straight line around the galaxy within the large armada to conquer the universe. When Zim reality-warps the Earth using the bracelets and Mini Moose, the Earth appears in the straight line which the Irken Armada travel, accidentally summoning the Florpus. The Tallest decide to blow up the Earth instead of going in a different direction despite warnings about the Florpus. When the Earth is saved by the Membrane Family, the Irken Armada accidentally and idiotically enter the Florpus, implicating that the entire fleet is destroyed in a hell-like dimension for eternity, thus ending the conquering of worlds for good. That said, it's currently unknown what has become of the already conquered worlds by the Irken or if any remainders of the Empire are still active.

When Shanan was done we were shocked.

Me: Whoa man!

Twilight Sparkle: That's horrifying!

Nico: Whoa man! They are as bad as Frieza!

Shanan: That's right. But there is one Irken that is sort of like the Black Sheep of them: Zim.

Nico: I've heard about Zim. He was banished from the Irken.

Shanan: Yes he was. And he lives right in the heart of the city of Nashville.

Me: Okay then that's where we're going. Lets head out.

We were off to Nashville, Tennessee.

---

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

---

We arrived in Nashville, Tennessee - the Country Music Capital of The World.

Me: Here we are guys.

Star Man: I'm not gonna lie. This town has seen better days.

Bon Bon: Do you have a really bad history with the Irken?

Shanan: You could say that Bon Bon. Because I single-handedly annihilated many of the Irken's forces.

Nico: Whoa! Sounds like they put a huge price on your head.

Naruto: No kidding sis! That's awful!

Shanan: But it was for the safety of the universe. The Irken pose a tremendous threat to all life in the universe and they need to be completely wiped out.

Nico: Wow.

Shanan: You see, I'm an agent for a powerful top secret Plumber Splinter Cell group that was made to destroy hostile planets.

Max Tennyson: It's a very powerful elite group that makes sure that all hostile threats are eliminated.

Me: Whoa! That's a very potent branch of the Plumbers.

Nico: No kidding.

Shanan: Yes. I'm sorry you guys had to find out about this. I didn't say anything because I was trying to keep it hidden. Also it was part of an assignment.

Me: I see.

Nico: Yeah.

Shanan: Zim was spared because he has good in him and helped his friends a lot.

Me: No kidding. But if Zim is here we will find him.

Shanan: I know Zim though. He is not as bad as you all think.

Lyra Heartstrings: How will we find him?

Shanan: Irken ships have the ability to disguise themselves into anything. And his home is right there.

She pointed to Zim's house and it was right in between two buildings.

Me: That's pretty obvious.

Eli: That's his house all right.

We went up to his house and knocked on the door and out came

Zim.

We saw a kid and a stuffed moose.

El Oso: (Spanish Accent) Hey! You Zim?

Zim: That's right. (Sees us) TEAM LOUD PHOENIX STORM!? AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAHHHHHHHHHHHHHH!

Nico: WHOA WHOA WHOA WHOA! Calm down! We're not here to hurt you!

Shanan: Out of all the members of the Irken Empire you are not one we are after.

Zim: You aren't?

Me: No we aren't Zim. We came to help you and help you destroy them.

Zim: Good! I hate my former Irken!

Me: I think everyone else is pretty much fed up with them too.

Shanan: Mostly me since I'm the one that destroyed many of them.

Nico: Yeah.

Guts Man: You're not out of the woods yet, Zim. We still need to determine if you're a threat or not. Get Dib and his friends in here.

Zim: But-

Guts Man: NOW!

Zim went and did so.

He brought Dib and Gaz to us.

Dib: Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's an honor to meet you.

Gaz: Yeah it is.

Dib: I'm Dib Membrane and this is my sister Gaz.

Gaz: Yo.

Me: Pleasure to meet you.

Eddy: Okay. One of you is lying. And one of you is telling the truth. Whoever's lying is getting shot! So, which is it?

Zim: Dib is lying! He's trying to stop my mission!

Dib: No! Zim's lying! His people are planning to take over the universe!

Eddy and Rhomboid took out their blasters but were unsure of who to shoot.

Rhomboid: This is a tough one. We can't tell which of you two is telling the truth.

Octagon: (facepalms) Boid, let's just shoot them both. Sort it all out later.

Me: Guys stand down!

Shanan: They are telling the truth. Zim was kicked out of the Irken for his incompetence and his former people are planning an invasion and that's why we are going to help Zim. We're going to destroy the entirety of the Irken Empire and make them pay for their crimes.

Zim: That's right! Those fools will pay for their crimes 100 times over!

Nico: And they will!

Vinyl Scratch nodded and agreed with us.

Octavia Melody: (British Accent) And we will make them pay for their crimes.

GIR came and he was awesome and funny.

Roxas: You know what, GIR? You might be stupid but you're also funny. Just like Ed.

Muscle Man: You know who else is stupid but funny like Ed?

GIR: Who?

Muscle Man: My mom!

We laughed.

Zim: (Laughs) He's funny.

Me: He cracks us up.

Maria was brushing her hair and then water got away from her and it landed on Zim and burned him and he was screaming in pain as smoke came out of him.

Zim: AAAAAAAAHHH! IT BURNS! IT BURNS! AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAHHHHHHHH!

Ed: He's funny!

Shanan: Like the Limax's, Irken's are sensitive to water and it burns them like acid. It kills them if they are exposed to it for a long period of time.

Lola dried him off.

Lola: Yikes.

Gaz: Brittney can I join the Goths of Darkness?

Brittney: You definitely have all the qualities of a Goth of Darkness, Gaz. I accept you joining us.

Shannon: And Gaz I noticed that you have the exact same name that I once had when I was in the infamous Black Daffodil Gang.

Gaz: That sure is coincidental.

Kaos: And Zim I noticed that you and I sound so much alike in voice terms.

Zim: That sure is coincidental.

INSTIGATOR: Before you kill your former empire, there are a few loose ends to tie up in this town.

Me: Yep. First is that school teacher that Shanan told us about.

Zim: You mean Ms. Bitters.

Gaz: She is the most boring teacher ever! I HATE HER!

Mandy: Man Gaz, you and I have so much in common.

Gaz: Like what Mandy?

Mandy: Well for starters you and I both hate everything.

Gaz: We sure do.

Brittney: So do I.

Lana: I'll face her.

We went to the Skool and Lana was beating up Ms. Bitters!

---

Ms. Bitters is a supporting antagonist in the animated series Invader Zim . She is the teacher of Zim's and Dib's class at Skool.

A tall, slender old woman of unknown origin or age, she is a very grouchy teacher, who has devoid of any positive emotion and full of demonic hatred for children. Ms. Bitters is voiced by the late Lucille Bliss who also voiced Anastasia Tremaine. Her first name is unknown.

In some early episodes, she appears to be covered in cockroaches. When her students displease her, she habitually looms over them, menacingly, with clawed hands and bared teeth, feeding the possibility that she is inhuman. Details on her history is unknown.

Whatever she is, she cannot survive in direct sunlight, as seen in The Voting of the Doomed. In this same episode, she is wearing a black cloak like a vampire, thought to protect her from the sun. She greatly dislikes children, and has expressed frustration at school over-crowding, as well as disdain for traditional holidays such as Halloween and Valentine's Day (although dislike for the latter could be justified, considering an unknown event in the past changed the Valentine's Day tradition from giving out chocolate and cards to giving "Valentine meat slabs"). In the Halloween Spectacular of Spooky Doom, she is revealed to have an even more demonic doppelgänger in an alternate dimension: A gremlin-like creature known as Nightmare Bitters, who is after Dib's head. She tried to get into Dib's true world, but went back after seeing how

---

Lana smashed and pulverized her all over and then froze her in a block of ice.

Soundwave: Lana Loud: Superior. Ms. Bitters: Inferior.

Lana: You said it, Soundwave. (to me) Go on, J.D. Tell me you love me more then Lori, Lynn, and Lola now.

Me: (Laughs) Oh Lana you know I love ALL of you equally.

Nico: Well said.

Vince: That's right.

Varie: Thanks honey.

Celica: I think that's awesome.

Gaz: (GAGS)

Kaos: (to Zim) I'm actually glad I found someone who sounds and acts like me.

Zim: Me too Kaos.

Me: And lets not forget that Billy and Daggett sound and act like you too except Billy is a brainless idiot.

Daggett: But that is so cool!

Kaos: It sure is!

Zim: Yeah it is!

Me: Also Alpha 5 sounds like you too.

Nico: I forgot about that. I wonder how Billy is doing.

Me: We'll find out later. Now it's time to get ready for battle.

Lana: Lets go kick some Irken Butt!

Me: Lisa deploy the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix.

Lisa: Affirmative!

We went back to the World Tree Estate and we got the ship ready. While we were loading the ship up with all our battleships and starfighters and all that Nico was looking out the window.

May: Are you okay, Nico?

Nico: (sighs) I don't know, May. First, Billy gets out of control. And now, Lori, Lynn, and Lola went behind our backs to go back in time! Are we starting to lose control of our team?

May put her hand on his shoulder.

May: Nico no we aren't. I think it's because they forgot to fall asleep again. They've been up since yesterday.

Nico: Hmm. You're probably right. After we get back home we need to get some sleep.

May: Yeah. We'll be back by dinner time.

Lynn: Look, Nico. When me, Lori, and Lola went back in time this morning, it wasn't out of anger. We just wanted to prevent those 20 days of pain and suffering.

Nico: I had a feeling.

May: That is a good reason.

Me: Kurt's words really must've hurt bad. Also I had a feeling that was the reason. Also like I said, we have to let it go. Don't let Kurt's words get to you all. Kurt is a monster and he doesn't have any idea what the hell he's talking about. He is a delusional freak.

Nico: Yeah!

Lori: Yeah you're right. I can't believe we let his words hurt us.

Lola: But they still hurt!

Mandy: Lola get ahold of yourself! (SLAPS LOLA'S FACE) Kurt has no idea what he is talking about and Cheese is annoying the crap out of him as we speak. You need to let the past go and move on and learn from it.

Nico: That's right Lola! The past is the past and it needs to be learned from so we won't go through it again. Lets get a move on.

Bounce Man: Are the ships ready?

Me: All ready, locked, loaded and ready to attack.

Shanan: Awesome.

Me: (Eyes Glow Red) Get ready Irken…

Shanan: (Eyes Glow Neon Green) Your last day alive is today.

Eli: And it is going to hurt real bad. (Eyes Glow Neon Blue)

Ets: You said it.

Me: Launch!

We were on our way to the Irken for an all out war!

---

The U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix was flying through space.

Me: Captain's Log, Stardate 2929.2: We are on our way to the galaxy Centaurus A to face the evil Irken Empire and make sure they never touch another planet ever again. We are going to make sure they pay for their crimes and wipe them all out.

Laney: This is gonna be epic.

Nico: Yeah it is.

Lana: I can't wait to kick some Irken Butt.

Lola: Me too!

Leni: This is totes gonna be so much fun!

Laney then saw numerous radar signals coming.

Laney: Multiple radar signatures dead ahead.

Me: On screen.

The screen came on and it was a massive Irken Fleet!

Me: Lets get to our ships everyone! Red Alert! Man Your Battlestations!

The alarms sounded and we went to our ships and took off.

They fired blasts of leaves and lasers and blew the whole Irken platoon that was coming at them apart in a massive fiery explosion.

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nathaniel: Squad Leaders, we've picked up a new group of signals. Enemy fighters coming your way.

Me: I see them! Incoming!

Ed Cowart: EAT DIRT NEFARIOUS INVADERS OF PLANETS! (BLASTS IRKEN SHIPS AND TIE FIGHTERS ALL OVER) HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!

Nico saw that the Irken have Star Destroyers and Super Star Destroyers with them.

Nico: They also have Star Destroyers and Super Star Destroyers with them.

Me: Not for long. Nathaniel fire superlaser at will.

Nathaniel: Roger! Fire!

Fu: Right!

Fu charged up the Superlaser and fired it and it hit a Super Star Destroyer and it exploded in a massive fiery explosion!

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Bullseye!

Nico: Keep firing at the Star Destroyers.

Fu: Right!

She fired Superlaser Blasts and destroyed the Star Destroyers all over the place and blew them apart.

Eli: That did it!

Tchang Zu: Let's pay the Almighty Tallest a visit in person!

Me: With pleasure! Follow me everyone! We're going in!

We flew down to the planet and blasted numerous Irken forces all over and then we landed and got out of our ships and we were facing the ALMIGHTY TALLEST!

---

The Almighty Tallest Red and Purple are the secondary antagonists of the 2001-2006 television series Invader Zim, and the overarching antagonists of the 2019 Netflix film Invader Zim: Enter the Florpu s. They are the leaders of the Irken Empire that are chosen for their height. In truth, they are really figureheads for the Control Brains, who are the actual leaders of the Empire.

In the show, they both despise Zim, a young and ambitious Irken whom they sent to the previously thought to be a fake planet "Earth", only to realize that Earth was actually quite real. They often appear in episodes where they reluctantly check up on Zim and his "mission". They first appeared in "The Nightmare Begins."

Red was voiced by Wally Wingert in the English verison, Paco Mauri in the Spanish version and Jan Spitzer in the German version. Purple was voiced by Kevin McDonald in the English version, Alejandro Illescas in the Spanish version and Tilo Schmitz in the German version.

Before Red and Purple became the Tallest, Almighty Tallest Miyuki and Spork were the leaders before getting killed by one of Zim's experiments, according to an unfinished episode.

In the series, the Almighty Tallest make occassional appearances, usually being contacted by Zim. Some episodes including them even have the Tallest play a major role.

In the 2019 Netflix film Invader ZIM: Enter the Florpus, the Tallest are first seen standing in the steering room of The Massive, Purple carelessly eating donuts and Red carelessly drinking a soft drink, as the ship destroys many planets. Purple recalls Zim, to which Red recalls how they sent Zim to Earth to get rid of him. Purple claims that life has been great since Zim vanished, moments before opening a transmission from Zim, revealing he is alive, to the Tallest's fury. Zim tries to explain the second phase of his plan, but he has forgotten. Upon realizing the Tallest aren't on hold, Zim blasts lasers from his PAK, ending the transmission. After retrieving their flight plan, Zim becomes distraught upon learning that the Tallest weren't going to come anywhere near Earth. Dib shows up to stop Zim for good, and finds the alien has surrendered. After Dib accidentally inspires Zim to formulate another plan to take over Earth, the planet is soon teleported into the flight path of the Irken Armada while Dib and his sister, Gaz, are held prisoner by a failed clone of their father, which Gaz has nicknamed "Clembrane". However, this opens a "Florpus hole", a black hole-like anomaly that will suck in all nearby planets and cause them to clash with alternate realities. When Zim declines their worries, Dib and Gaz escape from Clembrane on Tak's ship to save their real father from Moo-Ping 10.

Upon hearing about the Florpus hole, the Tallest dismiss it entirely, though they freak out when they hear that Earth, and thus, Zim, is in their path. They refuse to change course, claiming that "turning's no fun", and ultimately decide to just blow up Earth. The driver of the ship warns them of the Florpus, only for the Tallest to mock him. When they get to Earth, Professor Membrane uses Minimoose to teleport Earth back where it belongs. The Tallest then cheerfully allow the Irken Armada to fly straight into the Florpus, with their final transmission from Zim implicating that they were burning in a hell-like dimension as puppets for eternity, thus ending their conquering of worlds for good and killing them in the process.

Almighty Tallest Red: The famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm. We didn't expect you all to show up.

Almighty Tallest Purple: You and your forces are all everything we heard about.

Me: Nice to know that we've made an impression.

Tallest Red: (chuckles) Did you really think we weren't prepared for you morons?

Suddenly, we felt the ground shake.

King Dedede: What was that?!

UH OH!

Suddenly a the ground opened and a massive laser cannon came out. But then a massive energy blast hit the cannon and destroyed it in a massive fiery explosion!

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Shanan came out of the explosion.

Shanan: You Irken scumbags thought you could outsmart us?

Nico: Lets take them down!

The ground still shook.

Tallest Purple (laughs): Oh, that laser cannon wasn't our surprise! Our new friend is!

Maria: What are you talking about?

We saw a huge figure come out and it was the STAY PUFT MARSHMALLOW MAN!

The Stay Puft Marshmallow Man is a recurring antagonist from the Ghostbusters franchise, appearing as the final antagonist of the 1984 film Ghostbusters, an antagonist in the animated television series The Real Ghostbusters, and a major antagonist in Ghostbusters: The Video Game . Originally the vessel used by Gozer to destroy the world in Ghostbusters, Stay Puft became a ghost in its own right shortly afterwards.

The Stay Puft Marshmallow Man has varied in the series from a villain to a hero but rarely displayed the same level of malevolence as it did in the original film - perhaps due to the fact that it was no longer fully controlled by Gozer, the most noticeable examples being in The Real Ghostbusters .

Ghostbusters (1984 film)

The Stay Puft Marshmallow Man was formed during the climax of the original Ghostbusters movie in which the destroyer-god known as Gozer decided to take the form of the first thing the Ghostbusters thought of to destroy their world - despite the group making an effort to clear their thoughts, after Peter Venkman mentioned that if for example they thought of J. Edgar Hoover, he would come down to destroy everyone, Ray couldn't help himself from thinking of the one thing he felt could never possibly harm them: namely the Stay Puft Marshmallow Man.

Gozer caught Ray's stray thoughts and formed a gigantic Stay Puft Marshmallow Man by which to terrorize New York - this giant Stay Puft Marshmallow Man would proceed to climb the skyscraper the Ghostbusters were on in an attempt to reach them: proving itself durable despite taking heavy damage from the group's photon-packs.

In the end, Egon decides the only way to defeat the Stay Puft Marshmallow Man is to "cross the streams" - which risked a cataclysmic explosion but surprisingly Egon's gamble paid off and the resulting explosion was strong enough to destroy the Stay Puft Marshmallow Man while not causing a cataclysm (though it did result in a river of molten marshmallow raining down on the streets below as well as a parachute sized sailor hat floating down).

The Real Ghostbusters

Due to the Stay Puft Marshmallow Man's extreme popularity with fans and his iconic status he was destined to return in the Ghostbusters cartoon series - though this version of Stay Puft was much more benevolent than the movie version, in fact the cartoon version of the Stay Puft Marshmallow Man was often a heroic figure rather than an antagonist: though there were a few exceptions to this rule where the Stay Puft Marshmallow Man was back to his usual villainous ways.

The opening credits of the Real Ghostbusters showed the Stay Puft Marshmallow Man as a central figure amongst the horde of ghosts that were promptly "busted" by the group - this version of Stay Puft was shown as rather menacing despite the fact he was rarely a villain in the actual show (as mentioned above). In fact, he has even assisted the Ghostbusters on two occasions in the episodes Sticky Business, and The Revenge of Murray the Mantis respectively.

Ghostbusters Video Games

The Stay Puft Marshmallow Man is a boss in several Ghostbusters video games including Ghostbusters: The Video Game . In both the stylized and realistic versions of this game, Stay Puft has the ability to spawn smaller marshmallow-based monsters, a power that the original Stay Puft Marshmallow Man never displayed before. Despite this, this version of Stay Puft has been described in-game to be neither as big or as powerful then the one in the film.

Ghostbusters (2016 film)

Stay Puft returned in the 2016 reboot Ghostbusters film. In this film, he returned as a parade balloon with the ghosts controlling him, and he falls and lands on Abby, Jillian and Patty, but is popped by Erin.

Me: Whoa man! Is that the Stay Puft Marshmallow Man from Ghostbusters!?

Nico: It sure is! And it's infected by the Aparoids!

Laney: Not good!

Venkman: Didn't think we'd see him again!

Me: No kidding!

Nico: I remember that monster all too well!

Lucy Loud: Wicked.

Brittney: Now this is awesome!

Me: For over 37 Years he has been a very iconic monster.

Drakkon: How is that thing serving you two?!

Tallest Red: We made a deal with the Aparoids that after we take over the universe, they can rule alongside us.

Me: Not if we have anything to say about it! Venkman, time TO CROSS THE BEAMS!

Venkman: Lets do it!

Me: And combine it with my Kamehameha!

They transformed into some of the aliens from Ben 10 series in which they used their powers and the blasts all hit the Marshmallow man and they finished it off by turning into Atomix and fired a blast nuclear energy and it hit the Marshmallow Man and smashed him down.

GIR: Yum! Marshmallows!

Me: He's a monster GIR!

Venkman: Lets cross the beams!

Me: (Cups hands to side) KAAAAAA MEEEEEEEE HAAAAAAAAA MEEEEEEEEE HAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA!

I fired a Rainbow Kamehameha blast and the Ghostbusters crossed the beams and the energy blast combined with my Kamehameha Wave and it hit the Marshmallow Monster and exploded with unbelievable power!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion blew the Marshmallow Monster apart in a massive fiery explosion and the explosion obliterated the Almighty Tallest too along with all of the Irken minus Zim! The explosion also started a chain reaction and the entire planet was cracking apart and we got out of there as the whole planet exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: YEEHAW!

Nico: YEAH!

Laney: That was epic!

Nathaniel: YEAH!

Then Dark Spicer, Number 7, Waffle Woman, Zs'Skayr, Vanitas, Myotismon and Grodd appeared next to Vypra.

Me: So it's Vypra, Dark Spicer, Number 7, Waffle Woman, Zs'Skayr, Vanitas, Myotismon and Grodd today.

Grodd: It sure is.

Vypra: Did you guys see the explosion from here?

Number 7: Indeed we did.

Waffle Woman: Too bad we couldn't eat any of Stay Puft's body.

Dark Spicer: (to May) Here's your warning: Your ass is about to be kicked!

May: Not if I kick yours first you big baby!

Dark Spicer: Bring it on!

Eddy: Save the witty banter for when we get to the gym back on Earth.

Me: But first lets get some food.

Our stomachs growled.

Nico: Good idea. I'm starving.

Me: Good idea. Lets go get some grub.

We went to Lynn's Table back on Earth and it was now serving the Ulti-Meatum. We got the sandwiches and we were eating them and we were hungry.

Me: (Eating) Mmm! I always will love these awesome burgers.

Mordecai: Me too dude!

Muscle Man: You know who else loves these burgers? My mom!

We laughed.

Me: Oh wait guys. I just remembered. I just installed this at the restaurant for our usual battles.

I pressed a button on a remote and out came an arena ring.

Nico: Cool!

Vypra: It's perfect.

Lola: Awesome.

?: That's perfect for our battles.

A figure came out and it was LEPUS from episodes 23 and 30 of Jungle Fury!

---

Lepus was one of an army of Phantom Beast Warriors and the only female among them. She used the battle style of the Rabbit and holded the spirit of the Pixie. During the first Beast War, Lepus fought, alongside her allies against Pai Zhuq Academy and Dai Shi Clan and was destroyed along with other Phantom Beasts. However, Crystal Eyes, that possessed the power to ressurect them, were left behind. In the twenty-third episode, Jellica used Crystal Eyes and revived Phantom Beasts and ordered them to serve her and help her destroy Dai Shi. But Scorch, Snapper and Whiger betrayed and destroyed her and joined Dai Shi. Lepus was summoned by Scorch along with other Phantom Beast Warriors. They promised to serve Dai Shi.

In the twenty-fifth episode, Camille approached Lepus, Sonimax and Osiris and asked them if they could give her sone of their Rinzin Power. They thought she was kidding and declined her offer.

In the thirtieth episode, Scorch and Snapper sent Lepus, Sonimax and Osiris to eliminate Camille, as they decided she is the last tie in Jarrod's humanity and must be eliminated for Dai Shi's sake. Lepus, Sonimax and Osiris ambushed Camille and overhelmed her, but Jarrod arrived, who temporarily regained control over his body. He destroyed Sonimax and Osiris, but Lepus escaped. Then Lepus attacked Casey, because she thought if she will defeat the Red Ranger, she would prove her loyalty and earn Dai Shi's mercy. Lepus battled Casey and he used Strike Rider against her. Then, the other Power Rangers arrived and helped Casey. Scorch and Snapper also arrived and fought Spirit Rangers, while Jungle Fury Rangers battled Lepus. Lepus was defeated by Claw Cannon, Wolf Beam and Rhino Blade. She then grew and battled the Rangers's Zords. She managed to fly up into the air after being stabbed and flung into the air by the Rhino Steel Zord but was taken down by the combined finisher of the Jungle Master Zords and the Wolf Zord performed its Wolf Zord Spin Fury attack to criplingly weaken her. At this point, the Rangers summoned their other Zords and Lepus was destroyed by the Animal Spirit Stampede's Final Strike.

---

Lily Chilman: Lepus!

Lepus: Been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! you were sent with Sonimax and Osiris to eliminate Camille.

Lepus: That's right. Good memory on you J.D.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Lepus: (to Bugs Bunny) Please leave me out of your Looney Tunes Shenanigans.

Bugs Bunny: No worries doc. You'll be all right.

Me: Besides it will be awesome having our battles here when needed.

Nico: Yeah it will.

Dark Spicer: And I have 2 new ultimate forms to show you.

He went into the first one and it was his own version of Ultimate Humungousaur! Except it was neon orange and had stegosaurus spikes and a powerful spiked stegosaurus tail and he had triceratops horns on his head and was buff.

Ultimate Stompasaurus Rex: (Arnold Schwarzeneggar Accent) Meet Ultimate Stompasaurus Rex!

Ace: That's probably one of your strongest Ultimate forms.

Ultimate Stompasaurus Rex: (chuckles) If you think that, wait until you see my Ultimate Tokustar form. (fires a powerful barrage of missiles at Ace)

Ace used her psychic powers to send them back at him and they hit his shell and exploded all over.

Shanan: Awesome powers for an Evolved Vaxasaurian Hybrid.

Me: And the Arnold Schwarzeneggar Accent really ties the whole thing together.

Zs'Skayr: I agree on that.

He reverted back.

Dark Spicer: And here's the second one.

He turned into a dark purple version of Ultimate Big Chill and he had scary moth wings and spines on his arms and legs and had a deadly cold aura around him and had lightning too.

Ultimate Cold Death: Say hello to Ultimate Cold Death!

Shego: So, that's the third of your aliens that can use ice.

Ultimate Cold Death: And probably last as well. (fires a powerful blast of Endothermic fire at Shego)

Shego fired a blast of green fire and the blasts collided and erupted into a cloud of steam!

Me: Whoa! That is the coolest form you have so far Dark.

Shanan: You said it. Not bad for an Evolved Necrofriggian Hybrid.

Chione: I can relate on that.

Ets: Yeah!

Me: Also Venkman you know what the Marshmallow Man reminded me of?

Venkman: What?

Me: The Michelin Tires Man.

Then I felt a cold wave come over me.

Me: (Shivers) Brrr! That probably is the coldest alien ever.

Dark reverted back.

Me: Lets go at them.

We did so

---

Battle 1: Luan, Twilight Sparkle, Luster Dawn, Princess Celestia, Princess Luna, Princess Cadance, Princess Amore, Flurry Heart, Lilly Crystal, Cloud Star, Snowdrop, Children of The Night, Minuette, Twinkleshine, Lemon Hearts, Moondancer, Lyra Heartstrings, Bon Bon, Star Swirl the Bearded, Aerrow, Finn (Storm Hawks), Junko, Piper, Stork, Shego and William VS Vypra

---

Vypra was first.

Vypra: (to Luan) I really enjoyed teaching those Irkens a lesson.

Luan: Me too Vypra. Especially after causing so much pain to many people all over the universe.

Twilight Sparkle: We had no idea that Shanan had a really bad history with the Irkens and that she single handedly annihilated many of their forces.

Vypra: Whoa! She made a huge enemy in them.

Luster Dawn: That is a total understatement. Only Zim is the only one that seems to respect Shanan.

Princess Celestia: But it's good that Shanan destroyed the Irkens. Otherwise Earth would've been their next target.

Princess Luna: I think Earth was their next target sister. Zim was sent here for a reason.

Princess Cadance: But mostly because of the Almighty Tallest's hatred towards Zim.

Vypra: Why do they hate him?

Princess Amore: From what we were told, Zim accidentally blew up their home planet, Irk.

Flurry Heart: I would consider that a blessing in disguise.

Lilly Crystal: Me too. I think the Universe is much better off without the Irkens.

Cloud Star: Me too.

Snowdrop: Yeah I agree. But it was awesome taking down the Irken. Just like the Galactic Empire in Star Wars.

Gari: Yeah that was epic!

Vypra: It sure was. And it was great being in that battle.

Minuette: It was so awesome!

Twinkleshine: We always get a great thrill out of all those starfights.

Lemon Hearts: They sure are fun.

Moondancer: I agree. They are as epic as what we see on TV.

Lyra Heartstrings: You said it Moondancer. It's so much fun.

Bon Bon: Yeah it is!

Star Swirl: They sure are fun and I haven't had that much fun in over 1,000 years.

Aerrow: Just as fun as destroying the Cyclonians.

Finn (Storm Hawks): You said it. I miss that.

Junko: Me too. Especially where we smash some skulls.

Piper: Yeah! That was great.

Stork: It sure was.

Shego: But it was fun while it lasted.

William: Yeah.

Vypra: Yeah. Lets do it!

Luan formed a sword of light and Vypra unsheathe her sword and they went at each other and clashed and sparks went flying all over and they all went at her and smashed her down.

Luan: All right!

Twilight Sparkle: That was awesome!

---

Battle 2: Eddy, Sunset Shimmer, Pepperdance, Cayenne, Firecracker Burst, Wallflower, Gusty the Great, Omi, Kimiko, Clay, Raimundo, Star Man and Flash Man VS Dark Spicer

---

Dark Spicer was next.

Dark Spicer: (to Eddy) It must've been hard deciding whether to shoot Zim or Dib earlier.

Eddy: It was. But thank goodness J.D. stopped us from making a stupid mistake.

Sunset Shimmer: Yeah thank goodness for that.

Pepperdance: Ooowee! Yeah he sure did and Zim does not deserve to be shot. Neither does Dib.

Cayenne: I agree.

Firecracker Burst: I'm glad he didn't.

Wallflower: Same here.

Gusty: I agree too.

Dark Spicer: I am glad. And I see you have all of the Xiaolin Showdown masters here.

Omi: (Tibetan Accent) It's part of a theme that J.D. is gonna do for each group.

Kimiko: It's very creative.

Raimundo: I think so too.

Clay: I agree on that.

Star Man: It's perfect.

Flash Man: It sure is.

Dark Spicer: Good theme idea. Lets do it!

Dark Spicer blasted them and they dodged the blasts and fired energy and elemental blasts at him and smashed him down.

Eddy: YEAH!

Sunset Shimmer: Awesome!

---

Battle 3: Ed, BGY-11 or The Big Guy, Rusty the Boy Robot, Rarity, Sweetie Belle, Thunder Terror, Sassy Saddles, Sapphire Shores, Saffron Masala, Vinyl Scratch, Octavia Melody, Lily Valley, Rose, Daisy, Mistmane, Sable Spirit, Stone Man and Guts Man VS Number 7

---

Number 7 was next.

Number 7: (to Ed) I wonder if we will run into any of the Ghostbusters' other enemies.

Ed: Uh it's a strong possibility.

Big Guy: After everything that we went through I would say that it's a very strong possibility.

Rusty: But we will sure-a-shooting be ready for them!

Rarity: Indeed Rusty. But that Marshmallow Man from what we saw in the first Ghostbusters Movie was amazing and terrifying.

Sweetie Belle: It sure was! But that was so epic how we destroyed it and the Irken at the same time.

Thunder Terror: Yeah! J.D. and the Ghostbusters combined a Kamehameha Blast and their beams from their Atomic Rays and it destroyed the Marshmallow Man and the Irken all at the same time. What power!

Sassy Saddles: (British Accent) It sure was! But it was epic!

Sapphire Shores: Yeah it was! I thought it was amazing how J.D. and the Ghostbusters did a combo final smash in a sense.

Saffron Masala: (Indian Accent) I thought it was amazing!

Vinyl Scratch threw up the goats.

Octavia Melody: It was a most amazing performance.

Lily Valley: But it was an epic battle!

Rose: It sure was! But it was horrible that the Irkens would do all that!

Lily, Rose and Daisy fainted in a Broadway Play Style fashion.

Rose: The Horror! The Horror!

Lily Valley: It was awful!

Daisy: A Disaster! A horrible horrible disaster!

Number 7: They always like this?

Rarity: Yeah but we're used to it. But they have amazing Broadway Style play spirit.

Mistmane: It's very fitting for them.

Sable Spiriti: They sure have what it takes.

Stone Man: Yeah they do.

Guts Man: Oh yeah!

Number 7: Indeed. Lets do it!

She fired missiles and lasers and they dodged them.

Ed turned into Edzilla.

Edzilla: ED SMASH ROBOT!

They went at her and smashed and pulverized Number 7 all over and knocked her down. Ed Roared in victory.

Rarity: Rapture darling! That was grand!

---

Battle 4: Tara, Applejack, Apple Bloom, Frozen Fright, Apple Fritter, Big Mac, Sugar Belle, Granny Smith, Apple Rose, Goldie Delicious, Bright Mac, Pear Butter, Grand Pear, Rockhoof, Cocoa Axe, Steela Oresdotter, Autumn Blaze, Coloratura, Sora, Riku, Kairi, Aqua, Terra, Ventus, Roxas and Aeleus VS Waffle Woman

---

Waffle Woman was next.

Waffle Woman: (to Tara) Too bad there's nothing left of Stay Puft to eat.

Tara: I don't think he would tasted very good anyway. He was made mostly of rubber and plastic.

Applejack: But it was amazing that the Ghostbusters took him down the first back 37 years ago.

Apple Bloom: Yeah that was incredible! The movie with Ghostbusters was amazing!

Frozen Fright: It sure was! Ghostbusters is one of my favorite movies and I loved how they defeated the monster in the end.

Waffle Woman: That is always epic. Been very popular since 1984.

Apple Fritter: It sure has. But it was so funny how Venkman verbally assaulted that senator.

Big Mac: Eeyup.

Sugar Belle: I heard that J.D. called him something worse.

Waffle Woman: He sure did. (To me) J.D. what did you call him?

Me: A pencildick motherfucker!

They laughed at that!

Granny Smith: That is funny!

Apple Rose: You said it cousin!

Goldie Delicious: I bet he was madder than a rattlesnake on fire at that.

Bright Mac: I have a feeling he was.

Pear Butter: Yeah I have that feeling too.

Grand Pear: Same here. But that was funny.

Rockhoof: (Scottish Accent) Aye. Good name for him though.

Cocoa Axe: (Irish Accent) A perfect name to describe him though.

Steela Oresdotter: (Norwegian Accent) I think so too.

Autumn Blaze: But it's perfect for him in my opinion!

Coloratura: Yeah it was!

Waffle Woman: But it was so funny. Did he go after J.D.?

Tara: He sure did and J.D. punched him in the face.

They laughed again.

Waffle Woman: That is funny and awesome. I see you have the predecessor and current Keybladers with you all.

Sora: Yep from mentors to students.

Ventus: Thought it was a good theme for the group.

Terra: I think it's cool.

Riku: I do too.

Aqua: I agree.

Kairi: Same here and me and Aqua have become close like sisters.

Roxas: That's cool!

Aeleus: It sure is.

Waffle Woman: Good theme. And great bond. Lets go!

She fired syrup and strawberries and they dodged the blasts and went at her and smashed her all over the place and knocked her down.

Tara: All right!

Applejack: YEEHAW! That was a great battle.

---

Battle 5: Edd, Danny Phantom, Sam Manson, Tucker, Pinkie Pie, Maud Pie, Marble Pie, Limestone Pie, Somnambula, Soundwave and Shockwave VS Zs'Skayr

---

Zs'Skayr was next.

Zs'Skayr: (to Iron Boy) I think Gwen did a similar travel through time like what happened this morning.

Edd: She most certainly did.

Danny Phantom: Professor Paradox said that she tried this before by going back in time and trying to return Kevin to what he was before his powers got all warpped like that.

Sam Manson: Yeah it was crazy. But thank goodness he was turned back.

Tucker: It was weird but awesome though.

Pinkie Pie: It sure was. But that shows how strong Kevin and Gwen's love is towards each other.

Maud Pie: (Monotonously) I think it's great. They go great together like Quartz and Calcite.

Marble Pie: They sure do.

Limestone Pie: Yeah they were made for each other even when Kevin was a bad kid if you know what I mean.

Somnambula: (Egyptian Accent) I think romance is amazing and it happens in the most unusual of ways.

Soundwave: I agree.

Shockwave. Same here.

Zs'Skayr: Indeed. Lets do it!

Zs'Skayr fired a wave of dark energy and they dodged the blast and blasted him all over and knocked him down.

Edd: A great battle!

Pinkie Pie: BEST USUAL BATTLE EVER!

---

Battle 6: Spiderman, Xigbar, Xaldin, Vexen, Lexaeus, Zexion, Saīx, Axel, Demyx, Luxord, Marluxia, Larxene, Roxas, Xion, Fluttershy, Tree Hugger, Mage Meadowbrook, Zecora, Discord, Toad Man and Bounce Man VS Vanitas

---

Vanitas was next.

Vanitas: (to Spiderman) So… what's gonna happen to Ms. Bitters?

Spiderman: She is gonna be going to a special bunch of reform classes to get her act together.

Vanitas: I see. Also I see you have all the Organization XIII members with you.

Spiderman: Yep we call it the Good Organization XIII. Instead of using their powers to destroy the entire universe they are using their powers for good and for our usual battles.

Xigbar: I think it's a great idea. Space and Stars will dazzle.

Xaldin: I most agree even if Lori still hates me. Wind will blow away.

Vexen: Always will be glad to help. Ice will freeze.

Lexaeus: Big glad to smash bad. Earth and Rock pounds.

Zexion: It will be so fun. Illusions will be there to drive evil insane.

Saïx: As long as we destroy some bad guys. Moonlight shines on.

Axel: It will be fun as long as we kick butt. Fire will burn!

Demyx: And sing and dance. Water will drench.

Luxord: And have fun with honor. Time moves on.

Marluxia: And enjoy the serenity of nature. Flowers endure.

Larxene: And strike at where it hurts. Lightning strikes all over.

Roxas: And destroy the darkness. Light shines through.

Xion: With the light of good. Feel the light of the sun.

Vanitas: Wow! J.D. made a great theme for this group.

Fluttershy: He sure did and it's very creative.

Tree Hugger: Far out dudes.

Mage Meadowbrook: It's very creative and he probably has a million ideas.

Zecora: A creative mind is one most dear especially with all the usual battles for everyone here.

Discord: And it is amazing that he has so many awesome ideas.

Toad Man: It sure is.

Bounce Man: I think so too.

Vanitas: Indeed. Lets get it on!

Vanitas fired dark fire blasts and they dodged it and went at him and blasted and pulverized him all over and smashed him down.

Spiderman: Another victory for your friendly neighborhood Spiderman!

Fluttershy: That was fun.

Battle 7: Nico, Tai & WarGreymon, Matt & MetalGarurumon, Sora & Phoenixmon, Izzy & HerculesKabuterimon, Mimi & Rosemon, Joe & Vikemon, T.K. & Seraphimon, Kari & Ophanimon, Rainbow Dash, Lightning Dust, Spitfire, Scootaloo, Magma Gloom, Vapor Trail, Sky Stinger, Angel Wings, Soarin, Night Glider, Wind Socks, Cloudkicker, Blossomforth, Derpy Hooves, Flash Magnus, Indigo Zap, Lemon Zest, Sour Sweet, Sunny Flare, Frosty Orange, Vegeta and Shadow VS Myotismon

---

Myotismon was next.

Myotismon: (to Nico) I'm sure Lori, Lynn, and Lola were just trying to help you when they did that time travel stunt.

Nico: Yeah they were. Even if it was to alter the past they should just learn to leave the past alone and learn from it.

Myotismon: I most agree. I see you have all the Digidestined and their Digimon with you.

Nico: Just like old times huh?

Tai: Yeah it brings back a lot of memories.

Matt: That was one of our most intense battles.

Sora: Especially with the battle with you as VenomMyotismon.

Myotismon: That was a very epic battle.

Izzy: But it was most prodigious.

Mimi: And one of our most heroic.

Joe: Boy it sure was.

T.K.: That was also one of the most explosive.

Kari: Yeah it was.

Rainbow Dash: I heard that the with Myotismon, VenomMyotismon and MaloMyotismon were some of the most amazing and most intense battles ever.

Nico: They sure were.

Myotismon: Absolutely. It was an epic trifecta of battles.

Nico: And some of the most unforgettable.

Lightning Dust: You'll have to tell us in full detail how they all went down.

Nico: I will be happy to. But the battle with Myotismon is a dark one because of one thing.

Spitfire: And what was that?

Nico: Wizardmon sacrificed himself.

Kari: Oh yeah.

Scootaloo: Oh no.

Magma Gloom: That's terrible! I'm sorry that happened to you all.

Kari: It's all right.

Vapor Trail: But maybe J.D. can bring him back for you in the future.

Sky Stinger: Yeah if he can bring back a Legendary Pokemon he can most definitely bring back a Digimon like Wizardmon.

Angel Wings: I agree.

Kari: That's a great idea!

Ophanimon: Yeah Wizardmon is like a good friend to all of us.

Soarin: He sure must've been.

Night Glider: I think so too and he would make a great team member.

Wind Socks: Definitely.

Flash Magnus: He has a good heart.

Clockkicker: I agree with that completely.

Blossomforth: Absolutely.

Derpy Hooves: Same here.

Indigo Zap: After everything you went through Wizardmon deserves to be brought back.

Lemon Zest: He is a true friend and the least that you need is to have him back.

Sugarcoat: Absolutely.

Sunny Flare: You got that right.

Sour Sweet: Definitely.

Frosty Orange: I agree.

Vegeta: Indeed.

Shadow: You said it.

Myotismon: I agree. Lets get it on! (Echoing) GRIZLY WING!

He fired a wave of bats.

Nico: (Echoing) TERRA DESTROYER!

Nico fired a huge energy ball and everyone fired energy and elemental blasts and smashed the bats and Myotismon down!

Nico: YEAH!

Rainbow Dash: That was AWESOME!

Battle 8: Donkey Kong, Diddy Kong, Tiny Kong, Dixie Kong, Lanky Kong, Chunky Kong, Cranky Kong, Funky Kong, Candy Kong, Starlight Glimmer, Trixie, Juniper Montage, Clover the Clever, Thorax, Sunburst, Meta Knight and King Dedede VS Grodd

---

Grodd was next.

Grodd: (to Donkey Kong) I think something has to be done about Zim's town.

Donkey Kong: Well we'll have to watch it very closely.

Grodd: I would too. Also I see you have all of the Donkey Kong Crew with you.

Donkey Kong: I sure do. Since 1981 we were popular.

Diddy: So for 40 years.

Tiny: So cool!

Dixie: Awesome! 40 years of great games.

Lanky: Yeah and awesome!

Chunky: Chunky agree.

Cranky: That is quite an awesome series of games.

Funky: Rock on dudes!

Candy: Oh yeah.

Starlight Glimmer: I think it's really cool though.

Trixie: The Great and Powerful Trixie must agree too.

Juniper Montage: I think so too.

Thorax: You said it.

Sunburst: Yeah!

Clover: I think that's cool.

Meta Knight: It sure is and me and King Dedede have been on since 1992.

Grodd: Wow. Video games have evolved a lot over the last 40 years. Lets get it on!

He fired a psychic energy blast and they dodged it and the Donkey Kong Crew blasted him all over with fruit and energy and smashed him down.

Donkey Kong: (Pounds Chest) OOOOOOOOOOOOOOOHHHHHH!

Starlight Glimmer: So fun!

Trixie: Another awesome performance by The Great and Powerful Trixie!

---

Battle 9: Jungle Fury Rangers, Megaforce Rangers, Trixie, Sam S.L. and Luna Loud VS Lepus

---

Lepus was next.

Casey Rhodes: Lets do it!

Jungle Fury Rangers: JUNGLE BEAST! SPIRIT UNLEASHED!

Casey: "With the strength of a Tiger! Jungle Fury Red Ranger!"

Lily: "With the speed of a Cheetah! Jungle Fury Yellow Ranger!"

Theo: "With the stealth of a Jaguar! Jungle Fury Blue Ranger!"

R.J.: "With the courage of a Wolf! Jungle Fury Wolf Ranger!"

Dominic: "With the power of a Rhino! Jungle Fury Rhino Ranger!"

Camille: "With the cunning of a chameleon! Green Chameleon Warrior!"

All: "We summon the Animal Spirits from within! Power Rangers Jungle Fury!"

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off behind them and they were ready for action!

Troy Burrows: Lets double the power!

Megaforce Rangers: LEGENDARY RANGER MODE! JUNGLE FURY!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Jungle Fury Rangers too!

Luna Loud: Rock on dudes!

Sam S.L.: YEAH!

Luna: Lets do it guys!

Casey Rhodes: Time for the Claw Cannon!

The Rangers summoned the Claw Cannon!

Jungle Fury Rangers: CLAW CANNON! POWERED BY ANIMAL SPIRITS!

R.J.: WOLF BEAM!

Dominic: RHINO BLASTER!

The Rangers and the group fired elemental and energy blasts and they hit Lepus and she fell to the ground exploded!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Luna Loud: YEAH! Lepus you have failed this world!

Sam S.L.: Yeah!

Then an aqua blue light appeared on Sam's finger and it formed into a ring with a rabbit gem on it!

Sam S.L.: A Spirit Ring and it's the Rabbit!

Isabelle came.

Isabelle: The Rabbit is a great spirit for you Sam. The Rabbit Spirit represents fear, sexuality, abundance and prosperity, good luck, intuition, spontaneity, wittiness, and many more. It's very perfect for you too.

Then an aqua blue ball of light appeared and it landed in Sam's hand and it was the Rabbit Animal Crystal.

Sam S.L.: The Rabbit Animal Crystal! It chose me!

Isabelle: It sure did. Wow!

Everyone cheered wildly as the usual battles were done.

Me: That was fun!

Zs'Skayr: (to Zim) It's going to be fun having you on the team.

Zim: I agree. Especially since my fellow Irkens are now dead.

Vanitas: I think that might be for the best.

Myotismon: Isn't Earth Day in a few days?

May: Actually, it is.

Grodd: We should probably get ready for it.

Me: Actually it's tomorrow.

Grodd: Whoa! Time sure flew.

Nico: It sure did.

Lola: Yeah it sure did.

Nico: We have a big day tomorrow.

Me: Yep.

May: (To the viewers) This is gonna be awesome for tomorrow. Hope you all are ready for an awesome planet saving adventure tomorrow.

Zim: (To the viewers) It sure will be fun and awesome!

Nico: Yeah!

We later went back home and enjoyed the rest of the day and later went to sleep.

THE END

Another awesome fanfic done.

Invader Zim was a great show and it was so awesome! It aired from March 30, 2001 - August 19, 2006 and it was great! NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyaki12, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658, Etstheclarencefan, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is Earth Day and we're going to be in for an awesome adventure as we go to the world of 2008's WALL-E and take down the evil Autopilot and save the world from a terrible future in the year 2805 A.D.

See you all tomorrow.

Earth Day Adventure in the 29th Century

Rainbow Dash was flying over Ponyville and she had a bag of flyers with her.

Rainbow Dash : Calling all Pegasus ponies! Meeting tonight!

Fluttershy read a flyer and zipped away.

Flitter : [reading] "Mandatory meeting for all Ponyville Pegasi."

Me: Hmm. I wonder what's going on for the Pegasus Ponies.

Nico: No idea but it must be big.

Rainbow Dash : Twilight's Castle, tonight. Be cool or be mule. (Dumps out Flyers) (To a mule) No offense.

Mule : None taken.

Dust Man: You okay, Fluttershy?

Fluttershy was shaking in fright for some reason.

Me: It's all right Fluttershy. You can tell us.

Fluttershy: Oh I can't!

Me: Okay. You can tell us when you are ready. But something is telling me that this meeting that's going on is gonna be big.

Nico: Yeah no kidding.

Later at Twilight's Castle we were gathering for a meeting.

Rainbow Dash : All right, go on in, find a seat. (Did a headcount) [groan] (Goes to a tree) You too, Fluttershy.

The tree had eyes pop open and it was Fluttershy dressed like a tree.

Rainbow Dash: Come on, let's go. (Pushes her)

Daggett: What do you think's wrong with Fluttershy?

Norbert: Maybe she watched a scary movie last night.

Me: I don't think so. I think she has confidence problems.

The movie for the Pegasi got underway. It was an old film projector movie.

Film announcer: Every living thing depends on the life-giving nourishment of rainwater, and it is up to Cloudsdale to provide rain-filled clouds to every corner of Equestria. But how, one pony might ask, does Cloudsdale gather all this extra water? Tornado power! That's right, Pegasi-driven tornado power.

Me: Whoa! So that's how they get all the water for the Weather Factory up to it.

Nico: Wow! That must take a lot of power.

Film Announcer: A team of Pegasi combine their wing power to create a jumbo tornado, powerful enough to pull water out of the local reservoir and funnel it all the way up to Cloudsdale. Remember, Pegasi, your jumbo tornado must reach a minimum of eight hundred wing power to lift that water up to Cloudsdale.

Me: Wow! 800 Wing Power?

Lincoln: That's incredible.

Film Announcer: So, the next time you're wondering "Where does all that extra rainwater come from?", just remem-

The film burned out and was broken.

Pegasi: [confused chatter]

Spike: Uh… intermission?

Nico: I think they needed to update that movie anyway.

Rainbow Dash : So, here's the scoop. Cloudsdale has chosen our own highland reservoir as a source of the rainwater they need for all of Equestria. And you know what that means. It means it's up to Ponyville's Pegasi to bring that water up to Cloudsdale.

Pegasi : [excited chatter]

Me: Wow! That is gonna be a challenge.

Rainbow Dash : Not only that, but Spitfire, captain of the Wonderbolts, will be here to oversee the water transfer and record our top tornado windspeed. Now last year, Fillydelphia broke the windspeed record with a top speed of nine hundred and ten wing power.

Lincoln: Whoa! 910!?

Lola: That is amazing!

Nico: No kidding!

Rainbow Dash: It sure is. But I think we can do better. I think we can get a top speed over a thousand!

Me: Whoa!

Pegasi : [excited chatter]

Me: That would take an incredible amount of speed and power.

Rainbow Dash :… if each and every pony trains, and trains hard to get their wing power numbers up.

Me: This is gonna be an awesome challenge.

Thunderlane : [coughing]

Rainbow Dash : That coughing better be from a popcorn kernel, Thunderlane. Nopony's getting sick on my watch. So, are we gonna train hard?

Pegasi : Yeah!

Rainbow Dash : Are we gonna be strong?

Pegasi : Yeah!

Rainbow Dash : Are we gonna be fast?

Pegasi : Yeah!

Rainbow Dash : Record-smashing fast?

Bulk Biceps : YEAH!

Rainbow Dash : Who's with me?

Pegasi : Woo-hoo! [cheering]

We cheered!

She saw Fluttershy not there.

Rainbow Dash : Fluttershy!

Later we were training hard for the record smashing spin.

Maria: I can always solve this problem with my water powers.

Energon Scorponok: Or we can have Weather Wizard and Vortex help us with this.

Me: All good ideas but I want to see how the Pegasi do it. This is gonna be so cool!

Eli: Yeah it sure will! Besides it will be cool to see them use a tornado like that.

Ets: I think so too.

Me: Besides it will give us a great opportunity to show how fast we are with our Wing Power.

Rainbow Dash: Stretch those glutes, Flitter! Nice flexibility, Cloud Chaser. A… little too much flexibility, Blossomforth. Uh, somepony give Blossomforth a hoof. (Laney and Lola helped Blossomforth)

Let's see some faster trotting, Thunderlane! Good pace, Silverspeed! [blows whistle] Keep it up! We're gonna need all the wing power we can get to break that record!

Bulk Biceps: YEAH! [snorts]

Me: (Doing Wing Pushups) Love that spirit Bulk.

Rainbow Dash: Good work, everypony! [under her breath] Everypony except Fluttershy.

Me: We better go check on her.

Later we went to Fluttershy's Cottage.

Rainbow Dash : [knocking] Fluttershy? I know you're in there! You're avoiding tornado duty and I want to know why! Fluttershy, open-

The door opened and Fluttershy came out and she had a bunch of spots all over her.

Me: Oh man.

Fluttershy : Achoo. Hi, Rainbow Dash. [coughs weakly]

Rainbow Dash : Fluttershy, what happened to you?

Fluttershy : Oh, I [sniffs] I think I have [coughs weakly] the pony pox. I'm sorry. I really, really wanted to come to training day today [coughs weakly], but this pony pox has really knocked me for a loop. Achoo. [coughs weakly]

Rainbow Dash : Oh, you poor thing. You know, there's only one cure for pony pox.

Fluttershy : I know, plenty of bed- [splash]

She dumped water on her.

Fluttershy : [yelps]

Rainbow Dash : Cold water! Those pony pox are clearing right up.

Me: Rainbow Dash was that really necessary? Getting her wet like that will REALLY give her a cold.

Fluttershy : Oh, y'know, all of a sudden, I'm, I'm starting to feel better. [laughs nervously] I'll just get out of these robes and- (Feigns a trip) ow ! Oh, my wing, oh, ow, it's hurt. I guess I can't fly after all-

Rainbow Dash : [blows whistle]

Fluttershy : [yelps]

Rainbow Dash : Messed up wing, huh? Stop horsing around, Fluttershy. We've got a lot of training to do.

Me: Fluttershy is there something wrong?

Fortress Maximus: Fluttershy, please tell us what's wrong.

Rainbow Dash: Come on now, what's going on?

Rainbow Dash: Yeah. What's going on?

Fluttershy: Well, y'see, uh, well… oh, Rainbow Dash, I just can't do it! I can't fly!

Rainbow Dash: What are you talking about? Just last week you went into that wicked nose dive to save that falling baby bird right before it hit the ground!

Laney: Yeah that was very heroic.

Fluttershy: But that was different, that was an emergency! This whole tornado thing, it's more like a performance, and you know how I hate performing in front of others. Don't you remember flight camp? I couldn't gallop hard or fly fast, not with everypony looking at me!

Hinata: Oh Fluttershy.

Rainbow Dash: It wasn't that bad.

Fluttershy: You're right, Rainbow Dash, it wasn't bad. It was horrible!

A flashback shows a Filly Fluttershy at Flight Camp.

Filly Fluttershy: [gasping] [yelps]

She was pushed over the edge and fell and plopped into a cloud.

Fluttershy: [voiceover] The other foals used to tease me, a lot!

Foals: [chanting] Fluttershy, Fluttershy, Fluttershy can hardly fly! [repeats, begins echoing, then stops]

Flashback ended.

Me: We're gonna have to have a very serious talk with those kids.

Nico: Yeah that is sick. But they might be grown up by now.

Fluttershy: I just can't risk that sort of humiliation again.

Hinata: Fluttershy.

Hinata hugged her.

Hinata: Fluttershy I know just how you feel. Back when I was younger I had a lot of confidence problems when I started out as a shinobi. I was mocked and humiliated a lot for it all the time. But there was one person that was always there for me to show my true self.

Me: And that was Naruto.

Naruto: That's right Fluttershy. I helped Hinata overcome her confidence issues.

Me: You need to not let what those stupid kids said to you get to you like that. They don't have any idea what they are talking about.

Rainbow Dash: That's right! Suck it up, Fluttershy! This is no time for- I mean, confidence or no confidence, I'm gonna need every Pegasus to break the record, including you. I need every ounce of wing power I can get.

Fluttershy: Oh, I-I don't think so, Rainbow Dash…

Me: Come on Fluttershy. You can do it. You have someone who knows how you feel. Hinata.

Hinata: Yeah.

Rainbow Dash : [sighs] Thanks anyway.

She floated off.

Fluttershy : Wait. I'll do it.

Rainbow Dash : You will?

Fluttershy : I will.

Rainbow Dash : You're game?

Fluttershy : I'm game.

Rainbow Dash : Alright!

Me: Don't worry Fluttershy we'll be with you.

Twilight Sparkle had a machine with her.

[anemometer squeaking]

Cloud Chaser : What exactly does this machine do?

Twilight Sparkle : This is an anemometer. It measures your accelerative velocity and translates it into wing power, thus gauging your cumulative H2O anti-gravitational potential. Any other questions?

Flitter : Yeah. [to Spike] What exactly does this machine do?

Spike : It tells you how fast you're flying and how strong your wings are.

Me: It's like a Speedometer for Wing Power. Like how fast you're going in a car but with wing power.

Pegasi : [Oooh. Okay, yeah.] [cough]

Twilight Sparkle : Is that you again, Thunderlane? Please, we need to have a germ-free environment.

Thunderlane : It wasn't me, it was Blossomforth.

Rainbow Dash : Don't worry, Twilight. Thunderlane's just cooking up an excuse to spend tornado day in bed. Why don't you get over here and be our first test flyer, Thunderlane?

Me: You heard her!

He flew over.

Blossomforth : [coughs]

Thunderlane : [revving sounds] (He flew fast and went passed the Anemometer) [anemometer squeaking]

Twilight Sparkle : We have 9.3 wing power.

Pegasi : Wow! That's fast!

Bulk Biceps : YEAH!

Me: Very impressive.

Rainbow Dash : Not bad, not bad. (Rainbow Dash went over to the line and stretched) [joints cracking] [revving sounds] (She flew REALLY FAST passed the Anemometer and we REALLY FELT THAT ONE) [anemometer squeaking]

Twilight Sparkle : 16.5 wing power!

Me: WHOA! That's powerful!

Nico: AWESOME!

Pegasi : [cheering]

Me: Let me see what I got.

I went over to the line.

Me: Here we go.

I revved up my wings and flew fast with the speed of a hypersonic jet and went passed the Anemometer and it was like measuring the speed and strength of the shockwave of a thermonuclear explosion and it blew some of the Pegasi back.

Twilight Sparkle: WHOA! 520.7 WING POWER!

All the Pegasi jawdropped and then cheered wildly!

Rainbow Dash: WHOA! J.D. that was AWESOME! 520 Wing Power all by yourself!? That's amazing!

Applejack: YEEHAW! That was amazing J.D.!

Nico: WOW! That was incredible!

Eli: Way to go bro!

Lola: YEAH!

Luan: YAY J.D.!

Me: That was intense! I didn't know I could flap my wings that fast let alone have that much wing power.

Eli: Yeah that was incredible!

Nico: Yeah it sure was!

Rainbow Dash : Now listen up! If each of you can get your numbers up to at least 10.0 wing power by the end of the week, we'll no doubt set a new tornado speed record. We'll be number one!

Me: And with all of us helping you we ALL will be number one! Angels and Pegasi.

Pegasi : [cheering]

Hinata: It's all right Fluttershy. You can do this.

[anemometer squeaking]

Each Pegasus was measured and it was awesome.

Rainbow Dash : Impressive.

Me: 11.0 for Thunderlane? That's great!

Nico: It sure is.

Rainbow Dash: Fluttershy, your turn. [blows whistle]

"Tornado Bolt" : [wings buzzing]

Hinata: You can do it Fluttershy!

Fluttershy : [takes deep breath]

Flitter and Cloud Chaser : [laughing]

Me and Nico glared at them.

Me: (GROWLS)

Cloud Chaser and Flitter gulped.

Foals : [echoing] Fluttershy, Fluttershy, Fluttershy can hardly fly…

I Heard the kids laughing in her mind and saying that.

Me: HEY SHUT UP IN THERE KIDS!

She slowed down and stopped.

[anemometer squeaking and clicking]

Twilight Sparkle : [hushed] Tell her!

Rainbow Dash : [hushed] No, you tell her!

Twilight Sparkle : [hushed] No, you!

Rainbow Dash : Um… great job, Fluttershy! You measured, uh, uh, .5.

Spike : .5? Isn't that like… less than one? [bonk]

Spike : Ow!

Me: Quiet Spike.

Foals : [echoing] Fluttershy, Fluttershy, Fluttershy can hardly fly! [repeats] [demonic laughter]

I heard them taunting her.

Me: HEY SHUT UP IN THERE!

Nico: Uh oh!

Tornado Bolt: Who are you talking to J.D.?

Me: Sorry I have this power to hear thoughts and memories.

Tornado Bolt: That's incredible.

Fluttershy ran crying.

Me: Oh no!

Fluttershy : [crying]

Rainbow Dash : Fluttershy, wait! So some punks poked a little fun at you and you got stage fright, big deal. You aren't gonna go quit just because of that, are you?

Fluttershy : [crying] Yes!

POOR FLUTTERSHY.

Rainbow Dash : But I need you!

Fluttershy : I'm sorry, Rainbow Dash, I just [between sobs] don't have the courage right now…

Fluttershy ran.

Me: Hinata you better go after her.

Hinata: Right!

Hinata went after her.

Laney: Poor Fluttershy.

Lincoln: All because some stupid kids poked fun at her for being a weak flyer.

Lori: I will literally turn those kids into pony pretzels for this!

Lynn: And pulverize them into pulp!

Lola: YEAH!

Mandy snapped her fingers and they sounded like gunshots.

BANG!

Mandy: Down you badgers!

Me: Nice job Mandy.

At a tree Fluttershy was crying as Hinata and animals were comforting her.

POOR FLUTTERSHY.

Hinata: Oh Fluttershy. Don't let those kids humiliating you get to you like that.

Fluttershy: (Cries hard) IT WAS AWFUL HINATA!

Hinata: I know Fluttershy. But you were just nervous.

Fluttershy : [squeaks] [crying] [squirrel chittering]

Hinata: Oh Fluttershy.

She pat her and comforted her and a squirrel gave her an acorn.

Fluttershy : [sniffles] Oh, thank you, but I'm afraid a couple of little acorns won't solve my big flying problem. [duck quacking]

Hinata: It's gonna be all right Fluttershy.

Fluttershy : I tried, but you should've seen those ponies laughing at me… [birds chirping]

Hinata: Don't let those dingaling ponies get to you Fluttershy. You are a great flyer.

Fluttershy : I know. I know it's important to have confidence in myself… [badger squeaking]

Hinata: And you have plenty of it Fluttershy.

Fluttershy : Yes, yes, I do remember. The river was swelling… [badger squeaking]… and you were scared… [badger squeaking]… yes, I did tell you to never give up… and to believe in yourself.

Hinata: See Fluttershy? You have your animal friends to be there for you. And you have me to help you too.

Fluttershy: You're right, my friends. I shouldn't give up. I will get my confidence up and show everypony that I am a good flyer! (Flies up to the sky) A great flyer!

Hinata: That's the spirit Fluttershy!

[animal noises]

(HEARTS ON FIRE PLAYS)

Hinata was in a Jonin Uniform and she was training Fluttershy into the ground and into the sky. She was getting her into ninja skills, flying skills and more and really getting her going. She was sweating so much that she was making puddles of sweat in the ground. But she was getting stronger and stronger and stronger. She got so fast that she could blow a bunch of seeds off a bunch of dandelions in one fell swoop. The animals and Hinata cheered for her.

Hinata: Fluttershy you are ready.

Fluttershy: You make a great Jonin Sensei, Hinata.

[anemometer squeaking]

Twilight Sparkle : That's wonderful, Flitter. Much better than yesterday.

Rainbow Dash : This is crazy awesome! We're gonna smash that record!

Me: Yeah we are!

Lola: Some of us have crazy fast wing power all on our own.

Lori: We literally sure do.

Miranda: Maybe instead of on the upcoming mission, we can use the elemental themes for the usual battles for another time.

Me: Good idea. This time we'll do it by color for the Lantern Corps.

Nico: Nice.

Me: But first lets help Fluttershy get her confidence problem overcome.

[squirrel chittering]

Spike : What did he say?

Twilight Sparkle : Do I look like I speak squirrel?

Spike : What's that ?

[montage music resumes]

Me: It's Fluttershy!

Nico: And it looks like she is ready!

Hinata: Go get it Fluttershy!

She flew fast and went passed the Anemometer.

[anemometer squeaking]

Fluttershy : 2.3? 2.3?!

Me: This thing probably needs oil.

Fluttershy: That has to be some kind of mistake! I worked so hard!

Twilight Sparkle : Fluttershy, that's a huge improvement!

Me: Yeah it sure is!

Hinata: You did really well Fluttershy.

Nico: Yeah!

Rainbow Dash : You did awesome, Fluttershy.

Fluttershy : No, I didn't. I thought I'd gotten over my nerves, but they still got the best of me! There's no way I'll fly with 10.0 wing power tomorrow!

Me: Yes you CAN Fluttershy.

Hinata: We believe in you.

Rainbow Dash : So you won't fly with 10.0 wing power. Every bit counts!

Fluttershy : How would you feel if everypony else was flying with 10.0 wing power and you were flying with 2.5?

Spike : Actually, it was only 2.3, and- (Twilight bonks him on his head) ow! [zipping noise]

Me: Not helping Spike.

Rainbow Dash : Well, uh… I'd feel… um…

Fluttershy : Exactly! Humiliated! [between sobs] I'm sorry, Rainbow Dash, I just can't do it!

She went off.

Hinata: Whatever those kids did to her really scarred her.

Me: Poor Fluttershy.

Spike : It's okay, Rainbow Dash, you've still got plenty of wing power for your tornado.

Me: Yeah you still have us. All of us combined together can get the water up there with no problem.

Spike: Yeah! You'll be able to lift tons of water up to Cloudsdale!

Rainbow Dash : [sighs] If only there was a way to lift Fluttershy out of the dumps.

Me: Yeah. I wish there was.

Later it was time for the big day. We were at the local reservoir and had a giant anemometer fan ready and Cloudsdale was above us.

I saluted Spitfire as she landed.

[ponies cheering]

Me: Ponyville Pegasi and Team Loud Phoenix Storm ready for action Captain Spitfire, ma'am!

Spitfire: At ease.

Rainbow Dash : Are we ready to do this?

Pegasi : Yeah! [cheering]

Spike : Look!

We saw that Thunderlane was not present.

Rainbow Dash : Lazy Thunderlane! Where is he?! He's been trying to get out of tornado duty the whole time with his fake coughing and all. Rumble, where's your lazy brother?

Rumble : He's got the feather flu. He's down at Ponyville Hospital.

Me: Oh man of all the times to get sick!

Spike : But he's not the only one.

A bunch of Pegasi were sick with the Feather Flu!

Twilight Sparkle : Let's see, with those eight sick Pegasi out with the feather flu… [gasp] Oh no!

Rainbow Dash : Don't tell me we won't be able to break the windspeed record?

Twilight Sparkle : No…

Rainbow Dash : Phew!

Twilight Sparkle :… You might not have enough wing power for the Pegasi to create a tornado powerful enough to lift the water to Cloudsdale!

Spike : Well, should we pack up?

Me: No. We still have enough wing power. In fact we have MORE than enough.

We spread our wings.

Rainbow Dash: AWESOME! Cloudsdale still needs water and we won't give up! Okay, everypony! Let's give it all we've got!

Me: Lets do it!

Rainbow Dash: YEAH! On the sound of the horn, we take off!

Nico: Roger!

Eli: LETS DO IT!

Twilight Sparkle : [taps giant anemometer]

Maria: Here we go!

Me: The Pegasi will fly first and when it reaches 795 Wing Power we fly in.

Nico: Roger!

Spike : [takes deep breath, blows horn]

HHHHOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The flew into the air and spun in a tight circle really fast.

[wind howling]

[giant anemometer squeaking]

Spike : You think they're gonna make it to eight hundred wing power?

Twilight Sparkle : I sure hope so! One hundred and fifty wing power.

It was rising fast!

Twilight Sparkle: Two hundred and fifty wing power. Five hundred wing power! [water churning]

Me: GET READY GUYS!

Twilight Sparkle : Seven hundred and fifty wing power!

Fluttershy came.

Fluttershy : Twilight!

Twilight Sparkle : Fluttershy! What are you doing here?!

Fluttershy : I figured… if I couldn't help Rainbow Dash with the tornado… the least I could do was offer moral support!

Twilight Sparkle : She could sure use it, considering eight Pegasi are sick with the feather flu!

Fluttershy : Oh no! That's terrible news!

The water was getting sucked up and then a bunch of sweat came and made the Tornado unstable and knock the pegasi down and sent them flying and crashing all over!

[water splashing]

[crunch]

Rainbow Dash flew into a tree.

Pegasi : Whoa! [etc.] [splash]

Rainbow Dash : Yaa- oof!

Twilight Sparkle : Are you okay?

Rainbow Dash : [muffled] I'm fine!

Twilight Sparkle : Oh, you were so close to the eight hundred wing power minimum!

I pulled Rainbow Dash out of the tree and Varie looked her over.

Me: Yeah that was a good effort!

Fluttershy: I'm sorry, Rainbow Dash.

Rainbow Dash : Rbbbb- We've got to try again!

Varie: You'll be all right Rainbow.

Twilight Sparkle : But you've pushed your crew to their limit already!

Twilight held her back with her magic.

Rainbow Dash : [yelps]

Twilight Sparkle : If you break apart again, somepony could get hurt! You should quit, it's not safe!

Me: As much as I don't want to agree with that, I'm afraid she's right.

Rainbow Dash : No! One more time! I've gotta know we gave it our all! If I'm going down, I'm going down flying! C'mon, ponies, let's make this happen!

Pegasi : [cheering]

Bulk Biceps : YEAH!

Me: Got to admire her spirit.

Spike : [blows horn]

HHHHHHOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Here we go!

The Pegasi spun around and another tornado formed.

[wind howling]

[giant anemometer squeaking]

Twilight Sparkle : Okay, here we go… one hundred wing power! Two hundred! Five hundred!

Rainbow Dash : Stay in position! Flap those wings! Faster!

Twilight Sparkle : Seven hundred! Seven hundred and fifty wing power!

Spike hit the anemometer!

Spike : [yelps] They fell apart right after this!

Fluttershy : Oh, I'm too nervous to look!

Rainbow Dash : C'mon! Just a little harder! I can see the water trying to funnel through!

Twilight Sparkle : Seven ninety five!

Me: NOW!

We flew up and got into the funnel and spun around!

Twilight Sparkle: We are so close! Fluttershy, they need you up there!

Fluttershy : I won't make a difference!

Twilight Sparkle : You can make a difference!

Fluttershy : My measly 2.3 wing power is still too little!

Spike : It's sticking at seven ninety five! I don't know if they've got any more in 'em!

Twilight Sparkle : Do it for Equestria! Do it for Rainbow Dash! Do it for yourself!

Twilight gave her goggles.

Fluttershy : [gulps] [yelps]

Twilight Sparkle : It's moving! She's doing it! Seven ninety eight! She surpassed her best wing power number!

Foals : [echoing] Fluttershy, Fluttershy, Fluttershy can hardly fly! [laughs]

Fluttershy : No!

"Serenity" : What was that?

"Slipstream" : I think it was Fluttershy!

Me: LETS DO IT!

WE FLEW INCREDIBLY FAST AND THE ANEMOMETER ACCELERATED AND SURPASSED 1000 AND BLEW THE WATER UP TO CLOUDSDALE LIKE IT WAS BEING SHOT OUT OF A CANNON AND FLOWING INTO THE WEATHER FACTORY!

[anemometer beeping] [splash]

Twilight Sparkle : She did it! She did it! They all did it!

The water was sucked out of the reservoir like water through a drinking straw!

Spike : [blows horn]

Pegasi : [cheering]

We separated and landed and it was awesome!

Me: THAT WAS AWESOME!

Fluttershy was spinning around and Rainbow Dash used a cloud like a pillow and stopped her.

Rainbow Dash : Whoa, girl, take it easy!

Fluttershy : Whuh, what? Did we do it?

Rainbow Dash : Yeah, we did it! You did it! We ALL DID IT!

Fluttershy and Rainbow Dash : Ah!

They wing five!

Flitter : Great job, Fluttershy, that was awesome!

Cloud Chaser : Yeah, we couldn't have done it without you.

Spitfire : Nice job, Rainbow Dash and you too Team Loud Phoenix Storm. You all have shattered the record at 10,235 Wing Power! That is a massive record! You not only shattered the record but you showed a lot of guts.

Me: Thanks captain.

Rainbow Dash : Thanks, but if you wanna talk guts, then you've gotta give it to my number one flyer, Fluttershy! Let's hear it for Fluttershy!

Me: YEAH!

Pegasi : [chanting] Fluttershy! Fluttershy! Fluttershy can really fly! [cheering]

Hinata had tears of joy for her.

Me: WAY TO GO FLUTTERSHY!

Lincoln: That's my awesome girl!

Fluttershy : Dear Princess Celestia, Sometimes you can feel like what you have to offer is too little to make a difference, but today, I learned that everypony's contribution is important, no matter how small. If you just keep your head high, do your best, and believe in yourself, anything can happen. [Cloudsdale chugging]

We were back home.

Me: That was so awesome!

Nico: Yeah it was!

Lola: Wow! That was incredible!

Rarity: It was most fun darling!

Applejack: YEEHAW! Fluttershy and all of us did great!

Pinkie Pie: We sure did! It was awesome!

Miranda: Okay. Now that Fluttershy's confidence problem is restored, who's up for celebrating Earth Day?

We all cheered wildly for that!

Nico: Yeah! Lets do it!

Laney: It's amazing that we shattered the record for the most powerful level of wing power.

Me: Yeah! 10,235 Wing Power. Good luck trying to beat that.

Rainbow Dash: Yeah! That was AWESOME!

Vanitas, Dark Spicer, Vypra, Myotismon, Number 7, Zs'Skayr, Waffle Woman and Grodd then appeared.

Vanitas: Can me, Dark, Vypra, Myotismon, Number 7, Zs'Skayr, Waffle Woman, and Grodd go with you guys?

Me: You all sure can. But first I want to show you all something.

I went to the trophy case and came back with our Earth Day trophy.

Twilight Sparkle: Wow! That must be your Earth Day trophy.

Me: It sure is. I remember how proud we all were to get this trophy. It took 8 days of work, blood, sweat and tears to get this awesome trophy and to help the Earth and clean it all up and restore the forests.

Lincoln: Yeah that was an awesome series of adventures.

Laney: And one of our most charitable weeks ever.

Nico: I will never forget that. That was so awesome.

Earth: Yeah it sure was.

I put the trophy back.

Me: Lets head out. We're going to the Great Lakes to clean them all up.

Nico: Awesome.

We were off to the Great Lakes and we were cleaning up the entirety of the Great Lakes and we found lots of buried treasure worth a flipping ton and fortune and more.

Later after we cleaned up the lakes we went back home.

Me: Now for an awesome Earth Day Adventure.

Maria: Why don't we go to WALL-E's world?

Me: Great idea Maria. But first to get a lay of the land lets watch the movie.

Nico: Awesome! I love WALL-E.

We went and watched WALL-E from 2008.

---

In the 29th century, rampant consumerism and environmental neglect have turned Earth into a garbage-strewn wasteland; humanity is nowhere to be found and has been evacuated by the megacorporation Buy-n-Large (BnL) on giant starliners seven centuries earlier. Of all the Waste Allocation Load-Lifter: Earth-class (WALL-E) robots left by BnL to clean up, only one remains operational. One day, WALL-E's routine of compressing trash and collecting interesting objects is broken by the arrival of an unmanned probe carrying an Extraterrestrial Vegetation Evaluator (E.V.E.) robot, sent to scan the planet for human-sustainable life. WALL-E is smitten by the sleek, otherworldly robot, and the two begin to connect until EVE goes into standby when WALL-E shows her his most recent find: a living seedling. The probe then collects EVE and the plant, and-with WALL-E clinging on-returns to its mothership, the starliner Axiom.

In the centuries since the Axiom left Earth, its passengers have degenerated into helpless corpulence due to laziness and microgravity, their every whim catered to by machinery; even the captain, B. McCrea, is used to sitting back while his robotic steering wheel AUTO flies the ship. McCrea is unprepared to receive the positive probe response, but discovers that placing the plant in the ship's Holo-Detector will trigger a hyperjump back to Earth so humanity can begin recolonization. Upon inspecting EVE's storage compartment, however, the plant is missing, and EVE blames WALL-E for its disappearance.

EVE is deemed faulty and taken to Diagnostics. Mistaking the process for torture, WALL-E intervenes, causing him and EVE to be designated as rogues. Frustrated, EVE tries to send WALL-E home in an escape pod, but they witness AUTO's gopherbot GO-4 stowing the stolen plant in a pod set to self-destruct. WALL-E saves the plant, and he and EVE reconcile and celebrate with a dance in space around the Axiom.

EVE brings the plant back to McCrea, who watches EVE's recordings of Earth and concludes that they have to go back.

However, AUTO is revealed to be loyal only to his own secret no-return directive A-113-issued after BnL incorrectly concluded centuries ago that the planet could not be saved-even when McCrea countermands it; AUTO mutinies with GO-4 as a result, electrocuting and frying WALL-E's circuit board, putting EVE into standby, throwing them both down the garbage chute, and locking McCrea in his quarters. EVE and WALL-E are nearly ejected into space along with the ship's trash but are saved by a Microbe Obliterator robot named M-O, who has been following WALL-E's dirt trail across the ship. As humans and robots help in securing the plant, McCrea and AUTO fight for control, resulting in WALL-E being crushed in the Holo-Detector when he tries to keep it open; McCrea eventually overpowers and deactivates AUTO, and the plant is inserted into the Holo-Detector, initiating the hyperjump.

Arriving back on Earth, EVE repairs WALL-E but finds that his memory has been reset and his personality is gone. Heartbroken, E.V.E. gives WALL-E a farewell kiss, which sparks his memory and restores his original personality. WALL-E and EVE reunite as the inhabitants of the Axiom take their first steps on Earth. During the credits, humans and robots turn the ravaged planet into a paradise, and the plant is shown to have grown into a mighty tree.

---

When the movie was done we cheered wildly.

Me: That movie was awesome!

Nico: I always love that movie!

Me: Me too! Lets get going to the Simulator.

We cheered and did so.

---

In the Simulator we got ready and we were ready for anything. The Simulator activated and we found ourselves in a world that was horrifically filthy and disgusting. We were in the year 2805, 784 years into the future and it was a horrible place. EVERYTHING was completely covered from top to bottom in tons and tons and tons and tons of garbage and filth! Everything on land, air and sea was innundated with filth!

---

Before 2105 AD : During the middle 21st century, the Buy n Large corporation assumed control of the planet's entire economy, including various world governments.

2105 AD : The population had reached to around 200 billion. After Buy n Large gave the right for everyone to spend and buy, the planet soon came to the position that there was no place to properly dispose the waste. After Buy n Large failed to dispose all that trash they created an "amazing plan", that they thought the best and would work, called "Operation Cleanup". The plan was to evacuate all of the population (except some who stayed behind for maintenance) away in different regions of space.

Whilst back on Earth, WALL•E ( W aste A llocation L oad L ifter: E arth class) robots and huge mobile incinerators would take charge of cleaning up. Thousands of Starliners, including the Axiom, were built all around the world, so that people would live safe and happy far from "Home" in the comfort and the luxury of the Starliners. Operation Cleanup success would be followed by "Operation Recolonize". However back on Earth the toxin levels began rising and many WALL•Es were failing. After the CEO of BNL that time Shelby Forthright saw that his plan was failing and everything was becoming worse, so he ordered all of the WALL•E robots to be shut down (except for one) and to evacuate all of the remaining population left. He also secretly sent the A113 Directive to all Autos in the year 2110 to cancel Operation Recolonize as he deemed that Earth would never support life anymore.

Earth was left without population, and the toxins also destroyed all plant and animal life (although it's possible that some animals survived somehow). Aboard the Starliners, over the centuries, each new generation of humans grew more and more obese, losing bone mass in the process, due to over exposure to micro or artificial gravity and instead relying on hover chairs for to move around the ships. They also started to forget about "Home".

2805 AD : The last remaining WALL•E unit continued to obey his directive every day and doing the same job over and over: creating small cubes from trash and building colossal towers from them, while there were no humans to start the incinerators. Earth was covered in trash and suffered from sandstorms and torrential downpours. One day, however, the Axiom (one of the biggest BNL Starliners ever made) sent out a probe ship to Earth in the exact city where the Axiom was launched over 700 years ago. An EVE unit ( E xtraterrestrial V egetation E valuator) was deployed from the probe ship and began an operation in search of plant life.

The unit was successful in finding an example of positive plant life with help of the last WALL•E. The plant caused the unit to shut down which alerted the probe ship to come back for transport to the Axiom . This plant was successful and proved that plants where indeed growing in city ruins. The plant was placed in the holodetector so that the Axiom made an automated hyperjump back on Earth. Later after these events, humans began rebuilding again with the help of robots making Earth cleaner and greener as ever before.

Me: Oh man! What the hell happened here!?

Galaxy Man: My God. It's like there's no sign of life at all.

Me: This is horrible! I can't believe that Earth is this badly destroyed! It's a massive junkyard!

Nico: This is a catastrophe!

Lola: It's disgusting!

Lana: I like it!

Varie: Figures you would Lana.

Laney: And at 784 years into the future. This is awful!

Me: We turned Earth into a total cesspool. But maybe we can clean all this up.

A robot came and it was none other than WALL-E!

Number 7: (to WALL-E) Greetings, fellow robot.

WALL-E: Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's an honor to meet you.

Me: You too WALL-E.

Sora: What does WALL-E stand for?

Me: It stands for Waste Allocation Load-Lifter: Earth-class.

Lola: Wow! That's interesting.

Me: WALL-E it's a pleasure to meet you.

WALL-E: Same here. I love all your adventures.

Me: I'm glad. But it's just awful that everything like this happened to the world.

Nico: No kidding. This is a nightmare.

Lana: I think it's cool.

Maria: Wait a minute. WALL-E, how are you speaking in complete sentences?

WALL-E: I've had some modifications.

Me: Wow!

Sora: I helped him when I was here the last time.

WALL-E: And I am forever grateful for that Sora. You are really skilled in robotics.

Me: Wow! That is great Sora!

Aqua: Nice job bro.

Kairi: My awesome husband is great and talented.

WALL-E: Wow! Sora congratulations.

Sora: Thanks WALL-E.

Me: We are very proud of him.

Muscle Man: You know who else likes to pick up trash? My mom!

Lasher: And so does everyone else.

Me: Like Lana and all of us. Lets see if we can clean up all this and salvage and recycle everything.

Nico: Good idea.

Me: And to make it get done faster. MULTI SHADOW CLONE JUTSU!

Naruto: MULTI SHADOW CLONE JUTSU!

Eli: MULTI SHADOW CLONE JUTSU!

Nico: MULTI SHADOW CLONE JUTSU!

Hunter: (German Accent) MULTI SHADOW CLONE JUTSU!

We made numerous Shadow Clones and fanned out and we were cleaning up the world all over with incredible speed.

Waffle Woman: (chuckles nervously) Well, at least there's no more evil in the Earth now.

Me: On Earth but not all over the universe.

Waffle Woman: Good point.

Lori and Lana put the last of the garbage bags full of garbage on top of a massive pile of garbage bags that was as tall as Mount Everest and we were sweating up a storm.

Me: WHEW!

Lori: I think that's literally the last of it.

Nico: Yeah and look at all these recyclable materials we collected.

We had massive piles of glass, plastic, newspapers, everything.

Me: We're doing really well.

Laney: And the plants and flowers and trees have all been restored,

Fluttershy: And all the animals are coming back.

May: Wait. Where are all the humans?

WALL-E: They all evacuated and are up in space.

Me: That's right they all left because of Rampant Consumerism and Environmental Neglect.

Nico: That's terrible.

Me: Yeah. (To Rainbow Dash on the Radio) Rainbow Dash, Have you finished collecting all the satellites and space junk for salvage?

Rainbow Dash: (On the radio) We sure have J.D. And let me tell you there is a lot of it.

Rainbow Dash and the Wonderbolts all came and brought lots and lots of bags full of satellite equipment and space junk.

Nico: WHOA! That's a lot of junk in the skies.

Varie: No kidding.

Nicole: But it's perfect for salvage and stuff.

Acid Man: I believe the humans would probably send a scout to find out the state of Earth.

Me: And with us here and how we restored the entire planet to normal so fast they would probably come back in a heartbeat.

WALL-E: But something must be going on. I hope E.V.E. is all right.

Me: Then we better get to the Axiom Colony. Lisa deploy the U.S.S.

Valorous Phoenix.

Lisa Loud: Affirmative.

WALL-E: Lets do it!

We had the ship come and were on our way to the Axion Colony.

---

The U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix was flying through space.

Me: Captain's Log, Stardate 2931.3: The U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix is en route to the Axion Colony and help them get back to Earth for Recolonization. We are gonna be in for an awesome adventure.

Nico: We sure are.

Lola: I can't wait to have fun with this one.

Me: Me too.

Lisa Loud: J.D. sensors are showing a colony ship off the port bow.

Me: On screen.

The screen showed the Axion.

Me: That must be it. Initiate docking procedures.

We got the dock procedures done and went onto the ship and it was incredible.

Zs'Skayr: So this is the Axiom?

Me: It sure is. Wow! It's just as amazing as our ship.

Laney: Yeah.

Nico: It's like a city colony.

Me: All the other humans must be all over the solar system in colonies like this.

Varie: Maybe.

Eli: But it's amazing that all the ships are like this.

Ets: They sure are cool. Very remarkable feats of engineering.

Lola: Yeah they are.

We walked around and we saw a bunch of robots doing something.

Laney: Wonder what they are doing.

Me: Lets go see.

E.V.E.: WALL-E!

WALL-E: E.V.E.!

They hugged.

E.V.E.: It's great to see you and it's an honor to meet you Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: Same here E.V.E.

We went over and saw what the robots were doing. Giganta, Maria, William, and Lincoln saw that robots were making a robotic version of Lincoln.

Axiom Spokesmodel: (on a monitor) Robo Lincoln, inspired by Lincoln Loud, but better in every way.

Lincoln: (angry) What? Son of a… !

Maria: No, no! Lincoln, You gotta calm down!

William: It might be too late for that!

Giganta: Stop! Lincoln! Lincoln control youself!

Maria: Lincoln, you gotta calm down right now.

Lincoln: (takes a deep breath) I'm perfectly calm, guys.

William: You gotta breathe. Take deep breaths

Lincoln: I'm calm. I'm calm. I'm not even touching it. Okay, I'm barely touching it. [Lincoln moves closer to Robo Lincoln and touches it]

Giganta: (facepalms) We're gonna get arrested.

Lincoln: (growls) I'm barely touching it!

William: Please calm down!

Lincoln: Don't tell me to fucking calm down! [the TV monitor starts interviews about Robo Lincoln's creation]

Axiom executive: Our design team started with Lincoln Loud.

Axiom Designer: But really, his design was decrepit and, let's face it, antique.

Lincoln: What the Hell?!

Giganta: Please don't take it personally, Lincoln.

Axiom Designer: Kind of old and ratty.

Axiom Executive: You mean ugly.

Maria: I'm telling you, don't take it personally.

Lincoln: Oh, hell, no! [stomps in anger towards Robo Lincoln]

William: Lincoln, No!

Lincoln: You think you're better then me?! (tackles Robo Lincoln and starts punching it)

Giganta: (groans) We're gonna get in trouble for this!

I grabbed Lincoln!

Me: Lincoln calm down! And that robot copy will NEVER be as good as the REAL DEAL!

Mai Shiranui: That's right! NO COPY will be as good as the REAL DEAL!

Earth: YOU SAID IT!

Julie: YEAH!

All of Lincoln's Harem agreed.

Lisa Loud: I believe I have a solution.

Lisa reprogrammed the Robo Lincoln and made him a double in case crime is going on when he is at school.

Me: Good thinking Lisa.

I looked at the Robo Lincoln with my data eyes.

Me: Wow! Axiom did a great job in making this version of Lincoln.

E.V.E. then appeared.

E.V.E.: They sure did and it's really well done.

Lincoln: Sorry guys I was jealous.

Me: It's all right Lincoln. But believe it or not this brings back memories. Remember when we faced H.A.R.D.A.C. and those robot versions of you and your sisters?

Lincoln: How can I forget? That was awesome!

Grodd: You think that attracted the guards' attention?

WALL-E: It might have.

Robo-Lincoln: Lincoln, I'm sorry I made you mad. My company created me to be superior to you in every way.

Lincoln: It's all right. But I look awesome as a robot.

Robo-Lincoln: I'm glad you think so.

Me: This whole situation reminds me of that awesome movie A.I. Artificial Intelligence.

Nico: That was a great movie.

Lori: It literally was. First I get a Robot Double as a nurse and now Lincoln has one too.

Twilight Sparkle: That is so awesome.

Ruby Rose: Who's in charge of the Axiom anyway?

WALL-E: Captain McCrea.

Me: Then we better go find him and help him out.

Laney: Yeah.

E.V.E.: I'll lead you to him.

We went to the Captain's Quarters and went in and saw that he was tied up.

Me: Oh man!

We all untied him.

Me: Captain McCrea.

Captain McCrea: Thank goodness you're all here Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Maria: Are you okay, Captain?

Captain: Yeah. I was locked in here by a strange robot.

Me: What did he look like?

I then saw something in the reflection of his eyes and I spun around and kicked a robot in the chest and smashed him into the wall and to our shock it was a robot that looked like SLADE WILSON A.K.A. DEATHSTROKE!

Slade Joseph Wilson, also known as Deathstroke or The Terminator, is a supervillain and major antagonist from DC Comics. He is a master assassin who serves as the archenemy of Nightwing and the Teen Titans, while also frequently opposing Batman and the Justice League. He is an occasional member of the Suicide Squad and the Legion of Doom.

Past

Lying about his age, Slade enlisted in the army and was soon tested for new techniques in Camp Washington in anticipation of growing troubles in the Vietnam war. There he met Adeline Kane, whom was awed by his skills, and they quickly hit it off. She offered to train Slade privately in guerrilla warfare. In less than a year, Slade mastered every fighting form presented to him. Six months later Adeline and Slade were married and she became pregnant with their child. It was at this time that the Vietnam War reached it's highest peak and Slade was shipped off oversea. While away, Adeline gave birth to their son Grant.

Some time later, Slade volunteered for a medical experiment to enhance a soldier's ability to resist truth serums - the experiment did not go over as expected and Slade slipped into a deep coma. However, when he awakened, Slade learned that his physical abilities were raised to superhuman levels, most notably his strength, reflexes, mental healing rates. Slade was refused to rejoin the army, even though his condition had subsided and went into a state of depression and desired to serve his country badly. At this time, Adeline was pregnant with their second child Joseph, and Slade ultimately leaned toward hunting, unable to further his career in the military. He became a world famous safari hunter and great wealth followed soon after, however he still felt unfulfilled.

Years later, a group of hired mercenaries broke into the Wilson mansion and kidnapped Joseph. Adeline attempted to rescue her son, but failed in the process. When Slade discovered what had happened to his son, he knew he could not keep the truth from his wife any longer. Slade was not only a world famous safari hunter, he was also one of the world's deadliest and greatest assassins: Deathstroke the Terminator. After promising that he would save their son, they flew to Tangier and fought against a rival mercenary known simply as the Jackal. He told Slade he would not kill his son - if in turn he revealed information on one of his clients.

However, before coming to a conclusion on the concept of saving his son for the information, one of the criminals slashed Joseph's neck, rendering him mute. Adeline, enraged, after taking their son to the hospital, tried to kill Slade by shooting him, but only managed to take out his right eye. Afterward, his confidence in his physical abilities was such that he made no secret of his impaired vision, marked by his mask which has a black featureless half covering his lost eye.

Few years later, Slade was sent in Cambodia to extract the headmistress of a Bordello. During the mission, both started a relationship and had a daughter, Rose.

Teen Titans

Deathstroke's vendetta with the Titans began when his oldest son, Grant (who is now known as Ravager) became physically enhanced to carry out a contract to kill or capture the Titans but died as the enhancement proved fatal. Slade swore vengeance on his son's death and blamed the Titans for it. Slade agreed to complete Grant's contract on his behalf. As a result, Slade persistently continued to attack the Titans on a daily basis and even once sent Terra, whom he had manipulated to his side, as a spy to capture the Titans and succeeded.

Slade was later beaten by a revived Joseph and Nightwing. Slade was put on trial for his crimes, but was sabotaged by Beast Boy so he could kill Slade himself, who he blamed for Terra's betrayal against the Titans. However, ultimately Beast Boy could not bring himself to do the deed, feeling empathy for his grief when Slade explained his past with Terra and Beast Boy could not blame Terra for her actions she had chosen.

Afterward, Slade continued his life as a mercenary, but also acted as an occasional hero, aiding the Titans or acting on his own to help others, most notably when the Team Titans arrived in the 20th Century to assassinate Donna Troy before she could give birth to her son, who in their timeline had grown up into the tyrannical despot, Lord Chaos. His relationship with Garfield Logan had also changed around this time to the point where they became friends as well.

Deathstroke would later still fight the Titans on a regular basis as their most recurring foe, eventually getting his own series as the protagonist.

---

Me: Impossible!

Robin: Slade!

Tara: Slade!? How is he back!? He's in the Warp!

Me: This must be a robot version of him. But he's in his Deathstroke outfit from the comic books.

Nico: He looks better this way.

Clawful: (to Captain McCrea) Let's go somewhere secure in this ship so we can discuss things with you before the Deathstroke robot gets up!

Captain McCrea: Right!

He took us to a safety room where the people hibernate.

Me: Wow! It's the hibernation room.

Fluttershy: These pods are interesting.

Rainbow Dash: They sure are.

Captain McCrea: They are cool.

Me: So Captain what's going on?

Captain McCrea: This colony is not returning to Earth because of AUTOPILOT or AUTO for short.

He told us all about it.

---

AUTOPILOT, or better known as AUTO for short, is the main antagonist of Pixar's 9th full-length animated feature film WALL-E .

He is the wheel of the space station known as Axiom and tries to prevent the Axiom and the hundreds, if not billions of humans living on it from returning to Earth. He later turns on his captain after his superior disobeys an outdated order to avoid going back to Earth.

He was voiced by using Apple's voice synthesis technology known as MacinTalk .

The Axiom designed some point after the year 2100, was originally supposed to carry people into space for a 5-year cruise while hundreds of WALL-E robots would clean up the trash and pollution everywhere on the planet Earth.

However, Operation Cleanup, as it was dubbed, failed as all but one WALL-E unit (the film's protagonist) broke down, and the living conditions on Earth became impossible.

The Autopilot of the Axiom (or AUTO himself) receives a message to never return to Earth, 700 years before the movie starts. No one else aboard the Axiom hears this message. Therefore, every few years, an EVE probe is sent to Earth in search of plant life that would suggest that life on Earth was sustainable. However, AUTO tries his hardest to make sure they never go back for misguided yet well-intentioned reasons.

AUTO's allies are GO-4 (Gopher) and the Stewards.

WALL-E

In the movie, WALL-E and EVE (the film's protagonist and deuteragonist respectively) find a plant specimen and EVE is taken back to the Axiom with WALL-E in tow. However, AUTO is aware of this immediately, so he sends another smaller probe/his henchman named GO-4 to take the plant and destroy it.

WALL-E and EVE manage to retrieve the plant from an escape pod that was about to self-destruct (with WALL-E still inside) and they deliver it to the Captain of the Axiom, who desperately wants to return to Earth. After the discovery of the plant from EVE, AUTO sends GO-4 to throw it into the trash chute.

WALL-E, who was climbing up the chute, manages to save the plant. GO-4 traps EVE, while AUTO electrocutes WALL-E, nearly destroying him. WALL-E falls back into the garbage chute as AUTO shuts EVE down and throws her into the garbage chute as well (in the video game, AUTO electrocutes EVE and throws her in the chute.). AUTO mutinies against the Captain, confining him to his room.

EVE manages to reboot and saves WALL-E, who is in critical condition (in the deleted scenes or video game, WALL-E saves EVE in critical condition). WALL-E, who has the plant, gives it to EVE, who realizes that if they can get it to the ship's Holo-detector, they can return to Earth and save WALL-E. EVE, holding a nearly destroyed WALL-E, points her blaster at a Steward. It takes an image of them successfully before being thrown in the closet. The Steward's photo is then broadcasted around the Axiom. The Captain, who sees this, realizes that there is still hope after all. AUTO sees it too and sends an angry pack of Stewards to stop EVE and WALL-E.

The Captain broadcasts a message to EVE and WALL-E and tells them where the Holo-detector is. AUTO cuts off the message and they are faced by several Stewards.. and they are "not" happy. With the help from certain defective robots that WALL-E saved earlier, they manage to completely annihilate the Stewards, (mostly done by HAN-S' help) who were cut up to pieces.

Meanwhile, the Captain manages to trick AUTO into coming down into his room. The Captain grabs onto AUTO, who pulls him up into the Command Deck while trying to get him off. In the fray, the Captain manages to activate the Holo-detector. EVE flies towards it, but AUTO, being a wheel, spins and throws the Captain off, tilting the entire Axiom to the side. AUTO then turns the Holo-detector off.

As it sinks back into the floor, WALL-E holds up the Holo-detector, while EVE holds back a huge metal plate that would have crushed several people to death because the Axiom was tilted. AUTO electrocutes the button that turns off the Holo-detector, causing it to slam down and crush WALL-E. The Captain, seeing this, gets to his feet (the first human to stand in about 700 years because technology has advanced that far) and battles AUTO.

The Captain manages to hoist himself up and switch AUTO's autopilot function into manual, "relieving" the rogue AI of its duty by shutting him off instantly. The Captain straightens out the Axiom, EVE manages to slip the plant in the Holo-detector before it completely crushes WALL-E and the Axiom jumps into hyperdrive and lands on Earth. EVE manages to fix WALL-E and the two live happily together. It is unknown what happened to AUTO afterwards, but it is possible that AUTO remains offline.

We gasped in shock.

Me: Oh man!

Myotismon: I don't think AUTO will stop even if he does see that Earth isn't full of garbage anymore.

Me: Yeah. We cleaned up the entirety of the planet and made it habitable again.

Captain McCrea: Wow!

Laney: Yep.

Me: But we have to deactivate AUTO and make sure he doesn't stop us from getting you all back home.

Captain McCrea: I can show you where it is. Follow me.

We followed Captain McCrea to the pilot room and we saw another robot Lincoln!

Nathalie: Another Robo Lincoln?!

Me: But this one we can destroy!

I fired a blast of energy and Lincoln fired a wave of lightning and we blew the 2nd Robo-Lincoln to scrap metal!

We went to the control room and then The Deathstroke Robot then appeared and Vypra clashed swords with the Deathstroke robot.

Vypra: You don't have a soul!

Deathstroke robot: (in a familiar voice) Which is why I have no fear!

Robin: (shocked) Slade?! Is that you?

Deathstroke robot: (chuckles darkly) You can call me Deathstroke now.

Me: How in the world are you back?! Tara banished you to the Warp forever!

Deathstroke turned and he showed us that he had a Dark Orb imbedded in his CPU!

We gasped!

Me: A Dark Orb!

Nico: Obviously AUTO hasn't done his homework and followed all of our adventures down to the last detail.

Me: That's right! Every villain's minds get encoded into a dark orb whenever they get destroyed or defeated and Slade had a Dark Orb in him when he was brought back.

Vypra: No thanks to Joe Quimby!

Deathstroke: That's right.

Me: And Deathstroke is your supervillain name. Slade Wilson is your REAL name.

Ra's: And he was also my disgraced student.

Me: I didn't know that Ra's.

Deathstroke: So my old teacher is back after 500 years.

Ra's: That's right my former student. It has been a long time.

Me: Yeah and now will make sure you never return Slade!

Dark Spicer: (to AUTO) Here's your warning: Your ass is about to be kicked!

Me: YEAH YOU SPROCKET HEAD!

But then 6 figures came out and they were robots of ORM MARIUS A.K.A. OCEAN MASTER, EOBARD THAWNE A.K.A. REVERSE FLASH, KIRK LANGSTROM A.K.A. MAN BAT, HARVEY DENT A.K.A. TWO-FACE, FLOYD LAWTON A.K.A. DEADSHOT, JOHN CORBEN A.K.A. METALLO, and JONATHAN CRANE A.K.A. SCARECROW!

Ocean Master

Orm Marius, better known as the Ocean Master, is a supervillain appearing in DC Comics. He is one of the primary villains of the Aquaman series alongside Black Manta.

History

Ancient Atlantean prophecies foretell that the kingdom shall ever be struggled over by two brothers. This struggle is currently fought by the Atlantean king, Aquaman, and his half-brother, Ocean Master. Orm is the son of Atlan, an Atlantean mage and father of Aquaman, and an Eskimo woman. He is also the archenemy of Aquaman.

Learning of his origins from his mother while she was drunk combined with seeing a young Aquaman in love with the woman he wanted for his own drove Orm over the edge. He swore that he would not rest until he had destroyed all that brought joy to Aquaman. Years later, Orm arrived in Poseidonis where Aquaman sat on the throne, and presented himself as Ocean Master, the rightful ruler of Atlantis.

Silver Age

Ocean Master first appeared in Aquaman #29, introduced as Orm and was Aquaman's half-brother, son of Tom Curry (Aquaman's father) and a woman named Mary O'Sullivan. Orm had no super powers, being fully human, he was jealous of Aquaman. Designing a special suit that would allow him to operate underwater, he became a menacing pirate and terrorist and would often attempt to usurp Aquaman's throne.

Post-Crisis

When writer Peter David re-imagined the Aquaman mythos post-Crisis on Infinite Earths, Aquaman was no longer the half-human son of Tom Curry but rather his adopted son. This meant that Orm too was no longer a child of Tom Curry, but instead shared Aquaman's new father, the ancient wizard Atlan along with an un-named Inupiat woman. In Aquaman's youth, Arthur happened to rescue a woman named Kako, who was also Orm's cousin. The two developed a relationship which lead Orm to attack Kako out of jealousy.

Later, when Orm learns of his father, he wishes to overthrow Aquaman as the king of Atlantis, though he was not initially aware that Aquaman was his brother.

New 52

After the New 52 reboot of the DC Universe, Orm is once again the half-brother of Aquaman. This time, however, he is the son of Aquaman's mother Atlanna. After she had birthed Aquaman on the surface world with Tom Curry, Atlanna was forced to marry a man of the Atlantean Guard upon her return, thus birthing Orm.

After Orm's father's death, he kills his mother and seizes the Atlantean throne for himself. Orm, spearheading The Atlantean War, eventually yields the throne to Arthur, is left on the surface and imprisoned at Belle Reve.

Reverse Flash

Professor Eobard Thawne, also known as Dr. Harrison Wells and the Reverse-Flash, is the central antagonist of the Crisis Saga of the Arrowverse . He is also the archenemy of the Flash/Barry Allen.

He is the main antagonist of The Flash, appearing as the main antagonist of Season 1, a major antagonist in Season 2, a minor antagonist in Seasons 3 and 4, the overarching antagonist of Season 5, a supporting antagonist in Season 6 and a flashback antagonist in Season 7. He also appears as a mentioned antagonist in Seasons 2, 3, 5 and 7 of Arrow ; a supporting antagonist in DC's Legends of Tomorrow, appearing as a mentioned antagonist in Seasons 1 and 3; and the main antagonist of Season 2; and one of the main antagonists of the Crisis on Earth-X crossover.

In his normal form, he is portrayed by Matt Letscher, who also played Harrison Love in The Mask of Zorro and Vincent Shyer in Criminal Minds. While bearing the likeness of Dr. Wells, he is portrayed by Tom Cavanagh for a majority of The Flash and Crisis on Earth-X .

Origins

Eobard was born in 2151 into the Thawne family, an affluent bloodline of politicians, scientists, and captains of industry, and is a descendant of Eddie Thawne. Eobard has stated that he is a distinguished member of his family, and that even his first name "Eobard" is distinguished. He also appears quite knowledgeable of his family's history even knowing of his ancestor Eddie despite history having virtually no record of Eddie's existence, though Eobard himself considers Eddie to be a failure of a Thawne. At some point in his life, Eobard became a science professor. Eobard implies that he met Rip Hunter, the designer of the first Time Sphere, at some point in his life, describing him as an "interesting man".

Eobard was a big fan of the Flash, a superhero from the 21st century, and became obsessed with him and desired to be the Flash himself. Eobard, after years of research at some point during the 2180s or 2190s, learned how the Flash gained his powers and duplicated the reaction that originally gave the Flash his powers of super speed, resulting in Eobard gaining super speed himself and the power of time travel. However, for reasons unclear, Eobard suffers the flaw of having a limited connection to the Speed Force and sometimes loses his speed altogether, although the reason why this happened is unknown. He also somehow obtained possession of Gideon, an artificial intelligence program created by The Flash. It's unknown where Eobard obtained Gideon but it's possible he acquired if from Rip, who utilizes a remarkably similar program on his ship.

After gaining the Speed Force, Eobard eventually traveled back in time to an unknown point presumably after the Flash was inactive where he somehow learn that he was destined to become the Flash's greatest enemy. Eobard became consumed with rage to know he would never be the Flash himself, and grew to despise the Flash with every fiber in his being, and deciding to embrace his destiny and become the reverse of everything the Flash was, giving himself the supervillain moniker of the "Reverse-Flash", and made it his life's work to kill the Flash. Eventually, Eobard began searching various moments throughout history to find when Flash was active. Other foes that the Flash faced included Savitar and Abra Kadabra; however, Savitar had a larger effect on the Flash than Eobard or any of the others.

First Encounter with Flash

After learning to be the Flash's destined archenemy, Eobard traveled back in time and Gideon confirmed his whereabouts, prompting Eobard to search for the Flash. Eobard rigged an oil truck to drive at high speeds and collide with a building to lure Flash out, and was successful. Pleased to have located the exact time era Flash is active, Eobard planned his return home to properly plan his next attack and broke into one of Mercury Labs offsite facilities, and prepared equipment designed to act as a time machine to send him back to his own time. However Eobard was unable to replicate the Tachyon power source and sought out Dr. Tina McGee.

Storming Mercury Labs and killing 4 guards, he confronted Tina and told her she was coming with him, they were interrupted by Flash. However Reverse-Flash was surprised when Flash addressed him by his real name, revealing he'd already met him at some point in the future and that Flash had seen him die. Reverse-Flash however simply told Flash knew what time period Flash was from that he'd soon die and knocked Flash out before taking McGee. Eobard showed his device to Tina who revealed that Reverse-Flash tried to steal her device the previous year. Upon hearing this Eobard realized that he'd must have gotten stuck in the past at some point in his future, and was unable to access enough Speed Force energy. Eobard ordered Tina to accelerate the energetic properties within the tachyon device but she expressed doubts that she could until Eobard vibrated his hand and calmly told her to learn or die.

Original Timeline: After Tina finished her work, Eobard killed her anyway and used the tachyon device to return to his timeline. However Cisco used his powers to vibe this future event 3 hours before it occurred which gave Flash enough time to locate him.

Current Timeline: After Tina finished her work, Eobard prepared to kill her anyway but Flash arrived, subdued him and destroyed the machine. Eobard, unwavered by his nemesis's sabotage to his trip home, said he would find another way to travel to the future and boasted his superiority to Flash before issuing a challenge to catch him. Both Reverse-Flash and Flash began racing throughout the streets of Central City and though Reverse-Flash was physically faster, Flash managed to anticipate his path and intercepted him culminating with Flash catching Reverse-Flash. Flash proceeding to severely beat Reverse-Flash almost to death in a fit of rage for his future actions. Only reluctantly stopping himself from delivering a death blow, Flash instead knocked him out and Reverse-Flash placed him in his pipeline prison at S.T.A.R. Labs.

Eobard was visited by a young engineer named Cisco Ramon who Eobard deduced must have history with his older counterpart, but was confused as to why he wanted to know how his ring works. Cisco however told Eobard that he was the one that found him because of his powers, which Eobard gave to him which has lead to his capture. Cisco also reveals that Eobard helped him build the very prison he's incarcerated in, leaving Eobard puzzled and stunned to learn of his future actions. Eobard was later approached by Flash, unmasked but concealed in the shadows, asking why he despises him and Eobard explained his obsession with him and his desire to be The Flash himself and succeeded, only to travel through time and learn he would become his greatest enemy. Flash however was disgusted to learn why Eobard would murder his mother, because he couldn't be him and Eobard angrily stated that he'd become better than Flash, became the one thing Flash could never stop and promises that one day he'll learn his real name. Shortly after he was approached by a member (Earth-2 Harrison Wells) of Team Flash and Eobard realized that his imprisonment has ruptured the timeline. The man however stated he had an alternate method to send him home and Eobard became fascinated with his interrogator but refused to identify himself and stated he was no one of importance, though Eobard was unconvinced of his claim. Eobard was released from his cell and informed of Team Flash's alternate method of sending him back to the future, to have both him and Flash run at high enough speeds to create a wormhole through which Eobard can return to his own time. As they prepared Eobard vowed they would meet again and Flash agreed but also vowed he would stop him every time he tries, and both Flash and Reverse-Flash speed around the ring of the particle accelerator. After gaining enough speed, the wormhole was created and Flash hurled Reverse-Flash through the portal and Reverse-Flash successfully returned to his own time.

War with the Flash

After this encounter the two speedsters would then fight each other for a long time in various different times, with neither of them managing to defeat the other, though Eobard was confident that he was always one step ahead of his enemy. At some point Eobard also discovered that his interrogator was Harrison Wells (though technically it was his Earth Two doppelgänger Eobard spoke to), the man whose particle accelerator supposedly created the Flash in the year 2020, though due to Eobard encountering him in 2016 it's possible that this is false information. It's also possible that the Wells that Eobard learned about was in fact the future version of Eobard himself who would masqueraded Wells in his own future. Eobard also had at least one encounter with a Time Wraith and like most speedsters came to fear them, trying his best to avoid them.

It's possible that he had an encounter with Hunter Zolomon/Zoom, who also falsely operated as The Flash on Earth Two, given that Eobard seemed to recognize his helmet years later (in the episode "Fast Enough"). It's also possible that it was Jay Garrick/The Flash, The Flash of Earth Three, that Eobard encountered at some point in time who stole Hunter's helmet to use as his own in a sense of karma to get back at Hunter for imprisoning him. However, Eobard might of merely simply viewed the fact that an object came through the wormhole as proof that it was ready.

Crisis in 2024

Around midnight on April 25 in the year 2024 Reverse-Flash battled Flash, Green Arrow, Atom and Hawkgirl in the streets of Central City causing the most destruction the city had ever seen. The fight also somehow caused the sky to turn a deep crimson color. Their fight caused several trucks to start leaking their contents onto the streets, and caused power outages spread over 20 blocks throughout the city. Reverse-Flash and Flash then started battling over two overturned tanker trucks, and the lightning emitted from them caused the oil from one of them to ignite. While sounded by smoke both speedsters had a very heated conversation on an unknown matter, then the two sped off leaving Green Arrow, Atom and Hawkgirl behind. The two then continued their fight up and down an unknown avenue then vanished without a trace.

Murder of Nora Allen

Eobard eventually did learn Flash's real name of Barry Allen and decided the best way to defeat his enemy was to murder Barry as a child and traveled back in time to the night of March 18 in the year 2000, aiming to murder 11 year old Barry, but was pursued by his archenemy. The two fought inside the Allen house around Nora Allen, each landing solid hits on each other with Reverse-Flash gaining a slight upper hand. When the 11 year old Barry comes into the room, Nora is in the center of the room surrounded by streaks of yellow and red lightning and gets a brief glimpse of Reverse-Flash's face. Despite his efforts, Flash manages to take his younger self 20 blocks away to safety and Reverse-Flash was enraged but quickly thought of another way to achieve his goal, kill Nora to traumatize Barry in the hopes that Barry wouldn't achieve his destiny.

Original Timeline

Reverse-Flash grabs a kitchen knife and stabs Nora in the heart and flees the scene to return to his own time which he hopes will now be one without The Flash but he is stopped by his sudden loss of connection to the Speed Force. After Gideon confirms that his powers have been drained due to his latest time jump, he realizes that he is now stranded in the 21st Century with no way back to his time and screams in frustration.

Becoming Harrison Wells

Realizing he needed to harness Barry's speed to return to his own time, Eobard begins devoting himself to ensuring Barry does indeed become the Flash, and traveled to Starling City to stalk Dr. Wells. One month after killing Nora, Eobard caused Wells' car to crash, killing Tess Morgan and injuring Harrison, then drags Dr. Wells out of the car and uses a device to absorb Wells's DNA and literally make himself look exactly like Wells, intending to use the scientist's reputation and his own futuristic knowledge to create the particle accelerator as quickly as possible. After Harrison dies in the process, he buries his body in a field near the bridge and takes his place in the car. When the police find him he addresses himself as Harrison Wells.

After taking Wells' identity, Eobard subsequently devoted his life to S.T.A.R. Labs' creation and its particle accelerator as quickly as possible, but took precautions to ensure his plan would work and kept close observation throughout Barry's whole life by setting up cameras all over Central City even in the West house where Barry lived following Nora's death. He also inherited Wells' mansion but for security reasons he never kept any personal belongings in his house. Eobard also came to like Big Belly Burger, even remarking it was one the few reasons to stay in the 21st century since cows are extinct in his time. After opening S.T.A.R. Labs, Eobard built a secret room accessible only via hand print where he kept his belongings including the Gideon program which was still able to stay informed of future events, including a news paper article written by Iris titled "Flash Missing: Vanishes In Crisis" dated in 2024, an event currently set to occur in the new timeline. Eobard also kept his Reverse-Flash suit on a display case, and also stored a second suit away in the room. He also observed his nemesis's life including science fairs and soccer games, looking upon Barry with nothing but hate but would eventually begin to grow genuinely fond of Barry (15 years later would claim he didn't hate present day Barry, he hated but his future counterpart from, at least what he considered, the original timeline). Despite his new found fondness, he still vowed that Barry would die. He also kept just as close observation of his ancestor Eddie Thawne and took whatever precautions were needed to ensure Eddie would continue the Thawne family bloodline, thus ensuring Eobard's existence. Through Harrison's previous connections Eobard also became associated with a younger version of Tina, though Tina always sensed something was different about "Harrison" after Tess' death. He also knew Simon Stagg who though famous for "his" scientific achievements, Eobard knew the greedy and corrupt philanthropist he really was. Eobard also once met Robert Queen at a charity event, one of their subjects of discussion was Robert's son Oliver. In his search for promising young minds to help with his work he became aware of Felicity Smoak and foresaw "great things" from her.

At some point Eobard hired Dr. Caitlin Snow, Ronnie Raymond and Hartley Rathaway, the latter of whom Eobard also grew close to and he became his protégé, to assist in the construction of the accelerator. It's possible he also hired them because of his future knowledge their achievements, later claiming that his actions have given them better lives than what they had. Eobard and Hartley often bonded through activities such as games of chess. He also adopted a pet gorilla named Grodd that he kept at S.T.A.R. Labs who he became close to and Grodd would view Eobard as a "father". In 2009, Eobard was approached by General Wade Eiling to work on a military project together to create soldiers with physic abilities and Eobard agreed, but Eiling begun using Grodd as a test subject and tortured the gorilla without Eobard's knowledge. When Eobard discovered this, he cancelled the project but still had "big plans" for Grodd. He also hired Arthur Light who developed a lethal high powered shockwave rifle, but around 2012 Eobard fired Arthur for apparent insanity.

In 2013, Eobard found Cisco's younger self and hired him acting on the knowledge of Cisco's future self and begun growing close to him also, much to Hartley's dismay, though Eobard still assured that Hartley was still "his guy". When Hartley realized the particle accelerator could fail and cause an explosion, Eobard was threatened so Eobard had Hartley fired and threatened to ruin Hartley's career if anyone was ever told. After Hartley's firing, Eobard grew closer to Cisco and came to view Cisco as a surrogate son. Eventually Eobard finished the accelerator but unlike the original accelerator Eobard built his version to also act as a time machine for Barry for him to travel back in time to undo Eobard's murder of Nora, thus giving Barry sufficient reasoning to help Eobard return to his time.

Explosion of the particle accelerator

On December 11, 2013, he held an event at which he planned to switch on S.T.A.R. Labs' particle accelerator, which he had created. He began speaking on stage, claiming that the particle accelerator would create a brighter future, bringing advancements in power and medicine, as well as physics as they knew it. Later that night, the particle accelerator was switched on. However, particles began to behave abnormally, such as liquids floating in the air, followed by a loud bang from the accelerator. Eobard sent Ronnie and Cisco down to manually shut the particle accelerator down before anything bad happened. After Ronnie had vented the system, assuring S.T.A.R. Labs' safety but sacrificing himself in the process, Cisco called Eobard down to the chamber. Eobard made his way down, but not before entering his secret room and watching Barry in his lab be struck by the lightning bolt as planned. In addition to Barry, Eobard also ensured that Cisco was affected by the particle accelerator ensuring that Cisco does indeed gain his powers as his future self told him. He also ensured that Grodd was affected by the accelerator and the dark matter combined with the drugs Eiling injected in him years earlier activated and mutated him into a hyper-intelligent gorilla and escaped his cage, though Eobard allowed him to roam free in the sewers where he continued to grow in intelligence and size.

After the explosion Eobard begun pretending to be paralyzed from the waist down not just to keep suspicion of his future activities as the Reverse-Flash away from himself, but also rigging it with a machine to feed him Speed Force via tachyons and make him faster than even Barry. After Barry was put in to a coma due to the lightning strike caused by the shock-wave, his condition eventually went critical, at which point Eobard convinced Joe West, Barry's foster father, to allow him to move Barry to S.T.A.R. Labs. However Joe was never fully trusting of Eobard and knew something wasn't right but was too desperate to see Barry awake that he ignored his feelings. While Barry was at S.T.A.R. Labs Eobard one day remarked how amusing it was to see how helpless he was, how easy it would be to just kill him. He also remarked the irony of him going back to kill him and now needing to ensure his existence to return to his own time, and though remarking how interesting it's been watching him grow up. However Eobard firmly stated that nothing is forgiven and that one day Barry will die. Due to S.T.A.R. Labs reputation being tarnished Eobard ordered their Starling City branch shut down and the supplies moved back to Central City. Eobard sent Caitlin and Cisco to inventory supplies where they unexpectedly encountered Deathstroke.

Working with The Flash

After Barry woke from his coma, Eobard was called down to the lab to talk to Barry. He took Barry around S.T.A.R. Labs, explaining what had actually happened on the night of the particle accelerator explosion and how they'd moved him. Before they could run more tests, Barry left. After having realized he had the ability to run super fast, Eobard and the team went to Ferris Air Testing Facility where they sought to test Barry's speed. Eobard cautioned restraint, though Barry instead ran at full pelt, accidentally running in to barrels of water. Back at S.T.A.R. Labs, Barry told Eobard of his belief that perhaps there were more powered humans like himself, perhaps even another with super speed, though he said he believed that Barry was most definitely unique. Following a later run-in with Clyde Mardon's weather manipulation, however, Barry returned, angry that Eobard had seemingly lied to him. The latter admitted fault, explaining that the explosion had released various forms of seemingly theoretical energy across the city, including anti-matter, dark energy and x-elements. Barry mentioned that he planned to stop Clyde, though Eobard attempted to stop Barry from taking the risk, as he was incredibly important in terms of scientific advancement. Despite Eobard's claims that Barry was not a hero, only simply a boy who was struck by lightning, he headed out to find Mardon anyway. As Barry struggled to unravel a tornado Clyde had made, Eobard intervened over the communication, apologizing, reassuring Barry that he did in fact believe in him, that he could undo Eobard's wrongs. Later Eobard went into his secret room and checked up on the future and was relieved to see the future was intact.

After having acted as a hero, Barry returned to S.T.A.R. Labs, where Eobard again cautioned restraint to Barry, telling him to make sure he knew his limits. Barry later tried to act the hero again, though he passed out. He was taken to S.T.A.R. Labs and despite being scolded, they decided to try some tests. Barry began running on a modified treadmill, causing him to eventually pass out. Eobard identified that it had to do with his glucose levels, due to an extremely fast metabolism processing it too fast. They hooked Barry up to 40 IV bags before he finally awoke. As they began discussing a new diet for Barry, Joe West entered the room; Eobard was surprised to see him. He reassured Joe that they were looking out for what was best for Barry, though Joe disagreed that what they were doing was the way to do it. Barry yelled at Joe, causing him to get upset and leave. A while later Barry returned to S.T.A.R. Labs, having been beaten up by another meta-human, who they identified by blood samples as Danton Black. Barry decided against trying to take him down, and despite Eobard's support, he was adamant that what they were doing was a mistake. Following that, Eobard went to talk to Joe. He claimed that next time Barry suited up, he would doubt himself. Eobard headed back to S.T.A.R. Labs, where Caitlin was able to grow a clone of Danton Black from a replicating cell, so they called Barry in and explained this. The clone promptly awakened, presumably due to the prime Black activating some clones, and Joe hurried in through the doors, shooting the clone and reassuring Barry that only he could stop meta-humans, being one himself. They talked to Barry when he reached Stagg Industries and Eobard noted that he had to find the prime one, the original Danton Black. Ultimately, Danton was knocked over an edge, but despite being caught by Barry, forced himself to drop, killing him. The team watched a news report of it on the TV afterwards. Following that, Eobard visited Simon Stagg. After Stagg claimed that he wanted to find and use "the streak," Eobard stood up from his wheelchair and stabbed the man, claiming that The Flash, as he would one day come to be known as, had to be kept safe.

After the Darbinyan crime family were gassed to death by a presumed meta-human, the S.T.A.R. Labs team began researching what they could, all of them excited by the potential prospects. Joe noted that they would have to find somewhere to hold them, as Iron Heights Prison was less than ideal, and Cisco suggested the particle accelerator. Cisco and Eobard went down to the particle accelerator's core chamber. Eobard had to go do some modifications while Cisco waited, and they soon went back up. Eobard realized it was hard for Cisco to be there. The two later assisted Barry when he went after a mist-controlling meta-human inside the Central City Shopping Mall. However, Barry discovered that the man could turn himself in to gas, and inhaled some of his toxic gasses, before racing back to S.T.A.R. Labs where the team painfully extracted the poisonous gas. The team was soon able to identify the makeup of the gas: hydrogen cyanide with traces of a sedative. Barry figured that the two would be mixed in a death row execution and they identified the meta-human as Kyle Nimbus, proudly nicknamed The Mist by Cisco. Barry went to protect Nimbus' next target, Joe, and the team supported him. Unable to outrun The Mist, they suggested he make him tired, as he would have to revert to his physical, human form eventually. Barry succeeded and Nimbus was taken back to S.T.A.R. Labs, where he was locked up in the particle accelerator prison.

Eobard defeated Barry in a game of chess while Barry also played a game of table tennis with Cisco and a game of Operation with Caitlin. When Felicity visited S.T.A.R. Labs, Eobard greeted her and was more than pleased to meet her, noting he's aware of all her accolades and that he always keeps an eye out for such talent. When Felicity questioned about the possible dangers of what Barry does, Eobard reassured her that everything they do is to ensure Barry's safety and that Barry is in good hands. Eobard was later furious at Cisco who built a weapon, a cold gun, powerful enough to kill Barry despite his speed without any consent, though Cisco built it prior to Barry waking from his coma which was stolen by master thief Leonard Snart/Captain Cold. Eobard ordered Cisco to track down where the cold gun is and to do so immediately after telling him weapons don't belong in S.T.A.R. Labs. After Felicity left, Eobard noted she was a remarkable young woman. Eobard told Cisco to never do anything as to build such a weapon again, though he was unaware of another similar weapon that Cisco had built which was also stolen.

After Barry failed to stop Tony Woodward, Eobard told Barry they'd find a way to stop him, but told Barry to rest and heal for the time being. A day later, Joe visited Eobard, asking for help on Nora Allen's murder case, ironically not knowing that man Joe was looking for was right in front of him. When Joe asked if his particle accelerator was possibly involved, Eobard reminded Joe that the murder occurred 14 years ago long before his accelerator was even thought of. After a few other suggestions from Joe, Eobard told him that they were all highly unlikely. After Barry tried to stop Tony alone, Eobard was furious as they had yet to find a way to stop him. When Barry told him that he could just heal, Eobard told Barry he can't heal if he was killed. Eobard then told Barry could stop Tony if he moved fast enough as any material can be struck at a high enough velocity. The following day, Eobard had a drink with Joe, where Joe suggested that he was involved as Eobard arrived in Central City shortly after Nora was murdered. Eobard told Joe to look up Tess Morgan before leaving. Joe visited Eobard at S.T.A.R. Labs, having looked up Tess, and apologized for accusing him for murder. Eobard then told Joe about "his" past and why he moved to Central City as there were too many painful memories to endure. Later that night as Joe was reviewing the evidence of Nora's murder, Reverse-Flash reappeared and encircled him to make him scared, briefly allowing his suited face to be seen and stole the evidence. Before leaving Reverse-Flash left a death threat towards Iris by pinning a photograph of her to the wall with a knife, and the words "stop or else" to scare Joe away.

In an entry in his personal log, Eobard noted that Barry was driven to use his powers to help people, and stated that this was keeping Barry from realizing his full potential. He later told Barry that he had to "kick it up a notch" in his training. When Farooq Gibran attacked S.T.A.R. Labs, Eobard released Tony, offering him his freedom in exchange for killing Farooq. Later, he had a brief argument with Barry about sacrificing Tony to stall Farooq, angrily insisting that he had merely done what was necessary. When Farooq cornered Team Flash, Eobard confronted him, reciting from memory the names of everyone who died in the particle accelerator disaster, and demanding that Farooq leave the others alone, saying that he was the only one who deserved to be punished. Farooq agreed and blasted Eobard out of his chair and while seemingly helpless to move, though in reality was faking it, Flash finally regained his speed and allowed Farooq to drain his speed once more but the amount of power overloaded Farooq and killed him. After Flash defeated Farooq, Eobard made another log entry, stating that he had previously been mistaken and that Barry's desire to help others was the key to developing the Flash's potential, not an obstacle as he had thought. He then took a blood sample from Blackout's corpse, whilst signalling Mist to stay quiet, saying that he was interested in finding out how the latter had drained the Flash's powers.

After Rainbow Raider robbed a bank by forcing everyone inside to go angry and attempt to murder each other, Eobard aided the team in figuring out how he did. However they were distracted by the appearance of Starling City's The Arrow who both Eobard and Joe distrusted, due to his previous body count and Dark Archer and Deathstroke's terrorist attacks since he became active. Barry however defend Arrow saying he was a hero and insisted they were wrong but they told Barry to see that Arrow is out of Central City by tonight. However Barry ignored them and when Felicity visited he asked her to make him trust Arrow more, and asked for his name but Felicity refused but Eobard insisted he'll igure it out on his own. Presumably because of his future knowledge Eobard was already aware of Arrow's true identity. Later when Barry suffered the effects of Rainbow Raiders' powers he went crazy and tried to murder Eddie, and Eobard insisted Felicity call Oliver Queen, The Arrow, for help deliberately revealing his identity to Team Flash. Preparing a device to make Barry regain his senses by correcting his emotions via the colors of the emotional spectrum, Eobard and Joe arrived just as Flash and Arrow fought and used the device to restore Barry's stability. After capturing Bivolo Oliver addressed Team Flash and noted the importance of keeping his identity. Eobard also thanked Oliver for his help but as Oliver left, he felt that something was off about Eobard.

As a thank you for helping him, Barry gave Eobard, Cisco and Caitlin a Christmas present each, but Eobard declined Barry's offer of eggnog. A few hours later, Reverse-Flash stormed Mercury Labs looking for a tachyon prototype device, killing the guards but was unable to reach the device due to the doctor sealing it away and he stormed off. Eobard "helped" Joe and Barry track down "Reverse-Flash" by building a trap for "him" as Joe and Barry secured the bait. Later Reverse-Flash spied on Barry as he talked to Iris then when Barry noticed him he ran after him, demanding to know why he killed his mother, but Reverse-Flash instead challenged him to a fight in a stadium. Reverse-Flash proved to be the better speedster but told Barry already knew his identity, that they'd fought for a long time with Barry always losing. He also told Barry it would be his destiny to die at his hands, as it was his mother's. Later S.T.A.R. Labs orchestrated the trap using the tachyon prototype and lured the Reverse-Flash in. A holographic recording, seemingly actually real to almost everyone, played of the Reverse-Flash, who only answered to Eobard. As the force-field appeared to fail, Eobard rushed into the force-field so fast that no one had time to think and were all frozen, making it look like the Reverse-Flash pulled him into the field. In the field, Eobard created a lifelike speed mirage of himself then suiting up as Reverse-Flash in the place of his hologram and repeatedly punched his after image, making it appear to everyone else that Reverse-Flash was trying to kill "Wells". After the field disappeared, Reverse-Flash grabs the device and takes it to his secret room then reappears in the basement, and while still bouncing back and forth to maintain the speed-mirage of Eobard, Reverse-Flash kills Eddie's task-force in seconds without any effort but hesitates when he approaches Eddie, shoving him to the side rather than killing him (since this would cause Eobard to be erased from existence), and attacks Joe. Reverse-Flash reminds Joe he was warned but before he can kill him Flash intercepts him and drags him outside. However, Reverse-Flash again proved superior to Flash, but he was timely saved by a seemingly still-alive Ronnie Raymond. The Reverse-Flash vowed their fight wasn't over and ran off. Arriving back in time to take the place of his speed mirage Eobard was tended to by Caitlin and Cisco profusely apologies for the force-field failing. Though Eobard assured Cisco it wasn't his fault he expressed annoyance towards them for not informing him of Ronnie's survival, but assures Caitlin that they will find Ronnie and bring him home. Later, Eobard place the tachyon prototype on his Reverse-Flash suit and while watching it harness it's power, says "Merry Christmas" with his distorted voice as his wounds healed.

Eobard, Cisco, and Caitlin continued to train Barry to improve his speed using a drone to fire at him. After Cisco called the man in yellow "The Reverse-Flash", Eobard approved of the name, unlike Caitlin. After Snart returned, Barry decided to pursue Snart, though Eobard warned Barry The Reverse-Flash is a greater threat. Due to Snart's threat, Eobard and Cisco presented the CCPD with a shield that could withstand Snart's cold gun. During Barry's battle with Leonard Snart and Mick Rory, Eobard realized the best way to let Snart's and Mick's guns cross streams is to move slower.

Eobard guided Barry to detour the Royal Flush Gang. After a suggestion from Cisco, Barry, Cisco, Caitlin, and Eobard all took a group picture together. Later that night, Eobard went to his mansion and got off his wheelchair. He received a phone call and was attacked by Hartley Rathaway. After Barry, Cisco, and Caitlin arrived, Eobard told them he won't require their help with the case. Barry realized it couldn't have been a teenage prank and Eobard told Barry he knew who it was.

Original Timeline: After Barry stopped Hartley from attacking his families' company, Hartley told Barry he knew of Eobard's secret. After Hartley was locked up in the meta-human prison, Eobard asked how Hartley figured out that The Flash worked with them and Eobard was told he figured out through triangulation. Eobard returned to his team and admitted he knew there was a chance of the explosion. After Hartley escaped the prison, Eobard ran out of his Time Vault but collapsed to the ground after losing his speed. Hartley approached Eobard and asked the latter if he was still "his guy". Eobard later decided to regain his team's trust by publicly admitting he was aware of the chance of the particle accelerator exploding. He was then asked by Mason Bridge if he had any plans in the future of turning the particle accelerator on. After Hartley attacked the Keystone Cleveland Dam, Barry went to stop Hartley. Barry was quickly stopped with sound waves though Eobard transmitted waves through the cars at the damn, stopping Hartley. Eobard then told he wished to one day regain the trust of the team but Barry told him he already had. Later, Eobard returned to his Time Vault, reporting to Gideon that his speed comes and goes. Gideon reported that it is unsure how longer the Tachyon device is viable and Eobard told Gideon that it was only meant to be a temporary fix and the real end game was coming.

Current Timeline: When Hartley attacked his families' company, The Flash stopped him. However, during the fight, the communication system in Barry's suit started to malfunction, leaving Eobard confused about what was happening but everything went well when The Flash defeated him. After Hartley was locked up in the meta-human prison, Barry deduced that Hartley had EMP weapons rigged to his hearing aids which surprised Eobard when Cisco discovered he was right. Barry approached Eobard later and presented a new equation to getting faster, but Eobard was surprised to see that Barry had devised such a complex equation with his knowledge in such a short time. When Barry returned after facing a threat in the C.C.P.D he told the team of the creature that attacked, dubbed by Cisco as a "Dementor", from the Harry Potter books, but when Barry said he saw it whilst running to stop Hartley, Eobard realized the answers to his confusion. The Barry with them, at that current time, is from the future and the "dementor" is a Time Wraith who'd followed him back. Eobard invited Barry into his quarters to discuss the equation but when Barry had his back turned, Eobard stood up and knocked him out.

Eobard took Barry, handcuffed, into the Time Vault and interrogated Barry but he played dumb and still addressed him as "Dr. Wells", but Eobard sped in front of him and saw Barry didn't even flinch. Barry then attempts to phase out of his cuffs but fails, further identifying himself as a future Barry, as Eobard had yet to teach his Barry how to phase. Finally Barry said "Let me out of here Thawne" and Eobard's theory was confirmed and Barry told Eobard he was there to get faster, and needed him to teach him. However Eobard quickly realized that if Barry is alive in the future then his plan fails and tried to kill Barry but Barry quickly claimed that Eobard did win, that he tricked him into using his speed to get back to his time. Unfortunately a singularity had formed when he got back and that is why he is there, to get faster in order to stop it but needs Eobard's help. Furthermore Barry claimed that he'd left a letter for his younger self if something happens to him, detailing Eobard's true name and impersonation of Wells, how Eobard's plan works, and how to stop him. Eobard reluctantly listened to Barry.

At the same time, the Time Wraith found its way to S.T.A.R. Labs and attacked Cisco, Caitlin and Hartley but they were able to fend it off, but when Cisco and Caitlin left Barry asked Eobard how to kill a Wraith but Eobard revealed there is no known way to kill them hence why speedsters try to avoid them. As Barry searched the police department for any clues Eobard searched S.T.A.R. Labs, but Cisco and Caitlin were unable to replicate the frequency Hartley used to stop the Wraith. As they debated how to stop the Wraith the present day Barry showed up just as the future Barry returned, but future Barry accidentally begun to reveal future knowledge trying to convince the team he's from the future. To shut him up Eobard played dumb and pretended that he'd just met the future Barry, and told the team to prepare the accelerator, telling future Barry to travel through time to outrun the Wraith, while they build a sonic weapon to stop the Wraith for good when it returns in future Barry's time along. Before sending future Barry back to his time Eobard gave him a drive with information on increasing his speed via tachyon enhancement, and future Barry successfully made it back to his time with the information he came for.

After Shawna Baez broke Clay Parker out of Iron Heights, Joe deduced Clay was a meta-human, however, Eobard corrected Joe, stating there was a woman's DNA matched with Clay's. Using the DNA, they learn the DNA belonged to Shawna. After learning Shawna's powers, Eobard told Barry they should focus on learning Shawna's limits. The following day, Eobard learned from Cisco that the latter let Hartley out of the meta-human prison, much to his disappointment. Later, Eobard learned Shawna can't teleport in dark space, as she can only teleport to what she can see. When Barry went after Shawna, he reminded Barry that she can't teleport if she couldn't see, leading to Barry busting out all the lights in the tunnel.

After Firestorm (Martin Stein) attacked Quentin Quale, Eobard told the team letting Ronnie roam free was no longer an option. Eobard deduced the reason why Stein was in control of Ronnie's body was due to simple Darwinism. Eobard and Caitlin decide to have a stakeout outside of Professor Stein's home assuming Martin would be nearby to watch over his wife. While waiting for Martin Stein, Eobard swore to Caitlin his work won't be finished until he brings Stein and Ronnie back to normal. Shortly after, Firestorm came by and the two quickly contacted Barry. While Barry and Firestorm battled, the two followed, though accidentally hit Barry as the latter fell. After learning Martin claimed he could be separated, Eobard said it was possible, but only theoretically as splitting a human and an atom were different concepts. Eobard learned that Ronnie's body was rejecting Martin Stein, causing an exothermic reaction and a possible nuclear explosion. Due to them only have hours before Ronnie's body detonates, Eobard suggested they may have to kill Ronnie. While the team were outraged of the concept, Eobard told them if Ronnie and Martin Stein knew the consequences, they'd likely sacrifice themselves. In his time vault, Eobard pulled a hand gun and Gideon told him it was a crude weapon. Eobard then decided to make a quantum splicer using the tachyon device, though Eobard was told it would delay his timeline. Eobard told Gideon there would be no timeline if Central City was blown up. Cisco and Eobard built the tachyon device and gave it to Barry and Caitlin to take to Firestorm. After the splicer was placed on Firestorm, Eobard told the two to get away from Firestorm.

Eobard greeted Ronnie as he returned, thanking him for sacrificing himself to protect those around him. Eobard then did medical work on Martin Stein, checking if he still had the ability to harness nuclear energy. Eobard learned he was unable to and reported this to the team. After Wade Eiling attacked Ronnie, he payed a visit to the former. Eiling asked Eobard to surrender Firestorm, though Eobard refused. Later, Eobard spiked Martin's drink before conversing with him. After Professor Stein passed out, Eobard contacted Eiling, who took him away. Eobard claimed to the team he was left helpless when Eiling came by to take Martin. When Barry said he would go after Eiling, Eobard reminded Barry what Eiling could do to him. In search for Martin, the team used Ronnie as he was still connected with Stein and Eobard convinced them both to use the quantum splicer to merge against, but this time accept the balance they successfully became a more stable Firestorm. To silence Eiling, Reverse-Flash abducted him from his office and took him Grodd's home in the sewers, and revealed himself to Eiling. Upon unmasking Eobard told Eiling that he protected his own and watched as Grodd took Eiling away.

Eobard and Cisco passed the time at S.T.A.R. Labs watching a Buster Keaton movie though Cisco was shocked that he'd never seen it before, and Eobard sarcastically remarked "must have been before my time" and approved Cisco's request to make a list of movies to see. However Eobard also reminded Cisco of his brother Dante's birthday party but Cisco said he'd decided the best thing was to not go at all, and remarked how things had been much better since he stopped seeing them. Though Eobard was saddened to learn Cisco was still on bad terms with his family they were distracted by an alert of a break in at the Central City Morgue, though Eobard was confused as to why anyone would rob a morgue.

Identity revealed

Original Timeline: When Barry returned he told them all that Mark Mardon was the killer and was on a vendetta to avenge Clyde and Eobard deduced Mark was affected by the particle accelerator the same way Clyde was. Eobard was later told by Barry the former saw himself while running toward the morgue. Eobard told it could've been a speed mirage or an illusion. Eobard then told he would further investigate it after Mark is taken in, though Eobard seemed to be aware tht Barry saw a future version of himself. A couple days later, Caitlin took Eobard to Jitters for a coffee, while Cisco investigated how the Reverse-Flash escaped. When Caitlin insisted they enjoy their drinks at Jitters Eobard, reluctantly agreed, but a while realized that Caitlin was trying to keep him distracted and away from S.T.A.R. Labs. Eobard suggested if they adjusted the S.T.A.R. Labs satellite, they could possibly pick up a storm, helping catch Mark. When Eobard told Caitlin they should go to S.T.A.R. Labs to alert Cisco, Caitlin turned around to get their coffee's in to go cups but Eobard now sure Caitlin was distracting him took off, leaving behind his chair and revealing the truth to Caitlin. When Cisco had just discovered a hologram was used the night they "trapped" the Reverse-Flash, Eobard revealed himself to Cisco and reveals his true name. Eobard revealed to Cisco the night Nora was murdered, he intended to kill a young Barry. Eobard then revealed that he only trained Barry as if he didn't he wouldn't be able to get the speed to return to his time. Eobard told Cisco nothing would stop him from returning to his home, though Cisco offered help. Eobard noted Cisco to be smart, but not smart enough to bring him back. Eobard told Cisco he showed him what it was like to have a son, before phasing his arm through Cisco's chest, killing him. However since Barry time traveled by accident and manipulated events, this event never occurred.

Current Timeline: While running Barry stopped confusing Eobard and Cisco and reminded him to get to the morgue but he'd claimed to have been yesterday, confusing them both. When Barry returned he told them all that Mark Mardon was the killer and was on a vendetta to avenge Clyde and Eobard deduced Mark was affected by the particle accelerator the same way Clyde was. However Barry finished Eobard's sentence and correctly guessed almost every word Cisco and Caitlin were about to say to each other before they did, and with this, Eobard realized that Barry had in fact time traveled. After learning he had traveled back one day, Eobard stressed the importance of keeping history in tact which meant not telling him and tells Barry that he is to repeat the events of the day again and to not tell anyone or alter anything. Eobard checked in with Gideon but was assured the future remained in tact. Barry however, ignoring Eobard's advise, went after Mark anyway and captured him before he could commit his crimes. Eobard, angered that Barry had altered time, reminded him that whatever tragedies he'd averted time would somehow replace it and maybe even worse than before. Eobard had Barry run at his to speed on the treadmill in an attempt to re-create the conditions that allowed Barry to time travel in the first place, but even his highest speeds couldn't achieve it. After learning that Leonard Snart had returned with his sister Lisa Snart and kidnapped Cisco, Eobard begun trying to track him down but Barry begged Eobard to let him talk about the previous yesterday and Eobard reluctantly agreed. Barry states that Mark was about to destroy the city and Iris admitted to have feelings for Barry but now she doesn't and though Barry claimed that Iris still had them, Eobard reminded him they were buried deep in her consciousness and without Mark's actions, they remained unrealized. Furthermore, that Barry's powers are dangerous could cause serious havoc upon the world, though Barry knew he would have the chance Eobard suggests maybe he shouldn't since more people could die if Nora lives. Cisco then came back to S.T.A.R. Labs, Snart having realized him but only if Cisco told Leonard who The Flash is or he'd have killed Dante and Cisco tearfully quits the team in shame. However Eobard talks to him and reminded him that choosing between loved ones is an impossible choice and regardless he is still family and Cisco stays. Later Reverse-Flash went to Central City Picture News where Mason Bridge was writing an article implicating Eobard (Harrison Wells) to the murder of Stagg and disappearance of Eiling, and attacked him. After learning from Mason that everything he knew about him was on his drive, Reverse-Flash killed him, hid his body and fixed the office to cover his tracks. Reverse-Flash then looked at Mason's computer and noted that he really was onto him and destroyed all his evidence.

When a terrorist named The Trickster, named after the previous Trickster James Jesse, attacked the park by dropping bombs disguised as presents Eobard assisted the team in searching for a means to locate the new Trickster. However Eobard noticed Barry seemed cranky but Joe assured him that he was just having a bad morning. Later however when the Trickster made another broadcast Barry showed further signs of angst towards Eobard but he surmised it must be because of his previous visit to James Jesse in prison, bringing back memories of Nora's murder. When The Trickster uploaded a broadcast informing the public of a bomb in the city and left it's rough location Flash failed to find it, but Eobard realized it was a trick but Flash refused to listen to him much to everyone else confusion. Eobard was proven right as there was no bomb and it was a diversion so the Trickster, now identified as Axel Walker, could break James Jesse out of prison and take Henry hostage. When both Tricksters made their move to poison everyone at a fund raiser held by Mayor Bellows, Iris called Joe on his cellphone to clue him in and Eobard begun working on the antidote to the poison. However Barry had a bomb placed on him by Axel which would explode if he didn't run faster than 600 miles an hour or try to remove it, so Eobard taught Barry how to phase through a truck which separated him from the bomb and saved him. After succeeding in foiling The Trickster's plot Barry brought Henry to S.T.A.R. Labs to meet everyone where he thanked all of them for their efforts, especially Eobard.

Eobard helped Barry investigate the strange death of Lindsay Kang at the hands of numerous honey bees, but where interrupted when Felicity and her boyfriend Ray Palmer/The Atom arrived at S.T.A.R. Labs seeking help on Ray's suit. After the bees took a second victim, Bill Carlisle, one of the bees followed Barry back to S.T.A.R. Labs while Barry, Felicity and Ray were out to dinner with Iris and Eddie leaving only Caitlin, Cisco and Eobard to fend off the bees. When it came for him Eobard almost broke his cover to evade it but Barry arrived in time to stop it. They shockingly discovered it wasn't a bee at all but a robot and learned the previous victims worked at Mercury Labs and paid a visit to an "old friend" Tina McGee. Dr. McGee confirmed the bees were the work of Brie Larvan but the bees went after Tina while Brie herself was sheltered some miles away, so Barry and Ray teamed up to stop Brie and the bees while Eobard and Felicity assisted over communications. After Flash failed to catch up to a thief who could change into any person of any age Eobard became worried that this meta-human if he/she were to copy Barry, then he/she may be able to copy his speed and told him to stay away from the criminal. After confirming the meta's identity as Hannibal Bates Barry and Eddie went after him but failed when Bates took on Eddie's appearance and made him go on a killing spree. Meanwhile, Bates infiltrated S.T.A.R. Labs, disguised as Barry, and came close to killing Iris and Caitlin but Eobard used a taser to force him into unconsciousness. After Joe and Cisco returned from Starling City Eobard gave his regards to Eddie and talked to Joe about his visit, but Joe questioned why he never went back. Eobard again lied and claimed it was because of Tess but Eobard changed the subject and asked why Joe never talks about Iris' mother but Joe didn't reply and Eobard offered to have another drink with him sometime which Joe agreed to.

Eobard later returned to his secret room to ask for an update from Gideon but she assured him everything was fine and later helped Cisco and Caitlin work on a device to induce lucid dreaming, which they claimed was for physiologists dealing with people traumatized by meta-human incidents. Later Eobard called Barry and informed him of a fire in a building nearby but Flash was unable to retrieve all the civilians before the fire burnt out of control, but Eobard told him to rotate his arms at high velocities which extinguished the flames. After Eobard returned from a conference Caitlin informed him that Cisco finally figured out how the "Reverse-Flash" "escaped" and Eobard realized his cover was blown. Eobard instead sent Hannibal Bates to pose as him and spring the trap the team had set for him as a means to get him to confess to Nora's murder. After Joe killed Bates, Eobard finally dropped his facade and addresses the team over the intercom and admits to using Bates as a distraction in exchange for his freedom. Barry and Caitlin expressed their anger for ruining their lives but Eobard claimed to understand their anger, but tried to assure them that his actions have actually improved their lives. Barry then angrily tells Eobard to face him and he assures him that they will fight again, very soon. To secure leverage Reverse-Flash ambushes Eddie and Iris, just as Eddie is proposing, and knocks out Eddie before moving in on Iris. However, before Reverse-Flash can kill her Flash arrives and Reverse-Flash abducts Eddie instead. Reverse-Flash takes Eddie to his secondary lair underneath S.T.A.R. Labs Upon hearing that Eddie is already aware he isn't Wells Reverse-Flash decides to reveal his true identity and relation to him, answering his questions as to why Reverse-Flash didn't kill him at Christmas, and informs him he is his "insurance".

To distract Team Flash, Eobard ordered Grodd to distract them using whatever means he saw fit while he constructed a device to re-power the particle accelerator, while keeping Eddie tied to a chair. While Eddie questioned Eobard's claims he stood by his pride to be a member of their family but revealed that history has virtually no record of Eddie and is considered to be a failure, and even shows Eddie the newspaper showing that Iris is destined to marry Barry. Later Eobard finished his device and activate the accelerator. Before leaving Eobard tries to justify himself to Eddie by asking him to reflect on his own life and think of all the things that define it and what would he do if he lost everything, if he would accept his new life or get back everything he lost. After the accelerator activates Reverse-Flash escapes the facility with Barry in pursuit but releases Shawna as a distraction for the rest of the team. Despite Barry's efforts he is unable to keep up and Reverse-Flash escapes. Eobard returns 36 hours later when the accelerator is ready for activation, but Barry meets him outside. Eobard commends Barry's failed but brave attempt to transport the meta-human prisoners to safety, foiled by Captain Cold, but questions Barry's plan to face him again since he failed every time before. At that moment Firestorm and Oliver, under his "Al Sah-him" guise, arrive and despite being outnumbered Eobard was confident he could fight them, and he engaged them all at once. Reverse-Flash and Flash fought but Reverse-Flash manage to subdue Flash and sent Firestorm flying miles away forcing Flash to save him, but Oliver was able to hit him with an arrow laced with nanites, courtesy of Ray, which disabled Reverse-Flash's speed forcing him to fight Oliver in hand to hand. When Reverse-Flash recovered he pinned Oliver to the ground and prepared for the kill only for Flash to save him and both speedsters fought above S.T.A.R. Labs. While both Flash and Reverse-Flash fought Firestorm intervened and blasted Reverse-Flash off the roof before Oliver finished him off with another arrow.

Erased from existence

Eobard was placed inside the pipeline and after sometime Barry visited him to get answers, addressing him as "Thawne" and confirming he was now aware of his real identity and asked why Eobard killed Nora. Eobard explained the circumstances and reasoning for his murder of Nora and that he needed Barry to become The Flash in order to generate enough Speed Force to create a wormhole though which he could return home, and in the process Barry could return to the night Nora died and undo Eobard's actions. Barry didn't believe him but eventually opened up to Eobard's plan and explained that his plan required using the particle accelerator, explaining that Barry would have to run at Mach-2 speed through the accelerator and collide with a single hydrogen particle. Doing so would send him back to any time Barry desired and create a wormhole behind him which could be used by Eobard to return to his time. However what Eobard neglected to tell them is that doing so would result in the creation of a singularity. When he was chastised he assured them they would have enough time for both to achieve their goals, 1 minute and 52 seconds, and once accomplished they would be able to close the portal. Later while building a time machine for Eobard, Cisco visited him for advise on materials and after he told Cisco what he required Eobard became infuriated that Cisco didn't have as much sympathy for his predicament. However Cisco revealed to Eobard that he had murdered him in an alternate timeline and Eobard, though unsympathetic for killing Cisco justifying that he had a good reason, showed great concern and joy to learn that Cisco had indeed become a meta-human and informed Cisco that a "great destiny" awaited him. Eventually Barry prepared for the jump and ran at the speed required and Eobard tutored him on how to access the time he wanted, and successfully time jumped to the night Nora died.

After the portal opened Eobard admired Cisco's newly built Time Sphere, admitting that it's original creator Rip Hunter would be impressed. After a strange helmet arrived Eobard knew it was time to leave and bid farewell to Cisco but before he could take off, Flash returned and destroyed the pod. Enraged, Reverse-Flash charged at Flash and fought him. As Team Flash worked to close the portal, Reverse-Flash beat Barry into submission and prepared to kill him, vowing to kill everyone else he loved. Eddie, however, shot himself in the heart in the last second before Reverse-Flash's killing blow to Barry. As Eddie's heart failed Eobard's face reverted from Harrison Wells back into his original, as he started fading out of existence. When Eddie died of his self-inflicted injuries, Eobard's body begun to crack apart. He arrogantly told Barry that he had controlled his life for so long, and asked how he'd get along without him, right before his body was incinerated and his existence erased from the timeline. However, his removal from existence all together caused a paradox that reopened the singularity, which also served as a doorway to Earth Two. This singularity also caused the death of Ronnie who was forced to sacrifice himself to close it.

Legacy

In the event of his death, where his plan to use Barry's speed to return to his own time were to fail, Eobard arranged for Barry to inherit and also made the confession video to the murder of Nora Allen for Barry to give to the police to free Henry. Though dead Eobard's actions continued to affect Barry even 6 months later who blamed himself for Eddie and Ronnie's deaths, for which he blamed Eobard for causing.

6 months later Barry received the message but before confessing, Eobard stood his ground in saying that despite having what he wants, Barry will never truly be happy. Eobard then confesses to Nora's murder much to Barry's shock and delight. Upon meeting "Jay Garrick", Barry was instantly distrusting of him believing he was seeking to exploit them like Eobard did but Iris convinced Barry that not everyone is like Eobard, and eventually Barry began to trust Jay.

When trying to lure out Zoom, Barry admitted to Joe that he was haunted by Eobard's words that he'd never be happy, as Eobard knew Barry in the future. However, Joe told Barry that Eobard was just trying to mess with him one last time, and urges him to forget him and go out and get what makes him happy. Around Christmas time, Barry, talking to Earth-2 Harrison Wells in place of Eobard without him hearing, told Eobard he knows that he is still a part of his life and how much he hates him. However, Barry decided that he didn't want to keep hating Eobard, and decided to forgive him. Barry later remarked when talking to Earth Two Harrison that despite all Eobard did to him, he also did help him a lot to become who he is, and he was in a way a father figure to him. When Barry found out that Jay Garrick was Zoom, he began to blame himself for making the same mistake he did with Eobard.

Flashpoint Timeline

Reverse-Flash grabs a kitchen knife and attempts to stab Nora but is attacked by another version of the Flash from the year 2016 who viciously beats him down, refusing to let Reverse-Flash kill her and refusing to let him ruin his life ever again. Reverse-Flash is then viciously beaten down by Flash and knocked out and his future actions erased from the timeline.

Barry takes Eobard to an abandoned building and locks him up in a cell that prevents him from using his powers. Three months later, Barry goes to give him some food, Eobard tells him to release him but Barry refuses to, saying he is never harming anyone again.

Barry later returns confronting Eobard about his memories as the Flash being erased. Eobard tells him as long as he uses the Speed Force, he loses his powers and memories at the same time and the timeline being set permanently.

Barry later decides to release Eobard to kill his mother after seeing

Wally get killed by The Rival and seeing his friends lives being ruined. Eobard is released and takes Barry with him to 2000.

Current Timeline Seeking the Spear of Destiny

The Reverse Flash kills Barry's mother and takes Barry back to 2016, saying that even though thing are back to normal for him, there will be differences for Barry. Unlike the original timeline, Eobard's existence remains intact, making him a "time aberration". He taunts Barry before speeding off to enjoy his freedom.

While taking advantage of his new life, Eobard finds himself being pursued by the Black Flash, the enforcer of the Speed Force's rules; he shouldn't technically exist in this timeline, since Eddie Thawne is still dead, and so Black Flash seeks to chase him down and drag him into the Speed Force. To prevent this, Eobard came to learn about the Spear of Destiny, an artifact that could re-write reality itself. Desperate for a way to get himself out of his death sentence, Eobard decided to seek it out, learning that it had been split into four pieces and divided among the members of the Justice Society of America, operating in the 1940's as meta-human war heroes. He learned that a magical amulet called the Askaran Amulet could potentially track down the pieces of the Spear, so he seeks help to recover them from throughout time.

Eobard later travels to 1942 and helps Damien Darhk capture a Nazi submarine headed for New York City. In an effort to get the first half of the amulet, he found Darhk and gave the Nazi Party tactical advice, even giving Baron Krieger a futuristic drug that could give a person inhuman strength and cause growth. Along the way, however, he had met the Legends, a team of time-travelling heroes seeking to keep men like him from altering the timeline, as well as the Justice Society's leader Rex Tyler/Hourman. During his last encounter with Rex, he was ordered by Mick Rory/Heat-Wave to go to 2016 in the Waverider time-ship, warning the Legends to not go to New York City in 1942 under any circumstances. As this happens, Rex is erased from existence; Eobard, finding Rex shortly after Baron Krieger's defeat at the hands of the Justice Society and the Legends, goes to the Justice Society's HQ, holds Rex up to the wall by his neck and tells him of their numerous encounters and kills him by phasing his hand through his chest, shredding his heart, and flees while Amaya Jiwe/Vixen decides to seek revenge on whoever did this. Eobard also takes a piece of the amulet that could be used to find the Spear's pieces.

The Legion of Doom

Seeking help in evading the Legends, the Black Flash and finding the Spear of Destiny all at once, Eobard traveled to 1987 and found Darhk again, saving him from DEA agents that were going to arrest him. At first, Darhk refused Eobard's partnership, but then Eobard says that he knows about his plan to destroy the world in an event he would call "Genesis"; in 2016, he enacts it, but is defeated and killed by the Green Arrow, who had also bested Eobard once. Damien is then convinced to arrange a meeting with the Soviet Union to obtain the second piece of the amulet. At the deal, the Legends interrupt and Sara Lance/White Canary taunts Damien for his future failure to enact Genesis. Eobard managed to save Damien at the last minute, but Sara still had the second piece of the amulet. Damien, now out of the building, insisted that they go back for it, but Eobard said that the Legends were already gone and out of reach. Damien, convinced that he needs to change his destiny, agrees to Eobard's offer, and is then shown a Time Sphere he had built. Eobard then opens a hole in space-time with his speed and went to 2016, followed closely by Damien in the Sphere.

They both arrived on May 2016, on the same day that future Damien is killed by Green Arrow in Star City. Damien and Eobard, seeking out the once-great supervillain Malcolm Merlyn, find him in a broken, depressed slump in his home, drinking excessively. With Malcolm having lost everything to Green Arrow, from his League of Assassins' title (Ra's al Ghul, temporarily) to his alliance with Darhk's organization H.I.V.E., as well as having lost his son Tommy in 2013 and his daughter Thea turning against him, he finds Eobard and Darhk in his home. Confused to see Darhk alive, Malcolm is informed of the advantages of time-travel and is offered the chance to change his fate. Malcolm, having nothing left to lose, decides to join up with them, thus forming a trio of villains that the Legends dubbed the "Legion of Doom".

Chicago Trap

In order to lure the Legends to them so they can get the amulet, the trio heads for Chicago in 1927, during the time when crime lord Al Capone was in charge of the city. They met Capone and they offered their services, but he refuses; Eobard then shows off his powers and kills all of Capone's bodyguards. Capone listened to their plan, which would see Capone escape criminal charges from the FBI and become the mayor of Chicago, and in exchange for this, he would have to provide henchmen to help them fight the Legends, who would be arriving soon due to the time aberration.

They told Capone that he would eventually be caught by Elliot Ness, so Capone arranges to have him kidnapped. However, the Legends arrived and did their best to make sure Ness would still play his part in history. While the Legends tried to make sure Capone would go to prison, Eobard abducted Sara Lance and Martin Stein, using the shape-shifting device he'd used on Harrison Wells to turn himself into Stein. The Legends came to their "rescue" and brought them onto the Waverider, where "Stein" looked around for the Amulet. Sara tried to ask him about his daughter Lily and her nature as a time aberration, but "Stein" had no idea what she was talking about. Nate Heywood, who had joined the Legends after finding the Waverider with help from the Green Arrow in 2016, also spoke to "Stein", finding it strange that he called Jefferson Jackson "Jax" and not "Mr. Jefferson" or just "Jefferson". Realizing that he'd been found out, Eobard shifted back into his regular form and tried to flee, only for Jax to use a futuristic weapon on him. Eobard quickly-recovered and tried to kill Jax, only to be stopped by Ray Palmer/Atom. He enters the bridge of the ship and seals himself inside, turning off the cloaking technology and opening the cargo doors so that Malcolm, Damien and Capone's henchmen could storm the ship.

While looking for the amulet, Eobard came across Mick Rory with a bag of treasures, assuming he'd found the amulet. However, he ends up being fooled and is struck from behind by Amaya Jiwe/Vixen, who'd joined the Legends so that she can find the man who killed Rex Tyler. Eobard seemed surprised that she'd come here, but is forced to escape when his watch starts beeping, meaning that the Black Flash was near. After escaping and leading the Black Flash away from 1927, he gets back to Malcolm and Damien at a dock, where Malcolm has managed to acquire the amulet piece.

However, Eobard says that they are two pieces of one device. He uses the completed amulet to display a holographic star-map of sorts, telling his friends of the Spear of Destiny and how it can re-write reality and allow them to change their fates. The first step in finding the Spear would be to find Captain Rip Hunter, who hasn't been seen since his presumed death in New York, 1942; however, he is actually alive, but has lost his memories and is living in the 1960's as an amateur filmmaker.

Getting Rip Hunter

Eobard sets up a makeshift base in 1967, finding that Rip was there, and sent Malcolm and Damien to capture him in order to get his piece of the Spear of Destiny. Eobard, meanwhile, had to lead the Black Flash off his scent, not telling Malcolm and Damien about his current situation. He returns as the Legends are standing before Malcolm and Damien, swiftly knocking the heroes to their feet. Eobard, debating which member of the team would die first, is distracted by Rip, who arrives with his infamous sand-brown cloak and his laser pistol; however, the gun is actually just a prop from his set, which put him at a disadvantage. The Legion made off with Rip, capturing him while the Legends escaped on the Waverider with the Askaran Amulet, and had him tied to a chair.

Equals

Eobard's patience was thinning with each passing moment, as Malcolm and Damien's torture of Rip was getting them nowhere. Infuriated, Eobard blamed Malcolm for losing the Askaran Amulet to the Legends, but he and Damien blamed him for it, as he was not doing anything and wasn't present until the stand-off with the Legends. Malcolm makes a point to Eobard that he needs them and suggests using hypnosis on Rip; however, it didn't work, as Rip's memories had been completely-wiped altogether. Eobard, angry that he's forced to work with two failed villains, speeds away, returning later after the two pulled out one of Rip's teeth and found a barcode on it, pointing directly to a bank in Zurich, Switzerland in the year 2025. Believing that it had some relevance to their scheme, Malcolm and Damien decided that they could find part of the Spear there. Eobard's watch started giving off an alarm, meaning the Black Flash would soon be upon him, and told the two to use the Time Sphere before speeding off without explaining his absence to them.

He arrives in Zurich in 2025 just in time to find Malcolm and Damien in the bank vault at night, having evaded the Black Flash, and they retrieved a Mnemonic Archive, a futuristic device containing Rip's memories. Knowing now that they could find the Spear with them, Eobard prepared to return to base; however, Damien and Malcolm, having realized that he was manipulating them and not treating them fairly as partners as he'd claimed, lock the vault door, trapping them inside so that they can get him to admit his wrongdoings and be fair to them. Eobard's watch started beeping again and he demanded to be let out or else "he" would kill them all. The two became curious about who he referring to and why he was so visibly-scared; Eobard was then forced to explain everything. He told them of how he'd been trapped in Flashpoint for 3 months by Barry Allen and kept in a cage, and after resetting the timeline to how it was, he found that he was being pursued by the Black Flash, who he considered to be far worse than the Time Wraiths. Malcolm and Damien believed that they could find a way to beat the Black Flash, but Eobard, terrified out of his mind, had little faith in them. They devised a trap for the Black Flash, concluding that he was able to track Eobard because of his speed; if he didn't use his speed, made no noise and stood still, then he'd be invisible to the demonic creature. As the Black Flash arrived at the bank, this turned out to be accurate, as he had no idea were Eobard was despite that he was standing completely-still, terrified. Malcolm and Damien then attacked from the creature's sides and Eobard punched him, pushing him into the bank vault and sealing him inside. Knowing he'd be able to escape soon, he addressed Malcolm and Damien as "partners" and they left, now being friends and equals.

Back at base, Eobard adjusted Rip's memories with the Mnemonic Archive, changing him so that he'd be an evil henchman for the Legion to use. They proceeded to send him through time to Christmas Day in 1776 to the camp of George Washington, who was on the verge of winning the American Revolutionary War; Rip then used a gun from the present to fire at Washington, creating a massive time aberration.

Mind-Controlled Rip Hunter

The Legion makes an alliance with the British Army to ensure their victory in the American Revolutionary War, giving them 21st century rifles, in exchange for the Spear of Destiny. The Legends arrived a few days before Rip's assassination of Washington in order to stop it and ensure that the United States of America still exists in the present-day. Eobard tells Rip to retrieve the piece of the Spear from the Legends, which he manages to accomplish easily.

After this, Rip tells the Legion of the other pieces of the Spear, which he'd divided among the Justice Society of America and sent them through time to hold onto their pieces of the Spear. Rip ventures to Chicago in the year 3000, finds Dr. Mid-Nite working on cybernetic technology, and kills him, retrieving the piece of the Spear. They then ventured to the year 503, during the time of the kingdom of Camelot, where Damien became known as the "Black Knight" and faced the Legends. However, in the end, Rip is captured and the Legends escape with the Spear piece. There was one last piece, however, that Rip had told them about; it was in the possession of Nate Heywood's grandfather Commander Steel in the year 1970. To this end, Eobard poses as a scientist working at NASA, where he treated astronauts intended to board Apollo-13, which is known in the present-day for facing a dangerous accident that had caused the ship to be nearly-destroyed and its crew nearly-killed, only for them to return to Earth safely.

Apollo-13

While at NASA, Eobard somehow learns that Commander Steel had hidden the last piece of the Spear within the U.S. flag that was planted on the surface of the Moon during a previous mission. Eobard used the shape-shifting device to pose as astronaut John Swigert, then boards the ship as it takes off into space. During this time, Eobard fixes the oxygen tank that was destined to explode during the mission, resulting in a time aberration that the Legends pick up on. Ray Palmer, as the Atom, manages to sneak onto Apollo-13 while shrunk down, witnessing Eobard discard his disguise and knock out the other astronauts, preparing to land on the Moon and get the Spear piece at last. However, he then notices Palmer there and tries to fight him; since his speed didn't work in zero-gravity, Eobard was somewhat helpless to his situation. Atom ties up Eobard and leaves him behind upon landing, venturing outside the ship to go get the Spear piece from the planted flag.

Upon returning to the ship, Atom finds that the LEM on the ship, which he was going to use to return to the Waverider, has been damaged. Eobard tells Atom that fixing it is a two-man job, so he will need to be un-tied for this to work; in an attempt to reason with him, Eobard tells Atom that, if either of them try anything against each other now, they could both end up exploding and then die. Atom reluctantly unties Eobard and they go to work on the LEM. While working, Eobard says that he's happy to be working with a scientists again, as he enjoyed working with the brilliant Cisco and Caitlin during his time with the Flash, and said that he's not actually such an evil monster as the Legends think.

Once they made it back to earth, Eobard manages to escape, but not before being faced by Atom who knows his identity as a time remnant and that Black Flash is after him who already arrived to search the ship. Eobard was already alerted about Black Flash's presence by his watch, making him flee the ship, but not before vowing to Atom that they would meet again.

World War I

After failing to get the last piece of the spear, Eobard has a fit, which Damien laughs at it. Thawne tells Damien not to test him, only for Damien to point out to Thawne that while he sent him and Malcom to find the Calebros Manuscript, the Legends of Tomorrow managed to break into their headquarters and collected all the other pieces of the Spear of Destiny they had. Thawne, however, suddenly realizes that they can work the Legends of Tomorrow to their advantage, as he claims that the Legends won't be able to use the spear and instead plan to either hide it or destroy it, giving the Legion of Doom the opportunity to reclaim it. Damien, on the other hand, informs Eobard that they're losing because of only having three members. Therefore, Eobard and the Legion of Doom travel back in time to recruit Leonard Snart before he was recruited by the Legends of Tomorrow after informing him about his death.

They then travel back in time to the Vanishing point in a battlefield in France during the first world war. It is there where the Legends of Tomorrow are fighting beside a soldier named J.R.R. Tolkien who knows about the Blood of Christ that can destroy the Spear of Destiny.

After the Legends successfully find the Blood of Christ, Damien Dark appears alongside with Snart, who helped the Legion of Doom know about the Legend's plan after he manipulated Mick who believed Leonard was a ghost. Thawne then comes zooming in and helps the Legion of Doom escape after Mick joined them and gave them the spear.

At the Legion of Doom headquarters, after they successfully gained the Spear of Destiny, Eobard and the Legion of Doom all hold onto it while Malcolm reads the Calebros Manuscript, causing it to rewrite reality.

Doomworld

In the new reality, Eobard is happy and successful with his life as CEO of Star Labs who is known as the smartest man in the world and is good friends with the President of the United States. With the power of the spear, Eobard trapped an insane Rip Hunter inside a miniature version of the Waverider, which he keeps as display on his desk, and transformed Jax and Martin into his Star Lab's employees. In this new reality, however, Eobard did not use the spear's power to erase Black Flash, but instead keep him locked in a cell, presumably to study him.

Malcolm comes to Star Labs to see Eobard after he ignored his requests for a meeting. Eobard tells him it's because there is no reason for one as he notes about how their partnership has ended after claiming spear. He also informs Malcolm his wife and son are alive, his daughter adores him, Talia Al Ghul lives in a closeted life in Ohio, and he has both hands again. Damien demands Thawne to hand over the Spear of Destiny, but Eobard refuses as he says it's safe in his hands as he says he's the only one who knows how to use it, only for Malcolm to point out to Thawne that he destroyed the Calebros Manuscript. Eobard tells Malcolm it's not his fault as he claims to be the only one who retains information. Alternate reality Jax suddenly appears and informs Eobard that a situation occured while working on an experiment in the lab, but is now being taken care of. Eobard, however, is not pleased with it as he reminds Jax that he promised him results. Jax assures Eobard that he will have them as he says he needs to motivate Martin more, showing that Jax acts cruel towards him about finishing work. Eobard threatens Jax that he better for his and Martin's sake. After Jax leaves, Malcolm tells Eobard that they should have erased the Legends with the Spear of Destiny as he says that keeping them around is sloppy. Eobard, on the other hand, calls it poetic justice. He then tells Malcolm to enjoy his new successful life in the rewritten reality.

Eobard is later seen happily talking on the phone with the president of the United States, about recieving a medal and playing golf with him at his hotel. After Eobard hangs up with him, he summoned Leonard Snart and Mick Rory and has a discussion with them about keeping an eye on Malcolm after he requested Eobard for the spear. Snart and Rory, however, refuses as they say they are thieves, not spies. Just then, Nate Haywood rushes in Eobard's office with security men chasing him. Eobard dismisses security as he decides to let Nate talk. Nate tells Eobard that the reality they live in is wrong as he points out inconsistencies and he came to Thawne to help him fix it. Realizing that Nate is catching on, he tells Smart and Mick to take him out for fresh air and then kill him. Unbeknownst to Thawne, the Legion of Doom plan to use Mick to bring the Legends of Tomorrow back to their formal selves.

Eobard checks up on Martin and threatens to kill him if he doesn't have it running in a few minutes. Martin soon succeeds and Eobard congrutales him for the experiment, which turns out to be a nuclear core. However, Eobard still forbids Martin from leaving as he wants him to check the core's temperature before he leaves.

The Man-Bat is a minor antagonist in the Batman: Arkham Knight side mission, "Creature of the Night". Genetic physicist, Dr. Kirk Langstrom, was working on a cure for deafness by mixing his DNA with a vampire bat. Unfortunately, he was transformed into Man-Bat and killed his wife, Francine, in the process. Batman got a sample of Langstrom's blood and synthesized a cure in his lab. After two attempts to get the Man-Bat to get cured, Batman finally turned Langstrom back to normal and took him to GCPD to get locked up in an isolated cell for protection. Langstrom asked about his wife, and Batman told him that she died from the Man-Bat's rampage, which left Langstrom devastated over his wife's death.

Scarecrow

Dr. Jonathan Crane, better known as The Scarecrow, is a supervillain from DC Comics. He is a psychiatrist and master chemist who invented a hallucinogenic chemical compound, known as Fear Toxin, that he uses to commit crimes and test his victims' sanity.

Post-Crisis

In his youth, Jonathan Crane grew up with his abusive grandmother, a religious fanatic who tortured Jonathan so badly that he developed a crippling fear of her. His life at school didn't fare much better either, because of bullies who constantly teased him for his lean appearance. Jonathan eventually had enough of his tormentors and used elements from Kung Fu to developed his own fighting style called "Violent Dancing" which takes advantage of his thin frame. He also managed to create a fear-inducing chemical compound that made its victims hallucinate about their worst fears, which his grandmother used to frighten crows.

After school bully Bo Griggs and his girlfriend Sherry Squires played a cruel prank on him, Crane decided to get revenge by putting on a scarecrow costume and brandishing a gun at them in the school parking lot. As a result, Griggs and Squires drove off in a panic and got into an accident that left Griggs paralyzed and Squires dead. Intoxicated with power, Crane returned home and used his Fear

Toxin to murder his grandmother.

Years later, Crane became a psychology professor at Gotham University - after murdering his predecessor - and used his students as human guinea pigs in his experiments, dosing them with Fear Toxin and recording their reactions. After Crane fired a gun at his students during a lecture in order to make a point about fear, the administrators at Gotham U fired him.

He then became the head psychiatrist at Arkham Asylum, experimenting on his patients by dosing them with Fear Toxin and putting on his scarecrow costume. He also used his Scarecrow persona to commit crimes in order to afford the chemicals he needed for his experiments. Although Batman eventually discovered Crane's crimes and had him incarcerated, the Scarecrow would continue to pose a threat to the Dark Knight as one of his most twisted, dangerous adversaries.

New 52

The Scarecrow's origins were altered for the New 52. In this continuity, Jonathan Crane was raised by his scientist father, who was studying the emotion of fear. He would use Jonathan as a guinea pig for his research by locking him in a pitch-black test chamber to study the boy's terrified reactions. One day, Jonathan's father died of a heart attack while Jonathan was still locked inside the chamber, and remained there days until police finally found him, starved and traumatized. Eventually Jonathan decided that he needed to learn how to control his fears so he would never have to experience such terror again.

After getting a degree in psychology, Crane began using his patients as test subjects to create a hallucinatory, fear-inducing gas called Fear Toxin before beginning his criminal career as the Scarecrow.

Powers and Abilities

Scarecrow has no known superhuman powers or abilities. He is extremely intelligent, with a particular facility for psychology, chemistry, and psychopharmacology. He is a skilled leader and tactician. Due to his long-term exposure to various chemicals and toxins he has an enhanced immunity to many of them. He is a competent fighter, and skilled in the use of the scythe as a weapon.

Other Media Batman: The Animated Series

The Scarecrow was a recurring antagonist in Batman: The Animated Series . He was voiced by the late Henry Polic II. His background is similar to his comic book counterpart; he is portrayed as a psychiatrist who is obsessed with fear, and who was fired from his teaching job for experimenting on his students. He sought revenge on the superiors who fired him, using his Fear Toxin. He is eventually defeated by Batman, who uses Scarecrow's own fear - ironically, a phobia of bats - against him.

He later attempts to increase his cash flow by betting on sports games he had rigged. He did so by dosing the best players of the opposing team with a modified fear powder that reacts to adrenaline, effecting them in the middle of the game.

In his last major appearance, he attempts to poison Gotham City's reservoir with fear toxin, and sidelines Batman by giving him such a large dose of the toxin that the Dark Knight is institutionalized in Arkham Asylum alongside the criminals he has put away. With Robin's help, however, Batman manages to overcome his fears and stop Scarecrow from poisoning the city's water supply and inciting mass panic.

The Scarecrow makes a few more minor appearances; in one episode, he is one of the "bailiffs" in a kangaroo court in which Batman's enemies put him "on trial" in Arkham; in another, he is one of the Arkham inmates brutalized by the rogue guard Lyle Bolton, who later becomes the vigilante criminal Lock-Up.

The New Batman Adventures

Like all characters, Scarecrow was redesigned to give him a much more frightening appearance. He made two major appearances. He first created a new chemical that removed people's fear, causing them to do reckless and dangerous things, and planned to release it during rush hour on the subway to sell the antidote. He unknowingly infected Batman, who disguised himself to infiltrate his operation, which caused him to lose his fear of killing and become uncontrollably violent. Fortunately, Robin is able to restrain Batman in time to stop Scarecrow from destroying Gotham and provide Batman with an antidote.

Two Face

Harvey Dent, also known by his supervillain name Two-Face, is a major antagonist in DC Comics, most notably appearing as the secondary antagonist of the Batman series.

He was Gotham City's former District Attorney, who turns to crime after half his face is disfigured. He decides whether or not to commit a crime by flipping his lucky coin, one side of which is scarred: if "good heads" comes upon a flip, he abides by the law; and if "bad heads" comes up, he commits a crime. Since the 1990s, DC's writers have depicted him as suffering from bipolar or dissociative identity disorder, with his "evil" personality in a constant battle with his former, "good" self.

Biography Post-Crisis

Harvey Dent was raised in a dysfunctional household, frequently being beaten by his alcoholic father, causing him to develop bipolar disorder and paranoia. However, his hard work ethic led him to becoming appointed as Gotham City's District Attorney at the age of 26; the youngest on record.

While prosecuting criminal boss Sal Maroni, Maroni threw acid in Dent's face before Batman could intervene, horrendously disfiguring the left side of his face. This drove Dent insane with anger, and he adopted the criminal persona Two-Face.

He now makes all of his decisions with his double-headed coin with one side defaced and, due to their history with each other, is one of the arch-enemies of Batman (along with the Joker and Ra's al Ghul), but a close friend of Bruce Wayne, as well as every one of the Robins.

New 52

Two-Face's origin and history was altered for the New 52 . In this continuity, Harvey Dent was abused as a child by his father, a corrupt businessman. After Harvey's father went to prison for fraud, he was sent to a rehabilitation center, where he met young billionaire Bruce Wayne, who was sent there for help in coping with his parents' deaths. The pair formed a pact, in which each of them would kill the other's tormentor when they got older (Harvey's father and Joe Chill, respectively). However, after Harvey's father was released from prison, he showed remorse for his past actions and wanted to become a better person and father to his son. Because of his father's redemption, Harvey backed out of the pact he made with Bruce, wanting to give his father a second chance. Although Bruce thought this was an incredibly naive move at the time, these events would have a major influence on him becoming Batman later in life.

Harvey and Bruce would continue to be friends as they grew older, with Bruce introducing Harvey to his future wife Gilda Gold and suggesting he run for district attorney. Harvey locks up many criminals with the help of Batman and Commissioner Gordon. However, tragedy strikes when Erin McKillen, a criminal whom Harvey prosecuted, takes revenge against him by killing Gilda. Erin also kidnaps Harvey and disfigures him by pouring acid on the left side of his face, transforming him into Two-Face.

Two-Face eventually attempts to kill McKillen, but Batman stops him and puts him in Arkham Asylum, beginning their feud. Years later, McKillen returns to Gotham City after several years in hiding to kill Two-Face, and thus reassert her control of her family's criminal operations. Her return sparks a climactic battle between her, Two-Face, and Batman. Two-Face scars McKillen with the same acid she used on him, but Batman stops him from killing her. Batman and Two-Face continue battling, with Batman trying to convince his foe to end his vendetta. Two-Face then calls Batman, "Bruce", revealing that he knows Batman's secret identity. Two-Face reveals that he struggled internally for quite some time over whether to kill his former friend, but decided not to because it would have violated his sense of justice. He disappears after the battle and Batman is unable to track him. Several panels of Batman and Robin #28 imply that Two-Face committed suicide by shooting himself in the head.

DC Rebirth

In the DC Rebirth reboot, Two-Face's implied death is retconned, and he now has Killer Moth, Firefly, and Black Spider as henchmen. Following a confrontation, Batman takes Two-Face into his custody, until they both have to fight KGBeast. They defeat KGBeast, but are badly injured. Batman nurses Two-Face back to health, but Two-Face suspects Batman of trying to betray him and rubs acid in his eyes.

Two-Face and Batman mend their relationship somewhat in order to face off against KGBeast, the Penguin, and Black Mask. Batman tells Two-Face that he can cure Two-Face's split personality. Two-

Face tells Batman that he will not remove the poisonous clouds over Gotham unless Batman hands it over. In the end, Batman injects the "cure", which turns out to be a sedative that renders Two-Face unconscious. Batman then takes Two-Face back to Arkham.

Deadshot

Deadshot is an antagonist from DC comics who is often an enemy of Batman. He is an assassin for hire who frequently battles the Dark Knight and other members of the Justice League, though he has also been depicted as an anti-hero on occassion, and is a frequent member of the Suicide Squad.

Little is known about Deadshot's past before being an assassin. All that is known is that his real name was Floyd Lawton, and he had an abusive father whom he tried to kill, but unintentionally shot his brother. He has since become a crack shot, often boasting that he never misses.

He initially arrived at Gotham City claiming to be a new crime fighter. He was actually planning on becoming king of Gotham's Underworld, while taking out crime bosses as a superhero. Batman and Gordon exposed this plan and he was jailed. He was also a member of the Suicide Squad, a government program that uses supervillain's services on life or death mission in exchange for a pardon. This was perfect for Deadshot because he believes he has no life purpose and does not care if he lives or dies. When not working for the Squad he goes on assassination missions.

On his missions he has assassinated a senator, killed a man committing crimes pretending to be Deadshot, and offering to put Count Vertigo out of his misery. He was once possessed by a demon named Neron. While controlled Neron tried to have him kill a kindergarten class but the Justice League stops him. He also once attempted to kill the pope but was stopped by Wonder Woman. In 2005, Deadshot learned that he had a daughter named Zoey living in a rough neighborhood controlled by gangs.

Though he decided a normal life as a father wasn't for him, instead wiping out all the local gangs. Deadshot later broke into Arkham Asylum to kill Joker on an assassination mission, but was stopped and nearly killed by another assassin named Onomatopoeia. He informs Batman what had happened and was sent back to jail. After being caught yet again, he returns to the government operated Suicide Squad.

Metallo

John Corben, or also better known as Metallo, is a recurring antagonist in the DC Animated Universe, appearing as a major antagonist in Superman: The Animated Series and a minor antagonist in both Justice League and Justice League Unlimited . He was a an infamous mercenary and hit man who would later become the cyborg Metallo after he was unknowingly infected with a rare disease by Lex Luthor's scientists.

He was voiced by Malcolm McDowell, who also played Lord Maliss, Alex, Caligula, Colonel F. E. Cochrane, Tolian Soran, Kesslee, Sinclair and Geoffrey Tolwyn.

Superman: The Animated Series

John Corben was originally a top-tier mercenary. At one time, he led a team of mercenaries to steal the Lexo-Skel Suit 5000 from LexCorp, a theft staged by Lex Luthor for the benefit of the Regent of Kaznia. When Lois Lane tracked the thieves to their ship in Metropolis Harbor, Corben caught her and prepared to kill her, but Superman intervened. To give himself a fighting chance, Corben mounted the Lexo-Skel himself and engaged Superman in a fight that raged across Metropolis, ending when Superman tore the suit apart. Although Luthor represented to the Regent's lawyer that he had fulfilled his part of the bargain by letting "the Regent's men" take possession of the suit, Luthor subsequently acted as though Corben had been working for him.

Corben was sent to Stryker's Island Prison, where he refused to give details on his employers. For this reason, his cell featured ample creature comforts and gourmet meals, supplied by an apparently-grateful Luthor. A few months after his imprisonment, he was shocked to be told that he was suffering from a rare and terminal viral disease found only in a small island in the South Seas. While looking at his prison record, Clark Kent was perplexed at how John Corben could have contracted this disease, not being native to the tiny island where the only cases are known. Lois Lane chalked it up to the fact that Corben was an international mercenary with outstanding warrants in several nations, thus it made better sense that with such globe-trotting Corben would be more at risk for exposure to rare diseases.

Luthor helped Corben escape, and in exchange for his discretion, offered him a way to avoid death: LexCorp scientists would transfer his mind into an indestructible android body made of metallo, possessing strength equal to Superman's and powered by a Kryptonite heart. Feeling he had nothing to lose, Corben agreed. Upon the completion, Corben's android body was covered with a layer of artificial skin, which, aside from a rectangular seam which could expose his Kryptonite heart, allowed him to pass himself off as his original body. At first, Corben was thrilled with his new abilities, which allowed him to fight Superman nearly to the death. However, when he realized that he could no longer smell, eat or feel, he became disenchanted and abandoned the fight. Corben sought out LexCorp scientists, demanding that they make the "adjustments" they talked about when he awoke in his new body. However, the scientists confessed that they really meant Corben himself had to adjust to his transformation, which was irreversible. Upon hearing this news, Corben went insane, ripping away part of his artificial skin and officially adopting the identity "Metallo". Metallo angrily confronted Luthor on his yacht, who tried to reassure him that his condition could be fixed, given time. He went on saying that even if Metallo kills him, it would not satisfy him given his "practically immortal" nature, making him reconsider killing Luthor. Luthor then drives his yacht to a lab to repair Metallo's skin. On the way, Luthor tells him that while he'll repair Metallo's skin, he still needs to kill Superman to which the cyborg advises his boss to be patient as they both need to be given time. Just then, Superman arrived and revealed that Luthor had deliberately arranged for Corben to be infected with the disease, just so Luthor could use him as a guinea pig for the Metallo experiment. Metallo turned on Luthor, but Superman intervened. Luthor's yacht was destroyed in the battle, leaving Metallo stranded beneath the sea, but still alive.

Metallo resurfaced from the ocean on a volcanic island, having suffered amnesia after the explosion. His clothes and artificial skin had been completely disintegrated following the last battle, leaving him as nothing but a skeletal featureless android. He was found by two children, Sarita and Bobby Felix, who decided he was a "hero" because of his resemblance to their action figures. This idea of him as a hero was reinforced when Metallo did indeed perform a heroic act by shielding the two children from dangerous pyroclastics when the volcano unexpectedly burst. However, everything came back to him eventually, faster after Bobby shared his Superman toy with him. When Superman appeared on the island, helping with the evacuation from a volcanic eruption, Metallo attacked and nearly killed him. When the kids protested the action of their hero, however, Metallo was distracted enough to allow Superman to throw his Kryptonite heart into the flowing lava. Metallo desperately went after it, but wound up encased in the cooled lava unable to move or even see. Instead, he focused his mind on his identity, determined not to lose it again.

Metallo was eventually extricated by Intergang, who repaired and even improved his android body, in exchange for which he assisted in a series of bank robberies. When Superman tried to stop him, he severely weakened the Man of Steel with Kryptonite lasers. John Henry Irons, a former employee of LexCorp, donned a suit of armor and helped Superman defeat Metallo. This was the beginning of Irons' own superhero career as Steel.

Metallo later enlisted Tina, an intern at The Daily Planet, to kidnap Lois Lane in order to help him lure Superman into a trap. Fortunately, Jimmy Olsen learned of this and went to the Metropolis Junkyard to rescue him. Metallo and Superman battled again in a demolition machine, resulting in Metallo apparently being crushed by falling debris.

Justice League

Metallo survived once again, however, and returned to Metropolis to join a group of disgruntled villains who had all been previously defeated by Superman including Livewire, Toyman, Kalibak and Weather Wizard. In their fight with the Justice League, Metallo was beaten by J'onn J'onzz, though Toyman seemingly succeeded in killing Superman. Fortunately, this later turned out not to be the case.

When Grodd founded his expanded Secret Society (which was heavily based on the Legion of Doom), Metallo joined its ranks. One of his missions was to accompany Silver Banshee to the underground world of Skartaris and assist the dictator Deimos in exchange for a large chunk of Kryptonite. However, a League team composed of Green Lantern, STRIPE, Stargirl, and Supergirl, intervened on behalf of Travis Morgan's resistance. He surprised Stargirl and beat her senseless after she defeated Deimos. Then in battle with Supergirl, Metallo lost an arm when Supergirl stabbed his shoulder with Stargirl's staff. He continued battling Supergirl, who eventually grabbed a knife and removed Metallo's Kryptonite heart, leaving the mercenary paralyzed. Metallo was taken to a cave where he was briefly interrogated by Green Lantern. At first he refused to talk, but Lantern pointed out that without his Kryponite heart, his body would shut down within the next few minutes, even seconds. Metallo was about to talk, but his mind was mysteriously shut down by an unknown source (It was actually Gorilla Grodd, who would shut down the minds of anyone who betrayed him). His motionless body was later taken to the Watchtower, to see if J'onn could probe what was left of his mind for information. Metallo's ultimate fate is unknown.

Flywheels: Robot versions of Ocean Master, Deadshot, Reverse Flash, Man Bat, Two Face, Metallo, and Scarecrow too?!

Deathstroke: Fortunately for all of you, these are only mindless drones. AUTO wasn't foolish enough to give them the minds of the original versions.

Me: That's good and we haven't faced Orm A.K.A. Ocean Master, Eobard Thawne A.K.A. Reverse Flash and Kirk Langstrom A.K.A. The Man Bat yet. We cured Harvey Dent, Killed Deadshot and Scarecrow and cured Metallo.

Nico: I remember that we faced Francine Langstrom as a female Man Bat.

Laney: That was crazy!

Me: Yeah it was.

Tara: Slade, even in death you just will never leave me alone!

The Dark Signers and Shade then appeared.

Me: The Dark Signers and Shade.

Roman Goodwin: Glad to see you all made it.

William: Did you guys explore the Axiom before finding us?

Carly Atlas: We sure did.

Devack: The robots there offered us to use the services of the Axiom. Including the food.

Misty Tredwell: But don't worry. We didn't use them long enough to become fat like the others. (to Homer) No offense.

Homer: None taken.

Me: But we're gonna be in for a deadly battle here with them. (Points to the robots)

Carly Atlas: Whoa! Robot versions of some of the Justice League's worst enemies.

Kalin: You guys haven't faced Orm, Reverse Flash or the Man Bat yet.

Me: No we haven't. But we did face Francine Langstrom as a female Man Bat.

Greiger: Whoa!

Shade: That is crazy.

?: Not just them you have to worry about.

11 figures came out and it was THE CAPTAIN PLANET VILLAINS

AND THE FOSSIL FUEL 4!

Me: Oh man! The Planeteer's villains and the Fossil Fuel 4!

Nico: It's like Earth Day Week all over again!

Twilight Sparkle: Whoa! So they are the Planeteer's villains.

Bart Simpson: Except for the Fossil Fuel 4. They are Radioactive Man's enemies.

?: Lots of robots huh?

A figure came out and it was DOWSER BOT from episode 23 of R.P.M.!

---

The Dowser Bot is one of Venjix's Attack Bots.

Character History

This unnamed Attack Bot was not featured in a normal episode, but appeared in the show Behind the Scenes episode "And… Action!. Thus its basic origins and battles are either not known, or were left simple.

This Dowser Bot was sent into Corinth to attack the city, along with Tenaya 7 and the Grinders. The Rangers quickly responded and fought off the evil army. Ranger Red fought this Dowser Bot, and then the Rangers were able to destroy this Attack Bot with the RPM Enforcer.

---

Scott Truman: Dowser Bot!

Dowser Bot: Been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were sent to attack Corinth and the rangers beat you. Enough said.

Dowser Bot: Yeah that is simple. But good memory.

Me: Yeah.

Dowser Bot: With all the robots, I'd fit right at home here.

Me: You sure would.

Summer Landsdown: Absolutely.

Nico: Yep.

Laney: Lets get them!

Me: Wait before we fight, AUTO do you have an arena where we can fight in? We don't want to damage the colony.

AUTO: Smart thinking. Drone 1 take our guests and drones and robots to the fighting arena.

Drone 1 did so and we were in an awesome arena to fight.

Battle 1: Bertrand, Pepperdance, Cayenne, Red Lantern Corps, Miranda and Raythor VS Roman Goodwin of the Spider

Pepperdance: It was ALL OVER the place! We collected all the trash and it had a massive pile of trash as big as Mount Everest.

Roman: GEEZ! That's a lot of garbage! What caused all that trash to pile up like that?

Cayenne: Rampant consumerism and environmental neglect.

Bleez: Yeah it was awful.

Zilius Zox: Yeah it was terrible.

Miranda: I can't believe we would let this get out of hand like that.

Sunset Shimmer: Yeah it's awful.

Applejack: I can't believe he was programmed to do that.

Scootaloo: No kidding. That's awful.

Larfleeze: It sure is awful! I hope we stop that awful program.

Galaxy Man: Agreed. But that AUTO reminds me of HAL 9000 from 2001: A Space Oddysey.

Carly Atlas: Good comparison. Lets do it!

Carly fired waves of orange fire and the group did the same and the blasts all hit Carly and smashed her down.

Apple Bloom: Oh Fluttershy. That is awful.

Lemon Hearts: Yeah that is terriible you went through all that.

Sinestro: Sorry you went through all that.

Kara Sil: Yeah that must've been traumatizing.

Phage: Yeah. Poor girl.

Lyra Heartstrings: They sure were and thank goodness they were able to help her out.

Tree Hugger: And get her to overcome her fears.

Mage Meadowbrook: They sure did a good job.

Hal Jordan: That shows true friendship pright there. And Hinata has so much in common with her.

Acid Man: Yeah we were amazed by that.

Twilight Sparkle: WHAT!? Skumm killed Linka's cousin!?

Brittney: Yeah it was horrible. He killed her cousin in cold blood.

Carol Ferris: I remember that. That was horrible.

Black Widow: I would say absolutely. We learned that when the Dark Orb Fragments got put into us from Rotwood and his Posse. Squidward said so.

Maggie: Yeah that is weird and awful.

Moonlight Raven: Yeah and crazy too.

Rarity: Definitely darling.

Flywheels: I think it's crazy.

Stranglehold: No kidding.

Shade: I wish there was something we can do to make sure that they are erased forever. Lets do it!

They fired blasts of black fire and Shade fired blasts of darkness and the blasts smashed down Shade!

Black Widow: All right!

---

Rex Goodwin: Let's spend the rest of the day here on the Axiom.

WALL E: That's a good idea.

Shade: I agree. I think we've earned the right to relax on here.

Me: You said it. Lets do it.

We did so and had fun.

The 29th Century was really cool.

Me and everyone: (To the Viewers) HAPPY EARTH DAY EVERYONE!

WALL-E: (To the viewers) Hope you all loved this adventure.

We got everyone settled in back on Earth on the 29th Century and we helped everyone out and cleaned up everything that was left. Afterwards we got the salvage stuff and recycleable metal and spare parts and stuff to the storage room for use later. We later had dinner and went to sleep.

THE END

We were walking home from school and we were tasked with watching over the school mascot for Mandy's school football team: Fluffy Cat. He is the school mascot for the Endsville Elementary School Fluffy Cats. We were tasked with watching him because as part of an annual tradition, the rival team of the Fluffy Cats, The Rump City Bootyheads will try to kidnap him so we were tasked to watch him.

Rarity: Oh he is the cutest cat ever. Looks like Opal will have a new playmate.

Fluttershy: He sure is the cutest cat.

?: Hey!

We saw a bunch of kids and they were THE RUMP CITY BOOTYHEADS!

Me: So you guys are the Rump City Bootyheads. Now I see why you are called that.

Eli: Because your faces look like butts.

Me: Yeah. Pretty ugly if you ask me. Do you guys fart out of your mouths every time you talk?

We laughed!

WHOA CRUEL!

Maria: What the Hell do you morons want? Billy isn't even here!

Bootyhead 1: We came to kidnap Fluffy Cat and kill you guys!

Laney: Come and try it!

Me: Yeah you fuckbutts!

Nico: Bring it on you fuckpot buttfaces!

Just as one of the was about to slap Nico across his face twice, Nico grabbed his hands and kicked him in the face.

Bootyhead 1: GET THEM!

They came at us and we smashed and pulverized them all over the place.

POW! BLAM! SMASH! CRASH! BAM! KROW! ZONK! BIFF! KATOW! THWACK! ZOWIE! ZIFF!

We pulverized the entirety of the Rump City Bootyheads into pulp.

Me: Fluffy Cat is under our protection from you guys.

We went back to the estate and Fluffy Cat and Opalescence got along great and were awesome friends and lovers. Like Gary and Snelly. It was so cute!

Nico was about to watch The Muppets.

Manaphy: What are you and Nico watching, Mama?

May: Me and Nico are watching Muppets. Do the 5 of you want to watch with us?

Manaphy: You bet we do!

Me: Ooh the Muppets! I haven't watched them in like forever.

Nico: Neat!

Me: Be right back.

I went and got one of my favorite childhood movies from my youth.

Me: This is my favorite Muppets movie.

I showed them The Muppet Christmas Carol.

Nico: Ooh! The Muppet Christmas Carol! That's a great one.

Me: Mine too. This was the first Muppets movie I've watched.

May: Cool!

I put the movie in and played it and we were watching The Muppet Christmas Carol.

---

On Christmas Eve, in 19th century London, Charles Dickens (played by Gonzo the Great) and his friend Rizzo act as narrators throughout the film. Ebenezer Scrooge (Michael Caine), a cold-hearted, bad-tempered and selfish money-lender, does not share the merriment of Christmas. Scrooge rejects his nephew Fred's invitation to Christmas dinner, dismisses two gentlemen (played by Dr. Bunsen Honeydew and Beaker) collecting money for charity, and tosses a wreath at a carol-singing Bean Bunny. His loyal employee Bob Cratchit (played by Kermit the Frog) and the other bookkeepers request to have Christmas Day off since there will be no business for Scrooge on the day, to which he reluctantly agrees. Scrooge leaves for home while the bookkeepers celebrate Christmas. In his house, Scrooge encounters the shackled ghosts of his late business partners Jacob and Robert Marley (played by Statler and Waldorf), who warn him to repent his wicked ways or he will be condemned to suffer in the afterlife like they were, informing him that three spirits will visit him during the night.

At one o'clock, Scrooge is visited by the childlike Ghost of Christmas Past, who takes him back in time to his childhood and early adult life, with Dickens and Rizzo hitching a ride too. They visit his lonely school days and then his time as an employee under Fozziwig (Mr. Fezziwig from the original story, played by Fozzie Bear), who owned a rubber chicken factory. Fozziwig and his mother throw a Christmas party, where Scrooge meets a young woman named Belle, with whom he falls in love. However, the Ghost shows Scrooge how Belle left him after he chose money over her. A tearful Scrooge dismisses the Ghost as he returns to the present.

At two o'clock, Scrooge meets the gigantic, merry Ghost of Christmas Present, who shows him the joys and wonder of Christmas Day. Scrooge and the Ghost visit Fred's house, where Scrooge is made fun of for his stinginess and general ill will toward all. Scrooge and the spirit then visit Bob Cratchit's house, learning his family (Mrs. Cratchitt is played by Miss Piggy) is content with their small dinner. Scrooge also takes pity on Bob's ill son Tiny Tim (played by Robin the Frog). The Ghost of Christmas Present abruptly ages, commenting that Tiny Tim will likely not survive until next Christmas. Scrooge and the Ghost go to a cemetery, where the latter fades away. The Ghost of Christmas Yet to Come then approaches Scrooge, appearing as a tall, silent, cloaked figure. While Dickens and Rizzo abandon the audience to avoid being frightened, the Ghost takes Scrooge into the future.

Scrooge and the Ghost witness a group of businessmen discussing the death of an unnamed colleague, saying they would only attend the funeral if lunch was provided. In a den, Scrooge recognizes his charwoman, his laundress, and the local undertaker trading several stolen possessions of the deceased to a fence named Old Joe. The Ghost then transports Scrooge to Bob's house, discovering Tiny Tim has died. Scrooge is escorted back to the cemetery, where the Ghost points out his own grave, revealing Scrooge as the man who died. Overcome with remorse, Scrooge tearfully vows to change his ways.

Awakening in his bedroom on Christmas Day, Scrooge decides to surprise Bob's family with a turkey dinner and ventures out with Bean, Dickens, Rizzo, and the charity workers to spread happiness and joy around London. Scrooge goes to the Cratchit house, at first putting on a stern demeanor before revealing he intends to raise Bob's salary and pay off his mortgage. Dickens narrates how Scrooge became a second father to Tiny Tim, who escaped death. Scrooge, the Cratchits, and the neighborhood celebrate Christmas.

When the movie was done we cheered wildly.

Nico: That was awesome!

Me: Michael Caine did a great job in that movie.

Nico: He sure did. It was awesome how he turned his life around and helped people.

Me: And all because he didn't have any faith.

Twilight Sparkle: Yeah poor guy. But that is a great story in that movie. It reminds me of the play we all did last year as well as A Hearthswarming Tale.

Me: It sure does. Those were all awesome and great stories. We'll have to see the play that Princess Celestia told me about where you girls got to participate in for where it tells us about the Founding of Equestria and how it came into being.

Twilight Sparkle: You would love it J.D. It's about how the Unicorns, Pegasi and Earth Ponies hated each other and founded Equestria to save it from the eternal cold of the Windigos.

Me: Wow! So in a way it's three holidays wrapped into one: Independence Day, Thanksgiving and Christmas all in one.

Twilight Sparkle: That's a good way to put it.

Nico: Yeah.

Tentacool: Wow!

Clover the Clever: But that brings back memories. And I should know because I am one of the founding members that helped establish Equestria eons ago.

Me: Oh right Star Swirl told me all about that. That is so cool!

Twilight Sparkle: It sure is.

Me: I think the Founders of Equestria would make awesome esteemed guests for that play so they can see how Twilight and friends did it.

Nico: I agree. Are you gonna bring them back J.D.?

Me: If you guys want.

Clover the Clever: It would be great.

Me: Okay then. (Snaps fingers)

5 pillars of light came down from the heavens and out of those pillars came 5 figures and they were Princess Platinum, Commander Hurricane, Chancellor Puddinghead, Private Pansy and Smart Cookie!

---

Princess Platinum, Clover the Clever, Commander Hurricane, Private Pansy, Chancellor Puddinghead, and Smart Cookie are six ponies who first discovered and founded the kingdom of Equestria long before the series' present day. Platinum, Hurricane, and Puddinghead served as the leaders of the unicorn, Pegasus, and Earth pony tribes respectively, and Clover, Pansy, and Smart Cookie were their advisors/seconds-in-command.

The Equestrian founders' story serves as the focus of the season two episode Hearth's Warming Eve, reenacted through an annual holiday stage pageant. Long ago, before the rule of Princess Celestia, Earth ponies, unicorns, and Pegasi were divided by hatred and only cared about their own tribe. The tense peace between the pony tribes is eventually broken by a mysterious blizzard.

Princess Platinum of the unicorns, Commander Hurricane of the Pegasi, and Chancellor Puddinghead of the Earth ponies hold a summit to figure out how to cope with the blizzard, but they are unable to reach an agreement. After the three leaders confer with their subordinates-unicorn advisor Clover the Clever, Pegasus Private Pansy, and Earth pony secretary Smart Cookie-they decide to set out and find a new land.

The three pairs all meet in the same location and argue over whom has first stake over the new land, causing another blizzard to start. The six ponies take shelter in a cave, but as Puddinghead, Hurricane, and Platinum continue to argue, they are soon frozen in ice. Clover the Clever identifies the cause of the blizzard to be windigos - malevolent winter spirits that feed on hatred and fighting.

Despite the animosity between their leaders and tribes, Smart Cookie, Pansy, and Clover maintain warm relations, and they eventually break the windigos' spell through the Fire of Friendship. Their warmth thaws their leaders' bodies and melts their hearts, and the leaders decide to share the new land, naming it Equestria.

In the season five episode Hearthbreakers, the Friendship Express train offers "Chancellor Puddinghead puddings" to passengers.

In the season eight episode Marks for Effort, Chancellor Puddinghead, portrayed as male, is depicted in Twilight Sparkle's slideshow. In A Matter of Principals, Clover the Clever's cloak serves as one of several centerpieces in a School of Friendship scavenger hunt.

In the holiday special My Little Pony Best Gift Ever, Chancellor Puddinghead is mentioned as having made a legendary pudding dish for the very first Hearth's Warming.

In the Best Gift Ever short Mystery Voice, Princess Platinum, Commander Hurricane, and Chancellor Puddinghead are mentioned during Applejack's retelling of the first Hearth's Warming.

Princess Platinum: Wow. We're back.

Clover: Everyone!

Princess Platinum: Clover! You're here!

Princess Platinum and Clover hugged and so did everyone.

Me: Founders of Equestria it's an honor to meet you all.

Chancellor Puddinghead: It is an honor to meet you J.D.

Commander Hurricane: We heard so much about all of your adventures.

Smart Cookie: Yeah we were told so much about them from a man named Kellaway.

Me: Wow. I had a feeling it was him. Ra's too?

Private Pansy: Yeah him too. We were told so much about all of your adventures and everything you all did.

Princess Platinum: Especially with how you all killed Chrysalis and Sombra.

Me: We did more than just kill those 2. We destroyed all of Equestria's major enemies.

I told them all about the War in Equestria and everything that happened and all that.

When I was finished they were amazed.

Chancellor Puddinghead: Whoa! That is amazing!

Princess Platinum: Amazing! Wow! You did all of Equestria a huge service and more.

Me: Many times actually. This whole place that's our home, it's a giant world tree.

We showed them the view outside and they saw the planet at 100 miles up and saw that we were on a huge world tree. I told them everything that has happened and all that went down over the last 1,000 years in Equestria and more. When I was finished they were amazed.

Princess Platinum: Oh my goodness!

Chancellor Puddinghead: That is incredible!

Commander Hurricane: You all have done so much.

Smart Cookie: No kidding!

Me: We have something to show you all.

We went to the Canterlot Sculpture Garden.

---

In the Canterlot Sculpture Garden we saw beautiful statues.

Nico: Wow. Look at these amazing statues.

Me: Yep.

Princess Celestia: This is my favorite place to come to whenever I need some quiet time.

Princess Luna: It's beautiful.

Me: Yep. This is what I wanted to show you all.

We walked up to a statue and we saw a statue and it was a statue of the 27 Most Dangerous Enemies in all of Equestria in a fan formation and they were ready for a brutal fight.

Me: This statue was made by Laney and a colt named Chip Cutter. We asked them to commemorate the April 12th War by making a statue of the 27 most dangerous enemies in all of Equestria. We call them the Armageddon 27.

Nico: WHOA! That is a wicked statue.

Me: Yep. Read the plaque on it.

Nico saw it and read it.

Nico: "THIS MONUMENT TO DISHARMONY IS CURRENTLY ON TOUR ALL OVER EQUESTRIA, REMINDING EVILDOERS AND VILLAINS ALIKE THAT THE SPIRIT OF FRIENDSHIP WILL NEVER BE CONQUERED. MAY FUTURE GENERATIONS LEARN AND NEVER REPEAT THE MISTAKES OF TIREK THE TERRIBLE, CHRYSALIS THE CRUEL, EVIL COZY GLOW THE MALEFIC, KING SOMBRA THE BLACKHEARTED, GROGAR THE MALEVOLENT, NIGHTMARE MOON THE DARK, DAYBREAKER THE HATEFUL, THE MEAN 6 THE DISHARMONIOUS, THE MANE-IAC THE MANIACAL, EVIL STARLIGHT GLIMMER THE NEFARIOUS, STORM KING THE TREACHEROUS, THE PONY OF SHADOWS THE CORRUPTOR, THE DAZZLINGS THE SONGS OF HATE, RABIA THE BLOODTHIRSTY, THE DIAMOND DOGS THE GREEDY, DEMON SHIMMER THE POWERHUNGRY, MIDNIGHT SPARKLE THE DESTROYER, AND ABACUS CINCH THE MANIPULATOR."

Lola: WHOA!

Lana: Wow! Those titles are the ultimate epitomes of pure evil.

Princess Platinum: Wow! You guys beat all 27 of them by yourselves!?

Me: We had a lot of help.

Nico: We sure did.

Me: Many friends from all over the entire universe came and helped us all out on April 12th.

Lola: Yeah and Laney's dream helped us prepare for it.

Me: Yep.

Lori: We were literally prepared for it.

Smart Cookie: Wow! You guys sure were and you did a great job.

Me, Lynn and Nico were watching Sports on TV. Baseball.

Me: Come on Rockies!

Lynn: Go Tigers!

Me: YEAH!

They were playing well and then a wild pitch was missed!

Me and Lynn: (In Unison) WHAT THE HELL!? THAT WAS A WILD PITCH!

Me: (To Lynn) Jinx!

Lynn was Jinxed.

Jinx: Someone call?

Me: Oh not you Jinx. I put a Jinx on Lynn.

Jinx: Oh that crazy game.

Nico: I love that game! It's funny.

Lynn: What is Jinx?

Me: Well when we say the same thing at the same time I say Jinx and then that means you are forbidden to talk. Every time you talk someone punches you.

Nico: And I get to punch you.

Me: And you can't talk until someone says your name 3 times.

Lynn: Oh I get it!

POW!

Nico punched her in the arm.

Lynn: OW!

Nico: Sorry but it's part of the rules.

Me: See? It's a game.

Nico: A game of torture.

Mordecai: Oh yeah that is funny!

Rigby: YEAH!

Me: Better keep your mouth shut Lynn if you don't want to get punched.

Lynn: Fine.

POW!

Nico punched her.

Over the next 5 hours, Lynn was getting punched and pulverized all over and more. She was brutally pulverized all over and she had bad injuries all over.

Lynn: I don't think I like this game anymore.

Nico: Why don't we make it interesting then? (gets out knife)

Lynn: (scared) W-What are you doing?!

Nico: (laughs evilly) This is payback for all the times you, Lori, and Lola got angry during missions! (to Lori and Lola) And why don't you two join this game as well?!

Lori: With pleasure.

Lola: This is for hurting Linky.

They smashed and pulverized her all over.

Me: All right guys! That's enough. I'm calling off the Jinx.

Jinx: This was not the game I like. It was more like torture.

Me: I agree. Sorry about this Lynn. I hope you aren't hurt too bad.

Lynn: I'm all right but I learned a huge lesson.

Lightning: Good.

Lightning picked her up.

Lightning: Lets get you some rest babe.

Lynn: Thanks Lightning.

Lola: Nico, you're not really planning to kill us with a knife in the future, are you?

Nico: (laughs) Relax. It was all part of the game. I'm just messing with you guys anyway. Why are you so serious?

Lori: (sternly) Because it literally didn't look like you were joking. It literally looked like you were going to try and kill me, Lola, and Lynn with that knife!

Me: Relax Lori.

I showed the knife was made of foam.

Me: See? It's made of foam. It looked very real didn't it?

Lola: Yeah it did. Thank goodness.

Me: Also Nico don't use that line from the Joker of The Dark Knight. That version scares me.

Nico: Sorry.

Present

---

We were watching TV and playing card games and Lynn had a bunch of bandages all over.

Hornet Man: You think maybe we should check on Billy to see if he's okay?

Me: Good idea. Lets head to the planet Virunga.

Nico: Lets do it.

We were off to the planet Virunga with just a snap of my fingers and J.D. 2's experiences when he was there before.

We were looking for Billy and we saw a tent and we saw that he was not in it.

Courage: Billy? Are you there?

We looked around and saw that he was nowhere to be found.

Me: Hmm. That's weird. Where could he be?

Eli: I don't sense him anywhere on this planet.

My Dark Orb Detector went off and it showed that there was residue of a Dark Orb on the planet where we were at.

Me: There's trace amounts of Dark Orb energy here.

Vince: That's odd. I think someone might've gotten Billy before us!

Me: (Sees something) What's this?

I saw an unusual symbol on a piece of paper and picked it up.

Me: Whoever it was left his calling card.

Young Blossom: Hmm. Who is Hardly?

Adult Blossom gasped when she heard that name and looked at the card.

Adult Blossom: Oh no! This is the logo of Professor Dick Hardly!

Me: Wasn't he Professor Utonium's old college roommate?

Adult Bubbles: He was.

Adult Buttercup: You would hate this guy to the core J.D.

The Powerpuff Girls went over his history.

---

Professor Richard "Dick" Hardly is a one-shot character in The Powerpuff Girls who serves as the main antagonist in the episode "Knock It Off".

He was voiced by Jeff Bennett, who also played H.A.R.D.A.C. in Batman: The Animated Series, Major Man, as well as Ace, Big Billy, and Grubber from the Gangreen Gang in The Powerpuff Girls.

Backstory

Dick Hardly was an old college roommate of Professor Utonium. Though Utonium initially considered him a friend, Dick always took advantage of him and unlike the former, he only sought financial profit in science. Dick's bad deeds towards Utonium was to cheat him and always steal his projects, making him do his works for him while Dick had time to go with friends and women and never listening to Utonium when he wanted Dick to be more interested in the science. However, whether or not Utonium always saw him as otherwise is beyond anybody's guess.

One day, Professor received a call from Dick, who was planning to pay a visit to the Utonium residence (likely, to steal yet another one of his old friend's projects). Once he came, Utonium welcomed Dick and gave him a tour to the interior of the house. However, when Dick saw Blossom, Bubbles, and Buttercup and their unbelievable powers, he believed that the girls were worth a great deal of money. When Dick ignored Utonium's warnings many times who tried to say something about his ideas with his daughters, Utonium demanded Hardly to leave when he realized how greedy he was since they were young, and still is. Utonium then demands Dick to keep away from him and the girls for good, stating that his visit is officially over. However, Dick was still interested to find out more about the Powerpuff Girls. The next day, he offered the girls a ride home from school, and slightly asks for the ingredients. Unaware of what he was planning, the girls then takes a flask of Chemical X from Utonium's laboratory and gave it to Dick.

He proceeded to go to an abandoned factory and make his clones of the girls, which he named "The Powerpuff Girls with Chemical Xtreme", starting a business and selling them to all the people in their respective countries around the world and obtaining fame and money in the process. He gradually gets more and more avaricious as a result and treated the clones as nothing more than selling products, using minimum materials and Chemical X so that they would fall apart and he could continue selling more copies. At one point, his employees mistakenly created a seemingly perfect version of Buttercup, and he had her melted down for her Chemical X, which resulted in the clone being killed in the process. With the pass of the time, Dick's factory also started to grow to the point of being turned into a dark and twisted place.

Eventually, although Dick gained more wealth and fame as he swore, the original girls realized that Dick cheated them when they saw one of the commercials of "The Powerpuff Girls with Chemical Xtreme" on TV, realizing that he was willing to sell his false Powerpuff Girls to anyone willing to pay him for them, even criminals. The three girls went to his factory, where they confronted him for lying to them and stealing the Chemical X, but despite being exposed to his lies, Dick (almost psychotically) refuses to back down, stating that he was planning to steal more of the chemical. The girls ordered him to return the Chemical X they gave to him, but Dick greedily refuses and instead ingested the vial containing the chemical, leaving the girls confused and horrified. At first, Dick seems fine, but then the Chemical starts to take effect on his body, first causing a spasm attack in which he foams from the mouth. He gets up all well and good, but then suddenly transforms into a giant yellowish-green mutant with tentacles. Dick then used his new powers to attack the girls, who then fight back. Unfortunately, Dick has proven to be too strong for the girls and locks them in a dome, hoping to drain them of their Chemical X for his purposes. In the meantime, Utonium, having caught wind of Dick's plans, heads over to the factory.

Utonium finally enters the factory and finds out what happened after he saw all of the deformed clones, the dying girls, and the monstrous Dick. Declaring this to be the last straw, Utonium angrily demands Dick to stop draining the Chemical X from the girls, but Dick refuses by threatening to kill Utonium if he tries to stop him. Utonium offers to take the girls' place so that he can make more of the Chemical X for Dick as his slave, but the latter still refuses and instead orders the deformed clones to capture Utonium. As Utonium struggles to get free, he tearfully tells the girls that he loves them. Blossom, Bubbles, and Buttercup reply, "We love you, too!" to Utonium just as they finally succumb to their deaths.

These tragic words touch the deformed clones, finally seeing how much the Professor loves the three girls while Dick had only used them for his greed. Having had enough of this, the deformed clones freed Utonium and rebelled against Dick, confronting him on the fact that he never gave them love. Seeing the clones confront him, Dick angrily demanded them to obey him as he was their master, but one of the clones stated he is only a master of evil. Determined to put him down for good, the angry clones surround the screaming Dick and restrain him to the ground. Afterward, they sacrifice themselves to destroy Dick with their powers, causing a fire that engulfs the entire factory. The remaining clones allowed Utonium to escape with his daughters before they perished. As the factory burns, Utonium cries over the loss of his daughters, but his love was enough to revive them back to life, much to his delight. When Bubbles asks what happened to Dick and the clones, Utonium replied that "Dick may have gotten the formula right, but the one ingredient that he forgot was love.", which the clones wanted all along. Utonium and the girls then head home while Dick makes one more scream of agony before he finally dies.

When she was done we gasped in shock!

Me: Oh man!

Varie: So he took Billy!

Naruto: And he made cheap knockoff clones of the Powerpuff Girls all for Money!? What a fiend!

Me: (GROWLS)

I clenched my hands tight and blood poured through my knuckles and burns the ground.

Me: And you're right guys. I now officially DO hate this guy.

Naruto: What a monster! And he stole Chemical X and made cheep knockoffs of the Powerpuff Girls all for his greed and then he kidnapped Billy?

Maria: That actually is possible.

Me: Hmm. And you're right girls. I do hate this guy to the core now. After hearing it from you. But I thought he died back then.

Adult Blossom: He must've been brought back to life by a Dark Orb.

Me: And if that is the case then he'll be more greedy and vicious than ever. But maybe we can put those cheap knockoffs of the Powerpuff Girls to good use.

Laney: How so?

Me: We can send them to planets that we haven't been to that are under attack by the Numbers, Aparoids and Dark Orbs and take the villains down at those planets.

Vince: That's a good idea partner.

Hunter: (German Accent) Wunderbar idea.

Nico then dropped to the ground and started crying.

Nico: (Crying hard) It's all my fault!

May: Nico what's wrong?

G1 Omega Supreme: There's nothing left to do here. Let's leave this planet.

Me: Okay.

We went back home and Nico was crying hard and we sat him down on the sofa.

May: Nico what is wrong? Why are you crying?

Nico: We shouldn't have left Billy there on that planet! (Crying)

May: Nico it wasn't your fault!

Nico: Don't you guys get it? If I hadn't come up with the idea to maroon Billy on that planet, maybe Hardly wouldn't have gotten to him!

Me: Nico you didn't know this would happen!

May: Yeah we didn't know this would happen either! It's not your fault.

Nico: It feels like it!

Me: Nico we had to send Billy there for his protection. He was tearing the town apart and everyone was gonna go after him and tar and feather him! They were also probably going to kill him and mount his head on a pike.

Grim: (Jamaican Accent) J.D. is right mon. As much as I would like to see that big nose doofus get torn limb from limb, we had to do it.

Mandy: Yeah Nico it was for Billy's good.

King Stefan then appeared.

Me: Oh hello your majesty.

King Stefan: (Scottish Accent) Hello everyone.

He saw Nico upset.

King Stefan: I'm sorry. Is now a bad time?

Nico: (sarcastically) What do you think?

Me: Nico is going through some trauma now. He's blaming himself because we had to send Billy away for the week because he was destroying everything and the town was gonna kill him. We put him on Administrative Suspension if you will.

Laney: Yeah.

I told him everything that happened and he was shocked.

King Stefan: Oh man. That must've been very hard for you to have to send him there like that.

Me: It was for his own good. Billy may be an idiot but it was for his own good.

Mandy: It's my fault he's like this.

Me: What do you mean Mandy?

Mandy: I gave Billy Brain Damage and it was the reason why he is like this.

King Stefan: Well, I was going to check if you were all ready to fight me later. But clearly, you all aren't.

Nico: Well, considering that one of our friends is in the clutches of a villain that the Powerpuff Girls faced in the past, I have every right to be upset right now, don't you think?!

King Stefan: Yes you do have that right and I'm sorry that this had to happen to Billy. But this was for Billy's own good. He needed to be sent away for his protection. J.D. made the right call for that.

Me: Thank you Your Majesty.

King Stefan: You're welcome. Also Nico you are not going to let this beat you up are you lad?

Nico was thinking on that.

Maria: Also, you might not want to go back to your castle for a while?

King Stefan: Why?

Maria: The Psycho Rangers probably turned it into a bloodbath by killing your guards.

Me: Yeah we got word from Vypra that they haven't let go of their hatred towards Maleficent even though you did because of the war.

King Stefan: I see. Thank you for telling me that lads.

Me: Anytime.

King Stefan left.

Illia: Look, Billy couldn't have gone far. Maybe he's still on Earth.

Adult Blossom: I have a strong feeling I know where he is. He is at that factory where all those Powerpuff Girls were made.

Me: Hmm.

I went to the scanners and it showed that Billy was at an evil abandoned factory on the western side of the city of Townsville Sector and it was also on a cliff.

Me: That is pretty obvious. It shows that he is in an abandoned factory on the west side of the Townsville Sector.

Laney: That's stupid.

Me: Professor Hardly may be greedy but he isn't very smart. Also he makes HIM look like a saint.

Adult Blossom: That is a good comparison.

The Dark Signers and Shade then appeared.

Devack: Can me, Rex, Roman, Shade, Kalin, Carly, Grieger, and Misty look for Billy with you guys?

Nico: You all can. I'm going to get Billy back no matter what.

Carly Atlas: Yeah! Lets get our idiotic friend back.

Misty Tredwall: Yeah!

Shade: We heard all about Professor Hardly and how he is as bad as the worst villains of the Powerpuff Girls. But we'll gladly help get him back.

Nico: Thanks guys.

Me: Lets head out.

We were off to the factory where the Powerpuff Girl clones were made.

---

We arrived at the factory where the clone Powerpuff Girls were made,

Me: This must be the place.

We saw that it was a run down and evil factory and it was rebuilt after it was destroyed.

Nico: Alright. Let's split up to cover more ground. Whoever finds Billy calls the rest of us.

Commanders Mars: I'll call Purugly to help us on this search.

Me: Good idea.

She did so and we got to searching. Eli was looking for Billy using the Force and Nunnally was looking for him with her Gundam the Rising Star.

Nico used his energy sensing.

The Air Skylanders and Rainbow Dash were searching from the Air.

Lincoln was looking by feeling for his electrical energy in his nervous system which I'm amazed he still has even though Billy is a brainless idiot. Mandy and Grim were searching using portals.

Fluttershy and the Pegasus were searching from the Air too.

Me: Hmm.

Dexter and Lisa and the technogenius team were searching with technology.

But then we heard an insane roar and out came BILLY and he had a look of sheer madness on him directed at me!

Billy: (ENRAGED SCREAMING) OH SO YOU'RE LAUGHING AT ME! GIVE ME THAT! (SWIPES GRIM'S SCYTHE) YOU'RE TRYING TO MESS WITH ME AREN'T YOU J.D.!? WELL I'M NOT GONNA LET YA! DO YOU HEAR!? I'M NOT GONNA LET YA!

He came at me screaming at the top of his lungs and swinging the scythe like a deranged madman and he was gonna kill me!

Misty Tredwell: There you are!

But Billy ran away as soon as Misty came to my side.

Misty: Great! Now we have to keep looking for him again!

Eli: No we won't.

Eli came and he had Billy held in place with The Force.

Grim fired a blast of magic and held him with Skeleton hands.

Me: Now lets see what Hardly did to you.

I looked at him and on the back of Billy's head was a chip.

Me: Aha!

I pulled the chip off and Billy had a nasty headache.

Billy: (Groans) Guys? What happened?

Me: Welcome back Billy.

Billy: What happened? Last thing I remember was being on a planet and then I got hit hard on the head and knocked out. Then the next thing I knew I was seeing red.

Me: I found this on you. It was an insanity chip.

Carmen: Like the one that made Dark Phoenix go nuts.

Laney: It made you go cuckoo bonkers.

Billy: Wow. Guys, I'm so sorry I destroyed all that stuff. I don't deserve to be on the team anymore.

Red Lantern Ratchet: Billy, don't take this the wrong way. But it's best if you don't come back to the Estate for a while. Nothing personal.

Billy: Why?

Me: Well..

Gladys, Billy's mom then appeared and she was infuriated with him! She had skulls and crossbones in her eyes and she looked like she was really to kill him!

Me: That's why.

Billy: Mom?

Gladys then jumped on Billy and pulverized him brutally and viciously and mercilessly thrashed him all over for 75 minutes!

Kalin: (to Gladys) Are you kidding me?! We convinced Billy to stand down and you beat him up?!

Nico and Carly were holding her.

Gladys: DO YOU HAVE ANY IDEA HOW WORRIED I WAS OF HIM!

Me: And you have every right to be like a mother! But we had to put him on administrative suspension because of everything that happened! The people in Endsville are still pissed at him after what he did. So we're gonna put him in his room at the estate till his suspension is lifted.

Gladys: Oh good.

I snapped my fingers and beamed him to his room and he was in a body cast.

Me: I have a feeling Hardly was watching us. Lets head to the park.

We did so. We were at the park later on.

Tso Lan: Let's keep searching around the park to see if Hardly didn't send anyone to keep any eye out on Billy.

Me: Good idea Tso Lan. Lets keep our eyes peeled.

We went to the park and we were looking high and low.

Me: So far nothing.

Irwin: It's still awful that Billy would do all those things yo.

Me: He can't help it. He's an idiot and he has a brain the size of an underdeveloped soynut. But I have a feeling that Billy breaking all those things was all part of Hardly's plan to get us to hate Billy and throw him out and send him away.

Nico: What makes you say that?

Me: Call it a hunch.

But then we heard a flute.

Nico: Is that a flute?

Merrick: Oh no. I thought I was rid of that flute playing.

A figure came out and it was none other than the WOLF DUKE ORG, ZEN-AKU!

---

Zen-Aku is a powerful Wolf Duke Org and the anti-hero from Power Rangers Wild Force.

He was voiced by first Dan Woren and then Lex Lang, who also voiced Ecliptor in Power Rangers In Space.

Not much is known about Zen-Aku's origins, except that his spirit was locked inside a cursed wolf mask. His statements during the confrontation against Merrick indicated that despite his status as a Duke Org, Zen-Aku was pretty much an outcast and loner, thus nobody lift a finger to help him during his eventual imprisonment within the mask. During the process, his power was divided into fragments each housed within three Wild Zords (Hammerhead, Wolf, and Alligator) and Wolf Mask, and that the fragments would unite, albeit not fully, if someone put it on and became the Duke Org's host. As time passed, many people in both sides gradually forgot about him and viewed the Wolf Mask, that served as his prison, simply as the cursed artifact of power.

After the defeat of Animus at the hands of Master Org, Merrick decided that his only hope of stopping him was a legend about a cursed mask that could bestow great power upon the wearer. He found his way into the lair of the Org General, Nayzor, where he found the mask of Zen-Aku. Merrick put it on and gained its powers, using the Predazord to destroy Master Org, but immediately afterwards, the wolf mask seized control of his mind, merging him with and transforming him into Zen-Aku.

With what humanity he had left, Merrick begged the other guardians of the Animarium to destroy him, but they refused to destroy their friend. Instead, the guardians sealed Zen-Aku in an underground tomb, where he remained for 3,000 years.

However, 3,000 years later, Zen-Aku was released by Nayzor to destroy the present day Animaria Guardians, the Wild Force Power Rangers. He possessed no memory of his past, only that he wanted to destroy the rangers in vengeance for their predecessors sealing him. Zen-Aku proved able to fight the rangers quite well, even using his own Wildzords, and succeeded in stealing the Elephant, Giraffe, Black Bear, and Polar Bear Animal Crystals and adding them to his collection of Dark Wildzords. However, as time went by, Zen-Aku's past nature began revealing itself. Once he found the White Ranger, Alyssa, injured at the hands of Toxica, and bandaged her up instead of finishing her.

Another time, Zen-Aku saved a wolf/dog pup when it was in danger from his fellow Orgs, even attacking Toxica to protect it. He began to become confused, even more so when he started to have flashbacks of his past. Zen-Aku began to doubt himself even more when the spirit of Animus began to appear before him, telling him to "Remember", which confused the ranger as well, especially after Princess Shayla saw Zen-Aku bleeding (which Orgs are unable to do) and they saw his actions. As he came even closer and closer to realizing the truth, Nayzor eventually used an insect that took possession of the wolf Org's mind and made him into his willing servant.

However Princess Shayla had begun to piece together the truth and later, Animus managed to cause a lunar eclipse that allowed Merrick to take back control. He told the rangers' what had happened to him, but then the eclipse ended, changing him back into Zen-Aku. Shayla managed to piece everything together and realized that the curse came from the Predazord, because after Master Org's defeat, the wolf mask had made the Wolf, Hammerhead, and Alligator Wildzord's evil and their guardian along with them. Shayla then told the rangers that the only way to free Merrick was to defeat the Predazord, which they succeeded in doing with help from the new Armadillo and Rhino Wildzords.

However, Merrick and Zen-Aku had unfinished business with each other and thanks to the mask being broken, the Wolf Org returned, this time determined to remerge with Merrick. Now he was even stronger than the last time, which Shayla explained was because when they had been bonded, Zen-Aku's evil power had been divided between Merrick, Zen-Aku, and the Predazord, but with Merrick and the Predazord good again, the Wolf Org had all his power to himself. Zen-Aku battled Merrick and almost succeeded in his goal, but was eventually defeated again with use of the Predazord's Revolver Phantom attack and Merrick's use of a new pool trick he'd recently learned combined with the Armadillo Zord.

Despite Zen-Aku's apparent destruction, he returned once again following the final destruction of Master Org. Seeking redemption, Zen-Aku decided to join Merrick in traveling the world.

---

Merrick: Zen-Aku!

Zen-Aku: Been a long time Merrick. You are now part of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: I remember you and know you all too well Zen-Aku. Hard to imagine that you are the spirit of the Wolf.

Zen-Aku: Indeed J.D. And you are a truly formidable adversary in the eyes of many.

Me: So I have been told.

Greiger: (to Zen Aku) We look for Billy and you just happen to show up? I don't think that's a coincidence.

Me: No it's not and he gave the Wild Force Rangers a helluva beating and stole the Elephant, Giraffe, Polar Bear and Black Bear Zord Crystals.

Nico: No kidding.

Zen-Aku: You have a good memory J.D. Knudson. Before I join the Masters of Evil, how about you and I have a small duel?

Me: I accept your challenge and I have just the form to face you in. KIBAL LETS HOWL! (WOLF HOWL)

(THE WOLF AND THE MOON BY BRUNUHVILLE PLAYS)

I was enveloped in a vortex of blue fire and I turned into WOLF MOON!

Me: The Power of the Wolf VS The Dark Wolf of The Orks.

Zen-Aku: Impressive form.

Me: Thanks. Figured it would be fitting for one of the Wild Force Rangers most formidable adversaries.

Leslie: Hold on. Are we really going to have this fight now? It's not even nighttime yet.

Me: It is over in Africa and also it's the night of the Full Moon of April the Pink Moon.

Nico: Good coincidence for Zen-Aku to come.

Zen-Aku: Indeed.

Me: Lets get over to Africa.

I teleported us all to Africa and we were going to fight under the light of the full moon.

Me: This is gonna be good.

Lola: Yeah! You start the fight first J.D.

Me: With pleasure. I want to see how I fair against Zen-Aku.

Zen-Aku had his crescent blade ready.

Me: It's an honor to face the powerful Wolf Org.

Zen-Aku: Indeed. Lets get it on.

I had my blue fire scythe ready for action.

Me: Lets dance.

We went at each other and clashed powerfully and the power of the Full Moon was fueling us with infinite energy and we were clashing all over with incredible fury. I kicked him in the face and slashed him all over and he slashed at me and I dodged all his strikes and blocked them with my scythe and punched and kicked him all over.

Roman: Well, we might as well help J.D. in this fight since it's already started.

Carly Atlas: Wait lets let him have his fun.

CLANG CLANG CLANG!

Me and Zen-Aku clashed violently and blue flame sparks and purple moonlight sparks flew everywhere.

Zen-Aku: Try these on!

He fired blades of yellow crescent energy and I fired blades of blue crescent energy and they collided and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO
KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM

The area around us was engulfed in blue and orange fire.

Me: Watch this one. WOLF MOON STYLE NINJA ART: JANUARY MOON BLADE SHOWER!

I spun around and fired a massive shower of blue blades of energy.

They hit Zen-Aku all over and smashed him down and he got back up.

Zen-Aku: Impressive. You are truly a formidable opponent.

Me: Indeed. I get that all the time. And I can tell that you have been searching for a worthy opponent after 3,000 years. Also you are looking at the man that killed Master Org.

Zen-Aku: Master Org is dead!?

Me: Yep. And banished to the Warp. We killed him twice. Me and Nico killed him the first time and sent him into the River of Fire and then Varie killed him again and sent him into the Warp.

Zen-Aku: Good riddance.

Jinx is about to fire pink bolts of energy from her finger.

Jinx: J.D., just say the word and we'll join you in this fight!

Me: Almost ready.

Zen-Aku: How about this?

He glowed in a purple energy and I flared up a blue aura and we went at each other with incredible speed and massive sparks and lightning blasts blasted out as we were slashing each other all over the place and more and I kicked him down.

Nico: WHOA! J.D. is REALLY doing awesome against him.

Cole Evans: He sure is. And Zen-Aku gave all 5 of us a run for our money when we faced him.

Eli: I remember seeing that. That was epic and brutal!

Merrick: No kidding.

Me: Okay. I've had my fun. WHEW! That was awesome! Okay guys go get him!

Jinx fired pink energy bolts at Zen-Aku.

She blasted him all over the place and smashed him down.

Shade: (smirks) Lights out!

Shade took out his cane and shadows came out of it at Zen Aku.

And they smashed and pulverized Zen-Aku all over.

Carly Atlas: Lets see if Hummingbirds are as fast as wolves! HUMMINGBIRD STYLE NINJA ART: CRIMSON FLAME OF THE CRIMSON TOPAZ!

Carly fired a wave of orange fire and it turned red and formed into a swarm of Crimson Topaz Hummingbirds and they smashed into Zen-Aku and burned and smashed him down.

Brittney: Try the darkness of the Night! NIGHTMARE STYLE NINJA ART: INFERNAL LAVA OF C'THALPA!

Brittney fired a wave of darkness and it formed into a wave of lava and it turned into the scary monster C'thalpa the Infernal One!

C'thalpa, also known as The Internal One, is an Outer God which features in the H.P. Lovecraft-inspired Cthulhu Mythos.

Appearing as nothing more than a vast mass of sentient magma, C'thalpa currently resides in the Earth's mantle, although whether she has been imprisoned there by the Elder Gods like so many of the other Outer Gods, or she simply lies dormant, is unknown.

C'thalpa is the mother to six monstrous children, one of whom is the Great Old One Shterot. The identities of the remaining five have yet to be revealed. She is worshiped by a race of mole-like subterranean humanoids known as Talpeurs, who carry out her bidding in the world above the Earth's core.

---

It burned Zen-Aku all over the place.

Gaz: Try this one! DARK MOON STYLE NINJA ART: NIGHTMARE MOON BLOODBATH!

Gaz fired a wave of red moonlight and it formed into a wave of blood and it knocked down Zen-Aku.

Sissi: (to Zen AKu) Let me school you on the art of battle. First lesson: Always watch your back!

Sissi kicked Zen-Aku in the back and knocked him down.

Seth (Di-Gata): YIN WINDER!

He fired a wave of ribbon energy from his hands and it smashed Zen-Aku's face.

Nico: COOL! Lets see. NEGA MASS!

Nico fired a ball of Condensed Nega Energy and it hit Zen-Aku and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: YEAH!

Carly Atlas: (to the Wild Force Rangers) Anytime you guys want to join in, feel free to do so!

Cole: Gladly! Lets do it guys!

Wild Force Rangers: WILD ACCESS!

The Wild Force Rangers transformed and they were ready for action!

Cole: BLAZING LION!

Taylor: SOARING EAGLE!

Max: SURGING SHARK!

Danny: IRON BISON!

Alyssa: NOBLE TIGER!

Merrick: HOWLING WOLF!

Kendall: MAGNIFICENT PEACOCK!

Cole: GUARDIANS OF THE EARTH, UNITED WE ROAR!

Wild Force Rangers: POWER RANGERS! WILD FORCE!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off behind them and they were ready and they went at Zen-Aku and punched and kicked at him.

I slashed Zen-Aku all over with my scythe.

Kopond smashed and blasted Zen-Aku all over.

Troy: You haven't even seen how many Power Rangers have appeared since the last time you were in battle!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Train Rail Force!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the ToQger Rangers.

Me: Yeah!

Princess Platinum: Lets see how he likes this one! PLATINUM STYLE NINJA ART: STAMPEDE OF PLATINUM HORSES!

Princess Platinum fired a wave of platinum metal and it formed into a bunch of horses of Platinum.

Mandy: How about this one? NIGHTMARE STYLE NINJA ART: SWORD BLADES OF MRS. DOOLIN!

Mandy formed a sword of darkness and fired waves of darkness and slashed Zen-Aku all over.

Commander Hurricane: Try this one on! WIND FLIGHT STYLE NINJA ART: FURY OF THE PEGASUS HURRICANE!

Commander Hurricane fired a wave of wind and it formed into a hurricane of Pegasi.

Chancellor Puddinghead: And this one! CHRISTMAS STYLE NINJA ART: PUDDING OF CHRISTMAS TSUNAMI!

She fired a wave of mint pudding.

Muscle Man: You know who else likes to get headbutted in the face?

Zen-Aku: What?

Muscle Man: MY MOM! (headbutts him)

SMASH!

He smashed him down with a deadly headbutt.

Laney: All right Muscle Man!

Carnivac: Time to fight wolf with wolf!

Carnivac turned into his wolf mode and tackled Zen-Aku to the ground.

And pulverized him all over the place.

Nico: Had enough?

Zen-Aku: I won't give up!

Me: Got to admire his spirit.

Nico: Yeah.

Zen-Aku then got up and then he fainted.

Me: Looks like that's it.

He got up and Rex and the Dark Signers and Shade congratulated him.

Rex Goodwin: (to Zen Aku) Welcome to the Masters of Evil.

Zen-Aku: I am honored.

Me: Whew! That was epic.

Zen-Aku: And I have chosen Riley as my archenemy.

Riley: Wow! I am honored.

Ben: Way to go Riley!

Julie Yamamoto: Yeah!

Then Dr. Viktor, Demyx, Heat Wave, Dai Gui the Demon Sorcerer of Earth, Vulture, Living Laser, Dark Laser, Zs'Skayr and Pinky & The Brain then appeared.

Me: Dr. Viktor, Demyx, Heat Wave, Dai Gui, Vulture, Living Laser, Dark Laser, Zs'Skayr and Pinky & The Brain.

Nico: Nice. Perfect for your new theme J.D.

Me: Yep.

Dr. Viktor: Did you guys find Billy.

Maria: We did. And we found another surprise.

Demyx: And that would be?

May: We found Zen Aku and fought him. He's in your ranks now.

Heat Wave: That's awesome news!

Nico: When it's time for Billy to rejoin the team, I'm having Lisa make a device that will allow my mind to enter his.

Dai Gui: Any reason why?

Nico: So I can find out if he's not lying about wanting to rejoin us.

Me: Wow! That is very ironic. The Digimon Emperor got inside your head just by having Xemnas have an energy blast hit you and Lisa will invent something that is sort of like a radio antenna.

Ino: You know Nico you could have me do that by using my clan techniques with you on Billy.

Nico: Oh right I forgot about that.

Naruto: That's alright Nico.

Me: Ino's way is a faster method.

Lola: It sure is.

Heat Wave: Yeah. (Sees the Founders of Equestria.) Whoa! Are those the Founders of Equestria?

Me: Yep.

Princess Platinum: Pleasure to meet you all. I'm Princess Platinum.

Commander Hurricane: Commander Hurricane at your service.

Chancellor Puddinghead: I'm Chancellor Puddinghead. Pleasure.

Smart Cookie: I'm Smart Cookie. Pleasure to make your acquaintance.

Private Pansy: And I'm Private Pansy. Pleasure.

Dr. Viktor: Pleasure to meet you all.

Clover: They are my friends that I have known back when we first started Equestria.

Megan Williams: That is amazing.

Firefly (MLP): It sure is cool though.

Nico: Yeah it is.

?: That's cool that you all now have such awesome people with you now.

A figure came out and it was ARACHNITOR back for round 2.

Me: Arachnitor! Back for round 2.

Nico: Yep.

Arachnitor: Yep and it's gonna be fun again.

Me: It sure is.

Arachnitor: Just wanted to thank you guys for killing Xandred. (laughs) Too bad I wasn't there to see it myself!

Me: That's all right. But it's Nico that you should really be thanking. He killed Xandred. We can't take all of the credit.

Nico: Oh thanks J.D.

Me: You're welcome.

Arachnitor: Awesome.

Me: Lets get it on.

We powered up and went at them.

---

Battle 1: Will Vandom, Twilight Sparkle, Magic Skylanders, Emerald

Sustrai and Illia VS Dr. Viktor

---

Dr. Viktor was first.

Dr. Viktor: (to Will) Nico wouldn't really try to kill Lola, Lynn, and Lori with a knife… would he?

Will: No it was just part of a game and besides it was a knife made of foam.

Dr. Viktor: That's a relief. I see that Twilight has all the Magic Skylanders with her.

Will: Yep. It's part of the theme for each group.

Twilight: We call it the Princesses and Skylanders of the 10 Elements. I represent Magic.

Spyro: It's a really good theme that J.D. came up with if I do say so myself.

Ninjini: I sure agree.

Emerald Sustrai: I think it's awesome.

Illia: Me too.

Dr. Viktor: Very creative. Lets get it on!

He fired a blast of purple lightning and they dodged the blast.

Twilight Sparkle: Try this on! MAGIC STYLE NINJA ART: THE MYSTIC'S DREAM!

Twilight Sparkle floated into the air with her wings spread and magic streams swirled around her and she was singing The Mystic's Dream by Loreena McKennitt.

A clouded dream on an earthly night

Hangs upon the crescent moon;

A voiceless song in an ageless light
Sings at the coming dawn.
Birds in flight are calling there
Where the heart moves the stones;
It's there that my heart is calling
All for the love of you.
A painting hangs on an ivy wall
Nestled in the emerald moss.
The eyes declare a truce of trust
And then it draws me far away.
Where deep in the desert twilight
Sand melts in pools of the sky,
When darkness lays her crimson cloak
Your lamps will call me home.
And so it's there my homage's due,
Clutched by the still of the night,
And now I feel you move;
Every breath is full.
So it's there my homage's due,
Clutched by the still of the night.
Even the distance feels so near,
All for the love of you.

A clouded dream on an earthly night

Hangs upon the crescent moon;

A voiceless song in an ageless light

Sings at the coming dawn.

Birds in flight are calling there

Where the heart moves the stones;

It's there that my heart is calling

All for the love of you.

She fired waves of magic and they formed into the soldiers of King Arthur.

Will and group and the Magic Skylanders fired blasts of magic and lightning and energy and the blasts all hit Dr. Viktor and knocked him down.

Will: ALL RIGHT!

Twilight Sparkle: Friendship IS Magic!

Emerald: It sure is. You have a great voice Twilight.

Twilight Sparkle: Thanks Emerald. I learned so many awesome songs from everyone.

Star Strike: You sure did. Great job.

---

Battle 2: Irma Lair, Rarity, Water Skylanders, Commander Mars and Commander Jupiter VS Demyx

---

Demyx was next.

Demyx: (to Irma) We should meet Kermit and his friends one of these days.

Irma: I have a feeling we will. J.D., Nico and May were watching The Muppets and The Muppet Christmas Carol and that was J.D.'s childhood movie.

Rarity: And I thought it was most amazing darling.

Gill Grunt: Yeah it sure was!

Thumpback: I thought it was most amazing.

Commander Mars: It sure was.

Commander Jupiter: Yeah.

Demyx: Lets get it on!

Demyx fired blasts of water. They dodged the blasts.

Rarity: I learned this song by Steven. WATER CRYSTAL STYLE NINJA ART: TRUE KINDA LOVE!

Rarity floated into the air and water and jewels swirled around her and she was singing True Kinda Love by Estelle.

Oh, when a difficult day goes by

Keeping it together is hard, but that's why

You've got to try

You've got to try

And when there's a thundering storm outside

Underneath the covers, you huddle and hide

Open your eyes

Open your eyes

It's the true, it's the true

It's the true kinda love

It's the true, it's the true

It's the true kinda love

Stuck in the middle of fear and shame

Everybody's looking for someone to blame

Like it's a game

Like it's a game

And now I am better than "win-or-lose"

There's a new direction that I'd like to choose

It's called the truth

It's called the truth

Hey, you, show me that solvable problem

We can get through this

I'll do the hardest part with you

It's the true, it's the true

It's the true kinda love

It's the true, it's the true

It's the true kinda love

It's the true, it's the true

It's the true kinda love

It's the true, it's the true

It's the true kinda love

The Water Skylanders fired blasts of water and the group fired blasts of water and energy and the blasts all hit Demyx and smashed him down.

Irma: All right!

Rarity: Rapture darling that was breathtaking!

Commander Mars: It sure was! Wow! Rarity that song was awesome!

Rarity: Indeed it was. Steven Universe taught me that one.

Battle 3: Taranee, Sunset Shimmer, Fire Skylanders, Red Lantern Ratchet and Zilius Zox VS Heat Wave

---

Heat Wave was next.

Heat Wave: (to Taranee) Remind me again why the football players wanted to kill you guys when Billy wasn't even there?

Taranee: To kidnap the school mascot of Mandy's school, the Fluffy Cat. He is such a cute kitty.

Sunset Shimmer: Rarity loved him and he was the cutest.

Sunburn: I thought so too.

Eruptor: You said it. But the way that cat made all those hairballs was gross.

Red Lantern Ratchet: But that cat was funny the way it burps.

Zilius Zox: Yeah. But those buttfaced kids had it coming for what they were gonna do.

Heat Wave: Boy I can tell. And I love cats too. Lets get it on!

Heat Wave fired a blast of fire and they dodged it all over.

Sunset Shimmer: Here's a favorite that Eli and Nunnally love. SOLAR FIRE STYLE NINJA ART: ADVENTURE OF A LIFETIME!

Sunset Shimmer floated into the air and she had fire swirl around her as she was singing Adventure of a Lifetime by Coldplay.

Turn your magic on, umi she'd say

Everything you want's a dream away

We are legends, every day

That's what she told him

Turn your magic on, to me she'd say

Everything you want's a dream away

Under this pressure, under this weight

We are diamonds

Now I feel my heart beating

I feel my heart beneath my skin

I feel my heart beating

Oh, you make me feel

Like I'm alive again

Alive again

Oh, you make me feel

Like I'm alive again

Said I can't go on, not in this way

I'm a dream that died by light of day

Gonna hold up half the sky and say

Only I own me

Now I feel my heart beating

I feel my heart beneath my skin

Oh, I can feel my heart beating

'Cause you make me feel

Like I'm alive again

Alive again

Oh, you make me feel

Like I'm alive again

Turn your magic on, umi she'd say

Everything you want's a dream away

Under this pressure, under this weight

We are diamonds taking shape

We are diamonds taking shape

(Woo-ooh, woo-ooh)

If we've only got this life

This adventure, oh then I

And if we've only got this life

You'll get me through, oh

And if we've only got this life

And this adventure, oh then I

Wanna share it with you

With you, with you

Sing it, oh, say yeah

Woo-hoo (woo-hoo)

Woo-hoo (woo-hoo)

Woo-hoo (woo-hoo)

Woo-hoo (woo-hoo)

Woo-hoo (woo-hoo)

Woo-hoo (woo-hoo)

Woo-hoo (woo-hoo)

Woo-hoo (woo-hoo)

Woo-hoo (woo-hoo)

Woo-hoo (woo-hoo)

Woo-hoo (woo-hoo)

Woo-hoo (woo-hoo)

Sunset Shimmer: Thanks guys.

Battle 4: Cornelia Hale, Applejack, Earth Skylanders, Tso Lan the Demon Sorcerer of The Moon and Juandissimo Magnifico VS Dai Gui the Demon Sorcerer of Earth

---

Dai Gui was next.

Dai Gui: (To Cornelia) I think it's too risky keeping Billy at the Estate where the angry Endsville citizens will find him. Why not send him somewhere not on the planet, like Cybertron or Perim? Or even Principal Lewis' house? Heck, even we'll take him.

Cornelia: We do a have a really advanced security system with our estate. But those are good ideas.

Applejack: Yeah they are. But Principal Lewis would be more than glad to take him in.

Flashwing: I think so too. But Perim or Cybertron are too extreme for him because Billy might be a nuisance to some of the Transformers or Maxxor's troops and all that.

Terrafin: Yeah but those are still good ideas. We can always have him annoy the hell out of G1 Starscream.

Tso Lan: That's a good idea.

Juandissimo: (Spanish Accent) Si amigos.

Dai Gui: Indeed. Lets get it on!

Dai Gui smashed the ground and sent a wave of earth at them.

They dodged the blast and went at him.

Applejack: This one is one of my favorites! YEEHAW! EARTH

APPLE STYLE NINJA ART: AIN'T GOING DOWN TIL THE SUN COMES UP!

Applejack floated into the air and apples and earth swirled around her as she was singing Ain't Going Down Til The Sun Comes Up by Garth Brooks.

Six o'clock on Friday evening

Momma doesn' t know she's leaving

'Til she hears the screen door slamming

Rubber squealin' gears a jamming

Local country station just a blaring on the radio

Pick him up at seven and they're headin' to the rodeo

Momma's on the front porch screamin' out her warning

Girl you better get your red head

Back in bed before the morning

Nine o'clock the show is ending

But the fun is just beginning

She knows he's anticipating

But she's gonna keep him waiting

Grab a bite to eat

And then they're heading to the honkey tonk

But loud crowds and line dancing

Just ain't what they really want

Drive out to the boondocks and park down by the creek

And where it's George Strait 'til real late
And dancing cheek to cheek
Ain't going down 'til the sun comes up
Ain't givin' in 'til they get enough
Going 'round the world in a pickup truck
Ain't goin' down 'til the sun comes up
Ten 'til twelve is wine and dancing
Midnight starts the hard romancing
One o'clock that truck is rocking
Two is coming, still no stopping
Break to check the clock at three
They're right on where they want to be
Four o'clock get up and going
Five o'clock that rooster's crowing
Ain't going down 'til the sun comes up
Ain't givin' in 'til they get enough
Going 'round the world in a pickup truck
Ain't goin' down 'til the sun comes up
Six o'clock on Saturday
Her folks don't know he's on his way
The stalls are clean, the horses fed
They say she's grounded 'til she's dead

Well here he comes around the bend

Slowing down, she's jumping in

Hey mom, you're daughter's gone

And there they go again

Ain't going down 'til the sun comes up

Ain't givin' in 'til they get enough

Going 'round the world in a pickup truck

Ain't goin' down 'til the sun comes up

She fired waves of apples and earth and they turned into suns and Earth Skylanders fired waves of rock and earth and the group fired waves of earth and gravity and magic smashed down Dai Gui.

Cornelia: YEAH!

---

Battle 5: Hay Lin, Rainbow Dash, Air Skylanders, Agony and Calypso VS Vulture

---

Vulture was next.

Vulture: (to Hay Lin) It was good of King Stefan to lift Nico's spirits.

Hay Lin: It sure was. I'm glad he was able to help out.

Rainbow Dash: The war of Equestria REALLY changed him for the better.

Whirlwind: It sure did and we're glad he gave up the pursuit of Maleficent.

Jet Vac: Indeed lads. We're glad that happened.

Agony: We all sure are.

Calypso: Yep.

Vulture: Indeed it did. Lets fly!

Vulture flew into the air and they flew after him!

Vulture fired waves of energy feathers at them and they dodged them.

Rainbow Dash: This is one of my favorites and it is AWESOME! RAINBOW STYLE NINJA ART: I WANT YOU!

Rainbow Dash had rainbows swirl around her as she was flying and she was singing I Want You by Savage Garden.

Any time I need to see your face

I just close my eyes and I am taken to a place

Where your crystal mind and magenta feelings taken shelter

In the base of my spine, sweet like a chica cherry cola

I don't need to try and explain, I just hold on tight

And if it happens again, I might move so slightly

To the arms and the lips and the face and the human cannonball

I need to, I want to come stand a little bit closer

Breathe in and get a bit higher

You'll never know what hit you when I get to you

Oh, I want you, I don't know if I need you

But oh, I would die to find out

Oh, I want you, I don't know if I need you

But oh, I would die to find out

I'm the kind of person who endorses a deep commitment

Getting comfy, getting perfect is what I live for

But I'm looking and the smell perfume, it's like I'm down

On the floor and I don't know what I'm in for Conversation is time and place of the interaction of a lover

And the nick of time over talkin using signals, using words

Can be likened to a deep sea diver who is swimming

With a raincoat, come stand a little bit closer

Breathe in and get a bit higher

You'll never know what hit you when I get to you

Oh, I want you, I don't know if I need you

But oh, I would die to find out

Oh, I want you, I don't know if I need you

But oh, I would die to find out

Any time I need to see your face

I just close my eyes and I am taken to a place

Where your crystal mind and magenta feelings taken shelter

In the base of my spine, sweet like a chica cherry cola

I don't need to try and explain I just hold on tight

And if it happens again I might move so slightly

To the arms and the lips and the face

And the human cannonball, I need to I want to

Oh, I want you, I don't know if I need you

But oh, I would die to find out

Oh, I want you I don't know if I need you

But oh, I would die to find out, so can we find out

Oh, I want you, I don't know if I need you

But oh, I would die to find out

Oh, I want you, I don't know if I need you

But oh, I would die to find out

Oh, I want you, I don't know if I need you

But oh, I would die to find out

Oh, I want you I don't know if I need you

But oh, I would die to find out, die to find out

Oh, I want you, I don't know if I need you

But oh, I would die to find out

Oh, I want you, I don't know if I need you

But oh, I would die to find out

---

Living Laser was next.

Living Laser: (to Megan) Out of curiosity, what's going to happen to King Stefan after this?

Megan McCallister: We might recruit him or he might head out and see the world for guidance.

Princess Luna: After everything that happened to him with Maleficent and this intense burning hatred that plagued him for so long, I'm not surprised that he heads out to see the world to clear his mind.

Snowdrop: Yeah he went through a lot ever since he took Maleficent's wings, the 20 Days of Darkness and everything that happened.

Gari: No kidding. But it's good that the War of Equestria changed him.

Blackout: Yeah that was was a huge wake-up call.

Knight Mare: It sure was.

Pacifica: Thank goodness.

Sissi: Yeah.

Living Laser: Indeed. Lets do it!

He fired blasts of lasers and they dodged them and went at him.

Princess Luna: Feel the dark of the Night! MOONLIT NIGHT WING STYLE NINJA ART: FORSAKEN!

Princess Luna floated into the air and spread her wings as moonlight, stars and darkness swirled around her and she was singing Forsaken by Within Temptation.

Now the day has come

We are forsaken this time

We lived our lives in our paradise

As gods we shaped the world around

No borderlines we'd stay behind

Though balance is something fragile

While we thought we were gaining

We'd turn back the tide, it still slips away

Our time has run out, our future has died

There's no more escape

Now the day has come

We are forsaken

There's no time anymore

Life will pass us by

We are forsaken

We're the last of our kind

The sacrifice was much too high

Our greed just made us all go blind

We tried to hide what we feared inside

Today is the end of tomorrow

As the sea started rising

The land that we conquered just washed away

Although we all have tried to turn back the tide

It was all in vain

Now the day has come

We are forsaken

There's no time anymore

Life will pass us by

We are forsaken

Only ruins stay behind

Now the day has come

We are forsaken this time

Now the day has come

We are forsaken

There's no time anymore

Now the day has come

The day has come

The day has come

The Children of the Night floated into the air and they had moonlight and darkness swirl around them as they were singing Come Little Children.

Come little children

I'll take thee away

Into a land of enchantment

Come little children

The time's come to play

Here in my garden of shadows

Follow sweet children

I'll show thee the way

Through all the pain

And the sorrows

Weep not poor children

For life is this way

Murdering beauty and passions

Hush now dear children

It must be this way

Too weary of life

And deceptions

Rest now my children

For soon we'll away

Into the calm and the quiet

Come little children

I'll take thee away

Into a land of enchantment

Come little children

The time's come to play

Here in my garden of shadows

They fired waves of moonlight and darkness and the blasts formed into Princess Luna and the children that went with her ages ago.

The Dark Skylanders and the group fired waves of darkness and smashed Living Laser down.

Megan: ALL RIGHT!

Princess Luna: That was a victory of the night!

Snowdrop: So awesome!

Gari: Yeah!

---

Battle 7: Sabrina Mason, Fluttershy, Life Skylanders, Jinx and Kitten VS Dark Laser

---

Dark Laser was next.

Dark Laser: (to Sabrina) I bet you guys certainly didn't expect to run into Zen-Aku at the park.

Sabrina: No we didn't. But J.D. was very eager to challenge him after watching how he gave the Wild Force Rangers a huge run for their money.

Fluttershy: Yes. J.D. said it was really brutal how Zen-Aku beat the rangers every time.

Stealth Elf: And the way J.D. took him on earlier was awesome. He did really well against a formidable adversary.

Tree Rex: A truly amazing performance.

Jinx: You said it.

Kitten: We haven't seen him turn into his Wolf Moon form in a while and he did really well on the night of Pink Supermoon today.

Dark Laser: Good timing and no we haven't. Lets do it!

Dark Laser ignited his lightsaber and they all went at him and ignited their lightsabers and clashed powerfully and knocked him back with Force Blasts and leaves.

From the corner

I caught your name

In a conversation
Playing hard-to-get
But I can't understand
When I look at you
I see the story in your eyes
When we're dancing
The night begins to shine
The night begins to shine
The night begins to shine
Night begins to shine
When we're dancing
The night begins to shine
Talk 'til dawn
My heart was racing
I took you home
In the driving rain
Had my mind made up
I wanna feel your touch
When I look at you
I see the story in your eyes
When we' re dancing
The night begins to shine

The night begins to shine
The night begins to shine
Night begins to shine
When we're dancing
The night begins to shine
The night begins to shine (the night begins to shine)
The night begins to shine
Had my mind made up
I wanna feel your touch
When I look at you
I see the story in your eyes
When we're dancing
The night begins to shine
Night begins to shine
The night begins to shine
Night begins to shine
The night begins to shine
Night begins to shine
The night begins to shine
Night begins to shine
When we're dancing
The night begins to shine

Night begins to shine

The night begins to shine

Night begins to shine

Night begins to shine

The night begins to shine

---

Zs'Skayr was next.

Zs'Skayr: Zen-Aku will make a great addition to the Masters of Evil. But I'm also surprised that you guys ressurected the Founders of Equestria too.

Edd: It sure is and I think it's really cool that they will be part of the team.

Starlight Glimmer: It sure is. The Muppet Christmas Carol really helped J.D. out and gave him the idea to bring them back for the team.

Cynder: I thing it's amazing.

Eye Spy: (Transylvanian Accent) This will be much fun.

Shockwave: Indeed.

Soundwave: Agreed.

Zs'Skayr: Absolutely. Lets do it!

Zs'Skayr fired waves of purple energy and they dodged the blast and went at him.

Starlight Glimmer: Feel the power of the Undead. UNDEAD STAR STYLE NINJA ART: PHANTOM OF THE OPERA!

In sleep he sang to me

In dreams he came

That voice which calls to me

And speaks my name

And do I dream again

For now I find

The Phantom of the Opera is there

Inside my mind

Sing once again with me

Our strange duet

My power over you

Grows stronger yet

And though you turn from me

To glance behind

The Phantom of the Opera is there

Inside your mind

Those who have seen your face

Draw back in fear

I am the mask you wear

It's me they hear

My spirit and my voice in one combined

The Phantom of the Opera is there

Inside my mind

In all your fantasies

You always knew

That man and mystery

Were both in you

And in this labyrinth

Where night is blind

The Phantom of the Opera is there

Inside my mind

Sing

My angel of music

He's there

The Phantom of the Opera

Sing (aah)

Sing (aah)

Sing for me (aah)

Sing my angel of music (aah)

Sing for me (aah)

Pinky and the Brain were next.

Pinky: (to Superman) For a minute, I thought Zen Aku was sent by Hardly to retrieve Billy.

Superman: We all thought the exact same thing. But after J.D. challenged him we saw that it wasn't the case.

Pinkie Pie: And thank goodness for that. But Zen-Aku will make a great addition to the Masters of Evil.

Trigger Happy: You said it Pinkie Pie.

Bouncer: Yeah! This is gonna be awesome for Riley to have him as her archenemy.

Catilla: You said it.

Carnivac: I agree!

Brain: Indeed. Lets do it!

Hello my dear friends

Well, here I am on record at last

And it feels so wonderful to be here with you on my first album

I'm so happy

Aha! Happy go lucky me

I just go my way

Living everyday

I don't worry

Worrying don't agree

Things that bother you

Never bother me

Things that bother you

Never bother me

I feel happy and fine

Aha

Living in the sunlight

Loving in the moonlight

Having a wonderful time

Haven't got a lot
I don't need a lot
Coffee's only a dime
Living in the sunlight
Loving in the moonlight
Having a wonderful time
Just take it from me
I'm just as free as any daughter
I do what I like
Just what I like
And how I love it
I'm right here to stay
When I'm old and gray
I'll be right in my prime
Living in the sunlight
Loving in the moonlight
Having a wonderful time
Just take it from me
I'm just as free as any daughter
I do what I like
Just what I like
And how I love it

I'm right here to stay

When I'm old and gray

I'll be right in my prime

Living in the sunlight

Loving in the moonlight

Having a wonderful time

Oh! Isn't this a lovely band

And what a thrill it is to have them play for me

Princess Celestia: Lets get him! This is from the power of the sun! SOLAR WING STYLE NINJA ART: CHILDREN OF THE SUN!

Princess Celestia spread her wings and they were ablaze with solar fire and she floated into the air and solar fire swirled around her as she was singing Children of the Sun by Thomas Bergersen.

Fighting and running from, turning from

Who we really are

Cannot suppress so let's find the one

We have shaped so far

Flying too close to the sun

As if we're invincible

Cannot dictate, dominate the earth

That we're living on

We can't defy the laws

Cut the laws that we consummate

Around the world

We grow weaker as we exterminate

The only thing that gives thing

That brings air and life to us

Wake up one day and find

That what we got is serious

We are the children of the sun

We are the children of the sun

The human greed and our creed

Is all that we have to share

Knee deep in tragical

Fabrical issues everywhere

Cannot replace the one

Chase the one that we used to be (used to be)

It isn't how we were, why we're here
What we're meant to be
Fighting and burning from, turning from
Who we really are
Cannot suppress so let's find the one
We have shaped so far
Flying too close to sun
As if we're invincible
Cannot dictate our faith
On this earth that we're living on
We are the children of the sun
The love for everyone
Always on our own
The fire in our eyes
The passion never dies
We're the chosen ones
The children of the sun
We are the children of the sun
The love for everyone
Always on our own
The fire in our eyes
The passion never dies

We're the chosen ones

The children of the sun

We are, we are

We are the children of the sun

We are, we are

The children of the sun

Yeah, we are, we are

We are the children of the…

Always on our own

She fired waves of sunlight and fire.

Luan and Laney and the Light Skylanders fired waves of light and leaves.

They had their Fire Smashers formed into cannons and fired blasts of energy and the blasts all hit Arachnitor and he fell to the ground and he exploded in a massive fiery explosion!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

He was dead!

Laney: YEAH! Arachnitor you have failed this universe again!

Luan: Most Enlightening! (Laughs to Rimshot) Get it?

Troy Burrows: That's a Super Mega Win.

---

We got the Usual Battles done.

Me: YEAH! That was epic! Now lets head to the kingdom of King Stefan.

I opened a portal and we were at the kingdom of King Stefan and we were greeted by a gruesome sight in the courtyard. We saw butchered bodies and corpses all over.

Me: Whoa! Looks like the Psycho Rangers had a field day after the war.

Nico: Yeah.

King Stefan came.

King Stefan: Glad you all came.

Me: Same here. What happened here?

King Stefan: It's a full scale revolt. After the war, the guards rose up and are trying to overthrow me even as we speak.

Me: Whoa man!

King Stefan: Feeling better now?

Nico: I sure am. Thank you.

Me: And we have Billy back but he is gonna be inside his room for a while.

King Stefan: Excellent. I'm glad the little lad is gonna be all right.

Me: Yeah.

The guards came and they were roaring at the top of their lungs.

Me: Lets get them! ATTACK!

We went at the guards and we were kicking and killing them all over the place.

Earthworm Jim: EAT DIRT REBELLING GUARDS OF EVIL! (BLASTS THEM ALL OVER)

HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!

Ed Cowart: EAT DIRT NEFARIOUS GUARDS OF PUTRIDITY! (BLASTS THEM ALL OVER) HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!

Trixie floated into the air and magic swirled around her as she was singing Fight Song by Rachel Platten.

Like a small boat

On the ocean

Sending big waves

Into motion

Like how a single word

Can make a heart open

I might only have one match

But I can make an explosion

And all those things I didn't say

Wrecking balls inside my brain
I will scream them loud tonight
Can you hear my voice this time?
This is my fight song
Take back my life song
Prove I'm alright song
My power's turned on
Starting right now I'll be strong
I'll play my fight song
And I don't really care if nobody else believes
'Cause I've still got a lot of fight left in me
Losing friends and I'm chasing sleep
Everybody's worried about me
In too deep
Say I'm in too deep (in too deep)
And it's been two years I miss my home
But there's a fire burning in my bones
Still believe
Yeah, I still believe
And all those things I didn't say
Wrecking balls inside my brain
I will scream them loud tonight

Can you hear my voice this time?

This is my fight song

Take back my life song

Prove I'm alright song

My power's turned on

Starting right now I'll be strong

I'll play my fight song

And I don't really care if nobody else believes

'Cause I've still got a lot of fight left in me

Trixie fired a wave of magic and it formed into numerous fists.

Ets: TECHNO STYLE NINJA ART: LIGHTNING TESLA BLAST!

He fired a Tesla Lightning blast from a lightning blaster beam from his hand.

Lola: Let's heat things up! (everyone looks at her) What? I can do puns too.

Luan: But that was a good one Lola!

Lola fired a wave of fire and burned Stefan's guards all over.

Dark Laser: But at least he's back to normal. Normal for him, anyway.

Brain: (to Lisa) Let me help you with the device that Nico requested.

Lisa: Much appreciated Brain.

Me: So where will you go your majesty?

King Stefan: I decided to join you guys after I go on a month long journey to discover my spiritual center. But I think we'll see each other again.

Me: I understand your majesty. But we will probably see each other again shortly.

King Stefan: Thank you J.D.

We shook hands.

THE END

---

Another awesome adventure done and I am back baby!

This was two adventures together and it was awesome! Zen-Aku was beyond a shadow of a doubt the toughest opponent ever faced by the Wild Force Rangers and he was powerful. Maleficent's King Stefan was a monster in the movie but not in this adventure. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, vinjedi1995, XP4Universe, Darkhai, Drako1234658, ethan. and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is a really silly and strange chapter as we take on the mad cosmetics villain Mask Scara! She is gonna be a deadly one as she is gonna be vandalizing all of the city with her look that brought her success: THE TRASHY LOOK and it's going to be weird and insane!

See you all tomorrow.

The Mad Cosmetics Mogul

In Endsville, I was walking by some houses and saw a bunch of keep out signs on a wooden fence and I peaked over a fence and saw an ominous sight. We all peaked over the fence and saw that it was a REALLY OMINOUS looking house. The sight of it was giving me the creeps.

Cloud Man: This house looks very old.

We saw the house and it was REALLY creepy.

Me: No kidding. That house gives me the creeps.

Nico: Yeah and looking at it from here is creepy enough.

Qin: But you live by a haunted house Nico.

Nico: Yeah but that house wasn't NEARLY as creepy as this one.

Grim: (Jamaican Accent) That's the house of Mrs. Doolin.

BLOODCURDLING SCREAM!

Irwin: I don't like that house yo! That house is haunted!

Me: (GULP!) You guys are starting to scare me.

Mandy: It's not haunted!

Grim: Oh it's haunted all right. Believe me. I know everything there is to know about that house.

Me: Then we better go check it out.

We went through the fence through a loose fenceboard and saw that her backyard was as big as a cornfield. Some of us jumped over the fence and we went through the field and it was really scary.

Me: Oh man.

Laney: I'm scared guys.

Lola: Me too.

We saw a scarecrow and it was creepy.

Me: Creepy.

We went up to the front door and went in and inside the house it was scary, dark and foreboding and creepy. It was dusty, run down, loaded with cobwebs and more.

Lincoln: Hello? Is anyone here?

We went inside the house and it was creepy.

Me: (GULP) The inside of this house is scarier than on the outside.

Mandy: I'm not scared.

Eli: So creepy.

Ink Rose: I like it.

We then heard something thumping and a baseball came rolling down the stairs.

Me: A baseball?

I picked it up.

Me: Hmm.

?: Hey you!

We turned and saw a figure in the threshold of the living room and it was MRS. DOOLIN!

---

Mrs. Doolin is an elderly lady that's subject to rumor, and said to be a ghost. She lives in an old mansion with her pet spider Frankie and dog Lucky. She only appears in Who Killed Who?

According to Grim, Mrs. Doolin is a vengeful spirit who harms anyone who dares to enter her property. When Billy and Irwin lose a pair of dice in Mrs. Doolin's yard, they dare Mandy to retrieve them. Mrs. Doolin catches Mandy in the hallway of her mansion. Displeased with the intrusion, she challenges Mandy to a fencing contest, which the girl wins. As the afternoon wears on, the two open up to each other. Mrs. Doolin explains how Grim made up strange rumors about her as payback for her beating him in everything from poker to staring contests. Mandy confides that Billy and Irwin refused to let her play with them because she is a girl. Enraged by this, Mrs. Doolin hatches a plan to help Mandy get even with Billy. She covers Mandy in face powder to make her look like a ghost. When Billy comes for the dice, Mrs. Doolin and Mandy scare him off by making a ghoulish entrance. In the end, it is made clear that by beating Grim in everything, Mrs. Doolin did in fact beat death itself, leaving her to do her favorite things for eternity. Once Mandy actually beats her, she vanishes and everything in her house suddenly becomes ancient, much to Mandy's shock.

* * *

Me: (Gulps) Mrs. Doolin I presume?

Mrs. Doolin: That's right and it's an honor to meet the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Eli: S-s-s-same here.

Trypticon: (to Mrs. Doolin) I'm not scared of you!

Me: Stand down Trypticon.

Grim: Hello Mrs. Doolin.

Mrs. Doolin: Well if it isn't my favorite bag of bones The Grim Reaper.

Me: How do you know Grim?

Mrs. Doolin: Ever since I beat him in a starring contest he did not take that lightly.

She showed me pictures of her and Grim and how she beat him in ALL of them. She beat him in the 1934 Wimbledon Tennis Tournament, The 1947 Masters at Augusta and the 1964 Madison Square Garden Heavyweight Champion of the World Title Fight.

Me: WHOA!

We were absolutely shocked and amazed. She beat the Grim Reaper in every kind of sport you could think of.

Me: WHOA! You beat Death? Many times!?

Nico: Unbelievable!

Mandy: She is pretty talented. Turns out I am not the only one that beat Grim in everything.

Eli: Incredible!

Ets: That is amazing!

Mrs. Doolin: It sure is.

Cybertron Metroplex: (Scottish Accent) There is one thing Grim is better at then you lass.

Mrs. Doolin: And that would be?

Cybertron Metroplex: Helping us stop bad guys. Including Megatron.

Me: Well it's not a competition, it's a massive responsibility. You've kept track of all our adventures right?

Mrs. Doolin: I sure have and they are all very awesome.

Me: We get that a lot.

Twilight Sparkle: But don't you ever get lonesome in this house all by yourself?

Mrs. Doolin: I sure do.

Me: Mandy knows you and you two are the only people that we know to ever beat Grim in every kind of sport you can think of.

Mandy: He's right.

Mrs. Doolin: Yeah that's true.

Me: Also your voice sounds so much like the famous Betty White.

Mrs. Doolin laughed.

Mrs. Doolin: Yeah my voice does sound like hers.

Me: It sure does and she has been a great actress for over 80 years.

Nico: Wow.

Mrs. Doolin: I know.

Me: How would you like to live with us?

Mrs. Doolin: I would be honored.

Mrs. Doolin was able to move in with us and Grim had his dog Lucky back. He was so happy to see him after so long.

Narrator: The city of Gotham Royal York! ( Zoom in on one section. ) Where something horrible…

( Dissolve to a slow overhead pan across the rooftops of one block. )

Narrator:… something evil…

( Dissolve to the side of a building, where a poster showing a man's face has been put up. )

Narrator:… something nefarious…

( A huge, spiky-haied shadow throws itself across the view. Close-up of the poster, which reads "Joe Bob for Congress"; something multicolored flashes across the screen, and when it clears, the image has been touched up considerably. Joe Bob now sports a face full of makeup. )

Narrator: ( trying to keep from laughing )… something hilarious is taking place!

( Zoom in on the altered poster, to the sound of cackling female laughter that echoes through the night, then pull back to frame a portion of the skyline. The many-hued streak zips up and down among the buildings as the camera slowly pans to keep it in frame. )

Narrator: Yes, some horrible, evil, nefarious, hilarious prankster…

( Cut to a rooftop billboard that shows a happy young couple-this is a travel ad for, of all places, "Siberia-Land of Dreams." On the next line, the streak flashes past, leaving the images changed similarly to the poster. )

Narrator:… is defacing all the billboards… ( A poster of a cowboy and his horse is hit. )… posters… ( A statue gets made over. )… and statues in Gotham Royal York.

( Zoom in on the head, then cut to a bus stop bench on which four men are seated; it is now the next day. The eyes of three of them dart about and finally settle on the fourth, who is reading a newspaper; zoom in on him during the following. )

Narrator: Who could be behind this senseless lashing out?

( Zoom in closer, slowly, to a close-up of this man. He finally raises his eyes and looks back and forth-and then the paper is lowered to show a very tiny fellow sitting in his lap. The latter was holding on to it; he rolls it up, tucks it under his arm, and walks away. From here, cut to a shot of a somewhat surprised-looking Mojo Jojo. )

Narrator: Could it be… Mojo Jojo? ( A crowd is seen. )

Crowd: No! ( A plumber works under a sink. )

Narrator: Could it be… your plumber?

( He pulls himself out and stares confusedly at us. Big, fat, scraggly beard, not too bright. )

Crowd: No!

( Next up: the car thief from "Girls Gone Mild," who swiped that black SUV. )

Narrator: Could it be… Charlie Bean? ( He shrugs. )

Crowd: No! ( A quick, long pan begins. )

Narrator: Or could it be…

( Stop on a shadowy area of the city, with a sprawling tower standing high over the other buildings; a large M is on the roof. A violent thunderstorm has begun. Lightning strikes, illuminating the area for a moment and showing the tower to be in ruins, and the view dissolves to a long shot of a silhouette standing at a top-floor window. This figure is very thin, with long arms and legs, claw-like fingers, and spiky hair. )

Narrator: ( shocked ) No! It can't be!

( Dissolve to inside the building, a close-up of the legs; the feet are clad in high heels. Tilt up slowly toward the head and stop. After a long pause, lightning reveals the face in full detail: wide, staring eyes set above a tiny nose; thick lips drawn back from a snarling mouth; chin tapering down to a very fine point. The entire face is heavily made up, and it and the streaked white hair are left half in shadow by the lightning's glare. )

( Another strike, and the silhouette is seen again inside the building. It cackles madly in the voice heard earlier; this individual is the culprit. Pull back a bit from the window, then cut to outside the tower and pull back some more as her laughter rings out and the storm continues. Fade to black. )

We were looking at the posters and statues.

Needle Man: Make up all around the city? (laughs) Maybe the make up store exploded!

Me: That is funny! But this is not a joke.

We heard maniacal laughter as if it was being heard from all over the city and then we saw a strange purple and pink comet with black stripes flying all over the city like bats out of hell.

Me: What in the world is that?

Nico: I don't know but whoever that is it can't be good.

Adult Blossom: Oh no! It's Mask Scara!

Me: Wasn't she the successful fashion mogul that lost her marbles when her company went bankrupt?

Adult Blossom: Yep.

She told us all about her.

---

Mask Scara is a one-time villain from the Cartoon Network original series, The Powerpuff Girls, appearing in the Season 6 episode "A Made Up Story".

She is a fallen fashion mogul, who vandalizes all billboards, posters, and statues, depicting a person's face, and puts grotesque, tacky makeup on them. More importantly, she does this to people, and makes it impossible for them to get their makeup off. This is all done in a desperate attempt to feel as though this trashy makeup style is still a popular trend.

She was voiced by and modeled after the late Phyllis Diller.

Mask Scara used to be a subtle woman named "Madame M.", who ran her own make-up business that made billions of dollars for inventing a style called "The Trashy Look", which involved women wearing overwhelming amount of make up, giving them big red lips, giant black eyelashes, and so much foundation, that the color of their original face was barely visible. This trend went on for a while, before it was overshadowed by "The Dull Look", the new trending style, which was literally just promoting the complete and total lack of makeup. This sent Madame M.'s profits plummeting, until her whole business crashed. Madame M., distraught by her life ending up in shambles, went completely evil by developing the new alter-ego of "Mask Scara". As Mask Scara, she would wear her trashy makeup, and use her spontaneously acquired superpowers to vandalize all people and things with the trashy look, so that technically, that style would be "in" again, and she could one again feel relevant, and bask in her former, but now long-gone glory.

In the episode "A Made Up Story", Mask Scara struck again, for the first time since the creation of The Powerpuff Girls. She covered Townsville in make up, and victimized both heroes and villains alike. Bubbles and Buttercup had both become victims of Mask Scara, but Blossom managed to keep herself high and dry, while she thought of a plan to stop her. Blossom was aware that the unveiling of The Mayor's colossal mural of himself would be taking place soon, and she knew that Mask Scara would strike there next. She awaited her arrival there, and sure enough, she showed up. The Powerpuff Girls fought with Mask Scara here, but to no success. Just then, Professor Utonium showed up, introducing his new invention. An antidote for the permanent make up, known as Calibrating, Oscillating, Lifting, Dermatological cream, or "C.O.L.D. Cream" for short. Buttercup and Bubbles fought over who gets to use it first, and the bottle of cold cream slipped out of their hands and went flying into Mask Scara's face. Mask Scara lost her own make up, and her magic as well. As such, all of the vandalism she caused had vanished, setting Townsville back to normal again.

When she was done we were shocked!

Lana: Oh gross!

Lola: So she spreads makeup all over?

Nico: At least she doesn't hurt people.

Laney: That's a relief.

Sweetie Belle: Hey look at me!

We saw that Sweetie Belle was wearing the Trashy Look and it was nice.

Me: Ooh flashy.

Rarity: Why Sweetie Belle that is a most amazing look for you darling.

Sweetie Belle: Thanks Rarity.

Mask Scara was looking out the window of the abandoned Madam M building.

Mask Scara: Finally, my revenge on Dullsville is almost complete. ( Pull back slowly to frame her. ) Oh, look at them running terrified!

( Now enough of her is in frame to reveal that she wears a pink bodysuit, the same shade as the outfit she sported as Madame M, and long black gloves. She turns from the window. )

Mask Scara: I'll shake them to their very foundation! ( breaking the mood ) Get it? Foundation?

HAHAHAHAHAHAHA! HER JOKES ARE FUNNY!

( She has a good laugh at this very bad pun. A final crash of lightning, and we are back to the present. The Professor is deep in thought; pull back slowly from him. )

Professor: And now she's taking her misfortune out on all of the innocent signage of Gotham Royal York. Boy, that makes me mad- kinda like when you wash your hands in a public restroom, and the hot water just stays cold. Or like when you're mowing the lawn on a hot summer day, and your undershorts keep riding up the-

Bubbles: ( from o.c. ) Um… ( Pull back to frame her. )… Professor, we get the idea. Anyway, I think the makeup looks kinda neat. ( Pan to Blossom. )

Blossom: I think it's just lame. ( To Buttercup. )

Buttercup: Oh, what's the big deal, anyway? I mean, it's only dumb posters and billboards and statues. And people getting upset over a little makeup is ridiculous. Hmph!

Me: She's a cosmetic supervillain. Besides we dealt with one before guys. Remember the Mane-Iac?

Spike: Yeah I sure do.

Sweetie Belle: I think the Trashy Look is amazing.

Me: Yep. But at least no one is getting hurt. A little makeup never hurt anyone. But she's a villain nonetheless and we have to stop her.

Nico: Yep.

Dr. Viktor, Demyx, Vulture, Living Laser, Dark Laser, Dai Gui the Demon Sorcerer of Earth, Heat Wave, and Pinky & The Brain then appeared.

Dr. Viktor: Can me, Demyx, Vulture, Living Laser, Dark Laser, Dai Gui, Heat Wave, Pinky and Brain help you find Mask Scara?

Me: You all sure can. But after everything that Blossom told us about her, finding her is not gonna be easy.

Nico: Yeah.

Then purple and pink comet zoomed all over us and vanished just as mysteriously as it appeared.

Me: WHOA!

I held up a mirror and saw that my face was unaffected.

Me: Hmm. Are you all alright?

Everyone said they were okay and they didn't have any makeup on them.

Me: I guess our powers make us impervious to Mask Scara's makeup.

Nico: Yeah. Clever.

Demyx: Nice.

Living Laser: But Sweetie Belle looks awesome with the Trashy Look.

Me: She sure does. Lets find Mask Scara and the best place to start is at the building of Madame M.

We went to the building of Madame M Enterprises and we searched the whole building from top to bottom. It looked like no one has been in the building for a long time. We found the financial records and why it fell into total disrepair and all that. We also saw that it was because of a new look called the Dull Look that caused Madame M to Snap and turn into Mask Scara. She lost everything including her mind! And because of her misfortunes with the Trashy Look going out, she is lashing out at the people of Gotham Royal York by making them get the Trashy Look forever.

Me: Oh man! She lost everything and because of a new fashion she snapped. But then again everyone has their own tastes.

Nico: They sure do.

Me: Mask Scara is one of the villains I feel sorry for.

Cozy Glow: We both have so much in common. Except I lost my mom and it turned me into an orphan.

Lola: That's rough. She had it bad.

Me: Yeah. Lets figure out where she will go.

We went to the park.

Heckyl: Mask Scara reminds me of Beauticruel.

Me: I remember her. She was the only monster to ever be made from a footsoldier.

Nico: Sounds harsh if you ask me. I have a feeling we'll face her as a monster.

Eli: Yeah. She is dangerous.

Ets: No kidding.

Demyx: I can just wash this makeup off with my water powers.

Me: Go for it.

Demyx blasted the makeup on a statue. But to his surprise it did not come off.

Me: Whoa! That must be some potent makeup.

Adult Blossom: Yeah Mask Scara's makeup is permanent. The only way it will come off is if we defeat her.

Me: How did you girls defeat her the first time?

Adult Bubbles: We beat her with the professor's Calibrating, Oscillating, Lifting, Dermatological cream, or "C.O.L.D. Cream".

Me: Fancy cold cream huh?

Ed: Mm gravy!

Eddy: Shut up Ed.

Me: We're gonna need a lot of that stuff.

Muscle Man: You know who else likes wearing makeup? My Mom!

Rumble: (laughs) That actually might be true.

Muscle Man: Yeah it is.

We laughed.

Me: That is funny but true! My mom does too.

Mandy: So does my mom.

Mrs. Doolin: I do too.

Lola: I like wearing makeup too.

Me: I think all makeup is pretty for all girls. Some like it and some don't.

Lana: And you're looking at one who doesn't.

Me: All right here's my plan.

I gathered everyone in a huddle and my plan was to make a statue that hasn't been touched by Mask Scara and set it up in the park and then when Mask Scara comes for it we'll ambush her.

Nico: That's genius.

Ets: Yeah!

Heat Wave: (to the Powerpuff Girls) Let's get to your dad for that cream first.

Professor Utonium: I already got a bunch of C.O.L.D. Cream already.

He pulled out a big jar full of it.

Me: Great! Thanks professor.

Professor Utonium: You're welcome. Also if I see my so called friend, have me punch him in the face first.

Me: With pleasure. Some friend he turned out to be.

Dreadbane: Now, let's brainstorm some ideas on what statue to make.

Spike: Well since we're dealing with cosmetics I have just the statue.

Spike pulled out a comic and he pointed to the Mane-Iac.

Me: The Mane-Iac! Perfect!

Princess Celestia: That is a clever plan.

Me: Yep. Use a figure we beat in the war as bait.

Fluttershy: But in statue form.

Me: Yeah! Lets do it.

Twilight Sparkle: Nice job Spike.

Me: Great idea. Lets do it.

Tara and Dai Gui made a huge boulder and Laney and Chip Cutter made the statue of the Mane-Iac in a heartbeat.

Me: That's perfect!

Nico: Awesome!

Vince: Yeah!

Me: Our trap is set. Lets go.

We hid in the bushes and waited.

Vulture: I'll keep to the skies to keep an eye out for Mask Scara.

Me: Okay. Don't engage her.

Vulture: Right.

Vulture flew up into the air.

We hid in the bushes and we were watching the statue and Lisa Loud was using a sonic head set to keep an ear out.

Me: (In my head) So far nothing.

Nico: (In his head) Mask Scara is gonna take the bait one way or another.

Then we heard maniacal laughter and Lisa pointed to the south and we saw a comet flying towards the statue at an incredible speed!

Me: 3… 2… 1… now!

When she was just about 25 feet away from the statue we swooped in and punched her in the face and smashed her down into the ground! She got up and we we were facing MASK SCARA!

Me: Mask Scara. So we meet at last.

Apeface: Didn't your mom tell you not to force makeup on others?

Mask Scara: You should know I am the foundation of fun! Get it? Foundation? (Laughs)

Luan: (Laughs) She is funny!

Me: That joke is funny. By the way has anyone ever told you that your voice sounds so much like the late Phyllis Diller?

Mask Scara: (Laughs) That is funny! I do sound so much like her.

Me: She was funny all those years ago.

Mask Scara: And I make people lash out in laughter! Get it? Lash out?

We laughed with her joke.

Me: You know you may be more funnier than the Joker. You are also the first ever villain we can laugh along with.

Dai Gui: (to me) You guys laugh along with us too whenever we make jokes.

Me: Sorry. But I was talking about anyone outside of you guys.

Dai Gui: Ah that makes sense.

Me: But your jokes are so funny too.

Vulture: Thanks.

Me: You're welcome.

Living Laser: (to Mask Scara) Why don't you put makeup on Nico? J.D. and the others might get to see him act like a girl again if you do.

Nico: Living Laser!

Me: That was not funny!

Mask Scara: Okay then!

She primped him up and made him get the Trashy Look! And surprisingly it worked on him!

Me: Oh boy.

May: (faints)

Eddy: WHY YOU LITTLE!

Eddy pounced on Living Laser and smashed him all over the place with incredible fury!

Living Laser: Sorry, guys. But I was referring to the part where Nico acted like a girl in Celadon City.

Eddy: (thinks for a moment and then laughs) Wait. Now I remember!

Francis: (laughs as well) Yep! It was pretty funny when Nico flirted with J.D. that day.

Me: SHUT UP FRANCIS! (GROWLS!)

Eli: Don't even think of laughing at J.D.!

Me: (Growls) I hate that moment.

Benson: Boy that must've really hurt J.D.

Me: Yeah it did Benson and I don't want to talk about it.

Lola: Remember when…

Benson: DON'T TALK ABOUT IT LOLA OR YOU'RE FIRED!

Brain: Pinkie, are you pondering what I'm pondering?

Pinkie: That she should stop using makeup?

Brain: Well, there is that as well. (to Mask Scara) Before we fight, can you tell us if you're working with Dick Hardly or not?

Mask Scara: No I am not. I'm an independent villainess.

Me: She did run a makeup company before the profits went lower than whale doo-doo.

Irwin: (Laughs) That's a good one yo.

Weirdwolf: (to Mask Scara) Seriously, don't you have better things to do then put makeup on people?

Mask Scara: Well I like Puffing up the park. Get it? Puffing?

We laughed at her joke.

Me: She cracks me up.

Vambre: (British Accent) BOO! (Fires a tomato at her)

SPLAT!

It hit Mask Scara in the face and knocked her down.

Me: Nice shot.

Nico: Yeah!

Me: I guess Vambre finds her jokes to be corny. But maybe these jokes are better.

Announcer: DUMMYSTEIN MAGISWORD!

Me: It's showtime!

The Dummystein took Vambre's voice.

Me: Sorry Vambre just need to borrow your voice for a bit.

Dummystein: (In Vambre's Voice) How did the beauty school student do on her manicure test?

Me: I don't know. How did she do?

Dummystein: She Nailed it!

RIMSHOT!

We laughed at that joke!

Mask Scara laughed at that one too!

Me: (Laughs) That was a good one!

Mask Scara just put makeup on Flipsy.

May: Looks like Flipsy isn't immune to the makeup!

Dark Laser: (to Mask Scara) THAT'S IT! NO ONE PUTS MAKEUP ON FLIPSY WITHOUT MY PERMISSION! YOU PREPARE FOR THE BEATING OF YOUR LIFE!

Me: UH OH!

Nico: Now she is in for it!

Adult Blossom: Yep.

Me: Dark Laser let us handle it.

I put the C.O.L.D. Cream on Nico and Flipsie and it washed away.

Mask Scara tried to put makeup on Maria but she turned into her water form.

Maria: (smirks) Go ahead and try to put makeup on me. It's not going to leave a mark.

Cut Man: And your makeup will get ruined by the water anyway.

Mask Scara: That's what you think!

She put it on Maria and her makeup didn't leave so much as a spec on her.

Me: Nice try but our powers make all your makeup useless.

Nico: Yeah! Now you are gonna get a big time buttkicking!

Me: Yep.

Then we saw her shadow vanish and Mask Scara was frozen in place!

Me: Whoa! Only one creature known is capable of doing that and that's…

Me and the Megaforce Rangers: SHADOW SERPENT!

?: AW MAN!

We saw him. Shadow Serpent was back for round 2.

Shadow Serpent: You ruined my surprise entrance.

Me: Sorry.

Me: P'andor, Man Ray, Avalanche, Kyd Wykkyd, Kitty, Tar Pit, Moonstone, Vypra and Firefly.

P'andor: (Russian Accent) Now this is gonna be interesting seeing a makeup villain.

Kitty: It sure is.

P'andor: Man, the city really got a makeover.

Man Ray: Yeah. An extreme makeover.

Avalanche: At least Mask Scara's makeup skills haven't gone rusty.

Kyd Wykkyd: (to Mask Scara) By the way, Mojo says hi.

Nico: (to me) J.D., I just want to say that I'm sorry for acting like a girl that day in Celadon City. I just got caught up in the moment.

Francis: I'm sorry as well, dude.

Me: No worries guys. It's just that day was so humiliating.

Eli: Geez.

Nico: Good.

Laney: And it was funny out May was puling on Nico's ear.

May then pulled on Nico's Ear.

Nico: OW OW OW OW OW OW OW!

May: Don't ever do that again Nico.

Benson: But at least Lola listened to me.

Me: Uh Lola doesn't even work for you Benson.

Benson: Oh yeah.

Shadow Serpent: At least I got someone frozen with my powers this time.

Me: Yes you sure did. Sorry for spoiling your entrance.

Shadow Serpent: No worries.

Me: We were able to figure it out.

Shadow Serpent: Smart.

Me: Lets do it!

We powered up and went at them.

P'andor: That's true. That's true.

Sunset Shimmer: I actually like the Trashy Look. It's really creative.

Princess Cadance: Yeah. We found out that Hardly was controling Billy with an insanity chip and that is what was causing him to break stuff.

Princess Amore: That is sick. He turned the whole town against him.

Flurry Heart: We'll give Hardly a piece of our minds for forcing us to suspend Billy like that.

Princess Luna: J.D. once told us so much about all of them and what they do and all that. They are great. Betty White is still very popular to this day.

Snowdrop: She sure is.

Gari: I agree. She is great.

Brittney: And she is 99 years old and had done it all over the years.

Lincoln and his group fired a rainbow laser blast and Blossom and her group fired a wave of jewels and makeup and smashed Mask Scara down!

We picked her up.

Me: That was easy.

Sweetie Belle: Tell you what. You tell us everything that you know about Hardly and we promise to have you in the local jail for a month.

Mask Scara: Deal. Hardly gave me my look as Mask Scara back permanently so that I can deface the people and monuments and distract you guys long enough to make more Powerpuff Girls clones.

Me: Whoa! So he's back to making more of those Powerpuff Girls Clones. Looks like he is playing right into our hands.

Kitty: Despite the damages in property damage she caused, Mask Scara actually didn't do anything too bad.

Blossom: Hardly, on the other hand…

Tar Pit: Don't worry. I have a feeling that we're gonna get the chance to kill him very soon.

Moonstone: Now, to apply that cream.

Firefly: (gives Mask Scara contact info) After you get out of jail next month, call the numbers on this card.

Mask Scara: Thanks.

Me: We're sorry that your business went under and you lost everything.

Sweetie Belle: Besides, I like the trashy look. It's really awesome.

Mask Scara: Why thank you Sweetie.

Sweetie Belle: You're welcome.

Me: All right like we agreed.

I splashed Mask Scara with the C.O.L.D. Cream and she lost the makeup she had and all that and was back to normal.

All the vandalism vanished.

Me: Nice.

I slapped the cuffs on her.

Me: Don't worry it's just for a month. You're lucky it's not in OUR prisons.

Nico: Yep.

Me: But Hardly should be more ready for us. He already died ones. So I think jail is more appropriate for him. Get ready hardly. (Eyes Glow Red) We're gonna make you pay for your crimes.

Blossom: (To the viewers) Get ready for an epic battle next time.

Nico: Yep.

Our stomachs growled.

Me: First lets get some grub.

We went to Lynn's Table and got the Ulti-Meatum and many more items. Then we got ready for bed later that night. We had a big day for tomorrow.

TO BE CONTINUED…

Another fanfic done.

Mask Scara was awesome in The Powerpuff Girls and it was amazing that the late Phyllis Diller voiced her. Also Mrs. Doolin is from the episode of The Grim Adventures of Billy and Mandy, Who Killed Who and she is voiced by the legendary Betty White. Hope you all liked this adventure. Get ready for an epic battle tomorrow as we take down Professor Dick Hardly, the worst ever villain in all of The Powerpuff Girls from the episode Knock It Off and we're going to make that freak pay for his crimes and for exploiting the Powerpuff Girls by making cheap knockoff clones for his own greed.

See you all tomorrow.

The Money-Hungry Dumb Scientist

We were over in Hogwarts School for Witchcraft and Wizardry and we were there to show Twilight and friends around.

Plant Man: Welcome to Hogwarts, girls.

Twilight Sparkle: Oh wow!

We were in the grand dining room.

Me: This is the grand dining room. It's where we get together to have lunch and everything.

Nico: Yep.

Minuette: This is so amazing!

Twinkleshine: Wow! This is awesome!

Me: Just wait till we show you all around. You are in for an amazing thrill.

Linka: At Hogwarts, the spells you'll learn are different then the ones in Equestria.

Me: Yep. But they have certain requirements needed for them. You need a wand, potions, everything.

Twilight Sparkle: That's interesting.

Starlight Glimmer: It sure looks amazing here.

Trixie: I think it's all amazing.

Me: Things are so much different here ever since we killed Voldemort and his cronies of Pureblood Supremacy.

Nico: Yep.

Me: Lets show you the dorm rooms. Starting with Gryffindor.

We went to the Gryffindor Dorm Room and Qin said the password and we went in and it was a nice dorm room.

Me: This is the Gryffindor Dorm Room. It's the home of Harry Potter and his friends when they attended here.

Harry Potter: (British Accent) It's home.

Twilight Sparkle: Wow! Your dorm room is nice.

We showed them around and we then went to the Hufflepuff Dorm Room and it was beautiful.

Fluttershy: Oh wow. I like Hufflepuff's Dorm Room.

Lori: It literally is beautiful huh?

Fluttershy: It sure is.

Tree Hugger: It's far out dudes.

Nico: I think it's one of the most beautiful out of the dorms.

We then went to Ravenclaw's Dorm Room.

Me: This is Ravenclaw's Dorm Room.

Rainbow Dash: Awesome! I love the decorations.

Luna Lovegood: (British Accent) It's home.

Me: It's a beautiful dorm though.

Lincoln: If I was put into a dorm room I would be in Ravenclaw.

Me: Well it doesn't work that way Lincoln. You have to be sorted by the Sorting Hat into a House.

Lincoln: Oh.

Me: We have one last dorm room to see.

We were walking to Slytherin Dorm Room and we ran into Mad Eye Moody.

Me: Oh Hello Professor Moody.

Mad Eye Moody: (British Accent) Good to see you again everyone.

Harry Potter: You're leaving professor?

Mad Eye Moody: (to Harry) In my opinion, Potter, I hardly think there's anything left for you to learn at Hogwarts. The Wizarding War is over! You all got what you wanted. The Dark Lord and his followers are in the Warp for all eternity, there's no more corruption at Hogwarts and in the Minisitry of Magic, your parents and all the victims who have perished at Voldemort's hands have been brought back, and you even have a more honorable archenemy in Tala. (smiles) What more could you possibly need?

Harry Potter: Voldemort might be gone. But the next threat in the magical world might be even more dangerous then him. I can't let my guard down.

Thunderblast: Didn't you of all people tell us constantly tell us about constant vigilance?

Mad Eye Moody: Yes I did.

Me: And we will always treasure that rule.

Nico: It's a very important rule.

Me: Yep. And the best part for Harry is that his parents are back and teaching here att Hogwarts and also his so-called aunt, uncle and cousin are in prison for the rest of their lives.

Twilight Sparkle: Oh man.

Me: We'll have to show you where they are when the time comes Twilight.

Twilight Sparkle: Yeah.

Me: I know it's a very sore subject Harry but they have a right to know.

Harry Potter: I understand.

Later we were at Slytherin Dorm.

Me: This is Slytherin Dorm.

Twilight Sparkle: Wow! It's amazing.

Minuette: Are there still any Slytherin Students after everything that happened?

Me: Yeah there still are.

We walked around and showed them around. We saw the scorch marks from where I blasted a picture of Draco Malfoy. I will always hate that monster and anyone like him and Voldemort and his pureblood supremacist followers can go fuck themselves to Hell.

Optimus Prime: I'm just glad Hogwarts is doing fine after Voldemort was defeated.

Mad Eye Moody: Of course it is. Now, you all and Potter should make the most of your lives. You've all earned it. (chuckles) Weasley, Granger, and the others are having the time of their lives.

Me: They sure are.

Twilight Sparkle: Who were the worst teachers in all of Hogwarts?

Me: That's an easy one. They were Dolores Umbridge and Quirinus Quirrell. You would not like Umbridge. She was an absolute control freak and she wanted to rule over the entire school with an iron fist.

Control Freak then appeared.

Control Freak: Someone call?

Me: Oh sorry. I was just making a reference with Dolores Umbridge.

Control Freak: Oh my mistake.

He vanished.

Twinkleshine: Can you tell us about them?

Me: I sure can. But you will not like them.

I pulled up their history.

---

Dolores Umbridge

Professor Dolores Jane Umbridge, simply known as Dolores Umbridge, is a major antagonist in the Harry Potter franchise, serving as the main antagonist of the 2003 book Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix and its 2007 film adaptation of the same name, and a major antagonist in the 2007 book Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows and its separate 2010-2011 two-part film adaptations of the same name.

She was a Ministry of Magic official and served as Senior Undersecretary to the Minister for Magic under three successive ministers: Cornelius Fudge, Rufus Scrimgeour and Pius Thicknesse. Umbridge was designated as Defense Against the Dark Arts teacher at the Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry by order of the Ministry in 1995 and was later promoted to Hogwarts High Inquisitor and eventually Headmistress. This was part of a Ministry effort to keep the school and Harry under control. She was removed from these positions later on in 1996, when Lord Voldemort was revealed to be alive, and returned to the ministry, working as a judge under Voldemort's supremacist reign.

In the films, she was portrayed by Imelda Staunton, who also played Mrs. Lovett at the Chichester Theatre Festival's adaptation of Sweeney Todd and Alexandrina Victoria Hannover in The Pirates! In an Adventure with Scientists!

Early life

Umbridge was a half-blood witch and the first child of a wizard named Orford Umbridge and a Muggle Ellen Cracknell. Her younger brother was a Squib but she herself was born a witch. Under her father's influence, she despised her Muggle mother and her Squib brother, considering them inferior to her and her father, and they both denounced them. Ellen and her son returned to the Muggle world, never to be heard of again. At the age of eleven, she purchased her wand, an unusually short one, at Diagon Alley, most likely at Ollivanders. According to Garrick Ollivander, abnormally short wands usually selected those whose moral character was stunted, rather than because they were physically short. Umbridge attended Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry, where she was sorted into Slytherin.

After leaving Hogwarts, Umbridge quickly rose to influential positions in the British Ministry of Magic. At the age of 17, she started an internship at the Improper Use of Magic Office, and by the age of 30, she became the Head of the Office, due to her ruthless tactics and tyrannical leadership under her sweet attitude. She also, while gaining power, overthrew her own father and had him fired from his job, severing all of ties to him and also denying she was related to him, from that point on considering herself only a pure-blood rather than a half-blood. She became Senior Undersecretary to the Minister for Magic and had a place amongst the Wizengamot.

Taking over Hogwarts

Umbridge's first appearance in the series took place at Harry Potter's hearing, to address his underage use of magic in the presence of Muggles (non-magic people). He had performed a Patronus charm to defend himself and his Muggle cousin Dudley against two Dementors. Various members of the Ministry, including Fudge and Umbridge, believed that the presence of Dementors in Privet Drive was impossible since they were under the Ministry's control. Dumbledore acting as a witness for the defence claimed that the reason for this occurrence was the return of the Dark Lord, but Fudge insisted that Voldemort had not returned (since doing so would mean trouble that the Ministry had not had to deal with for almost fourteen years) and demanded on pressing charges against Harry. It is later revealed that Umbridge was the one who sent the Dementors as an attempt to silence Harry in order to prevent him from contradicting the Ministry's claim that Voldemort is vanquished. However, under Albus Dumbledore's persuasion and the presence of the second witness Arabella Figg, the vast majority of the crowd - Umbridge excluded - were in favour of clearing Harry of all charges.

When Harry Potter began his fifth year at Hogwarts, he discovered that Umbridge had been appointed as the Defence Against the Dark Arts teacher by the Ministry (due to a lack of interest in the position). Throughout the story, it became more clear that the Ministry was interfering at Hogwarts through Umbridge, which was first demonstrated when Umbridge refused to let Dumbledore finish his traditional headmaster's speech.

Later in the year, she was made the High Inquisitor of Hogwarts by Fudge, in order to combat what he claimed to be the seriously falling standards at Hogwarts. In truth, this was just the Ministry's latest attempt to override Dumbledore and take full control at Hogwarts, since they believed that Dumbledore was trying to stir up trouble by claiming that Lord Voldemort was back, and was using the school as a recruitment/training ground.

This new position gave Umbridge power to override the Headmaster in many aspects, issue out punishments to the students, create/ enforce new rules and dismiss the teachers. Far from being for the benefit of the student's education, the later order was to allow Umbridge to establish and remove those teachers that were ultimately more loyal to Dumbledore than the Ministry. To this end, she inspected every professor at Hogwarts though she was unable to find fault with most of them. She did, however, attempt to banish Professor Trelawney from Hogwarts permanently and her position as a divination teacher but was stopped at Dumbledore's intervention (since she did not have the authority to remove them from the castle). In the novel, Dumbledore made sure that Trelawney stayed at the castle (for her own safety) and that the centaur Firenze was brought in to replace her, which further insulted Umbridge because she hated half-breeds and those who outmanoeuvred her. In the movie, when Dumbledore explained that the power to remove people from the premises was still within his power, Umbridge simply replied, "For now!"

Dumbledore's Army and Fighting Against Umbridge

From the moment Umbridge arrived at Hogwarts, Harry Potter was a marked man. Following the allegations made by Rita Skeeter the previous year (about his questionable sanity), and Harry's claim that Voldemort had returned, Fudge convinced himself and the Ministry that Harry was an insane troublemaker, who liked to tell tall stories because he enjoyed being famous. Supporting Fudges claims, Umbridge was placed at Hogwarts to stop these "wicked, nasty attention-seeking stories" from spreading any further, to punish anyone that reinforced or questioned them, and if necessary find a way to remove Harry from the school permanently.

Throughout the year Umbridge took sadistic pleasure in depriving Harry and many of the other students of the things that made Hogwarts life enjoyable. When Harry spoke out against her during his first Defence Against the Dark Arts lesson, she put him detention and forced him to carve the words "I must not tell lies" into the back of his hand with a Blood Quill, leaving a scar that never truly healed. She deliberately delayed the re-establishment of the Hogwarts Quidditch teams (with the exception of the Slytherins to whom Umbridge showed favour) and when Harry, Fred and George got into a fight with Malfoy and Crabbe, she banned them from the team and confiscated their brooms. Finally, when Harry gave an interview at Hogsmeade about what he saw on the night Voldemort returned, Umbridge banned him from visiting the village again and put Harry in detention. Whilst these acts specifically targeted Harry, it is implied in the novel that she inflicted similar punishments on other students (as Lee Jordan's hand was bleeding badly at one point), and is outright confirmed in the film where she made the whole of Dumbledore's Army write lines with a blood quill, and a first-year student was shown crying after undergoing a similar experience. Her excuse was simply, "Naughty children deserve to be punished!"

These actions inevitably turned both the staff and the students against her, with the apparent exception of the Slytherins (or at the very least Malfoy and his gang) who benefited from them. In a desperate bid escape Professor Umbridge's restriction from using magic in her class, and learn practical defensive skills, Harry and his friends created a secret organization of students, called "Dumbledore's Army" to improve their duelling skills. Umbridge was aware of the group's existence but thanks to effective measures taken was originally unable to catch them. In the end, Marietta

Edgecombe, Cho Chang's friend and a member of the group, betrayed them to Umbridge exposing their location. Catching them in the act, Umbridge brought Harry, along with the list of other members to Dumbledores office, where the Headmaster, several Aurors, Fudge, Percy Weasley and Professor McGonagall were waiting. After Dumbledore falsely admitted that he was responsible, Fudge ordered Dumbledore's immediate sentence to Azkaban, awaiting trial. When Dumbledore escaped, Umbridge became the new headmistress, and she enacted severe punishments on students suspected of participating in secret organizations, as well as establishing a band of loyal students to carry out her orders, the Inquisitorial Squad. She also gave a painful detention to the members of Dumbledores Army by making them write with the blood quill.

Fall from Power

Despite her newfound power and position, things quickly went downhill for Umbridge. By this point in time, many of the students at Hogwarts had begun to suspect that the accusations against Harry and Dumbledore were false and began silently siding with them against the Ministry. With Dumbledore gone the students, along with Peeves the Poltergeist, ran rampant and did everything in their power to make Umbridge's life at Hogwarts as difficult as possible. Umbridge soon found herself confronted by several of Fred and Georges inventions, was attacked by a Nifler in her office on two separate occasions (put there by Lee Jordan) and had to frequently deal with Peeves' antics. With the exception of Argus Filch, the teachers did absolutely nothing to help her. It was during this time that Umbridge tried to have Hagrid arrested by a group of Aurors, for his loyalty to Dumbledore. She led the group to attack him in the dead of night, but the group was ultimately beaten back by Hagrid who managed to escape the scene and went into hiding.

When Harry Potter had a prophetic nightmare, showing Voldemort torturing Sirius, he broke into Umbridge's office in an attempt to contact his Godfather. He was quickly discovered due to a series of unfortunate circumstances (as a cat on the plate alerted Umbridge) and with his friends restrained interrogated by Umbridge. When Harry refused to co-operate, Umbridge declared she would force him to tell her. She initially summoned Professor Snape, asking for more vertiaserum, but when he likewise proved unhelpful, she decided to take matters into her own hands. Umbridge then decided she would perform the Cruciatus Curse on Harry, despite being in front of several Hogwarts students (his friends and the Inquisitorial Squad). It is here that her true colours are revealed because when Hermione reminds her that performing the Cruciatus curse is illegal; she responds by saying "What Cornelius doesn't know won't hurt him!". In the book Umbridge subsequently revealed that she was the one who sent the Dementors after Harry the previous summer, pointing out that she was the only one who acted, whilst other Ministry officials were "all bleating about silencing you somehow - discrediting you".

However, before she was able to follow through with the curse, Hermione Granger stopped Umbridge. She told her about Dumbledore's "secret weapon", (which didn't actually exist), and successfully fooled Umbridge into following her to the "weapon's" location. Hermione, along with Harry, led her into the Forbidden Forest, a location which, forbidden to students, contained monstrous creatures and dark alleys. It was during this venture that they attracted the attention of centaurs, in the books this was intentional on Hermione's part, whereas in the film it happened by pure coincidence after Umbridge realized she was being manipulated. In both cases, Umbridge proceeded to insult the Centaurs, resulting in them capturing and dragging her away out of rage. In the film, Harry managed to get a belated revenge on Umbridge at this point, when she ordered him to tell the Centaurs she meant no harm, Harry spitefully replied, "Sorry Professor, but I must not tell lies!"

It is not known what the Centaurs did to Umbridge whilst she was confined within the Forbidden Forest, but the experience left her traumatized. During her captivity, the Ministry discovered that Harry and Dumbledore had been telling the truth for an entire year when several high ranking officials (including Fudge) walked into the Ministry atrium and saw Voldemort with their own eyes. Owing to this revelation, the Ministry withdrew from Hogwarts affairs. Umbridge herself was rescued the following day by a reinstated Dumbledore but was removed from her position. As a result; her decrees became null and void. Umbridge left the castle, the day before the end of the term. She tried to sneak out discreetly during the end of year feast but ran into Peeves, who along with several students chased her from the castle. This was her last appearance in the fifth book.

The Half-Blood Prince

Umbridge made a brief appearance in the final chapter of the Half-Blood Prince, where she alongside several other Ministry officials attended the funeral of Albus Dumbledore. Harry noted that she was terrified of Firenze, but did not seem particularly upset. This was her only physical appearance.

She was, however, referenced on a number of occasions throughout the novel and in these instances, it was made very clear that Harry was still very bitter towards her. During Harry's meeting with Rufus Scrimgeour, (who replaced Cornelius Fudge as Minister when the public voted him out of office), during Christmas 1996 the Minister revealed that despite everything she had done, Umbridge had returned to her position as senior undersecretary and had mentioned about Harry's ambitions to become an Auror. Scrimgeour wanted to use Harry as a poster boy to ensure the public that the Ministry was doing a good job at fighting Voldemort, which was not true. Harry, however, called him out on this hypocrisy, pointing out that the Ministry had originally been far from helpful when he originally tried to tell them about Voldemort and showed him the scars Umbridge had forced him to carve into his skin. Harry like many of his friends felt that the Ministry had a real cheek to ask for his help after everything they had put him through (since they were more concerned in maintaining public support by covering up bad news or using any arrest to falsify on their making progress in the war instead of dealing with the Death Eaters properly).

It has not been revealed exactly how Umbridge was able to retain her position, given the nature of her dark deeds throughout her tenure at Hogwarts School. It is likely though that the Ministry were not aware of them, and given the outbreak of war, did not have the time or resources to investigate them properly. Alternatively, given her manipulative nature, Umbridge may have simply lied; claiming she was acting under Fudge's authority, thus shifting the blame away from herself.

Deathly Hallows

Her role in the novel and movie is much shorter and she is only important when Harry, Ron and Hermione disguise themselves as Ministry officials to get into the Ministry and steal a locket that Umbridge was wearing, which turned out to be one of Voldemort's Horcruxes.

Umbridge acquired the locket from Mundungus Fletcher, taking it as a bribe after she caught him selling stolen goods. During Harry, Ron and Hermione's brief visit to the Ministry, it is made perfectly clear that Umbridge has sided with the Death Eaters, and is working alongside them to torture/imprison innocent Muggle-Borns. She is head of the Muggle-Born Registration Commission and has a large wanted poster of Harry in her office, to which she has added the words "To be punished" indicating her absolute hatred of him.

Umbridge inadvertently sabotaged Harry, Ron and Hermione's plan, by taking a disguised Hermione down to the courtroom, to act as her assistant. When Harry later arrived in that courtroom, to rescue Hermione, he found Umbridge about to sentence another innocent Muggle-born, and discovered that she was wearing the locket they were after. To make the scene even more unpleasant for her victims, Umbridge had Dementors present, though she, Yaxley and Hermione were kept safe by her cat patronus. As Harry approached the desk, Umbridge began callously interrogating Mrs. Cattermole demanding to know whom she stole her wand from. The events that follow differ slightly in both the book and the film:

In the novel: when prompted by Hermione, Umbridge claimed that the locket is a family heirloom, using it to bolster her own pure-blood credentials. Harry is outraged to hear this, given that he knew the truth about the locket's origin, and that she had hypocritically punished him for 'lying' two years earlier. Hidden slightly beneath the invisibility cloak, Harry stunned Umbridge who remained none the wiser, then Yaxley. Hermione subsequently duplicated the horcrux locket and then stole the real one.

In the film: Harry under the disguise of Albert Runcorn entered the courtroom with Ron, who was impersonating Mrs. Cattermole's husband Reginald. Pretending to have brought him along to the hearing, Harry spotted the locket on Umbridge's person. He glared at her as she started the kangaroo court, his eyes fixed on the locket. When Umbridge called Mrs. Cattermole a liar, Harry drew his wand, an act which caught Umbridge's attention. Harry openly called Umbridge the liar, much to her anger, before repeating her infamous phrase "one mustn't tell lies!" He then stunned Umbridge, while Ron took care of Yaxley allowing Hermione to steal the locket.

In both cases, Dolores's cat Patronus disappeared and a short battle with the Dementors followed. Harry, Ron and Hermione subsequently escaped with the Horcrux, rescuing Mrs Cattermole and several other innocent Muggle-Borns from Umbridge along the way. Umbridge herself presumably woke up shortly afterwards, none the wiser as to the fate of her precious locket. This was her final appearance in both the film and the book.

Aftermath

What happened to Umbridge following the raid on the Ministry is not clear. It is never said whether she discovered that her locket had been stolen, and that the one Hermione left was a fake. In either case, since Umbridge (and the other Death Eaters) did not know that the locket was one of Voldemorts horcruxes, she apparently suffered no repercussions for the incident.

Dolores Umbridge apparently retained her position and continued to play an active role in establishing the new regime, discriminating against Muggle-borns. It is not known if she participated in the Battle of Hogwarts, but given her poor track record at the school, this seems very unlikely. What is known, is that after Harry Potter triumphed over Voldemort at the end of the battle, thus liberating Britain, Umbridge's vile actions finally caught up with her.

Imprisonment

When Lord Voldemort met his end in May 1998, many of the spells he and his supporters had inflicted upon the magical community were undone. This included numerous imperius curses. Whilst it is left ambiguous as to whether he survived or not, Pius Thicknesse was replaced as the Minister for Magic by Kingsley Shacklebolt. A former auror, Order of the Phoenix member and staunch ally of Dumbledore, Kingsley's first act as Minister was to initiate a thorough purge of the Ministry. Many of the pro-pureblood laws and motives were removed, whilst any remaining Death Eaters and the witches/wizards who had willingly aided them were rounded up and brought to account.

The Muggle-Born Registration Committee was immediately shut down. Its records were undoubtedly destroyed and any of its surviving victims were released from Azkaban at once. As the former head of the department and a known advocate of the Death Eaters regime, Dolores Umbridge experienced a role reversal, when she found herself arrested and charged with crimes against humanity during the Second Wizarding War.

Umbridge was eventually tried before the Wizengamot. The evidence against her was overwhelming. To add to her villainy, not all of the Muggle-born's that Umbridge had unjustly sentenced to Azkaban survived their ordeal. Although not confirmed, it is also possible that Umbridge's actions between 1995 - 1996 were also brought to light. This included the Dementor attack on Harry Potter and Dudley Dursley, the use of the blood quill, and her other reprehensible activities during her tenure as the High Inquisitor at Hogwarts. Harry himself may have well provided testimony against Umbridge during her trial.

Whatever the case, the members of the Wizengamot quickly found their former associate guilty of all charges. Fittingly, Umbridge was given a life sentence in the very same place she had condemned so many innocent people too: Azkaban. Branded as a pathological liar and disgraced by the wizarding community, Dolores Jane Umbridge remained locked up in prison for the rest of her life.

Alternate timeline

In 2020, Scorpius Malfoy and Albus Potter would unintentionally alter the timeline, affecting history so that Voldemort won the Second Wizarding War. In this alternate reality, Umbridge was reinstated as the Headmistress of Hogwarts, was a devout follower of Voldemort and was glad that Harry Potter was dead, resulting in Albus being unborn.

When she meets Scorpius, Umbridge gleefully informs him about Voldemort's victory and Potter's defeat, leading Scorpius to realize what happened due their time travel. She then celebrates Voldemort Day with Scorpius before he joins Severus Snape, Ron Weasley and Hermione Granger in their attempt to restore the original timeline. While Ron and Hermione sacrifice themselves to give Severus and Scorpius time, Umbridge appears and tries to stop Snape, having suspected of his true allegiances all this time. However, before allowing himself to be kissed by the Dementors so Scorpius can escape and fix the timeline, Snape sends Umbridge flying backwards with a Banishing Charm.

Scorpius ultimately managed to fix his mistake and restore the original timeline. As a result of this, Umbridge's original fate was restored. Delphini's subsequent defeat ensured that the timeline remained that way and that Dolores Umbridge would never experience freedom again.

Quirinus Quirrell

Professor Quirinus Quirrell (b. 26 September 1970 or earlier d. 4 June 1992), is the main antagonist of Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone and its 2001 film adaptation of the same name and a posthumous antagonist in later installments.

He was a half-blood wizard and the Muggle Studies professor at Hogwarts. He became the Defense Against the Dark Arts teacher during Harry Potter's first year at Hogwarts in 1991. He was the host of Lord Voldemort's non-corporeal form, scheming to steal the Philosopher's Stone and use it give Voldemort a new physical body while using Severus Snape as a scapegoat to keep any suspicions away from himself.

He was portrayed by Ian Hart, who also provided Voldemort's voice in the same film, as well as Franklin Hall in Marvel's Agents of S.H.I.E.L.D. and Ryan McGregor in the BBC adaptation of Noughts & Crosses .

Birth

Quirinus Quirrell was born on September 26, 1970, or earlier, somewhere in the British Isles, to one Muggle (non-magical) parent and a witch or wizard, and was considered very gifted and delicate as a child. When he started at Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry, he was sorted into Ravenclaw due to his brilliant mind, but was teased for his timidity and nerves during his school life. Feeling inadequate and wishing to prove himself, he developed an (initially theoretical) interest in the Dark Arts, hoping to gain undesirable power that would help him pick himself up. These feelings of worthlessness that this bullying fostered embittered the boy, forging a latent desire to make the world sit up and notice him.

Following his graduation from Hogwarts, Quirrell most likely obtained a high-graded O.W.L. and N.E.W.T. in Muggle Studies and Defense Against the Dark Arts, since not only did he go on to teach both but was also noted to have had a gift for the theory of Defensive Magic. Quirrell was excellent at magical theory, but when it came to practice he was an average wizard. His gift was his brilliant mind rather than his strength.

Finding Voldemort

After teaching Muggle Studies at Hogwarts for some time, he took a year-long travel around the world in 1990 to get subject for his lessons in the Dark Arts, claiming it was a sabbatical he was taking in order to "gain first-hand experience". In reality, Quirrell's reason for this world tour was to find whatever remained of one of the most powerful (and immortal) psychopathic dark wizards of the century, Lord Voldemort, who met his defeat nine years back at the hands of Harry Potter (who was then a year old at the time), partly out of curiosity and the unacknowledged desire for importance from his childhood. At the very least, Quirrell fantasized that he could be the man who tracked Voldemort down, proved successful when he found the disembodied dark wizard in a forest in Albania but was no match for him (even in such a weakened state). When Voldemort realized that Quirrell had a position at Hogwarts, he used his charisma to manipulate the young teacher into joining his cause.

From then on, the shy, young Quirrell became much more confident and ruthless, but kept acting like his old self as a facade. He kept up the pretense of stuttering and twitching his body, but this was all a facade. Under the apparent shyness and nervousness of the young professor was in fact a ruthless monster, circling the young Harry like a shark about to strike. The real Quirrell became cold, ambitious, cruel and arrogant, and had mastered high levels of dark magic from Voldemort - such as flight, Occlumency, Legilimency, and conjuration - yet he kept these levels of magic hidden from the body of Hogwarts. Quirrell generally got along well with most of Hogwarts' faculty and they considered him to be a very clever and talented wizard for his world travels and experiences with the dark arts. After his travels, Quirrell started exaggerating his old personality as a facade, faking a prominent stutter when speaking and excessive paranoia and timid behavior. This caused Albus Dumbledore's suspicions.

Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone

Quirrell spends most of 1991 trying to steal Nicolas Flamel's Sorcerer's Stone for Voldemort. Flamel and Dumbledore felt that the stone was too dangerous even at Gringotts Wizarding Bank, especially with the bodiless Voldemort lurking around. The two agreed to change the stone's location to Hogwarts, closer to Flamel's old friend Dumbledore, the only person Voldemort ever feared.

During the last weeks of summer, Quirrell goes to Diagon Alley, preparing to steal the Sorcerer's Stone for Voldemort. When Harry Potter and Rubeus Hagrid are about to visit Diagon Alley to buy Harry's equipment for Hogwarts they enter the Leaky Cauldron. In the Leaky Cauldron, Harry is recognized by many witches and wizards, who are delighted to see the Boy Who Lived and want to shake his hand. There, Hagrid introduces Harry to Quirrell and the two shake hands. Quirrell pretends that he is going to buy a new book on vampires at Diagon Alley. After a short conversation, in which Harry notices Quirrell's distinctive stutter, Quirrell leaves them and Harry and Hagrid enter Diagon Alley. In the movie adaptation Quirrell is already wearing a turban, unlike the book, and does not shake Harry's hand.

Unbeknownst to Harry and Hagrid, Quirrell breaks into Gringotts, the Wizarding Bank, the same day and attempts to steal the Sorcerer's Stone, but the vault was emptied by Hagrid only hours before on Dumbledore's orders. This leads Voldemort to the decision that he needs to watch Quirrell more closely and he decides to possess Quirrell's body. To hide Voldemort's face, which is now growing out of the back of his head, Quirrell wears a purple turban for everyday to use; Voldemort's presence results in a foul stench to emanate from it. Quirrell claims to have received it from an African prince as compensation for disposing of a zombie. Students, including Harry, notice the smell but, as Quirrell claimed to have a backstory with a vengeful vampire from a travel in a vampire community in Albania's Black Forest, believe that the turban is simply filled with garlic. Quirrell also reportedly had nasty bit of trouble with a hag. Sometimes Quirrell tries to put up feeble resistance against Voldemort's possession, but the dark lord is far too powerful for him. Voldemort uses Legilimency on Quirrell's mind, often to punish him.

When the Sorcerer's Stone is hidden at Hogwarts many teachers are asked by Dumbledore to help protect it, including Quirrell. Quirrell, who has a hand with trolls, dispatches one especially huge and nasty specimen to guard the stone. As no teacher knows what spells protect the stone except their own, this goes unnoticed.

At Hogwarts, Quirrell teaches Defense Against the Dark Arts, while another wizard replaces him as Muggle Studies professor. During the Sorting Ceremony, Harry recognizes him, despite the huge turban. The majority of the students find Quirrell's lessons to be a joke, as he does a poor job at applying his knowledge of the subject to them, and they do not take him seriously as a teacher. Quirrell uses his nervous and timid disposition to his advantage and acts like a poor wizard with no talent, as his perceived lack of confidence had earned very little respect from the students at Hogwarts and consequently diverts suspicion away from his plans. Only Dumbledore notices Quirrell's sudden exaggeration of his old personality and Professor Severus Snape also noticed with suspicion Harry pressing his scar in slight pain while the two stared at each other near Quirrell, while his head was turned towards Snape. Dumbledore tells Snape to keep an eye on Quirrell.

Quirrell does not act until Halloween, where he unleashes a mountain troll in Hogwarts to cause a distraction. Planning to steal the Sorcerer's Stone while the rest of Hogwarts' staff is dealing with the troll, Quirrell pretends to faint and once everyone leaves the Great Hall, he sneaks to the restricted Third Floor Corridor where the Stone is being hidden. However, Quirrell is instead stopped when Professor Snape, who grew suspicious of him, arrives first to prevent anyone from trying to steal the stone. However, the Cerberus Fluffy, one of the Stone's guardians given by Hagrid, bites Snape and injures his leg, while the latter was trying to send Quirrell away. Acting like nothing happened, both teachers catch up with the rest of the staff and they arrive to see that Ron Weasley and Harry Potter defeated the troll. There, Quirrell stays behind with the unconscious troll until the beast groans, scaring Quirrell.

Not clear to anyone how Harry could have been able to defeat Voldemort and survive the killing curse, Quirrell feels that the boy is too dangerous to stay alive, especially after seeing him defeating a troll at young age, and decides he must dispose of him soon, while he is still young and knows little of magic. Quirrell makes his first attempt at Harry's life in November, during the first Quidditch match of the season between Gryffindor and Slytherin, Quirrell bewitches Harry's broom with a jinx, causing it to buckle and to try to throw Harry off to his death. Snape interfers again and begins to utter a counter-curse in order to save Harry. However, Quirrell is succeeding anyway and Harry goes close to fall. When Hermione Granger, believing that Snape is the one who is trying to kill Harry, sets fire to Snape's robes to distract him, she accidentally knocks over Quirrell in her hurry to reach Snape, and thereby disrupts Quirrell's concentration, causing him to break the eye contact necessary for performing his spell correctly. In the movie adaptation, Snape knocks Quirrell over while trying to put out the flames.

In December, during Christmas holidays, Fred and George Weasley get to trouble for bewitching snowballs that follow Quirrell around wherever he goes and hit the back of his turban. With most students away from Hogwarts on their Christmas holidays, the school is half-empty, but Quirrell keeps a low profile from Dumbledore and tries to figure out a way to deceive the ferocious Fluffy, who is impossible to tame.

In January or February 1992, on his way back from his victory during the Quiddtch match between Gryffindor and Hufflepuff, Harry finds Snape and Quirrell in an intense exchange. Snape is facing Quirrell over the latter's loyalties, however from Harry's point of view it seems as though Snape is trying to intimidate Quirrell into helping him steal the Sorcerer's Stone. Before this, Harry had no idea of what could be possibly guarded by Fluffy and this is the first time he hears about the object, much to realization. Snape asks Quirrell if he has found a way to finally steal the Stone and angrily mentions spells hard to surpass, giving Harry the impression that Snape is forcing Quirrell to help him. Sensing that someone is near, Snape stops intimidating Quirrell (who is only pretending to be scared), instead telling him that they will have a little chat soon enough when Quirrell had enough time to decide where his loyalties lie. In the movie adaption this conversation takes place earlier, still during Christmas' holidays, right after December 25, in the night, when Harry was sneaking in the library's Restricted Section. Snape and Quirrell are also alerted by Argus Filch, who tells them that he found Harry's lamp in the library. The two teachers and Filch then go to search for students sneaking around.

Harry tells Ron and Hermione about Snape and Quirrell's meeting. After finding out about Nicolas Flamel's historical and notorious identity and reading about the legendary Sorcerer's Stone, the three realize that the Sorcerer's Stone is indeed protected by other things, besides Fluffy. Convinced by Hermione, Hagrid confirms this to them, and the three believe that Snape has found a way to get past all of the other teachers' spells, except Quirrell's and of course Hagrid's protection, Fluffy. They assume that Snape is using intimidation trying to break Quirrell into telling him the way to pass his defenses, thus helping with treason and theft. The three kids believe that Snape wants the stone for himself in lust for power and immortality. Harry, Ron, and Hermione sadly agree that this matter will be solved in a week, with Snape succeeding to Quirrell's meekness. They try to be supportive and encouraging to Quirrell whenever possible by telling people off for laughing at his stutter, or smiling at him encouragingly whenever they pass him. Quirrell pays no mind to their sudden nice behavior. The three students come to think that Quirrell is tougher than it shows, seeing that Snape is as unhappy as ever, confirming to their perspective that the Stone is still in its place and Quirrell is keeping resistance against Snape's intimidation.

Trying to figure out how to get past Fluffy, Quirrell decides to trick Hagrid into revealing a way to tame the beast. Quirrell is in possession of a Dragon egg and disguises himself in a black robe with a large hood covering his face. At Hogsmeade, Quirrell lures Hagrid at Hog's Head Inn, and entices him to play a game of cards by wagering the dragon egg. The two have a few drinks, as Quirrell plans to get Hagrid drunk enough to talk without any suspicion. Quirrell convinces Hagrid that he is a criminal Dragon dealer, and as such, shares Hagrid's penchant for dangerous pets. Using alcohol's influence, Quirrell manipulates Hagrid by asking him if he is sure he can handle raising a dragon. A drunken Hagrid proudly tells him about how he managed to tame every creature and leaves slip that playing music would put Fluffy to sleep, inadvertently giving Quirrell the information he needs. Hagrid later assumes that 'the stranger' was in fact a Dragon dealer who needed to get rid of the illegal egg without selling it.

Throughout the year, Quirrell's body weakens drastically from hosting Voldemort's soul. With Voldemort sharing a body with him, Quirrell needs to drink unicorn's blood for his master to survive. Actually both of them need to unicorn's blood to stay alive, or Quirrell will die from his body hosting a parasite being, lower than a ghost (a damaged remain of soul). Quirrell goes to the Forbidden Forest during the nights, disguised in his hooded robe, and preys on unicorns, wounding them mercilessly with black magic and drinking their blood. Unicorns are fast and hard to chase and Quirrell, not feeling pity for the creatures, keeps them alive for convenience, to drink their blood multiple times, thus causing them to die slow and painful deaths by bleeding. The centaurs of the forest feel Voldemort's foul presence and prophesy that Harry Potter will soon die, as "it is written in the stars".

During March and April, Harry has completely forgotten about the Sorcerer's Stone's matter, especially during all the past weeks surrounding the troubles with Norbert (later Norberta) and the following days after the Dragon's departure, as he, along with Hermione and Neville Longbottom are suffering hatred and resentment from fellow Gryffindor students for making them lose 150 house points in a row. In the wait of Professor McGonagall to finally reveal what punishment they are supposed to receive, Harry gets finally reminded of the danger revolving the stone when, in May 24, he hears begging and cries coming from a castle's room: it is Professor Quirrell, breaking and agreeing to tell everything to his master Voldemort, who is punishing him over something, possibly resistance. Harry sees Quirrell rushing out the room, crying and adjusting his turban, hastily placed on his head. Not knowing the truth, Harry believes that Snape has finally succeeded into breaking Quirrell to reveal a way to get past the latter's protection of the Sorcerer's Stone. Concerned, Harry immediately tells about it to Hermione and Ron, but the three of them agree that this is no longer their business and that they should denounce Snape to Dumbledore. However, they realize this would only bring out more troubles, more loss of house points, and more hatred from students, as it would confirm their investigations on forbidden matters. With no solid proof of their own against a teacher's word and believing that Quirrell would never support their accusations out of fear, the three have no choice but to remain silent.

Hagrid finds out about a unicorn killer haunting the Forbidden Forest when he finds a dead one. A week later, May 25, Harry, Hermione, Neville, and Draco Malfoy are to follow him in there as their detention. Hagrid tells them that there is something that is not supposed to be in these dark woods, as not even a werewolf is fast enough to get a unicorn. One of the unicorns attacked by Quirrell is still wandering around, and Hagrid means to find it to either save it or giving it merciful death. That same night, Quirrell is also wandering around the Forbidden Forest to the students' danger. While in the forest, Quirrell is drinking the blood of the previously wounded unicorn, who finally died of its wounds. Quirrell is disturbed by Harry and Draco, with the dog Fang to protect them. Malfoy runs off screaming with Fang following him, but Harry's scar hurts so much due to being so close to Voldemort that he can barely move and is close to faint from the pain. Knowing this is a great opportunity to act, Quirrell advances on Harry to kill him, but before he can harm him he is stopped by the centaur Firenze, who brings Harry to safety, while Quirrell flies away. After saving him, Firenze tells Harry that unicorn's blood keeps the one who drinks it alive even if they are extremely close to die, also telling Harry that the person he saw was no other than Voldemort himself. Harry realizes that Voldemort is the one behind the attempted thefts of the Philosopher's Stone. The centaur Bane is furious at Firenze for interfering in Harry's destiny, since Voldemort is supposed to kill Harry, succeed in his plans, and return to full life, according to the stars.

About a week before Harry's exams, Voldemort orders Quirrell to try to get the Stone again. To be able to steal the stone in peace, Quirrell forges a letter for Dumbledore, stating that he is summoned by the Ministry of Magic in London, with a fake official sign. After Dumbledore leaves Hogwarts, Quirrell advances in June 4, using an enchanted harp to tame Fluffy, and then passing every following trial until the last. Quirrell passes all six chambers: Hagrid's Fluffy, Sprout's Devil's Snare, Flitwick's winged keys, McGonagall's Human Chess Game, and then Quirrell's own protection, an enormous violent mountain troll (bigger and meaner than the one from Halloween) that he easily defeats, ending with Snape's potion riddle for sharp minds with good deduction. The last is Dumbledore's chamber with the Mirror of Erised, a very tricking one, even for Quirrell.

Quirrell is unable to figure out how to take the stone from the Mirror of Erised, going so far as to consider smashing the mirror. The trick, set by the cunning Dumbledore has that the only way to obtain the stone is for an individual to look into the mirror and see themselves possessing the stone but not using it, and Quirrell sees himself using it to resurrect Voldemort. He has no doubt that this was set by Dumbledore and spends a lot of time pondering about the mirror. Meanwhile, Harry, Ron and Hermione, thinking that Snape is trying to steal the stone to use its powers and bring Voldemort back to health, had also decided that they would go after the stone themselves, after failing to have McGonagall to take action against the thief. After braving many tests, Harry, separated from Ron and Hermione, is forced to enter the last room alone. To his shock, he is not awaited by Snape or Voldemort, but by Quirrell.

Quirrell, now dropping the stuttering, weak facade, faces Harry. The boy is shocked to see Quirrell as he never knew him, completely different from the one he always met in school: no longer twitching, stuttering or timid, but evil, cruel, arrogant, power-hungry, impatient, easily angered, and hateful. Quirrell, who had always been object of derision, underration, and snobbery is visibly pleased to have a shocked attention from the first person finally witnessing how dangerous and confident he truly is. He admits to Harry that Snape was really convenient to have around, with the latter's dark presence diverting attention away from him. Quirrell is quick to point out that being seen as poorly skilled, particularly alongside Snape, is a very effective disguise that let him work undisturbed. Harry mentions that Snape had tried to kill Hary during his first Quidditch match, but Quirrell reveals that he was the one who enchanted Harry's broom to kill him, that Snape was actually trying to save Harry with a counter-curse, and that it was Hermione knocking Quirrell off his feet that interrupted the jinx. Quirrell confirms he was the one who set the troll loose into the dungeons at Halloween as a diversion, so he could see what was guarding the Sorcerer's Stone, but Snape was not fooled and intercepted him. He brags to be very gifted with trolls, having easily defeated the strong huge one in his protection chamber. Harry is shaking in fear after hearing Quirrell's cold laugh, instead of his fake nervous one, and tries to keep talking to Quirrell in order to buy time for Hermione to reach the owlery to send a letter to Dumbledore and get the teachers to the Stone's dungeons to stop Quirrell.

Quirrell immobilizes Harry with a non-verbal spell and then again faces the single object in the chamber, the Mirror of Erised, to resume his investigation. Still confused and trying to distract Quirrell from figuring out a way to get past the mirror, Harry wonders why Snape hates him so much and Quirrell reveals to Harry that Snape and James Potter went to Hogwarts together as students and that they always hated each other and fought a lot, which is why Snape dislikes Harry, though he never wanted him dead. Quirrell points out that after Halloween, Snape was constantly keeping an eye on him, but he, Quirrell, actually is never alone. Quirrell says that "his Master", Lord Voldemort, is with him wherever he goes and knows everything about him. He explains to Harry that ever since his failed robbery at Gringotts, Voldemort punished him and remembers with fear all the times he had to face his master's wrath. Quirrell spitefully remembers his old-self, claiming he was a foolish young man until meeting Voldemort, who showed him that there is no good or evil, only power, and those too weak to seek it.

A frustrated Quirrell is unable to decode the Mirror's secret. He sees himself handing the stone to his master Voldemort, but has no idea how to acquire it. Dumbledore later reveals to Harry that only those who would want to find the stone would be able to get it, not the ones whose desire was it to use the stone, as they would only see themselves drinking Elixir or making gold. Turning back to the Mirror, Quirrell wonders how to get the Stone. At this point Voldemort, for Harry only a mysterious disembodied voice, tells Quirrell to "use the boy".

Quirrell frees Harry and commands him to stand before the mirror and tell him what he sees. Harry, who sees himself putting the Sorcerer's Stone in his pocket, realizes that the stone now is in his pocket and desperately tries to deceive Quirrell by telling him that he sees that he has just won the House Cup. Voldemort however is not so easily fooled and demands that Quirrell let him speak to Harry face to face. Though Quirrell initially claims that Voldemort is not strong enough yet, he removes his turban and reveals Voldemort's face on the back of his head to Harry, who wants to scream but is too paralyzed with fear. Voldemort says he became like this since his first defeat and that he lived in Quirrell's body as a parasite for a year. Voldemort explains to Harry that the hooded figure he saw in the Forbidden Forest was actually Quirrell, drinking unicorn's blood on Voldemort's behalf, as Voldemort cannot do it himself. Voldemort then reveals that he knows Harry has the Sorcerer's Stone in his pocket, causing Harry to try to escape. With a snap of his fingers, Quirrell conjures a wall of fire between Harry and the door, blocking the only way out.

In the book, Voldemort tries to persuade Harry to surrender the Stone, claiming that he will spare his life if he does so; he explains that Lily died protecting Harry, and urges the boy to not let his mother's sacrifice be in vain. In the film, Voledmort instead tries to convince Harry to join him, claiming that together, they could perform incredible feats, including possibly resurrecting James and Lily. When Harry refuses, knowing that Voledmort is lying, the Dark Lord orders Quirrell to kill him. Quirrell seizes Harry strangles him, but to the surprise of the three, Quirrell's hands blister and burn the very moment he touches Harry. Horrified, Harry watches Quirrell screaming in agony as his skin burns and blisters, revealing flesh and blood. In pain and furious, Voldemort forces Quirrell to keep trying to kill Harry. Knowing better than getting close to Harry, Quirrell raises his hand to perform a wandless deadly curse. Desperate, Harry grabs Quirrell's face and arm, leaving the teacher in too much pain to utter the incantation. The body Quirrell and Voldemort are both sharing burns and blisters, due to the protective charm Harry's mother, Lily, left in his skin when she died for him. Quirrell, full of hatred and sharing his body with Voldemort, cannot stand Harry's touch and screams in extreme pain, while Voldemort keeps screaming to kill Harry and get the stone. The pain in Harry's scar is so intense thathe passes out, the last thing he hears before losing consciousness being Quirrell's screams of agony.

On her way to the owlery, Hermione had already met Dumbledore, who returned to Hogwarts on his own, and alerted him. Dumbledore, along with other unseen screaming voices heard by Harry (perhaps teachers), arrive just as Harry faints. Dumbledore wrestles Quirrell off Harry's unconscious body. Quirrell's body is so horribly burned that Voldemort dispossess it and leaves him to die. Dumbledore is unable to do anything to help Quirrell, as he dies right when Voldemort leaves his body and flees away from Dumbledore.

It is never explained if Quirrell died because of his wounds or because of Voldemort's parasitic possession that went on for too long. It is only implied that Quirrell's burns, as horrible as they were, only injured him but not to the point of death and still being treatable with potions and magic. It was confirmed that Quirrell needed Unicorn's blood to keep living and that his body could no longer host Voldemort without suffering damage and impairment; Voldemort himself also admits later that Quirrell died when his body was free again, further supporting the fact that Quirrell was only still alive during his last months because of Voldemort's presence. Also in the books, Harry is aware that he has never killed anyone.

In the movie, Quirrell's death is different. It is made less graphic for the audience and movie's rating, his body crumbling instead of burning and blistering, thus there is no flesh and blood showing. In the books, as soon as Harry passes out and is not able to defend himself, Quirrell resumes his attempt to kill Harry, despite the wounds that apparently were not fatal, and is only stopped by Dumbledore, who wrestles Quirrell off Harry's body and only when Voldemort leaves the body of his fallen servant and flees from Dumbledore does suddenly die. In the movie adaptation it is instead Harry who kills Quirrell, by pressing both hands on the professor's face, causing him to crumble to dust in a few seconds; when Voldemort leaves the body of his fallen servant, Quirrell is already dead and destroyed. As Voldemort's spirit flees, it passes through Harry, which knocks him out.

After Harry reawakens in the Hospital Wing of Hogwarts, Dumbledore explains to him that Quirrell was unable to touch him because when Harry's mother died for him, she created a powerful protection by her sacrifice. As Harry was protected by pure love, Quirrell, who was ambitious, evil and cruel was unable to touch him without suffering great pain. However, despite being effectively turned into a living Horcrux for the last year of his life, Quirrell did not ultimately lose his soul, having even tried to put up feeble resistance on occasion (in spite of the fact that Voldemort was far too strong for him). At the end, Quirrell still died with his soul intact.

In any case, Quirrell was a horcrux all along, and then crumbled from exisitence once Harry showed his power of love.

Legacy

Quirrell's position as Defense Against the Dark Arts' teacher is taken by Gilderoy Lockhart the following year, in Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets .

Although he saw Quirrell as little more than a disposable lackey, Voldemort acknowledges Quirrell's service in Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire . At Little Hangleton's graveyard, the resurrected Voldemort summons many wizards and witches who used to be Death Eaters before his first defeat. Voldemort lets them know his anger on their false loyalties and exclusive self-interests, especially Lucius Malfoy. While Voldemort explains the Death Eaters what happened to him during the last 13 years, while he was disembodied, he describes his stay on the back of Quirrell's head and explains that Quirrell died when he left his body. Quirrell was one of those servants who remained loyal, however Quirrell had his own desire and ambition for greatness, unlike more fanatical servants like Bellatrix Lestrange, Barty Crouch Jr., Rodolphus Lestrange, Rabastan Lestrange, and Antonin Dolohov, who put Voldemort's interest before everything else, even at their own damage.

In Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix, Harry, Ron, and Hermione discuss who will be the new Defense Against the Dark Arts teacher. Fred and George run down the list on teachers known by Harry and his friends: Quirrell who died, Lockhart that lost his memory, Lupin who resigned because he was going to be fired anyway, and Alastor Moody who was kept imprisoned and cursed for nine months. The twins make no mention of their two previous teachers before Quirrell.

In the same novel, in late 1995, the then Defence Against the Dark Arts professor, Dolores Umbridge mentions Quirrell when she criticizes the past DADA professors for not teaching them things that would pass a Ministry inspection. Umbridge however, considers that Quirrell was a possible exception due to teaching "age-appropriate subjects". But this was also when Quirrell pretended to be an extremely mediocre wizard when he had Voldemort's knowledge. Harry retorted to Umbridge in class that Voldemort was on the back of Quirrell's head, earning him another week's detention.

Always in Order of the Phoenix, Quirrell is often mentioned when Harry and his friends speculate about Voldemort possessing bodies. Remembering Quirrell's turban, Harry wonders how the professor felt and lived with Voldemort being constantly inside him and his mind, sharing everything and thoughts together. Imagining this, Harry feels dirty and contaminated. Thinking only about Quirrell and his own dreams about Voldemort, Harry completely forgets that Ginny Weasley was also possessed by Voldemort's piece of soul in her first year at Hogwarts and Ginny reminds him later about it during Christmas.

In Harry Potter and the Half-Blood Prince, Bellatrix confronts Snape on his role during Voldemort's plot to steal the Philosopher's Stone. She knows that Snape interfered with Quirrell's work multiple times and thus she (correctly) believes Snape to be traitorous and that Voldemort is wrong in trusting him. Snape lies to Bellatrix and Narcissa, explaining that he was simply playing his role and that he and Quirrell were just rivals for Voldemort's favor. Snape states that Voldemort had chosen the "mediocre" and "inept" Quirrell over him and that it did no good to either Voldemort and Quirrell at the end.

In the same novel, Horace Slughorn does not want to return to Hogwarts due to the harsh treatment of teachers from the previous years. To convince Slughorn that Hogwarts is safe from Death Eaters, Harry tells him that Professor Quirrell is the only teacher who has died at Hogwarts and that the reason he died was because he was following Voldemort's orders. Quirrell being the only teacher who died in the school is not strictly true, as Professor Binns clearly died at the school, though as it was of natural causes it would not concern Slughorn either way. Quirrell's death as a Hogwarts' teacher is the only one Harry knows of that could be attributed to Voldemort and his organization.

When it was finished they were shocked and horrified!

Twilight Sparkle: They were monsters! But Umbridge was the worst!

Sunset Shimmer: She is a terror!

Me: Yep and she can kiss my big fucking ass. Because she is in the Warp.

Laney: Good riddance to bad rubbish.

Ets: Yeah I hate teachers like that. Anyone that is like that is a heartless monster.

Nico: She doesn't deserve anything, let alone be a teacher.

Lola: Yeah!

Me: Well lets go home.

We went back home.

---

We were watching TV and playing card games.

Jungle Fury Camille: Let's patrol around the city. With any luck, we might be able to take Hardly down before he can put his plan into motion.

Me: Good idea Camille.

Kitty, Moonstone, P'andor, Man Ray, Firefly, Tar Pit, Kyd Wykkyd and Avalanche then appeared.

Kitty: You guys don't mind if me, Moonstone, P'andor, Man Ray, Firefly, Tar Pit, Kyd, and Avalanche come with you guys, do you?

Me: You all sure can. When we find Hardly we will make sure he pays for his crimes.

We went out on patrol and searched for Hardly.

But little did we know that someone was watching us and through a helmet he had eyes glowing red with fury.

We were looking high and low for Hardly and we were searching. So far the search turned up nothing.

Killer Frost: Can we get some lunch? All this searching is making me hungry.

Me: Good idea. Lets head to Nergal's Pizza for lunch.

Nico: Oh boy! I'm starving.

Eli: Me too!

Ets: I could use a pretzel and whipped cream pizza.

Shaggy: Like I love how you think Ets.

Scooby Doo: (Slurp) Me roo.

Man Ray: Can't take Hardly down on an empty stomach.

Me: Yeah.

We went to Nergal's Pizza.

Marinette: Are you hungry Chloe?

But she didn't answer.

Marinette: Chloe?

She turned and saw Chloe gone! Her dotted line was there where she was standing!

Marinette: Chloe! Where is she!?

Nico: Weird.

Zuko: (sees Chloe) There she is! (notices someone else) And she's fighting off a bounty hunter?

Me: We better go help her out!

But the Bounty Hunter grabbed her and ran off with her before we could go at him!

Me: WHOA! Whoever that guy is he is lethal. Scratch that lunch plan guys. We get to head back to the estate and see where he has taken her.

I went in and told everyone.

Me: Guys we have an emergency!

Kyd: (to Nergal) Can we have those pizzas to go?

Nergal: Sure.

He handed them a bunch of pizzas.

Nergal: Better go see where that guy took Chloe. Hurry guys.

Me: Thanks Nergal.

I took the pizzas and gave him $5,000.00.

Me: Keep the change.

Nergal: Thanks J.D.

We left and went back to the estate.

At the World Tree Estate we were thinking hard.

Tar Pit: Who would want to kidnap Chloe?

Nico: No clue. (chuckles) But you didn't really think I wouldn't be prepared for something like this, do you?

Me: What do you mean Nico?

Lisa Loud: I believe I can figure that out. Thanks to the tracking chips I implanted in all of us.

Me: Huh? Tracking chips?

Lincoln: You put tracking chips in all of us.

BEEP BEEP BEEP BEEP.

I saw a blinking blue light on my neck.

Lisa Loud: (Wickedly) NOOOOO? (Looks left and right nervously)

I pulled out a mirror and saw a blinking blue light from a chip that is underneath my skin in my neck.

Me: Well what do you know? There's a tracer chip under my skin in my neck. Crafty.

Lincoln: Lisa!

Lori: What have we told you about doing that!?

Me: Lori we'll worry about that later. Right now we have to find Chloe. And if my suspicions are right, that bounty hunter, whoever he is took her to Hardly's lair.

Power Girl: Actually, these tracking chips are good. Now, whenever one of us gets kidnapped, the rest can track said person down.

Nico: Exactly. Now, to wait for the chip to broadcast the bounty hunter's identity.

Me: Like how we used a tracer chip to find Princess Zange's Magisword and Phil the Pilferer. Sneaky.

Clover the Clever: Like following a trail of bread crumbs.

Laney: Smart thinking.

Lynn Sr.: But we're still gonna have a long talk about this when we are done Lisa.

Lisa Loud: Understood father.

Meanwhile at the abandoned factory, the Bounty Hunter had Chloe and Pollin tied up.

Chloe: So… what's so special about me? Aside from my charming personality, back in the city, you could've taken Blossom and her sisters. But you got me and Pollen. Why? (Gets no answer)

Pollin: Hey. If you're gonna kill us, you could at least tell me and my queen what's going on.

William Odagled: You two should've figured it out by now.

William Odagled pulled off his helmet, and much to Chloe and Pollen's surprise, they saw Billy's face.

Dark Billy: After all, I am supposed to be the stupid one.

Chloe and Pollin gasped!

Chloe: Billy!? Is that you?

Willliam Odagled: Close. But I'm actually his dark side William Odagled.

Chloe: William Odagled? Oh I get it! William is the correct name for Billy and Odagled is Delgado spelled backwards.

Pollin: That's clever.

William Odagled: It's an alias I invented.

Torch Man: If we're going into Hardly's lair, we need to upgrade our gear. (to Lisa) You can do that, right?

Lisa Loud: I sure can.

Me: We'll need all the heavy firepower we can get.

Lisa Loud: Also the chips have a hidden microphone for us to hear their captors.

Me: Awesome function.

I switched on Chloe's chip and heard her.

Chloe: (On the computer) Why are you doing this to me?

Pollin: Yeah why?

William Odagled: Because I don't want to disappoint my master.

Nico: Who is that talking?

Grim: (Jamaican Accent) He sounds just like Billy.

Mandy: How can that be? He's all the way over at Principal Lewis's house.

Eli: This is a Dark Version of Billy. The Force is telling me that Hardly has a Dark Billy with him.

Me: Lets listen in.

We were listening.

Chloe: Who's your master? (gets no answer and growls) I THINK ME AND POLLEN DESERVE TO KNOW WHAT THE HELL IS GOING ON HERE!

William Odagled: You deserve nothing.

Pollin: SAYS THE KID WHO GOT HIMSELF KICKED OUT OF SCHOOL FOR BEING A DESTRUCTIVE AND BRAINLESS IDIOT! When me and Chloe led a team to lure you into that planet, we meant to kill you. That was the plan.

William Odagled: You should've just stuck with the plan and done me a favor.

Chloe: We may not have trusted you in the Estate with the team, but I was always, ALWAYS, going to come back for you!

William Odagled: Guess one of us lost track of time.

Pollin: Then how long-

William Odagled: BY THE TIME HE FOUND ME, I had nearly lost my mind. I was helpless. I was strangling rats to survive.

Chloe: When who found you?

William Odagled: Dick Hardly. He used a Dark Orb to teleport me here from that planet. And then, he got me out of my weak helf. The two weeks that followed, he trained me to be the perfect bounty hunter you see today.

Pollin: And when exactly did Hardly give you the lobotomy?

William Odagled: (chuckles darkly) You think I tried to kill you and the others because Hardly made me? He barely had to ask.

Me: So that's how Hardly found him and he made a dark Billy to do his bidding!

Nico: Yeah!

Chloe: J.D. was right! Hardly did find you and turn you into a monster!

William Odagled: So they say.

Chloe: But why!?

William Odagled: None of your business.

Me: This guy is sadistic.

Firefly: Lisa, first, see if you can upgrade my suit. If we're gonna fight Hardly, I wanna make him cry.

Lisa Loud: Gladly.

Lisa was upgrading his suit with heat lasers, fire bomb blasters, flamethrower lasers and more.

Me: Lets keep listening.

We did so.

P'andor called Professor Utonium.

P'andor: (calls Professor Utonium) (Russian Accent) Professor, we've got a situation. Hardly's back. And he's not alone.

Professor Utonium: Thanks P'andor! I'm on my way.

He hung up and then he went to his war closet and put on a camouflage outfit and he had black war paint put on his cheeks and he put on a bandana and then he loaded up with machine guns, a liquid electron laser gun loaded with Antidote X and he had a grenade launcher, missile launchers, mini-gun, knives, grenades, shuriken and bombs. He was ready to go to war.

Professor Utonium: Get ready Hardly, you were never my friend then and you are never gonna be my friend now. You will pay for your crimes.

He teleported to the estate.

Maria: (sees Professor Utonium's battle attire) Nice outfit! I'm starting to wonder why you never helped the girls in battle before.

Professor Utonium: Well I tried that once but it was too much for me to handle.

Adult Blossom: Yeah he wanted to try and help out but it was too much.

Nico: Well that's all right.

Me: Love the outfit though Professor.

Vypra and ALL the Masters of Evil appeared.

Vypra: We're ready to help you all out guys.

Shocker: Lisa, can you upgrade my gauntlets first?

Lisa Loud: Now now everyone. Remember I can be in many places at once now. SHADOW CLONE JUTSU!

Lisa made many clones and got to work on ALL of our upgrades.

Shocker: That's genius.

Naruto: It's a very handy jutsu to have Herman.

Shocker: No kidding.

Me: Great. Lets head on out to his lair.

We were off to his lair.

* * *

Eddy: I bought some candy before we got here. As soon as I offer them the candy, they'll join us in seconds.

Me: Clever thinking.

We were hiding in the bushes and coming up with a plan of attack. I looked through a pair of Binoculars and they saw inside the factory and what I saw was horrifying! I saw many clones of the Powerpuff Girls and they all were bad rejects and had UGLY features! One had chipmunk teeth and The whites of her eyes are a sickly yellow and without irises, the pupil highlights red. Her hairline is ragged, and she sports long buck teeth. Another mutant reject of the originals that Dick created as he focused more on money than quality. I saw an array of monstrosities that are all but unrecognizable as the Powerpuff Girls due to Dick sacrificing the quality of them for greed.

Me: HOLY FUCKINGUACAMOLE. Look at those clones. I can't believe he is that willing to sacrifice their normal looks all for his own greed.

Nico was looking through his bbinoculars.

Nico: That is sick.

Lola: No kidding.

Lana: Cool.

Varie: All just for money? This guy is fucked up to the core.

Vince: No kidding.

Eli: He makes me sick looking at him.

Me: No kidding. First we got to deal with that evil version of Billy. And I know just how to do it.

I looked to the sky on the path that leads to the factory and smiled.

Chloe: Look, if you're gonna kill me and Pollen, just do it already.

William Odagled: I'm not going to kill you two. Not yet, anyway. First, I'm taking you two on a visit to France. I'll pay for your parents a visit and kill them. And the best part about my Dark Orb? I can kill your parents more then once. I can bring them back and kill them again. And again. And again. (chuckles) Well, you get the idea.

Dick Hardly then walked into the room.

Dick Hardly: How about you put those plans on hold for now. We have to prepare for our guest' arrival.

William Odagled: Right. Just give me a few minutes.

Dick Hardly left the room.

William Odagled: (to Chloe) Before, I didn't realize how nice vengeance can be. Now, I know.

Chloe: You will never get away with this!

William Odagled: Oh I will and you will see your family and friends die!

Chloe: Can you at least loosen these cuffs? (Once again gets no answer) Out of curiosity, what do you think your new boss is gonna do to you once you're done killing the others? I doubt he'll give you a statue in your honor.

Pollen: My queen's right. Once Hardly gets what he wants, he's gonna toss you aside.

William Odagled: Like you two tossed me aside?

Chloe: You and I both made decision that led to this moment. What matters, Billy, is your next move. And I'm willing to bet that underneath that armor is the old you somewhere.

William Odagled: Oh, you're wrong. Dead wrong. (puts on helmet)

He put on his helmet and went outside.

Once he was outside he saw us coming.

William Odagled: Right on cue.

But what he didn't know however was that it wasn't us that was coming at him. It was all an illusion set up by us to trap him.

I snuck up behind him and tapped him on the shoulder and me and Nico punched him in the face and Bobby locked him in a pitch black crystal and we beamed it to the Pluto Prison.

Me: That's that. Now for Hardly.

Professor Hardly was wondering where his Billy Clone was at.

Professor Hardly: William should've been back by now.

But then…

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion blasted a hole through the roof and ceiling and a phoenix cry was heard and then a rainbow helix beam of 9 colors swirled around and it fired a rainbow blast and it hit Professor Hardly and exploded and sent him crashing into a machine and it destroyed all the Chemical X he has and ignited it into intense green fire!

Hardly: NO! MY SOURCE OF WEALTH!

We landed and we were facing PROFESSOR DICK HARDLY!

---

Professor Richard "Dick" Hardly is a one-shot character in The Powerpuff Girls who serves as the main antagonist in the episode "Knock It Off".

He was voiced by Jeff Bennett, who also played H.A.R.D.A.C. in Batman: The Animated Series, Major Man, as well as Ace, Big Billy, and Grubber from the Gangreen Gang in The Powerpuff Girls .

Backstory

Dick Hardly was an old college roommate of Professor Utonium. Though Utonium initially considered him a friend, Dick always took advantage of him and unlike the former, he only sought financial profit in science. Dick's bad deeds towards Utonium was to cheat him and always steal his projects, making him do his works for him while Dick had time to go with friends and women and never listening to Utonium when he wanted Dick to be more interested in the science. However, whether or not Utonium always saw him as otherwise is beyond anybody's guess.

Knock It Off

One day, Professor received a call from Dick, who was planning to pay a visit to the Utonium residence (likely, to steal yet another one of his old friend's projects). Once he came, Utonium welcomed Dick and gave him a tour to the interior of the house. However, when Dick saw Blossom, Bubbles, and Buttercup and their unbelievable powers, he believed that the girls were worth a great deal of money. When Dick ignored Utonium's warnings many times who tried to say something about his ideas with his daughters, Utonium demanded Hardly to leave when he realized how greedy he was since they were young, and still is. Utonium then demands Dick to keep away from him and the girls for good, stating that his visit is officially over. However, Dick was still interested to find out more about the Powerpuff Girls. The next day, he offered the girls a ride home from school, and slightly asks for the ingredients. Unaware of what he was planning, the girls then takes a flask of Chemical X from Utonium's laboratory and gave it to Dick.

He proceeded to go to an abandoned factory and make his clones of the girls, which he named "The Powerpuff Girls with Chemical Xtreme", starting a business and selling them to all the people in their respective countries around the world and obtaining fame and money in the process. He gradually gets more and more avaricious as a result and treated the clones as nothing more than selling products, using minimum materials and Chemical X so that they would fall apart and he could continue selling more copies. At one point, his employees mistakenly created a seemingly perfect version of Buttercup, and he had her melted down for her Chemical X, which resulted in the clone being killed in the process. With the pass of the time, Dick's factory also started to grow to the point of being turned into a dark and twisted place.

Eventually, although Dick gained more wealth and fame as he swore, the original girls realized that Dick cheated them when they saw one of the commercials of "The Powerpuff Girls with Chemical Xtreme" on TV, realizing that he was willing to sell his false Powerpuff Girls to anyone willing to pay him for them, even criminals. The three girls went to his factory, where they confronted him for lying to them and stealing the Chemical X, but despite being exposed to his lies, Dick (almost psychotically) refuses to back down, stating that he was planning to steal more of the chemical. The girls ordered him to return the Chemical X they gave to him, but Dick greedily refuses and instead ingested the vial containing the chemical, leaving the girls confused and horrified. At first, Dick seems fine, but then the Chemical starts to take effect on his body, first causing a spasm attack in which he foams from the mouth. He gets up all well and good, but then suddenly transforms into a giant yellowish-green mutant with tentacles. Dick then used his new powers to attack the girls, who then fight back. Unfortunately, Dick has proven to be too strong for the girls and locks them in a dome, hoping to drain them of their Chemical X for his purposes. In the meantime, Utonium, having caught wind of Dick's plans, heads over to the factory.

Utonium finally enters the factory and finds out what happened after he saw all of the deformed clones, the dying girls, and the monstrous Dick. Declaring this to be the last straw, Utonium angrily demands Dick to stop draining the Chemical X from the girls, but Dick refuses by threatening to kill Utonium if he tries to stop him. Utonium offers to take the girls' place so that he can make more of the Chemical X for Dick as his slave, but the latter still refuses and instead orders the deformed clones to capture Utonium. As Utonium struggles to get free, he tearfully tells the girls that he loves them. Blossom, Bubbles, and Buttercup reply, "We love you, too!" to Utonium just as they finally succumb to their deaths.

These tragic words touch the deformed clones, finally seeing how much the Professor loves the three girls while Dick had only used them for his greed. Having had enough of this, the deformed clones freed Utonium and rebelled against Dick, confronting him on the fact that he never gave them love. Seeing the clones confront him, Dick angrily demanded them to obey him as he was their master, but one of the clones stated he is only a master of evil. Determined to put him down for good, the angry clones surround the screaming Dick and restrain him to the ground. Afterward, they sacrifice themselves to destroy Dick with their powers, causing a fire that engulfs the entire factory. The remaining clones allowed Utonium to escape with his daughters before they perished. As the factory burns, Utonium cries over the loss of his daughters, but his love was enough to revive them back to life, much to his delight. When Bubbles asks what happened to Dick and the clones, Utonium replied that "Dick may have gotten the formula right, but the one ingredient that he forgot was love.", which the clones wanted all along. Utonium and the girls then head home while Dick makes one more scream of agony before he finally dies.

* * *

Me: Professor Dick Hardly. We meet at last.

Dick Hardly: Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: You have been really busy out here.

Adult Blossom: Hello Dick!

Dick Hardly: You've grown up from the last time we saw each other girls.

Adult Blossom: That was 12 years ago.

Eddy: You want some candy? (gives a clone some candy)

The clone ate the candy before smiling.

Clone: Delicious!

Eddy: There's more where that came from if you join us.

Dick Hardly: You really think that's going to work?!

Inque: If there's one thing little girls love besides dolls, it's candy.

Me: At least they love candy. You will pay for your crimes Dick! You have not only exploited the Powerpuff Girls all for your own selfish greed but you've also fucked around with mother nature and made cheap knockoffs of the Powerpuff Girls!

Dick Hardly: You don't understand! It was a goldmine!

Professor Utonium walked up to him.

Dick Hardly: Utonium you wouldn't hit a friend would you?

Professor Utonium: A friend? No. You? YES!

POW!

He punched Dick Hardly in the face and knocked out some of his teeth and sent him crashing into a barrel of acid and it got on his face and burned him all over!

Nico: That must've hurt!

Me: Powerpuffs, Hardly may have created you but he was NEVER your father! He never gave you the one thing needed to make you perfect and that is love.

Professor Utonium: That's right girls. I love my girls more than anything and I wouldn't give them up for anything. I love all of you girls as much as I love the originals.

The clone girls smiled and then they glowed and a massive energy surge was felt and all their abnormal features vanished and were replaced with perfect parts and features. They were ALL PERFECT!

Nico: Oh wow!

Me: Now they are better than ever!

Dick Hardly got up and he was growling ferociously!

Dick Hardly: YOU RUINED EVERYTHING!

Me: And now we're going to do the same thing to you!

Eli got Chloe and Pollin back.

Eli: No one kidnaps one of us!

Moonstone: Chloe, are you alright?

Chloe: I'm fine. But don't kill William Odagled! He's-

Moonstone: Billy's dark side? Trust me. He wasn't worth killing.

Me: We locked him in a black crystal and beamed him to the Pluto Prison.

Chloe: Good.

Me: Come on guys. Lets tear this fucker apart!

Nico: YEAH!

Xaldin, Vexen, Larxene, Saïx, Captain Cold, Electro, Hydro Man, Molten Man and Ebon then appeared.

Me: Xaldin, Vexen, Larxene, Saïx, Captain Cold, Electro, Hydro Man, Molten Man and Ebon.

Xaldin: Sorry, we're late. We had to get some weapons for the upcoming battle.

Nico: It's fine. We're just about to start, actually.

Vexen: I'm afraid to ask. But… can we see how the clones looked like?

May: Can I show you a picture?

Larxene: That's fine by us.

May got out a picture of how the clones looked like and showed it to the 8 of them.

Saïx: (to Hardly disgusted) You're disgusting, do you know that?

Me: He sure is and before they were perfect because of Professor Utonium's love they were crimes against nature! Now they are all as perfect as the original Powerpuff Girls.

Laney: Yeah they are! And we have millions of awesome Powerpuff Girls.

Me: We'll form a new branch team for them when all this is over.

Saïx: Perfect!

Dick Hardly: NOT IF I KILL YOU ALL FIRST!

He then started changing and he turned into a horrifying hulking behemoth! HE WAS NOW A CHEMICAL X MUTANT!

Dick mutated into a tall, hulking monstrosity who easily overpowered the Girls in terms of raw strength. The creature was barefoot and wore only a black ragged "underwear" from the remnants of his shredded black pants. It sported defined pectoral/abdominal muscles, greenish-yellow skin, green forearms with dragon-like jagged scales on the outer sides and sharp claws on the fingers, brown armor-like "pads" on both shoulders, three parallel rectangle "plates" on his stomach of the same color of his shoulder "pads", three pairs of blue tentacle-like appendages sprouting from his chest area, bony spikes growing from his back, his teeth were big and pointy, his eyes changed to black and merged together in a pair of "sunglasses", his blonde pompadour completely frilled at the front while the ponytail grew into a long whip-like tentacle.

Me: We have big problems!

Nico: YOU ARE ONE UGLY MOTHERFUCKER!

Then a figure smashed his head in and it was TURTLEINI!

Me: Turtleini!

Turtleini: Looks like you all can use some help.

Nico: Boy do we ever!

Turtlelini: (to the Megaforce Rangers) You Rangers might want to think about visiting the Lupinrangers and those other teams. Since we won't be meeting the Dino Fury Rangers for a while, we definitely could use some more monsters. Including that Salmon gangler.

Troy Burrows: We plan too.

Me: Good idea.

Eli: Time to call in the big guns for this!

Eli held up his hand and then a roar was heard.

(GODZILLA THEME PLAYS)

Godzilla Jr. arrived! But he wasn't alone. A massive fiery explosion blasted out of the ground and it formed into a huge fireball and it exploded many times and formed into KING GHIDORAH! Then out came DESTOROYAH, RODAN, MOTHRA 2019 and SUPER MECHAGODZILLA!

Me: WHOA! Now we're talking!

Godzilla Jr.: This is gonna be good!

Eli: Watch this! RISE SHINING GUNDAM! (SNAPS FINGERS)

Eli had Shining gundam appear and he got in it and he was ready for action!

Dick Hardly: (Monster Voice) You think I wouldn't be prepared for this!?

He snapped his fingers and summoned a massive army of Power Rangers Foot Soldiers!

Putties, Super Putties, Batlings, Cyclobots, Putrids, Hidiacs & Styxoids, Rinshi, Tengu Warriors, Lava Lizards & Chillers, and Tronics were summoned and he had a massive army of them in the tens of millions!

Me: The Footsoldiers of Power Rangers!

Nico: WHOA! There's millions of them!

I snapped my fingers and we were on the planet Glaren again for the fight!

Me: Lets get them!

We powered up and went at them all with full power!

Beast Boy: (Kicks a Putty) Yeah but he has no love for anyone except himself and that is what lead to his downfall the first time.

Rainbow Dash: (Runs fast and destroys numerous Putties) Yeah he is a terrible father!

Scootaloo: (Punches a bunch of Putties all over) YEAH! He gives all loving parents everywhere a bad name!

The Wonderbolts and Shadowbolts all blasted and smashed a bunch of Putties all over as they agreed with them.

The Storm Hawks blasted and smashed a bunch of Putties all over the place.

Lana blasted a bunch of Batlings all over and freezes them.

Lana: And treat them with more love. That's what the Powerpuff Girls need is love.

Rarity blasted a bunch of Batlings with jewels and Sweetie Belle did the same.

Rarity: Indeed darlings. The Powerpuff Girls are people too.

Sweetie Belle: But what Hardly did was crimes against nature.

The Water Skylanders and mermaids and Neptune Crusaders blasted numerous Batlings all over.

Varie: Yeah what a monster!

SMASH! SMASH SMASH SMASH SMASH SMASH SMASH SMASH SMASH SMASH SMASH!

The Batlings that were frozen were shattered and the ones that got wet melted.

Volcana: (Blasts and incinerated many cyclobots) They sure have. And I hope Hardly gets worse than hell for his crimes.

Sunset Shimmer: I may be the element of Forgiveness but I can never forgive Hardly for his crimes. (Fires fireballs and burns many Cyclobots.

They were all blasting and burning numerous Cyclobots.

Carol blasted a bunch of Super Putties with Atomic Energy.

Carol: I know. But he was a monster.

Twilight Sparkle blasted numerous Super Putties.

Twilight Sparkle: Yeah but his weapons would not have been worth it.

Minuette: I agree.

They blasted a bunch of Super Putties all over with energy and more. Godzilla blasted a bunch of Super Putties with his Atomic breath, King Ghidorah fired his gravity beams and blew them apart, Rodan fired his fire ray, Mothra 2019 fired rainbow energy from her antennae, Super MechaGodzilla fired beams of rainbow energy and missiles, Destoroyah fired blasts of micro-oxygen energy and Space Godzilla fired Corona Beam blasts.

They blasted them all over with lightning and darkness.

Electro: (to Lincoln) Next time any of the Underground Girls are in the usual battles, they should use their monster forms. (Blasts lots of Hidiacs and Styxoids with lightning)

Lily: (Blasts them with water) Yeah I agree. There are more enemies out there.

Pinkie Pie: (Blasts them with her confetti cannon and bombs) Definitely! But we will be ready for them!

A massive fiery explosion went off behind them and they were ready for action! They went at the Tengus and smashed and blasted and pulverized them all over.

Starlight Glimmer: Take that!

Muscle Man: Hey Dick you know who else is a crime of nature besides you?

Dick Hardly: Uh the Paradigm brothers?

Muscle Man: Nope. MY MOM!

We laughed at Muscle Man's joke.

CLANG CLANG CLANG CLANG CLANG!

Hardly tried punching Turtlelini but he couldn't break through his shield and his hands were getting bruised all over.

Turtlelini: (laughs) Only the Rangers were able to get through my shield! Your punches are nothing compared to them!

Muscle Man: Hey, Hardly. You know who else punches better then you? My mom!

Muscle Man punched Hardly down!

Godzilla blasted Hardly with his atomic ray and it hit him and exploded all over and Destoroyah, King Ghidorah, Space Godzilla, Mothra, Erika, and Super Mechagodzilla blasted him with their Micro-Oxygen Ray, Gravity Rays, Corona Ray, Rainbow Energy antennae, Rainbow Energy rays, and Radioactive sap and he screamed in pain as he exploded all over with incredible power.

Riggan, Seeryn, Wamma, Nom, Quadore, Odu Bathax, Blugon, Drakness, and Dheena smashed, blasted and pulverized him all over the place.

Thunderblast, Plant Man, Linka and Optimus Prime used the Earth and Gold Autobot Cyber Planet Keys and they turned Thunderblast's rocket launcher into a giant cannon, turned Optimus Prime's left arm cannon into a bigger energy cannon and enhanced Plant Man's Plant Powers and Linka's Lightning Powers 100-fold.

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Bucktoothed-Blossom: You never gave us love.

Reject Buttercup: Where was our love?

Dick Hardly: Get back! I am your master!

Bucktoothed-Bubbles: Only a master of evil, Dick.

Dick: No! No!

Me: You have tormented our friend Billy and the Powerpuff Girls for far too long Dick!

Nico: Now you will pay for your crimes!

Me: You may have gotten the formula right professor Dickfucker but there is one ingredient that you forgot and will never understand!

Dick Hardly: And what's that?!

Me: LOVE! In fact that's one of 12 things that you will never give them or understand! Like Honesty, Generosity, Loyalty, Kindness, Laughter, Forgiveness, Hope, Empathy, Humility, Justice, Love, and Valor and the most amazing and most important and most powerful magic of them all!

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:35)

I was enveloped in a vortex of light and energy as the magic of Equestria poured into me and when the vortex faded I had wings made of pure red, orange and yellow light and I had a pure white and rainbow version of my clothes on and I had hair that was rainbow color and standing straight up and my power was 100,000,000,000 times more powerful than my Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix-Harmony 500,000,000 form! I was now DAYDREAM J.D. KNUDSON!

Me: The Magic of Friendship!

Nico: WHOA! J.D. looks incredible!

Princess Celestia: He is truly magnificent!

Princess Luna: He just continues to amaze us every time.

Me: Those are all things a monster like you can never understand Dick. Justice will be brought to you and the love we have shown all of your creations will be unleashed upon you 100,000,000-fold!

I fired a massive blast of rainbow magic and it hit Professor Dick and he screamed in excruciating pain as if it was killing him from the inside out!

He sent his tentacles from his chest out to me and I blew them apart and fired another rainbow blast and smashed him down.

Me: People like you will never be welcome on Earth or in the next life at all. FRIENDSHIP BLAST OF JUSTICE!

I fired a massive blast of rainbow energy.

Professor Utonium, The Powerpuff Girls (All of Them) and Rarity: LOVE POWERPUFF ULTRABLAST!

They fired a massive pink energy and jewel blast and it formed into a crystal heart.

Lincoln: R. Mika, Mai, Ibuki, Toph, Jessica, Nanami, Yuna, Hilda, Frosta, Perfuma, Entrapta, Gluko, Batch, Ruby, Yang, Weiss, Blake, Emerald, Dew and Shantae: FINAL SMASH: ELEMENTAL SOCCER BALL SMASH!

They fired elemental energies which turned into soccer balls and they kicked them.

The blasts all hit Dick and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Professor Dick was defeated and down and Professor Utonium set the Liquid Electron Gun to Negative and fired a beam of Antidote X and destroyed Professor Dick's monster form and the Chemical X inside him and the dark orb popped out and I crushed it.

Me: It's over Dick. You've lost.

Professor Utonium picked him up.

Hardly: What are you waiting for? Do it!

Professor Utonium raised his fist… and punched the ground next to Hardly.

Professor Utonium: That would be taking the easy way out, Hardly. You don't deserve it.

Me: But you do deserve a nice long stay in one of our prisons.

Hardly: (Sarcastically) Oh boy.

We sent him to a very special cell in Solitary Confinement the Neptune Prison and has a terrible curse on him: ETERNAL LIFE WITHOUT ETERNAL YOUTH! He looked like an old man in his 200s and he will stay that way till the day after the end of time.

I was back to normal and we celebrated.

Captain Cold: You know, I expected Hardly to go to the Warp but him going to prison works too.

Electro: And we manage to make his clones normal.

Rarity: We sure did.

Hydro Man: (to Professor Utonium) You did the right thing sparing Hardly's life. It shows that you have more humanity then him.

Ebon: What do you guys say we have that pizza that you got from Nergal?

Me: Good idea. Lets head home. And Muscle Man?

Muscle Man: Yes?

I shoved my butt in his face and farted in it.

FAAAAAAAAAAAAARRRRRRRRRRRRRTTTTTTTTT!

Mordecai: Uh oh.

Rigby: J.D. should not have done that.

Muscle Man: YOU'RE GONNA WISH YOU WERE NEVER BORN!

Me: Try and catch me first!

I flew off and Muscle Man chased after me!

We were laughing as he was chasing me.

Rarity: (To the viewers) Hello darlings. I hope you all loved this adventure as much as we have. It was fun!

Eli: It sure was.

Ets: You bet it was.

We went back home. The many Powerpuff Girls like I said were put on many planets that we haven't been to and were taking down villains that have Numbers, were infected by the Aparoids or have dark orbs on them and it was REALLY successful. We got many Numbers from all over and the dark orbs they destroyed were making us more powerful and the Aparoids were being destroyed too. We had the pizza and we went to get ready for bed.

THE END

---

Another awesome adventure done.

Professor Dick Hardly from the Powerpuff Girls episode Knock It Off was a monster that didn't have any humanity in him at all. The episode aired on July 12th, 2002 and it was a great episode. But Dick paid the ultimate price for his crimes and I hope he likes prison than Hell. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, vinjedi1995, ethan., Darkhai, Drako1234658 and ninjakingofhearts gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is an awesome and funny time-travelling adventure as we help Lori get back home to the present after she stumbles into Lisa's new Time Machine and accidentally takes it to the distant future and winds up in the 71st Century in the land version of the SpongeBob Episode, SB-129. We're in for an amazing journey for that one.

See you all tomorrow.

71st Century Rescue Adventure

This chapter is a Parody of the SpongeBob Episode SB-129.

---

We were watching TV and playing Card Games and we had a bunch of beer bottles with us.

Hard Man: Nico, why the Hell do you have those beer bottles?!

Nico: Well, you've gotta face facts, Hard Man. I can't keep the mascots from drinking forever. So, I'm gonna decide which one gets their drinking privileges back.

Me: Yeah we can't keep it hidden forever. But don't worry I'll be watching them around the clock because of it. My eyes are locked on to them.

My eyes turned into a padlock and it clicked on to them.

CLICK!

I was watching them like a hawk.

Akiza (to the mascots): Against my better judgement, we've decided the best way that you guys should have a drinking contest. Whoever goes the longest without puking gets their drinking privileges back.

Me: I agree.

Poliwag: That's great!

Stewie: As long as it's not me, Brian, Chris and the Fat Man doing it with Ipecac.

Me: Yeah that was crazy Stewie.

---

French Narrator: (French Accent) 30 minutes later.

---

The mascots were drunk as skunks.

Mixmaster: (to the drunk mascots) Don't you guys have something to say to the audience?

Poliwag: (Slurred Speech) Yeah. (BARNEY GUMBLE BELCH) Hey everybody.

Manaphy: (Slurred Speech) You guys are my best friends. (Barney Gumble Belch)

Horsea: (Slurred Speech) Love you guys! (Hic)

Poromon: (Slurred Speech) Yeah and when we die we'll be back in China. (Barney Gumble Belch)

Tentacool: (Slurred Speech) And it will be great! (Barney Gumble Belch)

Barney Gumble: (Laughs) That is funny! (Belch)

Homer: (Laughs) That is funny!

We laughed.

Me: That's funny how they burp like you Barney. But I think you guys have had enough. (Snaps fingers)

They were back to normal and they had spinning headaches and Varie and Lana gave them icebags.

G1 Jazz: Wasn't this a fun drinking contest?

Me: It sure was. And thank goodness I kept my eye on them.

The Mascots had a bunch of ice bags on their heads.

Horsea: It was funny. But these headaches we have are the worst.

Poromon: Yeah.

We laughed.

Blackfire: Has anyone seen Lori?

Nico: She's probably angrily beating up a poor defenseless person who was either jaywalking or littering. I'm sure she's fine.

Me: Hmm. That's weird.

Computer: Warning! Temporal Disturbance detected in basement.

Me: Uh oh!

Lisa Loud: My time machine!

Me: Time Machine!?

We went to the basement and we saw Lisa's Time Machine with Lori inside it and it vanished in a flash of light with an explosion of lightning.

KABOOM!

Me: WHOA!

Lola: WHOA! Where did she go!?

Me: I think the more accurate question is WHEN did she go?

Maria: Lisa, you didn't tell that you already invented a time machine.

Lisa Loud: No one ever asked.

Me: It was a really cool time machine. But how did it activate?

Leni: I did it.

Me: Leni! You know you're not supposed to touch Lisa's projects!

Dexter: Yeah you are as bad as my stupid sister Dee Dee.

Me: Dexter that's not nice. But yeah.

Nico: We got to find Lori and get her back.

Me: How? We don't even know what time she went to.

Professor Paradox then appeared.

Professor Paradox: Perhaps I can be of service.

Me: Oh Hello Professor Paradox.

Professor Paradox: Hello J.D.

May: I didn't think there would be a need for a time machine since we have the simulator.

Me: Yeah. That is interesting. But Professor do you know when Lori went to?

Professor Paradox: I do. She went to the year 7072.

Me and everyone: 7072!?

Me: WHOA! That's all the way over in the 71st Century, 5,051 years from now.

Nico: Incredible! I wonder what happened to the world in that time.

Me: We'll have to go there and find out.

I saw that Nico was in a state of thinking.

May: What's wrong Nico?

Nico: I'm really conflicted on what to do right now.

Lincoln: What are you talking about, Nico?

Nico: Well, if we get Lori back, she, Lynn, and Lola will just continue to have angry outbursts during missions. But if we leave her stranded in the future, Bobby won't have his wife and her kids won't have their mom. (to the rest of us) So, what do you guys think I should do?

Me: Let Mandy handle Lynn, Lori and Lola. She is the enforcer of the Trinity of Violence. Also we're not going to let that happen. We're going to get Lori back. And besides this was all an accident.

Nico: Yeah you're right.

Me: Okay lets head to the 71st Century and get Lori back.

Professor Paradox used his powers and teleported us to the future.

GOTHAM ROYAL YORK, 7072 A.D.

The future was a completely different place in the 71st Century. EVERYTHING all over the city and even the ginormous World Tree Estate was covered with trees and plants of many kinds and flying crafts made of wood were flying all over and in them were creatures from planets of many kinds were in them and they were flying all over the place. Also the forests were covering EVERY part of the planet except for the oceans. And the Earth had more planets and moons in orbit around it and all that. The world was now FAR MORE ADVANCED than anything we had ever seen before! In the World Tree Estate, everything was now covered in flowers, grass and trees too. The Time Machine then appeared and Lori came out and she was dizzy and nauseous.

Lori: "Somebody get me a bucket. I think I'm gonna barf."

We were flying through forward through the Space-Time Continuum and it looked like a massively long wormhole that goes on forever and ever.

Me: Wow! So this is what it's like traveling forward through time!

Nico: It's like something out of a science fiction movie!

We were flying forward into the future through the Space-Time Continuum and Xaldin, Vexen, Larxene, Saïx, Ebon, Captain Cold, Electro and Hydro Man appeared.

Xaldin: I hope you don't mind if me, Vexen, Larxene, Saïx, Ebon, Captain Cold, Electro, and Hydro Man come with you guys.

Me: Not at all. But how did you guys find us in here? We're flying through the Space-Time Continuum.

Vexen: We saw you guys vanish through time and we followed the portal's residual temporal energy trail.

Lisa Loud: Very Genius.

Larxene: So what's going on?

Me: Leni accidentally sent Lori into the distant future in the 7072 A.D.

Ebon: All the way into the 71st century!?

Me: Yeah and we're on our way to rescue her with Professor Paradox helping us.

Captain Cold: Wow!

We flew fast forward in time.

We arrived as a portal opened up and we were in the future.

Sandpit: So, this is the future?

Me: Yep. Wow! The whole estate is made of wood. Lets go check it out.

We walked around the World Tree Estate and we saw that everything in the Estate was totally made of plants and trees.

Me: Wow!

Leni: This is totes amazing!

Ed: No kidding.

Lola: Wow!

We walked around and we saw Lori and we saw our future selves in the 71st Century!

Lori: Guys!

Our 71st Century selves saw us.

71st Century me: Wow!

Me: OH MAN!

Me and my 71st Century self looked at each other.

Me: Wow! I look amazing for my 71st Century self.

71st Century me: Boy I forgot how cool I was back all those years ago.

71st Century Lori: I was literally amazed myself when I saw my self from the past.

Lori (to 71st Century Lori) I really look nice in the future.

Muscle Man: You know who else looks nice in the future? My mom!

We laughed at his joke.

Me: I'm sure she would look nice here.

Mordecai: Yeah.

Me: But it's awesome to meet our future selves. We're from the 21st Century.

71st Century Laney: Wow!

Vexen: I have to admit. The future certainly is fascinating.

Me: It sure is.

71st Century me: You haven't seen anything yet.

On a fancy holographic globe we saw the world and Earth was now fully covered in plants and EVERY PART of the world was now forests.

Me: WHOA! Earth will be covered in forests!? Except for the oceans?

71st Century me: Yep. And here's what the cities all over the world look like.

He showed all the parts of the world: Paris, Tokyo, Beijing, Nairobi, Sydney, Denver, New York City, Rio De Janeiro, Mexico City, Moscow, all the cities all over the world were all forest cities and everything was ALL PLANTS and more!

Me: Oh wow!

Laney: Incredible! All the cities around the world are completely covered in plants and are plants!

71st Century Laney: They sure are. And look at all the planets in orbit around Earth.

71st Century me pulled up an image of the solar system and Earth had many more planets and moons around it than ever and many creatures from ALL of those planets were on Earth!

Me: WHOA! Look at all those planets and I know all those worlds. And some of them we haven't been to yet.

Nico: So do I! I know those planets too. Wow!

71st Century Luna: Yeah they are great dudes.

Me: Wow! This is incredible that you all have been able to achieve all this in over 5,000 years.

71st Century me: I know. And we unlocked new transformations too.

Me: Whoa! What do they look like?

71st Century me: Uh uh uh. No spoilers.

Me: Aw drat. Oh well we'll figure it out.

Lana: Maybe it's not too late to leave Lori here.

Time Force Dash: That's a little too harsh, don't you think?

Lana: (angrily) Did you all take stupid pills this morning? Have you guys forgotten that she, Lola, and Lynn tried to mess with time?! Because I sure haven't!

SLAP!

Mandy slapped Lana.

Mandy: Lana get ahold of yourself. We're not going to leave Lori here and that is that.

Nico: Even if this place is amazing we still won't leave her here.

Me: And besides we won't let the 20 Days of Darkness affect us ever again.

Lori and Squidward stared as they were speechless about everything that is going to happen in the next 5,000 years. Then they got down on the floor and started doing sit ups.

Lori and Squidward "Future… future… future..future.."

Lily and 71st century Lily bonked them on their heads with bricks.

BONK BONK!

Lori: OW! Thanks.

Squidward: "Thanks."

Lily: Sorry. Wait a minute. Squidward didn't this happen to you before?

Squidward: Yes as a matter of fact it did happen to me before. I accidentally locked myself in the freezer at the Krusty Krab and I woke up in the 41st century in the year 4017 A.D. But unlike this future everything all over the ocean was chrome.

Lily: Whoa!

71st Century Lily: That was a crazy time huh?

Nico: Boy no kidding.

Me: Boy déjà-vu. Except we're 3,000 years further into the future.

Nico: Yeah.

Saïx: (to the Future Loud's) Have you guys already met the Lupinranger and Patrangers yet?

71st Century Lori: As a matter of fact we did.

71st Century Luan: They are amazing and awesome to get along with.

Me: Cool!

Nico: By the way do you guys have real jobs other than being part of Team Loud Phoenix Storm?

71st Century Lori: We sure do. I'm a famous attorney.

71st Century Leni: I'm a fashion designer.

71st Century Luna: Me and Sam are rock stars.

71st Century Luan: Me and Eddy are comedians.

71st Century Lynn: Me and Lightning are basketball and sports legends.

71st Century Lincoln: I'm a police officer.

71st Century Linka: I'm Thief like Sly Cooper. I steal from high profile criminals, beat them up and deliver them to the cops

71st Century Liberty: I'm an author.

71st Century Lyra: I'm a D.J.

Vinyl Scratch gave her the thumbs up.

71st Century Lee: I'm a wrestler.

71st Century Lucy: I'm a Poet and Mortician.

71st Century Laney: I'm an Action Movie Star.

71st Century Lana: I'm a veterinarian and gardener.

71st Century Lola: I'm a photographer and jewelry designer.

71st Century Lisa Loud: I'm a scientist as you know.

71st Century Lily: And I'm a nurse and photographer.

Me: Wow! Those are great jobs.

Sly Cooper: It will be cool teaching Linka everything we know.

Murray: Yeah!

Blizzard Man: Do you guys have a time machine we can use?

71st Century Lisa: As a matter of fact you can use the one Lori from the 21st Century came in. I had my robots make a bunch of modifications to it to fit all of your number accommodations.

Me: Wow! That's great! I have a feeling we're gonna be working building Earth and the Universe to this future. One more question. Did we destroy ALL the Dark Orbs?

71st Century me: Yes we did. In 4,000 years the entire universe will be completely dark orb free. But like you always say: Evil Never Rests and will always exist. There will always be other threats than Xehanort or his evil and all that.

Me: Yes I had a feeling. But wow we have our work cut out for us.

Nico: But it's good that we got rid of the Dark Orbs.

Varie: Yeah it sure is.

We went to the time machine and saw that it was bigger than ever and we all got in.

Ebon: So, anyone want to activate the machine?

Nico: (to Lynn, Lori, and Lola) No offense, but since I can't trust you three to operate a time machine like this one, I'll program the time period.

Lynn: Okay. But it was mostly Lori that did it.

Lori: ME!?

Lola: Yeah! You wound up here in the first place!?

Lori: Because of Leni!

SLAP SLAP SLAP!

Mandy slapped all three of them.

Mandy: SHUT UP!

Nico: Thanks Mandy.

Pandora (Kid Icarus): Geez.

Palutena: I hope those three get a grip.

Me: Ready whenever you are Nico.

Nico pressed a button and it activated and we went back in time and our future selves waved as we left.

We went back in time and we landed in the past.

Jack Spicer: Finally! Home sweet- (looks around) -jungle?!

We looked around and saw that we were in a prehistoric world.

Me: Whoa! This world looks like a prehistoric world. Lets see here.

I looked at the scanners and saw that we were in the year 42,275 B.C.!?

Me: 42,275 B.C.!? We're in the prehistoric times!

Nico: Oops.

Me: We went back in time by 40,254 years.

Nico: Wow!

Lincoln: Geez it sure is primitive here.

Me: Lets take a look around.

We walked around.

But then we heard a twig snap.

Electro: What was that?!

I looked behind us and saw a figure in the shadows.

Me: Stay alert everyone.

We continued on and we heard a bunch of figures all over.

We heard gnawing coming from a bush and looked in and saw a prehistoric Lincoln and Clyde and me eating something.

Me: Is that a prehistoric me, Clyde and Lincoln?

They jumped out and had clubs ready!

Prehistoric Lincoln: Who you!?

Me: Whoa take it easy! We're not here to harm you.

Prehistoric Me: (To me) You familiar. Like know you somehow.

Me: Well this is hard to explain. But I'm you from the future. You are my prehistoric ancestor.

Prehistoric Me: Wow! Family welcome.

Me: Pleasure.

Plant Man: Um… you guys are still asleep. You're not really seeing us right now. We're just figments of your imagination.

Me: Er yeah.

Nico: Yeah.

Prehistoric Luna: You look real to us.

Prehistoric Lana: Yeah. (SMASHES MY FOOT WITH A CLUB)

SMASH!

Me: OUCH! Okay they know we're real.

Captain Cold: (points cold gun at Prehistoric Louds) Just back off, okay? Try anything and you guys are heading to the Ice Age!

Me: We're already in the ice age Leonard.

Captain Cold: Oh yeah.

Qin lowered Captain Cold's blaster.

Qin: Calm down Leonard. We are not here to cause trouble.

Captain Cold: Sorry.

Later the Prehistoric Loud's gave us a lot of meat for the road back home.

Spark Man: (sees the meat we got) Talk about fresh meat!

Me: Yeah but it's perfect.

Nico: Lets head back to the time machine.

Laney: Right.

A can hit Rotwood on the head.

Rotwood: Ow! Hey, watch you're kicking that thing!"

Prehistoric Lynn look alike came up walking on all fours and grabbed the can with her teeth, acting like a dog.

Rotwood: "Boy, you're not too different from modern Lynn, are you?"

Prehistoric Lynn: "Huh?"

Rotwood: "Nevermind."

Then he saw the other cave siblings chewing on their cans.

Rotwood: "What are you simpletons doing? Those aren't for eating!"

But they still continued to chew on the cans.

Rotwood took Lincoln and Clyde's cans.

Rotwood: "Gimme those!"

He then grabbed a long vine and attached it to the two cans. One can on each end.

Rotwood: "Ta da!"

Prehistoric Lisa: "What that thing you bestow to us?"

Rotwood: "Um… it's the tin can walkie talkie. You use it to talk to someone from a long distance. Let me demonstrate. You hold this end."

Rotwood gave one can to the Prehistoric Lincoln.

Rotwood walked away and spoke into the other end.

Rotwood: "Now can you hear me?"

Prehistoric Lincoln: "Yes, me hear you good."

The others were impressed.

Prehistoric Lori: "Me want to try."

Prehistoric Lola: "Beauty before age."

Prehistoric Lisa: "Yeah, so me try first."

Rotwood: "You want it? You guys can have it!"

Prehistoric Laney: Share.

Me: Lets head back.

Hydro Man: You realize you just invented walkies talkies, right?

Rotwood: Better me than Mrs. Lori. Mr. Squidward told me that he accidentally invented jellyfishing the same way.

Lily: I remember that.

Me: Lets get home before something else happens.

We went back to the time machine and programmed it to go home and then we vanished and made it back.

Me: Whew! Glad to be back.

Rotwood: Now, Mr. McBride, can you tell us how invented walkie-talkies?

Clyde: Simple. You did!

Rotwood: Perfect! This is one change in time that's acceptable.

Frown: Wait. I don't think we're out of the woods yet.

Nico: What do you mean?

Morton: I think something followed us back to the present.

Frightwig: I think all that time in the Warp made you two, Rotwood, and Squidward paranoid. There's no way something could've followed us from the past or from the future.

Eli: No Master Frown is right! I sense something in the Park. It's at the lake.

Me: We better get over there! Come on!

We went to the park and we saw people running around and running for their lives and in the lake we saw a ROBOT SQUIDWARD!

---

Robo-Squidward, also known as Squid Vicious, is a boss in the Game Boy Advance version of Battle for Bikini Bottom and all versions of Battle for Bikini Bottom - Rehydrated. It was planned as a potential boss battle in the console versions of the original game, but was scrapped at some point in development. Rehydrated brings back Robo-Squidward as the source of the robots in the game's multiplayer horde mode.

Battle for Bikini Bottom

In the Game Boy Advance version of Battle for Bikini Bottom, SpongeBob meets Squidward at the Industrial Park. After Squidward asks SpongeBob on what he is doing, he sees and hears a blue music note fall down and comments on its beautiful sound. SpongeBob suddenly notices the giant robot that is standing near them the entire time, calling it "another big ugly robot."

The robot will send one of its spiked metallic hands downward after following SpongeBob for a while. SpongeBob has to use the seahorse to eat the bomb robots and ride on the hand as it rises back and immediately vomits the bomb out to damage the head. Occasionally, the robot will shoot music notes that will explode upon contact.

After three hits, the head will fly around while shooting music notes. The tactic remains the same. Occasionally, underwear will appear in the middle.

After destroying the robot, Squidward complains about how SpongeBob destroys everything that is beautiful while also insulting his lack of taste in music.

Rehydrated

Robo-Squidward appears in the background, in the multiplayer mode. The robot fights indirectly throughout the session by electrocuting certain areas of the platforms. Clearing islands will damage its tentacles. After completing the horde mode, Robo-Squidward's final tentacle will be destroyed and the robot will fall into the goo. There is no direct battle with Robo-Squidward.

---

Me: What the!?

Squidward: That robot looks like me!

Mr. Krabs: That must be one of Plankton's robots!

Lincoln: We never saw a robot version of Squidward when all those robots were unleashed!

Me: It must be a backup plan that Plankton had when he got Hakaied.

Larxene: I think that robot followed us from the future!

Me: It might have!

Eli: No the Force is telling me that it came all the way from The Pacific Ocean. Look what's in its eye.

We saw that it had a dark orb in its right eye!

Me: It has a Dark Orb in its right eye!

Mr Krabs: Even after being Super Hakaied that malignerant microbe still causes trouble wherever he goes!

Nico: Yeah!

But then the Springfield Bullies, Springfield Mafia, Chief Wiggum, Skinner, Cantwell, Comic Book Guy, Snake Jailbird, Rich Texan, Selma & Patty and Meteor then appeared.

Me: Springfield Bullies, Springfield Mafia, Chief Wiggum, Skinner, Cantwell, Comic Book Guy, Snake Jailbird, Rich Texan, Selma & Patty, Meteor? 10 of you this time?

Meteor: I'm an extra battle because I want a shot at Janeen again.

Me: Cool! I have an experimental group for her to try out.

Janeen: AWESOME! Who is gonna be in my group?

Me: Misty Tredwell and Pandora.

Pandora (Kid Icarus): Me?

Me: No you are for another group. I was referring to the Pandora that Brittney and Mandy know.

Janeen: Neat!

Misty Tredwell: So cool!

Jimbo: We were actually waiting for you guys to come back.

Maria: That was very nice of you guys.

Louie: We actually got worried when you guys took a long time to get back.

Wiggum: But then, we saw that robot of Squidward causing trouble.

Skinner: (holds up a beer bottle) By the way, I think this belongs to one of you guys.

Me: Yeah we forgot to clean up. We allowed our mascots to drink again as long as we watch them.

Nico: Yep.

Selma: I thought you guys put locks on the beer.

Me: We did but we're gonna be really careful.

Lola: Yeah.

But then we smelled a really foul odor in the air.

Ets: Uh oh! I smell Brown Evil!

Mandy: Did Grim cook up evil brownies again?

Me: I don't think so.

Kiba: Yeah that smell is coming from the Squidward Robot.

But then NUMEROUS BROWNIE CRAVING ZOMBIES APPEARED!

Zombies: (Groaning) BROWNIES!

We screamed in fright!

Me: THE BROWNIE CRAVING ZOMBIES! Looks like it's time to break out the Zombie Apocalypse Survival Gear!

I put on my headband and Z.O.R.T. Vest and gear!

Ets: Nice Zombie Outbreak Response Team gear.

Me: Thanks Shawn and Leni made it for me.

?: It's nice.

A figure came out and it was BEAUTICRUEL from episode 11 of Dino Super Charge!

---

Beauticruel was a drag queen-themed Vivix who was made "beautiful" by Poisandra's magic paint and brush and sent to make the Rangers fall for her and give their Energems.

According to Poisandra, Beauticruel was a young Vivix, she was presumably on Sledge's Ship when he arrived in Earth's orbit.

She presumably stayed on the ship escaping at the destruction against the Rangers, during many battles. She survived once more time when Sledge's Ship crashed on Earth.

When Empowered

Beauticruel made her first appearance having a crush on Curio, but he didn't like her, finding her straight-up creepy. She wanted knowing the love and stole the Energems, but the Dino Charge Rangers succeeded to destroy her with the Red Ranger's T-Rex Super Charge Blast and when enlarge, they destroyed her with the Ptera Charge Megazord: Tricera Formation's Power Drill Final Strike.

---

Shelby: Beauticruel!

Beauticruel: Been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you and funny thing is we were talking about you when we were facing Mask Scara. You were sent to make the rangers fall in love with you and take the Energems.

Beauticruel: That is good memory handsome and yes you are right.

Me: I get that all the time and I never missed an episode.

Beauticruel: Heckyl! I'm very glad see you out of that repulsive Snide, handsome!

Heckyl: (Blushes) Uh thanks.

Me: Cute.

A roar was heard and out came THE 2 MILLION YEAR OLD CAVEMAN!

Shaggy: ZOINKS! It's the Caveman!

Twilight Sparkle: We didn't bring a caveman back from the past did we?

Qin: No this is the Caveman that we know and the one that Scooby Doo knows. He was really Professor Wayne. He was trying to steal a Marine Life Communicator that was worth millions and sell it. He made it look like the caveman was brought back after thawing a dummy caveman out with a heater in the arctic room. But the Mystery Inc Gang busted him and he was sentenced to 20 to 40 years in prison. He got his sentence extended to Life afterwards.

Twilight Sparkle: Whoa!

Sunset Shimmer: Looks like he got what was coming to him.

Me: And this is the caveman that bashed me in the face and gave me a nasty black eye. First the Brownie Craving Zombies all come back and now the Caveman that we know.

Rainbow Dash: Man first we had to face zombies on different planets and now we're facing Zombies again!? I thought we were done with that!

Scootaloo: At least they aren't after brains this time.

Me: And besides these are all zombies we faced before. They were made when Billy made brownies that brought all the dead back to life all over the world.

Muscle Man: You know who else likes blasting zombies? My mom!

We laughed at Muscle Man's joke!

Me: Good one! Lets get them!

We went at them.

---

Battle 1: Sam S.L., Sunset Shimmer, Taylor, Akiza Izinski, Blackfire and Mewtwo VS Springfield Bullies

---

The Springfield Bullies were first.

Kearney: (to Sam) You've gotta admit that the mascots are pretty funny while drunk.

Dolph: (laughs) Just like Bart's dad!

Jimbo: Yeah!

Sam S.L.: Homer and Barney getting drunk is really funny.

Sunset Shimmer: It sure is. The mascots do it just as funny.

Akiza: Yeah they do.

Kearney: So what's the theme for this group?

Sam S.L.: Those with Dark Pasts.

Taylor: We are all those with pasts in darkness.

Blackfire: That's a clever theme.

Mewtwo: It sure is.

Jimbo: Good one. Lets do it!

They pounded their fists.

Sam S.L.: Lets.

They went at them and the Springfield Bullies punched and kicked at them and the group dodged their strikes and blasted them all over the place and knocked them down.

Sam S.L.: Rock on!

Sunset Shimmer: That was fun!

---

The Springfield Mafia were next.

Legs: Even I drink from time to time. Getting drunk is just a side effect.

Louie: All of the mob drinks but we have fancy drinks.

Sora T.: That's true. It is funny though.

Birdramon: I agree.

Twilight Sparkle: Yeah and thank goodness I will never drink. Just cider for me.

Zhuqiaomon: Cider is always good especially Sweet Apple Acres cider.

Fat Tony: Sweet Apple Acres Cider is always good. How is Lorenzo doing?

Sora T.: He's doing great! He's graduating in a few weeks.

Fat Tony: Wow! We'll have to be there for his graduation when it comes.

Mihiramon: Can't wait.

Sandpit: Me too.

Gargoyle: Same.

Fat Tony: Shall we dance?

Sora T.: Lets shall.

Legs: Here's your warning: Get in my way and I'll whack you in the lobonza.

Sora T.: Get in my way Legs and I'll kick you in the fucking balls!

The Springfield Mafia went at them with crowbars and they dodged their strikes and Sora and her group blasted them all over and smashed them down.

Rarity: But thank goodness we didn't leave her there darlings.

Vexen: Yeah but it was cool seeing the future.

Lana: And it was cool meeting my future self.

Ice Man: It sure was.

Tundra Man: It ALL was amazing!

Blizzard Man: Yeah.

Skinner: Boy I bet. Lets do it.

Skinner pulled out a brand new elemental blaster.

Dana: Wow! That blaster is totally new.

Skinner: You like it? It's called the Super Elemental Blast-O-Matic 9000. It has a more powerful blast power and many more elements to choose from.

Dana: Cool!

He fired an ice ray and they dodged it and the group fired ice blasts and jewels and smashed and froze him.

Dana: Talk about getting the Cold Shoulder.

Rarity:: Rapture darling that was grand!

---

Battle 5: Lisa Simpson, Rainbow Dash, Jimmy Neutron, Meg Griffin, Hayley Smith, Sideshow Bob and Jack Spicer VS Cantwell

---

Cantwell was next.

Meg Griffin: It was amazing though.

Hayley Smith: Yeah no kidding.

Whitney: More than that. In the next 5,000 years the entire planet is gonna be completely covered in plants except for the oceans.

Whitney showed a holographic image of the world in that time and all the planets around Earth.

Comic Book Guy: Amazing! Earth will be like that?

Fiona: Neither did we expect the zombies that were craving brownies either.

Snake: How did those zombies come into being like that?

Pinkie Pie: Not really sure but zombies craving brownies is better than brains.

Naruto: Billy was making brownies and he added this to them.

Naruto pulled out a bottle of Evil Powder.

Naruto: He pulled this out of Grim's trunk as he was looking for salt.

Killer B: He must've mistook it for salt.

Fu: But Grim seemed to like those brownies.

Utakata: But obviously he didn't know that it would bring a massive number of brownie craving zombies from all over the world to come.

Han: Yeah.

Rich Texan: (to Becky) You think there's a robot of Mr. Krabs too? And I'm not talking about the human sized one.

Becky: I don't think that he would use a robot Mr. Krabs like that. He an Mr. Krabs have hated each other since they were kids.

Applejack: Hoowee! I still can't believe that they have hated each other for that long. It's hard to imagine that a recipe with burgers would cause them to become mortal enemies.

Ursa: Yeah that is awful and unhealthy.

Rich Texan: No kidding. The poor guys.

Iroh: They threw away an awesome friendship all because of a petty recipe.

Zuko: That is awful and stupid if you ask me.

They charged it up with 10 Dino Chargers.

News Reporter: And absolutely no respect for the rules of the road.

In a meat truck, the meat came alive and busted out.

News Reporter: Yes indeed folks! Anything that has once passed away appears to be walking around again!

In the airports around the world, the zombies were taking flights to Gotham Royal York. Thousands of planes, buses and cars were crammed full of zombies and they were converging all on Gotham Royal York!

News Reporter: To the great skies above! The zombies are coming, but where are they going? And more importantly, will Team Loud Phoenix Storm be able to stop them again!?

Another awesome adventure done.

This was a funny one! This was a land version of the SpongeBob Episode, SB-129 and that was a funny one! It aired on December 31st, 1999 one day shortly before the dawn of the new Millennium and it was funny and awesome! NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, vinjedi1995, Etstheclarencefan, Darkhai, Drako1234658 and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. It was awesome! Thanks guys. Next up is a chapter with an adventure that only happens once every 1,000 years as we see the legendary Millennium Comet, a comet that only appears once every 1,000 years and we're going to meet the legendary Pokemon of wishes Jirachi and destroy a fake version of the legendary Pokemon Groudon and make sure it never terrorizes the world.

See you all tomorrow.

Comet of the 1,000 Year Pokemon

Eddy came back to the World Tree Estate after a harrowing battle with the Halloween Enemies of the Ninja Steel Rangers, THE GRUESOME GRUNTS!

---

The Gruesome Grunts were a mob of alien criminals who are wanted by the Halloween Intergalactic Court for their various crimes and the main villains of Monster Mix Up. They ambush the Super Ninja Steel Rangers and switch bodies with them. Unlike other villains in the series, they are not associated with Madame Odius or Galaxy Warriors, and in fact, declared that they would become even more famous than Odius by defeating the Power Rangers.

Versix and the others Gruesome Grunts ambushes the Rangers and switch bodies with them. The Mummy Guards arrive and take them all to the Halloween Intergalactic Court, except Brody (in Ackshun's body), Sarah (in Plasmora's body) and Versix who goes after them. After Mick Kanic posed as Versix to get a confession of the body-swapping plot, the Gruesome Grunts try to escape, which Verisx succeeds at doing, but the Court Witch apprehends the others with a freezing spell and the Pumpkin Judges ordered her to undo Versix's body-swapping spell. She does so and the Gruesome Grunts are destroyed by the Pumpkin Judges for their heinous crimes while the Rangers go after Versix.

He fought off the Rangers and survives all attempts to defeat him, including the Lion Fire Flame Strike and the Lion Fire Double Super Strike with the Superstar Blade, He then enlarges himself so the Rangers summon the Ninja Steel Ultrazord. He deflected the Ninja Ultra Strike and stamped the ground hard enough to tear it apart. The Rangers realised that he would break up any Megazord they formed so they called upon the Rumble Tusk, Astro, and Sub Surfer auxiliary Zords. He tried to fight back but was overwhelmed by the combined might of the Zords and was destroyed by the Super Zord Slashes Final Attack (performed by the components of the Ninja Steel and Bull Rider Megazords). In his final seconds, he cursed not having gone trick or treating and then detonated, marking the end of the Gruesome Grunts.

Maria: So, what happened to the Gruesome Grunts?

Stabberous (in Preston's body): What about them?

May: Well, earlier tonight, you guys said you were going to take care of them. We want to know how you guys did it.

Shelldax (in Levi's body): Oh, them. They got away. But not to worry. They won't get lucky next time.

Eddy: Let them show their big ugly faces again. They wouldn't stand a chance against me.

Fangor (in Calvin's body) frowned.

Eddy: Yeah, I know how to take care of villains like the Gruesome Grunts. They're so lame.

Jabberon (in Haley's body) clenched her fists.

Eddy: Seriosuly, they got killed the first time by the Halloween

Intergalactic court, which is made up of pumpkins.

Plasmora (in Sarah's body) narrowed her eyes)

Eddy: Sometimes, I think they're lamer then the Amoeba Boys.

Ackshun (in Brody's body) punched the table, startling us, and growled. We froze in fear and Eddu let out a shrilly scream, clutching on to your shoulder.

Ground Man: Brody. You alright?

Ackshun (in Brody's body): I'm fine. Sorry about that.

Who we thought were the Ninja Steel Rangers quickly left the room. But not before Ackshun (in Brody's body) glared at Eddy.

Lori: (sarcastically) Well, that literally wasn't weird at all.

Me: Yeah. That was weird completely.

I knew something was going on. But what was it?

Me: But I REALLY do remember the Gruesome Grunts. They were on the Halloween Special of Ninja Steel and they switched with the bodies of Ninja Steel Rangers. I have a feeling that they did the same thing like they did on TV. And we're living an episode even though it's not Halloween.

Nico: So cool.

Lola: Yeah.

Later we were Watching TV. Cody then came in.

Cody (OC): Hey guys I found something you got to see.

He came in with a box of old cassette tapes.

Me: Cassette tapes? We haven't used these in years and we don't have a cassette player.

Cody (OC): I checked one out at the library for us.

Me: Cool.

I put in the first one and played it.

Major Dutch: (On the tape) It's September 12, 1987. My name is Major Alan Shaefer, also known as "Dutch". US Army veteran, spec ops commander, and the only survivor of the "Val Verde Incident". These tapes are my personal testimony, Insurance. Should anything happen to me, what I've found won't be lost. My team was brought in to rescue a Guatemalan cabinet minister and his aide who'd been captured by guerilla forces in Val Verde. We located their downed helicopter and the skinned bodies of those aboard hung in nearby trees, seemingly at the hands of the guerilla fighters. After assaulting their camp, it became clear that the mission was a setup. American intelligence had sent us to retrieve the captured agents who'd been on recon for a future military action. But none of that matters anymore, because while we were clearing out the guerillas, something was hunting us. An invisible killer tracked us as we made our way to the extraction point. In 24 hours, it wiped out my entire team: Rick Hawkins, Blain Cooper, Mac Elliot, Billy Sole, Jorge Ramirez… and Al Dillon. The best soldiers I've ever known, men I'd trusted with my life, were butchered like animals. It was a nightmare, we walked in with guns, but it had perfect camouflage, advanced weaponry, and could see heat. It was strong and smart. A pitiless hunter. I waited. I watched. And when I understood it, when I saw how it hunted, I killed it. As it laid dying, in a final "Fuck You", it activated an explosive device. I barely escaped the blast. My radiation sickness and the crater of that explosion are the only evidence it was ever here. I've given my official statement to Agent Peter Keyes of the OWLF, but it's become clear I need to investigate Val Verde myself. Keyes was thorough, but he asked all the wrong questions. We have proof of alien life, but that life sees us as game. It's an alien who's first contact with humanity was to hunt us for sport. All Keyes cared about was the technology lost in that explosion. He can't see the jungle for the trees. I see the threat, he sees the opportunity. Spies are all the same. I mean, we aren't not people to them, we're assets. How many soldiers will he feed to those monsters just for a chance to steal from them or to learn from them? The government can't be trusted, so I'll have to do this on my own. I'm cutting my treatment short and going off the grid. I will make my way back to South American: to Val Verde. I was told there were stories about "demons who make trophies of men". I'd like to hear those stories.

We gasped!

Me: Whoa man! That was from 34 years ago.

Nico: So we aren't the only ones that met a Yautja.

Eli: No kidding. That was terrible!

I played the next one.

Major Dutch: April 8th, 1991. I'm not dead yet. I'll admit… I regret not curing my radiation sickness before I left. It made leaving the country difficult. I cashed in a few favors, took too many off-the-books flights in rusted-out buckets, but I made it back to Val Verde. The area was in lockdown, sealed bY American intelligence for study. The complex centered on the crater from the alien's self-destruction. I found a scientist slumming in a local bar. A few drinks, and a couple of threats later, he was ready to talk. It wasn't much, barely anything I didn't already know. The blast emitted a form of radiation they'd never seen before. Some believed it was extraterrestrial: some didn't. Either they're not that bright or there's nothing to find. I decided to to let them keep searching in vain. It kept them busy and off my trail. I've been touring villages and small towns, using the cover of an author writing about South American folklore. I don't know if any of them bought in, but they took my money and told their stories. The closer they were to the jungle, the more stories of devils in the trees. Some were bullshit, made up on the spot, but some carried consistencies that I couldn't ignore. Whatever it was, the "Demons Who Makes Trophies of Men", the "Devils of the Trees", or the "Skull-Taker", the stories always began on the hottest summer that they could remember. In the summer of 1987, Val Verde nearly broke it's all time high in temperatures. They love the heat. It must remind them of home. Everything else confirmed the truth of the stories. Proud warriors skinned and hanged: skulls and spines ripped from their bodies. Maybe it was obvious from the beginning, but it wasn't until I heard the stories that I truly accepted the purpose of these mutilations. I mean, they're taking trophies. They travel impossible distances to hunt us, skin us, and mount us over some alien fireplace on another world. It would be disgusting if it weren't so familiar. Where do I go now? It's been on my mind all year. The takeaway from all this intel is that they've been doing this for decades- centuries maybe. They're coming back, and I need to be there for when they do. "

Me: Whoa! That's crazy.

I pulled up a map and on a satellite picture in Guatemala in the jungle was a huge blast crater that was 15 miles wide!

Me: WHOA! Look at that!

Nico: A Yautja self destruct device did that!?

Eli: That looks like a meteor crater!

Me: Unbelievable! That's as much destructive power as a nuclear warhead!

Aylene C.: Incredible!

Me: Major Dutch went through hell and it's hard to imagine that a Yautja killed all his friends.

Nico: Brutal man.

We played another tape.

Major Dutch: "June 27th, 1992. It's hard to remember that the most important part of an operation is patience. You can plan the perfect op, but you can't account for everything. If shit goes south, there's nothing to do but to adapt and finish the mission. Sometimes, you just get lucky. I was on a dock about ten klicks down-river from the Val Verde border, figuring out my next move. I was ready to pack it in. I mean, I thought I'd learned everything I could: that there was nothing left for me to find. The OWLF had abandoned the detonation site a year ago, and I'd thought they'd already shipped back to America. That's when I saw Agent Peter Keyes tie his skiff to the dock. I mean, I hadn't seen Keyes since I gave my official statement to him. It was impossible, but there he was with three of his buddies.

All agents. I mean the clean, tidy outfits give them away all the time. I mean, they don't get down in the dirt. You see, that's what they pay soldiers to do. Keyes walked up, looked right at me, and shook my hand. With the radiation sickness, I'd lost a lot of weight. I thought maybe he hadn't recognized me, but then he greeted me like we were old pals. Keyes is a good spy. Saying nothing: implying everything. We spent the next few hours trading war stories at the bar. If you'd heard us, you'd never suspect we were trading intel on an alien manhunter. His cover was that they'd been looking for a serial killer. A sadist who'd been operating in the area for years. Hunting people like animals and skinning them alive. Keyes wanted to talk about the monster, so it all came out in the cover story. In many ways, they were just a few steps behind, surveying villages for information, locating witnesses. He did confirm one thing I'd only considered. He told me about how the "killer" chose its victims. They were always armed: a rifle, a pistol, a knife in the boot. He wasn't taking kids or random villagers. He wanted a challenge. Whatever it was, it was a hunter. When it killed, it killed for sport. I wish they were here for a military action, recon for an invasion. But the truth was so much worse. We're prey. Animals. Fit only to be hunted. Keyes and his buddies paid their tab, and mine, but before he left, he winked at me and said… "Stay out of the jungle. That's where he gets you". I tracked Keyes and his team for weeks, but they didn't learn anything new. Maybe they knew I was there, maybe they didn't. I don't know. I've risked enough for now. I think it's time to disappear. Keep my ear to the ground. Be patient. "

Me: So the Jungles of South and Central America are the Yautja Key Hunting Grounds.

Nico: And just recently we were in Montana and encountered a Yautja there.

Vince: And in Sumatra we encountered a Yautja there.

Lola: Yeah.

Laney: But I didn't know he was poisoned with radiation.

Me: If we find him we can help him.

I played another tape.

Major Dutch: " March 3rd, 1996. I thought I could wait. I thought I could hold back and make my move at the right time. I couldn't. Fuck! I had to find them! I needed to hunt it… or let it hunt me. I joined up with any private military company that was headed into a hot zone. I pulled every string, cashed out every favor just to follow the sweat and the death that attracted the demon. I eventually put together a team myself. Lost soldiers and haunted men, willing to fight and die wherever I led them. They thought I was a legend and I let them believe that. I'm quiet and good at what I do. I needed them to see me as a legend, so I could take them to die in the sweltering jungle. We went on more missions than I can remember. We didn't fire until we were fired at. They thought that it was my code. It wasn't. I was waiting and watching. Our last mission was an evac op in the Congo. A private munitions base had gone dark. When we arrived, they'd been dead for days. Bodies strung up on flood lights around the base, all of them skinned. Some missing skulls and spines. We secured the site and waited for backup to arrive. In the heat of the day, I stared into the waves of heat coming off the concrete, thinking that any minute they might come alive as the invisible killer. And then they did. I didn't wait. I unloaded every round I had. Trusting me, my team fired in the same direction. It wasn't the first time I'd done it, but this time I knew what I was looking for. It was so fast. We couldn't hit it. We panicked and stray rounds struck a crate of RPGs, and that explosion hit other munitions that exploded. By the time the smoke cleared, the demon was dead… but so were all of my men. I took samples of its blood, pieces of its anatomy, and what tech I could salvage, then I burned everything. Then I disappeared. I never checked in with HQ. As far as I know, I was counted among the dead. "

We gasped.

Me: So the Yautja were in the Congo too.

Nico: Oh man. And Dutch used the technology of the Yautja there to survive too.

Me: Wow.

Cody (OC): Yeah.

I played another tape.

Major Dutch: " October 12th, 1997. Los Angeles. I needed to come back to the states. It wasn't impossible to sneak contraband through customs, but I wasn't willing to risk what I'd found in the Congo falling into the wrong hands. Instead, I traveled to Mexico aboard a cargo ship bound for the port of Altamia, from there I made my way to Tijuana and I bunkered down. I had tangible proof of extraterrestrial life in my possession, but no idea what to do with it. I'm not a scientist. I did a soldier's duty and secured valuable intel. This was out of my pay grade. I kept an eye on the news. Los Angeles was having a record-breaking heatwave and a gang war on the streets. It was perfect. I could feel it in my bones. I'd been tracking them for so long, I could think like them. I could smell the prey. I could see the hunting ground. I had to get to LA. Crossing back into the states from Tijuana wasn't that difficult, but by the time I'd reached the city, it was already over. Like Val Verde, the OWLF only found crumbs. What I'd hoped might be an alien ship turned out to be a launching site. I wanted it too much and I got sloppy. I breached the OWLF quarantine and was captured. I'd hoped I'd be bailed out by Agent Keyes, but he died. With Keyes gone, the OWLF was leaderless and disorganized. I was interrogated, but then negotiated my release by bartering the alien materials I'd recovered from the Congo. During the negotiations, it was clear how little they knew. They needed someone who understood the threat, so I offered to work with the OWLF as a consulting advisor. They had the funding and the technology I needed to continue my hunt. I wouldn't work for them, but I would work with them. They'll be a weapon I can use to hunt down these predators as they move to fresh ground. It's only a matter of time until they see us as a real threat. When the prey fight back, it's no longer a hunt. It is war. "

Me: Whoa man! I've heard about the Los Angeles Gang Wars. Colombia and Val Verde were REALLY tearing each other apart during that time.

Nico: Yeah that was horrible. But I had no idea that cities could be used as Hunting Grounds for the Yautja too.

Me: Cities have been oftentimes called the Concrete Jungles and it's amazing that the Yautja were hunting there too.

Eli: No kidding. But that must've been really horrible.

Me: Yeah and according to this it says that Val Verde doesn't exist anymore. It was destroyed years ago. It was home to some of the worlds worst Drug Cartels and crime lords. All of them killed.

Eli: Wow.

Lola: That's awful.

Eli: Yeah. But what does OWLF stand for?

Me: It stands for Other World Life Forms. It's a very ultra top secret CIA Group that captures aliens to further benefit humanity.

Nico: Whoa.

I played another tape.

Major Dutch: " March 3rd, 2008. We've gotten good at killing Predators. Every time we find one, we come back with more tech, more research and the OWLF's funding goes up. Together, we've gotten stronger and more efficient. For a time, the aliens were surprisingly predictable. They had no idea we knew so much about them. But that began to change. They sent better hunters everytime. They're beginning to see us as a threat or we've become a more worthy prize. Maybe both. We know this because our last encounter was… special. We weren't certain if they had any gender to speak of, but that changed when we came in contact with the female. She was smarter and deadlier. She didn't fuck around like the males did. She was direct, ruthless, and skilled. I was in Laos when we first came in contact with her. It was Val Verde all over again. Her ambush wiped out my entire team, only this time… she got me. In a small village I lost track of her just long enough for her to pin me with a razor net. Pinned against the wall, razors cutting into my face. I'd been fighting for so long, I was ready to die. I should be dead. Instead of making the kill, she cloaked and vanished into the jungle. The net relaxed and I escaped with my life… and a scar to remember her by. She spared me. Only me. Like she knew who I was. I returned to the exfil, my first failed mission in a long time. Are we going about this wrong? I mean, we've learned so much, but in doing so, have we made ourselves a bigger target? I can't stop thinking about something Napoleon said, "You must not fight too often with one enemy, or you will teach them all your art of war." I started believing we were learning how to hunt them, or maybe she let me live to just be hunted another day. We could be teaching them how to hunt us. "

Me: Whoa! We never saw a female Yautja before.

Nico: Yeah that would be interesting and I have a feeling that they are deadlier than the male Yautja's.

Eli: Geez.

Lola: I bet they are just as ugly and scary as the others.

Me: Yeah.

I played the last tape by Dutch.

Major Dutch: " April, 2025. It's hard to believe that I'm still here recording this. I probably shouldn't be smoking in the med-bay, but fuck it, it's my birthday for Christ's sakes. I turned 78 today, but I'm out there hunting. I should be retired. I should be doing anything but this. My life shouldn't be possible, but the very thing I hunt, that hunts me, is what's keeping me alive. As we began to understand the Predator's technology, we started to use it. A fight with a Predator female went bad and I was critically wounded. Dying, I agreed to experimentation. Using their medical technology was painful at first, but it worked. It worked so well that the cells in my body stopped aging. Pushing eighty now, I feel like a man fighting in his 40's. It's not the only experiment that I've been a part of. I'm deadlier now than I was in Val Verde. The OWLF has been reinstated. It's grown larger than ever before. We saved Sean Keyes from Stargazer. His father was Peter Keyes… I suppose you could say he was a very dear acquaintance. His son is a gifted scientist. I worry about the future. The Earth is seeing an unprecedented rise in heat and war. As the climate changes and the temperatures go up, more and more countries become hunting grounds. We've killed so many of their kind, but they only send more. The number of events that we've witnessed has increased three fold in ten years. We've made an impression on them, but not like we'd hoped. We wanted to show them that we weren't prey, to deter them from ever sending another hunter to our world. We sent a warning, but they took it as a challenge. I fear we have made things worse. If the Predators ever decided we've grown too bold, I have no doubt that they could burn the Earth and all of humanity with it. My only hope is that while they waste time on sport, we can rise up together and stand against them as a species. Until then, we keep moving, we keep hunting, and we keep our eyes open. "

Me: Whoa! That tape was made 4 years from now.

Nico: Strange. And it's amazing that Dutch went through a terrifying ordeal.

Me: And he came out strong after all this time.

Lola: Yeah. Hard to imagine he went through all this for 38 years.

Me: Even though the last tape hasn't happened yet. But when we find Dutch we'll have to help him out as best as we can.

---

Eddy was outside getting the mail the next morning. But unknown to him, Fangore (in Calvin's body) was nearby. He got inside Calvin's car and used his key to start the car. With his hands on the wheel, he began to drive.

Eddy's ears perked up at the hum of an engine. He turned his head and his eyes went wide and a tingle of fear coursed down his spine.

Eddy didn't have to think twice and he quickly jumped out of the way before Calvin's car hit him. Eddy rolled away as Calvin's car came to a complete stop and Fangore (in Calvin's body) stepped out.

Eddy: What the Hell, Calvin?! You almost hit me! I could have been road kill!

Fangore (in Calvin's body) glanced at him and began to walk away

Fangore (in Calvin's body): (shrugging) I lost control of the brakes. It won't happen again.

Eddy's eyes were wide as he watched the Yellow Ninja Steel Ranger walk away as if nothing had happened. Head Rush, who saw this, walked over to Eddy.

Head Rush: Eddy, don't be alarmed, but I think Calvin tried to run you over on purpose.

Eddy: (Sarcastically) Yeah I'll bet.

Me: Hmm.

Later, Eddy was watching TV. It just so happened at this time Jabberon (in Haley's body) entered the room. She grinned as she stood behind the couch, not that far from Eddy. She noticed the former scammer was completely absorbed in watching television… now was the perfect time to finish him off.

Jabberon (in Haley's body) got out the real Haley's Ninja Star Blade, aiming at just the right angle. She then threw it

Lucky for Eddy, he had accidentally dropped the remote at the time and had reached down to retrieve it. The Ninja Star Blade hit the television screen instead of Eddy's head, destroying it.

Shocked, Eddy screamed and jumped up.

Eddy: Haley! What the fuck's wrong with you?! You wrecked the tv!

Jabberon (in Haley's body): (darkly) I saw a bug. It's gone now. (leaves the room)

G1 Shrapnel came into the room.

G1 Shrapnel: Whether that was Haley or not, she's paying for a new TV!

Me: No worries I got this. (Snaps fingers)

I fixed the TV good as new and better than ever.

Eddy: Thanks J.D.

Eddy: I'm telling you guys! Brody and his team have gone completely insane!

Lynn: Eddy, I agree that I think something is wrong with the Ninja Steel Rangers, but I seriously doubt that they're out to kill you.

G1 Bumblebee: Actually, Lynn, Eddy might have a point. Brody and his team have been acting rather sinister lately.

Me: Yeah and I know why. Eddy did you have a previous encounter with the Gruesome Grunts lately?

Eddy: Yes as a matter of fact I did. I called them a bunch of brainless stooges that pee their pants and smack around their stupid mommies.

Nico: Whoa! Brutally harsh.

Me: What else did you say to them?

Eddy: I told them that they were lamer than the Amoeba Boys.

Me: (Laughs) That's funny and the Amoeba Boys are the stupidest criminals ever known to the Powerpuff Girls. They can't do anything except run away from their own shadows.

We laughed.

Nico: Yeah. They can't do anything right.

Chef Pepperjack: Before we go on the next mission, I'll cook up something to knock Brody and his team out.

Me: Sweet. Maybe Sally can help you too.

Sally: I would be honored and I have just thing.

She showed us the Sleeping Soup that she makes to knock out Dr. Finklestein.

Me: The Sleeping Soup you made for when you knock out the good doctor.

Nico: We're gonna need some deadly nightshade.

Me: We're gonna have to go to Halloween Town to get it.

Sally: No need I have plenty of it.

Me: Great.

Sally and Chef Pepperjack cooked up the soup and it was given to the Gruesome Grunts and they ate it and were knocked out cold.

Me: There. That oughta hold them till we have the usual battles in the mission.

Cantwell, the Springfield Bullies, Skinner, Rich Texan, Wiggum, the Springfield Mafia, Snake, and Comic Book Guy then appeared.

Cantwell: Can me, the Springfield Bullies, Skinner, Rich Texan, Wiggum, the Springfield Mafia, Snake, and Comic Book Guy go with you guys?

Me: You all sure can and your timing couldn't be better. We're going to the land of Forina in Iceland to the Millennium Festival. We're heading there to see a rare event that comes around once every 1,000 years. We're going to see the Millennium Comet.

Comic Book Guy: Ooh! That must be interesting.

Me: It is. Max knows this event too. Because we're also going to meet the legendary Pokemon of Wishes, Jirachi.

Nico: Cool! I've always wanted to see and meet Jirachi.

May: It will be so awesome to see Jirachi again.

Max: You said it sis!

Lola: This is gonna be so cool!

Me: Lets head out!

We were off to Forina in Iceland.

---

FORINA, ICELAND

---

We arrived in Forina that night and it was beautiful.

We were at the Millennium Comet Festival and it was packed with people.

Teen Titans Lightning: A lot of people are here.

Me: It's a big honor to be here.

May: Boy there's more people here than when we were here the last time.

Laney: Wow! This is gonna be so cool!

Gloria Markov: And it will be so cool to see a comet like this.

Me: And we won't see a comet like this again for 1,000 years.

Nico: Yep and we'll be here when that time comes.

Lola: We sure will.

Brock: You guys are gonna love seeing the comet. It will be an amazing event.

Jimbo: Kearney, can you get some popcorn for us?

Kearney: You got it.

Dolph: And some ice cream too if possible.

Kearney: Okay.

He went and got the snacks.

Me: Look guys!

We looked up at the sky and the clouds were splitting away and we saw THE MILLENNIUM COMET!

Me: There it is!

Brock: The Millennium Comet! Right on schedule!

Me: Wow! It's beautiful!

Nico: Yeah.

May: Just as beautiful as when we saw it the last time.

Varie: It sure is beautiful.

Me: And we won't be seeing it again for 1,000 years after 7 days.

Laney: Wow!

Lola: It's amazing!

Lori: This is literally an amazing sight!

Gloria Markov: Next to seeing Comet Kohoutek.

Tara: Yeah.

Nico: What comet has the longest orbital period?

Nicole: That's an easy one. Comet Hyakutake. That one has an orbital period of 250,000 years.

Twilight Sparkle: Whoa! That must be one long comet.

Me: Yep and that one first appeared in January of 1996 and we will never see that comet again on Earth.

Lola: Wow!

Lucy Loud: We'll be long gone by then.

Lana: Yeah.

Thorax: Wait. What's that ball of light?

We saw a ball of light coming out of the comet.

Me: Hmm.

I looked at it closer and saw that it was a ball of energy and it was coming RIGHT AT US!

Me: It's coming right at us! DIVE ASIDE!

We dove away and it crashed into the ground and we looked at it and out of it came the legendary Pokemon of Wishes, JIRACHI!

Me: WHOA! Is that Jirachi?

Max: It sure is.

He woke up and saw us and he saw Max.

Jirachi: Max!

Max: Jirachi!

They hugged in what felt like 1,000 years.

Max: I've missed you Jirachi.

Jirachi: I've missed you too.

Manaphy: (to Jirachi) Hi! I'm Manaphy, May's daughter. And this is my boyfriend, Poromon!

Poromon: Hello.

Jirachi: Pleasure to meet you and May it's great to see you again.

May: Same to you Jirachi. Feels like its been 1,000 years.

Jirachi: No kidding. And who is this with you?

May: This is my awesome husband Nico.

Nico: Hello. I was told so much about you.

Jirachi: Wow! It's a pleasure to meet you and congratulations on your marriage.

Me: Jirachi it's awesome meeting you. We heard so much about you.

Jirachi: Same to you J.D. I love all your adventures and I was told so much about them.

Me: How can that be?

Jirachi: The universe tells me everything about them.

Me: Wow.

Eddy: If you can grant any wish, then-

Double D: Eddy, I don't think wishing for Brody and his team to show up here is a good idea.

Eddy: Why not?

Skinner: I don't know who's inhabiting the Ninja Steel Rangers right now. But Jirachi might accidentally bring them here, putting you right in their crosshairs.

Muscle Man: Hey, Jirachi. You know who else likes granting wishes? My Mom!

Jirachi: I don't get it.

Lola: (laughs) Don't worry, Jirachi. You get used to those jokes.

Me: Yeah we get a good laugh out of all of them and they are funny.

Mordecai: Yeah but we love them.

Rigby: Yep.

Me: I know who is inhabiting them. It's the Gruesome Grunts from the Ninja Steel Halloween Special. Eddy REALLY pissed them off by calling them lamer than the Amoeba Boys.

Luan: (Scolding) EDDY!

Eddy: Sorry.

Me: But let us handle it Seymour.

Skinner: Okay.

Me: Don't worry guys. Nightcrawler is gonna find the bodies of the Gruesome Grunts that are inhabited by the Ninja Steel Rangers. Until then if they wake up play along with it until the time comes.

Nico: Right.

Jirachi: Sounds like they are a problem.

Me: You could say that but we have a lot of fun with the Power Rangers enemies. But we also have great adventures every time with them.

Max: We sure do.

We heard music.

Me: Lets go check out where that music is coming from.

We went to check it out and saw BUTLER and DIANE!

---

Butler and Diane grew up together, and he would often perform magic tricks for her even when they were children. During this time, he first acquired the stage name "The Great Butler" based on something Diane said to him when he performed the trick of making many Butterfree appear. By the present day, Diane became his girlfriend and performed with him in his traveling magic show.

Butler

At some point in the past, Butler became involved with Team Magma as a Scientist. He developed a machine that he intended to use to recreate Groudon using a fossilized remnant he had obtained, but when he activated the device for the first time before the Team Magma council, it malfunctioned and exploded. This failure earned Butler scorn from the leadership of Team Magma and led to his dismissal from the organization. Enraged, he collected the fossilized Groudon remnant and swore he would get his revenge. He and Diane set out on a search for an energy source powerful enough to sustain the recreation, ultimately leading them to discover Jirachi's crystal cocoon in Forina.

When Ash, Brock, May, and Max arrived at the site of the Millennium Festival, they saw Butler and Diane exit their truck and set up the tent for his show. The next day they obtained a poster promoting his performance and decided to attend. During the show, Diane presented Jirachi's cocoon to the audience as part of her entrance. Max heard Jirachi's voice calling to him and ran up on the stage to investigate, and Ash followed in an attempt to bring Max back to his seat. Improvising, Butler enlisted them as volunteers for a disappearing-act trick using a special box and his Dusclops. After the show, Butler explained Jirachi's mythology and gave Max the cocoon, telling him that Jirachi could only awaken if it had a friend while the Millennium Comet was visible in the sky. Jirachi awoke shortly afterward, but when Diane informed Butler of this, he began preparing to execute his plan for revenge on Team Magma.

Over the next few days, Max and Jirachi bonded while the group took over Team Rocket's role as the clowns assisting Butler during his magic show. An Absol from Forina attacked the tent in search of Jirachi, but Butler captured it in a trapdoor cage and put it to sleep with his Kirlia's Hypnosis. The presence of Absol, a Pokémon who only appears before a terrible disaster, led Diane to fear what would happen if Butler went ahead with his plan, but she could not convince him to stop. After collecting the sleeping Jirachi and placing it in his rebuilt machine, Butler recalled his failure and firing from Team Magma before activating the device. When he forced Jirachi to absorb the Millennium Comet's energy using Dusclops's Psychic, the machine was unable to process it despite being upgraded and exploded once more. Butler, however, considered this failure a step forward as he merely needed to understand how to harness the Millenium Comet's energy, having witnessed its incredible power. Again, Diane begged him to stop, but he rejected her pleas. When Diane subsequently took Ash, his friends and Jirachi and escaped to head back to Forina, Butler sent his Mightyena to place a tracker on their bus. Understanding where they were going, Butler mused that he had thought Diane would understand his motivations as he activated machinery hidden in the back of his truck.

Several days later, Diane and Ash's group arrived in Forina, guided by Absol to the place where Jirachi would return to its thousand-year sleep. Butler anticipated this and traveled there to wait for them, setting up his machines and traps to ambush his opponents with. Just as Jirachi was about to go back to sleep, Butler struck, trapping Diane and Ash's group in an energy sphere while pulling Jirachi up to the platform where he had prepared the final version of his invention. This time, he was able to harness the energy of the Millenium Comet, and the machine began to draw an outline of Groudon in the earth below. A Flygon living in Forina helped free Butler's opponents from his trap and brought Ash and Max up to his platform, prompting him to send out his Salamence to repel them. The two Dragon Pokémon engaged in an aerial battle, pursuing each other around the hills of Forina. Ash and Max managed to reach Butler's machine and free Jirachi, but it was already too late; the shape of Groudon was complete, and what appeared to be the legendary Pokémon had begun to rise from the earth, much to Butler's pleasure. His moment of victory did not last long, however, as the creature was not an actual Groudon but a manifestation of pure evil that merely resembled Groudon known as Meta Groudon.

The Meta Groudon immediately started absorbing energy from the land around it, killing off all the plant life nearby, then sprouted tentacles to absorb the Pokémon of Forina and steal their energy as well. Horrified by this turn of events, Butler landed near the others and was nearly engulfed by one of Meta Groudon's tentacles after getting off Salamence's back. Diane sacrificed herself to save him, and her apparent demise sent Butler into a fury against the abomination he had created. He, Ash and Max worked to attack Meta Groudon with the respective help of Salamence and Flygon.

After a short time, Butler realized what could be done to stop Meta Groudon and asked Ash and Max for help in using his machine and Jirachi to reabsorb the energy forming Meta Groudon's body. Though Ash and Max hesitated to trust him, Jirachi came to Butler's defense, saying that he was now acting out of his love for Diane.

Ash and Max took Flygon to distract Meta Groudon while Butler rode Salamence back to the platform and began reversing the machine's settings. As he tried to reverse the Meta Groudon fossil, however, the platform shifted and he dropped it. Ash and Max recovered the fossil and returned it to him, and Jirachi willingly went back into the mechanism so the plan could be enacted. Just before Butler could throw the switch to start the process, he slipped and nearly fell off the side of the platform due to its shifting downward again. Flygon and Salamence tried one last time to distract Meta Groudon, but they were absorbed as well. This did, however, buy enough time for Ash to make it to the switch and activate the machine. Driven out of control by Jirachi absorbing its energy, Meta Groudon attacked the platform with all of its tentacles, but Butler threw himself in the way to protect Jirachi, resigning himself to his fate as it meant he could once again be with Diane.

Shortly afterwards, Jirachi destroyed Meta Groudon using Doom Desire, reviving all who had been absorbed by it. Butler and Diane reappeared near each other, and he rushed to her and embraced her in joy. The pair then watched as Max and his friends bade Jirachi farewell and sang to it as it returned to its slumber. The next day, Butler told the group that he had realized what was truly important and would be staying with Diane in Forina, but offered to bring them back to the town in their bus first.

Diane

Diane has been friends with Butler since the two of them were children. She was the one who originally gave him the title "The Great Butler" after he performed magic tricks for her personally. She later became his assistant in his magic shows, but she wasn't supportive of him giving up his career to become a scientist for Team Magma. She noticed her lifelong friend being consumed by the urge to get revenge on Team Magma, and yearned for things to be like the way they were. After Butler's failed presentation to create a "living, breathing" Groudon Fossil, she traveled to Forina with Butler and was present when he found Jirachi in its crystallized cocoon. Afterwards, the pair continued their magic shows, and performed at the Millennium Festival.

She first met Ash, May, Max, and Brock, when Max rushed onto the stage after hearing a voice coming from Jirachi's cocoon. She and Butler decided Max should hold on to the cocoon to see if being Max's friend will awaken Jirachi. This proved to be successful as the celestial Pokémon sleepily awakened from its thousand-year slumber. The next night, once Ash and his friends had gone to sleep, she reluctantly assisted Butler in kidnapping Jirachi and setting it up as the power source for Butler's experiment to resurrect Groudon. However, the plan backfired when the group woke up to find Jirachi missing, and witnessed Butler's selfish deed. Having had enough, Diane betrayed Butler and drove off with Jirachi and the group, but not before a tracking device was placed on the trailer. Diane then explained the entire situation to the group and Jirachi's potential energy. She then agreed to take them all to Forina to ensure Jirachi is safely back home.

When they finally arrived at Forina, they were caught by Butler, who recaptured Jirachi and used it to create a Groudon. However, it turned out to be a flawed manifestation of pure evil known as Meta Groudon and started absorbing energy from the earth. She was among those swallowed right in front of Butler, but not before confessing her love to Butler, who was overcome with grief. Eventually, Ash, Max, and Jirachi worked together to destroy the Meta Groudon, and afterwards, she, along with those consumed by the beast, was revitalized. She and a reformed Butler then witnessed Ash and his friends saying their goodbyes to Jirachi. The next day, they informed them that they have decided to start a new life together in Forina.

She and Butler made a cameo during the ending credits of Lucario and the Mystery of Mew. She later briefly reappeared in a montage in The Rise of Darkrai, which chronicled the preceding nine movies.

---

Max: Wow! Diane and Butler!

Me: Wasn't Butler a former member of Team Magma?

Ash: He was.

Me: It's good that Butler left Team Magma before we killed them.

Nico: Thank goodness.

Lola: Hey what's that over there?

We turned and we saw what looked like a Groudon. But it wasn't. It was really A FAKE GROUDON!

---

False Groudon is the final antagonist in the sixth Pokémon film Jirachi: Wish Maker . It is a malevolent clone of the real Groudon unwittingly created by Butler.

Its vocal sound effects were provided by Katsuyuki Konishi, who also played Rayquaza in Pokémon: Destiny Deoxys and Super Smash Bros. Brawl .

After Butler was exiled from Team Magma following the failure in creating a Groudon from a fossilized remnant, he used Jurachi's power from the Millennium Comet to bring the fossil back to life, believing he could impress Maxie enough to rejoin Team Magma. However, instead of creating Groudon itself, an evil monster resembling Groudon came to life. It destroyed plants and ate people and Pokémon by absorbing them into itself through its tentacles. It went completely berserk and consumed everything in its path, but it met its end when Jirachi used Doom Desire to obliterate the clone and free the consumed Pokémon and people so that they will not die. Once it was eventually defeated by Jirachi, everything went back to normal.

---

Chompy Mage: Is that a Groudon?

May: It's the fake one that we fought before!

Maria: Why is it sneaking around? Usually, it causes destruction wherever it goes.

Nico: I don't know. But we can't fight it right now. Let's get a picture of it while we still can.

Me: Okay.

We went after it and got close and we got a photo of it and just as we took a picture it vanished.

Laney: It vanished.

Me: But I did snag a photo of it.

The picture came out and we saw that it was covered in ugly purple spots.

Nico: It's infected by the Aparoids.

Eli: Those Aparoids have no respect for Pokemon.

Fox: They don't have respect for anything Eli.

Me: No they don't. But you guys encountered this imposter Groudon before?

Ash: We sure have.

Max: And it was horrible.

Me: What happened?

They told us everything that happened and we were horrified.

Me: Whoa! Not good. We better have a talk with Butler about it.

We went to talk with him.

Snake: Are you Butler?

Butler: None other. Why

Snake: (frowns) Dude, we need to talk.

Me: Snake lets calm down.

Butler: Team Loud Phoenix Storm it's an honor to meet you!

Me: Pleasure is ours.

Diane: It's an honor. Ash, May, Max and Brock it's great to see you all again.

Ash: You too Diane.

Pikachu: Pikachu!

Max saw wedding rings on them.

Max: Wow! You and Butler officially tied the knot.

Diane: We sure did.

Me: Congratulations are in order then.

Butler: Thanks.

Diane: I see you all have Team Rocket with you all.

Me: They are not with Team Rocket anymore.

Jessie: We got fired from Team Rocket.

Me: Interesting story behind that.

Fat Tony: Do you think this is funny?

Butler: Well, I do find your accents a little hilarious.

Legs: Well, Mr. Funny Man, is this how you get your sick kicks?!

Legs showed Butler a picture of the Aparoid Groudon.

Butler: OH MY GOODNESS!

Lily: I remember SpongeBob telling me about Plankton and Nat saying the exact same thing when Squidward was behind the grill!

Nico: That's funny!

Squidward: Yeah it wasn't my best work.

Nico: Look, Butler, I don't know if you're planning anything or not. But if I find out that you brought back that fake Groudon to be infected by Aparoids…

Lynn: Nico, I know this might seem hypocritical of me to say but we should really calm down.

Ransik: (ignores Lynn) Let's just say that today might be the first time in a while that Nicole's used the Book of Vile Darkness.

Lori: (to Nicole) Actually, Ransik literally has a point. We've been so used to sending certain villains to the Warp that you haven't used the Book of Vile Darkness in a long time.

Nicole: No we haven't.

Me: All right everyone stand down! This is not Butler's work this time. Sure he might have done this in the past but he's not part of Team Magma anymore. And Butler you know that all of Team Magma is all dead right?

Butler: No I was never told about all that.

Me: Well Team Magma is all dead and you are looking at their killers.

Butler: Whoa! That's great news!

Me: It sure is. And so is Team Aqua.

Jirachi: J.D. and Butler are right. I know this isn't Butler's handywork. This is the work of the Aparoids and a Number Card that you all know.

We gasped.

Me: So a Number and the Aparoids are both behind it.

Eli: Jirachi is right. I sense it.

Ets: Not good guys.

Me: We're gonna be in for a deadly fight like before. Ash how did you all defeat this Fake Groudon before?

Ash: Max wished for it to be destroyed so that everyone and everything can be returned to normal.

Me: Whoa.

Butler: I remember that. That was intense.

Lynn: Wow.

Lola: It's a good thing J.D. calmed everyone down just now.

James (Pokemon): Why do you say that?

Lola pointed at two nearby kids. It took us a few seconds to put two and two together.

Meowth: (sweatdrops) Um… oops?

Butler: Oh these are our kids. Meet Benny and Melissa.

Melissa: Hello.

Benny: You guys are our heroes!

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you both.

May: Way to go guys.

Nico: Congratulations.

Butler: Thanks.

Me: Sign your shirts for you?

Benny: You bet!

Melissa: Yeah!

I fired a beam of light and signed my name and put a phoenix symbol on them.

Melissa: Cool!

Rich Texan: Sorry about threatening you earlier.

Butler: It's alright. The fake Groudon returning is a surprise to me too. You had every right to be suspicious of me.

Me: Yeah we have to be vigilant in the face of adversity and danger.

Diane: Good point.

Me: But we'll gladly beat this fake Groudon for you and seal it away into the Book of Vile Darkness for you.

Butler: Awesome!

Jirachi: Lets do it!

Sophie Necturn: And I can hold off this Groudon monstrosity for you all while everyone has the usual battles.

Butler: How do you plan to do that?

Sophie Necturn: I have the power to turn into a Groudon myself.

Me: It's a really strange story but after we destroyed all the major Pokemon Villain teams we still have a lot of their mess to clean up. One of those messes involves a bunch of people that were turned into Pokemon legendary and common by having them gene-slammed. Their bodies were spliced with the DNA of Pokemon and they were turned into that Pokemon.

Carolyn Hope: Yeah it's a crazy story.

Me: You'll have to see it to believe it.

Butler: Oh man.

Diane: That is nuts.

Me: It sure is. Lets go find the Fake Groudon and tear it apart.

Nico: Right!

We went deep into the canyon and we were looking for the Fake Groudon.

Me: It's in this canyon. I can feel it.

We heard a rumbling noise.

May: There's no way I'm getting sucked into that thing again!

Sunny Tennyson: Let's not jump to conclusions. Maybe it's another big Pokemon at the moment. Like an Ursaring or a Tyranitar.

Me: I don't think so! Look!

We saw the Fake Groudon coming at us from behind a cliff!

Ets: Take this you Legendary Pokemon Imposter! TECH STYLE NINJA ART: FLAMING GEAR SHOWER!

He fired a massive shower of gears that were on fire and they hit the Fake Groudon and smashed it all over.

Me: Normally we aren't supposed to kill Pokemon but you are NOT a Pokemon! KAAAAAAAA MEEEEEEEEE HAAAAAAAAA MEEEEEEEEEE HAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA!

I fired a powerful Rainbow Kamehameha Blast and it smashed into the Fake Groudon and sent it flying and smashed it into a mountain!

CRAAAAAAAAAASSSSSSHHHHH!

Wiggum: (scared) Guys, if I die here, can one of you give Ralph my gun?

Maria: Only if he gets to use it!

Me: Lets power up and bring this abomination of Pokemon nature down!

I went Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix-Harmony 500,000,000 and ready for action!

Me: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice) You are a fraudulent Legendary Pokemon and will be dealt with like one!

I fired energy blasts at it and they hit the Fake Groudon all over and exploded with incredible power and more.

Lincoln fired waves of lightning and electrocuted it all over.

Nico: Take this! NUOVA STAR!

The 4-Star Dragonball on his bracelet lit up and he fired a ball of fire and it hit the Fake Groudon and exploded into a huge pillar of intense fire.

The Aparoid Groudon tried to suck in Slash Man with its tentacles. But it then roared in pain as the tentacle let go of Slash Man.

Butler: How did you not get sucked in?

Slash Man: Guess it doesn't like eating robots!

Me: It doesn't like inorganic creatures!

Eli blasted the tentacles off with Force Lightning!

Lola fired waves of fire and burned it all over.

Lola: Take that!

Comic Book Guy: Okay, I'm just going to say it right now. This is the worst! Groudon! Ever!

Me: It sure is!

Mewtwo: I may have been cloned from Mew but I would not welcome this atrocity into my kind!

Blackfire: I wouldn't either!

Nico: Yeah!

Lana: This monster must be destroyed!

Sophie Necturn: I couldn't agree more!

Sophie growled and then turned into a Groudon! She roared ferociously and the Fake Groudon roared and they went at each other and fought furiously!

Sophie fired a blast of energy from her mouth and it hit the Fake Groudon and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Now do you see what I mean Butler?

Butler: Wow! That's amazing!

Me: But it was REALLY playing with fire.

Eli: Better call the power of Kaiju!

Eli called forth Godzilla, Mothra 2019, King Ghidorah, Space Godzilla, Destoroyah, Rodan and Super MechaGodzilla!

Godzilla blasted it with his atomic ray, Mothra 2019 blasted it with rainbow lasers, King Ghidorah blasted it all over with Gravity Beams, Space Godzilla blasted it with his corona ray, Destoroyah blasted it with a Micro-Oxygen Ray, Rodan fired a Fire Ray and Super MechaGodzilla fired a rainbow ray from its mouth. Massive fiery explosions blasted the Fake Groudon all over.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOMMMM!

Me: Take that!

But then Brain Freezer, Manboy, Diabolico, Riddler, Zexion, The Toiletnator, Chalmers and See-More appeared. But they weren't the only ones. They had Loki, Hydrax, Evilseed, Aqueduct and Beast Man then appeared and with them were their newest members: THE SECRET SNAKE CLUB!

---

The Secret Snake Club is a Role Playing Group at Endsville Elementary. There are three members, all who are nerdy boys. The members codenames are " Wiggly "(Willy), " Viper "(Jerome), and " King Cobra "(Cory). They meet in Viper's basement, which is also his grandmother's bedroom. They wear long red robes. It also seems that they have poor personal hygiene.

Each member of the Secret Snake Club has a " level ", as they are RPG fans, with Wiggly claiming their highest level in their club on account of the fact that he alone owns a pet snake. Because they like RPGs so much, they have been shown to throw crayons and crumpled-up balls of paper at each other during arguments, shouting " Fireball " and " Lightning bolt ". Their main goal is to summon snakes to eat all the cool kids in the world, so nerds could rule.

'Wiggly' is voiced by Tom Kenny while both 'Viper' and 'King Cobra' were voiced by Billy West.

---

Me: Brain Freezer, Manboy, Diabolico, Riddler, Zexion, The Toiletnator, Chalmers, See-More, Loki, Hydrax, Evilseed, Aqueduct and Beast Man? Wow! Lots of you this time.

Zexion: Yeah we wanted to have a lot of us have some fun.

Beast Man: Yeah it's cool.

Loki: And we can also see the comet for the first time.

Brain Freezer: (to Aylene) Sorry we couldn't go to the Festival together, Aylene.

Aylene: Oh, that's alright.

Man Boy: We still loved watching the comet anyway.

Diabolico: (sees the fake Groudon) That monster is just a mindless imitation of a real Pokemon.

Riddler: It's no difficult riddle how the Aparoids infected it so easily.

Me: And brought it back after it was destroyed the last time.

Jirachi: Yeah.

Me: But it was horrible that it was even made before.

Laney: It was horrible.

Ino: Yeah and I see you also have a bunch of new members.

Wiggly: Yep. We are The Secret Snake Club! (Hiss)

Anko: My kind of club.

King Cobra: We chose you as our archenemy Anko.

Viper: And it will be an honor.

Anko: Looks like you and I are gonna get along just fine.

Me: Mandy weren't they a club of snake worshipers from your school?

Mandy: As a matter of fact yes. They are nerd defenders that hate bullies and worship snakes.

Me: Wow.

Nico: I like snakes.

Anko: And I use snakes in battle myself.

Lucy (Pokemon): Me too.

The Gruesome Grunts woke up.

The Gruesome Grunts in the Ninja Steel Rangers' bodies angrily approached Eddy with the intention to murder him when Ed and Iron Boy got in front of them.

Plasmora (in Sarah's body): Stand aside, you two!

Ed: There's no way you're getting to Eddy!

Before Ed could turn into Edzilla, Plasmora (in Sarah's body) grabbed him and tossed him at Iron Boy, knocking them down. But this left her open as Eddy got out his blaster and shot her in the shoulder.

Eddy: I'm not going down so easily!

Me: Back off Gruesome Grunts! Plasmora you can drop the act now!

Plasmora: So you know it was us all along!?

Me: That's right Plasmora and I remember you as well. You switched bodies with the Ninja Steel Rangers on Halloween and they were in your original bodies.

Shelldax: Impressive that you know us.

Jabberon: You never missed an episode like you said.

Fangore: You have a good set of info on you.

Me: Yep.

?: That is impressive.

A glowing figure came out and it was THE STAR CREATURE!

Qin: Oh man! The Star Creature!

Twilight Sparkle: Wow! I like this monster.

Qin: He was really Mr. Greenfield who was trying to steal codes from Star Laboratory with his own telescope. He was busted and sentenced to 25 to 50 years. He got life afterwards by the F.B.I.

Twilight Sparkle: Whoa!

Me: Yeah. But this is gonna be good. Lets get it on!

Sarah (In Plasmora's Body): Not without us you don't!

We saw the Ninja Steel Rangers in the Gruesome Grunt's Bodies.

Me: Guys is that you?

Brody (In Versix's Body): Give us back our bodies!

Versix (In Brody's Body): NEVER! Not until we kill Eddy!

Me: Then I'll take your bodies back by force!

I fired an energy blast and it hit the Ninja Steel Rangers and the Gruesome Grunts and switched them back.

Me: You guys alright?

Brody: Yeah we're back to normal!

Sarah Thompson: But who shot me in the shoulder!? OW!

Eddy: Sorry!

Nico: They are back to normal.

Me: Lets get them!

We powered up and went at them.

---

Battle 1: Bloom, Sunset Shimmer, Fire Skylanders, Marinette, Adrien, Juleka, Stormy Weather, Ayla, Chloe, Nino, Chef Pepperjack and Dreamcatcher VS Brain Freezer

---

Brain Freezer was first.

Brain Freezer: (to Bloom) I may not have been with Aylene today. But I still enjoyed watching the comet.

Bloom: It sure is a beautiful comet. But after 7 days we're not gonna see it again for 1,000 years.

Sunset Shimmer: I've never seen a comet before. It's so amazing.

Eruptor: It sure is!

Sunburn: The way it streaks across the sky is amazing.

Marinette: It's one of the most beautiful and most romantic sights ever.

Adrien: You said it babe.

Juleka: Yeah it's so beautiful.

Stormy Weather: It sure is. And for centuries comets have been known throughout the years as harbingers of doom.

Ayla: That's what I've read about.

Chloe: Yeah.

Brain Freezer: That's crazy but thank goodness you're all right Chloe.

Chloe: Thanks.

Nino: It's awesome seeing a comet like this.

Chef Pepperjack: Ooowee! Yeah it is.

Dreamcatcher: It sure is.

Brain Freezer: It sure is. Lets do it!

Brain Freezer fired his ice ray and the group all dodged it and fired massive blasts of fire and elemental energy and smashed him down.

Bloom: All right!

Sunset Shimmer: That was awesome!

---

Battle 2: Flora, Fluttershy, Life Skylanders, Robin, Cyborg, Beast Boy, Raven, Starfire, Tara, Herald, Aqualad, Bumblebee, Speedy, Thunder and Lightning VS Manboy

---

Manboy was next.

Battle with the Evil Prince of Light

In the simulator, Eli was doing an awesome solo adventure where he helps Ellen Ripley rescue Newt and destroy the Xenomorph Hive on a colony on the planet Acheron. It was going to be a scary and epic adventure.

Eli was on a shuttle that was heading for the colony and lightning was flickering out of it as he knew something was going on.

Eli: Whoa! Looks like the colony is in trouble.

Ellen Ripley: It's gonna blow and we're gonna go get Newt.

Eli: And we will.

Ellen was loading up with a rifle, flamethrower, grenades, marking flares and a tracer. Eli was loading up with the same and he also had special Yautja Vision Contact Lenses in him that were like mine except they can see in the visions of the Yautja.

Bishop: Ripley?

Ellen Ripley: I don't want to hear about it Bishop. She's alive. There's still time.

Bishop: In 19 minutes this entire area is gonna be a cloud of vapor the size of Nebraska.

Eli: Then we have to hurry.

Ellen Ripley: Right. Hicks don't let him leave.

Hicks: We ain't going anywhere.

Eli: Lets get moving.

Ellen: Right. See you Hicks.

Hicks: Dwayne. It's Dwayne.

Ellen: Ellen.

Hicks: Don't be gone long Ellen.

Eli: We won't. Come on!

Eli and Ellen went to the Elevator as the alarm was sounding.

Computer: Attention. Emergency. All personnel must evacuate immediately. You now have 15 minutes to reach minimum safe distance. They got into the elevator and got ready.

Eli: Lets lock and load.

They were loading up and had grenades in vest belts, and a flamethrower and machine gun ready. The tracer was on Newt and it was on the gun.

Eli: Lets do it. (Activates Predator Vision)

His eyes glowed green with triangle target lenses. They got off at the 1st floor and searched for Newt.

Eli: She's getting close.

The beeping was getting faster.

Ellen Ripley: 22 meters East.

They went down stairs and followed the beeping as it was getting closer and faster.

Eli fired a wave of fire and Ellen lit another Marking Flare.

Then they saw the tracer.

Eli: She's not dead. I sense her.

Then they heard screaming and went to a wall and saw a Xenomorph Egg hatching.

Eli: Oh no you don't!

Eli fired machine gun blasts and Force Lightning blasts and destroyed the egg and Facehugger and then a Warrior Xenomorph came and Eli blasted it with a Force Lightning Ball and obliterated it.

Newt: Ripley! Ripley!

Eli and Ellen Ripley got her out of the bindings of the Xenomorphs. Ellen grabbed her and carried her.

Ellen Ripley: Grab on to me! Hold on!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

Massive fiery explosions rang out and lightning flashed all over as the whole facility was going up in flames.

Eli: Lets get outta here! We only got 10 minutes!

They went to a door and fiery explosions went off all over and fire blocked their escape path and they went down a hall and inadvertently wound up in a huge nest. They saw a huge oviroster laying eggs and it lead to the horrifying XENOMORPH QUEEN! It was the ugliest XENOMORPH EVER!

Eli: It's the Queen.

Ellen Ripley: Oh God.

It hissed as it was breathing. She moved her arms and saw them as her face came down and snarled ferociously at them.

Xenomorph Queen: (Telepathically) You humans always have been a huge problem for my kind and my children. That woman has been the primary cause of my races pain.

Eli: But your race wants to destroy everything in the entire galaxy and the universe. We did nothing to deserve such a horrible way of life.

Xenomorph Queen: Our way of life is perfect. You will learn respect young one.

Ellen Ripley: Who are you talking to?

Eli: The Queen. She's speaking to me telepathically.

Newt: That's interesting.

Xenomorph Queen: You are indeed correct. We communicate on a telepathic level. You have come here to kill me and my children.

Eli: Why are you doing this? So you can replace all life in the universe with only your kind?

Xenomorph Queen: That is right and we are proud of it. We want to replace all life in the universe with our kind as the superior species in the universe.

Eli: That's madness! You're evil in all forms.

They backed away slowly and then as a bunch of eggs hatch and then Eli and Ripley blasted them all over with fire and lightning and incinerated them all over the place and blasted them apart. The Queen screeched as her children were burning all over and a bunch of warriors came and Eli and Ripley blasted them all over with fire and bullets and blew many of the eggs apart. They fired grenades and blew the Queen's Oviroster apart and Eli fired Force Lightning blasts and blew the Queen apart all over.

Newt: Lets go!

Eli: Right!

Eli sensed more Xenomorphs behind him and blasted them.

Eli: Ellen time to go! We got 5 minutes!

Ellen and Eli threw their grenades and they all exploded all over and blew the nest apart. They ran fast as massive fiery explosions were blasting the place apart.

Computer: ATTENTION! EMERGENCY! ALL PERSONNEL MUST EVACUATE IMMEDIATELY! YOU NOW HAVE 2 MINUTES TO REACH MINIMUM SAFE DISTANCE!

Eli: This place is going up!

Newt: Geez!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMMM!

Then the ship appeared behind them and they got on through the docking hatch and got in.

Ellen Ripley: PUNCH IT BISHOP!

They got out of there fast and cleared the sky just as the entire colony exploded in a massive thermonuclear explosion!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A huge mushroom cloud was seen as they left the planet.

Eli: Whoa! That was a close one!

Ellen Ripley: Yeah. Thank you Eli.

Newt: You are a brave boy.

Eli: I get that a lot.

The simulation ended and Eli came out.

We cheered wildly for him

Nico: YEAH!

Me: Way to go Eli!

Eli: Thanks guys.

Nunnally: That was awesome!

Ellen Ripley: That was just as epic as I remember.

Newt: No kidding.

Lola: But that was scary facing the Xenomorphs.

Lana: Yeah it was.

Later it was time for breakfast.

We were having bowls of a new cereal called Sugar Frosted Blasto Bits.

Me: Mmm! This cereal is good.

Tussle Sprout shook a box and heard something in it.

Tussle Sprout: (to Sheldon) Hey, Sheldon. Something seems to be in the cereal. What do you say you and I look inside? (Sheldon gives him a look) Oh, c'mon! You and I are small enough to fit in the cereal box.

They dove in and looked around. But then they found something.

Tussle Sprout: Hey look! It looks like a ring!

Me: Hmm lets see.

I looked at the ring and it was actually a decoder ring.

Me: It's a decoder ring!

Nicole: Cool!

Nico: Wonder what it's for.

Me: Hmm.

I put the ring on and it glowed.

Me: Lets see what the message on the back of the box says.

I had it fire a laser and it decoded the message and then a holographic image appeared.

On a pink window was a big mysterious creature with a big mouth and large lips.

Creature: (Sing Song) I have a thecret message for he who bares the ring!

Me: Whoa! A secret message.

Creature: High atop of Gutterball Hill there is a thecret cave where the ghosts of canaries, cockatoos, kiwis and toucans can be seen flying in and out. Deep inside the cave there lies a bottomless shaft. He who looks into the depths of the abyss and does not flinch shall see the secret of the universe.

Me: Whoa! This is gonna be interesting.

Nico: Wow! An adventure to see the secret of the universe?

Nicole: Wow! That sounds like a cool adventure.

Creature: Run. Don't walk to Gutterball Hill. The Secret of the Universe awaits you.

The message clicked off.

Me: This is gonna be fun!

Nico: Lets go find the secret.

Cera: You know this might be a trap, right?

Maria: What choice do we have?

Me: Besides it will be cool to see what's in there at Gutterball Hill.

We went out the door and we saw numerous kids walking.

Me: Whoa! Looks like we're not the only ones that want to see the secret of the universe.

Irwin: Hey guys! Hey Mandy looking good.

Me: You guys all heading to Gutterball Hill too?

Irwin: We sure are yo.

Me: Want to come with us Irwin?

Irwin: You bet I do!

But then Mindy came on a scooter and she still had that Raincloud over her head.

Francesca: Well nice to know my curse is working.

Brittney: Uh I casted that curse Francesca.

Francesca: Sorry.

Mindy: Hey losers. I'm gonna be the first up Gutterball Hill to see the Secret of The Universe and I won't tell the secret to any losers. Why am I telling you? You're losers.

Brittney: You are the worst Loser, Mindy. You got that L on your forehead because you're the biggest Loser of them all.

BURN!

Eli: Yeah! (RASPBERRY)

Mindy growled.

Me: Lets fly there.

We were off to Gutterball Hill. We arrived at the abandoned mine of Gutterball Hill and just as the creature said, there were numerous ghosts of canaries, kiwis, toucans and cockatiels flying in and out of the mine.

Me: This is it.

I ripped the wooden boards off and we went in and it was dark.

Me: It sure is dark.

We saw the Bottomless Shaft.

Me: Whoa! That's a long way down.

Eli: It sure is. But I sense something down there.

Me: Looks like we're going down everyone.

We jumped and flew down.

Grim: (Jamaican Accent) OH THIS WON'T END WELL!

Mandy: Grim is there something you're not telling us?

Grim: Absolutely not! Nothing! Okay yes. You see, in my youth many eons ago, while I attended the High School of the Dead there was a winsome young ghoul who had a mad crush on me. Her name was Lubber.

---

It shows a young Grim and Lubber in High School and Lubber. Lubber was a worm ghoul and she had blond hair and a white bow and she had a huge mouth with green lips and she had a white shirt and blue plaid skirt.

Grim: (Narrating) She had large luscious lips.

Young Lubber: The better to kiss you with baby!

She kissed Young Grim all over with her big mouth and covered him in spit all over.

Young Grim: YUCK!

Grim: All the kids made fun of me because she followed me wherever I'd go.

Frog Ghoul: Hey Grim! Who's your shadow? (Laughs)

The ghouls laughed at him and Lubber went up to the Frog Ghoul and ate him in one bite and swallowed him whole. The Orange Ghoul ran screaming and Lubber used her long tongue and grabbed him and ate him whole too.

Lubber: BURRRPP!

But then a large and gargantuan size Lubber ate the entirety of the students in the school Student Body Cafeteria!

Grim: Soon she devoured them all! When the principal got the news she was beside herself!

The principal of the school got the news and was infuriated and she split and was now a two-headed Principal with four legs.

Two Headed Principal: That kind of behavior will not be tolerated young lady!

She zapped Lubber with lightning.

Grim: So she expelled Lubber to the bottom of the Bottomless Shaft where she would guard the secret of the universe forever. Or until the curse was broken whichever came first.

Lubber was banished to the bottom of the Bottomless Shaft for all eternity and forever cursed to guard the secret of the universe for all time.

Young Grim: Wow! What a break!

FLASHBACK ENDS

Grim: So now you know everything.

Me: Geez! Grim I know just how you feel. Back when I was in second grade a girl with down syndrome had a mad crush on me. Her name was Carianne Wray. (Shudder) That was a crazy time for me.

Mandy: Sick.

Nico: Yikes.

We saw a huge mouth from a worm creature and it was that of LUBBER! She ate the ghosts and us and then spit us out.

Lubber: Ugh! Grim? Oh I thought I tasted something familiar!

Grim: Hello Lubber. (Nervous Laugh)

Lubber: Grim sweetie baby! Oh where have you been for the last thousand years? (Grabs him and kisses him all over) MWUH MWUH MWUH MWUH MWUH MWUH MWUH!

Me: Wow! She's Lubber?

Nico: She's a big worm with a big mouth.

Bludgeon: It's nice to meet you, Lubber.

Lubber: You too Bludgeon! I am glad you're all here! I want to get out of here! I want to help people and see the world.

Nico: I don't know how to break the curse!

Lola: Yeah!

Lubber: I'm glad you're all here! I'm getting out of here! I'm making a break for it!

Grim: But you can't leave here Lubber. You're under a curse.

Lubber: I don't want to guard the stupid secret anymore! I want to join you guys and help you all.

Me: Can you show us the secret first? If I'm right I have a feeling that there's a huge catch.

Lubber: Sure J.D.

She got out of the hole and Mandy went up to it as a green light glowed in it.

Mindy then appeared as Mandy was about to look in.

Mindy: HOLD IT RIGHT THERE LOSER! If anybody is going to see the Secret of the Universe, it's going to be me! After all I'm much prettier and much more popular.

Trixie Tang: I can't believe I was like you.

Mandy moved and Mindy looked in and saw a dice that said I Was Only Kidding.

Mindy: "I was Only Kidding." WHAT KIND OF STUPID SECRET IS THAT!?

She then was pushed in and she came out glowing.

Mindy: Who pushed me? Somebody pushed me! Hey what's going on!? Let me outta here you losers!

Lubber: IT WORKED! The Curse is Lifted! (SINGSONG) I'M FREEEEEEE! (Clears throat) It is clearly stated in the curse that upon the day that the secret is seen by a human, the curse will be lifted and said human shall take your place as guardian of the secret forever.

Me: Sucks to be you Mindy!

Lubber: Here's a copy of the curse. You get the planned 401K. Toodleoo.

Mindy: Where are you going!? Come back here you worm! You're bird food when my daddy finds out!

Me: You've had this coming for a long time Mindy.

Mindy: Go ahead! Kill me! Add more blood on your hands, you losers!

Ironhide: (thinks for a moment) You know, I'm starting to wonder if you were ever truly worth it to begin with. Look at you. You used to be the most popular girl in Endsville. And now, you're just a stupid girl with an L on her forehead. You're nothing. Endsville hates you now. Mandy's become a much more better person than you. And normally, we'd just kill you, but we can't kill someone who has nothing left. The worst I can do is let you live with what you are: A perfect failure. Consider yourself lucky.

Me: Yeah and you aren't worth killing Mindy. You are just a sad little girl that thinks she's better than others because of having all the money in the world and has better conditions and good looks. Hope you like being the guardian here because you're going to be here till the end of time. But look on the bright side. At least the previous curse with that raincloud over your head is gone. But it was replaced with this new curse now.

Lola: YEAH! See ya round LOSER!

Eli pulled his pants down and Mooned Mindy!

We laughed at her.

Me: Lets get out of this dump.

We left and got out of the cave with Lubber with us.

Mindy: (From inside the cave) DON'T LEAVE ME HERE! I'M WARNING YOU! YOU ARE ALL LOSERS!

May: Maybe we should seal off the cave so Mindy doesn't get out.

Me: Good idea. Seeing a secret like that is not worth it.

I fired an energy blast and blew the cave apart and buried it.

Me: Good riddance to bad rubbish.

Aylene C.: Yeah that girl deserves it.

Mandy: Yep.

We left and Mindy was left to guard the secret of the entire universe for all eternity.

Irwin: Sorry that the secret of the universe was not what you thought.

Me: It's all right Irwin. But at least Endsville is now free of Mindy.

Lola: Yep.

Twilight Sparkle: That girl was a nightmare.

Diamond Tiara: I can't believe I was once like her.

Silver Spoon: Yeah what a bad seed. No offense Babs.

Babs: None taken.

Me: Shame there wasn't any gold in that mine.

Lori: Yeah.

---

We later were getting ready for our next mission.

Sword Man: So, who wants to check up on Shobu?

Me: We all do. We have more adventures with Shobu and friends.

Mandy: We sure do. Thanks for getting rid of Mindy for me guys.

Me: No problem.

Brittney: She is gonna have till the end of time to think about her crimes.

Laney: I hate that girl as much as I hate Flip.

Nico: Me too.

Lola: Yeah she was a menace!

Me: And we still have more members of P.L.O.O.P. to destroy.

Nico: Yep.

Chalmers, Brain Freezer, Man Boy, Toiletnator, Zexion, Riddler, See-More and Diabolico then appeared.

Chalmers: Can me, Brain Freezer, Man Boy, Toiletnator, Zexion, Riddler, See-More, and Diabolico go with you guys?

Me: You all sure can. We're going to Japan to see how Shobu and his friends and go after another member of P.L.O.O.P.

Man Boy: Awesome!

Zexion: We heard about what happened with that brat Mindy. She deserved it.

Brain Freezer: She sure did.

Me: Yep. Big time. All she did was drive everybody crazy. She claimed she was better than everyone else because she was prettier and popular.

Nico: Yeah she was like a kid version of Heather.

Lori: She literally disgusts me.

Me: Yep. And we buried her underground at Gutterball Hill.

Riddler: Good riddance.

Me: Yep. Lets head out to Japan.

We were off to Japan.

TOKYO, JAPAN

We arrived in Tokyo, Japan and we were walking through the park.

Me: He should be here somewhere.

We walked around and we saw Shobu and his friends relaxing.

Clown Man: Hey there, Shobu!

Shobu: Hey guys! Glad you're all here.

Mimi Tasogare: How have things been?

Me: Busier than normal.

Nico: Yeah but we're used to it.

Me: We came to help you guys take down another member of P.L.O.O.P.

Shobu: Awesome!

Rekuta: Yeah!

Sayuki: We need to get rid of those monsters!

Me: One at a time Sayuki.

Nico: Yep.

Mimi Tasogare: I heard you guys went after the secret of the universe this morning.

Maria: You could say that.

Shobu: Well, what's the secret?

Man Boy: Um, that's a little complicated to explain.

Me: Lets just say that it's the worst secret we've ever heard. But there was some good that came out of it.

Mandy: We are finally rid of that loser Mindy.

Mimi Tasogare: That orange hair girl that claims to be better than everyone else?

Me: Yep. She drove everyone crazy and called everyone losers.

Sayumi: She is a monster!

Me: Yep and we buried her underground forever.

Lubber: Good riddance. She deserved it.

Me: Hope she has a good 401K plan.

We laughed.

Top Man: How have you guys been since we last teamed up?

Shobu: Busier than ever!

Sayumi: We've been fighting P.L.O.O.P. since we faced them the first time and we have been beating them every time.

Me: Wow! You all have been doing good.

Shobu: Hey where's Billy?

Me: Oh that's a very complicated story for us.

We told them everything that was going on with Billy and all that with Professor Hardly.

They gasped in shock.

Shobu: Oh man! Sorry you guys kicked him out like that.

Me: It wasn't forever. But it was all part of Professor Hardly's plan to use him against us.

Nico: Yeah. But Billy went crazy and all that.

Laney: Billy may be a brainless monkey but he is funny and a true friend.

Riddler: Riddle me this: Which member of P.L.O.O.P. is next on the chopping block?

Me: According to my intel it's Prince Wilbur the Great.

I went over his history.

---

Prince Wilbur is a member of P.L.O.O.P. appearing in the Sacred Lands season of the Duel Masters Anime.

Anime

Shobu first encountered him in Nature Civilization Land he defeated Shobu the first time he dueled Shobu. Then later when Shobu mastered the nature civilization deck, he lost to him. He was responsible of sending an evil army of Bronze-Arm Tribe and Giant Insect army into the Nature Civilization Village. He was also pretending to be the gatekeeper of the Nature Civilization Village but he actually kidnapped the gatekeeper Master Pangaea, Flora, Rekuta with the help of Princess Pollyanna of Green Gables so the gate to the real world cannot be blocked and his army can go out to the real world.

In the final battle, he dueled against Mimi with the other P.L.O.O.P. leaders but lost to her in the end.

---

When I was done everyone was shocked.

Mimi Tasogare: Yeah I hate this guy.

Me: I think we hate him too.

Shobu: And we can find him in the Light Civilization.

Me: Something tells me he's going after the strongest Light Civilization monster.

Luan: Which is what?

Me: A powerful monster with 52,000 power called Trump Daitoryo.

Nico: Whoa! That is powerful! What does it look like?

Eli: Here's a picture.

He showed Nico a picture of it and it looked like a Playing Card King.

Nico: Whoa! He looks awesome and powerful!

Lola: Yeah!

Me: Lets go to Shobu's house so we can come up with a plan.

We did so. Later at Shobu's house we were talking.

Shobu: I heard you all went into battle recently.

Me: We sure did. It was the most epic war we've ever been in.

I went over everything that happened and it was awesome.

Mimi Tasogare: WHOA! That must've been really intense.

Me: It was. Probably one of the most devastating battles we've ever had.

Eli: But Equestria's major enemies have all been destroyed forever.

Sayumi: Good riddance to those dirtbags.

Cozy Glow: Yeah thank goodness.

There was a knock at the door.

Misfire: I'll get it.

Misfire opened the door… and saw a human sized Senatine Jade Tree there. Misfire immediately slammed the door.

Maria: Who was at the door?

Misfire: Just some girl scouts.

Me: Looked like a Senatine Jade Tree.

I opened the door and sure enough it was a Senatine Jade Tree.

Me: Wow! That one is one of my favorites.

Nico: It's a pretty one.

See-More fired a blast of energy from his eye at the Senatine Jade

Tree, destroying it.

See-More: Why the Hell was that doing here?!

Me: Must be one of P.L.O.O.P.'s plans to distract us while they search.

Nico: Well it's not gonna work.

Eli: I hate those guys.

Me: We all do.

Lola: We need to go now.

Me: Right! Lets head out. We're going to the Light Civilization.

We got ready and headed out to the mineshaft that lead us to the world of Duel Masters. More monsters then appeared.

G1 Thrust: Great! More of Wilbur's monsters in our path!

May: And they're all human sized.

Me: Soon to be dead monsters!

I blasted the monsters into oblivion and destroyed them.

Me: But they will not stop us.

Shobu: Yeah he will pay for his crimes.

We continued on and we went through the mineshaft and we went to the Light Civilization.

We arrived in the Light Civilization and it was incredible and beautiful.

---

The Light world is made up of midair colonies, rich with resources and sophisticated technology. Originally, it was a self-sustaining, self-sufficient society that managed to remain isolated and undisturbed by keeping the territory closed to outside communication and invasion. The Light world was the most peaceful, ideal place among all the civilizations.

Unfortunately, that peace was shattered when other civilizations lost their homelands and were forced to invade in order to survive. The Light civilization met this hostility by becoming increasingly involved in battles against those intruders. After watching their resources become rapidly depleted, they have since taken a more aggressive stance toward the outside world.

Light inhabitants make their homes above the clouds on a group of floating islands. Unfettered by gravity, the central city is surrounded by many small satellite colonies. All the structures are similarly oriented in a right-left or up-down symmetry and are built of alloys and energy fields.

The creatures of the Light civilization believe in order, conservatism, obedience, and eternity. They adhere to a strict hierarchy, with Light Bringers at the top of a highly developed system. Compared to the other civilizations, the population in the Light world is small, but the ability of each individual is significantly greater. Like their architecture, many creatures have shiny, symmetrical shapes, and hover in the air with their weapons close by.

Light creatures are often emotionless in the background story and simply follow orders to eradicate enemies or defend the civilizations. However, in Episode 1 due to the stance change of the game, they seemed to gain emotions for unknown reasons and speak emotionally like any other creature.

Dragon Saga

The Light Civilization is the first civilization that oppressed the fire civilization's domination. Their Leader is Everlast, Destiny King. When they first obtained the power of Draghearts, they fused their power with Light dragons and fused them with the Angel Commands, creating Angel Command Dragons.

However, Ariace, Dragon Edge, who was destroyed in an encounter with Gaiglen, was revived and started to doubt the "Justice" of the Light Civilization, and started to fall at heart.

After Everlast disappeared, the values of justice in the Light civilization began to fall. It was during this time that Aries found Joan Mizell, Revolution Spear, which claimed to dominate both justification and justice.

However, Everlast, who has been in a long meditation period, awakes and revives as Neverlast, Destiny Adoration. He aims to defeat The=Deadman, Dragon Edge for justice.

Due to Neverlast's revival, the light civilization is revived and back to position. Aries, saw this, united with Neverlast and eventually, the light civilization is united.

In order to defeat The=Deadman, the Water civilization requested the Light civilization to fight together. However, Neverlast refused, for he must defeat The true evil himself.

It was later known that Everrose and Everlast were friends and fought "Duel Masters" for the prosperity of the light civilization. However, suddenly, Everlast disappeared. However, in reality, Everlast was sealed by The=Deadman into a dragheart. Eventually, he was dragsolutioned. The person who dragsolutioned him was Everrose, his past companion. Then as he became Neverend, he never changes his destiny but his power is not enough alone. Then he realized that he must gather with other civilizations and each civilization gathered to fight The=Deadman.

After The=Deadman was defeated, Neverend departs with Heaven's Rosia and Heaven's Rosia said: "You will forever be my best friend". Neverend then said: "I will leave, but my friendship is eternal, and I will forever pursue justice." Then Heaven's Rosia enters the goal.

---

Me: Whoa! So this is the Light Civilization.

Nico: Wow! It's magnificent.

But then I saw a figure in one of the buildings and it was PRINCE HERBERT THE RUTHLESS!

---

Prince Herbert, the Ruthless is a member of P.L.O.O.P. appearing in the Sacred Lands season of the Duel Masters Anime.

Story line

He first appeared in the Fire Civilization Valley as the Gatekeeper to the Fire Civilization Land and encounter Shobu in a duel, he lost against Shobu. But before he ran away after losing he told Shobu to be ready for his boss Prince Maurice, the Merciless who is also the leader of the P.L.O.O.P army and also be prepared for the worst to see in Fire Civilization Land.

---

Me: Prince Herbert the Ruthless!

Herbert: Prepare for destruction, fools!

But just then, a Phantom Thief calling card hit the ground in front of him. If that wasn't strange enough, we heard noises that sounded like Morphers.

? (firing sfx- jazz): Lupinranger!

? (firing sfx- dramatic action music): Patranger!

Diabolico: (looks at the Rangers) Did any of you morph just now?

Devon: Don't look at us.

Troy: I haven't even touched a single Ranger Key yet.

Out came two groups of Rangers that we had never seen before in America and they were THE LUPINRANGERS AND PATRANGERS from Japan!

Kairi Yano: (SNAPS FINGERS) (Japanese Accent) LUPIN RED!

Touma: (SNAPS FINGERS) (Japanese Accent) LUPIN BLUE!

Umika: (SNAPS FINGERS) (Japanese Accent) LUPIN BLUE!

Noel: (French Accent) LUPIN X!

Lupinrangers: LUPINRANGERS - THIEVES OF JUSTICE!

Kairi Yano: Here's an Advanced Notice: We're taking your treasure!

Me: WHOA! Now I see where Dark Spicer based his line from!

Keiichiro: (Japanese Accent) PAT 1!

Sakuya: (Japanese Accent) PAT 2!

Tsukasa: Japanese Accent) PAT 3!

Patrangers: INTERDIMENSIONAL PROTECTORS OF JUSTICE - PATRANGER!

Keiichiro: BY THE POWER INFESTED OF THE GSPD WE'RE TAKING YOU DOWN BY FORCE!

Me: AWESOME! Now I see where Maxxor made that line!

Nico: Wow! The LupinRangers and PatRangers from Japan.

Kairi Yano: It's an honor to meet the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: (Bows) (Speaking Japanese) ルパンレンジャーとパトランジャーに会えて光栄です。(It's an honor to meet the Lupinrangers and Patrangers.)

Noel: You too J.D.

Herbert: The 7 of you will pay for intruding! I summon Smash Horn Q!

Smash Horn Q appeared.

Kairi Yano: (to Keiichiro) Ready, Mr. Hot-Blooded Policeman?

Keiichiro: You better believe it!

Me: Mind if I help you guys out?

Kairi Yano: Not at all.

Me: Leave this to me!

I used my superspeed and kicked Herbert down in the back and I swiped some jewels from him.

Me: Your fucking ass has been kicked. Kairi these belong to you. My advice would be to steal from criminals. Get more loot that way and there's no honor, no challenge and no fun stealing from ordinary people. And I'm not talking about the criminals you all faced.

Kairi Yano: Thanks.

I kicked Herbert in his face and sent him flying to Umiko.

Umiko kicked him all over and Sakuya blasted him all over the place and Kairi and Keiichiro smashed and pulverized Herbert brutally.

Kairi Yano: Lets merge!

Keiichiro: Yeah!

Umika: Do we really have to merge again?

Touma: If the police can do it often, so should we.

Jackpot Striker: You should really should use me more often.

Good Striker: Ready when you guys are!

Gyro Man (Good Striker lands in Keiichiro's hands while Jackpot Striker lands in Kairi Yano's hands): What's she talking about?

Nico: You'll see guys!

Lupinrangers: LUPIN FUSION!

Patrangers: PAT FUSION!

The Patrangers became one and they were now one ranger with red, green and pink armor and the Lupinrangers fused and they had Red, Blue and Yellow armor!

Me: OH WOW! That is so cool!

Laney: WOW! They all fused into one!

Goku: That's like a more easy version of the Fusion Technique!

Nico: I was just about to point that out Kakarot.

LupinTri: What the!? We're fused into one!

PatTri: It takes a while to get used to.

Me: You guys look awesome!

PatTri: We sure do.

LupinTri: Lets finish him!

Me: I just saw this one on TV from the newest Japanese Power Rangers Series. Lets see how he likes this.

I pulled out a sword and 5 disks into a blaster and charged up the sword.

Me: KIRAMAI CHARGE! KIRAMAI RUSH STREAM!

I fired a massive jeweled rainbow blast from the sword.

PatTri: ONE-SHOT STRIKE!

LupinTri: STEAL ONE STRIKE!

They fired powerful energy blasts and the blasts all hit Prince Herbert and slashed his hand off and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

He was down.

Ben: (sees Herbert's left hand on the floor) Well, I guess no one's giving him a hand at the moment.

Toiletnator: Are we gonna see you guys again?

Kairi Yano: You will later in the month. That's a promise!

Noel: We should be heading back our Earth. Kogure is probably wondering where we are.

Keiichiro: I agree. Commander Hilltop is probably wondering where we are as well.

Me: Thanks for helping us guys. We owe you one.

Umika: Think nothing of it.

Sakuya: It was fun.

I shook their hands.

Umika: And for good measure.

She went over to Herbert and grabbed him and threw him a super far distance!

Me: And for a mark of permanent insult!

I fired an energy blast and it hit Herbert as he landed into the ocean and it exploded. Blasting his arms and legs completely off!

Nico: Ooh! Ouch!

The Lupinrangers and Patrangers were gone after that.

Me: Wow! That was awesome seeing one of the Japanese Ranger Teams in action.

Laney: Yeah it sure was!

Lola: What year are the Lupinrangers & Patrangers from?

Nico: 2018 to 2019.

Me: So they are fairly brand new.

Marinette: They sure are and I loved how that Noel talked in French.

Chloe: Me too.

Nico: That was awesome!

Me: It sure was. Lets go after Prince Wilbur now.

Eli: He's over in the main building.

Me: Lets go.

We went in and saw him in a room and he was after a card.

Me: Hold it right there!

Wilbur: I thought Herbert was taking care of you fools!

Zexion: He's taking a little swim in the ocean. I don't know if he's dead or not but he's definitely not going to save you now.

Me: And he has been permanently disarmed and crippled.

Nico: Yeah and you are next!

Lola: Prepare to be dethroned!

I punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and in the back of the head. I punched him all over and smashed him all over and blood was dripping from his mouth and nose.

Luminous: As a Doom Raider of the Light element, me and my friends can't let you have that card!

Muscle Man: You know who else likes to get punched in the face?

Wilbur: What?

Muscle Man: MY MOM! (punches Wilbur in the face)

POW!

He sent Wilbur smashing into the podium where the Card was at and it flew off of it and landed into Nico's Handes!

Me: Nice one Muscle Man!

Lori: Yeah!

Nico: Looks like I can use the card.

Me: That's the strongest Light Civilization monster ever known.

Eli: It looks awesome!

Shobu: Way to go Nico!

Mimi Tasogare: Yeah!

May: It's perfect for you.

Wilbur: (To Nico) Give me that card now or I will kill you!

Nico: Come and take it you warmonger fucksack!

Flame Man: Nico, what are you waiting for? Summon the monster!

Nico: (nervously) Um… hold on a second! (telepathically) Shobu, you didn't give us instruction on how to summon Duel Master cards!

Shobu: (Telepathically to Nico) Just hold it up and say I summon Trump Daitoryu.

Nico: Got it! (Out loud) I SUMMON TRUMP DAITORYU!

He held up the card and in a massive flash of rainbow light came TRUMP DAITORYU! It was awesome!

Me: WHOA! Way to go Nico!

Eli: Incredible! Its power is epic!

Ets: Incredible!

Nico: WOW!

Me: SO AWESOME!

Brain Freezer: You're in big trouble now!

Nico: I don't want Trump Daitoryu to kill Wilbur just yet. No, I want him to play with him for a while.

Eli: And leave this to me Nico!

Eli unsheathed a powerful magic sword.

Eli: I haven't had my fun yet.

Wilbur: So you want a little sword play?

Eli: You bet I do! En garde!

They went at each other and clashed violently!

Me: Eli is gonna hold him off.

But then Titanium Titan, Chemistro, Pyro, Dirty Bubble, KGBeast, Goliath, Angel and Eris appeared.

Me: Titanium Titan, Chemistro, Pyro, Dirty Bubble, KGBeast, Goliath, Angel and Eris.

Chemistro: About time we got here.

Dirty Bubble: We had a few obstacles in our way.

Maria: Did you guys run into human sized version of Wilbur's monsters too?

Titanium Titan: We sure did!

Chemistro: But they were easy to take down.

Pyro: (sees Trump Daitoryu) Is that-?

May: Trump Daitoryu? Yes, it is.

Dirty Bubble: Who was the one who summoned it?

Nico: Me.

Me: Yep. Nico is gonna use it to blow Prince Wilbur the Fucklicker to smithereens.

Nico: After we have our fun with him.

Lola: Oh yeah! And it's gonna be curtains for him later on.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja! Und he has had it coming for a long time.

Pyro: Awesome!

?: It sure is.

A figure came out and it was BURNERTRON from episode 15 of Beast Morphers!

---

Burnertron is a candle-themed Robotron in Power Rangers Beast Morphers.

Burnertron was created by Roxy from a candle set outside of a café to help her fight Devon in Red Fury Mode before trying to give him a Fury Cell. However, Devon snatched it using his super speed and was able to recharge his armor so Burnertron joined Roxy in the attack. He and Roxy were thrashed by the more powerful Devon and Roxy teleported herself and Burnertron away. He later returned to Earth, along with Roxy, with two assignments, to get Devon to use the last Fury Cell to become evil and collect the final Beast Power Data using a Data Chip.

To this end, he, Roxy, and some Tronics attacked the city before four of the Rangers arrived and morphed but Roxy tried to give him a Fury Cell only for Devon to snatch it and power up but also turn evil. Seeing this, Roxy retreated on foot and Burnertron stopped them from going after her and fought them. They took him down with their Beast Blast attack but he was unfazed and seemed to flee whilst they watched Devon fight against the evil. However, they apparently tracked him to under an overpass and surprised him but he proved to be virtually impossible to defeat. He managed to take all three of them down with his lance just as Burnerdrone arrived but continued battle after the Racer Zord attacked it. He maintained the upper hand until Nate shot his lance out of his hand and they summoned their Striker Sabers at which point his head candle was put out by Nate and Steel using their Striker Beast Slash. With the monster critically weakened Zoey, Steel and Nate used their Beast-X Blaster and Striker Morphers to combine their Beast Blast and Striker Beast Blast finishers and destroy Burnertron for good. However, the data chip was still intact and Roxy later retrieved it.

---

Devon Daniels: Burnertron!

Burnertron: Been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were sent to fight Devon before he could use Red Fury Mode. You and Robo-Roxy got thrashed by him.

Nico: But that was also the last time we would see the Red Fury Cells or Red Fury Mode.

Me: Yep.

Burnertron: That's right. You both have sharp memories on you.

Me: We both never missed an episode. And we had an unexpected appearance by one of the new Japanese Ranger teams.

Pyro: Wow! We saw them too.

Chemistro: Yeah they were cool.

Varie: Lets go get some grub.

Sarah: What should we get for lunch?

Varie: I have just the restaurant in mind.

Rarity: Ooh what is it darling?

Varie took them to an awesome restaurant that had some of the most amazing made from scratch food ever and it was called Sashhouse A Go Go So and they had amazing food that was of Las Vegas Caliber.

Sunset Shimmer: OH WOW!

Lana: This is so delicious!

Lola: Yeah it is! I love the Chicken Benedict.

May: I love all this food.

Varie: Yep. It's Las Vegas Food as J.D. calls it. We've been here many times before and it was great.

Carly Atlas: You weren't kidding. This is all delicious!

Misty Tredwell: It sure is!

Tara: (to Sarah) Remember when we dressed up as each other?

Sarah Gunnerson: (Laughs) That was so much fun.

Gwen T.: Yes it was.

Varie: You guys looked all awesome in each others clothes.

Lori: You all literally did.

Twilight Sparkle: Yeah.

Rarity: Varie darling I heard from Vypra that you like Mystery Novels too.

Varie: I sure do. My favorites are Sherlock Holmes and Nancy Drew. What is yours Rarity?

Rarity: I have always loved Shadow Spade. She is a great detective.

Lola: Awesome.

Nicole: Cool.

Varie: It sure is. I solved the case of the Apple Crumble Eye Crust.

Lana: I remember that. That was an epic and awesome case.

Lucy Loud: I liked it because of the battles with Nurse Claiborne.

Numbuh 3: Yeah she deserves to be thrown in jail.

Jen Walters: I just realized that I haven't gotten a boyfriend yet.

Varie: There's plenty of fish out there Jen.

Lola: Yeah you're find one.

Lyra Heartstrings: Yeah there's plenty out there. Me and Bon Bon are close now.

Bon Bon: Yep.

Jen: Okay.

Mary K.: You'll find someone.

Luan: Yeah.

Jen: As long as it's not Dr. Doom.

They laughed.

Later the girls came back.

French Narrator: (French Accent) THE NEXT DAY.

---

( Opening shot: the city skyline with the giant tree in the background during the day. )

Narrator: The city of Gotham Royal York… is enjoying a beautiful sunny day! ( The girls and us fly across the screen and sky. ) And so are the Powerpuff Girls and Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

( Cut to the exterior of their house; they land at the front door, which is ajar. )

Blossom: I think April and May are both my favorite months out of the whole year.

Me: Mine too Blossom. It's amazing how all the flowers grow this time of year.

( Close-up of the doorknob; wisps of vapor start to issue from within the house. )

Buttercup: ( from o.c. ) Mine too. I like it.

Bubbles: ( from o.c. ) Yeah, mine too. ( Pull back to frame all three. ) The flowers are blooming…

Buttercup: The sun is shining… ( The vapor has now reached Blossom and us. )

Blossom: The smell of spring is in the air…

( Suddenly her eyes go very wide with surprise as she cuts herself off-whatever is drifting past her smells like anything but spring. Her sisters get a whiff and react similarly. Close-up of Buttercup, covering her nose. )

Me: (Sniffs) Hey that smells good.

Buttercup: What is that smell? ( Blossom does likewise. )

Blossom: Ugh! It's terrible! ( Bubbles has her hands to her mouth. ) It smells like hot meat.

Buttercup: And onions.

Nico: (Sniffs) And olive oil.

Bubbles: Peppers! Garlic powder! Oregano! A dash of Worcestershire sauce, and definitely a pinch of cumin!

Blossom: This can only mean one thing.

Me: Chili.

( We barge in; cut to inside the house. As we poke our heads cautiously around a corner, the rattling of equipment and a glutinous bubbling are heard from o.c. Cut to inside the kitchen; the Professor stands at the stove, with his back to the camera. This is the source of the fumes and the commotion. He has donned an apron and an oven mitt. )

Blossom: ( from o.c. ) Professor? ( He turns around, holding up a mixing spoon. )

Professor: Hey, girls! Guess what? You're just in time to taste my special concoction for the-

( Cut to the girls and us, now in the kitchen doorway-this was where they peeked in from. )

Girls: ( wearily ) We know. The Second Annual Gotham Royal York Chili Cook-Off. ( They float in. )

Me: A chili cookoff? COOL!

Professor: Oh, of course, you knew. You could probably smell the goodness a mile away. ( holding out filled spoon ) Here. Tell me what you think.

( The camera shifts to point toward the girls along with the spoon's handle. They glance at the heaping contents with considerable unease. )

Professor: ( from o.c., wheedling ) Come on, taste it.

( They gulp nervously; shift to frame all four. As he beams proudly over the finished product, the girls each take a small amount in their hands and reluctantly slip it into their mouths. As soon as the chili hits their tongues, all six eyes bug out and all three gag reflexes kick in. )

I tried some and my eyes bugged out too.

Professor: A winner, huh? ( All responses are very strained. )

Buttercup: Mmm-hmm.

Blossom: Uh… words can't describe.

Bubbles: I never tasted anything like it.

Me: Yeah.

( Her teeth crumble away as she says this-evidently the chili is a bit too toxic for even the girls to tolerate. However, the cook is entirely oblivious to their discomfort. )

Professor: It just needs a few more finishing touches. Thanks, girls! And thanks J.D.

( We zip away, and he helps himself to a taste. It seems to have no ill effects, and after a moment of letting it sit in his mouth, he gets an idea. )

Professor: Ahh, I know what it needs. ( laughing, turning back to the stove ) Coffee!

( He produces a can of it and proceeds to tip a liberal amount into the chili pot. Cut to the bedroom, where Buttercup is bent over the trash can in close-up. She groans weakly-the aftereffect of tossing her cookies as she did in "Him Diddle Riddle"-and lifts her head. )

Buttercup: Whoever thought it could actually look better coming out than going in?

Me: Gross.

( Pull back. Blossom sits on the other side of the can and does not look as if she has fared much better, while Bubbles sits hunched over near them. )

Buttercup: I'm guessing the Professor isn't gonna win this year.

Nico: Yeah no dice.

Blossom: We're gonna have to tell him the truth.

Bubbles: We can't do that. He has to win! Remember what happened last year?

* * *

( A flash of white, and we are at that moment in time. The Professor and the girls are in his bedroom; he hunches over the bed and sobs into the pillow as they float overhead. After a moment, he lifts his face. )

Professor: Why me?

( He drops his head again; cut to just outside the front door and pull back slowly as he keeps wailing. Yellow caution tape has been wrapped around the house and yard, and holes have been dug in the latter. Hazardous-materials workers in full-body protection suits are hard at work: removing contaminated items from the house, taking soil samples, writing damage assessments, pulling in test equipment through a bedroom window. A vehicle is parked in the driveway for the purpose of containing all the dangerous materials. Not only did the Professor fail to win the contest with this entry, but he also single-handedly turned the place into a Superfund site. )

Professor: ( from inside ) WHY ME?!

( Flashback to the present. )

Blossom: Yep. He has to win.

Nico: They had to call in the HAZMAT Division because of that?

Me: That's a little too extreme.

Eli: Yeah.

Laney: But you girls are right. He has to win. I can tell it's far too important for him.

Bubbles: But how?

Me: We'll think of something.

( Fade to black. )

( Fade into the Professor's bedroom. It is nighttime outside, and he is in his pajamas and lying awake in bed. )

Narrator: Later that night…

Professor: It still needs something. Something… extra special.

( He turns off the bedside lamp, and the view snaps to black. A second later, it snaps in again as he turns the lamp back on; now inspiration has struck anew and made him sit up in bed. Close-up of a flask of Chemical X in the lab; he reaches into view and removes it from its clamp. Now it is seen being gently tipped over in the kitchen. )

Professor: ( from o.c. ) Just the teeniest little drop will be more than enough!

( As he says this, a small drop of the black liquid runs along the neck of the flask to the mouth; tilt down as it falls free and lands in the simmering chili. The mixture flares red briefly, after which the spot of Chemical X fades from view as the compound disperses itself. Pull back; the Professor holds the flask upright over the pot. )

Professor: Now that's the "extra special" I'm talking about.

( He smiles broadly. Dissolve to him back in bed, that same expression on his face. )

Professor: Sweet dreams, Mr. First-Place Chili Chef of the Year.

( He turns off the lamp, blacking out the screen. Now Blossom's eyes open in the darkness. )

Blossom: I've got it!

Me: What is it?

( Cut to her and me in the kitchen; she floats over the pot with the flask in hand and is carefully tipping it as the Professor did. )

Me: You sure adding a drop of Chemical X is a good idea?

Blossom: It won't hurt. Just one…

( Close-up of a drop sliding down the neck, then pull back. Buttercup has taken Blossom's place. )

Buttercup:… drop.

( Close-up of that one drop as it falls into the chili which reacts as before, then pull back to show Bubbles in Buttercup's place. )

Bubbles: Perfect!

( The same idea has hit all three girls at different times. Fade to black. )

Narrator: That's gonna be one explosive chili! Hoo boy!

( Snap to the gate of Gotham Royal York Park and zoom in through it. People are enjoying a lovely day, and an amphitheater has been set up with a banner for the Gotham Royal York Chili Cook-Off. )

Narrator: Gotham Royal York Park is full of excitement-

( Cut to the judges' table and pan along with it. The Mayor, Ms. Keane, and Ms. Bellum are tasting the entries. Near the Mayor's end stands the first-place trophy, which is full of chili. Ms. Bellum's face is hidden by a sign on the table: "CHILI COOK-OFF SUBMISSIONS HERE." Several bowls have been dropped off; each is identified only with a letter. )

Narrator: -as all the judges are busy tasting away and there are numerous tents up for many types of chili.

Snake: I remember that Springfield had a chili festival like this one.

Me: It sure did and I heard that Homer loves chili.

Nico: Yep. I remember that.

Rachel S.D.: That was an awesome adventure.

Me: It sure was Rach.

Homer arrived and he had his trademark chili cookoff boots on and he had his wooden spoon ready.

Eli: Looks like Homer is ready to taste some chili.

Lana: Yeah.

Homer went up to Ned Flanders stand and it was his 5 Alarm Chili.

Homer: 5 Alarm Chili Eh? (Tastes it) (Counts the Alarms)

1..2..3..4..5. You've improved from last time Flanders.

Ned Flanders: Thank diddily goodness I did.

Firefly: Let's taste some chili as well.

Me: Okay.

We went all over and tasted the people's chili and it all was good. Some was good and some was not so good.

Homer tasted Moe's chili.

Homer: (Tastes Moe's chili) Hmm. A Bland timid entry suitable perhaps for patients recovering from surgery.

Homer was whistling.

Chief Wiggum was there and so was Lou and Eddie.

Wiggum: That Simpson he thinks he's the Pope of Chilitown. Well this year I am ready for him.

He put on a welding mask and gloves and opened a cauldron and in it was a chili that was glowing neon blue!

Me: WHOA! Never saw blue chili before.

Nico: Me neither.

Homer: Hello chief.

(THE GOOD THE BAD AND THE UGLY THEME PLAYS)

Chief Wiggum: Afternoon Homer. Care for some chili? I've added an extra ingredient just for you: THE APOCALYPTIC PEPPERS OF SAN PEDRO SULA!

We saw that he added glowing neon blue peppers with aqua blue stripes on them and they were emitting a horrible glow that was terrible!

We gasped in shock and fear!

Me: WHOA MAN! I've heard so much about those peppers! They were made by evil inmates in a Honduras Maximum Security Prison!

Nico: WHOA MAN! San Pedro Sula is known as the Murder Capital of The World.

Eli: And Honduras is known as the one of the most lawless countries in the world!

Ets: Yeah!

Me: I'll try some too.

Robo Blaze: It's been nice knowing you two.

Homer picked up a pepper and he put it on his mouth and then his eyes bursted into flames and his tongue was on fire!

Homer: (SCREAMS IN EXCRUCIATING AGONY!) YAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAHHH

He ran around like a chicken with his head cut off and screaming in agony and he was on fire!

Maria blasted him with water and a huge cloud of steam came out of him.

Nico: WHOA!

Me: WOW! That is intense. Can I try some chief?

Chief Wiggum: Sure.

He gave me a bowl of the Cherenkov Concoction and I tried some and ate a whole pepper and then all of a sudden…

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

I exploded in a massive pillar and mushroom of intense blue fire and it was 100 billion times hotter than that of the sun and I absorbed the fire and was stronger than ever before.

Me: WHOA! That is AWESOME!

Nico: WOW!

Blood was pouring down my right arm for my tattoo. I ate the whole bowl.

Me: That was awesome!

Wiggum: You have to be one of the toughest kids I've ever seen J.D.

Me: Can I have some more?

Wiggum gave me 3 more bowls and I ate them all and I was emitting a massive blue fire aura and it was powerful.

Nico: WHOA! That is incredible!

Later we were having Professor Utonium's Chili tasted.

Professor: ( from o.c., moaning ) I can barely take this. ( Cut to him and the girls nearby; Bubbles has a balloon. ) I'm so nervous.

Blossom: There's nothing to be nervous about. You're gonna win hands down.

Professor: You think so?

Bubbles: I know so.

Buttercup: There's no question.

Me: Absolutely.

Professor: ( pointing ) Look! I think they're about to try my chili.

Me: Here we go.

( Ms. Keane eats a spoonful and lets off a flaming belch; she claps a hand to her mouth. )

Me: Whoa!

Ms. Keane: Oh! Now that's pretty extraordinary.

( Ms. Bellum tastes the mix-and her curly red-orange hair straightens itself out in an instant. )

Ms. Bellum: Oh! Very inventive.

Me: Ms. Bellum looks better with her hair down like that.

( Now the Mayor tries the stuff; it hits him so hard that he is thrown out of his chair. Cut to him, prone on the ground and moaning dazedly. Ms. Bellum slides across the grass and scoops him up; her hair has returned to its normal style. )

Ms. Bellum: Are you okay, Mayor?

Mayor: Ooh, I am now.

Me: Wow! That must've been a powerful punch.

Mayor: It was! That chili packs a powerful punch! I declare the new winner of the Second Annual Chili Cook-Off!

( Close-up of the big trophy; on the next line, pull back to frame it in the Professor's hands The three judges stand with him. )

Mayor: Professor Utonium! ( Pan across a cheering crowd, including the girls; he continues o.c. ) Free winning chili for everyone!

( Back to the winner; he hugs the prize giddily. )

Professor: I'm so verklempt!

Girls: ( hugging him ) We knew you could do it, Professor!

Me: Way to go Professor!

Blossom: ( pointing ) And look!

( Cut to the judges' table, where the Mayor is now dishing up the winning recipe to eager spectators-and holding up a pickle. )

Mayor: Professor Utonium's chili! Try it with a pickle!

( Pull back to put the family in the foreground. They are looking at a very long waiting line. )

Blossom: Everyone's clamoring for a bowl of your number-one chili!

Bubbles: You really did it this time, Professor!

Nico: Yeah!

Narrator: ( sardonically ) You don't say.

( Fade to black. )

( Snap to the exterior of the house that evening. Inside, a Nobel Prize medallion from 1993 sits on a shelf in the Professor's study. Pull back a bit; he reaches up, removes it from its perch, and tosses it aside and I put it on another shelf for him. In its place, he sets the trophy he has just won. Close-up of him, sighing happily, then pull back across the room. The Nobel Prize has landed on the floor by his desk. )

Professor: Me. The winner. ( He laughs. ) What a gas! ( His stomach rumbles loudly and he clutches it. ) Uh-oh.

Me: Oh boy. Are you okay?

Professor: Yeah just a little gas.

FFFFFFAAAAAAAAAAARRRRRRRTTTTTT!

He farted a big one.

Me: WHEW! That was a doozy.

( In the girls' bedroom, Bubbles is putting on her nightgown. Her stomach grumbles too and she groans a bit, clutching it. )

Bubbles: Professor's chili sure is rumbly in my tumbly.

( Blossom and Buttercup are sitting on the bed and also dressed for sleep.)

FFFFFFFAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAARRRRRRRRRRRRRRRTTTTTT

Bubbles farted. P.U.!

(Buttercup looks away in disgust, and Blossom shrugs. Cut to the Mayor's bedroom; his wife is sound asleep, while he is sitting up. His wife's stomach gurgles and she opens one eye. )

FFFFFFFFFAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAARRRRRRTTTTTTTT!

She farted.

Mayor: My! The sheets are unusually toasty.

( Now Ms. Bellum is seen in her kitchen; her sleepwear consists of a yellow negligee. Her digestive tract argues briefly with the chili as well, and she sighs while going about her business-cutting a slice from a wedge of Swiss cheese. Cut to a gas station; it is now the next day, and Ms. Keane is filling her tank when indigestion hits her, causing her to moan a bit. She is handed a gasoline can and sighs with relief as her gut calms down and the hiss of air in a pipe is heard. )

( Through an apartment window, we see and hear a fat fellow suffering from the effects of that souped-up chili, groaning, with a hand over his belly. He is seen from shoulders to knees; suddenly he turns around, presenting his butt to the camera as an owl's hooting is heard o.c. and his stomach stops churning. Pull back a distance to frame the bird in a nearby tree. The man sighs happily. )

( Cut to a bus-stop bench. Another man clutches his own noisy stomach, moaning in pain. This time, a low sustained tone is heard to accompany his relief; pull back to show its source-the old fellow next to him is playing the tuba. The chili victim sighs. Next, in a dimly lit room, four dogs are playing poker after the fashion of the famous Coolidge painting. The distinct sound of breaking wind is herd; noses perk up, and one dog finds himself on the receiving end of three rather angry stares as the prime suspect. Another such sound is heard; this time, all four canines look o.c. in one direction, and the camera pans over there to show Don Shank, curled up sleeping on a small rug. )

Dog: ( from o.c. ) He did it!

( Shank wakes up briefly, glares at the dogs, and voices a contemptuous little grunt before settling down again. )

People were farting all over the place.

( By now, it should be obvious what symptom has been affecting all these people. Cut to the exterior of the house at night. The noxious byproducts of digestion gone wrong to start to emanate from this and every other dwelling on the block; a slow pan down another street reveals that the problem has spread throughout the suburbs. In the city proper, tilt-up along with the height of several buildings whose occupants have let off quite a bit more than normal, then down along another group. The vapors are now drifting down into the sewer-from which an unwholesome light starts to pulse, accompanied by a low, growling chuckle of whatever is beneath the streets. Fade to black. )

( Snap to the exterior of the house; it is now the next day. The air is clear again. Other areas of the suburbs and the city proper are no longer beset by streams of flatulence. Traffic flows normally in the city streets, and people bustle along the sidewalks. A Doodie Diaper Service truck makes its rounds, but the driver suddenly finds a blast of the greenish gas crossing his path. He floors the accelerator in an attempt to escape it, but does not notice that the street he is on has come to an end and crashes into a building. )

( Extreme close-up of a very hairy and sweaty armpit. Pull back to show it attached to a construction worker wiping his forehead. He is standing by an open manhole that has been blocked off with safety barricades, and he has been digging into the street with a jackhammer. As he goes back to work, the vapors reach him; gasping convulsively, he loses control of the rig, which drags him into the manhole. )

( A man walks down the street and is stopped cold by a gust of the gases. His eyes go wide and bloodshot as he lets out a cry of agony. )

Man 1: The stench! It's unbearable!

FOGHORN!

( In an alley, two garbagemen-one of them Carl Jusscarl-are preparing to empty a Dumpster full of malodorous refuse. When the new stink reaches them, they dive in and pull the lid shut behind them in order to block it out. Two window washers are plying their squeegees high up the side of a building; the fumes cause one of them to pass out immediately, but the other pays no immediate notice, even after sniffing the stuff. )

Window washer: So let me guess. You had cabbage borscht last night for din-

( He looks up and trails off into an inarticulate cry of fear. Pull back to show what he is looking at: a giant cloud of green vapor, with arms and a menacing face. It growls softly-this is what we heard in the sewer previously-and looms over the buildings. )

Woman 1: Look! It's a methane monster!

IT WAS A MONSTER MADE OF PURE FART GAS!

( Total panic, with people running everywhere and cars crashing into one another in a mad attempt to escape the foulness. One plows into the front window of a department store. A woman lies flat on the sidewalk amid the chaos. )

Woman 2: ( weakly ) Too… stinky…

( More pandemonium as the apparition advances through the city. Pull back to show this view as the one from the Mayor's office window. He watches the scene. )

Mayor: Oh, darn!

( Close-up of a telephone; he reaches into view and picks up the receiver. Pull back across the office; the instrument is on his desk, behind which he is now seated. )

Mayor: Team Loud Phoenix Storm? We have a situation of gastronomic proportions!

( Cut to the all of us in flight. )

Buttercup: What exactly did he say?

Blossom: Some mumbo-jumbo about a monster, revolting stench, I don't know.

Bubbles: ( pointing ahead ) Maybe the Mayor wasn't talking about that?

( The other two look ahead; cut to just behind the girls. In the distance, the fume monster roars over the buildings. )

Shiv: What the Hell is that?

Me: It's a monster made of pure Methane!

Nico: That is weird! We got a monster of intense GASTROINTESTINAL DISTRESS!

Lana: Lori did you blow your butt trumpet again!?

Lori: IT WAS MY SHOE!

Me: Lets see if we can stop this Flatulent Gas Bag!

Buttercup: That stinky dude? I'll put a cork in him! ( She charges; the others stop. )

Blossom: Wait, Buttercup!

( Buttercup approaches the enemy, which sucks in a huge breath and produces a forceful exhalation of disgusting green vapors. This stops her in her tracks and drops her like a rock. )

FOGHORN!

Blossom, Bubbles: Buttercup!

( She continues plummeting; the other two shield their eyes and turn their faces away as the sound of a crash landing drifts up from ground level. Cut to the point of impact, the base of a building. Two Mary Jane-clad legs and a tattered green hem poke out of the rubble, and their owner groans wearily from combined pain and revulsion. )

Blossom: My turn!

( She charges ahead, leaving Bubbles by herself in midair. The green creature laughs at its victory over Buttercup as Blossom approaches. )

Blossom: ( sarcastically ) Ha-ha! Think you're so funny? ( gaining altitude ) Well, I'll really give you something to laugh about!

( She rockets toward the head and is met with an arm sweep that engulfs her in a cloud of green murk. Stopping cold, she covers her nose and mouth to try to block it out. )

Blossom: Oh… my… what the… shnikey… ugh! This guy is just nasty!

( Bubbles has dropped to the street and is in the midst of the hysteria. She addresses herself into the sky. )

I flew up to up and he fired a wave of fart gas at me and I smelled and then…

VVVVVVVOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMMMMIIIIIIIIIIIIIIIIIIIIITTTTTT

I THREW UP ALL OVER NICO!

Nico: AW SICK!

Me: Sorry!

Bubbles: Blossom! It's too chaotic! What do we do? Where's Buttercup?

( The answer: still half-embedded in the building she hit. She has gotten into something of a sitting position; her upper half looks as bad as her lower. )

Buttercup: ( weakly ) Did someone call me?

( A man walks out of the building and looks around. He has a set of plugs in his nostrils, similar to those used by swimmers, and he speaks in a very nasal tone as a result. )

Man 2: What? Hey! Whoa! What's all the ruckus? Here I am, just minding my store, when all of a sudden, crash! Kaboom! ( Pull back; this is the Nose Plug Shoppe. ) Kablooie!

( Buttercup looks up at the awning above the man's head, and the business name emblazoned on it and smiles. Back to the street; Blossom has joined Bubbles. )

Bubbles: How are we gonna fight him when we can't even get near him? ( Buttercup joins them; she has three sets of plugs. )

Buttercup: Look! Nose plugs! We're back in business!

Me: Perfect!

( Blossom takes a set and hooks them in place; though she has no visible nose, they remain securely fastened and she smiles. Her sisters do likewise. All three voices take on the expected nasal tone until otherwise indicated. )

I pulled out a bunch of nose plugs from my pocket and we all put them on except for Grim and Mandy.

Mandy: Thank goodness I don't have a nose.

Grim: (Jamaican Accent) Neither do I mon.

Blossom: (Nasally) Let's kick butt!

Bubbles, Buttercup: (Nasally) Kick butt!

( Take-off. Charge at the fume monster-but, they simply go straight through it. )

Blossom: Hey!

( Close-up of the thing, shaped into a ring of vapor-the wake of their passage blew it into this form. It soon assumes its original appearance and laughs at the girls. )

Buttercup: Our physical force is useless!

Me: How about this?

I fired a blast of fire and burned his arm and it exploded into flames and burned a building and I absorbed the fire.

Me: Oops. That was stupid.

Blossom: Let's blow him away!

( All of us inflate our lungs and exhale with enough force to push the creature off its "feet"; it is sent hurtling away and dissipating into scraps of vapor. )

Girls: We did it!

Me: YEAH!

( They are surprised by the distant high-pitched laughter, whose source is soon revealed to be many tiny copies of the fume monster. These rise above the buildings and come together to reform the original. )

Me: Man he's tough!

Nico: No kidding!

Me: That is one tough fart!

Buttercup: Plan C, anyone?

Bubbles: I know! Suck him in!

Me: Lets do it!

( Another monster inhalation, but this time the beast disappears down all of our windpipes. We pull in all the vapors and hold their breath, but this stuff definitely does not agree with us as. Arms flailing, eyes bugging out, turning various shades of green from head to toe-and after two or three agonizing seconds, we have to let it all out. The nose plugs pop off and all of our normal colors return as they expel the gases in a long, choking, retching wheeze. With the plugs gone, our voices take on the usual tone once they stop gasping for breath. )

Me: BLECH! (SCRUBS TONGUE WITH A BRUSH!)

Nico: YUCK!

Vince: THAT WAS DISGUSTING!

Lori: (VOMITS)

Lana: (VOMITS)

Eli: OH THAT WAS AWFUL!

Nunnally: I THINK I'M GONNA BE SICK!

Buttercup: Ugh, oh! That was so wrong!

Bubbles: My bad.

( The green plumes swirl in the air and promptly reconstitute into one smirking monster. )

Electro: Let's see how it likes some electricity! (shoots lightning at it)

I sent his lightning up into the sky!

Electro: What did you do that for!?

Me: Max he's made of pure methane and if your lightning hit it, it would ignite him and he would explode and destroy the entire city in a massive inferno.

Electro: Oops.

Lana: Can we freeze him?

Me: Only at -295.6˚Fahrenheit. But it would send his shards all over and he would reform again.

Bubbles: He's indestructible! Gotham Royal York will be stinky forever!

Buttercup: Let's face it! We're no match for that methane monster!

Me: Wait a minute. (To the Adult Powerpuff Girls) Girls didn't you defeat this guy before?

Adult Blossom: Yes we did! All we need is a giant match!

Me: Of course! Lighting a match will suck in the fart gas and burn it out.

Dark Spicer: leave this to me.

Dark turned into Hotburn.

Hotburn: If what Blossom did is correct, I just need to use my body to suck the Methane Monster in.

Me: Go for it Dark.

It sucked in the Methane Monster and extinguished Hotburn's head and burned out the Methane Monster.

Me: ALL RIGHT!

Nico: That was clever!

Me: But I'll be tasting Methane for a while.

Eli: Me too.

Nico: YUCK!

Ets: That was gross.

Lola: Yeah.

Lana: I may like gross things but that was gross even for me.

Me: Yeah. Also I think we all learned a huge lesson here.

Nico: What's that?

Me: Putting Chemical X in chili is an awful idea.

( Wild cheering from street level; cut to the middle of a happy crowd, with the girls floating overhead. On a street corner, a hippie has set up shop selling patchouli oil. )

Hippie: Townsville is stink-free, man! Yeah!

Me: Yeah!

Dark Spicer: That's right. Once again, the day is saved thanks to me! Take that, Chase Young!

Me: YEAH!

Nico: Suck on my ass Chase!

FAAAAAAARRRRRRTTTTT!

Me: Oops! Pardon me!

We laughed!

( Fade to black. )

( Fade into the exterior of the World Tree Estate. )

Bubbles: ( from inside ) Gee, Professor.

( Inside, he is slumped over his bed and dabbing at his eyes with a handkerchief. Blossom and Bubbles sit near him; Buttercup floats above. We were with him. )

Bubbles: We're really sorry you were disqualified from the chili contest. ( He blows his nose loudly. )

Me: Yeah we weren't sure about putting Chemical X in the chili was a good idea.

Nico: We had no idea it would cause all that.

Eli: It's totally unpredictable stuff.

Blossom: Yeah. We feel partly responsible. Who knew all that Chemical X would have such disastrous results?

Professor: ( sniffling, smiling ) Oh, guys, it's okay. I'll get over it.

Buttercup: That's the spirit, Professor! There'll be other contests for you to enter.

Me: Yeah buck up.

Applejack: There are always others for you to enter. Like at Sweet Apple Acres or Appleoosa.

Professor: ( brightly ) Oh, I know. ( getting the newspaper from the floor ) There already is one,

( Close-up of the paper, a copy of the Townsville Tribune. Frontpage headlines: "NEXT WEEK!-3RD ANNUAL TOWNSVILLE LIMBURGER FESTIVAL." Photo: various hunks of cheese. Sub-headlines: "World's Stinkiest Cheese!"-"Mayor Sells City!" )

Professor: ( from o.c. ) and I can't wait!

Narrator: Limburger festival?! ( Back to the group. )

Girls: YUCK!

Me: Better bring the noseplugs everyone.

( The standard end shot comes up. )

Narrator: Oh, cheese, Professor! You cheddar quit now if you know what's gouda for you! And so once again, the day is saved, thanks to the Powerpuff Girls, Dark Spicer and Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

The End!

We'll see you again soon!

Another awesome fanfic done.

Hope you all got a good laugh out of this one. I sure did. Reeking Havoc is one of the funniest episodes I've ever seen. Moral of this episode: Never Add Unpredictable Ingredients to anything or there will be disastrous consequences. It aired on April 30th, 2004 and it was so funny. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. No chapter tomorrow. Reason is I'm going to be on a day break till the 5th of May. The reason is because my Grandmother passed away at 99 on April 24th and I have to go to her funeral. But I will be back in action on the 5th of May. The Next chapter is for Kim Possible and we're going after The Knights of Rodeghan. But do send your sympathies for me and my family.

See you all on the 5th.

FELIZ CINCO DE MAYO 2021 COMPADRES!

---

At the World Tree Estate we were celebrating one of Mexico's most important Holidays, Cinco De Mayo.

Manaphy, Tentacool, Jirachi, Poromon, Poliwag, and Horsea: HAPPY CINCO DE MAYO, EVERYBODY!

Me: Same to all of you. (To Rosa) Feliz Cinco De Mayo, Señora Rosa.

Rosa Casagrande: (Spanish Accent) Denada amigo. Thank you for celebrating Cinco De Mayo with us.

Me: Anytime Ms. Rosa.

Twilight Sparkle: What is Cinco De Mayo?

Me: It means 5th of May. But there is also a huge historical story behind it. On this day in the Battle of Puebla in 1862, French Colonizers wanted to take over Mexico but the people of Mexico wouldn't let them and the Battle of Puebla drove them off. Ever since then, May 5th has been a very important holiday in Mexico Lore.

Twilight Sparkle: Wow!

Sunset Shimmer: It's true Twilight and I love the food from Mexico.

Nico: Me too.

Laney: Same here. And I love Mexican food.

Lori: Same here Laney. Especially the hot sauce for it.

Bobby: Me too babe.

Roxanne: Same here.

We had great music too. We played Mariachi music and more and it was great. It was a perfect way to celebrate the 159th Anniversary of the Battle of Puebla.

---

We were walking to Billy Batson's school.

Kitten: We had so much good food in that Cinco De Mayo celebration. (burps)

Me: I know. But one of the best things about the Cinco De Mayo holiday is the history behind it.

Nico: And the food.

Twilight Sparkle: Especially the Tamales. They were decilous.

Sunset Shimmer: I liked the Mole Poblano and Chalupas.

Applejack: Mine was the Chiles En Nogada. Those were delicious.

Me: Muy caliente.

Billy Batson: It's all delicious. And you guys are gonna love my school.

Lola: We can't wait to see it.

Poromon: BURP!

Poliwag: Man I'm bloated!

Horsea: Me too! But it was so good!

Tentacool: You said it. It was so good.

Manaphy: It sure was.

Jirachi: I liked it all.

?: Well look who we have here.

We saw Billy Batson's bullies Brett Breyer and his brother Burke.

Billy Batson: Brett and Burke Breyer.

Burke: Yeah and we are going to kill you Batson.

Me: Not if we kill you first!

Everyone came out and they saw us about to fight.

Gary (Pokemon): Billy wants to have a word with you assholes. And I literally mean one single word.

Brett Breyer: Oh yeah!? What is that!?

Billy Batson: SHAZAM!

THUNDERCLAP!

A massive blast of lightning exploded high into the sky and he turned into SHAZAM!

Shazam: Now you are in for it!

Everyone at the school saw it happen and they COULDN'T BELIEVE IT! BILLY BATSON AND SHAZAM WERE BOTH ONE IN THE SAME!

Burke: Billy Batson is really SHAZAM!?

POW!

I punched Burke down and smashed him in his stomach and Nico kicked Brett in his face.

Brett: WHY YOU!

They went at us and then…

SICKENING CRUNCH!

Eli double kicked both of them in the crotch with devastating force and they screamed in a high pitch voice like little girls and they were also foaming at the mouth.

They were tied up.

Nicole: You two will be going to prison for a long time.

Nicole pulled out wanted posters of Brett and Burke and they had awesome prices on their heads: $124,298,289,350,000.

Nicole: The bounties on these two will go to Billy.

Hook: That's right, folks. Billy Batson is Shazam! No need to throw flowers, just give him money.

Me: Now now Hook. You see everyone, Billy was chosen by the Wizard that was the last of the guardians of the Rock of Eternity to be the next champion. He and his friends have been a great team and a great force in helping Billy take down the Seven Deadly Sins and they are a great inspiration to all kids everywhere.

Black Adam appeared.

Black Adam: And he's a great archenemy.

Me: Hey Adam.

Black Adam: Hey J.D. I always knew that Billy Batson was a special kid and he is a true inspiration to everyone.

Me: Yes he is.

Billy Batson reverted back.

Then a kid clapped and then it erupted into a full fledge roar of applause.

Me: Wow. Looks like Billy is popular now.

Girl: Aren't you worried that some of your enemies might go after your loved ones now that your secret identity is out?

G1 Ratchet: Secret identities went out the window the minute we met the Justice League and Avengers. Even though we really haven't faced much of Billy's enemies yet.

Me: No we haven't. But it will be awesome facing them.

Nico: Yes it will.

Billy Batson: I won't let the fame go to my head guys.

Me: Good.

---

Back at the World Tree Estate we were watching the ToQger Rangers and LupinRangers VS PatRangers on the TV and we were noticing some very interesting similarities to some of our adventures. We were seeing a lot of scenarios that reminded us of past adventures.

Me: Whoa! That is so coincidental.

Lola: But we haven't seen any scenarios from the ToQger Rangers yet.

Eli: No we haven't.

Later the next day we were having breakfast.

Slugslinger: Good thing you guys watched the adventures of the Lupinrangers, Patrangers, and TogQers yesterday.

Me: We sure did and I noticed a massive number of similarities to some of the episodes and some of the adventures we had in the past.

Nico: Yeah and it's a massive sense of Déjà-Vu. Luka duplicated the scenario with that bomb with those necklaces.

Lori: And that's where Frost used that method to frame Nico for attacking Aunt Ruth!

Luna Loud: And that is where Ed got that silly dance when we fought Comrade Red.

Lola: Man so coincidental.

Lana: Yeah!

Carly Atlas: But that is so clever how they duplicated some of those and used them on us.

Me: Perfect copycat adventures.

Nico: Yeah and really genius.

Lisa Loud: Not a bad reenactment if I do say so myself.

Me: If Frost were still alive we would commend him for using such a tactic on us.

Nico: Yeah and if Luka weren't banished to the Warp we would commend him on his tactic too.

Me: And Ed that dance you used was so funny.

Olette: It sure was.

Ed: Aw.

Me: But the question is how did Frost use invisibility to get past all of our security and all that? That's what has me curious.

Eli: Same here.

Ets: Yeah. I hope we figure that out soon.

Me: Anyway we better get ready for our latest mission.

Nico: Right.

Titanium Titan, Eris, Pyro, Angel, Dirty Bubble, Chemistro, Goliath and KGBeast appeared.

Titanium Titan: Can me, Eris, Pyro, Angel, Dirty Bubble, Chemistro, Goliath, and KGBeast go with you guys on today's mission?

Me: You all sure can and our next mission is one that Kim knows.

Kim Possible: We're going after the Knights of Rodeghan.

Nicole: The Knights of Rodeghan! I've read about them! One sec.

Nicole went to her room and came back with a book.

Me: "The Revolt of Rodeghan, A Country's Failed Revolution Against a Tyrant." This sounds interesting.

Nicole told us all about the knights and what happened years ago.

---

The Knights of Rodeghan were an order of Knights in the Medieval era who served the small European nation known as Rodeghan. Despite their loyalty to the throne, one of Rodeghan's earliest Kings ruled with vast cruelty and lead to a planned coup by the Knights of Rodeghan. Their plans failed before they began due to being caught in the planning stages and arrested. This presumably spelled the end of Rodeghan's knighthood, but the descendants of these Knights would live on to the modern day.

A prophecy was placed upon the fate of Rodeghan's monarchy, which the Knights clung to in their grudge. The prophecy, hidden upon a tapestry of the cruel ruler, read as follows:

"Awaiting the light from a full harvest moon, Rodeghan's foe will soon face his doom, In the shadow of the palace we will not be deterred, the monarchy ends with Wallace the Third."

Modern Day

The prophecy would not be acted on until the early 2000s as Wallace the Third, known as "Weak Link Wally", came close to the age of taking the throne. Having adapted to the 21st Century through a company known as Rodeghan Industries, the Knights of Rodeghan planned to at long last fill their grudge by assassinating Wally. Although only two of them were alive to fulfill it, they had gained access to a powerful space-to-earth laser satellite. With that, they attempted to hit him with an orbital strike. Unfortunately for the Knights, they misidentified their target, instead aiming for Ron Stoppable, who had come to Rodeghan with Kim Possible.

Although the attack failed, Wally was transferred to America to live with Kim so she could protect him until the Harvest Moon passed. The Knights followed to America and on the night of the Harvest Moon they cornered Wally in the Middleton golf club, which had a palace model on its mini-golf course, technically obliging the prophecy. Their attack failed due to Kim's intervention, however. Though confused because the prophecy did not mention Kim, they fought on to avenge their ancestor's grudge.

Aftermath

Although the attack failed, the prophecy came to an ironic truth. The exposure to American democracy had fascinated young Wally and convinced him to turn Rodeghan from a Monarchy to a Democracy. The Knights were never recorded as active villains again since their assassination attempt on Wally, and it is unknown if they retained the grudge despite failing or if they dropped it.

---

When she finished reading it we were shocked!

Me: Whoa man! So the knights will not be at peace even after all these years until they kill the descendant of the King of Rodeghan who is Prince Wally III.

Kim Possible: That's right.

Nico: Boy that sounds like a dangerous grudge!

Laney: No kidding! That's awful that they have harbored a grudge against the entirety of the Kingdom of Rodeghan like that for over 1500 years.

Lana: Yeah.

Lola: That's COMPLETELY unhealthy.

Nico: No kidding.

Vince: Hard to imagine.

Quick Man: Who's the modern day version of Prince Wally anyway?

Me: Well lets see.

I pulled up the info on Prince Wally III.

---

Prince Wallace III of Rodigan was a snobbish, spoiled and arrogant prince of the kingdom of Rodeghan whom Kim was charged to protect from the Knights of Rodeghan in Royal Pain, because of his ancestors' tyrannical behavior towards them. The prophecy read that the monarchy would end with him. While they failed to kill him the monarchy did end with him, as he decided to turn the country into a democracy after his father retired.

Voiced by Rob Paulsen.

---

Nico: Whoa! So he is the prince that they want to kill.

Me: Yeah and the Knights of Rodeghan will not stop at anything until the Monarchy dies with him. This is gonna be a powerful adventure of Medieval Proportions.

Riley: Yeah and they will not get this prince as long as we have anything to say about it.

Laney: No we won't. Where is Rodeghan?

Me: It's a neighboring country that is right next door to where Markovia used to be.

Tara: Right next to my former homeland.

Gloria Markov: No way that's coincidental.

Me: Then lets get over there. These Knights want a battle, we'll give them a Battle from All of The Knights of The Round Table.

Eli: And The Jedi.

Twilight Sparkle: And the Knights of The Friendship Table.

Me: LETS ROLL!

We were off to Rodeghan.

KINGDOM OF RODEGHAN

We arrived in the small country of Rodeghan. It was a small country that was no bigger than the size of Rhode Island.

Nico: So this is Rodeghan.

Lola: Wow. What a kingdom. Like what it was back over 1,500 years ago.

Chemistro: Where do we find Prince Wally?

Kim Possible: Right up there.

We saw his castle and it was beautiful.

Me: Wow! His castle is amazing.

Lola: It sure is.

Lucy Loud: Yeah.

We walked up to the castle.

Kim Possible: Right up there.

We saw his castle and it was beautiful.

Me: Wow! His castle is amazing.

Lola: It sure is.

Lucy Loud: Yeah.

We walked up to the castle.

We were at the Castle Gates.

Nebula: (knocks on the door) Is anyone home?

The doors opened and we went in and we saw a huge table and it was big. We saw at the very end of it Prince Wally III.

Prince Wally III: (Posh Accent) The famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm! Welcome to my glorious castle.

We walked up and knelt before him.

Me: It's an honor to meet you your highness. We apologize for coming in unannounced.

Prince Wally III: Quite all right and Kimberly it's great to see you again.

Kim Possible: Same to you your highness.

Prince Wally III: (Sees Tara) And I see you all have the princess of Markovia with you all.

Tara: Former princess actually. Markovia is gone.

Me: Yeah it's a very sore subject to talk about.

Prince Wally III: I understand. Our country was ready to go into war when news about King Markov returning surfaced. But you all beat us to the punch and killed him yourselves and for that you have my thanks.

Me: We were just doing what we do best and that's kick butt and helping people in need.

Muscle Man: Hey, Wally. You know who else is glad Tara's dad is dead? My mom!

Prince Wally: Yes, I'm sure your mother is very proud of you for that, Muscle Man.

Muscle Man: Thank you.

We laughed at his joke.

Me: Muscle Man tells these great jokes and they always crack us up.

Nico: Yeah they do.

Dirty Bubble: Sorry your country went through all that trouble preparing to kill Tara's dad for nothing.

Prince Wally III: That's quite all right. But to tell you the truth we did not have good relations with Markovia anyway.

Me: Oh man. But again we apologize for coming in like this but we came to help you with something that is going on involving you.

Prince Wally III: What do you mean?

Nicole: I'm afraid the Knights of Rodeghan are coming and they are going to make sure you die this time.

The guards and Prince Wally III gasped.

Prince Wally III: Is this true?

Me: We're serious your highness.

I pulled up a scan of the Earth and found a cave where the Knights are hiding out and they are using it as their base of operations and are going to attack in a few hours.

Me: Our scans show that they are coming even as we speak and they are also not alone. We think they have some outside help.

Prince Wally III: What kind of help?

Me: It's unknown. But it says that it's a bunch of enemies that Ben here knows.

Ben: I think it might be the Forever Knights.

Prince Wally III: But that's impossible! The Forever Knights were destroyed when that monster Dagon killed their leader Sir George.

Me: No they went into hiding and Riley has his sword Ascalon.

Nico: But if they show up we will make sure they pay.

Me: Big time.

Vice: (to Prince Wally) You know, when we first heard about you, we thought you were going to be a spoiled prince. But, it turns out we were wrong.

Prince Wally III: Thanks to Kim, I was shown the error of my ways and ended the monarchy of the Rodeghan Empire.

Me: Wow! That's great.

Nico: Yeah what an intervention.

Me: But from the looks of things the Knights still hold a grudge after everything your ancestor did.

Prince Wally III: Indeed. It's hard to imagine that they bare that much hatred towards me and my family.

Nico: That's awful.

King Vegeta: Just like with Frieza and the Saiyans.

Vegeta: Indeed father.

Fasha: It's absolutely awful.

Shugesh: Yeah.

Lola: But we won't let the Knights of Rodeghan get away with this.

Riley: And neither will we let the Forever Knights get away with it too.

Pierce: Especially after how they killed me in the past.

Pyro was leaving.

Maria: Pyro, where are you going?

Pyro: I'm going outside to buy us some time to prepare.

Pyro went outside and created a wall of fire on the road.

May: I get it! You used your fire to make a blockade. Clever.

Me: That will buy us plenty of time.

Prince Wally III: Amazing!

Me: We better get the civilians into the shelters just to be on the safe side. This battle is gonna be intense. I can feel it.

Prince Wally III: I agree. General! Get everyone to the shelters immediately.

General: Yes sire!

He went to get everyone to safety.

Nico: What time do you think the knights will all get here?

Me: By my estimates we have 1 hour. Prepare for battle everyone!

We got ready for battle.

We got everything ready for an epic battle. We had tank catapults with bomb rocks, and rocket blasters and razor sharp crystal lined pits and even oil drum bombs and we even had razor sharp crystal tipped arrows and spears ready.

Grenade Man: I'll need to pack lots of grenades!

Prince Wally III: I will have all my men mobilized and ready.

Me: Okay.

We got a battle plan ready and we know they were gonna come from the southwestern side of the perimeter and we were gonna be ready for them. We are gonna have missile tanks, tanks, lasers, soldiers, gunman and more ready for them.

Angel: I'll go fly over to where the knights are and distract them to buy us some more time.

Me: No Angel it's too risky. The Forever Knights are with them and they have deadly laser guns that can blow castles and mountains apart in an instant and reduce them to rubble. If they see you they will blast you on sight.

Angel: Oh man.

Ben: I told J.D. about them. Kevin and Argent gave them the weapons they use.

Kevin Levin: Not my smartest move.

Angel: Okay good point.

Totally Spies Alice: (to the mascots) You guys stay outside and keep an eye out for when the knights come.

Poliwag: (Salutes with his tail) Aye aye captain!

They kept an eye out on the castle tower with spyglasses.

Me: We wait.

We had the weapons ready as well as walls and cannon towers and we also had wooden blockades with razorwire on them and all that.

Me: It's quiet. Too quiet.

Nico: But they got to be coming.

Poromon: Hmm. (Sees a cloud of dust coming from the south southwest) What's that?

A massive army of knights and warriors all came running over the mountains and the rumbling was heard from them!

Poromon: KNIGHTS COMING IN AT 7:00!

Me: Battlestations!

Me and May whistled and we had our Rapidash ready and we charged in.

(SAMURAI JACK ENTERING THE FIGHT THEME FROM EPISODE III PLAYS)

We rode into battle on our Rapidash and we were running too and ready for an epic and awesome battle that will decide the fate of Rodeghan.

The Knights of Rodeghan and the Forever Knights came over the mountain and were running fast and roaring as they charged.

Me: Here they come.

Nico: This is gonna be good.

Samurai Jack: Just like it was in our first battle.

Me: Yep. Lets go! CHARGE!

We rode on and went at them and I had a bow ready and fired an arrow and it threw bomb rocks and they hit a bunch of knights and exploded in fiery explosions!

CRASH! CRASH!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

Eli fired a Force Blast and another digger threw two more rocks and they hit a bunch of knights and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM!

The Robots got to an oil drum field and Jack fired an arrow and it hit a rock and sparks flew out and ignited the oil and it exploded into fiery explosions.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM!

Nico fired an arrow and it hit another rock and ignited another Oil Drum and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMM
KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A wall of fire was made from the explosions.

We jumped out of the fire and had spears ready for skewering.

We skewered many knights all over and slashed and killed them all over and smashed them down too. We got off our horses and were ready to face them.

Me: Lets get them guys!

The knights came at us and we were ready for them.

As the knights got closer, KGBeast killed a Forever Knight with his Cybernetic Gun.

KGBeast: (Russian Accent) Yes! First kill!

I blasted a bunch of Forever Knights with Energy blasts and killed them all over.

Riley: Come get some metal freaks!

SLASH SLASH SLASH SLASH SLASH SLASH SLASH SLASH!

She slashed numerous Forever Knights with Ascalon and Nico and the Saiyans blasted them all over and Pierce sent numerous needles into the Forever Knight's faces and killed them.

Lincoln fired waves of lightning and electrocuted many of the Knights of Rodeghan all over and burned them.

But then a familiar figure came out and challenged Riley and it was none other than DRISCOLL!

---

Driscoll was a member of the Forever Knights who first appeared in Perfect Day.

Background

Driscoll was once a veteran Plumber who was kicked out of the organization when it was discovered that he was stealing advanced technology from alien perps and using it for his own benefit. He later joined the Forever Knights and worked his way up the ranks to Forever King. He then created a splinter group with the desire to conquer the world and gain revenge on the Plumbers.

Ben 10

Driscoll appears at the end of Perfect Day, where he tells the Forever Ninja not to release Enoch from the dream machine, saying he has failed him enough, and that he will deal with Ben Tennyson himself.

Driscoll creates a group of Ben's enemies, consisting of himself, the Forever Ninja, Dr. Animo, Charmcaster, Rojo, Clancy, Sublimino and the Circus Freak Trio. He planned to use them to destroy Ben, while also targeting Gwen, Max, and their tag-along Cooper Daniels. When they escape most of their assaults, they hide out in the Plumber base in Mt. Rushmore, but Sublimino hypnotized Cooper to attack the Tennysons.

After dealing with Cooper, the Tennysons worked together and took down most of the Negative 10. However, Driscoll's real motive was to take the Sub-Energy and use it to power up his suit to take over the world. However, Upchuck ate the Sub-Energy and defeated Driscoll. Though defeated, Driscoll managed to escape.

Ultimate Alien

Driscoll returned in The Purge, where he and the rest of the Forever Knight faction leaders were summoned by Sir George. Although he initially attacked the old man, Driscoll stopped once he realized who George really was and agreed to serve him, swearing loyalty to the "Founder of Our Order, The Original Forever Knight."

Later, while leading a group of Forever Knights to capture aliens, Driscoll was challenged by Ben to honorable combat over the fate of the prisoners, which Ultimate Spidermonkey won. Despite this, Driscoll refused to let the aliens go, ordering the Forever Knights to kill them. However, after a powerful death threat from Ben, Driscoll and his Knights withdrew. Driscoll apologized to George for his failure, who said that it was not important and put him in charge of the Knights while he left on a sacred journey.

In A Knight to Remember, Driscoll, along with Sir Cyrus and a group of Forever Knights, is inspecting the arrival of a new piece of equipment when Ben appears. The Knights immediately attack him, who transforms into Fasttrack and steals their weapons. After a brief discussion about traitors within the Forever Knights, Ben's team show up with a captured Winston, who was apparently mind controlled by the Dagon. Enraged, Driscoll orders the execution of Winston but Ben cuts it off, asking for answers. Driscoll tells them the legendary story of "Saint George and the Dragon". Driscoll allows Ben and the team to decipher the calculations left behind by George, revealing where he was heading. After they do so, Driscoll personally stuns the trio before leading Cyrus and several Knights to George's location.

Upon reuniting with George, the group journeys into the shrine where the Dagon's heart and Ascalon are kept. They are ambushed by the Flame Keepers' Circle. Driscoll and Cyrus battle Conduit Edwards but are defeated by him. Later, Driscoll attempts to help George stop Vilgax from breaking open Dagon's seal. Driscoll was killed by Vilgax after confronting him at the seal from which the Lucubra emerged from.

---

Max T.: Driscoll!

Driscoll: (British Accent) Been a while Max.

Me: You know him Max?

Max T.: That's right. Driscoll is one of the veteran Plumbers. When I was still a rookie, a scandal rocked the Plumbers. Driscoll here, one of the veterans was stealing Alien Weapons from alien perps and using them for his own benefit. Eventually he was caught and thrown out of the Plumbers in disgrace. As far as anyone knew he was never heard from again. But he joined the Forever Knights and became one of their leaders.

Me: So he's a rogue Plumber!

Ben: And it's how he was able to utilize the Intel on the Plumber Complexes.

Me: Whoa! We had no idea that there was a former Plumber within the ranks of the Forever Knights.

Ben: And not only that but he's also the very man that formed the Negative 10.

Me: So you are the true mastermind of the Negative 10!

Driscoll: That is correct.

Knight Man then came and slashed at him and he dodged away.

Driscoll: Who are you? An alien robot dressed like one of us.

Knight Man: I am Knight Man! One of the true honorable knights of the universe. Unlike you all!

Me: But you aren't the only one that likes to wear armor. Zhuqiaomon lets show him the awesome power of Humans and Digimon working together.

Zhuqiaomon: Lets do it!

I pulled out my Digivice and it glowed and Zhuqiaomon glowed and merged with me and I glowed and got an amazing and awesome armor suit on! I had Zhuqiaomon's head as a helmet, body and talons as armor for my body and I had his wings on my back and I had his tail and I had 3 Red Digicores around my arms and legs and I had an awesome red aura around me and I had incredible intense heat around it.

Me: (Echoing) J.D. KNUDSON - KNIGHT OF THE PHOENIX SOVEREIGN!

Nico: WHOA! J.D. you look awesome!

Me: This is a new transformation that I have been saving for when we meet the Data Squad Digidestined. But I thought this would be a good time to show it.

Eli: WOW! So cool!

Me: Yep.

Driscoll: Impressive armor J.D. You have come a long way.

Me: Indeed.

I unsheathed by sword and it was a red phoenix sword.

Me: Lets dance.

We went at each other some more and clashed all over. Sparks were flying all over the place and turning much of the area into a raging inferno with towering walls of fire.

Eris: Oh, and if you're looking to reassemble the Negative 10, don't bother. Most of them want nothing to do with you.

Me: Because some of them are either dead or in prison or joined the Redemption Squad. But mostly dead.

Driscoll: That's quite all right. I had no intention of reassembling them.

Me: Good.

We resumed clashing with powerful swords and blasters.

Me: In this form I have total access to all of Zhuqiaomon's abilities. Watch. (Echoing) PHOENIX FIRE!

I fired a blast of fire from my hand and it hit Driscoll and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Most of the knights all over were being incinerated and burned all over.

Pierce came and blocked Driscoll's Strike.

Driscoll: This is impossible. You're dead!

Pierce: Oh, really? Tell me, Driscoll. If I was still dead, could I do.. this?! (punches Driscoll in the face)

POW!

He punched Driscoll in the face and sent him crashing into a rock and knocked him out.

Me: Nice one Pierce.

Nico: Yeah!

We were blasting all the Forever Knights and Knights of Rodeghan all over the place.

Barbossa: I don't suppose you'd be willing to agree to a parley.

Laney: What do you have in mind captain?

Barbossa: Kill the most of these lubbers and the most we kill gets to buy dinner.

Laney: You got a deal.

They went at them and counted as they were killing them.

Goliath grew to giant size.

Goliath: Still want to try and kill us?

The Forever Knights blasted at him and Goliath blocked their blasts and he smashed them all over.

They were still coming.

Me: They just keep on coming!

Nico: Yeah! No matter how much we kill them more just keep on coming.

But then The Wrecking Crew, Hank Scorpio, Whiger, Deker, Abis Mal, Nergal, Motor Ed, Private H.I.V.E., Penguin, The Cheese Monster and The Star Creature appeared.

Me: The Wrecking Crew, Hank Scorpio, Whiger, Deker, Abis Mal, Nergal, Motor Ed, Private H.I.V.E., Penguin, The Cheese Monster and The Star Creature.

Nico: (Drools) Oh boy! MORE CHEESE!

Cheese Monster: (Menacing Voice) I'm not here for you Nico. I'm here for (Points to Derpy Hooves) her.

Derpy: Me! I get my own archenemy!?

Me: Nice!

Wrecker: Looks like you all have your hands full.

Nico: No kidding!

Thunderball: You guys sure have been busy.

Maria: We sure have.

Hank Scorpio: But at least most of the Forever Knights are dead.

Motor Ed: (to Prince Wally) Hiya, Wally. We didn't get a chance to meet before today. Name's Motor Ed. Nice to meet you!

Prince Wally: Same here. It's a real honor.

Whiger: (to Nico) You must be wondering how the Cheese Monster can talk now.

Nico: Yeah.

Whiger: Vypra used her magic to give him the ability to speak.

Nico: Sweet!

Me: Clever thinking.

Wrecker: Wow! You look awesome in that armor J.D.

Me: Thanks. Me and Zhuqiaomon merged and he is now Phoenix Armor. I call this form Knight of The Phoenix Sovereign.

Bulldozer: Wow! That is amazing!

Piledriver: It sure is. Hope you're ready for some fun.

Me: You bet I am. As long as there are lots of knights to destroy, I'm always up for it.

?: And there's also more of us coming.

2 figures came out and they were PROFESSOR MONKEY-FOR-A-HEAD and JACK O LANTERN!

---

Professor Monkey-For-A-Head

Earthworm Jim

The Professor has a reputation for being quite possibly the most advanced super-scientist in the galaxy, which gets him plenty of work as a freelance weapons designer. He spends his time in a massive laboratory conducting strange, unethical experiments and creating devastating weapons.

At some point, he decided to graft an entire living monkey to his skull, possibly as a dubious attempt to increase his already impressive intelligence. But this backfired considerably as the monkey will often disrupt the Professor's experiments. However, there was an upside to this as the Professor, through the monkey, has become much more nimble and athletic.

Eventually, the Professor's reputation caught the attention of Queen Slug-For-A-Butt. The Queen commissioned the Professor to create the Ultra-High-Tech-Indestructible-Super-Space-Cyber-Suit so that she may become powerful enough to expand her rule throughout the galaxy. The suit was eventually finished and in transit to the Queen, but was unfortunately lost amidst a skirmish, crash-landing on a backwater planet called Earth.

The Professor could remedy this predicament by simply making another super-suit, had the monkey not eaten the original blueprints.

But things would start to look up when Jim, the super-suit's new owner, would find himself recklessly wandering into the Professor's laboratory. The Professor unleashed all sorts of weaponized machines and test-tube monstrosities in an effort to subdue the mutated annelid and reclaim the suit. However, Jim proved to be too powerful, thanks to the suit, and was able to fight back the Professor's experiments, find his way out of the laboratory's labyrinthine interior and continue on his intergalactic quest.

Apparently surviving his encounter with Jim largely unscathed, not much is known about what happened to the Professor afterwards. With the Queen slain by Jim's hand, the Professor presumably returned to his life as a mad-scientist-for-hire.

Jack O'Lantern

Jack O' Lantern is the main antagonist of the The Grim Adventures and Billy & Mandy episode "Billy & Mandy's Jacked-Up Halloween".

He is voiced by Wayne Knight, who also portrayed Dennis Nedry in Jurassic Park, Al McWhiggin in Toy Story 2 and Emperor Zurg in Buzz Lightyear of Star Command while in the video game he is voiced by Maurice LaMarche who voiced Father in Codename: Kids Next Door.

Jack was the village fool who would pull pranks on the villagers. The problem with Jack was, while he was a pleasant guy, he didn't know when to stop and his pranks ranged from harmless and annoying to dangerous and painful. Rumor had it, he would devise new pranks every evening and laugh himself to sleep at night. One day, the townspeople couldn't take it anymore and devised a prank of their own: the classic snake in a candy jar prank, signed it from Jack and sent it to the queen (who had no sense of humor). When the queen opened the gift from "Jack", she sent a knight out to kill him. Immediately, the Grim Reaper went to reap his soul, but Jack tickled him and stole his scythe and would only give it back if Grim had granted him immortality. When the deal was done, as punishment for tricking him, Grim decapitated him, ensuring that Jack would never show his face around town again, ever. Later on, Jack got himself a pumpkin and wore it as his new head. He still lived in his old house that was untouched by time and every Halloween Night, Jack emerged with a sack full of tricks and played terrible pranks on the people of Endsville.

Earthworm Jim: Professor Monkey-For-A-Head!

Mandy: And Jack O'Lantern!

Me: Strange seeing you two again!

Professor Monkey-For-A-Head: AND YOU CAUGHT ME COMPLETELY OFF GUARD LIKE A MUTATED SIMIAN FREAK!

Me: Uh you have a monkey for a head so why do you think we call you that?

Twilight Sparkle: He has a monkey for a head?

Rainbow Dash: Now I've seen everything.

Brittney: And Jack O'Lantern the Immortal Pumpkinheaded Prankster. Nice to see you again.

Jack O'Lantern (Billy & Mandy): Been a while Brittney.

Brittney: Yes it has.

?: Lots of reunions huh?

A figure came out and it was SLIPPERY SHARK from episode 56 of Mighty Morphin Power Rangers!

---

The Slippery Shark was a hammerhead-shark monster who served as the main antagonist of the episode "On Fins and Needles."

The Slippery Shark was created by Finster in a plan to cause a divide between Jason and Tommy and thus divide the Power Rangers which would make them easier to destroy. The Slippery Shark's weapon was a fin on a chain that he wielded it like a sword where his friendship powers were concentrated. Somehow, before he was created, Rita sent the Putty Patrol and equipped them with the monster's boomerang and turned the duo against each other although not before getting defeated. Rita then had Finster create the Slippery Shark and sent him to Earth and he went berserk although his speed meant that neither Alpha nor Zordon could get a lock on him. They tore Jason and Tommy away from a martial arts brawl and Zordon sent them together alone to hunt down the Slippery Shark in order to overpower the rivalry spell.

Jason appeared first but the monster used his speed to cut him down before going underground, Jason trying and failing to take him out using his Blade Blaster. He then plowed through Jason and exited the ground before teleporting away, forcing Jason to play catch-up. He then confronted Tommy nearby, overwhelming him by staying underground and ramming out his feet before jumping up and slashing him down. He then dove back underground and took him down once more before zipping away. They took into pursuit but he fully went underground, making them meet up so he could punch them both down. They eventually mended fences and tricked him into jumping out of the ground, restraining him with a net they got from nowhere which restrained him enough to force him to beg. They refused but only had time to shake hands before the monster produced his boomerang and immediately cut himself free. Although he initially had the upper hand against Jason and Tommy, the spell was broken so the other Rangers arrived and joined their comrades. Even though he was now heavily outnumbered, the Slippery Shark held his own and cut down the other four only to be jump punched down by Jason and Tommy. Now angry, the monster tried his underground tactic again but Zack used his Power Axe in Cannon Mode on the ground, ejecting the Slippery Shark.

With the monster stunned, the Rangers formed the Power Blaster which horrified the monster but Rita enlarged him and the finishing beam somehow missed him entirely. The Rangers then summoned the Megazord and the Dragonzord but the monster easily dodged and outmaneuvered the Zords, ducking even the Dragonzord's tail and a bunch from the Megazord before kicking the latter back. Annoyed, Jason summoned the Power Sword but even this equalizer could not turn the tide since the monster just rolled right under it and slashed the Megazord anyway. However, Billy reminded Jason about teamwork and a smack to the head from the Dragonzord's tail took down the Slippery Shark and allowed the Megazord to gain the upper hand. The monster swore to turn the Megazord "into fish bait" but got slashed down the shoulder by the Power Sword although not before the Megazord did the same. The Megazord then knocked his fin up and then brought down the Power Sword so he had to block with his boomerang but it was cut straight through the middle and effectively rendered him helpless. Enraged, he swore revenge but was scared when the Megazord charged up it's weapon only to be slain by an energized slash, dancing around for a moment before falling flat on his back and exploding.

---

Jason Lee Scott: Slippery Shark!

Slippery Shark: Been a while Red and Green Rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were sent to turn Tommy and Jason against each other so that destroying the rangers would be far more easier.

Slippery Shark: That's right J.D. Good memory on you.

Me: Never missed an episode.

One of the Knights managed to grab Slippery Shark's fin.

Maria: (laughs) He shouldn't have done that!

Slippery Shark: And the best part? All of the Knights are going to be affected now!

His eyes glowed and all the knights were fighting each other viciously!

Me: WHOA! Just like on TV.

Nico: Yep.

Eerie moaning was heard and then out came the STRAWBERRY, VANILLA AND CHOCOLATE TECHNICOLOR PHANTOMS!

Nico: Oh wow! My three favorite flavors of ice cream in phantom form!

Twilight Sparkle: Wow! Strawberry, Vanilla and Chocolate phantoms.

Qin: Yep. The Vanilla Phantom was really Sammy the Shrimp, a notorious hijacker that was responsible for swiping an armored car loaded with 2 million in cash and he and his henchman were gonna get it out of the country by painting it and making it look like an ice cream truck.

Nico: Yep. But they were busted and Sammy and his buddies got 25 to 50 years for Robbery and Hijacking.

Me: But it was extended to life later on.

Nico: Yep.

Me: Lets have a little fun! Lets go!

We went at them for the usual battles.

---

Battle 1: Lok Lambert, Twilight Sparkle, Magic Skylanders, Luster Dawn, Iron Man, Thor, Spiderman, Hawkeye, Black Widow, Dr.

Strange, Hulk, Captain America, Scarlet Witch, Quicksilver, Slugslinger and Triggerhappy VS Wrecking Crew

---

The Wrecking Crew was first.

Piledriver: (to Lok) I sure am glad Billy's finally become loved by his classmates.

Bulldozer: After all the times he's saved Earth, he's earned it.

Lok: Yes he has and he has definitely done so much for everyone.

Twilight Sparkle: And he has more than earned the right to be called a hero as well as be popular after everything that happened to him.

Spyro: Yeah and now all we have to do is find his birth mother.

Enigma: And that is not gonna be easy.

Luster Dawn: Yeah. But we will not give up hope.

Thunderball: I have strong hope that you will find her.

Wrecker: Yeah after everything that Billy went through he needs his mom.

Iron Man: And we will find her.

Thor: I think it's mostly because of his biological father that he forced his mother to abandon him.

Black Widow: I have that strong feeling myself. We'll have to have S.H.I.E.L.D. look into it.

Spiderman: Yeah.

Hawkeye: But I have a feeling that Thor is right. And if that is the case then he will be in serious trouble with the law and S.H.I.E.L.D.

Dr. Strange: He gives fathers everywhere a REALLY bad name.

Hulk: Hulk agree. Just ask puny Banner father.

Captain America: Yeah David Banner is the worst.

Scarlet Witch: Magneto is never like that.

Quicksilver: Yeah thank goodness.

Slugslinger: That's a relief.

Triggerhappy: Yeah.

Wrecker: Good. Lets get it on!

The Wrecking Crew went at them and swung their weapons and kicked and punched at them and the group dodged their strikes and blasted and smashed them all down all over and knocked them down.

Lok: YEAH!

Twilight Sparkle: That was so fun!

Luster Dawn: Yeah!

Battle 2: Sophie Casterwill, Sunset Shimmer, Fire Skylanders, Homer, Bart, Lisa, Maggie, Crash Man and Quick Man VS Hank Scorpio

Hank Scorpio was next.

Hank Scorpio (to Sophie): Ratchet's right. The only villain you guys have ever met from Billy's rogues gallery is Black Adam.

Sophie Casterwill: (British Accent) I agree. Black Adam may be Billy's main archnemesis but I have a feeling that there are many more of Billy's enemies we have yet to meet. Some of them would make great archenemies for us.

Sunset Shimmer: Yeah it would be so cool to face them.

Eruptor: I think so too as long as we get to burn them!

Ka-Boom: And bring the boom to them.

Homer: As long as we get to bring them pies.

Bart: And pain.

Lisa Simpson: And it will be awesome.

Maggie: You said it sis.

Crash Man: We'll always be ready for them.

Quick Man: Yes we will!

Hank Scorpio: You got that right. Lets do it!

He fired a flamethrower blast and they dodged it and blasted him all over with fire and smashed him all over and knocked him down.

Sophie Casterwill: Great victory!

Sunset Shimmer: Yeah it was!

---

Battle 3: Dante Vale, Fluttershy, Life Skylanders, Star Lord, Gamora, Rocket Raccoon, Groot, Drax the Destroyer, Nebula and Yondu VS Whiger

---

Whiger was next.

Whiger: (to Dante Vale) I knew it was only a matter of time before the Forever Knight henchmen showed up.

Dante: I know and it is good that some of them are still alive even after Dagon susposedly killed them all.

Fluttershy: Yeah and they have done so much pain and suffering to many kids of humans and aliens.

Stealth Elf: The way I see it they are nothing but a cult of Xenophobic Bigots.

Ambush: Yeah and they have no honor. The only exception that I can think of is Driscoll.

Star Lord: It's amazing that they have a former Plumber in their ranks.

Gamora: And that he is the true mastermind behind the formation of the Negative 10.

Rocket Raccoon: And it's ironic that some of the Negative 10 are now with us in the Redemption Squad.

Groot: I am Groot.

Rocket Raccoon: He said he agrees.

Drax: Yeah. We haven't faced Sublimino yet. But he is probably the last of Ben's Major Enemies that we have yet to face.

Nebula: And he hypnotised Cooper back then from what I remember.

Yondu: That is awful.

Whiger: Yeah it was. Poor kid. Lets do it!

He fired Tiger blasts and they dodged them and went at him and smashed him down with elemental and star blasts and knocked him down.

Dante Vale: YEAH!

Fluttershy: That was fun.

* * *

Deker was next.

Deker: (to Ruby) I don't blame Pierce for wanting payback. After all, he was killed by the Forever Knights.

Ruby Rose: I don't blame him either and Pierce was trying to live a normal life with his girlfriend until the Forever Knights senselessly snuffed out his life.

Princess Luna: Those monsters are a bunch of xenophobic bigots with no honor.

Snowdrop: Yeah and many of us come from many planets all over the universe.

Gari: And it's really cool that some of us come from many planets. But Pierce did nothing to deserve being killed like that!

Blackout: That's not cool!

Knight Mare: He didn't deserve to be slaughtered like an animal like that.

Pip-Squeak: (British Accent) No he didn't! It's absolutely unconscienable and they don't deserve to live after everything they did.

Brittney: You said it Pip. I hope Nico has a heart feast with the Forever Knights.

Bleez: For us it's an all you can eat buffet.

Eion: Yeah and I got a craving for some blood.

Ratchet: Me too.

Zilius Zox: Same here.

Dex-Starr: (Meows) Me too.

Vice: Yeah!

Skallox: You said it.

Deker: You are gonna have all the blood you want after this. Lets get it on!

Rarity: It sure was darling and the history behind it was most amazing.

Sweetie Belle: It sure was. I thought it was amazing that Mexico drove off those colonizers before they could claim Mexico.

Abis Mal: Indeed.

Gill Grunt: Thank goodness that France didn't set up shop in Mexico.

Chill: (Russian Accent) Indeed. I would not want to have France next to us.

Aladdin: I think Mexico is perfect to the south.

Jasmine: It sure is.

Abu chitters in agreement.

Iago: I agree too. And Mexico has amazing culture and all that.

Blake: YEAH!

Applejack: YEEHAW! That was great!

---

Battle 7: Yang, Rainbow Dash, Scootaloo, Air Skylanders, Kim Possible, Ron Stoppable, Knight Man and Tomahawk Man VS Motor Ed

Motor Ed was next.

Motor Ed: (to Yang) I heard about the Knights of Rodeghan the first time they appeared. And they weren't cool. Seriously.

Yang: No they weren't. And it's absolutely awful that they can harbor a grudge like that towards one little country like that for a long time.

Rainbow Dash: That is totally messed up.

Scootaloo: No kidding. I can't even hold a grudge for over 25 minutes.

Whirlwind: Yeah that is crazy.

Gusto: No kidding mates.

Kim Possible: But it's awful that they can have a grudge that goes back that long. Really unhealthy.

Ron Stoppable: No kidding.

Knight Man: Most unpleasant.

Tomahawk Man: Yeah.

Motor Ed: Boy even I wouldn't last that long in a grudge. Seriously. Lets get it on!

Yang: ALL RIGHT!

Private H.I.V.E.: (to Emerald) Those Knights of Rodeghan oughta be court martialed for trying to kill one of their own!

Emerald Sustrai: Trying to get them to stop their grudge that was going on like this since the Medieval Times is completely impossible.

Starlight Glimmer: They may be from Rodeghan but it was because of the tyrannical king that lead to their uprising.

Hex: Their hearts are full of darkness and evil.

Krypt King: Yes and they have no honor.

Jack Sparrow: What they have done against their country shows that they are evil to the core mates.

Elizabeth Swann: (British Accent) Indeed and they need to be destroyed.

Gibbs: You said it. They deserve it too.

Will Turner: They need to learn that their actions have consequences.

Barbossa: Aye laddie.

Naruto: Yeah it's better than terrorizing the streets of Gotham or Gotham Royal York.

Fu: You said it.

Sakura H.: Absolutely.

Penguin: Indeed. And I am glad to be back as an anti-hero rather than a villain.

Jiraiya: That is so much better for you.

Jessie Bannon: He sure likes bananas.

Professor MFAH: Yes and I do too. But that's all right. Lets do it!

They laughed.

---

Firecracker Burst: Neat! Just as long as the Tar Monster doesn't leave a mess all over the base. Tar is really sticky stuff.

Star Creature: It sure is.

Firecracker Burst: Also the Tar Monster has been a problem for Lori. I heard from J.D. that he got some tar on Lori and when we pulled it off it ripped her skin on her back off.

Star Creature: Yikes! Ouch! That must've really hurt.

Firecracker Burst: I don't even want to think about that. Lets do it.

Jack O'Lantern (Billy & Mandy): It was. I will never forgive him for that.

Juvia: Well you got to let that go. You are a great prankster and would make a great partner for Luan and Eddy at Birthday Parties.

Jack O'Lantern (Billy & Mandy): You really think so?

Juvia: I sure do. But people would like you better with your real head on. You need it.

Jack O'Lantern (Billy & Mandy): Indeed. Lets dance Rain Girl.

They fired waves of elemental energy and they formed into the legendary Jedi of the galaxy.

Hook, Kitten, Gary and Ratchet used the Earth and Autobot Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Hook's Rocket Launcher, Kitten's Moth Powers, Gary's Powers and Ratchet's Laser Scalpel 100-fold.

Hook and Kitten: MOTH ROCKET BARRAGE!

Gary (Pokemon) and G1 Ratchet: LASER POKEMON SLASH STORM!

Hook and Kitten fired moths and rockets and Gary and Ratchet fired lasers and elemental blasts. The techniques smashed the knights all down all over.

Pierce: This is for killing me!

Riley and Pierce: OMNITRIX NEEDLE MEGA SHISH-KA-BOB!

Kim, Nico, Eli, The Jedi, Me, Prince Wally III, Lola, Rapunzel, Carol and Lana: DRAGON OF THE MEGA INFERNO!

Riley and Pierce fired waves of needles of energy.

We fired a wave of fire and it formed into a dragon of fire.

Me, Palutena, Misty and Zarya: MUSICAL FINAL SMASH: MEXICAN MUSICAL MAYHEM!

Lincoln, Jessica, Shantae, Toph, Hilda, Frosta, Perfuma, Entrapta, Mai, Ronnie Anne, Gluko, Yuna and Nanami: ARTHURIAN FINAL SMASH! 13 HOLY BLADE SLASH!

They summed the weapons of King Arthur and The Knights of The Round Table

R. Mika, Ibuki, Menat, Makoto, Twilight Sparkle, Trixie, Starlight Glimmer, Sunset shimmer, Julie and Earth: JEDI FINAL SMASH: LIGHTSABER SLASH BARRAGE!

They brought lightsabers out and slashed the knights all over and Lincoln and his group slashed the knights all over and the group all obliterated the knights all over the place.

The Forever Knights and the Knights of Rodeghan were ALL obliterated.

Nico: That's it for them.

Private H.I.V.E.: Well, that takes care of those knights.

Kim Possible: Just like how I defeated them before.

Deker: And we also took out a good number of the Forever Knights.

Abis Mal: But we'll see if there are more left in the future.

Nergal: Now, let's celebrate with some pizza!

Me: PIZZA!

Nico: Yeah!

Laney: Lets do it!

Naruto: Yeah!

Driscoll got up.

Me: Driscoll I think what you were doing was very beneficial for the Plumbers and it was absolutely not fair that you were kicked out like that. You were doing the world a huge service and helping us by getting so many awesome and highly advanced weaponry. Like they say: To the victors go the spoils of war. Just like we do.

Driscoll: But why did you spare me?

Me: Because you have honor. And you were once one of Max's friends when he was in the Plumbers. You still can do so much good in the world and for the universe. I just think it's wrong you were kicked out of the Plumbers like that.

Eli: I agree. It was not fair.

Me: Driscoll you can do the right thing and help the forces of good and bring bad guys to justice like we have been doing.

Ben: I agree Driscoll. You helped us beat Dagon and that shows that there is still good in you.

Me: That's right. It's not too late for you to change.

Driscoll was amazed that we would give him this chance to change.

I held out my hand and then he took it and the darkness in his heart vanished and we shook hands and he was on the road to redemption.

Kim Possible: (To the viewers) This was an epic adventure! Now we have seen the last of the Knights of Rodeghan and some of the Forever Knights.

Laney: Yes we have. Mission Accomplished.

We went back home and helped America get trade routes with the Kingdom of Rodeghan. We went to Nergal's Pizzeria and got awesome pizza for dinner and we later went back home and watched TV before going to sleep.

THE END

---

Another awesome chapter done.

The Knights of Rodeghan from Kim Possible were fierce and powerful and amazing. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is the funny and popular cartoon show Whatever Happened To Robot Jones and we're gonna go after The Yogman Twins and make those delinquent bullies pay for making everyone look like a bunch of imbeciles.

See you all tomorrow and also Happy Cinco De Mayo everyone!

Twin Bully Robot Haters

In the laboratory we were there to test Billy to see if he is ready to rejoin the team even after everything that happened to him and even though it was not his fault.

We saw that Billy had 4 Number Cards. He had Number 1, 2, 3 and 4:

Number 1: Numeron Gate Ekam

Number 2: Numeron Gate Dve

Number 3: Numeron Gate Trini

Number 4: Numeron Gate Catvari

Eli: Wow! We're amazed that you had these cards on you Billy.

Mandy: Yeah.

Lola: We didn't know you had them.

Lana: Yeah.

Me: But that's 4 more Numbers for us.

Nico: Few things of value come without a price. So tell me, Billy, what is it that you wish in return for you giving us these Number Cards?

Billy: (bows) Only to be part of the team again.

Beekeeper: We really are grateful that you found these Number Cards for us, Billy. And don't worry. Whatever the outcome, they'll be put to good use.

Billy (confused): Outcome? Of what?

Nico: Lisa, is your device ready?

Lisa: Yes. But what are we using it for?

Nico: To find out Billy's true motives.

Me: This is gonna be interesting seeing what's inside your head Billy.

Mandy: If he has a brain at all.

Nico: Well lets find out.

Lisa put a headband on Nico and we activated a machine and we were watching Nico on a screen. We saw everything from his Point of View and how he was inside Billy's head. His head was as empty as the inside of an inflated beach ball. But he was looking at his memories.

Nico: I'm in.

Billy: You're in my head, aren't you?

Nico: Thanks to the Subconscious Mind Resuscitation Linker. You see there are no secrets in here, only your memories. You cannot manipulate their content or modify their outcome. What we see is how it happened.

Stan Smith: (chuckles) This is gonna be juicy.

Vesper Woman: You said it. I'll get the popcorn.

Stewie: Ooh! Let me watch too!

Vesper Woman went and got some popcorn and we were watching what was inside Billy's head. On a screen we saw how Billy and Mandy met Grim.

Grim: (Jamaican Accent) Oh this is how Billy and Mandy met me mon.

We saw that they met Grim and were stopping him from taking Mr. Snuggles.

Me: Wow! So that's how you all met Grim.

Mandy: Yeah it was a fun time back then.

Me: I always wondered how you guys met him.

We saw a bunch of memories. We saw how they met Hoss Delgado, Eris, Nergal, Sperg, Mindy and more.

Me: Wow! So that's how you all met Eris, Nergal, Hoss and many others.

Mandy: Yep.

We see the memory of Billy trying to kill me in chapter 1386.

Billy: That insanity chip made me do that! I wasn't in control at the time!

We then see a memory from "The House of No Tomorrow". It showed Billy plugging the master plug back in and trapping Tom Smith inside.

Nico: I don't see any insanity chip here. Did it make you do this act of stupidity as well?!

Billy: (nervously) Well, things really shouldn't be unplugged…

Nico: Tell me why I should welcome back someone who's every waking impulse has been to make stupid decisions that destroy everything and everyone around him!

Me: Nico I think the chip erased what happened after I removed it.

Nico: Yeah you're right. But still…

Billy: Because I can change and help you all!

Me: Nico just let him have a chance to prove it. Besides seeing all of Billy and Mandy's adventures is amazing.

Eli: Yeah they sure are. We're seeing everything that happened to him from his point of view and they did all sorts of great stuff.

Ets: My favorite was when Billy ate all those boxes of chocolate and turned into chocolate as a result.

Lana: I can't believe he ate all those boxes of chocolate!

Mary K.: Not even I can eat that much chocolate!

Nico: That was a lot of chocolate.

Mary counted how many boxes of chocolate he ate and she counted 10,000 boxes of chocolate!

Mary K.: He ate 10,000 boxes of chocolate!?

Lola: WHOA!

Lily: That is a tremendous amount of chocolate!

Me: I'm amazed Billy didn't get diabetes or have a heart attack from eating that much chocolate.

Laney: No kidding!

Mary K.: Yeah!

Billy: I don't want to play this game anymore! Take the Cards! We'll pretend I was never here.

Nico: No, Billy! There are only two possible outcomes based upon what I find here in your stupid little mind. If I do not deem that you're worthy of rejoining Team Loud Phoenix Storm, I guarantee that you will be sent to the Warp!

Eddy: (smirks) Looks like Nico's got Billy backed into a corner.

Double D: You said it. Guys, I have to go use the bathroom. Please keep watching what happens. (leaves the room)

Me: Okay.

We were watching and we saw an interesting one. We saw Grim and Billy put a mask on Mandy and it turned her into an ugly creature every when she got angry.

Me: Whoa! That mask turned you into that?

Mandy: It was to try and teach me a lesson.

Eli: I know that mask. It's the Mask of the Beast.

Eli pulled out the mask and he showed it to us.

Me: Wow! How did you get this Eli?

Eli: It's a torture method I came up with whenever Lola, Lori or Lynn act like sociopathic jerks. I put this mask on them and turn them into beasts if they don't behave.

Me: You are a sly fox bro.

Lori: Yeah he is.

Carol: That's our bro.

Another Memory played and we saw how they were facing Boogey in Big Boogey Adventure and it was a harrowing journey and they got everyone all over the world to never believe in the Boogeyman again.

Nico: Whoa! Serves that jerk Boogey right.

Me: You said it!

We also saw how Billy brought those zombies to life by putting Evil Powder in Brownies and it inadvertently brought all those zombies to life.

Me: So that's how all those zombies came to life.

Grim: No wonder those brownies tasted so good.

Mandy: It also explains why they smelled awful.

Me: Uh you don't have a nose Mandy.

Mandy: I know. I get that a lot.

Me: He mistook that for salt and made brownies that brought zombies to life.

Laney: Yikes.

Grim: I need to set up security cameras around my trunk.

Irwin: (nervously) When Nico comes out of it, he won't just send me to the Warp for helping Billy with all his shenanigans, yo! He'll tear my heart out and eat it right in front of me!

But then, Irwin saw the cord behind the Linker on my head, and an idea came to his mind.

Irwin: (smirks) But… if I disconnect before the Linker is finished, the link is severed and… Nico will never emerge from Billy's head.

Irwin started to twist the plug, but suddenly a hand grabbed his own: it was Shockwave.

Shockwave: Everything okay here?

Irwin: (twists plug back) Just checking cable integrity, yo.

POW!

Mandy punched Irwin in the face and sent him crashing into the chair.

Mandy: He was trying to unplug the cable.

Me: Nice job Mandy. If that link was severed when he cut the cable he would have trapped Nico in Billy's mind forever.

Laney: I don't know what got him to thinking that.

Lana: Also I heard him say that Nico is gonna rip him apart and eat his heart in front of him before sending him to the Warp.

Me: Geez he would never to that to Irwin. He knows it goes against our code.

Twilight Sparkle: I don't know where he got that idea from.

Nico: Yeah I heard that and J.D. is right. I would never do that to Irwin.

We continued watching and we saw Billy's Teacher Ms. Butterbean being a sleepy teacher every time and all that.

Me: Billy's teacher is very laid back.

Mrs. Krabappel: Ha! She is like me in every way.

Me: That is funny.

We saw Billy and Irwin doing really silly Prank Calls and we were laughing at them.

Nico: (laughs) Those prank calls were funny.

Bart: (Laughs) Good prank calls!

We saw how they turned into ugly monsters from Cthulhu and all that and more.

Me: Billy looked awesome with a squid nose.

Varie: And Irwin looked really ugly like that.

Mandy: He sure did.

Lola: But those monsters everyone turned into were hideous.

We also saw a memory of Billy tricking Hector Con Carne into attacking Skarr's garden.

Nico: I see. So, you managed to trick Hector Con Carne into attacking Skarr's garden, making the latter betray him.

Billy: Mandy helped with that too. And as a bonus, Skarr's now a good guy!

Nico: All of us know that. Just don't annoy him whenever he's working on his gardening outside the Estate.

Billy: (surprised) Does this mean?

Nico: Yes, I will allow you to return to the team. If only because you are more valuable beside me than against me.

Billy: (happy) Oh, thank you! Thank you!

Nico: There's already enough infighting that goes on occasionally between us without your antics. If we're gonna continue protecting the universe, we really need to start working together. (to the screen) That goes for you, Lori, and Lola as well, Lynn!

Wheeljack: Well, Nico certainly knows how to kill two birds with one stone, huh?

Me: That's why I made him chief enforcer and Mandy is enforcer of the T.O.V.

Nico: Cool.

Me: Nico you can come back now.

Nico: Okay. I've seen all I have seen.

Nico came back.

Nico came back into his body and he had a headache the size of Alaska.

Nico: WHOA! (Groans) What a headache!

Me: You did great Nico.

Ino: That headband is so much like my clans techniques.

Me: It sure was.

Twilight Sparkle: I am also amazed that you met a unicorn with an attitude like Mandy's.

Laney: Yeah that was cool. Mandy and Mary-Frances are good friends.

Pandora (Billy & Mandy): Same with me.

Me: Wow. We'll have to meet her some time.

Nico: Yeah. But those adventures we saw were awesome and funny.

Lola: They sure were.

Rage Mage: (to Billy) If you really want to prove yourself on missions again, you can help us hunt down some bullies that Nicole has been after. Shouldn't be too hard.

Nicole: Guys come on. He has been through enough already. Now here are the targets.

Nicole pulled out two wanted posters and they were for Lenny and Denny Yogman.

The Yogman Twins are fraternal twins that are rarely seen attending class. Instead they are in the laboratory located in the school's H.V.A.C. system. They wear red hats that resembles the 1980s band Devo's energy dome hats, yellow shirts, and black sneakers. Lenny is the taller twin and Denny is the shorter twin. They have occasional victories and occasional defeats. When defeated, they end up hissing much louder than they normally do. In the Robot Jones promo, the Yogman Twins are said to be among the antagonists with the mission to destroy Robot Jones. They're a pair of bullies that often sneak up on the main characters. They target Robot more than any other character. In "Cube Wars" it's revealed that Lenny and Denny share the title of Wondercube World Champions. Denny has a higher voice than Lenny. They overemphasize the letter 's' and make hissing noises when plans don't go their way.

Me: The Yogman Twins. I've heard about them. They are evil twins that are also the meanest bullies ever known in school.

Lola: Yeah I hate those guys!

Nico: Wow! Look at the bounties on them. $726,273,297,493,283,464.00.

Tenten: Wow! That's good money.

Hinata: It sure is.

Fu: I think so too.

Me: Looks like we're going after 2 bullies.

Private H.I.V.E., The Wrecking Crew, Whiger, Hank Scorpio, Deker, Abis Mal, Motor Ed and Nergal then appeared.

Private H.I.V.E.: Permission for me, the Wrecking Crew, Whiger, Hank Scorpio, Deker, Abis Mal, Motor Ed, and Nergal to go with you all, sir?

Me: Granted soldier! Granted!

Motor Ed: Is Billy seriously back on the team?

Me: Yes but only if he behaves. Nergal we were amazed by all the numbers of adventures that Billy, Mandy and Grim all went on and how they met you.

Nergal: It was really fun.

Me: It sure was. What really amazed us was that you and Grim were both rivals in the Pizza Restaurant Business.

Nergal: Yeah that was fun.

Nico: That sounds like my kind of rivalry.

Deker: What kind of adventures happened with Billy, Mandy and Grim?

Me: Lots of amazing Adventures.

Lola: Some of them were very weird.

Me: We'll tell you all about them later. Right now we're heading to school to meet a robot kid named Robot Jones.

Hank Scorpio: Wow! This is gonna be interesting.

Jenny Wakeman: It will be an honor to meet him.

Me: It sure will. Lets head out.

We headed out to Gotham Royal York Junior High.

---

We arrived at Gotham Royal York Junior High School.

Metal Man: (looks around) Now, if I were a fellow robot, where in school would I go?

Me: How about getting off the bus.

We saw a robot kid with a metal red t-shirt body and black shorts legs and he had yellow eyes and a big light-bulb brain and with him was a kid with blond curly hair and a green shirt. The robot was called Robot Jones and the blond kid was Socks.

Me: That must be Robot Jones.

We went up to him.

Hank Scorpio: Hi! You must be Robot Jones.

Robot Jones: (Techno Child Voice) Affirmative. It's an honor to meet the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Socks: Same here. I'm Socks. It's a great honor.

Me: You too Socks and Robot Jones it's a great pleasure.

Robot Jones: Same here J.D. Knudson.

Mega Man: It's an honor to meet a fellow robot.

Jenny Wakeman: Same here.

Robotboy: Robot friend is amazing.

Optimus Prime: Always an honor.

Rusty: Sure-a-shootin.

Robot Jones: Pleasure to meet fellow robots too.

Maria (to Robot Jones): You really are a good robot.

Muscle Man: You know who else likes good robots? My mom!

We laughed at his joke.

Robot Jones: I don't get it.

Me: We don't either but his jokes are funny.

Mr Boss: (to Robot Jones) So, do you have any cool powers as a robot?

Robot Jones: Negative. I do not have any superpowers like you all do.

Me: I think we can arrange that. How would you like to be a Cybertronian?

Robot Jones: You possess that kind of robot metamorphosis power?

Me: I don't know. I've never tried it before. But I think I have just the forms for you to turn into. You'll be a Triple Changer.

Nico: Cool!

Robot Jones: Transform me.

Me: Okay! Scanner activated.

I fired a scanning probe and it flew out and scanned an AMMA Skywhale Commercial airliner and a Tesla Eye concept car and it went to Robot Jones and I snapped my fingers turned him into a Cybertronian and he got the power to turn into 3 forms.

Me: COOL!

Nico: WOW! First time ever doing that J.D.?

Me: It sure is.

Lola: That is so cool!

He turned into his airplane form and it was neat and then he turned into his car form and it was cool.

Motor Ed: FYI, that Tesla Car came from my car collection. Seriously.

Me: Wow! Didn't know about that.

Nico: But that's cool!

Laney: That car is a prototype car.

Lana: It sure is but it is awesome!

Me: Yeah it is.

Robot Jones: I look so awesome and I have amazing weapons and such.

Me: You sure do.

Dirge: After we're done here, me and the other Seekers can give you flying lessons.

Robot Jones: Great!

Me: We should also explain why we're here.

Nicole showed them the Wanted Posters of the Yogman Twins.

Socks: The Yogman Twins. You all are here to send them to jail!?

Me: Yep. Our sources have been telling us that they were messing around with explosive materials here at the school.

Socks: They wouldn't be that crazy to build a bomb would they?

Me: Well they just might be. But first we need to have a long talk with the principal and the staff here and set a few things straight here.

Socks: Good idea. They hate Robot Jones for no reason.

Me: We'll fix that. Lets go.

Robot Jones: What can my Transformer name be?

Me: Hmm. Good question. How about Flightsky?

Everyone agreed with that one.

Robot Jones: That's a great name for it.

Nico: Awesome.

Socks: Flightsky it is.

Deker: (to Robot Jones) Robot Jones, be honest. Do you like it here in school?

Robot Jones: (hesitantly) Yes.

May: C'mon. Tell us the truth.

Robot Jones: (Sighs) No I don't like it here at this school. The principal gives me detention for no reason, the teachers abuse me and hate me because of my smarts.

He told us everything and we were shocked.

Me: Oh man! Looks like we REALLY need to straighten some things out.

Nico: Lots of things!

Me: Yep. Lets get to work.

We went into the school and we called a meeting with the staff and principal Principal Madman.

In the conference room we gathered the staff and Principal Madman came in.

Principal Madman: Who called this school conference?

We come in.

Maria: We did. We need to have a very long talk.

Headstrong: I think we're past the talking part! (punches Principal Madman in the jaw)

Nico: Headstrong stand down!

Me: Now we apologize for calling you all here on such short notice and getting you away from teaching but this has to be settled. The reason we're here is to discuss some things involving a certain robot boy here that you all have constantly abused here throughout his entire time here.

Principal Madman: You mean Robot Jones?

Socks: That's right.

We went over everything that happened at the school and all that and how they have been treating him and even the students heard what was going on and they were shocked and appalled.

Me: Well what do you all have to say for yourselves about all that!?

Abis Mal just stole Principal Madman's wallet.

Principal Madman: That's my wallet!

Abis Mal: Hey, you treated Robot Jones like crap. So you lose your wallet. It's only fair!

Eddy: See if there are any credit cards in it.

Weiss: Abis Mal give him back his wallet!

Abis Mal: Fine.

He did so.

Me: He's a pickpocket. Can't help it. But yeah you all should be ashamed of yourselves for what has been going on!

Fluttershy: That's right! (Uses her stare on the teachers and principal and scared them bad!)

Me: Let this be a lesson to you.

The Superintendent put some of the teachers on probation, fired or suspended without pay and the kids that were bullying Robot Jones and others were expelled and sent to prison.

Me: Well we have the bullying and abuse issues resolved. But we still need to find the Yogmans.

Laney: Is that them over there?

We saw THE YOGMAN TWINS

Me: The Yogman Twins!

Nico: And they have explosive materials.

Lisa Loud: Nitroglycerin, Ammonium Nitrate, TNT, Atomic Powder and Uranium 238!?

Me: They are nuts!

We went over to them!

Denny: Well, if it isn't the robot loser.

Divebomb: Give us those explosive materials. NOW!

Lenny: Never!

Me: You will pay for building a bomb here!

Nico: Yeah and you guys are in big trouble!

Lola: Big time!

Me: What do you plan to do with those explosive materials?

Denny: That's easy! We're gonna build a massive fertilizer bomb with explosive power that is 60,000 times more powerful than the Halifax Explosion back in 1917 and use it to destroy Robot Jones!

We gasped in shock!

Nicole did some calculating and determined that it was the equivalent of a 174 megaton nuclear bomb!

Nicole: That's as much destructive power as a 174 megaton nuke!

We gasped!

Nico: You guys are out of your minds!

Eli: That will destroy the entire city!

Denny: That's the idea!

Lenny: Yeah!

They laughed malevolently!

Whiger: Deactivate the bomb or you two will die with us!

Lenny: Very well. If it means killing you guys and robot loser over there, then our lives are a small price to pay.

Me: Then we fight! Lets tear them apart!

Denny: Catch us if you can!

They threw a smoke bomb and in a puff of smoke they disappeared.

Nico: What the!? Where did they go!?

Eli: Wait. Something is strange on the floor. Look.

I looked under the rug and pulled it over and saw a trap door.

Me: A trap door.

Ets: Wonder where it goes?

Me: Lets find out.

I opened it and it revealed a bunch of stairs.

Me: Hmm. Lets go.

We went down the stairs and went down a hidden hallway.

Me: Wow. Look at this.

Socks: A secret hall right underneath the school cafeteria.

Me: Lets go.

We walked down it and saw something really unusual. We saw scorch marks that looked like hand prints on the walls.

Me: Hmm. These hand prints look familiar.

I smelled them and it smelled like rotten eggs!

Me: Oh yuck! That's a scorch mark made by Sulfuric Brimstone.

Lisa analyzed some residue from it and found out that I was right.

We got to the end of the hall and opened a door and we saw a huge room and in the center of it was a huge fertilizer bomb. The whole room was filled with millions of tons of fertilizer and high explosives!

Me: WHOA! This room is loaded with explosives!

Denny: And it will be your tomb!

Laserbeak: Stewie, deactivate the bomb. I'll cover you!

Stewie: Right!

I punched Lenny in the face and Eli grabbed Denny and Lenny and bonked their heads together.

Stewie pulled back a panel and saw a bunch of wires.

He cut the green wire and the bomb was deactivated.

Stewie: There!

Denny: You think you've won!? (Pulls out a remote) Remote detonator!

Eli used the Force and got the Remote over to him.

Optimus Prime: Let's prepare for what lies ahead.

Troy: Already ahead of you, Optimus.

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Dragon Blitzkreig!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Changeman Rangers!

Me: Lets get them guys!

Eli: IT'S BUTTKICKING TIME!

Me: YEAH!

Lenny tried to punch Bulldozer but he hurt his hand.

Bulldozer: (mockingly) Ouch. That really hurt.

Eli: Not as much as this will.

Eli put on spiked knuckledusters and punched Lenny in his forehead and he was screaming in pain as he was bleeding from being stabbed and punched in his head!

Ets then punched Denny in the crotch with his steel hand and he screamed like a little girl and was foaming at the mouth.

Undermine: Hey, Robot Jones. How about you try your new Cybertronian powers?

Robot Jones: With pleasure! TRANSFORM!

He transformed into his robot form and he fired a solar plasma ray and it hit Denny and burned him all over.

Me: Cool!

Nico: WHOA!

Me: How about this one? Sonar, Runway, Jetstorm!

The Air Minicon Team formed into the Star Saber!

Me: STAR SABER!

Nico: Wow! Haven't seen you use that one in a while.

Me: Yeah.

I slashed Denny and cut his leg and burned it off!

Hot Shot: Ouch!

Undermine: Hey, Robot Jones. How about you try your new Cybertronian powers?

Me: STAR SABER!

Nico: Wow! Haven't seen you use that one in a while.

Me: Yeah.

I slashed Denny and cut his leg and burned it off!

Hot Shot: Ouch!

I put up a force field around the explosive to make sure they don't explode in the battle.

Earthworm Jim: EAT DIRT MALEVOLENT BULLIES OF PAIN! (BLASTS THE YOGMAN TWINS ALL OVER) HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!

Ets: Eat this one! TECH STYLE NINJA ART: CHUM CANNON FORCE FEED!

He turned his arm into a cannon and fired a wave of chum and it went into Denny's mouth and he swallowed it and he threw up his guts.

Lincoln: LIGHTNING STYLE: THUNDER YOSHI!

He fired lightning which formed into a yellow yoshi with blue lightning streaks.

R. Mika: STRENGTH STYLE: CRUSHING THWOMP!

Perfuma fired nature energy which formed a wiggler which walked all over the bullies.

Frosta: ICE STYLE: ICE BRO ICE MANIA!

Frosta fired ice energy which formed the ice bros that shoot ice.

Entrapta: TECH STYLE: ROCKY WRENCH MAYHEM!

Me: You two are looking at prison time for the rest of your lives.

Lola: Yeah!

The Yogman Twins were arrested and are gonna be sent to the Sun Prison for eternity with no possibility of parole.

Me: That takes care of the Yogmans. Now they will be forever remembered as the most hated kids ever.

Nergal: You know, we could use this bomb in case we need to blow up an evil planet.

Me: 174 Megatons is not powerful enough to destroy an entire planet.

Nicole: Dad is right. It would take the power of 10 sextillion megatons to do that.

Me: In otherwords the power of a Supernova Explosion or greater.

Nergal: Good point.

Nico: Wow. That's a lot of power.

Me: Yep. But these two are in really big trouble.

I walked up to them.

Denny: You will pay for this J.D.!

Lenny: You and that robot freak!

Me: Actually you two will pay for everything. (Eyes glow red) WELCOME TO YOUR WORST NIGHTMARE!

I sent their minds to the Malevolent Insanity World and they were in a lot of trouble there.

Me: That oughta take care of them for a while.

But then Mumbo Jumbo, Fixer, Knightbrace, Electrocutioner, Mojo Jojo, Radioactive Man, Gizmo, Po Kong the Demon Sorcerer of The Mountain, Bonz and Mr. Fizz appeared.

Me: Mumbo Jumbo, Fixer, Knightbrace, Electrocutioner, Mojo Jojo, Radioactive Man, Gizmo, Po Kong, Bonz and Mr. Fizz.

Bonz: Yes it's us.

Mojo Jojo: It is I, Mojo Jojo!

Mumbo: You guys had quite a day.

William: We sure did.

Fixer: (to Robot Jones) It's a pleasure to meet you, Robot Jones.

Robot Jones: The pleasure is all mine.

Knightbrace: (sees the state Lenny and Denny are in) What happened to them?

Maria: To make a long story short, we scared them.

Electrocutioner: Good. It's what they get for trying to blow up the town.

Me: With a 174 megaton fertilizer bomb.

Knightbrace: Whoa!

Electrocutioner: That's crazy! Why would they do this?

Me: They were that insane. Lets get these two taken off to prison and head back home for the usual battles.

Our stomachs growled.

Me: Oh but first lets get some grub. We can have our usual battles at Mr. Lynn's restaurant.

Po Kong: Good idea. Love a good meal.

Nora Valkyrie: Me too.

We went to Lynn's Table and got some grub. We got the Ulti-Meatum, pizzas, nachos, po-boys and more.

Me: Good lunch.

Po Kong: Always good to eat.

Me: Yep.

Vypra then appeared.

Vypra: Hey guys.

Me: Oh hey Vypra.

Vypra: I got some new recruits for you all to meet.

Me: Cool!

We heard the Italian Ballad, Tarantella Napolentana playing in the background and in on a coach with alien horses came Monkey's enemy THE ORGAN GRINDOR! But he wasn't alone. With him were Samuel Smithers A.K.A. PLANTMAN and George Cross A.K.A. THE HOOD! Also with her was the Bell Org.

Organ Grindor

The Orgon Grindor is the main antagonist in the Dial M For Monkey episode, "Orgon Grindor". He has a strong Italian accent, and has a great love for singing as he sings almost every word he says. He is quite greedy and ruthless and will stop at nothing to get rich.

He is an evil alien entertainer and a former fisherman who came to Earth to hypnotize Monkey so he would help him steal all of the Earth's riches. First he asks a hypnotized Monkey to bring him the most valuable thing in the world, Monkey does just that but only brings a portrait of him and Honeydew. Then the Orgon Grindor becomes a bit more specific to Monkey and asks him to bring something shiny and yellow, meaning gold, but Monkey only brought him a hill of bananas. The Orgon Grindor swears at Monkey in Italian, then says "If you want something done right, you have to do it myself" and takes Monkey with him and they sit on the Orgon Grindor's "Money Machine" as it blasts off like a rocket towards Fort Knox. When they got there, the Orgon Grindor orders Monkey to bring all the gold in Fort Knox to him, and if anyone gets in his way, he has to break their faces. Monkey storms into Knox and started beating up all the guards until they were all knocked out. He breaks into a vault and orders him to steal all the gold. Agent Honeydew arrives and tries to stop him after destroying his organ with her laser, but the Orgon Grindor manages to defeat her with a slap across the face and tries to crush her with a stack of gold bars. upon seeing this Monkey snaps out of his hypnosis and melts the gold bars with his eye beams, melting it and encasing Orgon Grindor in gold. His fate was unknown.

Plantman

Plantman is a supervillain in the Marvel Comics universe. He is an enemy of the following heroes:The Fantastic Four, Iron Man, the X-Men, Namor, Triton, Captain America, Falcon, Nightawk, the Defenders Spider-Man, the Micronauts, S.H.I.E.L.D., the Avengers, and Songbird. Two individuals have used the Plantman persona. They are Samuel Smithers and Paul (last name unknown).

Samuel Smithers

Growing up as a poor London orphan, Samuel Smithers found refuge and work as a lab assistant with a famous botanist who was researching the intelligence of plant life. After the botanist's death, Smithers traveled to the United States, hoping to pick up where his mentor left off - inventing a device capable of communicating with plants. Smithers was laughed out of the scientific community and could only find work as a gardener. However, a freak lightning storm struck Smithers' plant ray-gun allowing it to control and animate plant life. With his "Vege-ray" and a disguise as the Plantman, Smithers wanted revenge on his former employers but was stopped by Human Torch. Plantman does another attempt at revenge, this time on the Human Torch which ended with Plantman ending up arrested. He broke out, however, and traveled to the southwestern United States to grow more plants, this time with his own spliced cells. Here he had partial control, but was also sensitive to the plant's whims. When at one point he thought he had killed Tony Stark, he decided to go directly for world domination, but was foiled by Iron Man.

Count Nefaria broke the Plantman and several others out of prison to serve him as his lieutenants to help bolster his prominence in the Maggia crime family. To this end, the Plantman, the Eel (Marvel), Unicorn (Marvel), Porcupine (Marvel) and Scarecrow captured the X-Men in an extortion attempt, but the mutants turned the tables on their captors. At least the Plantman managed to pilfer technology from the Maggia before his escape. He used this to create a monstrous Leviathan out of animated seaweed to terrorize London. It was stopped by Namor and Triton of the Inhumans, but Plantman managed to escape.

The Plantman has often used plant "simuloids" to create duplicates of himself for mercenary endeavors, raising quick cash to continue his research. One of the first known activities of his simuloids was to join his former allies and the original Viper in a crime wave under the command of the Cowled Commander (only to be stopped by Captain America and the Falcon). Another time, a simuloid kidnapped wealthy businessman Kyle Richmond (Nighthawk) for ransom, but Nighthawk's allies in the Defenders helped rescue him, and Nebulon subdued the simuloid. Spider-Man and the Falcon discovered an exotic plant-breeding nursery where they encountered and defeated the caretaking Plantman-simuloid. Another Plantman-simuloid's scheme to rob a bank was thwarted by two Micronauts.

Next with an army of 1,000 plant simulacra, the true Plantman captured the President of the United States by taking over an American military base. He attempted to take over S.H.I.E.L.D. using simuloids. The Avengers rescued the President, despite the Plantman's army and contending with a 100-foot (30 m) tall Tree-Man and the Plantman's escape. Hawkeye and the Orb stumbled upon Plantman's mobile plant-growing factory and he expelled them.

During the Acts of Vengeance storyline, Plantman joined with a group of villains to attack the Fantastic Four. Soon after he tries a solo attack on the Avengers, who are visiting a construction site. He is defeated by the site's employees who fear the battle might destroy their hard work.

During Smithers subsequent prison sentence in Seagate Federal Penitentiary, he was contacted telepathically by Mentallo, who was being held in a stasis field in the same prison. Mentallo was still capable of using his powers and he used them to orchestrate a break-out of his fellow prisoners, which included the hero Hawkeye (who was serving time for crimes he performed while a member of the Thunderbolts) and Headlok (whom Mentallo had possessed). The criminals, remotely "chained" to one another, escaped as the so-called Chain Gang. The Chain Gang reluctantly agreed to work together to search for a way to survive, deactivate their security manacles, and search for a weapon of great power left behind by the death of the criminal industrialist Justin Hammer. The weapon had come to the attention of Mentallo by Hammer himself before he died, as Hammer awakened Mentallo's powers while he was in the stasis field. Unknown to his associates, Hawkeye was actually working undercover on behalf of S.H.I.E.L.D. Ultimately, the Chain Gang was tracked down by Hawkeye's former teammate Songbird, who helped Hawkeye defeat the villains. They discovered that Hammer's legacy was a biological toxin that had been ingested by every single villain who had ever worked for him. Smithers was the carrier. Hawkeye, Songbird, and Smithers began a new search for the trigger that would release Plantman's toxin so that it would not fall into the wrong hands. The search ended with Hammer's daughter, Justine, who turned out to be the Crimson Cowl, leader of the Masters of Evil. Hawkeye convinced several members of the Masters of Evil to side with him and Songbird against Crimson Cowl and their former allies, pointing out the dangers of the super-weapon, which would either blackmail or kill them. Hoping to throw off suspicion, Hawkeye made the villains reinvent their costumed identities, thus creating a new team of Thunderbolts, and Smithers joined the group as Blackheath.

Beginning with his time in prison, Smithers had noticed that his body was in the process of mutating, drawing him closer to the energy field that he manipulated to control plants. When the Thunderbolts finally confronted the Crimson Cowl, Smithers was captured and experimented upon to reveal the secrets of the bio-toxin. During this procedure, Smithers' spirit connected with the energy field, the so-called Verdant Green, the embodiment of the Earth's biosphere. The Verdant Green pointed out that Smithers could release the toxin, removing humanity from the biosphere and allowing the plants to flourish as in its pre-industrial days. Instead, Smithers chose to release an antidote for the toxin into the atmosphere and appeared to die in the attempt.

The Thunderbolts ultimately defeated the Cowl and her Masters of Evil, but they were confronted by the Elite Agents of S.H.I.E.L.D. who caught up with them and wanted the remains of Blackheath's body. Finally, Smithers was able to revive himself by sucking the moisture from the villain Hydro-Man, leaving Hydro-Man's body desiccated. The Thunderbolts were aided against S.H.I.E.L.D. by the arrival of the true Citizen V, who needed the team's immediate help with his agency's ship - the engines of which were made of alien technology that had begun distorting, threatening to suck the Earth into the null space of a white hole. In so doing, the Thunderbolts encountered the original Thunderbolts, who emerged from the void after severing the alien ship's presence from where they had been trapped on Counter-Earth. The two teams of Thunderbolts combined forces to plug the void and shunt the alien ship from Earth, similar to the manner in which Baron Zemo's team stopped the threat on Counter-Earth.

After much discussion, most of the costumed heroes and villains chose to part ways. Smithers elected to join the Thunderbolts, hoping that their new mission, to rule the world in order to save it, would closely match his own goals of protecting the Verdant Green from humans. He increasingly began to lose touch with his humanity, increasingly motivated by his connection to the Green.

Blackheath joined the Thunderbolts in many acts of questionable heroism under Zemo's leadership, where the ends justified the means. Zemo's ultimate plan involved the creation of "the Liberator," a device that would drain abnormal uses of energy throughout the world and hopefully reduce global threats, eliminate superhuman terrorism, and stabilize the world's status quo. The Thunderbolts succeeded in launching "the Liberator", only to be confronted by the Avengers. Feeling betrayed, Moonstone absorbed the powers the Liberator had harnessed, combining them with her already-increased powers of the moonstone. The Thunderbolts and the Avengers teamed up to defeat Moonstone, ultimately removing the alien gems that gave her her powers. The members of the Thunderbolts then agreed to go their separate ways, and Smithers agreed to return to prison, hoping to reconnect with his human nature that he felt he was slowly losing.

During the AXIS storyline, Plantman appeared as a giant plant monster and attacked Los Angeles to get back at the humans for polluting the world. When a group of Avengers attacked, they turned on each other due to the influence of Red Onslaught (a clone of Red Skull with parts of Professor X's brain placed in him). Plantman was defeated by Iron Man.

The Hood

The Hood is an English vigilante who models himself off of Robin Hood, carrying the same attitude in crime-fighting. He is an excellent fighter shown to be highly competent, who has teamed up with Batman on at least one occasion.

When Batman was kidnapped by the villain Narcosis, the Hood was one of the heroes who helped track him down.

The Hood's activities after this are unknown. However, he became involved with a British espionage concern known as The Agency, "Her Majesty's Super-secret Service", headed by a man codenamed "Matron". He donated the bulk of salary to charitable causes. When Batman, Inc was formed, his employers positioned him to be invited to the group, hoping to use him as a mole. However, he used the Agency's computers to help Batman track on Doctor Dedalus, in the process discovering the Agency's connection to Spyral, Dedalus' old organization. In the process he was himself betrayed by the Agency and left for dead.

Cheating death, the Hood became part of Batman Inc's "Dead Heroes Club", a group considered dead by Leviathan, who have a special mission of some kind.

A figure came out and it was ROBOGOAT from episode 7 of Season 2 of Mighty Morphin Power Rangers!

---

The Robogoat was created by Lord Zedd from an anthropomorphic goat illustration in Tommy's "Myths and Legends" book. This came after he brainwashed Tommy to work for Zedd when Goldar found the book and thought that it looked impressive. The Robogoat was assigned the mission of wielding the Sword of Power to steal the powers of the Power Rangers and thus leave the Earth completely open to attack. He was then sent to Angel Grove to force the Rangers' hand which allowed Tommy to steal the Sword of Power. In spite of this, he apparently immediately teleported back to the Dark Dimension to be handed the Sword by Tommy right which apparently powered up the monster. However, it also instantly ended Tommy's brainwashing which meant the Power Rangers could fight to get it back without fear of Tommy attacking them. The Robogoat revealed that he planned on destroying the Rangers' powers with the Sword of Power so Tommy tries to grab him only for the monster to teleport to Angel Grove Quarry instead.

Tommy morphed to stop him, somehow deducing that he had gone to the quarry where he found the Sword of Power only to be forced to roll away by a surprise energy attack by the Robogoat. In battle, the Robogoat initially wielded a giant red and black metal rod he dubbed the "Rod of Destruction" which he was an absolute master of using. He fought Tommy and the Dragon Dagger, initially being overpowered when two jabs from the Rod were deflected and Tommy forced a blade lock. However, he shoved away the Dragon Dagger and jabbed him twice in the gut before stabbing him away at which point the Robogoat tried to smack his head off. Luckily, Tommy recovered quickly and flipped over the monster before the hit could land, ending up next to the Sword of Power which he drew from the ground just for it to turn into a stick as it was a fake. The Robogoat jumped at the very surprised Tommy and jabbed him off the hill before taking the Sword of Power and going back on the offensive by jump slashing him off of a cliff. Although Tommy attempted to rejoin the fight but his powers were weakening drastically after that beating which took him out of commission for the rest of the battle.

Realizing that Tommy was in trouble, the other Rangers then arrived but the Robogoat cut them off before they could aid him. He then charged lightning into the Sword of Power and blasted down the Rangers with their own weapon before he decided that he should destroy the Rangers one by one so stabbed the Sword of Power into the ground. The stab created a chasm which trapped four of the remaining Rangers in the ground when they fell into it which turned them to energy bubbles contained in his golden chest. However. Jason had rolled away from it like the Robogoat intended and thus he drew the Power Sword and they did battle. The Robogoat was initially only able to barely match Jason move for move, being overwhelmed by a swing kick to the face and when Jason went on the attack, but a strike from the pommel to the helmet let him go on the offensive himself. Although Jase managed to put up quite a fight, managing to deflect all of the slashes, the Robogoat was able to ram him down using his horns. However, when the Robogoat tried to finish him off, Jason blocked and forced the Robogoat into a blade lock. After declaring that the Robogoat would never win, he slashed along the Sword of Power's length before knocking it into the air. He then caught it mid-landing and replaced it with a fake as happened with Tommy before, explaining to the confused Robogoat that Zordon teleported it back to the Command Center. He then demanded his friends back but, even without the Sword of Power, the Robogoat retained the Rod of Destruction for combat and went to get revenge. However, Jason proceeded to deliver a thorough beating, freeing the other Rangers by slashing him straight across the chest which left the Robogoat writhing on the ground.

With the Robogoat completely open to the Power Blaster, Lord Zedd was forced to throw a Growth Bomb to make him grow. The Rangers summoned the Thunderzords and formed the Thunder Megazord which the Robogoat charged at and smacked him back with a swing of the Rod of Destruction. However, they used the Power Punch to knock him back before drawing the Thunder Saber and advancing. The Robogoat arrogantly claimed that this still wouldn't be an equaliser only for them to cleave straight through his weapon which fell apart in two pieces. Enraged, he blasted the Thunder Megazord so hard that it was completely stunned. Tommy saw this and tried to summon the Dragonzord but he was too weak to the point that it couldn't even leave the ocean. He blasted it three more times, finally taking it down and disabling all of it's controls before charging to finish it off. Thankfully, the Rangers managed to bring the Thunder Megazord back online using the directional controls and pulled out the Thunder Saber. The Robogoat stopped charging at them when he saw them charging up the Thunder Saber just to claim that this wouldn't do him in. However, it killed him anyway with the Robogoat spinning around whilst yelling before falling onto his back and exploding.

Tommy Oliver: Robogoat!

Robogoat: Been a while rangers!

Me: I remember you! You were sent to destroy the rangers with the Sword of Power.

Robogoat: That's right. Good memory on you.

Me: Thanks.

Courage: Did you ever meet the goat from the Spa of Horns?

Robogoat: Actually, I did. He's a really nice goat.

Bai Tza: And you have me, Lana, Laney, Lincoln, Francesca and Courage for helping him out when we met him.

Francesca: Yeah Eustace's brother ruined his home and we helped him out.

Laney: Muriel was in the worst ever back pain we've ever seen and we were told to go to Mount Nowhere for the spring there that heals.

Nico: I remember that! That was amazing.

Robogoat: No kidding. Wow.

Hissing was heard and out of a thick cloud of pink smoke was THE STEAMIN DEMONS OF SEATTLE!

Shaggy: ZOINKS! It's the Steamin Demons!

Me: I thought those scorch hand prints looked familiar!

Qin: Yeah!

Twilight Sparkle: What were they known for?

Qin: The demon was actually the head of a construction company named Sam Crenshaw. He was stealing things from an Underground City in Seattle, Washington to sell for huge amounts of money. But the gang busted him and he got 20 to 30 years in prison.

Sunset Shimmer: And then life right?

Qin: Yep.

The demon hissed and went at Sunset and Vapor Trail got in its way and the Demon hit Vapor Trail's back and the demon burned a nasty sulfuric brimstone hand print on her back and it hurt like hell as she was screaming in pain!

Me: YIKES!

Varie: I got this.

Varie went over and healed her and Vapor Trail had a nasty 4 finger hand burn on her back and it was bad!

Varie: This is a 3rd Degree chemical burn. Whatever chemicals those demons used REALLY was viscous.

Edd: No kidding.

Me: Yeah. Lets get it on!

We got the battles underway.

Po Kong: (to Nora) You should keep that bomb in case you actually do need it.

Nora Valkyrie: That is a wise idea. We'll have to find some place we don't like so they can never terrorize the world or the universe again.

Princess Luna: That is a very wise idea in my opinion and we have many places we don't like.

Snowdrop: Yeah and I can think of many of them.

Gari: Me too. They need to be wiped out.

Blackout: Absolutely. They need to be stopped.

Knight Mare: And I know one: Citysville.

Po Kong: That city where the Professor and the Powerpuff Girls moved too when he transfered?

Knight Mare: Yep

Homer: Yeah I would use it on Springfield again.

Roman: Those two kids are not human.

Carly Atlas: They are monsters on steroids.

Devack: I hope they love being tortured in the Malevolent Insanity world.

Misty Tredwell: They deserve it.

Kalin: Yeah. They brought it on themselves.

Greiger: Big time.

Rex Goodwin: And I hope it's unpleasant for them.

Pain Yatta: You got that right.

Dr. Krankcase: You said it.

Mr. Fizz: You got that right. Lets do it!

Mr. Fizz donned his Soda Shooter Suit and fired root beer at them and the group pulled out Root Beer Steins and filled them up and drank the root beer.

Gwen T.: Ahh! Haven't had good root beer in a long time!

Carly Atlas: Good stuff.

They fired waves of leaves and fire and energy and smashed him down.

Kin Tsuchi: We were never told about that!

Bell Org: Oh you got to go check them out.

Kin Tsuchi: We'll have to see them in the future.

Bell Org: Awesome. Lets do it! BELL BANGER WAVE!

Vapor Trail: I'm fine. It'll take more then a bad wound to slow me down.

Po Kong: Are you sure?

Maria: She's right. I mean, I got a scar too. And I'm still fine.

Varie: But this is a chemical burn. It will be with her permanently.

Nico: Yikes.

Lola: Yeah. But those chemicals that those demons used are lethal.

Qin: They sure were. This is the stuff.

She pulled out a bottle of pink Sulfuric Nitric Acid.

See you all next time.

The Malevolent Cat from Another World

In the living room, Nico was showing me, Lynn, Lola and Lori a comic he found on the internet. It was called Bikini Bottom Horror and it was a SpongeBob comic that someone made and drew on the internet and it's about how Patrick lost his mind and went on a murderous rampage and killing spree and killed everyone in his path and it was all because of Mr. Krabs Greed. The reason is because he slashed off Patrick's arm and he took a regenerating starfish that turned into a second Patrick and he was torturing him and making krabby patties out of him. What the Mr. Krabs in the comic did was completely unforgivable and he got what he deserved. But it was really cool seeing Squidward and SpongeBob as titans of good and Patrick looked REALLY terrifying as a monster starfish. When we were done with it we were almost sick to our stomachs and we were shocked to see that things like this could go so far because of Mr. Krabs greed.

Lola, Lori, and Lynn just saw the comic Nico showed them and me.

Lori: That's… literally intense.

Nico: I know, right? That's why we have to terminate Patrick before he has the chance to terminate us!

Lola: Nico, we're not going to help you with this.

Nico: Why not?

Lynn: Dude, if Patrick were capable of this, don't you think J.D. would've realized that immediately?

Nico: I don't understand. You three are supposed to be the Trinity of Violence. I thought you three would jump at the chance to help me with this!

Lori: We may be the Trinity of Violence but we know Patrick would never be like that.

Me: That's right Nico, and Mr. Krabs would never resort to cannibalism like that! He may have done some evil things in the past but this is definitely not one of them!

Lynn: Yeah Nico you're being paranoid!

Me: Yeah Nico. But we'll show everyone.

I printed the comic and Lincoln saw it and he made it with his comic editing skills and printing press. He edited some of the pictures and made them more graphic and well detailed and colored.

We went to talk to Dive Man.

Nico: Dive Man, you got a minute.

Dive Man: Sure, Nico. What's up?

Nico: Well, it's best if I show you. Fair warning, you may throw up after seeing it.

Me: Yeah.

Dive Man: Robots don't have stomachs but okay.

We showed the comic we saw to him and he was floored.

Dive Man: Whoa man! That's horrifying! But I know Patrick and Mr. Krabs. Patrick would never go crazy like that and Mr. Krabs would never resort to cannibalism like that.

Me: See?

Nico: Oh man!

We then went to Sandy's treedome.

Nico: Sandy, I think there's something you should know about Patrick.

Sandy: What is it?

Nico: Well, you should probably see it for yourself.

Me: What you are about to see will not be pretty.

We showed her the comic and she read it and was horrified!

Sandy: Jumping rattlesnakes! That is more horrifying than a bunch of Krabby Patty Zombies.

Me: You're telling me.

Nico: That's why we think Patrick and Mr. Krabs are up to no good.

Sandy: Nico just because a comic told you about this doesn't mean that it's real and is going to happen.

Nico: Aw man.

Me: Thanks for your time Sandy.

We went back to the World Tree Estate.

Nico: Fine. If no one's gonna help me with this, I'll just get rid of Patrick myself! Good thing I have bazooka in my room.

But then, Nico saw Patrick sitting on the couch.

Patrick: Hi, Nico!

Nico: (nervously) Oh. Hey, Patrick!

We then saw it wasn't just him. It was everyone else that was there too. Including Spongebob and his friends.

Nico: What are you guys doing here?

Brawl: We're here because all of us need to have a talk with you.

Nico: (to the Trinity of Violence) You girls told them?!

Lola: I'm sorry, Nico. But this needs to be addressed before you go too far.

Nico: Too far?! Patrick is planning to kill us! (thinks of a plan) Plus, he called you three ugly this morning.

Me: Nico no he didn't!

POW!

I punched Nico in the face and knocked him down.

Nico: OW!

Me: Sorry Nico but first you need to get ahold of yourself! Second I think the comic you showed us all was actually a window into another universe. Now let us handle this.

I went over to SpongeBob and friends.

Me: Thank you for coming guys. Sorry to call you all here and for Nico being so paranoid. But this is what I wanted you all to see. Sandy saw it already.

I pulled out the comic and showed it to the, It was called BIKINI BOTTOM HORROR!

They all read it and were ABSOLUTELY HORRIFIED!

Patrick: (SCREAMS) HORRIBLE!

Mr. Krabs: I caused Patrick to go mad!?

Squidward: That's awful! But wow I look really badass in this.

Patrick: You sure do Squidward. But I can't believe that I would kill so many people!

Squilliam: That is horrible!

SpongeBob: I look badass too! So cool!

Patrick: I turned into a monster in this! Horrible!

Mr. Krabs: I can't believe that I would take my greed too far by resorting to cannibalism like that!

Me: Yeah that was crazy.

Laney: But that comic is very well made.

Brittney: It sure is.

Larry the Lobster: I looked awesome in this comic.

Mrs. Puff: Same with me and I looked awesome with a robot arm and an eye patch.

Prowl: (to Squidward) I will admit that you were badass in that comic.

Squidward: I sure was.

Sandy: And I looked really cool as a Mermaid Squirrel.

Mermaid Man: My starfish looked great on you Sandy.

Barnacle Boy: Yeah it sure did.

Me: But I'm sorry about Nico going paranoid like this. He thinks that Patrick and Mr. Krabs are gonna do it for real like they did in the comic.

Mr. Krabs: That's absolutely preposterous! I learned me lesson lads.

Patrick: Yeah and I don't believe that I am the secret formula for Krabby Patties.

Me: I agree.

SpongeBob: Mr. Krabs now that Plankton is dead maybe it's time we show everyone the Krabby Patty Secret Formula.

Mr. Krabs: Good idea lad.

Nico got up and he had a nasty black eye.

Me: (Whistles) Nice shiner.

Nico: I'm extremely sorry, guys. I just thought that Patrick was gonna end up kllling us like in that comic.

Rabeeder: It's okay, Nico. We know you were just looking out for us. But maybe, you should make a contingency plan for Patrick in case he goes rogue.

Me: Good idea. But he is a starfish and we will have to think on that.

Nico: Yeah.

Mr. Krabs: Look Nico how about we show you that we aren't like that and to show you that we are telling the truth? You can help us clean out the ingredients closet and you can see that we don't have another Patrick in there.

Me: That's a good idea.

Lily: I can show you where it is.

Nico: Thanks guys.

Me: Lets go then. It's lunch time anyway so we'll have lunch at the Krusty Krab while Nico and Lily work.

We went to the Krusty Krab and we were having krabby patties.

Me: (eating) Mmm! Delicious as always. I don't taste any starfish.

Varie: Yeah I don't think I even want to find out what Starfish tastes like.

Patrick: Yeah.

Maria: So, Mr. Krabs. What IS the Krabby Patty Secret Formula anyway?

Mr. Krabs: Well it's actually made out of burger beef combined with imitation crab meat. And it has herbs and spices.

Nico: Wow! No wonder they taste so good.

Laney: They sure do taste good.

Lana: Yeah.

Lola: No kidding.

Me: Thank goodness it's not REAL crab meat. No offense Mr. Krabs.

Mr. Krabs: None taken lad.

Later Nico and Lily got to searching and they went to the ingredient closet.

Octopunch: (to Squidward) You should see if you can access that badass form from that other universe on the missions we're about to go on.

Squidward: I'm not sure if that's even possible. But that would be really amazing.

In the ingredient closet, Nico and Lily were looking through the room and found different ingredients but no captured Patrick and no machinery like in the comic and it was completely clear.

Lily: Looks like there's nothing here.

Nico: Thank goodness.

They came back after putting everything back.

Nico: Mr. Krabs is all clean.

Patrick: Clean of what?

Lily: He doesn't have another Patrick or any of the machines in the comic in the closet.

Mr. Krabs: Told ya.

Patrick: Oh.

Sandy: Thank goodness.

Lola: Yeah.

Me: Besides starfish don't eat fish. They are omnivorous and eat plants and mostly mussels, clams and mollusks.

Nico: Right.

Laney: Yeah.

Patrick: That's interesting. And Sponges are NEVER on our menu.

Me: Thank goodness.

* * *

We were later getting ready for our next mission.

Nico: This mission is gonna be interesting.

Lola: Yep.

Knightbrace, Electrocutioner, Fixer, Mumbo Jumbo, Gizmo, Po Kong the Demon Sorcerer of the Mountain, Radioactive Man and Mojo then appeared.

Knightbrace: Can me, Electrocutioner, Fixer, Mumbo, Gizmo, Po Kong, Radioactive Man, and Mojo go with you guys? (sees the comic) What's this?

Nico: No! Don't read that!

Me: That's a comic we found on the internet!

Lori: You won't like what you read in it.

Electrocutioner: Wait a second. I know this comic! It's Bikini Bottom Horror. It's really well made.

Gizmo: Yeah but it's scary.

Mumbo: It sure is but Patrick you aren't really gonna go mad like that because of Mr. Krabs aren't ya?

Patrick: No way! After reading that comic I would never do that.

Mr. Krabs: And I would never do a think like that to Patrick that would cause him to go on a killing spree!

Applejack: Thank goodness though.

Me: But back to the topic. Yes you all can go with us. We're going to the north side of the city to help a kid named Coop Burtonburger.

Knightbrace: Awesome.

Me: Lets head out everyone.

We went to the north side of the City.

---

We arrived at the neighborhood of the Burtonburger's and we were looking at the home of Coop.

Chop Shop: This must be the place.

Me: Yep.

We walked up to the Burtonburger home and knocked on the door and answering it was Coop Burtonburger.

Coop B.: Oh wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's such an honor to meet you all.

Me: Same here Coop. It's a pleasure to meet you too.

Coop B.: I love all your adventures and it was awesome how you guys kick bad guy butt.

Me: We get that all the time.

Nico: Yeah.

Electrocutioner: We heard you've been having Kat problems.

Yang: (laughs) I hope that was a pun!

Electrocutioner: No but that was a good one though.

Luan: (Laughs) Good one Lester.

Eddy: (Laughs) That was funny.

Coop B.: That was a good joke but yeah I'm having a lot of Kat problems.

Me: Can you show us the cat?

Coop B.: Sure.

We went inside the house.

Coop lead us into the living room and outside we saw Millie his little sister playing with MR. KAT!

---

Agent 27B is an alien of a planet called Kat Planet (home of an entire race of sapient felines) and the main antagonist of the series (however in few episodes he maintains the role of protagonist or deuteragonist). He is named Mister Kat when adopted by Millie. He is really mean to Coop and is a regular enemy. Coop and Dennis usually derisively shorten his name to just Kat, though this term is also used to refer to his species.

Kat is an Alien Sphinx cat from Planet Kat Nebula. Kat was sent to Earth to take over the planet for his kind, but since he was adopted by Millie, his mission has temporarily changed to getting Fishy Frisky Bits (cat food) to Planet Kat Nebula for the other Kat Nebulans, awaiting the title of "the Hero". He succeeds in this mission in "Beware The Were-Coop" while he managed to send food via teleport that exploded right after.

It might be possible that he is Preparing for an invasion as seen in Hack Kattack, Rhymes with Coop, It's a Rocket, Man, Menace the Dennis, Tickled Pink, Kat to the Future Part 1, Kat to the Future Part 2, Bootsville's Most Wanted, Kat of Diamonds, Fangs for the Memories and Who's Haunting Who?.

It was finally revealed in The Kat Went Back Part 1 that Kat's first mission was to help to take over the earth so his people could live on it. Somehow he sent reports of human languages (English, with a Russian Accent) to his home planet, so they could learn that.

Kat's adoption happened when Millie asked her father if they could adopt a strange-looking cat-like creature, Burt turned her down, stating that whatever "He, She or it" was, it had a collar (Kat's Collar) on and therefore probably had an owner. He was forced to compromise though, when his daughter threw her Ultra Charged Eardrum-Rupturing Temper Tantrum Attack, deciding that she could keep Kat if and only if they couldn't find its owner. Satisfied, Millie dubbed her new friend "Mr. Kat" and wasted no time dressing up and feeding the animal. Coop immediately made dozens of posters for Kat's owner. His efforts were ultimately in vain though, as both Millie and Kat worked to ensure that he would become a permanent part of the family, by tearing down Coop's posters right after he put them up.

Kat was sent from the Kat nebula to Earth by the kat commander. Kat's primary mission is to take over the earth by helping in the preparation for the invasion. But thankfully Coop is always at the same place Kat is to stop Kat's plan! However, he is paying the price for it, with Kat menace in his life. Although, Kat succeed in his goal in an alternate future.

His second mission is to send Fishy Frisky Bits to his home planet, despite having hardships with Coop, he achieved his goal in "Beware The Were-Coop" and send food to his home planet.

---

Coop B.: There he is.

We hid in the house and we saw the kat playing with Millie. I looked at him and he saw me and I was looking at him with a look of righteous justice and we starred at each other with vicious glares. I growled ferociously and my eyes glowed red with intense burning hatred and they turned into my red demon eyes and Mr. Kat hissed at me ferociously!

Nico: Whoa! That cat is pure evil!

Eli: Yeah that cat is a monster!

Ets: He looks like an ordinary sphinx cat.

Rarity: Indeed darlings.

Me: I hate that cat already!

Shanan: There's something familiar about that cat.

She looked at it more and recognized it.

Shanan: Oh man! That cat is really Felininite.

Qin: What is a Felininite?

Shanan: They are a race of sentient cats from the planet Kat Nebula and they have one purpose and that is to take over the Earth.

Nico: Oh man!

Naruto: That cat is a monster.

Fu: We need to make sure he pays.

Lola: Yeah. He gives cats everywhere a REALLY bad name.

Lila Loud: Big time.

Me: We got to get that cat.

We went outside and confronted them.

Nico: Get away from that cat!

Burt Burtonburger: Team Loud Phoenix Storm!?

Millie: What are you all doing here!?

Me: To deal with that cat! He's an alien from outer space.

Coop: That's right dad!

Me: Coop is right Mr. Burtonburger! That cat is really an alien cat from another planet that is out to destroy the world.

Millie: No! You're lying! Mr. Kat wouldn't hurt a fly!

Burt: (disappointed) Coop, I expected better of you. Bad enough you've been lying to us about innocent Mr. Kat. But now, you've got Team Loud Phoenix Storm believing your lies as well!

Deep inside his mind something was brewing in him.

Suddenly, something snapped inside Coop.

SNAP!

Coop: SHUT THE FUCK UP!

After hearing that, we were all speechless.

Me: Uh oh.

Coop: For years, I keep trying to prove Kat is evil. But all you two ever do is blame me for what he does. You want me to be the fucking bad guy? (growls) FINE! NOW I'M THE FUCKING BAD GUY! I HOPE YOU'RE HAPPY!

With that, Coop jumps on Burt and Millie before punching them relentlessly.

Julio Santana: We shouldn't try to stop him. This is him letting out all his pent up emotions over the years.

Coop: (to Burt and Millie) AW, WHAT'S WRONG! I'M ONLY ACTING LIKE THE CRIMINAL YOU THINK I AM! (punches them some more)

OW BIFF SMASH CRASH BLAM SMASH CRASH!

He beat them up so bad that it was brutal!

Nico: Shouldn't we stop him?

Me: No let him vent his rage. I can tell that this went on for a long time.

Eli: Yeah I sense it too.

Ets: Poor kid.

He beat them up for 20 minutes and REALLY PULVERIZED THE LIVING SHIT OUT OF THEM!

He stopped.

Radioactive Man: (glares at Burt and Millie) Get the Hell out of our sight! Before we finish what Coop started.

Ashamed of themselves, Burt and Millie left the house.

Me: We'll worry about scolding them later. Right now we have to stop that Kat.

Coop then came over to us and he hugged Varie and cried hard.

Coop B.: (CRYING HARD) WHY WON'T THEY BELIEVE ME THAT THE KAT IS EVIL!? (CRYING HARD)

Varie: It's all right Coop. It's all right. People are just blind to things.

Maria: (glares at Kat) Enjoy this small victory, Kat. It's not going to last long!

Kat smirked evilly before running off.

Horsea: Something wrong, Maria?

Maria: (smiles at Horsea) Nothing, Horsea. Just swatting away some mosquitos. (Kisses her forehead)

Me: You were right Coop. That cat is pure evil.

Rarity: I would never want that cat within 100 miles of my cat Opalescence.

Nico: Me neither.

Lincoln: Cliff would not want him as a friend.

Billy: Neither would Fluffy Cat or Milkshakes. I'm going out for some fresh air.

Me: Okay.

We were talking to Coop. Later we heard the sounds of fighting coming from next door.

Billy: HELP ME! SOMEBODY HELP ME!

POW BIFF BLAM SMASH CRACK SMASH! POW! SMASH!

Billy: AAAAAAAHH! MY SPLEEN!

Coop B.: Uh oh! It's coming from Old Lady Munson's house!

We went to next door and we saw Billy being thrashed by Coop's evil next door neighbor OLD LADY MUNSON!

---

Mrs. Annie Munson (Nicknamed Old Lady Munson by some neighbours) is a nagging old woman who is the next-door neighbour of the Burtonburgers, as well as the secondary antagonist. She is grumpy and mean to the males and females of the main cast, but has a soft spot for Millie. It is unknown exactly how old she is, she was elderly when Burt was a child, and even when several senior residents of the street were still children. She has testified to having at least 6 husbands and to having battled Dodo birds. She has collected a massive stash of toys she's confiscated after they fell into her yard over the years; until Coop caused the storage house to explode, raining down decades worth of toys all over the neighbourhood, returning them to rightful owners. When someone (usually Mr. Kat) causes trouble for her, she usually blames Coop, and yells " BURTONBURGER! " She is a secondary antagonist of the series and Millie is the only kid she has been shown treating kindly.

She is a member of the Bootsville gardening club and the Gnome Appreciation club. Her age is likely exaggerated as a running gag, such as Burt saying she doesn't "Look a day over 200!"

In Coop D'Etat, as she was shown being arrested for wrecking the museum. It is unknown how long she was sentenced. (Correction) Her last appearance was in The Incredible Shrinking Coop.

In Kat to the Future Part 2, Her new name was Old Major Munson.

---

We saw Old Lady Munson beating Billy up.

Komba: Hey, Old Lady Munson!

Old Lady Munson: What do you stupid kids want?

Harpus: You better quit beating Billy up!

Old Lady Munson: Why should I? He's a troublemaker just like all of you and Burtonberger!

Nico: Stand down! I'm not going to ask again.

Old Lady Munson: How about you go fuck yourselves?!

She was about to kill Billy with one last punch but before she could, she felt an agonizing pain in her chest. She looked down to see a hole in her chest before she fell dead. Everyone saw that the one responsible was me, holding out Firefly's heat lasers that were fired.

Billy: I'm okay? (happy) I'm okay! Thank you so much, Nico!

Nico: (sternly) Do not ever make me regret which one of you I've spared. Because of this, I had to make another kid an orphan. And believe me, it's nothing I'm happy about. So, you better start improving and stop acting stupid if you want to leave this chapter behind us.

Me: Nico he's been through enough more than already. Besides he can handle worse than this. Remember how he was thrashed all the time by Mandy?

Nico: Oh yeah. He has been beaten up a lot. Sorry Billy. But I can tell that Fiona hates her.

Fiona Munson: Yeah I hate my grandmother. Go to hell Munson!

Me: And she will. Lets go get that kat.

We went into the house and we saw that the Kat was gone!

Me: He's gone!

Lola: How will we find him now!?

Lisa Loud: Leave this to me and Gizmo.

They got to work.

Gizmo and Lisa were working on a device that would help them locate Kat. Well, Lisa was, anyway.

Gizmo: Tic toc, Lisa. Tic toc! J.D.'s expecting results. And given what we just witnessed over the last two hours, I don't think it's wise to keep him, Nico, Coop, or any of the others waiting.

Lisa: (annoyed) We? Unless nagging counts, I haven't seen you lift a finger!

Me: Gizmo patience. Lisa will get it done.

Gizmo: Sorry.

Me: Good.

Zephyr Breeze: But thank goodness that Munson is dead.

Fiona Munson: No kidding. I hate my grandmother for beating up Billy and Coop.

Nico: She needed a lesson in humility. But she forced my hand.

Me: I think she deserves to go to hell.

Mrs. Doolin: Yeah and thank goodness I am not like her.

Bludgeon: So, what's the device Lisa and Gizmo are working on?

Me: It's some kind of tracer.

Lisa Loud: This is called the Felininite Radar Tracker. It will be able to track down a Felininite within a 500 mile radius.

Me: Wow! That's genius.

Nico: Perfect.

Coop B.: This town can go to hell.

Me: Huh?

Coop: Why even bother stopping Kat anymore? After all the problems I've suffered in this town, Kat can destroy it for all I care!

Mojo: But surely, there must be some good memories you have had here. Like your friends Fiona and Dennis.

Me: Yeah you wouldn't want your friends to be hurt by that would you?

Coop B.: Well no.

Me: Besides you and your friends are more than happy to live with us.

Fiona Munson: Yeah Coop.

Nico: Yeah.

Coop B.: Oh you're right.

Muscle Man: Hey, Coop. You know who else likes beating up bad cats?

Coop: Who?

Muscle Man: My mom!

We laughed at Muscle Man's joke.

Coop B.: I don't get it.

Me: We don't either.

Mordecai: But his jokes are awesome.

Benson: Yeah they sure are.

Me: We better get ready.

Ren Krawler: By now, Kat's probably out of sight.

Me: Don't worry. With the radar and our powers we'll find that malevolent feline no problem.

Cat: Yeah that monster will pay for his crimes.

?: Let us help you Catbutt!

We turned and we saw THE GREASER DOGS!

---

The Greaser Dogs, often referred to as The Greasers, are the main antagonists of the Nickelodeon series CatDog. The are a group of dogs and bullies that will often beat up the titular characters. They consist of Cliff, Shriek, and Lube.

---

Me: The Greaser Dogs!?

Luan: What are you guys doing here!?

Vypra then appeared.

Vypra: It's all right guys. The Greasers are now part of the Masters of Evil.

Me: Cool! But are you sure it's safe? They were the most ruthless thugs in all of Nearburg.

Lube: Duh duh yeah.

Shriek: We are now having a better life in the Masters of Evil.

Cliff: And we chose Ren & Stimpy as our archenemies.

Ren Hoëk: We get to be your archenemies!?

Stimpy: Oh joy!

Vypra: I also brought Mr. Mittens to help out too.

Mr. Mittens: Yep.

Me: Cool!

Vypra: The Greasers are going to do a warmup battle and it's not Mr. Mittens turn.

Me: Okay.

---

Later the tracer was ready and we were off searching for the Kat.

We were looking for Kat when Po Kong accidentally stepped on a lawn gnome.

Po Kong: Oops. I forgot houses still used these.

May: The neighbors that live here aren't gonna be happy.

Po Kong: I can't help it, I'm not called the Demon Sorcerer of The Mountain for show.

Me: That's all right. Lawn Gnomes are replaceable though.

Twilight Sparkle: I got this.

She used her magic and put it all back together.

Me: Awesome. Lets go.

We continued our search.

THE HUNT WAS ON!

---

In the forests we were searching.

Billy Gilbert: How hard is it to find and take down one cat?

Lube: Well, in our experience…

Cycloid: Not a riddle, Lube.

Eli: Guys I sense him.

Me: Where?

Eli: Over in that field 5 miles (Points to the Northeast) that way.

The radar system showed that he was there all right.

Lisa Loud: He's there.

Me: Lets get him!

Cliff: Time for us to pound a cat!

Shriek: Yeah!

Cat: Lets get him!

We went to the field and we were searching.

Fixer: (holding the tracker) The tracker says he's close. Very close.

Me: It's quiet. Too quiet.

I had my Predator Vision on and it was searching in Infrared Vision for The Kat.

Me: Here kitty kitty kitty.

The triangle target was looking.

I held up my hand and told everyone to stop. We crouched down and crawled and we saw a ship and the kat was there.

Cody had the triangle target system and lasers locked on to the Kat and he fired a plasma blast and the cat dodged it and it hit the console he had and destroyed it in a fiery explosion.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM

Me: Showtime guys!

We went at the Kat and I threw a grenade and it hit the ship and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Eli fired a grenade from a machine gun and it hit the ship some more and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Lola fired a grenade from a grenade launcher and it hit the ship again and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM

We put up a force field and the kat had nowhere to run.

Sunstorm fired his cannons at Kat but he avoided them.

Sunstorm: You're a quick one. This could take a while.

Me: Target the kat from behind!

I fired machine guns all over it.

Eli and Nunnally fired Mini-Guns and it was running all over.

Me: (To the viewers) Normally this counts as animal cruelty but this cat is not from Earth.

The Kat still was able to run from us.

Troy: There's one Ranger team we can use for this.

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Beast Morphers!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Beast Morpher Rangers and Orion turned into Ninjor.

Fluffy Cat fired huge hairballs at the Kat and they smashed into him all over.

Nico: Yuck!

Eli: Choke on Force Lightning!

He fired waves of Force Lightning and electrocuted the Kat all over.

We then heard a Raven Crow and out came ZOE AVES THE BLACK CUERVO!

Zoe Aves: (Spanish Accent) And I'm now gonna be Violet Parr's archenemy.

Violet: Wow! I'm honored.

We fired bullets and energy and elemental blasts. They hit the ground and the kat was blown around like a ragdoll in the explosions.

He transformed and fired energy blasts from his blaster and blasted the Kat all over.

Kat escapes from Zoe's hands.

Mumbo: I know the perfect way to trap him! (fires magic blasts all around Kat)

Kat looked around and then snickered when it appeared. Mumbo had missed.

Mumbo smirked and chains wrapped around the Kat and we cornered him like a trapped rat. He had nowhere to run.

Nico: Game over Kat!

CatDog, The Greasers, Opalescence, Fluffy Cat, Mr. Mittens, Catman and Catwoman were ready to pounce.

Catman: You are now gonna wish you were never born kitty cat!

Catwoman: I may like cats but you take things too far.

We pulverized the Kat all over the place and more.

Abra Kadabra: That was a nice use of magic capturing Kat, Mumbo.

Mumbo: Why thank you.

Nico: (growls) Because there are two certain people here that I'd rather not be around at the moment!

Me: (Beckons them)

They came and I whispered into their ears.

Tock

Tock was a character in RWBY that first appeared in "The Grimm Reaper". An assassin, she was an associate of Salem and part of her inner circle. She was killed by Maria Calavera after destroying her eyes.

Background

Prior to her death, Tock joined Salem in her inner circle, replacing her jaws with metallic teeth in the process.

During Tock's time working under her, Salem served as a mentor to the Faunus, advising her on how to properly use her Semblance and warning her to finish off her opponents before it wore off. However, she never took heed.

Tock and three other armed men confront Maria Calavera in the mountains after the latter uses her Silver Eyes to turn a giant Nevermore to stone. Tock tells Maria that her master wants her dead because of her eyes. Near the end of the ensuing fight, Tock bites through the shaft of one of Maria's weapons and headbutts her, destroying Maria's mask and quickly slashing out her eyes with one of her swords. Maria, now blind, futilely attempts to shoot Tock, who casually approaches her. Tock mockingly says to Maria that she could be convinced to spare her since they only came for her eyes. Maria throws her kama at the Faunus in response but missed, planting it in the ground behind Tock. She is amused by this display and prepares to execute Maria.

Death

Before she could be killed, Maria manages to reach the other kama and activates the gravity Dust within it, recalling the kama she threw earlier and having it lodged into Tock's back, causing her to stumble forward, and then be swiftly decapitated by Maria.

Chicken Boo

Chicken Boo is a supporting character in Animaniacs . In the reboot, he ends up serving as the main antagonist for the first segment of the fifth episode. He was the supporting character of the original Animaniacs series, a minor character in Wakko's Wish and a minor antagonist in the first season of the Animaniacs reboot.

He was voiced by Frank Welker.

When the show Animaniacs got set to reboot, all of the original cast were invited to return with the exception of Boo. Infuriated by this, Boo takes on one of his best disguises and calls himself Dr. Walter Grubb. After snagging every other character from the original show, he goes after the Warners, chasing them throughout the episode until he finally captures them.

Upon bringing them to his lair, he introduces them to his collection of every other Animaniacs character. The Warners ask if he truly got every character, naming off minor ones before finally mention Chicken Boo and how he was the least popular character in the original show to the point he was banned from the reboot. Upon which he ends up breaking down, tearing off his disguise in the process, all while revealing his plan to the Warners.

After that, he makes his escape. The Warners don't give chase, knowing how the segment will most likely end. Sure enough, as Boo is walking away, he finds himself confronted by the rest of the original cast (Slappy, Skippy Squirrel, Mindy, Buttons, Rita, Runt, Minerva Mink, Newt, Katie Ka-Boom, Phar Fignewton, The Hip Hippos, Charlton Woodchucks, The Mime, Squit, Bobby, Pesto, Miles Standish, and Mr. Skullhead) still very much alive and angry, arriving to get their revenge on Boo (by possibly killing and eating, or knocking out, or beating him up alive) causing him to run away in fear while they are chasing him.

It is unknown if Chicken Boo survived the chase or not like the ones in his segments, but due to what he almost done to the rest (including other or minor animals or characters) it could be most possible that it's heavily implied that he didn't.

Victoria Best

Victoria Best is a student who attends Woodview Elementary School, along with WordGirl's alter ego, Becky Botsford. She is a child prodigy who comes from a family remarkably similar to WordGirl's own. She is egocentric and conceited, considering herself to be the best at everything. Indeed, she excels in many areas, from gymnastics and football to dancing in the dark. She originally went to a private school but came to Woodview so she could beat out more kids.

Her parents have always pushed her into being the best at everything she did, and when she is not, they display red, glowing eyes and tell her "eyes on the prize, Victoria". With this, she then steals the prize she did not win, using telekinesis projected through her eyes.

In her eponymous debut episode, she receives several awards, with the exception of the Best Reader's trophy, which went to Becky. Empowered by her parents' mantra, she stole the trophy and a number of other awards. She is later defeated by WordGirl, and is forced to return all the prizes that she stole.

Kid Rot

Chester, otherwise known as Kid Rot, is one of the primary antagonists of the cartoon Grossology . Initially introduced as a sympathetic human character with abnormal abilities, his true self (Chester), a kind and shy individual, succumbs to his self-named alias, Kid Rot (caused by an unstoppable parasite infecting his body ever since his lab experiment failed and gave him the ability to rot anything organic he touches).

Tamatoa

Tamatoa is the secondary antagonist of Disney's fifty-sixth full-length animated feature film Moana . He is a greedy, ruthless, narcissistic and selfish giant crab who loves to collect valuable objects for himself. He is also Maui's past arch-rival.

He was voiced by Jemaine Clement, who also played Nigel in Rio, Fleshlumpeater in The BFG, Vladislav The Poker from What We Do In The Shadows, Boris the Animal in Men in Black 3, Fart in Rick and Morty and Sauron in The Lego Batman Movie .

Tamatoa is first seen during Gramma Tala's story concerning the mother island Te Fiti and her life-giving heart. According to Tala, many thieves and scavengers sought the heart for its power, and among these ancient entities were Tamatoa and the pirate band Kakamora, though Maui was the only one capable of actually stealing the heart. In doing so, he was banished to a desolate island, while his fishhook was lost at sea in a battle for the heart against a wrathful and destructive lava demon known as Te Kā. The fishhook would be recovered by Tamatoa, who added it to his collection of treasures.

Later on, Maui is freed from his exile by Moana, who needs Maui to return the heart of Te Fiti to its rightful place. Maui reluctantly agrees, but needs his fishhook in order to accomplish such a goal. After defeating the Kakmora, Moana and Maui travel to Lalotai, where they find Tamatoa's lair. Moana is sent in as bait, covering herself in shiny objects to attract the crab. Tamatoa soon awakens, and examines the human that has entered his shell. Meanwhile, Maui reaches in to grab his hook. Although Tamatoa nearly notices, Moana is able to distract the crab by getting him to talk about himself through the villain song "Shiny". After Tamatoa brags about his shell and explains his love for all things shiny, he tries to eat Moana, only to pause when Maui reveals himself with his fishhook in hand. Tamatoa cowers in fear until he realizes that Maui is out of practice using his hook, crippling his ability to transform.

Tamatoa sadistically takes advantage of this by attacking and brutally thrashing Maui about his lair. When Moana tries to stop the cruelty, Tamatoa traps her within a cage-like plant. Soon enough, Tamatoa darkens his lair and his form becomes bio-luminescent, giving him a glowing yet menacing appearance. Tamatoa also admits that he's aware of Maui's horrible childhood when his parents abandoned him as an infant, but before Tamatoa could devour Maui whole, Moana escapes her cell and creates a phony duplicate of Te Fiti's heart by using a barnacle-covered in bio-luminescent algae.

She calls to Tamatoa to show him the shiny prize in her possessions, and the crab immediately discards Maui in favor of his coveted treasure. He chases after Moana, who drops the glowing barnacle in a crack on the ocean floor. As Tamatoa digs for it, Moana and Maui make their escape. It is not long before Tamatoa realizes that he has been tricked, and the enraged crustacean frantically chases after the duo. They launch themselves onto a geyser heading to the surface, and the impact of the shooting water knocks Tamatoa onto his shell, much to his dismay. Unable to move, he is left stranded on the ocean floor, asking if Moana at the very least enjoyed his song.

Tamatoa is last seen after the credits, where he is still trapped and struggling to get off his shell, but to no avail. He asks the audience for assistance, and sarcastically quips that if his name was "Sebastian" and he had a Jamaican accent, the audience would feel happy to help him out (the reference to the supporting character of the same name from Disney's The Little Mermaid ). It is unknown if he ever got back up or if he starved.

---

Me: Burgundy, Raven, Candle Jack and Fenguang we know but now you guys have Tock, Chicken Boo, Victoria Best, Kid Rot and Tamatoa too!? COOL!

Tamatoa: Yep and we helped you guys during the war.

Kid Rot: That was an awesome time.

Fenghuang: Yeah it sure was.

Nico: Chicken Boo from Animaniacs!? You're a villain now!?

Chicken Boo: Bakawk!

Me: Yeah didn't you hear about that Nico? After 25 years they booted Chicken Boo off the show and he's now a vengeful villain.

Nico: Wow! What a twist.

Me: No kidding. Who are you guys gonna be the arch enemies of?

Tock: I'm gonna be Tori Henson's archenemy.

Burgundy: Marie Kanker Loud's archenemy.

Chicken Boo: (Clucks and points to the Warner Siblings)

Victoria Best: Lila Loud.

Kid Rot: I chose Ronnie Anne.

Tamatoa: And I chose Bobby.

Me: Cool!

?: That sure is neat. (Laughs)

A figure came out and it was SKELERENA from episode 90 of Mighty Morphin Power Rangers!

---

Skelerena was a skeletal hyena monster created by Lord Zedd from the hyena picture on the cover of a magazine of Angel Grove Youth Center that Shawn had been using to write a paper. He possessed hysterical nature, laughing and mocking his enemies. He serves as the main antagonist of the episode "Mirror of Regret".

Skelerena was created by Zedd from the hyena picture on the cover of a magazine of Angel Grove Youth Center that Shawn had been using to write a paper. Zedd then sent Skelerena to attack Angel Grove. Due to Adam recovering from the spell of the Mirror of Regret, robbing him of his confidence, the other Rangers were forced to go into battle without him. Unfortunately, Skelerena was very powerful, able to leap very high and land on the rangers, and incredibly fast and had the ability to fire lasers from his eyes. Eventually, however, Adam regained his confidence and arrived to aid his friends. Despite Tommy's comment that Skelerena was tough, the monster didn't attack at once. The heroes then received their new weapon, the Power Cannon and used it to end Skelerena.

---

Adam Park: Skelerena!

Skelerena: (Laughs) Good to see you again rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were sent by Zedd to attack Angel Grove while Adam was recovering from the effects of the Mirror of Regret.

Skelerena: (Laughs) Good memory on you! You think that up yourself?

Me: Just watched a lot of TV and I never missed an episode.

Skelerena: Good thing I get a chance to use my staff this time.

Me: And it's hard to imagine that you are one of the worst monsters in the shows history.

Nico: Yeah those peabrains wouldn't know a good monster if it hit them in the face.

Skelerena: Thanks for the compliment.

Then I felt a cold draft.

Me: (Shivers) Brrr! That is cold!

Nico: How is it so cold? It's 80 degrees outside.

We heard a shivering roar and out came THE ICE DEMON!

Shaggy: ZOINKS! It's the Ice Demon!

Qin: Oh man! Not this cold guy again.

Twilight Sparkle: What was he known for?

Qin: He was really a forest ranger named Mr. Forester and he found a huge vein of diamonds in an abandoned mine and there were lots of them. He wanted all those diamonds all for himself and drive a lodge out of business and force them out on to the streets.

Fluttershy: Goodness.

Applejack: No good sidewinder!

Qin: He got 10 to 20 years in prison for it.

Twilight Sparkle: And then life right?

Qin: Nope. He was beaten to death by inmates in prison.

Twilight Sparkle: Geez!

Nico: Yep.

Me: LETS GET READY TO RUMBLE!

---

Battle 1: Ant Man, Twilight Sparkle, Luster Dawn, Canterlot 5, Princess Cadance, Princess Amore, Flurry Heart, Lilly Crystal, Cloud Star, Star Swirl The Bearded, Magic Skylanders, Muriel, Courage, Francesca, Bai Tza, Lincoln, Laney, Lana, Octopunch and Radeeder VS Top

---

The Top was first.

Top: (to Ant Man) I don't blame Nico for being paranoid of Patrick. I'm pretty freaked out after I read that comic too.

Ant Man: We all were freaked out too. It's hard to imagine that Patrick would go crazy like that and go on a murderous rampage all because of Mr. Krabs greed.

Twilight Sparkle: What that version of Mr. Krabs did was absolutely heinous and gross!

Luster Dawn: Yeah it was absolutely disgusting that Mr. Krabs would slash off Patrick's arm and use a new Patrick that regenerated from it to make Krabby Patties.

Minuette: That would taste awful!

Twinkleshine: Yeah it sure would. I wouldn't eat starfish even if you paid me.

Lemon Hearts: Me neither. That's gross!

Moondancer: What the Mr. Krabs of that Universe did was just absolutely diabolical.

Lyra Heartstrings: And all because of his own greed.

Princess Cadance: That is just absolutely horrible. But the way Patrick looked in that comic was more realistic for a starfish.

Top: That is how starfish look in real life. But starfish don't eat fish.

Flurry Heart: No they are mostly omnivorous and eat seaweed and shellfish like clams, mussels and mollusks.

Princess Amore: Yeah but the anatomy that they tell us in the comics is almost accurate.

Lilly Crystal: It sure is scary but it's awful that Patrick would turn into a murderous monster like that.

Star Swirl: That Mr. Krabs in that comic has no honor.

Spyro: And because of his own greed he paid the ultimate price.

Mysticat: He sure did and he deserves far much worse.

Top: At least the Mr. Krabs in our universe learned his lesson.

Muriel: That's right and thank goodness.

Francesca: You said it grandma.

Courage: Mm-hmm. I hope we never see something like that happen to Patrick or Mr. Krabs.

Thor: A most commendable choice. And that would be something to see Squidward to into.

Rainbow Dash: That comic may have been scary but it would be awesome to see Squidward turn into that.

Scootaloo: It sure would! I think it would be a great look for him.

Magma Gloom: It sure would. My brothers know that comic too and it was scary but awesome.

Whirlwind: It was scary but it was greatly drawn.

Wild Storm: It sure was.

Spitfire: You said it. We're just glad that Mr. Krabs and Patrick are not gonna become like that.

Lightning Dust: Yeah Nico was really paranoid about Patrick turning out like that. But who can blame him?

Gearhead: I agree. But he is doing a good job. (To Vapor Trail) How is your back doing?

Vapor Trail: Better but I'll have a nasty burn scar on my back for the rest of my life.

She lifted up her shirt and she had a nasty red burn hand mark on her back.

Gearhead: Ouch.

Abra Kadabra: What kind of creature was The Kat?

Cayenne: Shanan said he was what's called a Felininite. They come from The Kat Nebula and are a Race of Sentient Cats trying to take over the Earth.

Abra Kadabra: Whoa that's terrible!

Firecracker Burst: No kidding.

Wallflower: What that kat did to Coop is beyond evil.

Adagio Dazzle: Even more evil than what we used to do.

Fluttershy: She was a nightmare.

Tree Hugger: Not cool dudes.

Discord: I may like all things chaotic but I highly respect Nico for killing that old woman. She deserved it for hurting Billy like that.

Burt: I know and we're really sorry we ignored him and we should have taken his warnings seriously.

Millie: Please let us see my brother.

Me: I don't think he wants to see you right now. He's still pretty steamed.

Burt: I understand.

Everyone else came.

Cliff: (glares at Burt and Millie) Well, look who it is.

Trapster: (annoyed) What do you two want?

Burt: Look, you guys have every right to be mad at us.

Ragdoll: We were mad when the Digimon Emperor took over Nico's body. We were mad at the Sullen 6 for turning the public against us.

Batroc: Right now, we're very furious.

Burt: How were we supposed to know that Kat was bad news?!

Millie: And even then, you all didn't have to beat him up so badly!

Swordsman: You two are fucking hypocrites! You two claim to be Coop's family. And yet, you've got the nerve to ignore him when he says that Kat is an evil alien?!

Millie: It's not like you guys are much better. You all could've calmly talked to Mr. Kat about this!

Nico: (glares at them) You two are no longer welcome near Coop again. The next time I see you two, I'll send you both to the Warp. Any chance of you two and Coop staying together as a family is now gone! As well as any chance of you two being in Team Loud Phoenix Storm! Me: Everyone calm down! Mr. Burtonburger and Millie we apologize for everything that happened to you and everything that happened to Coop. But Coop is gonna take a long time for him to forgive you. Just let him cool down for a bit and when the time comes you can see him.

Me: It's all right.

They left.

Me: I hope Coop forgives them one day.

The Crazy Animal Detective

In the Galaxy Cluster XMMXCS 2215-1738, me and Jetfire in his Armada form were searching for planets in need of help and we then came across another Earth.

Me: Whoa another Earth here.

Jetfire: (Australian Accent) And at 10 billion light-years away from our Earth.

Me: Yeah.

I flew down to the surface of the planet and I saw the cities of the entire planet completely infested with ZOMBIES!

Me: WHOA! Man this planet Earth is a Zombie Apocalypse Earth.

Jetfire: What!? Another Zombie Apocalypse planet Earth?

Me: Yeah look what happened to it.

Jetfire: This is terrible mate. See if you can find any survivors.

Me: Right.

I flew above the cities and searched high and low and I saw that the entire planet went to Hell. It was just as bad as the Zombie Apocalypse planets we encountered.

Me: My God. This whole planet went to Hell.

Jetfire: I hope there are still survivors.

Me: Yeah.

Zombies were ALL OVER the planet and infesting every part of it. But then I saw a motorcycle gang driving down the street with zombies running after them.

Me: Looks like I found some survivors!

I flew down and I fired a massive wave of fire and incinerated all of the zombies after them in a massive wave of flames. I saw the motorcyclists head towards a cruise ship that was made to look like a sea dragon and it serves as their hideout.

Me: Wow! Their hideout is a cruise ship made to look like a sea dragon.

I went on to the cruise ship and saw that it looked absolutely amazing on the inside but really awesome on the outside.

Me: Wow. Nice ship.

I went to the passenger rooms and saw one that was being guarded.

I went up to it.

Man: HALT! Who goes there?

Me: J.D. Knudson, Leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm sir.

Man: Wow! J.D. Knudson it's an honor.

Me: Thank you. May I ask why you are guarding this room?

Man: Niko and a girl we found are in there.

Me: May I go in sir?

Man: Sure. Niko, you have a visitor.

He opened the door and I went in and saw a blond hair girl with a flower beret and she had brown eyes and had a tattered red dress and brown boots and with her was a boy with a red bandana with a skull and crossbones on it and he had a red shirt and black leather jacket and had black jeans and leather boots.

Niko: Oh wow! J.D. Knudson of Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Emma (ELGVTWD): It's an honor to meet you.

Me: Same here.

Niko: I'm Niko.

Emma (ELGVTWD): And I'm Emma.

Me: Pleasure to meet you both. What happened to this world? Do you know?

Niko: No unfortunately.

Emma (ELGVTWD): All of a sudden the world became infested with Zombies and I never got to see my mom and dad and sister again.

Me: Oh man. You guys went through a nightmare. Having to survive in a zombie-infested apocalyptic world is a major league challenge.

Niko: It sure is and it's a nightmare.

Me: I know that feeling too. My version of Earth is not one of the worlds infested with zombies. But we have encountered many Zombie Apocalypse Worlds that are totally lost. Far Gone. But they put our Zombie Apocalypse Survival Skills to the test.

Emma (ELGVTWD): Wow! You have to be the greatest Zombie Apocalypse Survivor of all time.

Me: Well I don't know about that. But we have had a lot of help. But I came to see if you all want to start over with a new life on our Earth and rebuild your lives with us after everything you all went through.

Niko: You would do that for us?

Me: I sure would. After everything you all went through with an apocalyptic event like this, you need a new life.

Emma (ELGVTWD): We would like that very much.

Me: Lets talk to the leader of this ship and get it to our Earth.

We went to the main ballroom and I was talking to Tank and his gang and telling them about how we survived Zombie Apocalypses and did it all over the years and all that and asked if they would like a better life instead of living in an empty shell of the Earth they once knew before Zombies invaded and destroyed everything in their path. Tank was really touched by this offer that I was giving them and he and his crew accepted.

Jetfire grew bigger and put the entire ship in his cargo hold and we went back to our Earth. I promised that one day we would go back to Emma's earth and save her father and her sister.

We arrived back home.

We were now watching a Robot Chicken Sketch. But this one was about Skeletor.

He Man: Is this another Robot Chicken sketch?

Poison Ivy: Yep. Skeletor really has bad luck in this one.

Me: Lets watch and see.

We put on the clip and we saw it.

(Skeletor, Beast Man and Evil-Lyn are returning to their lair covered in bandages and bruises.)

Beast Man : I think we almost won today. Good effort-

Skeletor : Oh, shut up, Beast Man! He-Man put his heel right in my balls! Did a fucking pirouette. I can still feel them unwinding. What?!

(Skeletor notices that his lair is foreclosed. Cut to Skeletor talking to an accountant.)

Accountant : Well, I'm sorry Choppers. But your adjustable rate mortgage came due.

Skeletor : But-but-but-but-but this loan payment is astronomical! You never told me that I would-

Accountant : It's called "Fine print," Chuckles. Maybe you need some eyeballs instead of those eye… holes.

Skeletor : Oh, I'll get the money when I crush He-Man once-

Accountant : Bud, lie to me, but don't lie to yourself; you're really gonna crush He-Man by the fifteenth of this month?

Skeletor : Yeah… Well…

Accountant : That property is, what, 12,000 square feet? Duplex that bitch!

(Cut to Skeletor in front of his evil lair with a group of frat boys. His lair now has the symbol for the Kappa Omega Kappa fraternity and the head frat is signing the contract. The other frat boys are moving a beer keg and a naked sex doll into the lair.)

Skeletor : Okay! Well, rent's due on the first of the month and I will hold your security deposit in-

Head Frat : Dude, I never got a security deposit back in my life!

(The head frat tosses the contract and Skeletor catches it.)

Skeletor : What?

Head Frat : Bros, our landlord is Jack Skellington!

(The frats cheer. Cut to Skeletor trying to read the paper with loud music blaring in the background. Several loud crashes are heard and startles Skeletor until he drops his paper.)

Skeletor : Aw, dammit!

(Panthor comes up to Skeletor and has the words I Heart Cocks! written on his side)

Skeletor : What the- Panthor!

(Skeletor enters the room with the frat boys and dodges a bottle of whiskey. A frat with a toga rushes by. Two frats are having a frat drink out of the beer keg upside down. A frat and a girl are making out and one frat sitting next to them touches the frat's leg with his finger. Skeletor walks up to the head frat who's stirring something in a magic cauldron with a stick.)

Skeletor : Hey, douche bag! Turn this crap down!

Head Frat : How do you hear music with no ears?

Skeletor : Magic, asshole!

(The head frat pulls out Skeletor's Havoc Staff from the cauldron and starts licking it like a lollipop.)

Skeletor : Is that my Havoc Staff?!

(Skeletor takes the Havoc Staff from the head frat.)

Skeletor : This is a mystical artifact! You can't just-

(The Havoc Staff vomits into Skeletor's face and some of the vomit goes into his eyeholes.)

Skeletor : Right… into… my… eyeholes.

Head Frat : Ha, Skellington! You are always grinning, man.

Skeletor : I'm not grinning! I'm FURIOUS! Absolutely furious!

Head Frat : Naw, you grinning, man. You here to party.

Skeletor : No! I'm here to… tell you there's a rival frat that's totally talking crap all about you, man.

Head Frat : Say what?!

(The music stops and all of the frats turn to Skeletor. One frat burps after drinking out of a trophy. The frats all approach Skeletor.)

Skeletor : Yep. They say you're not the number one frat at Eternia Tech anymore.

Head Frat : The hell we aren't! We'll show those assholes!

(All the frats cheer. Cut to the frats egging Castle Greyskull.)

Head Frat : Who's the number one frat now, retards?!

(He-Man and Teela are looking at the frats from a tower in Castle Greyskull. An egg lands on He-Man's face.)

He-Man : We'll be right down.

(Cut to He-Man, Teela and Man-At-Arms beating the crap out of the frats and killing them. Cut to Skeletor reading the newspaper in the accountant's office with the head article Fraternity Corpses Turn Up in River. Skeletor sighs happily.)

Accountant : You're still overdue on that mortgage, Smurfy.

Skeletor : Oh, uh, I've got a solution to that, too.

(Skeletor removes one of his straps seductively.)

Accountant : What are you doing?!

Skeletor : Oh, I don't know.

(Skeletor removes his other strap.)

Skeletor : What am I doing?

Accountant : Mr. Skeletor! I don't know what you're suggesting but- (Whispering) Close the door.

(Cut to outside the accountant's office and Skeletor closes the door.)

Accountant : No teeth, okay?

Skeletor : Yeah. Good luck with that.

(Sketch ends)

When it was done we were laughing a lot.

I M Weasel: (laughs) It was really enjoyable how those hooligans messed up Skeletor's home.

Me: Yeah it was! (LAUGHS)

Emma (ELGVTWD): (Laughs) That was so funny!

Niko (ELGVTWD): Yeah that was hilarious!

Nico: Yeah it was! You know Niko we do have the same name.

Niko (ELGVTWD): Yeah we sure do except my name has a K in it.

Nico: True.

Teela: But that sketch was funny!

Armada Starscream: He-Man, there are no frat boys in Eternia, are there?

He-Man: No thank goodness there aren't.

Me: Yeah I don't like Frat boys.

Maria: Yeah they cause a lot of trouble. Remember how me and William took down many of them during our first date?

William: How can I forget?

Nico: That was a wild and crazy date.

Me: It sure was. But thank goodness they weren't like those Frat Boys you all killed in that universe you went to.

Nico: Yeah those guys were monsters.

Ets: I heard about that. That was nuts.

Eli: It sure was.

Emma (ELGVTWD): Boy it must've been.

Lincoln: No kidding.

Varie: But thank goodness you're alright Emma.

Laney: Yeah having to survive like you did in a Zombie Apocalypse world must've been a nightmare.

Emma (ELGVTWD): It was a nightmare of unimaginable horror.

Eli: Geez!

Me: But thank goodness I got you all out of there. That cruise ship you guys were all using as your base is amazing.

Emma (ELGVTWD): Yeah and the lifestyle in it is amazing!

Lola: It sure is. Like the Argonautica.

Niko: Yep.

Jetfire: I didn't even think Skeletor's staff could even vomit.

Me: Me neither but that was funny!

Lana: Yeah I wonder if it can do that in real life.

Maria: I don't think it can.

Eli: Yeah but that was funny.

Emma (ELGVTWD): It sure was.

Maria: What do you think Skeletor and the accountant did in the office at the very end of that sketch?

Me: Whatever it was it probably wasn't pretty.

Ets: I think he killed him for his misfortune.

Eli: That's what I'm thinking.

Man At Arms: Yeah I have that same feeling too.

Emma (ELGVTWD): Me too.

Me: Or maybe it's something too kinky. (Shudders)

We shuddered at the thought of that.

Poromon: You know, I think Skeletor and the accountant had-

William: (blushing) Poromon, I'm gonna have to stop you right there. There are kids in the room. So, to protect the purity of the young folk, (looks at Ruby) we'll just say that the two of them did the one thing that makes a baby.

Poromon: Sorry.

Lori: By the way Emma where did J.D. and Jetfire find you guys?

Emma (ELGVTWD): It was a galaxy cluster of some kind.

Me: I found them on a Zombie Apocalypse ravaged Earth in the galaxy cluster XMMXCS 2215-1738.

Nicole: Whoa! That's located 10 billion light-years away from here.

Eli: Wow! That's far.

Nico: No kidding.

Lori: That literally is so far away.

Lola: Yeah no kidding.

The alarm sounded.

Me: Uh oh!

We went to the computer and we saw that the mascot of the Miami Dolphins NFL football team, Snowflake was kidnapped!

Lynn: (GASP) The mascot of the Miami Dolphins was kidnapped!?

Nico: Oh man! That's not good! We got to find out what happened and fast. The team can't play without him.

Me: No kidding! And I have a feeling we'll be meeting Ace Ventura Pet Detective.

Nico: Oh he is hilarious!

Me: I know he always cracks me up.

Future Maria: Doesn't Ace Ventura like animals too?

Me: He sure does and he finds animals that were kidnapped and being held prisoner and brings them back to their owners. Plus he is really funny. He does all kinds of crazy things that cracks people up.

Nico: Oh yeah! And he always gets the job done right.

Eli: In a hilarious manner.

Ets: Oh yeah! He is so hilarious!

Emma (ELGVTWD): Wow!

Top, Gearhead, Abra Kadabra, Grizzly, Trapster, Ragdoll, Batroc and Swordsman then appeared.

Ragdoll: Can me, Top, Gearhead, Abra Kadabra, Grizzly, Trapster, Batroc and Swordsman go with you guys?

Me: You all sure can. We're going to meet Ace Ventura and help him rescue the mascot of the Miami Dolphins, Snowflake.

Abra Kadabra: Oh wow!

Top: Ace Ventura is so funny!

Batroc: He sure is! I love how he cracks people up and pisses the bad guys off every time.

Eli: And bad guys are always losers.

Me: (Imitating Ace Ventura) LOOHOO-SEHER!

We laughed at how I did that.

Lincoln: (Laughs) That was funny!

Irwin: That was a good imitation yo!

Emma (ELGVTWD): That was so funny!

Me: Yeah. Lets head out guys. We're going to Miami, Florida.

We were off to Miami.

MIAMI, FLORIDA

We arrived in Miami.

Pirate Man: Well, this be the place.

Me: Yep. Miami, Florida. We're at the scene of the crime.

We were at Dolphin Stadium in Miami and we saw Snowflake's tank empty.

Me: Wow. I've always wanted to come to a football game when the games were on.

Nico: Me too.

Eli: Same here.

Emma (ELGVTWD): It's awesome seeing a football stadium with no zombies running around.

Niko: It sure is.

Lola: Yeah.

Me: Ace should be here somewhere.

We saw a man with a silly haircut and a green Hawaiian Shirt sniffing around the scene like a dog.

Me: There he is.

We went up to him.

Me: Ace Ventura Pet Detective?

Ace Ventura saw us.

Ace Ventura: YOU GOT THAT RIGHT BOY! Ace Ventura Pet Detective at your service. And Team Loud Phoenix Storm it's quite an honor to meet you.

Me: Same here and you always crack us up every time.

Lola: Yeah you are so funny!

Ace Ventura: (Imitating Elvis) Thank you very much.

Nico: (Laughs) He is so funny!

Ace Ventura saw Poromon on the ground. Thinking he was a stuffed toy, he picked him up.

Ace Venture: You sure you guys should be bringing your stuffed animals on missions.

Batroc: Actually, that's not a stuffed toy.

Poromon: Yeah so put me down pretty boy!

Ace Ventura: Sorry!

He did so.

Me: These are our mascots. Poromon, Poliwag. Manaphy, Horsea, Tentacool and Jirachi.

Ace Ventura: They are amazing.

Poliwag: But it's an honor to meet you Ace.

Horsea: You are sure funny!

Jirachi: Yeah you sure are.

Ace Ventura: I get that a lot.

Muscle Man: Hey, Ace. You know who else likes animals?

Ace Ventura: Who?

Muscle Man: My mom!

Edward the Platypus: I actually do count as an animal too.

Ace Ventura and us laughed at his joke.

Ace Ventura: That was a good one!

Me: His jokes are funny.

Lola: Yeah they are.

Me: We came to help you get Snowflake.

Ace Ventura: I would like your help in that.

Daring Do: It'll be fun to help out.

Me: Yep. Wait a second.

I saw a handprint on the glass of the tank.

Me: Hmm. Lisa can you do a scan on this handprint here?

Lisa Loud got her handprint scanner and she scanned it and looked it up on the database and it came up as a match to a known criminal - RAY FINKLE!

---

Ray Finkle, also known as "Lt. Lois Einhorn", is the main antagonist of Ace Ventura: Pet Detective.

He was the former popular kicker for the Miami Dolphins group, but was ultimately dismissed for costing the team a Super Bowl win. Finkle went completely insane, escaped from Shady Acres mental hospital, and had a sex reassignment surgery to escape the authorities. Afterward, he then worked as a corrupt senior Miami-Dade Police lieutenant under the disguise and name of a missing female hiker named Lois Einhorn.

He was portrayed by Sean Young.

Ray Finkle hailed from Collier County, Florida. He graduated from Collier High June 1976, and attended Stetson University, where he was an honors graduate from the Class of 1980. He became a football kicker nicknamed "The Mule," holding two NCAA division one records, for most points in a season and distance. Halfway through the 1982 NFL season, Finkle joined his home state's NFL team, the Miami Dolphins.

The team, led by star quarterback Dan Marino and with Finkle having a great performance, went all the way to the Super Bowl against the San Francisco 49ers. In the final play, the Dolphins had a field goal, which if Finkle converted would give them the title. He missed on wide right though, and Miami lost. During the kick, Marino held the ball after it was snapped; in the aftermath of Super Bowl XVII, Finkle blamed Marino for the miss, claiming he held the ball "laces-in" when he should have held it "laces-out." But this was dismissed as the ravings of a sore loser. Coaches and team owners alike took the loss very hard. After the season, Finkle's contract was not renewed and his reputation was destroyed; as a result, no other team would take him on, seemingly believing that he would repeat this blunder when it mattered most, effectively causing his NFL career to wash out.

Finkle went back to his hometown, working at a bar and being violently assaulted by gangs of men who bet their entire life savings on the game. Even his attempts to live in his old house were subject to constant bombardment by those still furious over the outcome of the game. Dealing with the constant anger and resentment (both his own and of others) over the Super Bowl loss, the subsequent ruin of his career, and living through constant the vandalism of his house, further assaults, and presumably even drive-by shootings, given the bullet holes in the house, as well as the constant humiliation from the public and media - all of which his parents suffered through, as well - Finkle eventually snapped, turning his bedroom into a shrine declaring his hatred of Dan Marino, and was eventually put into a mental institution in Tampa called Shady Acres.

While committed in 1984, Finkle found out about a hiker named Lois Einhorn who went missing, and her body was never recovered. The next day, he escaped from Shady Acres, planning on taking over Einhorn's identity. His last credit card record was in June, where he rented a car from Avis, which was found abandoned two months later in South Miami. Finkle then got a feminine body, with breast implants and such over the next few years, though he kept his male genitalia intact. In 1987, "Einhorn" joined the Miami-Dade Police Department. By way of seduction and sexual manipulation, "she" climbed all the way up to a Lieutenant rank in just a matter of years.

---

Me: Ray Finkle!

Nico: Who is Ray Finkle?

Lynn: He was that field goal kicker that missed an easy field goal in Superbowl XVII and lost the Dolphins the Superbowl. But he was disgraced and fired for making the Dolphins lose.

Me: Man that was 37 years ago.

Laney: Yeah. We better find out more about him.

Me: First lets go to his house.

We were off to Ray Finkle's house.

Ace Ventura: So, have your mascots been useful on missions?

Fisticuffs: Of course. They even took down King Sombra once.

Me: They sure have. We have done it all over the years. Not to brag.

Poliwag: Funnest adventures of all.

Sunset Shimmer: They sure are awesome.

Gearhead: Are there any vehicles around here that I can take control of?

Me: There's lots of them all over the place.

We landed at Ray Finkle's house and saw that it was a total mess! There was graffiti, bullet holes, vandalism, and Molotov Cocktail Burns and even smashed windows.

Me: Whoa! This house has seen better days.

Nico: Lots of people must have been really pissed off at him for missing that field goal.

Emma (ELGVTWD): Geez!

Gearhead: What a bunch of soreheads.

We went into the house and saw that it was a worse mess than it is outside.

Laney: Whoa this house is a dump.

Rarity: Indeed it is darling. It needs a lot of redecorating.

Me: Lets search this place for clues.

We walked around and in Finkle's room we saw a disturbing sight. We saw many magazine and newspaper articles of Dan Morino plastered all over the walls with stab wounds, knive and gunshot wounds, flames and more drawn all over them and all over the walls was KILL DAN MORINO, DEATH TO MORINO, I HATE MORINO and more. Even a voodoo doll that looked like Dan Morino with pins in it.

Me: Whoa! He has a really incredible hatred towards Dan Morino.

Eli: How delusional is this creep!?

Emma (ELGVTWD): He is REALLY messed up.

Me: More like INSANELY FUCKED UP IN THE HEAD.

Laney: He has a very strong obsession with Dan Morino.

Lola: And it's obviously one of hatred.

We went into the kitchen.

Marie Kanker Loud: (opens fridge) He might be fucked up but he's got great food.

Lola: Marie that food is over 37 years old.

Nico: Yeah it's been in there since 1984.

Me: This whole house is condemned remember?

Marie Kanker Loud: Oops. Yuck.

Nico: What happened to Ray Finkle?

Me: Lets see.

I pulled up newspaper articles and it showed one that said RAY FINKLE COMMITTED.

Me: He was committed to Shady Acres Mental Hospital because of Homicidal Tendencies.

Emma (ELGVTWD): Whoa!

Laney: He let his rage towards Dan Morino get so bad that it destroyed his mind.

Lola: Yeah.

Ace Ventura: Then we better get over there ladies and gentleman.

Me: Lets go.

Swordsman: Before we continue after Finkle, should we blow up his house?

Me: It is scheduled to be demolished later this week. But sure we can speed that up for them.

Eli: Let me do that.

Eli formed an energy ball.

Eli: Fire in the hole!

He fired an energy ball and it went into the house and blew it up in a massive fiery explosion!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A fiery mushroom cloud was seen from all over the city as Ray Finkle's house was up in flames and rubble.

We heard cheering and that meant one thing: They HATE Ray Finkle.

Me: Wow! I can tell all of Miami hates him.

Emma (ELGVTWD): No kidding.

Muscle Man: You know who else hates Ray Finkle? MY MOM!

We laughed at his joke.

We flew over to Shady Acres Mental Hospital.

We arrived at Shady Acres Mental Hospital and we went to the Receptionist.

Trapster: Hi. Do you have hospital records on Ray Finkle?

Receptionist: We sure do. But he escaped in 1984 and hasn't been heard from since.

Me: Hmm that is weird. May we see them and his room if we could please?

Receptionist: Follow me.

We were lead to the records and they showed us his file and it was 2 inches thick and it was a LOT of records.

Me: Hmm. Geez look at this!

Nico: Whoa! He REALLY HATES Dan Morino.

Naruto: He sure does. He should have just let it go.

Me: Yeah its been 37 years since Super Bowl XVII ended.

Fu: He should have just let it go.

Lynn: What a sore loser.

Emma (ELGVTWD) Yeah he needs to grow up.

We arrived at his room and saw that he was living in a room that was a padded cell and there was more Kill Dan Morino writing all over it.

Me: GEEZ! He REALLY is FUCKED UP IN THE HEAD!

Lola: No kidding!

Aylene C.: I hope he isn't like Crocker.

Fu: He might be at that range.

Ra's Al Ghul: I suspect there are more clues to be found here.

Me: Lets look around.

We looked around his room and saw a hole in the wall and in it was a torn up straitjacket.

Me: A torn up straitjacket.

Lisa Loud: Hmm. He ripped out of it with brute force.

Lana: Hmm.

Lana looked up and saw that the air vents were not open.

Lana: He didn't go through the air vents.

Me: He weighed 300 pounds. They would've heard him in there. So he must've used another method to get out.

Lola: Huh?

Lola found a hole in the wall with sunlight streaming in and she pushed a brick out and saw that it was loose and he got out by crawling through it.

Lola: Look at this!

We saw what Lola found.

Me: He got out through a loose brick in the wall.

Eli: He must've been really limber to get through that.

Ets: Yeah.

Varie: And they didn't know he was gone until a few hours later.

Me: Hmm. And he hasn't been since since 1984 huh? I wonder.

Nico: What do you think J.D.?

Me: Lets head to Miami Hospital. I have a feeling he did something there. Thank you for your time.

Reception: You're welcome.

We went to Miami General Hospital.

Android 21: From one hospital to another.

Me: Yep.

We went to the receptionist.

Me: Pardon me?

Hospital Receptionist: Team Loud Phoenix Storm welcome.

Me: Glad to be here. Sorry to bother you but we're looking into the case of the Abduction of Snowflake the dolphin and we think it has something to do with disgraced NFL star Ray Finkle. Can we see his medical records here at this hospital?

Hospital Receptionist: Certainly. Follow me.

We went to the vault of records and looked at his file.

Me: Hmm. Lets see. Here is something interesting.

Nico and Ace read it and we saw that Finkle had a Sex Reassignment Surgery.

Nico: No wonder they couldn't find him! He's now a female because of a sex reassignment surgery!

Ace Ventura: It all makes sense now!

Me: Hmm. (To the receptionist) Do you know what name he chose for his new Female Identity?

Hospital Receptionist: He said he's going to be called Lois Einhorn. She now works for the Miami Police Department.

Me: Oh shit! This is not good. Lois Einhorn was really a hiker that disappeared in the Appalachian Mountains years ago and he stole her identity. They don't know that she is REALLY Ray Finkle.

Nico: I think we got all the evidence we need.

Emma (ELGVTWD): Now all we have to do is find him.

Me: And I have a feeling I know where he is at. The last place anyone would expect: The Miami Wharf.

Abra Kadabra: Lets go and I'll do the entrance this time.

Me: Great. Lets go! Thank you for this information. You've been a big help.

Receptionist: You're welcome.

We went to the Wharf.

We were hiding out.

Abra Kadabra: Follow my lead.

Me: Right.

Ace Ventura: Lets do it.

In the Warehouse at the wharf, LOIS EINHORN/RAY FINKLE was smirking as she or he was laughing at Snowflake. Also she had famous football star Dan Morino tied up.

Lois Einhorn: Soon you will be dead and I will be superbowl champion.

Then a ball of dark magic came in and floated by her and then it went behind Dan Morino and then…

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion blasted out of the ball and a phoenix cry was heard and out of the explosion came us.

Me: Now that was an entrance.

I saw Lois Einhorn.

Me: Lieutenant Lois Einhorn, I presume?

Lois Einhorn: It's an honor to meet the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

I pointed my gun at her.

Me: Or should I say Ray Finkle?

Dan Morino was stunned.

Lynn and Lightning untied him.

Lois Einhorn: I don't know who you are talking about.

Me: You can drop the act. We know it's you.

The police busted in and had their guns pointed at me.

Me: Officers I'm not the one you want. It's HER!

Lois Einhorn: [ignoring them] He kidnapped Snowflake! He killed

Roger Podator and was going to kill Dan Marino and meeeeee!

Ace Ventura: Ho ho ho Hoooooooooooo! Fiction can be fun, but I find the reference section a little more enlightening. For instance, if you were to look up the NFL's "All Time Bonehead Plays," you might read about a Miami Dolphin kicker named Ray Finkle, who missed the 26 yard field goal in the closing seconds of Super Bowl XVII. [takes deep breath] What you wouldn't read about was how Ray Finkle lost his mind was committed to a mental hospital only to escape and join the police force under the assumed identity of a missing hiker manipulating his way to the top in a diabolical scheme to get even with Dan Marino for whom he blamed the entire thing!

Aguado: What the hell are you talking about?

Ace Ventura: SHE'S NOT LOIS EINHORN!, She's Ray Finkle, she's a man.

Lois Einhorn: He's lying. SHOOT HIIIIMMM!

Me: Then this will tell you otherwise!

I snapped my fingers and "Lois Einhorn" was really RAY FINKLE! He was back to his male form!

Me: SURPRISE!

Dan Morino: Ray Finkle!?

Hood Sickle: That's right, officers. You've been going out with a guy!

The Officers were repulsed by this and they were throwing up and some were even wiping their tongues!

Me: Now HE will pay for his crimes!

Dan Morino: Why did you do this Ray?

Ray Finkle: YOU RUINED EVERYTHING FOR ME DAN! I HATE YOU MORE THAN LIFE ITSELF! BECAUSE OF YOU I WAS RUINED! I WANT NOTHING MORE THAN TO KILL YOU! YOU DESTROYED EVERYTHING FOR ME!

Me: How fucked up in the head are you!?

Nico: He's REALLY FUCKED up!

Lola: YEAH!

I went up to him and grabbed his hand.

I took off the Super Bowl XVII ring he had on him.

Me: You don't deserve this ring. You are a disgrace to all football stars everywhere.

Nico: You are no champ, you are a cheating chump!

He then exploded into a ferocious homicidal rage and went at me and I punched him in the face and knocked him down.

Top: (to Lynn) You can have his ring, Lynn. You deserve it more.

Dan Morino: I agree with Top, Lynn. Think of it as my gift to you guys for saving my life.

Lynn: Wow! (Puts it on) Thanks Mr. Morino.

Dan Morino: You're welcome.

Me: You had better get to safety Mr. Morino. This is gonna get ugly real fast.

Dan Morino: Go get that son of a bitch! He is not worthy to be part of the NFL anymore.

Me: No he isn't.

Dan Morino got out of the line of fire.

Me: Ray Finkle consider yourself in for a major sacking (Cracks Knuckles) Team Loud Phoenix Storm style!

Nico: You are being ejected for Unsportsmanlike Conduct!

Eli: With a major asskicking!

Emma (ELGVTWD): And it will hurt. BAD!

Scorpion, Doc Ock, Count Vertigo, Sportsmaster, Pied Piper, Juggernaut, Copperhead, The Yenaldooshi, Vortex and Abomination then appeared.

Me: Scorpion, Doc Ock, Count Vertigo, Sportsmaster, Pied Piper, Juggernaut, Copperhead, The Yenaldooshi, Vortex and Abomination.

Count Vertigo: Good seeing you all here.

Pied Piper: Crazy day huh?

Me: Yeah especially for the cops after finding out they were dating a man the entire time.

Copperhead: Gross!

Scorpion: It's a real pleasure to meet you, Ace.

Ace Ventura: The pleasure is all ours.

Doctor Octopus: I see you've had the honor of meeting the mascots.

Poromon: He sure did.

Count Vertigo: (to Ace Ventura) You're also about to see the usual battles from up close.

Sportsmaster: It's also our first time in the usual battles for most of us. Except Copperhead and Yenaldoshi

Me: Yep and it will be cool for you.

Yenaldooshi: We saw everything and that is sick that Ray Fickle would do all that over the last 37 years.

Nico: No kidding. He is completely deranged!

Sportsmaster: And he's an absolute disgrace to all sports everywhere.

Me: Yeah! Especially to football.

?: I agree.

A figure came out and it was WITCHBLADE from Alien Rangers! Back for Round 2.

Me: Witchblade. Back for round 2.

Witchblade: Yep.

Lola: Awesome!

Witchblade: One of these days, you guys should meet the heroine of the series named after me.

Me: I love that show Witchblade. We may consider that in the future.

Nico: Yeah that show was epic.

May: It sure was and the heroes were smoking hot in there.

Lola: Yeah they were!

We then heard a scary screech and then we saw a figure swoop in from out of the sky and it was a flaming Owl Creature! It was the Willawaw!

Me: WHOA!

Qin: Wow! It's the Willawaw!

Twilight Sparkle: What is the Willawaw?

Qin: It was an owl legend creature that was used as a front for a tribal Indian member that was selling stolen merchendise. The gang busted him and he was exiled from the clan.

Twilight Sparkle: Whoa! That's crazy.

Me: Yeah.

?: You haven't seen anything yet!

A figure came out and it was FAIRY GODMOTHER from the Shrek Movies!

---

~ The Fairy Godmother tells Shrek that he and his kind cannot live happily ever after before attempting to kill Shrek, also her last words before her death.

The Fairy Godmother is the main antagonist of Shrek 2, the posthumous overarching antagonist of Shrek the Third and a mentioned antagonist in Shrek Forever After .

Just like in her origin story, the Fairy Godmother is a magical fairy. However, her personality is different from her classic counterpart's personality. She is also the mother of Prince Charming.

In the film, she was voiced by Jennifer Saunders, who later played Other Spink in Coraline . In the video-game, she was voiced by Claudia Christian, who also played Helga Katrina Sinclair in Atlantis: The Lost Empire .

Past

Years before the events of Shrek 2, Princess Fiona's parents, King Harold and Queen Lillian ask the Fairy Godmother to help their cursed daughter Princess Fiona get rid of her curse. Fiona was cursed by a witch, causing her to turn into an ogre every night and return to human form at sunrise. The Fairy Godmother told them to lock her away in a dragon-guarded castle where she would be rescued by her son, Prince Charming, who was supposed to kiss Fiona and break her curse.

Shrek 2

Years later, during the events of Shrek 2, the Fairy Godmother is first seen physically when Fiona goes to her bedroom balcony and cries because her father King Harold was not pleased that her new husband Shrek was an ogre, her tears supposedly calling to the Fairy Godmother. Arriving, the Fairy Godmother is blown away to learn that Fiona is still an ogre. When Shrek and Donkey enter, Fairy

Godmother discovers that Shrek is Fiona's husband. To learn more, she picks up her son and goes to confront Harold, who reveals that Shrek had gone to the castle and freed Fiona first. The Fairy Godmother demands Harold find a way to get Shrek out of the picture and returns to her cottage.

Fairy Godmother is later seen again when Shrek, who had an fight with Fiona after Fairy Godmother left the Far Far Away castle, visits her cottage with Donkey and their new friend Puss-In-Boots, which to their surprise is actually a large factory where she manufactures spells and potions. They walk in on her while she's brewing a love potion singing her same song, which included "a drop of desire, a pinch of passion and just a hint of lust". When Fairy Godmother see Shrek, Donkey, and Puss, Shrek ask her to help him with Fiona. However, she spites him by saying that ogres don't live happily ever after. Before Shrek leaves, he steals one of her potions, the Happily Ever After potion to be specific, and causes a giant mess. After Fairy Godmother learns that Shrek stole the Happily Ever After potion, she realizes that she could use it to her advantage.

The following day, after Shrek (and Donkey) have drunken the potion and Shrek has become a handsome human, Donkey has become a stallion, and Fiona has become human again, Fairy Godmother and Charming go to the castle where Charming poses as a transformed Shrek while the Fairy Godmother prevents the real Shrek from finding Fiona and then makes him witness a "moment" between Charming and Fiona, making him believe she's fallen for Charming. She uses his grief to seemingly gently convince him to stop living in a fairytale, and that if he truly loves Fiona he'll let her go. The plan works but is blown when Shrek, Donkey and Puss see her, Charming, and Harold at the Poisoned Apple tavern.

When Charming complains that Fiona is not warming up to him, Harold wants to call the whole thing off, declaring that you can't force someone to fall in love. Undeterred, the Fairy Godmother gives Harold the philtre she was working on earlier and orders him to have Fiona drink some of it, saying it will make her fall in love with the first man she kisses, and to make sure it is Charming. At first, Harold refuses, but Fairy Godmother then blackmails him by reminding him that she helped him with his happily ever after and that she can take it away just as easily, making Harold give in. Then, when Charming calls her his mother, they hear Donkey shout, "Mother?!" and look outside to see him with Shrek and Puss, the three of them having heard the whole plan. Realizing the jig is up, the Fairy Godmother calls the trio "Thieves" and has them arrested and imprisoned while she and Charming attend the royal ball.

She then notices Fiona is not going for Charming (who's still under the impression he's Shrek) because of his behavior. She then declares to dedicate a song to Fiona and "Prince Shrek" and sings "Holding Out for a Hero," causing Fiona and Charming to dance. The plan almost works until Donkey, Puss, and the real Shrek arrive, having been rescued by Shrek's fairytale friends. They fight over her over the Fairy Godmother's wand. Fairy Godmother quickly orders her son to kiss Fiona, telling him she's already taken the potion, but when Charming kisses Fiona, she headbutts him, revealing Harold didn't give Fiona the philtre, after all. Charming manages to recover and then grabs his mother's wand out of Puss's paw and throws it to her. Enraged, the Fairy Godmother turns to Shrek and Fiona, exclaiming a final message directed at Shrek, "I told you ogres don't live happily ever after!" She then unleashes a death ray from her wand, as soon as the ray is about to hit Shrek. King Harold jumps in the way, and then the spell reflects off the armor he is wearing, and hits the Fairy Godmother. At first she seems unharmed, but as she prepares to attack again, she suddenly bursts into nothing but bubbles and sparkles, leaving only her damaged glasses and wand, which dims out along with her life.

Shrek the Third

The Fairy Godmother doesn't appear in the third film, due having already died in the previous film, but she is mentioned throughout the film by her son Prince Charming, who plans to avenge her death by taking over Far Far Away and kill Shrek, though this all ended in failure as Prince Charming seemingly ends up crushed to death by a falling tower, leaving the Fairy Godmother's plans for conquest and power in vain.

Shrek Forever After

The Fairy Godmother is mentioned at the beginning of the fourth film. At the beginning of the movie, before Shrek and Donkey rescued Fiona like in the first film, Harold and Lillian go to make a deal with Rumpelstiltskin to end Fiona's curse. Harold reminds Lillian that Fairy Godmother insisted only True Love's Kiss would break the curse. Lillian then stated she does not trust the Fairy Godmother, a possible hint at the Fairy Godmother's true role in the second film.

Plus, the Fairy Godmother also appears in the film during its end credits.

---

Nico: Fairy Godmother of Shrek!

Fairy Godmother (Shrek): Yes it is I.

Lola: I hate this version of the Fairy Godmother!

But it wasn't just her. Out came CHINA WHITE, ASAJJ VENTRESS, and METAL SONIC! But also with them was ZAVOK from Sonic The Lost World!

---

Zavok is a major antagonist of the Sonic the Hedgehog franchise. He appears as the main antagonist of Sonic Lost World and as one of the secondary antagonists of Team Sonic Racing . A replica of him also served as a major antagonist in Sonic Forces .

He is a Zeti who is the leader of his entire race, and the former leader of the Deadly Six. When Dr. Ivo "Eggman" Robotnik came to Lost Hex, Zavok and the other members of the Deadly Six were forced into serving the doctor due to the effects of the Cacophonic Conch. However, Zavok and the Deadly Six rise up against Eggman and break free, threatening to destroy the world, but was defeated by Sonic.

He was voiced by Travis Willingham in Sonic: Lost World and Sonic Forces, and by Patrick Seitz in Team Sonic Racing onwards.

Sonic Lost World

In Sonic Lost World, Doctor Eggman attempts to harness the power of Zavok and the other Deadly Six members in an attempt to defeat Sonic the Hedgehog and conquer the world. However, Zavok and the Deadly Six rise up against Eggman and break free, threatening to destroy the world by themselves by using Eggman's unstable Extrator machine to absorb Earth's energy and increase their power.

Zavok is the last of the Deadly Six to be fought, and Sonic defeats him twice, the second time sending him falling, although he survives. Zavok is mad about Sonic to Tails because he embarrassed him once again. He tries to brainwash Tails as a robot, but Tails escapes using one of his tails and one of Zomom's toothpicks to reprogram the machine.

Zavok appears in Zone 3 of Lava Mountain alongside Zeena and Zor, and is again the sixth to be fought. Sonic defeats the vengeful leader with two Homing Attacks, after which he turns giant and chases Sonic up a shaft, shooting fireballs at him. Sonic hits explosive blocks at Zavok, which eventually defeats the red Zeti and sends him falling into the lava pit below, presumably killing him (although Eggman seems to suggest otherwise with plans of controlling the Deadly Six again, but he may have not witnessed the battle due to construction of his mech, and assumed they escaped or was referring to other Zeti other than the Six as he actually never says the Zeti were the Six.).

Sonic Forces

A duplicate of Zavok appears in Sonic Forces as one of the antagonists of the game, alongside copies of Shadow the Hedgehog, Metal Sonic and Chaos. Zavok was one of the copies who assisted Infinite in defeating and capturing Sonic. The hedgehog was imprisoned aboard the Death Egg for many months of torture until he eventually escaped. Zavok then fought Sonic by commanding large amounts of flying Badniks but was soon defeated, causing the Zeti to glitch and fade from existence.

---

Sonic: Zavok!

Zavok: Been a while Sonic.

Eli: Not him again. First Metal Sonic and now you.

Zavok: I know Eli. I'm just a nightmare that won't go away. But I'm real.

Me: Who are you gonna be the archenemy for?

Zavok: I chose Ace Bunny as my Archenemy.

Ace Bunny: All right!

Me: Lets get this party started.

We powered up and I snapped my fingers and we were on the planet Pisciss!

Nico: Planet Pisciss. Good choice.

Me: Yep. Lets go!

Marco (Animorphs): I'll face the Willawaw.

We went at them.

Mika, Menat, Karin, Ibuki, Kumiko and Future Maria VS Scorpion

---

Scorpion was first.

Scorpion: (to Duncan) F.Y.I., Evil Lyn confirmed that Skeletor didn't have frat boys over at Snake Mountain in the past.

Duncan: That's a relief. It would have been really funny to see that and have them trash the place.

Twilight Sparkle: Frat boys are stupid. They have no respect for the laws.

Luster Dawn: No they don't. It's like they can do whatever they want without any shame or consequences.

Princess Cadance: And get away with anything they want.

Princess Amore: If that doesn't spell Sociopathic Monster then I don't know what will.

Scorpion: You got that right. I didn't like school. It was awful. But who are the new kids with you guys?

Flurry Heart: That's Emma and Niko. They are Zombie Apocalypse Survivors that J.D. and Jetfire rescued from a Planet Earth that was located 10 billion light-years away from here.

Cloud Star: Yeah it was terrible that they had to go through all that.

Lilly Crystal: Having to survive a zombie apocalypse like that at such a young age is awful.

Scorpion: Oh man. Poor kids. Thank goodness that J.D. and Jetfire saved them from such an apocalyptic nightmare.

Minuette: Yeah thank goodness for that.

Twinkleshine: Poor kids.

Lemon Hearts: But thank goodness they are alright.

Moondancer: Yeah Zombies are scary.

Lyra Heartstrings: And repulsively ugly.

Bon Bon: They are awful too.

Star Swirl: They are awful creatures. We faced lots of them ourselves.

Spyro: Yeah and they were not a pretty sight!

Ninjini: No they weren't.

Pop Fizz: Yeah they were crazy!

Scorpion: No kidding. I see you all have the Street Fighter Girls too.

Cammy: (British Accent) Indeed and it's gonna be awesome facing you.

Chun-Li: You got that right.

R. Mika: This is gonna be good.

Menat: You said it!

Karin: We're going to kick some butt.

Ibuki: This is gonna be fun.

Kumiko: You said it.

Futura Maria: Yeah!

Scorpion: Bring it on!

He fired a wave of acid from his tail and they dodged it and punched and kicked and blasted him all over and knocked Scorpion down.

Duncan: AAWWWW YEAH!

Twilight Sparkle: That was awesome!

* * *

Battle 2: Scarlet, Sunset Shimmer, Pepperdance, Cayenne, Wallflower, Firecracker Burst, Fire Skylanders, Gusty the Great, Fire Skylanders, Prince Ren, Tula, Ioz, Niddler, Pirate Man and June VS Doc Ock

* * *

Doc Ock was next.

Doctor Octopus: (to Scarlet) I actually do know what Skeletor and that accountant did in that office together at the end of that Robot Chicken sketch. But since there are children present, I'm not going to say what it is.

Scartlet: I have a feeling I know what it might be too but yeah I won't say it either at the risk of Nicole beating the living shit out of us.

Sunset Shimmer: Yeah.

Doc Ock: I heard that Qin is a direct descendent of the infamous Dragon Emperor of China.

Sunset Shimmer: That's what I was hearing too! She has a lot of awesome history in her blood.

Pepperdance: Ooowee! Yeah that is something.

Cayenne: We read a lot about Emperor Han the Dragon Emperor and he was a monster bent on conquering the world back over 2,000 years ago.

Wallflower: And he was cursed wasn't he?

Cayenne: Yes he was.

Firecracker Burst: Hard to imagine that Qin is descended from a malevolent monster.

Sunburn: No kidding. That must be a really powerful and rough history.

Fryno: Yeah that must be amazing.

Doc Ock: No kidding! (To Prince Ren) Wait a minute aren't you all the Pirates of Dark Water!?

Prince Ren: We sure are.

Doc Ock: Wow! I loved watching you all on TV back when I was a kid!

Tula: Brings back memories doesn't it.

Ioz: Really awesome adventures on Mer.

Niddler: After this lets get some food.

Tula: Food must be all you think about.

Pirate Man: Good adventures lads.

June: Yeah they were.

Doc Ock: Aw yeah. Lets do it!

He sent his tentacles at them and they dodged them and blasted him all over with energy and fire blasts and smashed him down.

Scarlet: All right!

Sunset shimmer: YEAH!

---

Count Vertigo was next.

Count Vertigo: (to Courtney) Clearly, a 37 year old grudge has not been healthy for Finkle.

Courtney: You got that right. Carrying a grudge for almost 40 years made him COMPLETELY insane.

Rarity: Now we know why carrying a grudge for long periods of time is so unhealthy.

Sweetie Belle: Yeah it destroys your mind and your sanity.

Thunder Terror: Yeah and it's hard to imagine that he would blame a very famous football star like Dan Morino for his failures even though he didn't do anything wrong.

Sassy Saddles: (British Accent) He has a tremendous number of problems with his mind.

Sapphire Shores: You said it girl.

Vinyl Scratch nodded in agreement.

Octavia Melody: (British Accent) His mother had every right to have him committed like that.

Rose: He is a monster!

Daisy: A freak of nature!

Lily Valley: Yeah he needs to be locked up!

Jet Set: I most definitely agree.

Upper Crust: Indeed and we are lovers of football and love the sport.

Fancy Pants: (Posh British Accent) It's a most fun sport chaps.

Diamond Tiara: I like football myself and it's a great sport.

Silver Spoon: Yeah and coincidentally my favorite team is the Dolphins.

Toxic Horror: I have always been a big fan of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers but what Ray Finkle did makes him the ultimate sore loser.

Louie PoisonSea: I like the Pittsburgh Steelers and I agree. What Ray Finkle did makes him a disgrace to all of football.

Saffron Masala: (Indian Accent) You said it. I like the Seattle Seahawks.

Mistmane: Football is fun.

Sable Spirit: I heard that a lot of people got hurt playing it.

Zap: (Gurgling Voice) They sure have.

Tidepool: (Australian Accent) They sure have mates and it's not pretty.

Batman: No it isn't. The worst case was Aaron Hernandez.

Robin: Yeah he was bad.

Batgirl: And I feel sorry for him.

Count Vertigo: I do too. What he did was all over the news.

Mandarin: It sure was.

Edward: I feel sorry for him.

Count Vertigo: Me too. Lets do it!

He fired a vertigo ray from his eye and they closed their eyes and ran at him and punched and kicked and smashed him all over with water, jewels and energy and smashed him down.

Courtney: All right!

Rarity: Rapture darling that was grand!

Sportsmaster was next.

Sportsmaster: (to Lightning) Finkle's not going to the Olympics anytime soon.

Lightning: Or any other sporting event for that matter.

Applejack: Yeah and after carrying a grudge for that long a period of time he doesn't deserve to be part of any sport.

Apple Bloom: Yeah that is completely unhealthy.

Frozen Fright: Yeah. It totally destroyed his mind and sanity.

Apple Fritter: Blaming someone like Dan Morino for their own failures is something that the Evil Lynn would do to Lincoln and all that.

Sportsmaster: Evil Lynn?

Applejack: An evil version of Lynn from another universe that tried to kill Lincoln and her former family for getting rid of her for her hatred towards Lincoln for claims of bad luck.

Big Mac: Eeyup.

Sportsmaster: Oh man! I've heard about that. That was crazy! She framed our Lynn for her crimes.

Sugar Belle: Yeah that was nuts.

Bright Mac: No kidding. Her heart must be so full of hatred.

Pear Butter: That was awful.

Granny Smith: That girl is more twisted than an apple fritter burning in the oven and reduced to black powder.

Apple Rose: You said it cousin.

Goldie Delicious: Yeah she was crazy.

Grand Pear: No kidding.

Flashwing: That girl is a nightmare.

Rubble Rouser: She sure is guys!

---

Pied Piper was next.

Pied Piper: (to Gwen) The way you guys can change genders is much more simple then how Finkle did it.

Gwen: Yeah the other way takes far too long with all that surgery and stuff.

Princess Luna: It sure does. But Ray Finkle's Mind is completeley broken beyond repair. He deserves to be in prison for all his crimes.

Snowdrop: Yeah what a monster.

Gari: I hope they give him the death penalty for it.

Ink Rose: Me too.

Moonlight Raven: You heard all of Miami cheer for when Finkle's house was destroyed?

Pied Piper: I sure did. I can't believe all of Miami hates him still for what he did over 37 years ago.

Blackout: And that was back in Superbowl XVII.

Knight Mare: All because he missed an easy field goal.

Little Strongheart: Yeah that was crazy. Even though I never watched football, learning all about new things is really interesting for me.

Jake Sulley: It sure is fun.

Neytiri: It sure is and learning all about Earth is really amazing too.

Norm Spellman: It sure is fun just as much as learning about Pandora.

Grace Augustine: Yes.

Trudy Chacon: You said it.

Ra's Al Ghul: It sure is most amazing.

Ground Man: Yes it is.

Pied Piper: Indeed it is. Lets do it!

Limestone Pie: Me too!

Moe: That guy is a menace to all women everywhere.

Larry Fine: You said it!

Curly: And he couldn't hit the broad side of a man. Nyuk nyuk nyuk nyuk.

POINK!

Moe poked Curly's eyes out.

Moe: Get outta here!

Larry Fine: Leave him alone!

Moe: Butt out of this Porcupine!

Ripster: He's recovered. But we won't be facing a murderous Patrick or Greedy Mr. Krabs anytime soon.

Fluttershy: Yes and that is a good think.

Abomination: It sure is. Do you like Ace Ventura for his love of Animals, Fluttershy?

Fluttershy: I sure do. He has a big heart for all animals great and small like me.

Tree Hugger: That is completely far out good dudes.

Mage Meadowbrook: It sure is. But what Ray Finkle was doing is a disgrace to all things in football and animals everywhere.

Discord: Indeed and I may be the embodiment of chaos but I can never support a monster like Ray Finkle.

Fairy Godmother: (laughs) I can keep turning you two into whatever I like until the cows come home!

But then Twilight and Eli were unaffected.

Fairy Godmother (Shrek): WHAT!?

Twilight Sparkle: Sorry Fairy Godmother but we're completely impervious to all forms of magic.

Eli: But you are not! It's time for us to take you down for being a bad Fairy Godmother!

(BONNIE TYLER'S HOLDING OUT FOR A HERO PLAYS)

Twilight Sparkle unsheathed her sword and Eli went Super Human and they went at her and The Fairy Godmother turned her wand into a sword and they clashed powerfully. It was Alicorn Princess and Super Human VS Evil Xenophobic Godmother. They clashed powerfully and sparks and lightning were flying all over and Twilight kicked her in the face and slashed her in the face and Eli kicked her in the back of the head and punched her in the face and Twilight punched her in the face and knocked out some of her teeth. Fairy Godmother blasted her magic at them and they dodged each blast with little effort and Twilight fired a magic laser and blasted Fairy Godmother in her face and slashed her arm.

Then Cinderella's Fairy Godmother then appeared!

Fairy Godmother (Cinderella): Looks like I got here just in time. Time to teach this ripoff of me some manners.

She readied her wand.

Another awesome and funny adventure complete.

Ace Ventura Pet Detective is one of the funniest movies that I have seen from Jim Carrey and it was so funny how he did all that stuff in that movie. HE WAS HILARIOUS! NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Etstheclarencefan, Drako1234658 and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Tomorrow is Mothers Day and we're not only going to celebrate our moms but also next up is the awesome 1989 series Nadia: The Secret of Blue Water. I don't know if any of your are familiar with this one and I'm not either but it's one of Omegahatchiyak12's ideas and it's about a mysterious girl and how she has a jewel that is connected to the mysterious lost continent of Atlantis in the Mediterranean Sea and we're going after the evil Gargoyle for causing countless deaths and turning Nadia's brother into a robot and we're going to make sure he pays for his crimes.

See you all tomorrow.

Mothers Day Atlantis Mayhem

HAPPY MOTHERS DAY 2021 EVERYONE!

---

WARNING: THE BATTLE IN THIS CHAPTER IS BRUTALLY BLOODY AND GORY! READ AT YOUR OWN RISK.

---

It was Mothers Day at the World Tree Estate and we were celebrating everything our moms did for us.

Manaphy, Poromon, Tenticool, Jirachi, Poliwag, and Horsea: HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY, EVERYBODY!

Me: Same to all of you.

Videl Chan: Happy Mothers Day mom!

May: Oh thanks sweetie.

Evelyn: Same to you mommy.

Carol: Oh thank you honey.

Everyone had gifts for their moms.

Vignette Vallencia: I've never celebrated Mother's Day before.

Me: It's a first for many of us.

Laney: Yeah and we have a lot of fun with our moms.

Me: We sure do.

Eli: Yeah.

Ets: Awesome.

Sakura Haruno: I'll make the food.

Me: Cool and you can help Mr. Lynn.

Lynn Sr.: Awesome!

Me: Lets do it!

We got to work on the food.

Sakura Haruno. And you know Tokyo Mew Mew, right?

Me: I sure do Sakura. Why do you ask?

Sakura Haruno: Oh just curious.

We got the food ready and set the table.

Sakura Haruno: Food's ready!

We had burgers, pizza, spaghetti and pies.

And we even had the Ulti-Meatum Burgers too.

Me: Lets eat.

We got the food and ate it.

We were eating the food all over. Poromon and Poliwag went for another slice of pizza.

Swindle: (to the mascots) Don't be greedy. There's plenty for everyone.

Poromon and Poliwag growled at him.

Me: You two calm down.

Poromon: Sorry.

Poliwag: Yeah.

Me: Good.

We were later stuffed and we were watching TV.

Sunstreaker: This is turning out to be another good Mother's Day.

Me: Yes it is.

Lola: Yeah it is.

Manaphy: Happy Mother's Day, Mama!

May: Thanks Manaphy.

It was a great dinner and mothers day.

Horsea: Maria, I know you're not really my mom but, Happy Mother's Day.

Maria: Oh Horsea. Thank you.

Me: Aww. So cute.

Lola: Yeah.

Nico saw Qin sad.

Nico: (sees Qin's sad look) Qin, I know you miss your mom. But she'll always be in your heart. Remember that.

Qin: I know but it's just that I miss her so much. Dad too! (CRYING) IT HURTS SO MUCH!

Nico hugged her.

Nico: Oh it will be okay.

Eli: Poor Qin.

Ets: Yeah.

Emma: (ELGVTWD): What happened to her mom and dad?

Me: They were murdered in cold blood by the Russian Mafia after her dad double-crossed them.

Emma and Niko gasped in shock.

Niko: Whoa man. That's horrible.

Sheila: Coop, I know we're not really fans of your dad and sister right now but, whatever happened to your mom?

Coop: She died of cancer after Millie was born.

Me: Oh no. I'm sorry Coop.

Coop: It's all right.

Jewel Man: Let's continue this Mother's Day with the next mission.

Me: Okay good idea.

Nico: What mission do you have planned?

Me: You'll like it buddy. We're going back in time to another universe in the year 1889 to meet Nadia.

Eli: Oh wow!

Ets: You mean like Nadia: The Secret of Blue Water!? SWEET!

Emma (ELGVTWD): This is gonna be so cool!

Lola: Yeah it is!

Nico: Sweet!

Count Vertigo, Scorpion, Doctor Octopus, Pied Piper, Juggernaut, Sportsmaster, Copperhead, and Yenaldooshi then appeared.

Count Vertigo: Can me, Scorpion, Doctor Octopus, Pied Piper, Juggernaut, Sportsmaster, Copperhead, and Yenaldooshi go with you all?

Me: You all sure can. We're going to the world of Nadia: The Secret of Blue Water.

Juggernaut: All right! We're going to smash the Neo Atlanteans. I used to watch that show years ago.

Me: That's awesome Cain. We're going after this guy.

I pulled up the info on a Neo Atlantean named GARGOYLE!

Nemesis La Algol, better known as Gargoyle, is the main antagonist of the Japanese animated series Nadia: The Secret of Blue Water. He was the ruthless and diabolical leader of the organization known as Neo-Atlantis, born from the ashes of the old, dead kingdom of Atlantis which aimed to conquer the world and subjugate the human race.

He was voiced by Motomu Kiyokawa in the Japanese version, Steve Bulen in the English Streamline dubbed version, and David Jones in the ADV films dubbed version.

At one time, Nemesis held the post of Prime Minister of Tartessos during the reign of King Eleusis la Arwall. In 1876, Nemesis began the coup to overthrow the government resulting in the death of the queen. After revoking the kingdom of Tartessos, Nemesis began calling himself "Gargoyle" and named himself absolute head of the Empire of Neo Atlantis. Determined to experience the power of the Tower of Babel that was sealed for centuries for use as a weapon of mass destruction, the former minister convinces the king's son, Emperor Neo, to deliver the Blue Water. Said object, in fact, would have acted as a catalyst for the Tower, igniting it and unleashing devastation upon the world. However, the plan was foiled in time by King Eleusis, though it still caused the destruction of the entire city and the deaths of all its inhabitants. After the cataclysm, Gargoyle found Emperor Neo's remains. Aware of the inherent powers of the heir of the Blue Water, Gargoyle decided to give Neo a robotic body in order to keep him alive and control him at will. He firmly believed himself to carry the blood of Atlantis, until the end, in front of the true power of Blue Water, he learned that he was human just like everyone else. Sadly accepting his fate, his human body succumbed to the power of the stone, turning into nothing but salt.

Nico: Whoa! This guy is bad news!

Eli: Yeah he turned Nadia's brother into a robot.

Sonic: Reminds me of what Dr. Robuttnik did to Blackbeard when he got turned into a robot.

Lola: That is sick!

Ets: No kidding!

Emma (ELGVTWD): I hope I get to chop his head off.

Me: And we will. Lets head to the Simulator for this. We're going back in time.

We went to the Simulator.

We arrived in the Simulator and it activated and we were in France in the year 1889.

Me: Here we are guys, Late 19th Century France.

Ransack: Ah, France. Even in the old days, it's still lovely.

Marinette: I've always wanted to see what France was like in the old days. It looks amazing!

Adrien: It sure is.

Marinette held the handle of a magical sword that she found that is said to be the sword that Joan of Arc used during the Hundred Years War and she knew something big was about to happen.

(Joan by Heather Dale plays in the background)

Marinette: I am Judgement and Heaven is Nigh.

Danger Duck: (confused by this) Oookay. Not sure what you just said but I'm just gonna assume that was poetry.

Me: That was a famous line that Joan of Arc used in the Hundred Years War in the 15th Century.

Marinette: That's right.

Varie: That is cool!

Emma (ELGVTWD): It sure is.

Muscle Man: Hey, Marinette. You know who else likes it in France? My Mom!

We laughed at his joke.

Marinette: That was a good one.

Me: Yep. Lets go find Nadia.

We went flying over the Mediterranean and we saw a boat and on it was Nadia.

---

The main protagonist of the series. Nadia is a 14-year-old (15 toward the end of the series) who works in a circus as an acrobat in order to survive, since she is an orphan and of unknown origins. She is chased by Grandis and her associates Sanson and Hanson, who are looking for the jewel that Nadia possesses, the Blue Water. While escaping from them, she meets Jean, and from that moment the two of them will be together in the series, where she tries to discover her origins and find out the truth about her past and the Blue Water, the jewel that seems to have an enormous intrinsic power.

Nadia is quite stubborn, easily irritable, socially inept, and has the ability to talk with animals. For example, she is able to communicate easily with her pet lion cub, King. Nadia is also known among those who have knowledge of the Blue Water for being its possessor. Despite her flaws, Nadia is highly moralistic and ethical, frequently calling others out on acts of violence towards other humans or animals, even when it is essential. She even happens to be a strict vegetarian and believes that there is no excuse for eating meat or killing (although her friends attempt to justify their reasons for doing so). Because of her unhappy past, Nadia is even extremely suspicious of all grown-ups-particularly Nemo. As such, she does not know how to act around other people, and sometimes treats them very badly. She misjudges her friends' motivations as well. As a result of her growing love for Jean, however, she comes to learn valuable lessons about friendship, respect, and trust for those around her. On several occasions she is prepared to sacrifice either her life or her freedom to protect her friends.

It turns out the Nadia is the rightful heir to the throne of Atlantis, and that her Blue Water has the power to destroy the world, if it is misused. Ashamed of her fate and regretting both her resentment of Nemo and bad calls of judgment, Nadia impulsively decides to throw her life away… only to be spared by the power of the Blue Water. Jean touches Nadia's heart by telling her that he loves her regardless of who she is, where she is from, and her fate. Inspired, Nadia decides to embrace her fate and is rewarded when she discovers that she can choose how to use the Blue Water's power.

In the epilogue told by a grown-up Marie in the last episode, Nadia has married Jean and they have a child. While Nadia is still a dedicated vegetarian, she is no more aggressively so (as evidenced from her meals of meat and fish for Jean and their son).

---

Me: That must be her.

We landed by her.

Pied Piper: Hi there. Are you Nadia?

Nadia: That's right. (Sees us) Whoa who are you guys?

Me: Forgive us for intruding. We are actually Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Nadia: Never heard of you all.

Me: It's a strange story. We should also explain. We are not from this time or this universe for that matter. We come from the 21st Century and we are from a different Earth from this one.

I revealed everything about our universe and all our adventures and everything we did and the power we had and it was incredible.

Nadia was amazed.

Nadia: WHOA! You guys have done it all.

Me: And we have seen it all and faced many powerful enemies.

Nico: It's a massive responsibility.

Nadia: It sure is. Wow! You guys are one of the most powerful forces ever known.

Me: Yeah we sure are. Not to brag.

Astrotrain: So, Nadia. How's your day been today?

Nadia: Busy. But overall I've been doing well.

Me: Is that blue stone the Blue Water?

Nadia: It sure is. It's a very mysterious stone and I'm trying to keep the Neo Atlanteans from getting it.

Me: Wow.

Nico: What does the Blue Water do?

Nadia: I don't really know. But it's power is amazing.

Me: Interesting. We actually came to help you kill the leader of the Neo-Atlantean Army: Gargoyle.

Nadia: Oh wow! You will be doing me a huge favor. And you will help me get justice for Marie en Carlsberg and bring my brother back to normal.

Me: Yeah. Can you introduce us to your friends?

Nadia: Sure thing.

We went over to another boat and we met her friends Jean Roque Lartigue, Eleusis La Arwall, Marie en Carlsberg, King the Lion, Grandis Granva, Sanson, Hanson and Electra.

Jean

The second main protagonist of the series. Jean is a young 14-year-old orphan who fell in love with Nadia ever since he first laid eyes on her; unlike her, however, Jean has a completely different personality and interests. He is very generous, patient, friendly, and devoted to the things he loves, which are his friends and the love for science. He is also a genius inventor, in fact he is capable of creating complex machines at a very young age. Jean's father is a wealthy trader and ship's captain, but was recently lost at sea and is presumed dead. (We later find out that there has been a rash of mysterious disappearances of ships lately and the rumors are that a sea monster has been attacking them) Jean, however, chooses to deny them and is determined to finally find his father along with his big adventure with Nadia to find about the Blue Water. Despite being somewhat awkward when it comes to social graces around the opposite sex (such as giving compliments or lack of awareness in some cases where he's inventing and/or reading when Nadia wants his attention), Jean is genuinely well-behaved and is nice to everyone; even Gargoyle finds something to admire about his courage and cleverness. He's openly honest and brave as well. Jean continually looks on the bright side of things; for example, when his only pair of glasses are broken when Nadia accidentally steps on them, Jean immediately tells her not to worry, that it is God's way of teaching him detachment.

His relationship with Nadia is one of the more central aspects of the show. When they first meet on the Eiffel Tower, Nadia refuses his overtures, but when Jean rescues her, he earns her trust. A close friendship forges between the two of them-Jean is consistently loyal to her and vows to take her to Africa someday. Nadia genuinely appreciates his company and attention… to the point where she feels lonely when he gets involved in a project. Later their relationship begins to turn romantic, but Nadia does not know how to express her feelings to him. Nor is she capable of conveying what she wants from him (a compliment for a dress, for instance). This leads to outbursts of anger often misdirected at Jean (in reality cries of frustration at her inability to declare her desires), yet he continually forgives her. (Subsequent scenes following rages involve Nadia feeling bad for her actions. For instance, in episode 10, after unfairly laying into Jean when they have to switch rooms, she apologizes to him.) When she is not brooding over their relationship, Nadia often goes out of her way to do something nice for him, such as cooking, encouraging him to build a gyrocopter, or comforting him when he grieves about his father (in Episode 16). She is also seen to passionately defend Jean in several instances, such as when she verbally attacks Nemo and his crew for reprimanding Jean for endangering the Nautilus due to an accident with one of his inventions, or even more when she allows herself to be captured by Gargoyle on Marie's Island so that an injured Jean can escape. Likewise, each time Nadia gets into trouble, Jean continually rescues her. Occasionally a disagreement will occur between them about certain issues (notably eating meat or the use of technology vs. nature), but they do not last long. As a result of Jean's love, Nadia is gradually transformed as a person; his optimism overcomes her pessimism, and she becomes more trusting, respectful, and caring of others.

That said, Jean also undergoes some growth as well during the show. For instance, he believes that technology can do no wrong, and is quite disturbed by Nemo's description of the Nautilus being a "killing machine." His faith in technology is crushed when a friend of his sacrifices his life in a contaminated engine room. Furthermore, he learns that his father is gone and there is no point searching for him. At that point, Jean begins to consider quitting inventing… until Nadia suggests him to build a gyrocopter. He determines to do so without the aid of grown-ups, straining his friendship with Hanson in the process. Jean eventually realizes that receiving help from grown-ups is just as valuable, and, working together with Hanson, he completes his flying machine and manages to impress Nadia. Furthermore, he is forced to take responsibility for keeping Nadia and Marie alive when they become stranded on a deserted island, going out of his way to provide food, shelter, and care. Jean does not understand why Nadia is so adamant against eating meat, particularly when she mistreats him and Marie for doing so; as such, he is quite confused by her mood swings. It isn't until Nadia finally confesses the real reason behind her hatred of meat that he gains a new understanding of her different view of the world. Even when Nadia later admits her true identity and acknowledges her faults, Jean still accepts her as a person.

Marie

Marie is a 4-year-old French child living in the Cape Verde Islands who is orphaned by the hands of Gargoyle and the Neo-Atlantean troops, who killed her parents. She is soon found by Nadia and Jean, who decide to keep her and to take good care of her. Although she is a kid, Marie is a very strong character, who is at the same time a child but also acts like an adult in difficult situations. She has a good relationship with King, her playmate; in fact, she later comes to see themselves as husband and wife, and Nadia and Jean as her new parents. Later on, however, she develops an interest in Sanson; in fact, in the epilogue, when a 17-year-old Marie tells what has happened to all the characters, she finishes her story by telling that she has married him and is expecting their first child.

The spelling of her name is uncertain. In the episode guide she appears as "Marie", in the Japanese series books she is "Mary", Streamline Pictures calls her "Mari", and in episode 24 she signs one of her drawings as "Marry" (though this could simply be that as a four-year-old she doesn't know how to spell her name). Even so, Marie is probably the most accurate spelling, as it is the French one.

In the CD audio dramas, her full name was revealed to be "Marie en Carlsberg" (マリー・エン・カールスバーグ, Marī en Kārusubāgu ), whereas in the anime's epilogue, it is "Marie en Löwenbräu" (マリー・エン・レーヴェンブロイ, Marī en Rēvenburoi ).[ citation needed ] (Both Carlsberg and Löwenbräu are, incidentally, names of two famous German brewery brands.)

King

King is a small lion, and he is Nadia's best friend before she meets Jean and the others. He eventually becomes Marie's playmate during the series, playing with her all day. He is very jealous, especially when Nadia and Jean become more intimate.

In the epilogue, King is still living with a now married Nadia and Jean, and has several cubs of his own.

Grandis

Grandis is a 28-year-old who grew up in a royal Italian family. At first she was a rather rich, spoiled and powerful young woman, but later when she was tricked by her first husband, who married her just for her money until he leaves her broke and alone. After her frail mistake she is exiled by her relatives and the only people who remained faithful and loyal to her were Hanson and Sanson, with whom she then formed the Grandis Gang, a group of jewel thieves. Her life and behavior change dramatically when she meets Nadia and the others; having to first steal the Blue Water, then wanting to protect the children after finding out she has a soft spot for them after learning about their troubles with Gargoyle. Once aboard the Nautilus she falls hopelessly in love with Captain Nemo, sparking a strict rivalry with Electra. She tries to seduce Nemo with any power she has until the very end, but her love for him is never returned.

In the epilogue, a grown-up Marie tells us that Grandis is alive and well, but still looking for a serious and stable love. Yet, she's quite popular though with men and is seen at the end in a golf court surrounded by a large group of ardent admirers. Every man there offers her to use their club, and according to Marie, "Grandis is always gallivanting around."

Sanson

Sanson (サンソン, Sanson ) is the brawn side of the team and serves as the Gratan' s navigator/ pilot. Despite his slight yet muscular build, his strength overcomes even the most powerful of mecha. When he was younger, he was slimmer and girls made fun of him; as he trained day by day, he became stronger but incredibly vain. Sanson also is an outstanding marksman. He was the chauffeur to Granva's family before they lost their fortune, and he remains faithful to her until the end of the series. In the epilogue, he has married a 17-year-old Marie and they are expecting their first child.

His name is reminiscent of the biblical figure Samson, who appears in The Book of Judges Chapter 13 - 16., which tells the story of an unusually strong man, but if he were to cut his hair he would be breaking his promise with God and therefore lose all his strength. The Sanson in the series is very vain and pays particular attention to his hair.

Hanson

Hanson (ハンソン, Hanson ) is the mechanic of the Grandis Gang. He has exceptional skills; he built the Gratan and many other devices. He is in love with Electra, but alas, his love is not returned. Jean and Hanson become close friends thanks to their mutual fascination with technology, they spend a lot of time together discussing technical details and ideas about mecha.

In the epilogue, Hanson has become a rich and respected industrial giant and lives in the fictional world's equivalent of the Chrysler building. Having made his fortune as a manufacturer of automobiles, he still claims that he will find a girlfriend someday.

Electra

Electra is 26 years old and was orphaned in the destruction of her hometown. She was saved by Captain Nemo and is his first officer and second-in-command on the Nautilus . She and Nemo share a past experience that's never fully explained. Electra is deeply in love with Nemo, although she also harbors a deep grudge towards him for the deaths of her family. She becomes extremely jealous of Grandis' infatuation for the Captain, igniting a heated rivalry between them for his love. She grows fond of Jean and his determination to learn about technology, seeing something of her long lost brother in him. Nadia, on the other hand, detests Electra and becomes increasingly (and irrationally) jealous of Jean's friendship with the First Officer (her inability to express her concern to Jean nearly ruins their own relationship); likewise, Electra fears that Nadia will somehow steal Nemo's heart away from her. Eventually, however, both women open up to one another and become friends.

At the end of the series, Electra is revealed to be pregnant with Nemo's child, and Marie reveals in the epilogue that she gave birth to a son and raised him with love, like Nemo asked her.

Jean: (French Accent) Oh Nadia. These friends of yours?

Nadia: They sure are.

Me: We are Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

I revealed everything about us to them and they were amazed and all that.

Electra: Wow!

Sanson: That's incredible!

Marie: Have you guys come to help us destroy the Neo-Atlanteans?

Me: We sure have.

Nadia introduced us to her friends.

Me: It's an honor to meet you all.

Jean: Same to you all.

Doctor Octopus: You have my condolences for what happened to your brother. Even I wouldn't do something like that. And I'm actually a genius.

Sonic: Yeah the same thing happened to Blackbeard when Dr. Robotnik turned him into a robot.

Me: Weird story about that. But if it's alright with you I would like to see why you can't remember anything about your family and all that.

Eli: I can figure that out.

Me: We don't mean to make you uncomfortable but we might be able to help you figure out your past.

Nadia: Really?

Eli: Yep. I can do that with The Force.

Nadia: Okay. But what's the Force?

Me: We can explain that to you later.

Eli: Here we go.

Eli used the power of The Force and unlocked Nadia's past and she found out some incredible revelations. She found out that the Neo Atlanteans killed her mother in a savage Coup de Tat and she sent Nadia and her brother to the surface for safety away from the Neo Atlanteans.

When it was done Nadia gasped in shock!

Me: What is it.

Nadia: I remember everything! My mother!

She told us everything about the Neo Atlanteans and what they did and we were horrified!

When she was done we gasped in shock!

Lola: Whoa man!

Kida: Those Neo-Atlanteans give the people of Atlantis a bad name.

Lana: They sure do!

Me: And we're going to make sure they pay.

Horsea: Are there bodies of water for me, Poliwag, Manaphy, and Tentacool to swim in?

Wave Man: I'd like to swim in said bodies of water as well.

Me: We're floating in one. The Mediterranean Sea.

Nadia: My mother was murdered by Gargoyle. My brother is now an emotionless robot and Captain Nemo of the Nautilus is my birth dad and I never even knew about it.

Me: I'm sorry Nadia. But we will save your family. I promise.

Pinkie Pie: Make it a Pinkie Promise!

Me: Yeah.

SPLASH SPLASH SPLASH SPLASH!

The mascots and Wave Man are currently swimming in the water.

Copperhead: (to a worried Poromon and Jirachi) Don't worry, you two. Manaphy and Tentacool will be fine.

Me: Yeah.

Lola: Nadia can you take us to meet your friends?

Nadia: I would be honored.

She called the submarine The Nautilus and then the water lifted up and out came the submarine The Nautilus! Mascots saw us get up onto it and we went on board the sub.

Me: Wow! So this is the Nautilus.

Nadia: It sure is cool.

The mascots joined up with us.

We were on board the Nautilus.

Tarantulas: Did you guys have a nice swim?

Jirachi: We sure did.

Horsea: Yeah!

We went to the main navigation room and we saw Captain Nemo!

---

Nemo is the captain of the submarine called Nautilus, whose purpose is to destroy the Neo-Atlanteans at all costs. He is a mysterious man with a dark past; in fact only step by step we discover that he is Nadia's father and was the king of Tartessos.

Though he could have all mankind under his command, he chooses to live peacefully along with them on Earth, as he believes in humans and in their ability to love. While he acts cold and aloof when he first meets Jean, he nonetheless warms up to his outgoing cheerfulness and enthusiasm. Nadia, meanwhile, is very distrustful of him and is quick to accuse him of murder when he shoots a Neo-Atlantean to save her from death. However, she eventually learns to respect Nemo, and, at the end, at last acknowledges him as her father. Nemo then dies after overloading the Neo Nautilis's reactors to blow a passage out of Red Noah, permitting the rest of the cast to return to Earth.

Nemo's name is a reminiscence of the Greek city Eleusis, the place in Greece where the followers of Demeter met annually to initiate members into the ways of the Earth-goddess, and Ra, the sun-god of Heliopolis in ancient Egypt. He is based on Captain Nemo (literally meaning "no man" in Latin). He also bears a striking resemblance to another famous anime captain, Bruno J. Global/ Henry J. Gloval of the SDF-1 Macross in Macross/Robotech. Additionally, he wears a uniform similar to Captain Junzo Okita from Space Battleship Yamato/Star Blazers.

---

Captain Nemo: Welcome aboard Nadia.

Nadia: Hello captain. Or should I call you father?

Captain Nemo: (Gasp) You know the truth?

Nadia: I do father.

She went up and hugged him.

Captain Nemo: I'm sorry Nadia. But how did you find out?

Me: Eli unlocked her mind. Sorry to come aboard like this captain. We are Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's a great honor to meet the famous captain of the Nautilus.

Captain Nemo: Same to you J.D.

Sportsmaster: This ship is really nice.

Captain Nemo: Indeed it is. I have heard so much about all of your adventures Team Loud Phoenix Storm. You all have made quite a name for yourselves over the years.

Me: Not one to brag.

Nico: We do what we can.

Me: It's a big job but we have to do it. We came to help you all kill Gargoyle.

Captain Nemo: Your help is greatly appreciated. The Neo Atlanteans have plagued this world for far too long.

Laney: And we won't let them get away with everything they did.

Me: No we won't.

Emma (ELGVTWD): Yeah.

Blackarachnia: Doesn't this ship have torpedoes to kill the Neo Atlanteans with?

Captain Nemo: Yes it does. But killing them is not easy. Neo Atlanteans have incredibly strong psychic powers and their emperor Neo has the strongest psychic powers of all.

Me: Let me see if I can speak to him telepathically and see if I can get him to abandon this senseless spree of destruction to try and enslave the human race.

Captain Nemo: Proceed.

I got into a meditative position and concentrated.

In his throne, Emperor Neo was sitting when he felt a psychic presense and then my eyes appeared.

Me: Emperor Neo, I presume?

Neo: That is right and you are J.D. Knudson of Team Loud Phoenix

Storm.

Me: That's right. Your sister Nadia is missing you badly after what Gargoyle did to you.

Neo: What do you mean?

Me: Let me show you.

I fired a beam of energy into his mind and it showed that he was turned into a robot and brainwashed by Gargoyle and everything that Gargoyle did and more and how he murdered his and Nadia's mother in cold blood. He was shocked and his restraints that kept him to the throne shattered and he had the brainwashing broken!

Neo: Nadia! What have I done!?

Maria: We need to get Neo out of there before Gargoyle finds out what we've done!

Juggernaut: I can do it. I am one of the strongest after all.

Eli: No our primary concern is for Gargoyle. Let bro handle it.

In the throne room of Neo-Atlantis, Neo was freed.

Me: I can teleport you to the submarine we are on Neo.

Neo: Thank you J.D. I am forever indebted to you.

Me: You're welcome.

I fired a beam of energy and beamed him to the submarine.

Neo was on the sub and Nadia saw him and was reunited with him!

Nadia: Neo!

Neo: Nadia!

They hugged and were happily reunited.

I got up.

Me: Now we go after Gargoyle.

Runabout: How about we upgrade this submarine so its weapons deal heavy damage?

Me: Great idea!

Ben: Leave that to me!

Ben turned into Upgrade and he fused with the submarine and turned it into an ultra powerful science fiction style sub!

Me: YEAH!

Nico: Now we're talking.

Lola: Yeah!

Me: Lets get them! Full Speed Ahead!

The Nautilus was going towards the Neo-Atlantean Kingdom and it fired lasers and torpedoes and blasted a hole into their temple and we went in.

Varie: Let the Neptune Crusaders provide the entrance this time.

Me: Okay. Lets get ready for battle everyone!

Billy: YEYEYEYEYEYEYEYEYEYEYEYEYEYEYEYEYEYEYEYEYEYEYEYE! LETS RIP THEM APART!

Nico: Love that spirit Billy.

We surfaced and then a bunch of Neo-Atlanteans came and got ready for battle. But then the sub hatch opened and a dragon of pure water exploded out of the sub and it curled around and smashed the Neo-Atlanteans down and killed them all over and the water dragon dispersed and out came us.

Me: Now that was cool.

Eli: So this is Neo-Atlantis.

Kida: I like the old Atlantis better.

Milo Thatch: Me too.

We saw the Neo-Atlanteans coming!

Me: Lets go! COME ON YOU APES! YOU WANNA LIVE FOREVER!? CHARGE!

We went at the Neo-Atlanteans with our weapons and powers ready. We clashed violently with them and the whole fight erupted into a massive bloodbath! I slashed a bunch of Neo-Atlanteans and kicked one's head off and splattered his blue blood all over and Nico slashed a Neo-Atlantean and chopped his head off and Emma chopped a Neo-Atlantean's leg off and chopped another Neo-Atlantean in his chest and then she plunged her hand in his chest and ripped his beating heart out. Eli stabbed a Neo-Atlantean and disemboweled him and ripped his intestines out and formed them into a lasso and grabbed a Neo-Atlantean and slashed his throat and Laney and Lola blasted a bunch of Neo-Atlanteans with fire and bramble vines and incinerated them and ripped them to pieces and splattered their blood all over the place. Vince fired crystal blades and slashed numerous Neo-Atlantean's heads off with them and Lisa Loud blasted them all over with her mini-gun. Sam S.L. blasted a bunch of them with fire and lava and incinerated them all over. I fired a hail of grenades and blew a bunch of men to pieces and killed them in fiery explosions all over. Lincoln fired a massive blast of lightning and electrocuted the Neo-Atlanteans all over the place. Neo smashed and punched a bunch of Neo-Atlanteans all over the place.

Yenaldooshi just pinned a Neo Atlantean down.

Yenaldooshi: (growls) Looks like dinner is served!

He ate him and ripped him apart.

Me: Take this Neo-Atlantean dirtbags!

I blasted a bunch of them into oblivion and Eli blasted them all over with Force Lightning.

Nadia then held out her hand and fired a wave of lightning and electrocuted them all over.

Nadia: (Gasp) WHOA! How did I do that?

Marinette: We have massive numbers of powers. They are powerful.

Marinette slashed numerous Neo-Atlanteans all over the place with her sword and blasted them with red fire.

We were down to one last Neo-Atlantean soldier.

Scorpion stabbed a Neo Atlantean with his tail.

Scorpion: There seems to be something in your throat. Oh yeah. My tail!

Muscle Man: Hey Nadia you know who else likes smashing Neo-Atlanteans?

Nadia: Who?

Muscle Man: My mom!

We laughed at his joke.

Nadia: I don't get it.

Me: We don't either but his jokes are funny.

Eli: They sure are.

Emma (ELGVTWD): Yeah they are!

Nunnally: Yep.

Me: We got them all.

Nico: Now we go after Gargoyle.

Me: Lets go.

We went to find him and in the throne we saw GARGOYLE!

Gargoyle: The famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm. Welcome.

Me: You will pay for everything you did Gargoyle.

Gargoyle: Neo, you seem to have lost your mind.

Jesse Glen: On the contrary, Neo has only begun to get back in character.

Me: Thanks to me! Your hour of death has come Gargoyle!

Gargoyle: We'll see about that J.D. Knudson. You think you have the power to destroy me?

Me: I don't think…

I then transformed into my Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix-Harmony 500,000,000 form and I was ready to face him.

Me: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice) I know. This power is gonna be your ultimate death.

Eli: You will pay for your crimes Gargoyle!

Nadia: You killed my mother! Prepare to die!

Nico: And it won't be pretty for you!

Then Whiteout, Duskmon, Grumblemon, Ranamon, Arbormon, Mercurymon, Plastique, Kite Man, Selene, Puff and Aqueduct appeared.

Me: Whiteout, Duskmon, Grumblemon, Ranamon, Arbormon, Mercurymon, Plastique, Kite Man, Selene, Puff and Aqueduct.

Ranamon: Glad to see y'all down here.

Mercurymon: Awesome.

Nadia: Are you guys part of the Masters of Evil?

Plastique: We certainly are.

Nadia: It's an honor to meet you all.

Selene: Same here.

Whiteout: (to Nadia) You must be happy to have your brother back.

Nadia: Can you blame me?

Duskmon: Actually, no. We can't blame you.

Grumblemon: But France still is nice.

Ranamon: Even though this is in the old days.

Me: Yeah it is.

Marinette: And we're going to make sure Gargoyle pays for his crimes in full.

Me: Big time and it won't end well for him.

Nico: I'm gonna rip his heart out and eat it!

Emma (ELGVTWD): Yeah!

?: I hope he does!

A figure came out and it was DIGSTER from episode 7 of Zeo!

---

Digster is a robot-excavation monster used by the Machine Empire that was operated by levers pulled by the small mechanoid pilot on top of his head that looked almost like him, he serves as the primary villain of the episode "Every Dog Has His Day".

Digster was sent to earth by King Mondo, his mission was to get lava out of a volcano with help from the Cogs as an attempt to destroy Angel Grove. He gets impatient and uses grenades, causing a rushing flow of magma to appear, he shows this to Prince Sprocket, Klank & Orbus, who were highly impressed. he then ambushed the Pink Ranger on her Zeo Cycle when she bumped into their site while looking for a police dog name Smoky, causing her to twist her ankle, he was later seen with an army of Cogs to try and find the Pink Ranger, but to to avail, they later returned to the cave and checked on the lava pool, Digster then ambushes Smokey with the energy balls, but they missed, after the Pink Ranger morphed, which also heals her ankle, he sends the Cogs after her, but they were all easy taken out, he then does battle with the Pink Ranger himself, he was out matched at first, but the Pink Ranger accidentally twisted her ankle again, which gives Digster the upper hand at first, but the Pink Ranger was able to used the Pink Fire Cloud and blasted it at the monster, and equipped the Pink Power Disk to give the monster a beating, but the Pilot blasted the Pink Ranger with his Forehead Energy Laser Attack, Bringing the Ranger down. Right before Digster was able to make the final strike, he gets blasted by the Red Ranger, and later the Yellow, Green and Blue Rangers. He was quickly out matched, so Klank and Orbus enlarges Digster, the Rangers then summon the Zeo Megazord to take on Digster, he has the upper hand at first, But the Rangers then used the Zeo 1 Battle Helmet to get the best of Digster, the Mechanoid Pilot fires the energy laser, but the Rangers then used the Zeo 5 Battle Helmet and used the Zeo Saber to slice off the Mechanoid Pilot's head, allowing the Rangers to use the Zeo Saber power up to destroy Digster once and for all, and also sealing the lava flow.

Digster was seen among the monsters that received the Neo-plutonium, but he did not fight.

---

Tommy Oliver: Digster!

Digster: Been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were sent to get lava out of a volcano to try and destroy Angel Grove.

Digster: That's right J.D. Good memory on you.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Digster: So… could I still use my jack hammer on this ground?

Me: Yes you can.

Nico: As long as it doesn't drown us even though we can breathe underwater.

Laney: Yeah.

Then we saw two more figures come out and much to our shock and horror it was Qin's Mom and Dad, Nathen and Sakuya Chen!

We gasped!

Qin: Mom?! Dad?!

Maria: (nervously) Qin, suddenly, you taking up Pastmaster's offer last year probably wouldn't have been bad after all.

Me: Oh no!

Nico: Mr. and Mrs. Chen!? You're back!

Laney: Wait Nico look!

We saw purple splotches on them and that meant only one thing!

Me: They have been infected by the Aparoids!

Selene: This is bad!

Qin: Mom, dad! It's me! Qin! Don't you recognize me!?

They groaned mindlessly.

Nico: Oh man. Qin you have to destroy the Aparoids on them.

Qin: Oh man! Mom, Dad, forgive me for doing this to you but I have to save you.

A roar was heard and then a tremendous Dinosaur creature came out and it was THE SNOW BEAST!

Lola: WHOA MAN! It's the Snow Beast!

Twilight Sparkle: He looks like a Tyrannosaurus.

Qin: But he's actually a robot piloted by Jean Pierre Baptiste. He was using the legend of the Snow Beast to scare off a village in the arctic to drill for oil there. He found some and it was worth a fortune. The gang busted him and he got 15 to 30 years in prison.

Sunset Shimmer: And then he got life?

Qin: Yep.

Me: Lets get them!

We went at them.

---

Whiteout was first.

Whiteout: (to Squirrel Girl) How was Mother's Day?

Squirrel Girl: It was great. We got a lot of great gifts for our parents. Jeri and Qin were upset because they don't have their parents anymore.

Twilight Sparkle: Poor girls. Jeri lost her mom due to a terminal disease and Qin's parents were murdered.

Whiteout: Poor girls.

Spyro: Yeah they went through a lot.

Star Strike: But it's awful that Qin lost her parents to the Russia Mafia like that.

Flame Man: It sure is.

Dive Man: Yeah it's awful.

Wood Man: Poor girls.

Jewel: Yeah it's just sick that people can kill people to get what they want.

Ring Man: Yeah.

Whiteout: No kidding. Poor Qin. But after today she will have her heart healed. Lets do it!

Whiteout fired waves of white energy and the group dodged them and blasted her all over with elements and magic blasts and smashed Whiteout down.

Applejack: I think all of Paris no matter in which timeline is amazing.

Apple Bloom: Yeah it sure is!

Frozen Fright: My favorite events to learn from in French history is the Crusades and The Hundred Years War.

Flashwing: Those wars were terrible.

Tri-Tip: Yeah they sure were.

Takuya: It's amazing that the Crusades went on for so long.

Koji: No kidding. And the Hundred Years War was terrible.

J.P.: The Crusades lasted for 710 years where the Hundred Years War lasted for 116 years.

Zoe Orimoto: That's intense and Marinette said that Joan of Arc fought in the Hundred Years War.

Grumblemon: She sure did and she is known as a warrior angel.

Tommy: It's just absolutely awful that she was executed like that.

Koichi: No kidding.

Blitzwing: And she was canonized as a saint in the 1920s.

Astrotrain: Yeah she was.

Grumblemon: That is amazing history France has. But Joan didn't deserve to die like that. Lets do it!

He smashed the ground with his club and sent a wave of earth at them and the group dodged it and smashed Grumblemon all over and knocked him down.

Earth: All right!

Applejack: YEEHAW! That was great!

---

Ranamon was next.

Ranamon: (to Stacy) I really like water around this section of France.

Stacy Bolton: That's what happens when you live around the Mediterranean Sea.

Rarity: But the water is so beautiful and so crystal blue.

Sweetie Belle: It sure is beautiful. I heard that there was a brutally bloody battle that happened here.

Thunder Terror: I remember that but I forget what it was for.

Gill Grunt: J.D. said it was a bloody war with a bunch of mermaids from the dark side of the legend.

Slam Bam: I remember that!

Wash Buckler: That was a crazy battle lads.

John: Boy it sure sounded like it.

Clint: No kidding guys.

Bobby: Yeah that must've been really intense.

Coup: No kidding.

Dr. Bolton: Yeah but thank goodness everyone is all right.

Skull Man: You said it.

Wave Man: Yeah.

Ranamon: Thank goodness. Lets do it!

---

Arbormon was next.

Arbormon: (to Kari) Good thing you guys got Neo out of Gargoyle's control.

Kari: That is a really good thing. But what really has me worried is how Qin will be around her parents being back.

Fluttershy: Yeah she missed out on so much since they were murdered.

Stealth Elf: She went through a nightmare ever since the Russian Mafia killed them and burned her house down.

Ambush: Yeah that was awful for her.

Scorponok: It sure was.

Arbormon: No kidding. Poor girl.

Waspinator: Waspinator hopes Qin will be happy to have her parents back.

Inferno: It will be a royal welcome back.

Blackarachnia: But it's just sick that the Russian Mafia can be so heartless.

Terrorsaur: No kidding.

Tarantulas: Yeah it's awful.

Arbormon: Yeah it is awful. Lets get it on!

He fired wood blasts and they dodged them.

Scorponok: Time for some Transformer power! Scorponok, TERRORIZE!

He transformed.

Inferno: For the Royalty! Inferno, TERRORIZE!

He transformed.

Terrorsaur: This is gonna be good! Terrorsaur, TERRORIZE!

He transformed.

Blackarachnia: I always get a thrill out of all this. Blackarachnia, TERRORIZE!

She transformed.

Waspinator: Waspinator ready for action! Waspinator, TERRORIZE!

He transformed.

Tarantulas: Lets get it on! Tarantulas, TERRORIZE!

He transformed and the Predacons were ready.

The group blasted and smashed Arbormon all over and knocked him down.

Kari: That was awesome!

Fluttershy: That was fun.

Battle 6: Davis Motomiya, Pinkie Pie, Tech Skylanders, Yolei, Cody, T.K., Kari, Blackarachnia and Beast Wars Inferno VS Mercurymon

Mercurymon was next.

Mercurymon: (to Davis) I hope you all snap Gargoyle's neck for what he's done.

Davis: We're gonna do worse than that. Nico is gonna eat his black heart in front of him.

Pinkie Pie: Ooh! That would be really tasty for him.

Sprocket: But it made J.D. hurl his guts out.

Gearhead: It sure did.

Yolei: But it will serve Gargoyle right.

Cody: You got that right Yolei.

T.K.: Gargoyle has no honor and all that.

Kari: No he doesn't.

Blackarachnia: He's as ruthless as Megatron is.

Inferno: Indeed.

Mercurymon: You said it. Lets do it!

He fired reflected light blasts from his mirrors at them and they dodged them and blasted Mercurymon all over the place and smashed him down.

Davis: AWESOME!

Pinkie Pie: BEST USUAL BATTLE EVER!

---

Battle 7: Shope, Princess Celestia, Light Skylanders, Kevin, Tyler, Roach, Amy, Marina, Runabout and Runamuck VS Bette Sans Souci A.K.A. Plastique

Plastique was next.

Plastique: (to Shope) The Aparoids just changed the rules when they put Qin's parents into play.

Shope: I know and it's shocking that they have that kind of power.

Princess Celestia: It sure is. I would hate to imagine what would happen if the Aparoids brought back the entirety of the Evil Uchiha Clan.

Spotlight: After all the trouble they caused to the Hidden Leaf and the world over the years it wouldn't surprise me.

Astroblast: Yeah. But J.D. will take them down. He already Hakaied Madara Uchiha and it will really be good if J.D. Hakaied all of the Uchiha Clan in front of all the evil Sasuke's on that planet we sent them too.

Kevin: Yeah that would be awesome!

Tyler: It sure would. Very strong sense of justice on that one.

Roach: Yeah it would be awesome.

Amy: You got that right.

Marina: I agree. I hope he destroys them all.

Runabout: Me too.

Runamuck: Same here.

Plastique: I do too. They are nothing but evil trouble. Except for the Sasuke we know and his brother and mother. Lets do it!

Plastique fired explosive energy blasts and they dodged them and fired waves of light and energy and smashed her down.

Shope: YEAH!

Wonder Woman: I don't think any of us did. That was a huge shock to us all.

Rainbow Dash: Yeah especially after all the pain that Qin went through.

Scootaloo: But we now have a chance to heal Qin's heart after all that.

Magma Gloom: We sure do. What the Russian Mafia did to her was awful.

Whirlwind: It sure was awful.

Boom Jet: Yeah that was awful.

Ren Krawler: She did nothing to deserve this.

Lena Isis: No she didn't.

Zenat Surrow: The Mafia has no honor.

Mason Brown: And they deserve to die.

Jesse Glenn: You got that right.

Snarler: Yeah.

Kite Man: I agree. Lets do it!

They flew into the air and blasted Kite Man all over with wind and elemental blasts and smashed him down.

Hex: Yeah. The Aparoids are bringing back those we lost.

Chopscotch: They sure are.

Cozy Glow: I know how Qin feels. I lost my mother too.

Ty Lee: I hope she can save her parents.

Aqueduct: Me too. Lets get it on.

Sunset Shimmer: Yeah it's time for her fractured mind to be healed after everything she went through.

Sunburn: I agree completely.

Hot Head: Absolutely on that.

Sheep Creep bleated in agreement.

Wallflower: I agree too.

Selene: Good. Lets do it!

Selene fired waves of red energy and they dodged the blasts and fired waves of fire and leaves and smashed her down.

Sam Simpson: ALL RIGHT!

Sunset Shimmer: That was awesome!

---

Battle 11: Lynn Sr., Trixie Lulamoon, Wind Man and Yamato Man VS Puff

---

Puff was next.

Puff: (to Lynn Sr) Consdering what's happened today, maybe Qin changing the past thanks to Pastmaster last year probably wouldn't have been a bad thing.

Lynn Sr.: No Qin did the right thing back then and left the past the way it should be.

Trixie Lulamoon: She sure did. I hope she gets her parents back after today.

Wind Man: Yeah she needs them.

Yamato: Absolutely.

Digster was dead!

Hunter: Wunderbar!

Battle 14: Qin VS Mr. & Mrs. Chen Infected with Aparoids.

---

Qin was facing her own mother and father back from the dead and infected by the Aparoids.

Qin: Mom, dad, I'm sorry about this but I need to save you from these monsters that have taken over your minds.

Qin fired a wave of lightning and it hit the Aparoids all over them and it electrocuted them off of her parents and destroyed them. They fell over weak and unconscious.

Radiant Hope, Varie and Nico came over and looked them over.

Radiant Hope: They will be all right. They are just unconscious.

Nico: I don't want Qin to be without her family after everything that happened.

They were breathing and moving and they opened their eyes and they saw Nico.

Nathan Chen: (Weakly) Nico?

Nico: Yes Mr. Chen. It's me.

Nathan Chen: What happened?

Sakuya: I thought we were dead.

Varie: You were but an evil alien race called the Aparoids brought you back and turned you into mindless zombies.

Radiant Hope: Yeah and Qin saved you from their influence.

Sakuya: Where is Qin?

Qin saw her parents for the first time in a while and she had tears streaming down her face. They saw her too.

Nathan Chen: Qin?

Sakuya: Sweetheart. Wow! You have grown so much since we saw you last.

Qin went over and hugged her parents.

Qin: MOM! DAD!

She ran and hugged them and cried hard. She was happily reunited with her parents for the first time in so long.

Emma: Time's up, Gargoyle!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Time Force!

Marinette unsheathed her sword and floated into the air as she had swirls of light swirling around her and she was singing Joan by Heather Dale. She fired waves of light and they formed into the famous Joan of Arc from the Hundred Years War and she and Marinette slashed and cut Gargoyle all over the place.

Joan and Marinette: I am Judgement and Heaven is Nigh!

Sunstreaker, Sakura Haruno, Swindle and Vignette used the Autobot, HIdden Leaf, Decepticon and Equestria Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Sunstreaker's Electron Pulse Gun, Sakura's Strength and powers, Swindle's Gyro Gun and Vignette's nature powers 100-fold.

Sunstreaker and Sakura Haruno: SMASHING LIGHTNING UPHEAVAL!

Gargoyle was pushed back.

Nico: And this…

Nico plunged his hand into Gargoyle's chest and ripped out his beating heart!

Nico: Is a snack for me.

He ate Gargoyle's heart in front of him.

Eli then snapped Gargoyle's neck and Emma chopped his head off!

Laney: Take that!

His spirit then appeared.

Nico: You are not welcome on Earth. (Holds hand out to him) HAKAI!

He was banished to the Warp.

Nico then took off Gargoyle's mask and saw that he was a tan-skinned man with white hair and he had blue eyes.

Nico: Ugly freak.

Lola: Yeah.

But then the whole place rumbled!

Me: Uh oh! This whole place is coming down! Lets go!

We ran fast and got back to the sub and we got in and got out of there just in time.

Lola: That was close.

Nadia: Thank you all for saving my brother.

Arbormon: Well, that's what we do. We help save families.

Mercurymon: Those who we can save, anyway.

Plastique: You think maybe it's time to take the fight to the Aparoids now.

Lori: Actually, I literally think we should take a rain check on that.

Kite Man: How come?

Lynn: Because it's too much fun foiling ther every move.

Lola: Besides, they brought back Qin's parents and Ruby's mom. I'm honestly more interested on what else they have to throw at us.

Me: Well we'll be ready for them when that time comes. Lets get Qin's parents to the infirmary and help them.

Nico: Right.

Nico's face was covered in blood.

Me: How did his heart taste?

Nico: Delicious.

Me: Nice. Lets go home.

Nadia: (To the viewers) This was a fun adventure and we have finally seen the last of the Neo-Atlantean Empire and avenged the people that were killed by Gargoyle.

Me: We sure did.

We went back home and Nadia and her friends were all now part of the team. We went to the living room and watched TV.

Me: (To the viewers) Hope you all have a great Mothers Day with your family and be sure to give your mothers all the love and care they need. Happy Mothers Day!

I winked at the camera and a heart irised in and Happy Mothers Day was around it.

---

Another awesome fanfic done.

Happy Mothers Day to you all and I hope you liked reading this chapter for Nadia: The Secret of Blue Water. That was a great show that was from 1989. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, Etstheclarencefan, Drako1234658, vinjedi1995 and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is an awesome adventure into the Distant Future as we help take on the insane Anemone in the show Eureka Seven and we're gonna try to save her from herself. We'll be going to the year 12,005 and we're going to save Earth from an evil space fungus and get the people back to Earth.

See you all tomorrow.

The 12th Millennium Earth in Peril

At the World Tree Estate we were watching TV while I was reading today's paper.

Me: Well so far nothing is going on. Except for that gang that I lead the FBI to.

Eli: That was clever.

Ets: Yep.

Emma (ELGVTWD): That was good that they won't be causing anymore trouble.

Nunnally: You said it.

Nico was in deep thought.

Nico: (to Lola, Lynn, and Lori) Do you girls think I went a little too far in threatening Burt and Millie?

Lori: (sarcastically) Well, look who's literally starting to get it.

Lynn: Nico, you threatened to send the two of them into the Warp. Burt, we understand. But we don't throw kids like Millie into there. It goes against our code. The Delightful Kids and Jock are the only exceptions.

Nico: You three really think that after Millie said that we didn't have to beat up Kat so badly and that we could've calmly talked to him about what he did?

Lola: Okay, I admit that what Millie said was uncalled for. But the two of them were already feeling bad and you basically rubbed salt in their wounds.

Ultra Humanite: I actually agree with them on this, Nico.

Me: Same with me Nico. I don't blame you for getting mad at Burt and Millie for ignoring Coop and not believing him but threatening them like that is taking things too far.

Eli: That's right Nico.

Emma (ELGVTWD): That Kat did put up a really good front to avoid suspicion.

Twilight Sparkle: It sure did.

Tsunade: (to the Trinity of Violence) First, you three don't join Nico in attempting to terminate Patrick after seeing that comic. Then, you don't want to go after the Aparoids right away. And now, you think Nico threatening Burt and Millie was harsh? Are you sure you girls aren't going soft?

Lori: Well Lady Hokage we may be known as the Trinity of Violence but we also have hearts.

Lynn: Yeah we may get brutal in fights and at home but that doesn't me we don't have feelings and hearts.

Lola: Yeah that's right.

Lady Tsunade: That's a good form of judgement on you.

Nico: It sure is.

Me: I agree. Just because we have incredible powers, we are all still human.

Nico: You're right about that. And I may be a Saiyan but I am human like all of you.

Lola: Yeah!

Me: Lets go to Coop's house and see if we can apologize to them.

Nico: Good idea.

We went to his house.

---

Nico, me and Offroad went inside Coop's house only to find a lot of stuff lying around. Almost like it was broken in by burglars.

Offroad: What happened here?

Me: Whoa man! Looks like a robbery took place here.

Nico: Yeah. But where are Burt and Millie?

Me: I don't see them anywhere.

Offroad: You don't think they were kidnapped do you think?

Me: I have that strong feeling. But this happened to us before.

I then found a note on the table.

Me: What's this?

I picked up the note and read it.

Me: "Dear Team Loud Phoenix Storm, Come and Get Me. Love Anemone." Oh man!

Nico: Who is Anemone?

Me: No idea.

Offroad: J.D., please tell me this is all just part of a plan that you and Nico developed! You two only let Burt and Millie get captured so you can track Anemone down, right?

Nico: Offroad, for once, this isn't a plan of ours. But I wish it was, though.

Me: Nico is right. This is not our doing. But I don't know who this Anemone is.

Offroad: Me neither. This is strange.

Me: Lets get back and tell everyone.

We did so and told everyone everything.

Eli: What!?

Ets: Are you serious!?

Rachel S.D.: Yeah and who is Anemone?

Me: That's a good question Rach and yeah I'm serious. Burt and Millie were kidnapped by this Anemone.

Sideswipe: Please tell me one of you guys knows who Anemone is!

Nico: None of us knows who she is. But we do know this: we're responsible for this. We let our anger at Burt and Millie drive them into a position where they could be captured. And now, it's up to us to save them!

Me: Nico this is not your fault. You had every right to be angry with Burt and Millie for what they did to Coop because of Kat. If anyone is to blame for Coop's misfortunes it's Kat's fault. He did all this. But you are right. We have to save them.

Coop: I say we DON'T save them.

Lola: What do you mean Coop?

Coop: Burt and Millie can die for all I care! They didn't care about me and they can die for what they did!

We gasped in shock!

Me: Coop! That's a terrible thing to say!

Lana: Yeah Coop they are your father and sister!

Coop: NO THEY AREN'T! They stopped being my father and sister when Kat came and it's all their fault!

Me: Coop they didn't know that Kat was an evil alien from another planet.

Coop: I DON'T CARE! THEY DESERVE TO DIE!

Joe Swanson: Whoa whoa Coop! Lets not overreact. But yeah what you're saying is terrible.

Laney: That's right! They don't deserve it Coop.

Lana: Yeah they let their ignorance cloud their minds.

Indigo Zap: Look, Coop. You still need to help us save your dad and sister. If you're still angry at them after that, then you'll have the option of never seeing them again.

Coop: Oh you're right.

Me: Right now we have to find them first. Lets head to the computer.

We went to the computer and I scanned the note and it showed that it came from another version of Earth in the Hydra Galaxy Cluster.

Me: Whoa! Anemone is from a planet Earth in the Hydra Cluster.

Nico: That's where we found the planet RaDos.

Lola: Yeah.

Emma (ELGVTWD): Wow! That's a long ways.

Me: Yep.

I pulled up a scan on this Earth in the Hydra Cluster and what it showed was really shocking. It was a planet Earth that was set in the year 12,005 A.D.!

Me: WHOA! This Earth is set in the year 12,005 A.D.!

We gasped.

Eli: Wow! That's 9,984 years into the future!

Ets: That's a long time!

Emma (ELGVTWD): A REALLY Long time from now.

Rachel S.D.: No kidding. Wow!

Lola: What do you think the Earth is like over there?

Me: We'll have to go over there and see it.

Emma (ELGVTWD): How will we get there? It's a long ways from here.

Me: I know. 157 million light-years away from here. But we've been to many parts of the universe all over.

Whiteout, Duskmon, Mercurymon, Ranamon, Grumblemon, Kite Man, Plastique and Arbormon then appeared.

Whiteout: Can me, Duskmon, Mercurymon, Ranamon, Grumblemon, Kite Man, Plastique, and Arbormon come with you guys?

Me: You all sure can. We're going to another earth set into the distant future.

Eli: It's in the year 12,005 A.D.

Ranamon: Wow!

Kite Man: Wow! That's a long time from now.

Arbormon: It sure is.

Me: Yeah. We have to save Burt and Millie. Lisa, deploy the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix.

Lisa Loud: Affirmative!

We got the ship ready and then we were off to the Hydra Cluster.

---

The U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix was flying through space.

Me: Captain's Log, Stardate 2934.6: The U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix is en route to another planet Earth that is set in the year 12,005 A.D. and our mission is to rescue Burt and Millie Burtonburger who have been kidnapped by a mysterious criminal named Anemone. We don't know who this criminal is or what they are capable of but we're going to rescue Burt and Millie.

Emma (ELGVTWD): Wow! This is so cool that you all go through space like this!

Lola: It sure is Emma.

Nico: Our ship is pretty amazing huh?

Emma (ELGVTWD): I'll say!

Napalm Man: Are we there yet?

Me: No.

Napalm Man: Are we there yet?

Me: No.

Napalm Man: Are we there yet?

Me: No.

Nico: Napalm Man don't do that.

Me: (Laughs) Nice try Napalm Man but that was funny with Bart & Lisa and Homer.

Bart: That's funny.

Lisa Simpson: Yeah it is.

Lisa Loud: We have arrived at our destination.

Me: On screen.

We saw that we were at another version of Earth and it was the one that is set into the 12th millennium.

Nico: Looks like our Earth.

Me: It sure does. Lets land.

We were landing.

We landed on the surface and got out and we saw that the world looked amazing. It was fully one with nature and everything was covered in plants and everything.

Me: Wow! It's like Earth is back to what it was before humans populated it.

Laney: Incredible.

We walked around the city and we saw a kid with black hair and a red suit and he had a girl with aquamarine blue hair and purple eyes and a green dress.

Mercurymon: Hello. Are you the heroes of this world?

Renton: That's right. (Sees us) Whoa! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Me: That's us.

Renton: Wow! It's such an honor to meet you all. My name is Renton Thurston.

Eureka: And I'm Eureka Thurston.

They showed their rings.

Me: Pleasure to meet you both.

Laney: We have a lot to talk about as to why we are here.

Lemon Zest: So, what happened here?

Renton: Well it's a pretty ugly story that happened in 2005 back 10,000 years ago.

He told us everything that happened.

---

Earth is the planet from which human beings originated and lived. It is currently the home to the human population and the Scub Coral.

The humans left the planet some time after the arrival of the Scub Coral, and after spending seven millenniums in outer space, the humans returned to Earth unknowingly. However, almost everyone is unaware that they are now living on Earth, due to how much it has changed from the Scub Coral merging with it.

History

10,000 years ago, the Scub Coral crashed into the Earth's atmosphere sometime in the 21st century and landed in the Pacific Ocean. The Scub Coral began to fuse with the Earth's corals and sea creatures in order seek communication with the humans. However, they failed to understand that they were causing panic and fear among the human population after growing to enormous sizes. The Scub Coral also began to fuse with humans who attempted to destroy them. Eventually, out of desperation and fear for their safety, they built huge space ships and left the planet to find a new place to live.

During the absence of the humans, the Earth had changed; the Scub Coral had completely merged with everything on it and the remaining lifeforms in order to fill in their loneliness. This fusing made the Scub Coral bigger than the planet itself, encasing the original Earth underneath of the mass of Scub Corals. Sometime 3000 years before the series begins, an event happens on the Earth that causes the Scub Coral to awaken and experience the Limit of Questions for the first time. The Scubs force themselves back into hibernation, but not without leaving a mark on the planet, which would later be known as the Great Wall as the laws of physics no longer apply in this area that the Scubs awakened in.

After spending 7,000 years in space, the humans returned to Earth. However, due to how much the planet had changed, they never realized that this was their original home planet, as the whole surface was covered in Scub Coral. They rebuilt the planet into the way Earth had been before they abandoned it, and named the planet "Land of the Kanon", due to it lacking countries and oceans. Some time before the Eureka Seven series began, some humans finally discovered that this planet was their original home planet. Decided amongst the Sage Council, the ruling body of the world, this information would not be released because of the huge size of the current human population would prevent them all from returning to their ships they arrived on. Dewey Novak eventually releases this information to the public, before his attack on the Scub Coral Control Cluster to gain favor amongst the populace and hate towards the Scub Coral.

After getting over the Great Wall in order to reach the promised land, Renton and Eureka discover that the promised land is actually Earth, and they realize that the human population has been living on Earth the whole time without knowing it. After Renton saves Eureka from becoming the next Control Cluster, the Nirvash typeZERO departed with half of the Scub Coral in order to prevent the Limit of Questions from happening again. As a result, more of Earth's original surface is revealed when some of the Scub Coral leaves. By the end of the series, more of Earth's surface, including the Pacific Ocean and Japan, are clearly seen. Also, a green ring of coral encircles the Earth and the moon has a heart embedded with Renton and Eureka's names on it.

When he was finished we were shocked!

Me: Whoa man!

Nico: That's crazy!

Eureka: Yeah.

Renton: It's not all that bad.

We saw on the moon a huge heart and it said Renton & Eureka.

Me: Aww.

Nico: That is so sweet.

Laney: It sure is.

Naruto: Wow. You two are perfect for each other.

Eureka: I know.

Lola: Wow.

Ranamon: We came here because we're looking for someone called Anemone.

Renton: Why her?

Me: You see, she kidnapped these two.

I pulled out a photo of Burt and Millie Burtonburger.

Me: They were taken by her from our Earth in the Milky Way Galaxy.

Nico: But first what can you tell us about Anenome?

Renton: You would not like her.

Eureka: She is totally unstable.

They told us about her.

---

Anemone is the main antagonist of the anime series Eureka Seven. Though she is one of the characters that is gets the primary focus, she is considered a villain protagonist. Eureka is mentally unstable and a merciless killer.

Anemone's true name is unknown, she was born as a normal human and lived a happy life with her parents until ten years before the main story takes place.

When she was only 7 years old, in the aftermath of The First Summer of Love and several civil wars broke out, her parents died and Anemone was struck with the Desperation Disease. She was found by the Federation military and taken in to be a human military experiment. After the discovery of humanoid Coralians, the military sought to create their own artificial humanoid Coralians and Anemone became the first subject to survive the horrific experiments, as the rest of the subjects died. As a result of the experiments, her hair turned pink, her face was constructed to resemble the original humanoid Coralian, she has the eyes of a Coralian, and she had developed a mental connection to the Scub Coral, but left her physically and mentally unbalanced.

When the main story takes place, Dewey informs Dominic that he will be bringing in his new weapon, which Dominic will care for, and it turns out to be Anemone. She is declared to be the pilot of theEND and her purpose is to fight and defeat the Nirvash TypeZERO, along with its pilots, Eureka and Renton. Due to Dewey's influence, Anemone quickly develops a murderous hatred towards the Gekkostate, mainly towards Eureka. Dewey sends her to fight the TypeZERO when a Kute Coralian appears. At the time, theEND was far more advanced and equipped than the TypeZERO, despite the latter being the most powerful LFO ever created, and Renton and Eureka have a hard time keeping up with her. She uses her most powerful weapon, the Vascud Crisis. This and the effects of the high trapar from the Coralian cause them to be sent into the Zone and experience hallucinations. Renton and Eureka are separated, and Anemone finds Renton. She starts off by teasing him but it becomes clear that she intends to kill him before the Coralian disappears and they return to the real world. Anemone and Eureka are knocked unconscious from the effects of the Zone, causing Dominic and Renton to work together to get medicine for the girls. While Renton takes Eureka back to the Gekkostate, Dominic takes Anemone back to Dewey's base. Anemone's unstable mental state is frequently a problem to Dominic, as he becomes the subject to her violent mood swings and attacks. She constantly lashes out at him for never understanding what she is going through to prove her worthiness and her struggle to defeat the TypeZERO, out of fear of disappointing Dewey and losing the purpose of her existence.

Dominic tries to comfort her during her times of despair, but is often rejected or dismissed by Anemone, who considers him useless and stupid to help her. However, Dewey has no sympathy or affection towards Anemone, often referring to her as "it" or "that thing", which angers Dominic. Initially, it appears that Anemone had no idea of what Dewey thought about her and that her actions mainly stem from the pressure she puts on herself to please him and show her more favoritism, and her fear is that if she ever failed, he would discard her or simply eliminate her and find a replacement for theEND. For a while after their first battle, Anemone had not participated in any confrontations with the Gekkostate and constantly cried out how theEND was calling out to her in pain because it wanted to fly with her. After the TypeZERO has been upgraded, Dewey sends Anemone and theEND to fight against it so see how sufficient the upgrades are. Anemone disregards the news of the upgrades, believing theEND is still just as strong as Nirvash, but to her horror, Renton and Eureka are able to easily activate the Seven Swell Phenomenon and defeat her, sending her plummeting to the ground and left her shaken that the two had likely surpassed her. This also earned her displeasure from Dewey, heightening her fear that she will more likely be discarded for her failure. When the Gekkostate invaded the Capital to rescue Norb from Dewey, Dominic was trying to warn the Ageha crew about the upgrades of the Nirvash when Anemone pulled him aside and demanded for him to tell her if he thought Dewey would give her a third chance at fighting the Nirvash. Dominic assured her he would and that she will win the next fight, but Anemone called him stupid for taking it all so easily.
